

DR. NOYES SPEAKS TO KNOX COUNTY FARMERS

Dr. B. R. Noyes met with a group of 35 farmers Thursday night, September 28 at the Rhineland School to explain the Community Plan of testing cattle for Bang's Disease. A representative group of farmers from all section of the county were present and plans are being made to start testing areas in the near future. The testing will be starting in the Rhineland Community where the majority of the farmers have already signed up requesting the testing.

Dr. Noyes explained to the group that one test was not adequate and to thoroughly clean up a badly infested herd, Bang's tests must be made every 60 days for a year, to absolutely eradicate the herd of the infection. Cows can be tested negative and another test made in 60 days will show the cow to be a bad reactor.

Similar cases are now being reported to County Agent Rice who has been assisting with the work. Anyone desirous of a testing their cattle should submit their names to the County Agent's office, and if enough farmers sign up in each community, the testing will be made possible. The Department will test all the cattle in a community or the cattle in fairly large herds, said Rice.

Here With Show-

Jeannie Layne, acrobatic dancer, is one of the feature vaudeville attractions with Harley Sadler's tent theatre which plays a one night engagement in Knox City on Saturday night, October 7th, under the auspices of the fire department. In addition to Miss Layne, other vaudeville acts are Henry, world traveler, artist and magician; Jesse Rogers, popular radio entertainer from station XEPA, Del Rio; Eddie LaVerne, accordionist; Virginia Goodman, blues singer; Billy Heath, singer; the Musical Battens, eccentric musicians, and a 10-piece orchestra under the direction of Bob Siler. The play to be presented in Knox City is "He Couldn't Take It."

GET CROP INSURANCE BEFORE OCTOBER 15

Farmers should take out wheat insurance before October 15, according to County Agent Walter Rice. Wheat insurance has taken the risk out of wheat farming, and it seems that every farmer should take out insurance this year. Wheat insurance is figured in terms of bushels of wheat taking on the average of 1 1/2 bushels of wheat to insure for approximately 9 bushels of wheat or 75% of the crop. If the farm has an adjusted yield of 12 bushels per acre, 75% of the crop will guarantee 9 bushels. This type of insurance covers all general farm hazards, as failure due to drought, hail, fire, or any other uncontrollable cause of failure. Farmers should call at the County Agent's office before October 15 if they are interested in securing wheat insurance.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING

The City Council met Tuesday night with members, Mayor C. C. Hoge, O. W. Caussey and E. B. Shaver present. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The bills for the month of September were ordered paid. The council also approved the city tax roll for 1939.

Through the courtesy of City Clerk J. G. Dutton, we publish the city valuation for 1938 and 1939:

1939 Real Estate	$282,190.00
Total for 1939	$422,615.00
1938 Personal Property	$154,720.00
1938 Real Estate	$280,220.00
Total for 1938	$434,940.00

City Clerk Dutton reports that there was more water used in the city during the month of September, than has ever been used in Knox City, since the water system was installed.

KEEP KNOX CITY SAFE FROM FIRE

In observance of National Fire Prevention Week, October 8th to 14th, Fire Chief Casey Jones offers the following suggestions to the public to lessen the danger of fire. Observance of these "Don'ts" the year around may prevent innumerable loss of lives and property.

DON'T leave oily rags to accumulate in the cellar or out-of-the-way corners. Fire by spontaneous combustion may result! Throw rags away.

DON'T use explosive cleaning fluids. Many fires are caused when cleaning is done at home.

DON'T depend upon cheap electrical wiring or inferior appliances or fixtures. Use only approved wiring.

DON'T drop burning matches indoors or outdoors. Use ash trays or make sure that match is out before throwing it away. Stop Fire.

DON'T neglect cleaning and repairing flues and chimneys. Many fires are caused by sparks from a defective chimney. Stop fire.

DON'T fail to protect open lights and to shield or screen open fire places.

DON'T thaw out frozen pipes with an open flame. Use only rags that have been saturated with hot water. Be careful—stop fire.

DON'T keep matches, cigarettes or cigar stubs where your children can get them. Teach family and employees safety habits. Stop fire.

