

NOW
KNOX

Should you be involved in an automobile accident on a state highway in this area . . . and happen to look up and see an angel or a Priest . . . don't be alarmed, or think that St. Peter is beckoning you to the "Pearly Gates". A Priest and an Angel perhaps will be there, because that is the names of the Highway Patrolmen in this district . . . Jesse Priest and Bill Angel.

Of course since this area has received some mighty good rains through the spring, the following little "joke" is a bit out of tune, but this scribe thought it was good enough to pass on to readers. Guess maybe it happened before the rains . . . but anyway here it is:—One farmer was talking about the dry weather and said, "Well it's too late to plant cotton, nearly too late to plant feed, so the only thing left to plant is 3-Minute Oats."

The 18-year-old German Miss who captured the hearts of Knox City Lions at the noon-day meeting last week . . . set a pretty good example of many of today's youth, no matter where they reside. Miss Nora Schwabe from Weisbaden, Germany, exchange student who has been attending high school at Stamford for the past year compared life in Germany with that in the United States.

The thing that "perked-up" the ears of this scribe was the way the German Miss stood before club members, and delivered her very fine and outstanding talk in such a clear, concise . . . and seemingly without fear, manner. It certainly did one's heart good to hear the well-versed youngster deliver her talk in English before appreciative Lions.

For too many times we have heard the expression . . . today's youth are "going to the dogs" . . . so this scribe was indeed glad to have had the privilege of hearing Miss Schwabe and it certainly renewed our faith in today's youth. Whether they live "over there" or "over here," we found out that young people of today face about the same problems . . . so, "hats off" to the youth of today, for they will be the responsible citizens of tomorrow.

Speaking of young people reminds us of the following little story: An exasperated father quipped to his somewhat unambitious son, "When Abraham Lincoln was your age he was splitting rails" . . . to which the son replied: "Yes, dad, and when Abe was your age he was president." So you see you certainly gotta' get up early to get ahead of today's youth.

We have often heard the expression . . . the early bird gets the worm . . . but would someone please inform this scribe what the worm gets????

Today's Food for Thought: All work and no play may make Jack a dull boy . . . but then on the other hand . . . all work and no play does make "Jack."

We hate to keep "muddling" up the Herald with that "ugly" word . . . "Wesley Garrison" . . . but this one is too good to keep bottled up. Rev. Muriel Johns, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and city secretary Wesley Garrison were joshing each other at Lions Club recently . . . but for one time at least, Rev. Johns got in the very effective last words. It seems that a leak had sprung in the water pipes at the church and Garrison was accusing the jovial Johns of being the only "leak" he knew of in the church . . . to which the preacher replied: "I had rather be a 'leak' in the church than a 'drip' in the city water department."

Hey Kids! . . . Don't get alarmed about the headline in the paper the other day which read: "Santa Claus Will Be Sold." You see the Santa Claus the article was referring to was the little tourist town named Santa Claus, California . . . which was put up for sale. The asking price was only $285,000.00.

'DOODLEBUG' DISCONTINUED

The Texas Railroad Commission said Wednesday of last week it had given the Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway authority to discontinue its passenger trains Nos. 45 and 46 between San Angelo and the Oklahoma-Texas line north of Chillicothe.

Zeb Smith, Knox City P&S agent received notification last Thursday, June 11 from trainmaster J. R. Fitzgerald that discontinuance of passenger service was effective as of that date.

Train No. 46 made its final run through Knox City last Thursday morning and old No. 45 chugged through on its last lap, Thursday evening.

J. G. Robin, at one time depot agent here, had the honor of being a passenger on "old 46" on its final run through here.

A hearing on the railroad's request was held June 2 in San Angelo. Railway officials testified the Texas section of the line showed a deficit of $92,317, for the year ending February 29, 1959. They estimated the deficit for the next 12 months would be more than $130,000.

Testimony also was presented that the post office department had cancelled the contract for carrying mail on the trains because it could save about $50,000 a year by transporting mail by motor trucks between San Angelo and Kiowa, Kansas.

