'22-23 SESSION BAIRD SCHOOL

Began Last Monday Morning With Interesting Exercises And Many Visitors

The Baird Public School began its 1922-23 session last Monday morning, with Professor J. F. Boren beginning his ninth year as superintendent, and his thirteenth year's connection with the school, he having served four years as a teacher before he became the executive head of the school.

The chapel exercises were very interesting. The religious services were conducted by Rev. George E. Printz. President of the School Board L. L. Blackburn made a brief talk on behalf of the trustees, recounting the difficulties under which they labored in their endeavor, with the funds at their disposal, to give Baird a first class school.

Mrs. J. H. James, president of the Parent-Teacher's Association, made a strong appeal to all parents to take a more practically personal interest in the school.

Altogether it was the most interesting and largely attended opening the school has ever had, there being as many parent and other visitors present as there were pupils, which is a very hopeful sign for better things—a more encouraging cooperation of trustees, teachers, parents, friends and pupils to make the Baird school one of the best in West Texas.

Unique and pleasant features were the presentation to each pupil in the school of a stout duck book satchel, by the The First Guarantee State Bank; a handsome pencil by the First National Bank, and a complete set of book covers by the Baird Light, Power & Ice Company, through President-Manager Earl Morley, who made similar presentation to the pupils of the Clyde and Putnam schools. Last year's senior class presented the school fund with $18.36, which amount was in their treasury at the expiration of the 1921-22 school year.

The total enrollment was 452, which is some less than last year's, due to the fact that many of the prospective pupils are sick or busy picking cotton, and will enroll later. The following is the enrollment by grades:

First 34, Second 31, Third 41, Fourth 45, Fifth 45, Sixth 42, Seventh 37, Eighth 41, Ninth 42, Tenth 27, Eleventh 27, Overflow 38; Total 452.

GRUESOME FIND ON RAILROAD

The blood-stained dress and undergarments of a little girl, inclosed in a bloody apron and a man's coat badly worn and also blood stained, all wrapped in a copy of the Dallas News of August 16, and enclosed in a tow sack, were found in the T. & P. yards here Monday night. They were presumably thrown from a train.

The blood-stains were fresh and the gruesome find is being held, pending an investigation by Railroad Detective W. J. Cook.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. T. Hutchison, of Abilene, and Mrs. Sam Edwards, of Clyde, were Baird visitors Tuesday.

CLYDE PUBLIC SCHOOL OPENED LAST MONDAY

Sept. 12th—The Clyde Public School opened last Monday morning with a splendid attendance. The faculty, trustees, parents and children all seem to exhibit a fine spirit of cooperation. The Clyde school has a fine outlook for the present term, which promises to be a full nine month's term. We want to make our school the pride of the whole community. All together to this end.

The recent showers of rain has put new life in us all and makes us all feel more like work. Cotton picking is in full swing and our gins are running full time.

Charlie Peek of this place has bought a tailoring business at Haskell and moved his family to that place.

Methodist Quarterly Conference has been in session here this week.

Miss Septima Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mae Bowman this week. She will return soon to Austin to accept a place in the Texas State University, which institution she is a graduate of. She formerly taught in the Clyde public school and was unanimously liked as a teacher. May success crown her efforts in life.

Earl Slater left Tuesday night for Buffalo, N. Y., where he goes as a delegate to the National Convention of the Rural letter carriers Association.

Z. E. Sikes has purchased an interest in the Jim Watts' blacksmith shop.

Mr. J. O. Moore, who has been manager for the B. L. Boydston mercantile business here for some time, has resigned his position here and accepted one with the Brown Shoe Company, of St. Louis.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SERVICES

There will be services Sunday morning and evening at the Presbyterian Church. The night services will begin at 8 o'clock.

Morning Theme: "The Church." The church is the grandest institution on earth. We will seek to show, in a measure, its greatness.

Evening Theme: "Association With Jesus." The world can know if we are associated with Him. We trust a goodly number will be out to these services. We hope that a larger interest will be manifested in the church and its work, as we enter in upon the Autumn season.

Come, you are always welcome.

Sincerely,
Gerald Fitzgerald, Pastor.

There are no longer any unofficial "guards" in the T-P railroad yards and in the roundhouse here. Monday morning Acting Captain B. T. Tumlinson, of the State Ranger force stationed here, swore in fourteen "Special" Rangers, and they will be subject hereafter to his orders and authority. The four Rangers here—which includes Captain Tumlinson—are fine, upstanding young men, and their unobtrusive, gentlemanly conduct has won the unqualified commendation of Baird's citizenry.

Mrs. James L. White returned Tuesday night from a ten days' visit with relatives and friends in Dallas.

A slight fire at the Baird Gin Co. Monday evening brought out the fire boys, and they put out the blaze with the extinguishers.

FOOD PRICES AND WAGES

Thirty-five Years Ago In Baird Show That Wages Went Further Than Today

When the first number of The Baird Star was issued, December 8, 1887, the following retail prices and wages prevailed in Baird:

Food—Flour, per hundred, $2.25; meal, 48-lb. sack, 75c; bacon, 7c pound; ham, 12 1-2c pound; breakfast bacon, 14c pound; coffee, 15c pound; Irish potatoes, per peck, 30c; sweet potatoes, 50c to 75c per bushel; butter, 20c pound; eggs, 10c dozen.

Wages—Section men, T. & P., $1.15 per day of 10 hours; common labor in town, $1.50 per day; carpenters, $2.00 to $2.50 per day.

Fuel—Coal, $9.00 per ton; wood, per cord, $3.00; stovewood per load, $1.50.

Rents—For four to six room houses, $5 00 to $7.50 per month.

Compare these prices with prices today and you will find that the section hand could buy more with a day's wage than the wages fixed by the Labor Board, $1.84 per day.