NEW HEATING SYSTEM IN BAPTIST CHURCH

The congregation at the Baptist church intend to keep warm this winter. A new Janitrol Unit Heater has been installed this week, and this system is guaranteed to keep the auditorium at 72 degrees in zero weather. A large fan distributes the heat evenly throughout the building.

R. K. Phillips made a business trip to Abilene and Stamford Wednesday.

Novel entertainment will be featured in the forth coming P. T. A. Halloween Carnival. The entertainment committee has chosen for the main attraction this year "Casa en el Rancho", or Home on the Range. It is a musical comedy depicting the early life of the frontier settlers. It is colorful, romantic, with plenty of action.

Preparations are already being made for this very exciting show. The orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Milton Bradberry, began their practice some days ago.

J. Bud Farrar, Mrs. E. R. Carpenter, Mrs. E. Q. Warren, Miss Patricia Reagan, Jack Wetzel, and Mrs. Bradberry are working on plans to make a complete evening of delightful entertainment for the entire family.

As an added attraction this year, the Parent Teacher Association will sponsor a museum in connection with the annual Halloween Carnival.

Among the interesting and educational articles already in the collection is a shaving mug which belonged to General Robert E. Lee, a display of war guns, old quilts, a sixty year old Sears-Roebuck catalogue, genuine coral from the South Sea Islands, a collection of 327 china dogs, and a group of unusual live birds. These are only a few of the articles you will see in the museum.

If you have an antique, relic, or an unusual or interesting collection, share them with the public. The P. T. A. will appreciate any article you can loan for the occasion. For information concerning the museum see Mrs. W. E. Marr or Miss Opal Lambright.

WILL GIVE BANGS TEST TO CATTLE

According to L. W. Graham, local dairyman, the State Sanitation Commission will give the Bangs Test to all dairy cattle in this section, if they can get the cooperation of the local people. The people in this community are asked to mail the cards received from the Sanitation Commission back to the Commission as soon as they are received. If the people will cooperate in this matter, the Bangs disease among dairy cattle will be stamped out, said Mr. Graham.

Rev. A. W. Blaine of Vera was a visitor here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Marr were Rule visitors Sunday.

MATRESS IMPORTANT FOR HEALTH & COMFORT
By Miss Nina Astin
Co. Home Demonstration Agent

You sleep one-third of your life—choose sleep equipment wisely. According to Mrs. Bernice Clayton, Extension Specialist in Home Improvement, comfortable, healthful, sleep is largely dependant upon a good mattress. The mattress should be sufficiently firm to support the body and yield enough to conform to every curve of the body and to the movements of the sleeper.

"Men have been known to live 63 days without food, and a week without water—but they usually die in less than 10 days if totally deprived of sleep." Rest is measured in the amount of energy and vitality with which you face the day. In your pep—or lack of it.

If your mattress is poorly built, your nerves and muscles can't relax properly. You can stay in bed nine hours or more, and still not get the right amount of rest. Deep, sound, refreshing sleep, with the body perfectly relaxed, will cause one to awake refreshed, alert mentally; with sparkling eyes; and with physical vigor that enables one to cope successfully with the problems of this busy world.

Mrs. Clayton also says that if funds are limited, it will be found economical to make mattresses from cotton raised on the farm. Mattresses can be made at home that are perfectly satisfactory and comfortable if directions are followed carefully. To be certain of a good mattress use only high grade cotton and materials clean and sanitary.

Mattress demonstrations are to be given in Knox county by the Home Demonstration Agent and the public is invited to attend these meetings. Watch your local paper for the dates and places for these demonstrations if your interest in mattress making.

Demonstrations will be given at Gilliland Wednesday, Oct. 4, at the church building, and at Munday on October 27. A demonstration was given at Sunset Monday, October 2. A covered dish luncheon was served to fifteen women of the community.

U. S. MARINE CORPS NEEDS 6,000 MEN

The United States Marine Corps is now making a canvass of inland towns, particularly rural communities, with the view of finding the very best young men possible for enlistment in the Marines. Postmaster J. A. Wilson said today.

Only 6,000 young men out of the slightly more than 108,000 increase in complements of all the armed forces of the national defense are authorized by President Roosevelt for the Marine Corps. Thus, only one man out of each group of eighteen qualified applicants will be accepted for service with the "Leathernecks."

