NEWLY-CROWNED 1974 KNOX COUNTY LIVESTOCK SWEETHEART DEBBIE REESE, right, accepts an engraved plaque from 1973 Sweetheart Kary Kent. Miss Reese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reese, also received a dozen red roses along with the honor. She was chosen from a field of seven candidates.

Debbie Reese Crowned Livestock Sweetheart

Debbie Reese was named 1974 Knox County Livestock Sweetheart at the annual banquet held in the Munday Junior High School Cafeteria last Thursday night. Runner up honors went to Cindy Haynie of Munday. The banquet was catered by cafeteria personnel.

Debbie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reese of Knox City, was crowned by 1973 Livestock Sweetheart Kary Kent of Knox City.

A junior at Knox City High School, Debbie is FFA Chapter Sweetheart. She was named Miss Firefighter last year. Serving as head cheerleader this year and junior class secretary, Debbie is also a member of Future Homemakers of America, Future Teachers of America, Beta Club, and the annual staff. Debbie also participates in basketball and track.

Runner-up Cindy Haynie, the Munday FFA Chapter Sweetheart, is an active student at Munday High School, where she participates in basketball and is a cheerleader for her school.

The sweetheart candidates were honored at a Coke party held in the home of Sweetheart coordinator, Mrs. Troy Gaunt of Munday recently.

This year's candidates for Livestock Sweetheart, in addition to Debbie Reese and Cindy Haynie, were Mandy Lankford of Knox City, Betty Gutierrez, O'Brien, Debbie Hudson and Ann Brannan of Benjamin, and Cindy Brown of Munday.

Judges for the sweetheart contest were Mrs. B.O. Robertson, Mrs. Ray Perry, and Mrs. Max Stapleton, all of Haskell.

Members of the sweetheart committee for this year included Mrs. Gaunt, Mrs. R.G. Howell of Knox City, Mrs. Charles Griffith of Benjamin, and Mrs. J.O. Brothers and Mrs. Johnny Reid of O'Brien.

Approximately $6,000 in prize and sale money was presented to the young exhibitors by Charles Lankford of Knox City. A list of buyers at the Knox County Livestock Show premium sale was given in last week's issue of the News.

Master of ceremonies for the banquet was Dick Bates, vocational agriculture instructor at Munday.

John Crownover of Knox City gave the invocation.

BROKEN GLASS WAS BEING REMOVED AND REPLACED MONDAY afternoon at the local M System Store. Either vandals or would-be burglars broke the glass in the early morning hours here Sunday.

M System Damaged

The M System Store in Knox City suffered damage early Sunday morning when probably a hammer or heavy tire tool was used to break one of the front glass entry doors. When the glass was broken, the burglar alarm went off, scaring the would-be intruders away.

Manager Cliff Swain said that nightwatchman Leroy Davis notified him about 3:00 a.m. Sunday that the glass had been broken sometime between 2:30 and 3:00 a.m.

Swain explained that by the time he got to the store, Davis had been joined by Knox City Chief of Police Eddie Carr and County Sheriff H.C. Stone of Benjamin.

Officials theorized that the incident probably was vandalism rather than an attempted break-in. The store was burglarized in 1969, according to Swain.

Swain reported that a similar incident occurred at the M System Store in Stamford Sunday morning also.

The Best Since 1961... Freeze Cuts Into Citrus Production... Sheep and Lamb Feeding Increases... Milk Production Shows Some Gain.

Even though the 1973 estimate for cotton has declined from earlier predictions, the Texas crop will be the best since 1961. Texas cotton crop is now estimated at 4,650,000 bales.

Yield is expected to average 429 pounds of lint per acre compared with 408 pounds in 1972 and only 263 pounds in 1971. Harvested acres are estimated at 5,200,000 compared with 5,000,000 in 1972.

Harvest of the crop is virtually complete except for a few isolated fields.

Stalk destruction and land preparation for the 1974 cotton season is active in the southern Texas. Planting of the crop in the Rio Grande Valley will begin in mid-February.

IT'S OFFICIAL: the freeze in the Rio Grande Valley of several weeks ago has cut into production of the 1973-74 citrus crop. The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service notes that the crop now is forecast at 18,700,000 boxes. This is three per cent below the 19,200,000 boxes produced last season.

The January 1 estimate is down from the December 1 forecast due to the hard freeze that hit the Valley in late December.

Grapefruit production is expected to be three per cent below the production of last year.

Overall tree condition has dropped in many areas because of the low temperatures.