The average wages fixed by the Labor Board for the shop crafts is 32.7c per hour. To live as well as he did at $1.15 per day, the section men's wages should be $2.30 per day.

Prices given here are from memory, but I know they are correct. Many people now living in Baird no doubt can verify this statement as correct.

Prices did begin to advance in 1888, but in 1889 bacon had not gone above 9c a pound, ham 14c a pound, flour $2 50 per hundred weight.

It is worthy of note that we had all white men as section hands then, who were later forced out because they could not live on the wages paid as food prices advanced.

We only give wages of section men because we do not remember what wages other railway employes received at that time.

News comes at this writing that the strike is virtually settled, but if the wages fixed by the Labor Board are not changed, peace will not last long. No fair minded person wants any one to work for a wage that is too low. Some of the classes of railroad men's wages are undoubtedly too low now.

NIGHT BAND CONCERTS RESUMED

The Baird Municipal Band, under the leadership of Conductor-Instructor Charles E. Strain, has resumed its Thursday night concerts on the Courthouse lawn.

Thursday night of last week the band appeared with twenty-five pieces—the "Juniors," now under instruction, taking part in the concert. The thus augmented band rendered very acceptable music.

The following is the program for next Thursday night, September, 21.

March "Men of Valor"
Overture "Bandman's Delight"
Waltz "Lily of the Valley"
Negro Sketch "Shantia 'Lize"
Medley Overture "Clio"
Marc "On the Square"

FORD WILL CLOSE ALL HIS PLANTS TOMORROW

Henry Ford, last week, made one of the great strategic movements that have come to be associated with his career as a manufacturer. Wishing to deliver a body blow to the Steel Trust and the coal profiteers, he announced that on Saturday, September 16, all of his plants will close down. This will throw out of employment 80,000 men in Detroit and more than 2,000,000 others in industries that furnish him with supplies.

More than 900 telegrams were sent out by Ford notifying those who have been furnishing him with raw and partly manufactured materials to cease their shipments. The Steel Trust, as it happened, notified him Saturday, September 2, that the price of steel on $1.40 steel would at once be increased to $1 60, and that the price would go to $2 at a date in the near future.

"I told them that I wanted no steel," said Ford, "I am going to shut down, because I will not pay graft to get coal, nor will I pay an excessive price for steel. I could get coal if I were willing to pay graft. Coal is offered to me every day at an excessive price. I had a chance to buy 60,000 tons yesterday at $6 a ton. Four dollars and a half a ton is a good price for coal and that is all I will pay."

"I will not be a party to profiteering. That is why I am going to shut down until coal and steel profiteering is over. Tolerate such conditions and they will continue indefinitely. There is no good reason why such conditions should exist at all. It is all a conspiracy to fleece the public. I believe both strikes—the railway and the coal strikes—are conspiracies between Wall Street and the Labor Unions. I do not mean that union working men as a class are conspiring, but I do mean that their leaders are. I believe labor union leaders are working in close cooperation with the railways and mine owners."

Ford's move will immediately throw out of work more than 2,000,000 men. In Detroit it will stop the flow of $3,800,000 in weekly wages that are paid in the Ford plants. Throughout the nation it will almost double the number of men that are estimated to be out of employment.

"I hated to do this," said Ford, "but it had to be done. I would have preferred to keep going. I like to see men employed and happy. But there is a price that I will not pay to keep going and that is graft. I will not pay graft to get coal."

Somebody told Ford that Herbert Hoover had challenged his statement that coal could be bought if one were willing to pay the price.

"Hoover is always more ready to challenge a statement," he retorted, "than he is to investigate the truth of it."

"Hoover does not know that brokers are offering coal at fancy prices; he is one of the few who do not know it. Hoover says he wants to prevent profiteering in coal. Well, if he wants to prevent it, why don't he do it instead of talking about it?"

Ford is really determined, among other things, to bring both the railway and the coal strikes to a focus. Believing that both strikes are conspiracies against the public, he apparently is of the opinion that if he takes the lead in bringing business to a standstill, that the conspirators will be compelled to call off the strikes.

COYOTES MAY GET PLAYERS

From Ranks Of Baird's Junior Team. "The Swatters." Who Live Up To Name

With Puzzling Pitcher Rawleigh Ray and Snappy Third Baseman Fred Wristen back home, after playing a partial season of professional base ball, with the San Angelo Bronces, of the West Texas League, and though the railroad shopcrafts strike is still on, the Baird Coyotes are pricking up their ears and eagerly sniffing this nippy autumn air for the scent of a foe worthy of their mettle.

Manager J. A. Allphin took the Coyotes to Moran Wednesday where they played that team.

Next Sunday the Coyotes will again meet Moran at T-P Park, the proceeds to be donated to the shopcrafts strike fund. There should be a record breaking attendance, for it promises to be the best game of the season, and then, every patriotic Bairdite should buy at least one ticket, and encouragingly help these, our fellow citizens, who are fighting the battle of their lives.

Both of the professional Coyotes will of course play on Sunday, Rawleigh Ray on the mound and Freddy Wristen courageously and scientifically guarding the third plate.

The Coyotes are seasoned players and in a few years some of them will be getting into the "sere and yellow" as base ball playing age goes, but when, having helped win many a good fight on the diamond field, they don uniform and spiked shoes for the last time and become merely wise old fans, full of knowledge and honors, their places The Star believes can be very acceptably filled from the lineup of Baird's promising junior players, the "Swatters," which is as follows:

For some time, due to press of other printable matter, The Star has had on file in its office the following resume of "The Swatters" last game with Clyde's "Avengers," at T-P Park, on Friday, August 25, furnished by the former team's captain, J. D. Williams:

The Swatters rang true to their name on Friday, when the Clyde Avengers came down to give the Swatters a clean up. On account of the big boy's game, which was played first, the junior teams had to quit at the end of the third inning, the Swatters leading 5 to 1, when the Avenger players had to leave. The game was forfeited to the Swatters, 9 to 0. Harold Foy twirled a fine game for the Swatters, letting their opponents down with only one hit. A fine crowd saw the game and liked the all around playing of the Swatters. The batteries were: Poole and Patterson for Avengers, Foy and Williams for Swatters.