Requirements for enlistment remain the same — between 18 and 30 years of age, white, unmarried and without dependents, not less than 64 nor more than 74 inches tall, of good moral character, and of excellent physical condition.

Postmaster Wilson also stated that he is being kept advised by the Marine Corps Recruiting District Headquarters of Dallas, of the requirements for enlistment, for the information of young men of this locality. Preliminary physical examinations may now be made by a local physician, after which the Dallas office will advise applicants whether or not to proceed to that city for final examination.

NEW 1940 CHEVROLET TO BE SHOWN OCT. 14 AT ASHCROFT MOTOR CO.

Mr. J. M. Ashcroft, local Chevrolet dealer, in an interview today looked forward to a bright future with the showing of the new 1940 Chevrolet at the Ashcroft Motor Co., on Saturday, October 14.

Mr. Ashcroft commented upon the economic importance of the automobile industry, of which Chevrolet is an important part. The automobile industry is the second largest industry in the United States, the meat packing industry being first.

It is also interesting to note in this connection that there were only seven industries in the United States in 1931 that were doing a business over the billion dollar mark.

The importance of the automobile industry may be further realized by a brief comparison of the transportation it furnishes with that of the steam rail ways. Someone has said that the steam railways are the arteries of our nation. If that is true, automobile transportation is the network of capillaries that distributes the life blood of commerce to every cranny and nook reached by man.

The automobile transports man, and everything man needs to sustain life and give him pleasure, in any direction, at any hour of the day or night and under all conditions of weather. It not only traverses the highways, but transports men and goods over every part of the world, making possible the development of land in hitherto inaccessible sections and thus adding to the total wealth of the world.

Mr. Ashcroft continued by informing us that again Chevrolet will do its part in adding to man's transportation facilities by giving the public a new and improved model which will be on display Saturday, Oct. 14.

REPUBLICAN PARTY BANKRUPT

As 1940 approaches, the American people are naturally going to become more and more interested in the nominees of the two major parties. Complex economic conditions, together with the plaguing problems brought on by the European war, make it absolutely necessary that the next occupant of the White House be a man thoroughly capable of handling the job. Whom do the two major parties have to offer?

It must be admitted that both have an abundance of ordinary men, any one of whom could make a mediocre, mill run President. But the country is neither in the mood nor in any shape economically for such a man. The dictator countries have emphasized the importance of the strong executive in government. This being true, we should elect a man who is thoroughly capable, so he can cope with the able diplomats of Europe on an equal footing. Besides, even though this is a long war, it will probably come to a close before the end of the next President's first term. We might, therefore, be in a position where we would badly need a strong, able man, who could look after our interests when treaty-making time comes.

The Democratic party is rich in leadership. We don't agree with some of them by a long shot, but that doesn't keep them from being able men just the same. To name some of the leaders, we have Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cordell Hull, Al Smith, Paul McNutt, Wm. G. McAdoo, Owen D. Young and John Garner. There are others. On the other hand the Republican party is bankrupt in leadership. Its plight in this respect is really pitiful. Its leadership is the weakest in fifty years. To illustrate, let's take its corps of leaders. Take Senator Borah, for instance. He's as contrary as a Missouri mule. He is a critic, pure and simple, and those fellows rarely make good constructive leaders. Borah couldn't get along with himself, if he were elected.

Senator George Norris is able, liberal, and broad minded, but he is too old, and besides he is more of a Democrat than a Republican, anyway.

Hiram Johnson, California, is in a class with Borah. He is a good knocker, but a poor builder.

Dewey is a good prosecutor, but in national and international affairs he is an infant. And during these trying times, we want no Little Red Ridinghood to be gobbled up by the European wolves.

"Old Two Car One Chicken Hoover pretty nearly ruined us when he was in there. Nobody but a glutton for punishment would want him again.

Senator Taft, Ohio, has been mentioned, but he will not do. His faulty thinking is well illustrated by his favoring a general sales tax on everybody to support social security rather than placing a tax on the employer and the employee, as is the case now.

The independent Chicago Times in speaking of Mr. Taft's position on social security says, "Isn't this just a little strange that an exponent of rugged individualism should oppose having the wage earners contribute directly to their own old age insurance? Or that one who seeks to lead the party that proclaims its business-like efficiency should object to having benefit payments earned, and not a matter of public charity? For whom does Mr. Taft speak when he desires to substitute sales taxes for the successfully operating payroll deductions?"