AN INCREASE of 19 per cent in numbers of sheep and lambs on feed in Texas is reported by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. Drylot sheep feeders with a lot capacity of 2,000 head or more had 108,000 sheep and lambs on feed as of January 1. This is 20 per cent above the number on feed a year ago and 19 per cent above a month ago.

Current intentions to market are January 38,000 head; February 25,000 head; March 24,000 head. The February and March intentions are incomplete since additional lambs could be placed on feed and marketed during this period.

MILK production, which has shown a steady decline in Texas and the nation for the past year, did show a one per cent increase in December of 1973 and a three per cent increase above the previous month.

Milk production per cow kept for milk averaged 755 pounds during December which is 10 pounds above a year earlier.

Nationwide, however, milk production declined three per cent during December.

STOCKS of hay on Texas farms as of January 1 are almost twice as high as a year ago. Hay stocks totaled 4,356,000 tons compared with only 2,753,000 tons as of a year ago.

AGRICULTURE producers throughout the state are urged now to get their fuel needs known to their local distributors. Federal officials in charge of the fuel allocation for agriculture recommend that farmers let their suppliers know how much fuel they will need for 1974.

County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service offices are designated as the agency to handle fuel supply programs through the federal fuel program.

ASCS offices are receiving the detailed information on how the federal program will work, and should be contacted by producers having problems in getting sufficient fuel for food and fiber production in 1974.

SS NEWS

In January this year the hospital insurance deductible was increased to $84 and the coinsurance to $21 a day, according to Henry Chastz, manager of the Vernon social security office.

Some people have become unduly concerned by some recent advertising by private insurance companies that Medicare may not pay most of their hospital bill. He emphasized that Medicare still pays most of the hospital bill for those who have hospital insurance just as it always has.

Hospital insurance is Part A of the social security Medicare program. It pays most of the bill for medically necessary inpatient services provided to Medicare beneficiaries by hospitals which participate in Medicare.

Statistics show that 75 percent of the people 65 and over who are admitted to hospitals have only one hospital stay during a year. About 95 percent of these remain in the hospital for less than 60 days during any one stay. The coinsurance would not be involved except in the 5 percent of Medicare patients who stay in the hospital more than 60 days. Generally a hospital stay of 60 days or less will cost the Medicare patient $84.

CHANGES IN COTTON INSECT CONTROL

Cotton insect control work by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in Southeast Texas has the potential of boosting production while at the same time reducing insecticide use. The program involves these steps: boll weevil control with a fall diapause program, fleahopper control with low insecticide usage during the early fruiting phase of the crop and then allowing beneficial insects to build up, allowing up to 15 per cent bollworm and budworm damaged squares before spraying, and finally destroy crop residues as early as possible.

PLAN YOUR 1974 FERTILIZATION PROGRAM

With limited nitrogen and phosphorus fertilizers available for 1974, farmers must set priorities for the use of what fertilizers they can obtain.

Before buying fertilizer, a farmer should know the levels of nitrogen, phosphorus, and potassium in his soils and decide which soils are in the greatest need of each nutrient. For example, fields that have not been fertilized for several years may be low and show the greatest need for phosphorus. Nutrient levels should be established now and a priority list made to indicate the fields to be treated first. Farmers should make an estimate of the effects of less than optimum rates of fertilizer when seed supplies cannot be obtained.

Many fields are low in nitrogen nutrients. Therefore, the rate and timing of nitrogen fertilizer will be important factors affecting 1974 yields. Phosphorus is short in many fields but not as critical as many Knox County fields as nitrogen. This means that the available nitrogen and phosphorus fertilizers should be reserved for those fields showing the greatest need for these nutrients. With the short supply, anticipated good prices for farm products next year, and available funds to purchase now, there will be a tendency for the producer to accept what fertilizer is on hand as a suitable fertilization practice. However this may not result in the greatest contribution to production on a given farm or to the total production for the county.

Farabee Files For Senate

AUSTIN—Democratic candidate for state senate Fay Farabee of Wichita Falls formally filed with the State Democratic Executive Committee in Austin last Wednesday to have his name included on the May 4 primary ballot.

Farabee also visited the office of Secretary of State Mark White while in Austin. He discussed compliance with new state laws governing campaign reporting and financial disclosure. As required by the new law, Farabee has filed the name of Jerry K. Estes, President of North Texas Federal Savings and Loan in Wichita Falls, as his campaign manager.

Farabee is a businessman and attorney who has not sought public office before. He is seeking the senatorial post that will be vacated by Jack Hightower who has filed as a candidate for U.S. Congress from the 13th district.

"It is unfortunate that the legislature did not make the new campaign ethics laws more clear," Farabee said. "I have talked with the Secretary of State's office before embarking on my active campaign in order to gain a better understanding of both the spirit and the letter of the law."