POLICY COMMITTEE CALLED TO MEET

Not Imminent, Says Cuyler of Rumors. Strikers Ask Impeachment of Daugherty.

Chicago, Ill.—A call for a meeting of the policy committee of ninety in Chicago, 10 a. m. September 11, was sent out by John Scott, secretary of the striking railway shopcraft unions. The telegraphic appeal was in code and was addressed to the regional general chairmen of the organization in all parts of the country. It was expected that it would be several days before they could arrive in Chicago, and for that reason no general sessions were expected before the first of next week.

The meeting was called, it was intimated, to consider plans for a settlement of the strike on separate roads representing about one-third of the country's mileage. It followed reports of conferences between B. M. Jewell, head of the strikers, and rail executives in the East.

New York.—Reports that peace is imminent in the strike of railroad shopmen are "absolutely without foundation," according to T. DeWitt Cuyler, chairman of the Association of Railway Executives.

"The roads are standing squarely on the platform adopted by them at their meeting Aug. 23," said Cuyler. "The executives are a unit as to this, and are entirely satisfied with present conditions."

This platform denies to striking shopmen the restoration of their seniority rights.

The collapse of the strike, Cuyler declared, is in sight, because the roads now have 305,000 shopmen at work compared with 400,000 before the strike began.

8 DIE FROM EFFECTS OF POISON LIQUOR

Warning Sounded of Menace of Bootleggers As Many Are Reported Blinded.

New York.—Warning of the menace of irresponsible bootleggers was given Wednesday night as Brooklyn's casualty list from wood alcohol poisoning continued to grow.

Death of Michael Keenan and Mrs. Sigma Johnson after drinking poison liquor that caused complete blindness brought the total of fatalities to eight, while many other persons were reported either totally or partially blind. Three arrests have been made on charges of homicide.

Louis Carris, field secretary of the National Committee for the Prevention of Blindness, seized the occasion to advise the country against patronizing bootleggers.

Four of the victims stricken dead were women.

Mrs. Johnson, after going blind, identified by her voice and description a woman, 50 years old, as the person who sold her the whisky Wednesday morning. The woman had previously been released on bail after being charged with causing the deaths of two laborers who drank in her restaurant Monday.

Keenan, likewise, was able to help authorities before he died. He took a $2 bill given him by detectives and staggered into a "blind pig," emerging a little later with a bottle of whisky. The place was immediately raided. Soon after Keenan went totally blind and died within a few hours.

Japanese Buy Sheep From Wyoming.

Laramie, Wyo.—Representatives of the Japanese government have been the largest purchasers of sheep ever recorded in Wyoming, according to announcements here. The sheep will be shipped to Japan immediately, going by rail to Vancouver and thence to Tokyo by steamer. The purchase included nearly 300 Rambouillet ewe yearlings.

600 Bales Sold at Henderson.

Henderson, Texas.—Six hundred bales of cotton were received here Saturday from the wagons and every bale was sold. Cotton is opening rapidly and farmers show no inclination to hold.

Some Cotton Is Held.

Kerens, Texas.—Drop in prices has caused farmers to hold some of their cotton, but receipts remain heavy. Over 5,000 bales have been weighed here and receipts are now 400 a day. Half the crop has been gathered. Seed is bringing $24 and cotton 20 1-4c.

Men Killed Hunting for Treasure.

Georgetown, Texas.—August Wedner, about 50 years old, was killed by a fall in a cave where a hunt was being made for buried treasure belonging to Georgetown and Leander.

U. S. SEND BATTLESHIPS TO TROUBLE CENTER

Greeks in Danger of Being Driven Into Sea by the Turks.

London.—The United States has joined the allied Governments—Great Britain, France and Italy—in the dispatch of warships to Smyrna to protect the Christian population from the victorious Turks in Asia Minor.

Defeated, the Greek troops are in danger of being driven into the sea, and the allies are alarmed lest the victors open a campaign of extermination against the helpless Christian minority peoples.

Ships were sent on the urgent appeal of Great Britain. Simultaneously with the dispatch of the composite fleet of warships, the allies, and particularly Great Britain, are doing their utmost to effect an armistice between the Greeks and the Turks before the Grecian army is wiped out.

Word that the great naval powers had joined in rushing battleships to the troubled centers of the Near East came from Constantinople and was accompanied by confirmation of reports that Great Britain is trying desperately to bring about an armistice before the general conference on the Near East to be held at Venice, probably late this month.

Official information here is that the Greek position is bad. Messages from Athens and Constantinople indicate the troops of Mustafa Kemal, the Turkish chieftain, are menacing Drusa, the base of the Northern Greek army, and are splitting the Greek forces in several places.

Military Review Opens Centennial.

Rio De Janeiro.—Brazil's centennial exposition has opened here with a gorgeous military review in which uniforms of many nations were present. Enormous crowds, estimated at more than 250,000 filled the stands. Special missions from various countries sat in seats of honor. Secretary of State Hughes, who came from the United States to attend the opening ceremony, was seated directly behind President Pessoa.

FINANCIAL PEACE IS IN POTASH PACT

FRANCE-GERMAN AGREEMENT IS FORWARD STEP IN ECONOMIC RELATIONS.

TAKES PLACE OF THREATS

Following Stinnes Reconstruction Plan, Emphasizes Trend to Rapprochement.