Senator Vandenberg of Michigan is in the Senate today because at one time he supported most of the New Deal measures proposed by President Roosevelt. He never had a constructive thought on government in his life. He would make a typical, reactionary, Republican President, if elected, and we don't need that kind of man. We may be sure that any man put up by the G.O.P. will be reactionary. Otherwise, they would not nominate him at all.

So running through the whole list of possibilities, we find that they are mediocre, and know of no alternative to the New Deal but the Old Deal, and nobody wants that. None of them have the slightest acquaintance with the tricky, intricate, dangerous international affairs. Any way you look at the present Republican leadership, it is absolutely bankrupt.

BE PREPARED

Shakespeare says, "They who thrive well take counsel of their friends." As a friend of the young generation attending high school and college, we would say while you are young and free from the cares of adult life, use your time well in preparation for maturity and old age.

There are millions of unemployed today, but there is still a place for all those who have unusual qualifications. Don't just glide along, taking the course of least resistance. Have a definite aim and goal in life, and fit your school work into this scheme of things, preparing yourself for exactly that thing you would like to do when you finish school.

Ships don't just drift into port. They reach their destination because there is a pilot at the helm who has accurately mapped and charted his course through the briny deep. In the same way, you get places in life because you know where you want to go, and because you have an accurate blueprint of the course to reach your destination.

Opportunity knocks "unbidden, once at every gate."

the poet says. Waste the golden moments of your youth, and spend the rest of your life in vain, heartbreaking regret.

THE THORNY PATH WE TREAD

As we see it, Uncle Sam has no bed of roses in the field of international relations. This nation dare not go unprepared in a world bristling with machine guns and bayonets. And if it emphasizes military affairs too much, it will be in danger of building up a military clique that will destroy its freedom as ruthlessly as has been done in Germany, Russia and Japan. Military cliques are the same in their operations all over the world. So how to save the country from outside domination, without losing the soul of democracy is the trying, all-absorbing problem facing American statesmanship.

The fact that millions of men are without work in this country makes this thing a still more dangerous possibility. We don't want to cross any bridges until we get to them. Neither do we want to close our eyes to stern realities. Ten or twelve million unemployed men might, with shrewd propaganda, become a fertile field for the militarist, who could hold out permanent employment to them in the army and the navy. Our American people are smart and hard headed, but they are also daring and impulsive, and they might be willing to build up such a machine through fear that some other government might be licking its lips, ready to gobble us up. To us these appear as real and certain dangers.

How easy it would be for Congress and some President to decide to spend money that is being spent now on WPA, NYA, CCC, on the army and navy. Then they could decree that all those who needed government help could shoulder their guns and get in training. If this were done, then we would need to be supermen, if it did not destroy our democratic form of government like a Frankenstein monster. We believe this is the most trying time our government has had in the last one hundred years. If we are right, then it is time for all sensible men to come to the aid, not of their party but of their country. If we can keep our heads when all the nations around us are losing theirs; if we can prepare for war, and not make preparation our aim and master; if we can trust ourselves when all other nations are torn with doubt; if we can build a giant's strength, and not be tempted to use it, like some other nations have done in the past, for our own military glory and the destruction of the freedom and liberty of some other nation—then Rome in all her pride and Greece in her transcendent glory will not be the equal of us.

Riding the Range

By the Range Rider

A keen brain and a full stomach never go well together. No one ever turned out an intellectual achievement of note when his stomach was full. Many a good speech, or brilliant sermon, has been destroyed by a big meal.

John L. Lewis said Mr. Garner was an "evil old man." Mrs. Garner said "taint so." That ought to settle one thing. If Mr. Garner can make his wife believe him like that, he's good enough diplomat to be President.

It's said that Mussolini's daughter, Edda, wears the diplomatic pants in Italy. This all goes to show that brains and personal charm have their reward, no matter what the sea or the country or the politics.

Just to prove that there is nothing in a name. It is said that the best natural fighters in all the world is an African tribe called Fuzzy Wuzzies.