Farabee launched his campaign with a meeting in Vernon followed by the Vernon Chamber of Commerce Banquet on Thursday. On Friday he was in Albany and at the Sweetwater Chamber of Commerce dinner and on Saturday he was in Big Spring.

His schedule took him to the Quanah Chamber of Commerce dinner on Monday, to Childress on Tuesday, to Memphis and Silvertown on Wednesday, and to Plainview Thursday. Farabee had a Friday meeting scheduled in Iowa Park and a Chamber of Commerce dinner in Burk Burnett on Friday night.

"This is going to be an active campaign," Farabee explained. "As a citizen who is willing to get involved, I am anxious to get others involved so this district will be as strong as possible. I do not believe you can represent people well unless you know them and keep in touch with their needs and interests."

Farabee concluded by saying that he plans to meet with the people in every part of the widespread 30th district frequently during the next three months.

"DREAM" BEDROOM: A HOBBY ROOM!

Here's a crafty way to redecorate a young girl's room: use the youngster's own talents and hobbies to create a uniquely personal decor.

Is she into ceramics, needlepoint, macrame or some other craft? Turn her bedroom into a showcase for displaying her handiwork.

The photograph shows one beautiful example of the hobby room. The 13-year-old who lives here is a talented collage artist. One of her productions is on the wall behind the hanging lamp. The Parsons table holds another collage, a promising work-in-progress.

The yellow, orange and white color scheme of this room is as bright and attractive as the youngster's own collages. The vibrant striped pattern of the bed throw and curtains is a work of modern art in itself. Wall-to-wall carpeting in a warm burnt-orange underlines the kooky color scheme.

All sorts of artful decorating tricks were used to keep expenses down and eye appeal up. The elegant iron and brass headboard was picked up at a flea market. A white pleated plastic shade from a 5 & 10 cent store was transformed into a hanging lamp. The "old" student lamp on the Parsons table also came from the 5 & 10.

As practical as it's pretty, this dream of a bedroom features easy-care fabrics and fibers. The Bigelow carpet is made of Celanese nylon; Atlas-Hartley's ready-made "Charisma" bed throw, curtains and cafe curtains are 100% machine washable/dryable Celanese Fortrel.

The same super-practical Fortrel fabric is available by the yard; here you see it in the do-it-yourself laminated window shade, table skirt and pillow sham. The lavish use of one fabric is a favorite trick of professional interior designers. It not only lends a "decorator" look to any setting, but it makes a small room appear much larger.

Rep. Finnell Appointed To Committee

AUSTIN—Rep. Charles Finnell of Holliday has been named to the Judiciary Committee of the Constitutional Convention and has pledged to work for continued strong local control of courts and judges.

Finnell was appointed to the post by the President of the Convention and the appointment was confirmed by a vote of the 180 House members and state senators serving as Convention Delegates.

The Judiciary Committee is one of eight major committees named to draft a proposed revision of the 98-year-old constitution.

"There is no area of government deserving greater protection than the state judiciary," Finnell said. "Unlike the legislative and executive branches which are subject to politics and personalities, the judiciary must stand solid as the basis for everything this state and country believes in."

"The judiciary must be independent in administering law and order and in protecting every right and justice for which this country was founded," Finnell said.

Finnell, an attorney with eight years legislative experience, said he opposes efforts to do away with the Justice of the Peace system and opposes efforts to make judges appointive instead of elective.

"Appointive judges smacks of the federal court system, and I don't think Texas wants any part of that," Finnell said. "As for the Justice of the Peace system, it must be retained because this is the one level where the average person can know first hand how justice is working and have his say in it."

Finnell said he expects liberals to "try to come in through the back door" of the Judiciary Committee with proposals which would hamper judges in the handling of criminal cases. He pledged to strengthen the elected state Court of Criminal Appeals and give all criminal courts the resources they need to shorten the time between arrest and punishment of the guilty.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

Monday, January 21, our boys played Crowell here. We've only lost one game to Paducah. We still have a good chance at district.

EIGHTH GRADE NEWS

In their first two games the Greypups won one and lost one. In the first one, they played a good defense combined with an explosive offense to beat Munday 35 to 15. In the second the Greypups lost in a great effort 44 to 30 to Paducah. The girls won both of their first two games by narrow margins of two points, but enough to put them in first place so far. The boys are tied for second.