Paris.—A forward step in the strengthening of Franco-German economic relations is marked by the report that French potash interests in Alsace have formed an agreement with their German rivals in order to curb competition, particularly in the Eastern markets.

This, following closely on the Stinnes agreement for the reconstruction of the devastated regions, served to emphasize the new tendency to work for rapprochement with Germany instead of attempting to get results by a series of futile threats.

Powerful French metallurgical interests according to well-founded rumors, are now attempting to arrange a deal with the German coal and coke barons which, if successful, will create a Franco-German steel and iron-producing combination that will certainly be the most powerful in Europe, and, if extensively pushed, might be a formidable rival of America in Continental European markets, to say nothing of England.

Although local metallurgical magnates are reticent regarding their plans, it is known that Louis Louchcur, former Minister of the Devastated Regions, has spent considerable time recently in the Nancy and Briey mine regions, and, inasmuch as he framed the Weisbaden agreements with Dr. Walter Rathenau, the late German Foreign Minister, it is deemed likely that he has a finger in the international pie.

Furthermore, President Millerand, who before the war was general counsel for the Comite des Forges, the central organization representing the metallurgical interests, is an outspoken advocate of helping Germany to her feet. During his premiership, Millerand emphasized that it was good business for the creditor Nation to help its debtor toward solvability.

Although the President's power is limited by the Constitution, his influence through personal persuasion among bankers and manufacturers is tremendous. It is quite possible, therefore, that President Millerand is quietly, but doggedly, taking advantage of the adjournment of the Parliament to direct France's policy toward Germany on the basis of a rapprochement instead of threats.

DALLAS COMES SECOND IN CATTLE RECORD

Houston Leading City in August in Eradication of Tuberculosis Reports Show.

Fort Worth, Texas.—Houston was the leading city in Texas in the eradication of tuberculosis among dairy cattle during the month of August, according to the monthly report of Dr. Leon G. Cloud, State Veterinarian. The report shows that in Houston five herds were tested during August and that two reactors were found.

Second in effort for tubercular-free dairy herds was Dallas, with the same number of herds tested and seven reactors found among 1,192 head of cattle in the herds. Testing throughout the State, however, was slack during the month of August, only about 3,400 head of cattle being tested and thirty-five reactors being found.

Abilene, San Angelo, Sherman, Temple, Waco and Wichita Falls were on the "no reactor" list, while Beaumont stood at the foot with sixteen reactor among 76 head of cattle tested. El Paso's record was 264 head tested and ten reactors found.

Alexander Howat Must Stay in Jail.

Pittsburg, Kan.—Alexander Howat, deposed president of the Kansas Miners' Union, must stay in jail at Girard, where he is serving a year's sentence for calling a strike in violation of an injunction. Judge A. J. Curran of the Crawford County District Court refused to grant Howat a parole.

Mexia Plans Poultry Show.

Mexia, Texas.—The Chamber of Commerce has announced that the next Trades Day event will be devoted to the encouragement of poultry. Following the event of Tuesday of this week another Trades Day will be held in October, on which occasion a poultry show will be held.

A duty that should not be put off.

A duty sometimes long deferred is the selection of a fitting memorial for a loved one

AS IT usually requires quite a little time to select, carve and erect a suitable monument, this most important matter should be given first attention.

Care should be exercised, however, in securing a material possessing not only beauty, but ability to retain for all time its original beauty, as the appearance of this monument a score or more years from now is of as much importance as its appearance today.

The tiny interlocking crystals which compose GEORGIA MARBLE present a water-tight, air-tight, non-absorbent surface to the weather, and prevent streaking or disintegration. GEORGIA MARBLE possesses the essential qualities of beauty, strength and durability.

A Wish

"I HAVE TAKEN Cardui for run-down, worn-out condition, nervousness and sleeplessness, and I was weak too," says Mrs. Silvie Estes, of Jennings, Okla. "Cardui did me just lots of good—so much that I gave it to my daughter. She complained of a soreness in her sides and back. She took three bottles of Cardui and her condition was much better.

"We have lived here, near Jennings, for 26 years, and now we have our own home in town. I have had to work pretty hard, as this country wasn't built up, and it made it hard on us.

"I WISH I could tell weak women of Cardui—the medicine that helped give me the strength to go on and do my work." This card fulfils her wish.

CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTMENTS

Have relieved millions of people of pain and suffering. They will relieve you if but given a chance. What can be gained by waiting? Why not investigate and find out what it is doing for others? What is a doctor to be judged by? The results he gets of course. Knowing this to be true, I want you to ask for references that you may find out from my patients what I have done for them. There are many people who suffer continually from Rheumatism, Indigestion, Constipation and many other kinds of disorders, who could obtain permanent relief by taking adjustments. You don't have to believe in it. All have to do is take adjustments and you will get well.

When we are first born, Nature provides us with an unconscious brain power that regulates our five senses; sets the tasks for future development, and causes all organs of the body to function perfectly. This invisible force is transmitted from that human dynamo, the brain, to all parts of the body, where functions are performed, through the human nerve system, which acts like a current of electricity over a wired telegraph system. As long as these mental impulses prevail, health is the natural consequence. But by the time we reach maturity, most of us will have experienced shocks and jolts which have slightly misplaced some segment of the spine. This is certain impede the normal flow of brain impulses to some one unit of the body, and without this brain nourishment, the organ misses its step and lags behind in its duty. THEN YOU ARE SICK. This can happen to you only when the sections (vertebrae) of your spine are pinching a nerve trunk. And now you have learned the true principle of CHIROPRACTIC it is the duty of your Chiropractor to make it possible for Nature to get you well and happy again. It is within his power to permit life-giving impulses to flow normally to the afflicted or diseased organs of your body. It is his earnest desire to adjust the cause of your pain or suffering. No matter what your present condition nor its extent of development, you, too, can be benefitted by

No doubt some who boasted that Ferguson, if nominated, would be defeated by an independent vote, wish they had not been so rash in their threats about Ferguson.