Final Rites Held Friday For Father Mrs. G. H. Hudson

Final rites were held Friday at 2:30 p. m., from the Methodist Church in Hale Center, for John Trimmier, Sr., about 68, former resident of the O'Brien and Rochester area, and father of Mrs. G. H. Hudson, Benjamin Trimmier, an extensive landowner of Hale Center, passed away Wednesday night of last week in the Hale County Hospital, Hale Center. Interment was made at Plainview.

Survivors in the immediate family include his wife, Hale Center; one son, John Jr., of Hale Center; two daughters, Mrs. G. H. Hudson, Benjamin; Mrs. Mickey Breeden, Hale Center; one sister; four brothers, and seven grandchildren.

One son, Billy Joe, was killed in action in World War II.

Road Grader Hits Gas Main Friday

A county road grader operated by O. B. McElroy plowed into a gas main Friday morning at 10 o'clock, but no injuries were sustained.

The grader blade hit the four-inch gas main and cut a hole in the pipe. There was approximately 200 pounds of pressure on the pipe at the time of the mishap.

McElroy turned the motor off and left the machine where the pipe was struck. The gas main is located between Six and Seventh Streets at the East end of town.

Don Reeves said the main was located in the Seymour jurisdiction and crews from Seymour were called here to repair the damaged pipe. The gas pipe was plugged and repaired late Friday.

Lions View Film; Hear Talk On Importance Cotton

John Gregg, staff member National Cotton Council, of Lubbock, showed a film, "Cotton, Nature's Wonder Fiber," and talked on "Importance of Cotton to Knox County," at the Wednesday noon-day luncheon session of the Knox City Lions Club.

The National Cotton Council headquarters is located at Memphis, Tenn.

Knox County has a $4,500,000 cotton and cotton seed value and 12 gins located in the county, with close to $2,000,000.00 investment, Gregg pointed out.

Charles Reese was in charge of the Wednesday noon luncheon program.

Since Lions Ladies Night is set for next Thursday night, 8:00 o'clock at the swimming pool, there will be no noon day meeting of Knox City Lions next Wednesday, president of the club Otto Lawson, announced.

Driver Receives Injured Foot

LaDell Driver, an employee of Fletcher Oil and Gas Company, is receiving treatment in the Knox County Hospital for injuries received to his right foot last week end.

The accident occurred when a drill collar fell on his foot. According to his doctor, no broken bones were received in the mishap, but he will be hospitalized several days.

O'BRIEN SOON TO HAVE ITS FIRST CITY WATER SYSTEM

According to Mayor D. S. Gotthard, O'Brien will have municipal water for the first time.

Sitting atop a 100-foot steel tower is a 35,000-gallon water reservoir to give the pressure and a reserve supply in case of fire needs. Two 60-foot wells pumped by electricity will furnish excellent domestic water at the rate of 350-gallons a minute each.

Presently a few mercantile establishments and service stations derive their water from the gins.

Residents Hear Feasibility Of Demineralization Plant

Stamford Chamber of Commerce was dinner hosts to a number of area C of C members and businessmen Thursday night at Stamford.

The meeting was to acquaint and inform the people of the area of the progress and importance of the Brackish Water Demineralization Plant. This would convert salt water and hard gypsum water suitable for human consumption.

A. C. Humphrey, Stamford, chairman of the committee, spoke before the dinner guests and answered questions concerning the salt water conversion plant.

The government has authorized the construction of five such experimental plants in the United States. Only one of the plants has been built and that one is located on the east coast.

Since the government authorized the construction of the plants, Stamford has tried to get the government to install one of the plants somewhere on the Brazos River or Double Mountain Fork.

Stamford wrote Freeze and Nichols, consulting engineers of Fort Worth, about the proposed water plant and asked their help in testing this area to see what could be done to convert the useless water of the Brazos and the gypsum water of the area into usable water.

They made a study of the surrounding country and thought so much of the idea that they have agreed that this locality would be the best place for the experimental station. Ocean water is the same, or practically the same from coast to coast, but the water in this part of the country ranges from salt, brackish and gypsum—three different types—and can be found in one place.

Humphrey stated there were 20 million people affected by this water conversion system. He said Stamford had been water conscious for so many years, that the people there probably knew more about water than anyone else, as they had so little usable water that they have made extensive studies of water. They have ample water, as well as most towns in this area, but the water is unfit for consumption, because it was too hard and salty.