It's said nothing ruins a Hollywood movie star like a good, old fashioned case of swell head. It has been our observation that this ruins any kind of a career—farming, politics, law, or whatnot. The wise man never lets his cranium expand. It is said Mickey Rooney, the boy wonder of the screen, is getting a case of it. If he does, it's good bye Mickey.

A man really learns how to live about the time he is ready to die.

Russia has no great leaders, military or otherwise. Everyone with ability has been shot down by Stalin long ago.

Somehow we can't help but feel old Stalin is playing tomcat in Europe's crazy game, watching and waiting for mouse Hitler to bleed his nation white. Then he'll pounce on him.

Either there is a woolly headed specimen in the stovewood pile in Europe in the war or England and France didn't use their heads in helping Poland. Otherwise, why did the German generals so completely outwit the Poles?

If every living human being was six feet tall, one and a half feet wide, and a foot thick, the whole bloomin' race, comprising about two billion people, could be packed in a cube box, one half mile in depth, length and width. The race has certainly multiplied since the days of Adam and his apple-eating boss, Eve, but still it doesn't take up much room. How insignificant is man; how tremendous is God.

We don't know why, but there are two fellows we always watch—one is the guy who always brags about how good and honest he is, and the other is the one claiming to be non partisan politically. We have a feeling that something is slipping up on our blind side.

Amos said to Andy, "What for you poutin' so, Andy?" Andy says, "I'm tired of acting as a limb when my chickens come home to roost."

It did us a lot of good to read where old "Happy Warrior" Al Smith was going to make a speech favoring Roosevelt's stand on the Neutrality Act. We believed all the time "Al" was too big a man to pout indefinitely. He has belonged with the administration all along.

As we see it, the United States is much safer with England as a neighbor in Canada than she would be with Herr Hitler. So in order to help keep our present neighbor, we had better repeal the embargo like Roosevelt says, and help England and France this way, rather than be compelled later, maybe, to do it in a more dangerous and bloody manner. Any way you look at it, this man Roosevelt is pitching 'em right down the old alley.

W. Lee O'Daniel's son, Mike, has been offered a movie contract. All we can say is if he is anything like the showman his dad is, he'd be a wow on the screen.

A prominent pastor said the other day, "America is riding for a fall." He gave his reasons for thinking so, and told why he thought Egypt, Rome and Greece fell. We don't care to argue whether he is right or wrong. But we do know one thing: Egypt fell because her kings, in building the pyramids drained the country of its resources and ground the common people into the dust of abject poverty. The common people of Rome and Greece were destroyed in one way or another. This should teach us a lesson.

If America preserves a strong rank and file of her people, she will never fall. On the other hand, if she destroys this class, she will be doomed, like Babylon, to fall and to rise no more. As a poet once said, "Princess and lords may perish make them, as a breath has made; but a bold peasantry, their country's pride, when once destroyed, can never be supplied."

Adolph Hitler thinks he's a super-man, and in many ways he is a strong man; but we'll bet a Jew's chances of being head man in Germany that he couldn't ride the ranges in Texas and Oklahoma, during the hot wind season, without getting that dinky little mustache of his singed off.

We nominate for the best motion picture of the year so far, "Man of Conquest." Here you see old Sam Houston rise to the Governorship of Tennessee; then you see his wife quit him, making his heart so causing him to resign that Governorship and go to Texas.

In Texas, you watch the scroll of history unroll. The Battle of the Alamo makes you shudder. In this battle, you see Bowie, Fannin, Travis and Crockett lay down their lives for Texas and freedom. Then comes San Jacinto and victory. Texas becomes a proud republic with Sam Houston as her first President. Then she joins the great procession of states, the Lone Star is hoisted down, the Stars and Stripes proudly flutter from her masthead, and we see old Sam as her first Governor.

Running through the picture like a sweet refrain is the arduous friendship, and battle of wits, between Sam Houston and Andrew Jackson, President of the United States. Then at last, Sam Houston takes his little son to the bedside of Jackson in death, and there says to him, "My son, try to remember that you have looked on the face of Andrew Jackson." When you get there, if you don't have a lump in your throat your control over your emotions has ours skinned a whole city block.

Volley Ball Progressing Nicely

The volleyball girls, under the direction of Mrs. Baker, reported great improvements in the past week. The girls have been drilled on a few of the major points by Mr. Cook and are progressing rapidly. By the time of the first game, sometime in November, the girls should be in tip top shape.