Germany and France About to Get Together. — Headline. Every time they have got together for more than a century, a bloody fight was the result. Let us hope that this getting together will make for peace and not for war.

Greece's dream of an Asiatic Empire has gone glimmering, like the baseless fabric of a dream. The Turks finally routed the Greek army and drove them out of the country and Big Ike King Tino, of Greece, may lose his crown; lucky if he does not lose his head.

William G. McAdoo denies that he is a candidate for President. McAdoo seems to realize that as a candidate, he won't do. This does not mean that he is not an all around good fellow, but the country is convinced that as a railroad magnate he was not a howling success.

LaFollette carried Wisconsin, his home State, by one hundred and fifty thousand majority for the Senate and now they are talking of running him for President. Don't be uneasy. No one with the radical views entertained by the Wisconsin man will ever be elected President of these grand old United States.

Anyway, we are promised a lively scrap over the candidates for the United States Senate. The day has passed in Texas, for a time at least, when a nomination for a State office meant an election. A little healthy opposition to the Democratic Party in the State is needed and needed badly.

The Star is not going to furnish any of the opposition, mind you, but the party has been drifting for years and growing in strength until it is hard to tell what is a Democrat. When a Democratic Convention refuses to endorse the Bill of Rights it is time for Democrats to stop and think a bit.

The sympathy of the whole people went out to President Harding the past week because of the serious illness of Mrs. Harding, who was near death for several days. The President, worn out by the cares of state, the coal and railroad strike, that he worked so faithfully to settle, then come the serious illness of Mrs. Harding that well nigh upset the strong, vigorous man that President Harding is. We are all glad that the crisis has passed and Mrs. Harding is in a fair way to recover. The coal strike is settled and the railroad strike is in a fair way to be settled in a few days, so the dark clouds are giving way and hope for better things all around are justified.

Is the "I pledge myself to support the nominees of the Democratic party" a scrap of paper?—Abilene Reporter.

It seems so; something like the resolutions condemning the Ku Klux Klan, offered at the Democratic State Convention last week. Mere scraps of paper, and pitched out of the Convention by a vote of 5 to 1 by the Klan delegates.

We note that Callahan County was counted with the Klan at that Convention, notwithstanding the fact that Ferguson and every other anti-Klan candidate for a State office carried the county.

Such high-handed acts do not make for party loyalty or party harmony. The only candidate the Klan nominated was Earle Mayfield, yet, by manipulating precinct and county conventions the Klan controlled the State Convention.

Attorney General Daugherty, by his blanket injunction against the Labor Unions, seems to have aroused the ire of an overwhelming majority of the press in the United States. While most of the press seems to oppose the strike, they are unwilling to submit, without a protest, to an invasion of the right of free speech and a free press. An effort is being made now to impeach the Attorney General because of the injunction proceedings.

There is not much likelihood of the impeachment getting out of the pigeonhole in which it was placed by the Judiciary Committee, to which the resolution was referred. To impeach the Attorney General under the circumstances, would be a worse blunder than he committed in trying to interdict so many things allowed by the Constitution. The House will not present a bill of indictment and, if it did, the Senate would turn it down. That is our guess.

The Star did not say last week that the Klan could not control the Democratic Convention at San Antonio, but so intimidated and to that extent were mistaken.

Former Congressman Eagle, of Houston, says the Klan had five delegates to one for the opposition in the convention. If that is true, did the Klan control the "Democratic Convention?" Would it not be more correct to say that the Ku Klux Klan captured the Democratic Convention and turned it into a Ku Klux Konklave?

Well, the anti-Klan have all the State nominees except Earle Mayfield for the Senate, and it is not so bad after all. Party platforms, as a rule, no longer command respect from any one, and that is all the Klan did at San Antonio, adopted a platform that not one Democrat in a hundred will read and probably would not endorse after he read it.

The action of the delegates at San Antonio is what made the people adopt the primary convention plan years ago.

The Anti-Ku Klux Klan Democrats have called a convention to meet at Dallas tomorrow to nominate a candidate for the Senate against Earle Mayfield. There is no objection to Governor Neff or any other candidate on the State ticket except Mayfield.

The high handed manner in which the Ku Klux Klan ran the convention, has aroused the ire of some of the old time leaders of the Democratic party and they are determined, if possible, to defeat Mayfield.

With the general election less than sixty days away, does not seem to afford enough time to rally the opposition, but it may be done. Things political move rapidly now and most anything might happen.

We did not think the Ku Klux Klan could capture the Democratic State Convention, but they did, and what they did to their opponents was a plenty.

The editor of The Star is going to take his medicine, having voted in the primary, but we won't fall out with any of our friends who see it differently. The Democrats of Texas are confronted with a condition never met with before by the party in this State. An organized, secret faction succeeded in putting over their candidate for the Senate, but failed to nominate any other of the candidates, unless they endorsed Governor Neff; but he declared at the convention that he did not belong to any secret political faction. Therefore, all Democrats should vote for him and, we think they will, including all the State ticket, except Mayfield for the Senate.

The Ku Klux also controlled the State Convention, and only such things as they approved. Like the County Convention of Harris County—a Ku Klux Convention—the State Convention would, without a doubt, have voted down an endorsement of Section 4 of the Bill of Rights, that every loyal Democrat has endorsed for more than one hundred years.

"THE HEART OF A HERO" WAS AN ARTISTIC-FINANCIAL SUCCESS

The dramatic presentation at The Tabernacle last Friday and Saturday nights by Managers Dudley Foy and Ed D. Merrell, "The Heart of a Hero," was an artistic success and did very well financially, thank you.