WTC Courses Now Offered in Haskell

SNYDER-- Western Texas College will be offering eight college credit extension courses at Haskell High School during the spring semester. Dr. Ben Brock, vice president of WTC, has announced. Classes will meet from 6:30 to 9:20 p.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays. Four of the courses being offered are a continuation of courses offered during the fall semester. They are English 132 taught by Dr. Arlis Weaver of Haskell, Spanish 132 (Conversational Spanish) taught by George Underwood, History 132 taught by Harry Krenek, and Law Enforcement 133 taught by Ray Robbins. The other courses to be offered are Art 232 taught by Warren Cullar, Psychology 231 taught by Joe Reaves, Government 231 taught by Franklin Pruitt, and Business 235 (Office Accounting) taught by Charlotte Strasner. All the instructors are on the WTC faculty with the exception of Dr. Weaver and Pruitt. Pruitt has been on the faculty at Snyder High School for 21 years and has also taught history at WTC. History 132 will be offered as an individualized study course, with students scheduled to meet classes with the instructor on Feb. 21, March 28, April 18, and May 9. The psychology course can also be offered on an individualized study basis by special arrangement with the teacher. This plan has been set up for the benefit of students who are unable to attend weekly class meetings.

In last Friday night's tilt with Holliday there, the Houndettes were on the winning side scoring 60 points to Holliday's 48 points. Denise Grindstaff put 25 points on the Houndette side of the scoreboard.

SAFETY CONTAINERS CAN WEAR OUT

This new year we are most hopeful that deaths due to accidental taking of medicines by small children will be drastically reduced. The one major reason for this hope is the increasingly widespread use of the new safety containers for most medicines. But, along with this major development in pharmaceutical packaging comes a new danger. A false sense of security that the safety cap will automatically stop accidents. But, after prolonged use the closure mechanism on the safety tops can wear out. Be aware of this and do not reuse these containers.

Coaches' Comments

by Sam Nichols
The Houndettes played one of their finest games of the year last Friday night when they defeated Holliday 60-48. The game gave the Houndettes a 5-0 mark for the first half of district 7-A play. The 5-0 mark assures us of at least a share of the league title. Holliday wound up 4-1, losing only to the Houndettes. The season record for the Houndettes is now 16-6. Tenacious defense combined with a potent offense to give Holliday its third loss of the year with the Houndettes taking an early lead, and staying ahead all the way. We shot a fine percentage from the floor - 63%, but our free throw shooting was down somewhat - 50%. A lot of credit has to go to Mandy Lankford, Jane Arledge, Tamie Grindstaff, and Timlu Graham, all of whom continue to improve in all phases of guard play. Each game we seem to be cutting down on our turnovers. We had only 9 turnovers in the Holliday contest. This is the type of ballhandling we'll need to have to win the second half of district. Denise Grindstaff and Temi Baker led the Houndette scoring attack with 25 and 23 points respectively. Kary Kent played her finest game of the season, scoring 12 points and having nine assists. At this point, things seem to be falling into place for us. If we continue to play good defense, shoot well, and eliminate turnovers, we'll be playing fine basketball.

Accidentally spilling bleach on a black dress holds bleak prospects for the wearer. She can, however, try using black shoe polish on the spots. It usually works beautifully and will not come out when the dress is cleaned.

The Knox City Chapter of Future Homemakers of America met Monday night, January 14, in the school library. The purpose of the meeting was to select "Secret Grandmothers." For those of you who are not familiar with this program, this is where each member selects someone who would really appreciate and enjoy their thoughtfulness. Each girl will send her secret grandmother holiday cards, flowers, candy, or any small notion they think their grandmother would like. The funny thing about it is each girl must keep their grandmother a secret so they will be surprised at a tea held for them at the end of school. This program was very successful last year and we hope it is even better this year. So

Childbirth Safer Than Ever

Phenylketonuria, a cause of mental retardation in infants, may at last be avoided. Newborns are given a simple blood-test to determine if they suffer from it, and put on a low-protein diet if they do.

Tay-Sachs disease, a genetic disease that usually results in mental and physical deficiencies and death, can only be transmitted to a baby if both parents carry this recessive gene. Now they have a blood test to determine if the parents carry the gene and if the unborn baby is affected by it.

The Rh factor need no longer be such a large factor in babies' health. An Rh-negative mother with an Rh-positive child will develop antibodies that would harm her next Rh-positive baby. Now, she can receive an injection within 72 hours of childbirth, miscarriage or abortion that may give her future children a better than 98.8 percent chance of avoiding this disease. The injection is of D-Immune, produced by Lederle Laboratories.

German measles, which has caused cataracts, deafness and heart abnormalities in unborn children, may now be controlled. Pregnant mothers usually catch this disease from children in the family, but they may avoid it if these children are previously vaccinated against it!