Acting of the Speech Class

The speech class has organized a club called the "Scene Shifters." This class plans to present plays and skits of various types.

The books have arrived for the first play and the name is "Spooky Tavern." Also the class is presenting a radio skit called "The Mother Who Went Away" for the Book Club Friday, October 6.

The cast has not yet been selected for "Spooky Tavern," but the class has some excellent material. The date for this play has not been announced, but it is planned to present it soon. Watch this space for the date, and be sure to see the play.

Dignified? Freshmen

The Freshmen are trying to be better than the Sophomores, Juniors or Seniors. It seems as though they have heard some gossip about the "fishes." The Seniors say that the Freshmen are going to have to be taken down a notch or two, but they are going to keep on being more dignified than the Seniors.

Some of the Freshmen went on a picnic Saturday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. They ate their picnic lunch in front of the McGee home. Mrs. Coates and Mrs. Bohannon accompanied them. They hope to go on another picnic soon.

Homemaking Classes

The homemaking classes are to begin their home projects this week so if one of the girls asks you to sample a biscuit or a pie, please do — it's all in the project.

We then plan to begin our club work in the near future, in anticipation of a trip to the state rally next spring. The girls who went to Galveston last year will tell you that it is worth the effort.

Band Greets Abilene Boosters

Wednesday afternoon the Abilene Boosters stopped in Knox City, and the Greyhound Band marched to town and gave them a big welcome. The band played several numbers, including the "Beer Barrel Polka," then the Abilene Lions Club Band joined in and played "Under the Double Eagle," making a grand number.

P. T. A. Carnival

Plans are in the making for a Halloween carnival with the theme "Westward Ho!" Watch the paper for further details. Prepare to eat from the Chuck Wagon.

Hobbying Around the Kennel

This week those sophisticated Juniors and dignified Seniors fall heir to a particularly unfortunate feature column.

In portraying the various students that are discussed here you will take a bird's eye view of a very industrious study hall.

First you will see Margaret Dutton diligently laboring over a beautiful girl she has almost drawn. Margaret has chosen drawing as her hobby for the present and from all appearances it will prove to be her career.

Bobby Armstrong is over there near the library with a number of agricultural magazines piled around him. This is all accounted for because Bobby's hobby is agricultural study and stock breeding.

Johnnie Mae Durham seems intensely interested in a small book. Ah, yes! She is writing in it — a diary, no doubt. Her hobby is keeping tab on her daily accountances.

George and David, with reference books, magazines and pamphlets cluttering their desks, are making the most of a misfortune. Their hobby of mischief and a five hundred word theme was assigned.

L. N. has a more preserving hobby. Kodaking is the lime-light, and believe it or not, he has a synopsis (in pictures) of the various trips he has taken.

Anita Wampler answered an inquiry about her hobby with a pert retort that she enjoyed collecting what-nots. Maybe she should have been asked what kind of what nots.

There in the corner sits Geneva Mills with a somewhat reminiscent appearance. This can well be explained by her hobby of poetry collecting.

Marjorie Propps has a front view of the south road passing the high school building. A seat in this position makes her hobby of collecting license (favorite) plates more convenient as the cars pass.

Ah! There is the bell and you are forced away from the door, contented with knowing the individual interests of the various students.

Kennel Comments

Here I sit, christened with a "coke" bottle or something, and a new column is under way.

This is the best year for yellow journalism the school has seen in some time. Only two people in this institution are immune from the flaming pen of this soul-less columnist. They are Mr. Whittis and Mr. Cook.

This year it is the purpose of the staff to not take up space with foolish jabbering, but to print the unbiased facts as seen by students of this institution. If you have done something which you would rather not have printed, then get your name on the list, for you have about one more week to prepare your immunity. The price will be ten cents, and if your story is not worth the price, then your money will be refunded.

Getting acquainted this year should be an easy matter, for we have a common interest to pull us together — band. If you see a Freshman girl who appeals to you, don't be bashful or backward, approach her and mutter "We got them, all 200 subscriptions." It is as simple as that. Then all you have to do is just watch a certain Freshman couple and act like them.