These enterprising actor-managers are responsible for the stage fittings in The Tabernacle, and after a long and patiently thorough rehearsal of this sterling comedy drama, under the stage superintendence of Mrs. W. H. Power, it was as near letter perfect as amateur acting ever gets to be.

There should have been a better turnout both nights, and there would have been bumper houses, in all probability, were it not for the stringency of money matters due to the long strike of the railroad shopcrafts.

As it was, the audiences both nights heartily enjoyed the play, and the specialties received abundant applause. To give praise to any one member of the cast would be invidious.

Advertising space has been purchased on the drop curtain by leading business men of Baird and Artist James C. Asbury will do the lettering and decorating. The receipts from the two performances was something over $80. The following was the cast:

Gilbert Westover, Esq., owner of the Mammoth Mill.....E. D. Merrill
Seth Marlow, to self and honor trust... Howard Farmer
Clarence Denton an enemy in disguise Dudley Foy
Arnold Payne, from the city..... Harold Wristen
Cyrus Bodkin, a lone widower..... L. W. Green
Robert office boy at the mill..... Gaines Short
Caroline Westover, the 'squire's sister..... Mrs. R. B. Rice
Salina, his daughter—in love with Seth..... Miss Annie Myrl Scott
Tillie Sloan, a village belle..... Miss Mamie Morrison
Em not much of anybody..... Miss Lucile Farmer

The receipts enabled the Baird Dramatic Club to pay off all indebtedness on the Tabernacle stage appointments.

Mrs. C. D. Jones and daughter, Lucile, have just returned from Big Spring, where they visited Mrs. Jones' sister, Mrs. N. E. Mills. Mrs. Mills and her son, Howard Boswell, returned with them to Baird for a visit.

BETTER LIVESTOCK AND SEED NEEDED TO MAKE FARMS PAY

Clyde, 9-12-'22

I want to ask my farmer friends: How long are you going to feed your good feed to scrub stock? Some of us are keeping three or four old cows just because they are "Old Pickles" heifers.

We are keeping fifty to one hundred hens, in order to have eggs for home use.

We buy and raise from three to six pigs in order to have meat and lard.

How long are we going to live in ignorance? We need to be educated along these lines.

Some men say a corn crib will make a hog. Not so.

Some have fed an old Texas long-horn cow for milk and butter, when she wouldn't raise a calf. Another mistake.

Our flocks of poultry have been crossed up until they are crossed out. Another lesson to be learned.

No cow can eat my feed that will not give me four gallons of milk and from one to two pounds of butter per day.

When I feed a hog good feed for twelve months he must weigh four to five hundred pounds, or I will not buy any more of that kind.

What kind of seed are we planting on our farms? Remember, the better the seed we sow the better our harvest will be.

Let us raise better livestock and plant better seed on our farms that our bank account may be increased and that we may make Callahan County a better county to live in.

Tom J. Edwards.

HORSE RACING AT WEST TEXAS FAIR A FEATURE

All over West Texas county and district fairs are reporting greater successes and prospects for greater successes than ever before in their history.

The West Texas Fair at Abilene, September 25 to 30, is one of those which is facing prospects and indications for record breaking attendance, and elaborate preparations are being made for the event.

Enlargements have been made in all departments, and work is being rushed at the grounds to put the plant in tip-top shape before the opening day.

Damage occasioned by a recent storm, which unroofed the grandstand and a number of cattle and horse barns, is already largely repaired and will be finished in another week or ten days. The grandstand, as a result of the storm, is being remodeled on modern lines and will be a much more comfortable and commodious structure than before.

Horse racing promises to be the best seen in this section of the country since before the war period, and preparations for the stabling of more than a hundred and fifty fast running and harness horses are being made. The horses are coming from all over Texas and from many points in Oklahoma, attracted by the big purses offered, not only at Abilene but at San Angelo and other West Texas points.

The program for the week, while not yet completed in all its parts, is mainly finished and shows the following daily features:

Monday, September 25: Opening Day; Good Roads Day; Horse Races.

Tuesday, September 26: Confederate Veterans Day; Horse Races.

Wednesday, September 27: Abilene Day; Kiwanis Day; West Texas Derby Day; Horse Races.

Thursday, September 28: West Texas Chamber of Commerce Day; Lions Day; Purebred Livestock Day; Horse Races.

Friday, September 29: Strainers Day; Automobile Race Day.

Saturday, September 30: Traveling Men's Day; School and College Day; Football Day; Carnival Night.

COLLIE DOG WAKES FROM NEW YORK TO FORT WORTH

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram declares that "better a dog's life in Fort Worth than all the luxuries of New York. So decided a woe-become Collie dog which walked his toenails off to prove his desire. His home had been at 1901 Grand Avenue, until his mistress, Mrs. May Kendrick, decided that Collie should have a grand trip to New York.

"Accordingly she bundled him up with woollens and all and sent him with some friends, who made the trip overland. Collie went all the way with them. He whined a bit, but they consoled him with fresh meat and a mat to sleep on. When they got to New York Collie stuck around a few days. He showed visible signs of being homesick. Then they missed him.

"Two days ago Mrs. Kendrick heard a whine at her door, a familiar whine. She looked out upon a bedraggled Collie, her Collie, for whom she had had travel ambitions. He was lank and lean. His toenails were worn to the quick and his ribs were showing through. But his eyes twinkled and his tale wagged. Collie was happy. He was at home again."

Mrs. Elmer Johnson and little daughter, Lawanda, were visiting in Abilene last week.