The band has been running all over the country the past week, and I mean all over the country, in somewhat successful attempts to sell subscriptions to the Knox County Herald. They ended a week's campaign with 210 subscriptions. They expect to be dyked out soon in some snazzy new uniforms. There is more to be heard of them in the future.

As yet it has been impossible to make an accurate check on the progress of the various love affairs through the summer, but it is safe to say that a Ford V-8 and a girl with brown eyes (the immortal lovers) still enjoy the companionship of each other.

A breath of tragedy comes to this column, and we hear the fable about some of the poor Seniors who went to the show Thursday night and up came Friday morning with an exam in English. Just ask a few of them how Andy Hardy, Shakespeare and Chaucer mix.

Band Fund Increasing

The band members are already seeing themselves in new uniforms. Some of the band mothers helped get subscriptions in order to get the full two hundred. In all, there were 210 subscriptions sold. Besides that money, the band made $22.50 from the bridge party and scavenger hunt. If anyone misses anything, they may depend on it being taken by the "treasure" hunters. The hunters especially thank Roy Baker for his twenty-five pennies.

Saturday the band had another rummage sale. This time $21.81 was made. The chances of getting new uniforms now are excellent.

Who's Who in the Senior Class

Rufus Doyle White was born March 1, 1923, at Knox City. He started to school at Knox City and has attended the same school all his life.

Some of his favorites are: Color, blue; song, "Beer Barrel Polka"; subject, Texas History; sport, football; pastime, bowling; dislike, nervous people.

Rufus is six feet and one inch tall, has blue eyes, brown hair, and a quiet way of winning friends. His hobby is collecting match boxes. He is a member of the Greyhound Band and plays a clarinet. He plans to enter college and major in salesmanship.

Juniors Have Program

Friday afternoon, Sept. 29, the Juniors presented a program in their home room. It was the first of its kind to be presented by any of the high school classes. Since the Juniors were inexperienced in presenting programs, they had some difficulty in arranging it.

The program consisted of songs, "Especially For You," "Comes Love," and "An Apple for the Teacher," led by Marjorie Propps, Dorothy Warren and Helon Ruth Marr. This was followed by a speech, "Study Habits," by Henry Jean Jones. Mr. Whittis also gave some ideas on the same subject.

The other high school classes were represented by the following: Seniors, Margaret Dutton and Dickie Mullins; Sophomores, Emma Jean Shaver and Tomi Jane Teaff, and Freshmen, Norma Janice Coates and Pauline Yarbrough.

The Juniors wish to thank each visitor that attended the

Third Grade Industrious

The third grade is completing their grocery store this week. They have decided to call it "Knox City Grocery."

They are going to make corn bread this week just like the Indians used to do. They have some pine boughs and pine cones in their room that Miss Lambright brought them from East Texas. She also brought some persimmons, holly, acorns and sweet gum boughs. These things from East Texas are enjoyed very much.

Second Grade Traveling

The second grade is studying about transportation. They are drawing pictures of the ways we used to travel. The children plan to construct a large ship and train.

First Grade News

Wayburn Lane came back to school today. We are very glad to have him back.

We are studying about "Our Home" and "Our Family." We are planning our new home which will be located in our room.

WINTER'S DASTARD 90 HOURS

skipped by OIL-PLATING your engine today

Can you figure on your car's Daily Winter Starting Schedule being any briefer than this?...

- No. 1 Start + GOING TO WORK
- No. 2 Start + GOING TO LUNCH
- No. 3 Start + RETURNING FROM LUNCH
- No. 4 Start + GOING HOME FROM WORK
- No. 5 Start + GOING TO THE MOVIE
- No. 6 Start + GOING HOME FROM MOVIE

Could half-a-dozen starts or so get you through a day? Will your icy engine turn lukewarm in only 5 or 6 minutes? Even so, just think what that comes to, all through these bad months!... Total: 90 hours!

90 tough hours—and often more. A whole 90 hours when oiling that comes from "fast flow" alone lags far behind the sure lubrication that comes from changing today to OIL-PLATING.

OIL-PLATING is ready to lubricate sooner than any oil ever can flow—sooner than "instantly!"—because patented Conoco Germ Processed oil forces OIL-PLATING into a durable bond with the engine parts. OIL-PLATING becomes part of the parts!