D. 1922, the same being the 2nd day of October, A. D. 1922, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 8th day of July, A. D. 1922, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 539, wherein The First National Bank of Baird is Plaintiff, and F. D. Maddox is Defendant, and said petition alleging that heretofore to wit: On the 8th day of July 1921 the defendant made executed and delivered to J. U. Johnson his certain promissory note for the sum of Two Hundred and Seventy-five and 83-100 Dollars, bearing date on the day and year aforesaid, payable to the order of said J. U. Johnson, and due four months after the said date thereof, bearing interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum from date until paid and providing for 20 per cent additional on the amount of principal and interest then due as attorney's fees if not paid at maturity, whereby defendant became liable and promised to pay said J. U. Johnson the sum of money in said note specified together with all interest and attorney's fees due thereon according to the tenor and effect thereof, that thereafter and before the maturity thereof said J. U. Johnson indorsed and delivered said note to plaintiff and plaintiff is now the legal owner and holder of said note, that the said note is now past due and unpaid, and defendant though often requested has hitherto failed and refused to pay the same or any part thereof, to plaintiff's damage in the sum of Nine Hundred Dollars. That afterwards to wit: On the 8th day of July 1921 defendant, to secure the payment of said note, made executed and delivered to the said J. U. COLEMAN DEMOCRAT-VOICE'S SNAPPY ELECTION BACKFIRE

The Coleman Democrat-Voice of last week touches off the following "election backfire":

It's all over now except winding up the political barbed wire.

"Farmer Jim" can now get back on the job of heading his maize.

Thomas Blanton's middle name is Lindsey, instead of Looney, as some people supposed.

The Republican nominee for the Senate, Dr. Wilmot, is yet undecided whether he will try looping-the-loop.

Listed with the casualties: Col. Billie Mayfield, Jr., who lacked ninety odd thousand votes of being 100 per cent.

George H. Corn was defeated in the race for re-nomination as Sheriff of Callahan County, but it required a double run to do it.

With Earle Mayfield's nomination for the Senate assured, it is now every Democrat's duty to acquiesce, and pray that he may become a better man.

GOD'S LOVE

BY MRS. H. F. FOY.

The fullness of the love of Christ,
That brought Him down to men,
To die upon a shameful cross,
We can not understand.

His love's so great it reaches us
To heights we cannot know—
His love's so great it reaches down
To every human woe.

The length and breadth of Jesus' love
We cannot wholly grasp;
That we may all its fullness know,
Dear Lord, we humbly ask.

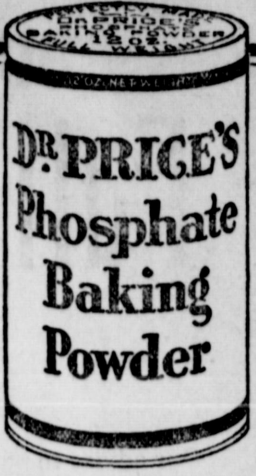

We know He chose a lowly birth—
On Calvary He died;
He tasted death for every one
When He was crucified.

Dear Lord, the debt of love we owe
We never can repay;
Just take us, Lord, and all we are,
And use us as you may.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR KEEPING HONEY BEE

Nectar Going to Waste in Tulip-Tree Regions.

No Question but That Area May Furnish Many Times More Product Than at Present—Bulletin Discusses Methods
(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

With the tons and tons of nectar going to waste every year in the tulip-tree region of the United States because the colonies of bees are not strong enough to get the full amount of surplus, there is no question that this area may furnish many times more honey than it does at present. This opinion is expressed by the United States Department of Agriculture in Farmers' Bulletin 1222, "Beekeeping in the Tulip-Tree Region," prepared by E. F. Phillips and George S. Demuth, and now available for distribution.
The tulip tree is occasionally found as far north as Vermont and Rhode Island, and west to Michigan, Arkansas and Louisiana. On the outer limits of its distribution it is not abundant. It is more plentiful on the south shore of Lake Erie and rare west of the Mississippi river, except in northeastern Arkansas and southeastern Missouri. The trees are more abundant and larger in the south-central part of its range, especially in Tennessee, Kentucky, the western part of the Carolinas, and in the Ohio river basin. It is common throughout the Piedmont plateau of Maryland and Virginia.
That this honey can be marketed at a profit is attested by the fact that this section now sends to outside regions for part of its honey supply. There is not the local prejudice to dark honey which exists in the clover region and in the West. All these factors taken together make the region one of promise. The enormous number of colonies of bees in this region is pointed to as proof of the great nectar resources, and if these colonies are given proper care vast quantities of honey can be produced.

The abandonment of the "gums" and box-hives and the adoption of modern equipment, together with practices more suited to the region, is advised. The region, it is said, needs more men engaged in beekeeping on a commercial scale as a chief or only occupation. The peculiarities of the region, however, are such as to demand a close study of the business. Careless beekeeping, it is pointed out, is entirely unprofitable, especially in places where the main honey flow comes so soon after the last killing frost of the spring.
Copies of the bulletin, which discusses methods for carrying on the business successfully, may be had free by writing to the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

LAYING HENS IN FARM FLOCK

Most Efficient Number is Between 150 and 500, Say Ohio Poultry Experts.
At least 150 laying hens should constitute the farm flock, say poultry experts at the Ohio experiment station. The most efficient flock is between 150 and 500. The flock containing fewer than 150 hens is not efficient, while flocks of more than 500, though perhaps too large for the general farmer, may be better adapted to those specializing fruit and poultry farms.

PROPER FERTILIZER TO BUY

Most Economical Material is That Containing Highest Percentage of Plant Food.
The most economical fertilizer to buy is the one containing the highest percentage of the plant food needed. It will cost more per ton, but may be used at a lower rate per acre because it does not contain so much useless material.

WEST TEXAS COUNTIES AT STATE FAIR SHOW

West Texas Chamber of Commerce Cooperating With State Fair Officials.

In full cooperation with officials of the State Fair of Texas, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Porter A. Whaley of Stamford, manager, is hard at work to the end of fullest representation at the forthcoming Fair, Oct. 6-15.
Mr. Whaley has advised State Fair officials that E. M. Whitaker, exhibit manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, is now in the field on an automobile tour. He is visiting various West Texas counties encouraging them to line up and send exhibits to the State Fair. He will also place exhibits in the hands of competent persons and raise funds with which to transport them to Dallas.
Oct. 13 is West Texas Chamber of Commerce Day at the Fair, and the Fourth Annual Exhibitors Banquet will be held that night.

MAGNIFICENT FIRE SPECTACLE TO BE STATE FAIR FEATURE

Before a built-up back-scene 500 feet long, constructed of heavy timbers and carrying the impression of distant mountains, there will be given at the State Fair of Texas, at Dallas, Oct. 6-15 this year, what is declared to be the most magnificent fire or pyrotechnic spectacle, even seen in the southwest.
Called "Mystic China," this year's State Fair "fire festival," it is said, is enacted to a carefully constructed scenario and by a number of real actors. It depicts an assault on an ancient Chinese city by a Tartar band; a repulse by the inhabitants and the subsequent celebration of the victory.
There is shown in a wonderful fire display the temple of the purple and gold Buddha; the "Feast of the Lanterns," the "Festival of Spring," the "Feast of the Dragon," and many other spectacles.
An elaborate daylight program has also been arranged for the grand stand enclosure, including Lillian Boyer, girl flyer, and the "Aerial Circus" of more than twenty thrilling acts.

Electrified dust thrown off by the sun forms an atmospheric envelope about the earth about 100 miles which prevents wireless waves from escaping into infinite space, according to Prof. J. A. Fleming, University college, London, whose work in wireless is known all over the world.
The screen made by the dust, he says, acts as a sort of wireless speaking tube and enables waves used for long-distance work—which are about ten miles in length—to travel 6,000 and 12,000 miles.
If it were not for that screen, according to the professor's theory, the wireless energy thrown out by the big sending towers would not cling to the earth, but would pass away and be lost.

SUN DUST IS A "RADIO NET"

How Big is an Electron?
One very noteworthy experiment in measuring an electron was performed by an American, Professor Millikan of Chicago. He introduced a minute drop of oil of about 1-10,000th inch in diameter in a chamber between two plates, whose electrical charge was subject to control. The drop of oil was strongly illuminated and was viewed with a telescope. By controlling the potentials of the plates the oil drop could be made to fall or rise at will. The drop continually picked up and lost electrons. As it picked up an electron it would move toward the positive plate. By carefully observing the action of the drop of oil, Millikan was able to determine very accurately the charge added to it by its picking up one electron.

GREECE READY TO QUIT ASIA MINOR

Commander Prisoner—King Is Fugitive—Would Demobilize Armies If Possible.

Athens.—The Greek Government has resigned. King Constantine has asked Nikolas Kalogeropoulos to form a new Ministry.
Paris.—Greece has offered to evacuate Asia Minor on condition that the Turks grant an immediate armistice.
The Greek offer was sent direct to Angora, the seat of the Turkish Nationalist Government.
This development, made known semi-officially here, follows close on the disaster which the Greek army in Asia Minor met at the hands of the Turks within the last twenty-four hours.
"We intend to take Smyrna and talk afterward," Fird Bey, European representative of the Angora Government, told the United News when asked what answer his Government is likely to make to the Greek request for an armistice.
"We can not now discuss an armistice," Bey said. "We intend to take Smyrna and talk afterward unless the Greeks completely surrender and unconditionally accept our terms in which we will demand complete evacuation of Asia Minor and the surrender of all war material"
The Turkish representative said he did not believe the Greeks could hold out at Smyrna.
"The Greeks are retreating in disorder," he said, "and are anxious to get aboard the warships waiting at Smyrna.
"Our advance guard is encountering little opposition. Soon we will either catch up with the main Greek army or it will be driven into the sea. It is evident that the Greeks intended to embark part of their troops at Mundiana, but we did not give them time. If they do not surrender we will enter Smyrna with fixed bayonets."
Following the capture of the Greek commander in chief, General Tricoupis, the Turks swept the demoralized Greeks before them in a chase toward Smyrna. The Greeks, unable to put up an effective fight, could do nothing but burn their stronghold and flee before the on-sweeping cavalry.
Mustapha Kemal issued an order to his troops announcing any molestation of Christians will be punished by death.

ANTI-PROFITEERING COAL BILL IS PASSED

Senate Acts On the Measure and Sends it to Conference.

Washington.—With only seven negative votes recorded, the Senate passed the first of the emergency coal bills, the House measure as amended was sent to conference for adjustment of differences with the House.
Passage of the profiteering bill was followed immediately by consideration of the fact-finding commission measure, but final action on it was deferred by a sudden, and, at times, heated debate over provisions which would direct the commission to study the question of nationalization of the mines, along with other phases of the industry.
Before quitting for the day, the commission bill was amended to direct the agency to make a separate and distinct investigation of the anthracite industry and to inquire into any "organized relationships" between miners and operators if they exist. The change was a direct result of the recent settlement of the anthracite tie-up. The fight on whether the commission should be directed to inquire into the advisability of nationalization is expected to be resumed as a result of an amendment to strike out this section.

Wife of President is Ill.

Washington.—Mrs. Harding, wife of the President, is ill and under the care of Dr. Sawyer, the family physician. She has been confined to the White House for several days. Her illness is described as an ailment neither alarming nor serious.

Cotton Crop Estimate Large.

Paris, Texas.—Although the cotton crop has deteriorated in Lamar County on account of hot weather and insect pests, the crop as a whole is expected to be about twice what it was last year. The yield last year was about 30,000 bales.

$1,000 in Merchandise Taken in Raid.

Lawton, Ok.—The store of W. A. Sapp of Sterling was robbed of $1,000 worth of merchandise Thursday night by persons who made their escape in an automobile.