CONOCO GERM PROCESSED OIL

from Your Mileage Merchant

They can't drain dry of OIL-PLATING. They remain "bathed in slippiness" all day, all night, in all weather, even with your car at a standstill. That's why OIL-PLATING lets your engine slide into swift, safe, dragless action, instead of letting it suffer Winter's worst 90 hours—along with your battery. Slash starting time; stretch your time between quarts to the limit, by changing to Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station today for your right Winter Germ Processed oil. That's your way to Winter OIL-PLATING. Continental Oil Company

METHODIST CHURCH

In a day long past there was a confused man. He wrote the seventy-third Psalm. He said of himself: "My feet were almost gone, my steps had nearly slipped." He could not reason out his problem; he had no solution for his difficulty. The more he tried to understand, the more confused he became.

When I thought to know this man, until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I! In the atmosphere of worship with God's people he understood.

If you are confused, if you have lost your footing, go to church tomorrow? Perhaps there you too may find God and an understanding of your problems.

The Methodist church invites you to their services. The pastor will preach at both services morning and evening.

The Freshmen are trying to be better than the Sophomores, Juniors or Seniors. It seems as though they have heard some gossip about the "fishes." The Seniors say that the Freshmen are going to have to be taken down a notch or two, but they are going to keep on being more dignified than the Seniors.

Some of the Freshmen went on a picnic Saturday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. They ate their picnic lunch in front of the McGee home. Mrs. Coates and Mrs. Bohannon accompanied them. They hope to go on another picnic soon.

Homemaking Classes

The homemaking classes are to begin their home projects this week so if one of the girls asks you to sample a biscuit or a pie, please do — it's all in the project.

We then plan to begin our club work in the near future, in anticipation of a trip to the state rally next spring. The girls who went to Galveston last year will tell you that it is worth the effort.

Band Greets Abilene Boosters

Wednesday afternoon the Abilene Boosters stopped in Knox City, and the Greyhound Band marched to town and gave them a big welcome. The band played several numbers, including the "Beer Barrel Polka," then the Abilene Lions Club Band joined in and played "Under the Double Eagle," making a grand number.

P. T. A. Carnival

Plans are in the making for a Halloween carnival with the theme "Westward Ho!" Watch the paper for further details. Prepare to eat from the Chuck Wagon.

Hobbying Around the Kennel

This week those sophisticated Juniors and dignified Seniors fall heir to a particularly unfortunate feature column. In portraying the various students that are discussed here you will take a bird's eye view of a very industrious study hall.

First you will see Margaret Dutton diligently laboring over a beautiful girl she has almost drawn. Margaret has chosen drawing as her hobby for the present and from all appear-hobby of poetry collecting.

Marjorie Propps has a front view of the south road passing the high school building. A seat in this position makes her hobby of collecting license (favorite) plates more convenient as the cars pass.

Ah! There is the bell and you are forced away from the door, contented with knowing the individual interests of the various students.

Kennel Comments

Here I sit, christened with a "coke" bottle or something, and a new column is under way.

This is the best year for yellow journalism the school has seen in some time. Only two people in this institution are immune from the flaming pen of this soul-less columnist. They are Mr. Whitis and Mr. Cook.

This year it is the purpose of the staff to not take up space with foolish jabbering, but to print the unbiased facts as seen by students of this institution. If you have done something which you would rather not have printed, then get your name on the list, for you have about one more week to prepare your immunity. The price will be ten cents, and if your story is not worth the price, then your money will be refunded.

Getting acquainted this year should be an easy matter, for we have a common interest to pull us together — band. If you see a Freshman girl who appeals to you, don't be bashful or backward, approach her and mutter "We got them, all 200 subscriptions." It is as simple as that. Then all you have to do is just watch a certain Freshman couple and act like them.

The band has been running all over the country the past week, and I mean all over the country, in somewhat successful attempts to sell subscriptions to the Knox County Herald. They ended a week's campaign with 210 subscriptions. They expect to be dyked out soon in some snazzy new uniforms. There is more to be heard of them in the future.

As yet it has been impossible to make an accurate check on the progress of the various love affairs through the summer, but it is safe to say that a Ford V-8 and a girl with brown eyes (the immortal lovers) still enjoy the companionship of each other.

A breath of tragedy comes to this column, and we hear the