"The water in the Brazos ranges from 75,000 parts hardness down to a minimum of 7,000 parts. The maximum hardness for human consumption is 1,000 parts hardness," Humphrey continued.

Freeze and Nichols said the ideal location for the experimental plant would be 6.4 miles from Old Glory Brazos River and from the Double Mountain Fork, 2.9 miles.

At this location water could be obtained from three different sources—Double Mountain Fork, Upper Brazos River and wells could be drilled at that location to supplement the water needed for the plant.

At present, the cost of 1,000 gallons of converted water is a little over $1.00 per 1,000 gallons, compared to the customary price of 35 cents per 1,000 gallons in most towns.

The water converted would be (See WATER PLANT, Page 8)

Philip Colehour Accepts Position At Chico College

Colehour will receive his Masters Degree in Library Science in August from George Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn.

The new air conditioned library building constructed at Chico, will be ready for occupancy in July.

Colehour will be in Knox City for a brief visit enroute to Chico. Mrs. Colehour will accompany him to California for a few weeks visit.

Grain Harvest To "Wind-Up" This Weekend

Grain harvest in the Knox City area will be just about completed by the weekend, local grain dealers say. At present time harvesting of grain was about 95% complete.

Just a few small fields where it has been too wet to cut, is about all that remains to be harvested. Sam White and John Crossover said.

Crossover and White report a large acreage has been planted to maize and prospect for a bumper crop are good.

New Office Building For O'Brien Gin Is Under Construction

The O'Brien Co-Operative Gin is erecting a 62x30 foot concrete block office building.

It will be fireproof, five rooms and restrooms. Floor will be tile and the building should be ready for occupancy in about two weeks.

The new office building will occupy the site of the large wooden building. Ikie Ray, gin manager, is supervising construction which is being done by gin employees.

S. N. Reed is arranging plans and is general supervisor, and Bill Matura will be the bricklayer.

Just A "Measly" $12,100 Mistake!

In the courthouse news in last week's issue of the Herald, the name of T. S. Porter should have read T. C. Carter, who seconded the motion to order the court to transfer $6,000 from the salary fund to the 3rd class fund.

Also the bid on the new roof for the courthouse should have been $1900, instead of $14,000. Insurance will cover the cost of the new roof.

JUST TALK

By JAMES HILL

For someone who has tried to get along with everyone around here and make a few friends, seems as though we have been a complete flop. First off we had a run-in with the city marshal and then we had a little trouble with Mayor Otis Harbert, and next City Hall blew up in our face.

Then not long ago the wife had been folding papers and after the city papers were wrapped, she delivered them to the postoffice. She didn't take the time to wash the glycerine off her hands so they were pretty slick. On the way back to the office she turned the corner and her hands slipped off the steering wheel, and who do you suppose she ran off the road? Yep, that's right . . . the Highway Patrol . . . Marshal Eddie Carr happened to be in the car with them and when they asked who the driver of the car was, he gleefully told them it was one of those nuts from the newspaper office. Now Eddie has tried and tried to get us in the K. C. calaboose, and he probably thought that should do the trick, but after the H. P. discovered she worked at the Herald they probably decided she was a hopeless case anyhow, and let her go on her way.

Last week we ran an ad with Judge Williams phone number, and as things turned out, it was not the Judge's ad . . .

Still we weren't too despondent until the wife made a long past due confession the other night when she found out we were going to a meeting in Stamford with the local bank president, Bruce Campbell . . . It seems that right after we first moved to Knox City, and weren't too well acquainted around here that Campbell sent the wife a check to renew his daughter's subscription to the Herald. He sent the check in a Citizen's State Bank envelope and when the wife couldn't locate the card in the files, she just dropped by the bank to get matters straightened out. She asked Fuller Shannon if a B. B. Campbell worked there, and he informed her that the gentleman was there occasionally, and that sometimes he did work. Fuller was making a joke of the matter and the wife didn't catch the drift of things and asked "What does he do, anyway, is he the janitor?" After Fuller pointed out the plaque on the president's desk the wife just flipped. We feel certain that Campbell has heard the word, for he fixed us with a baleful eye all the way to Stamford, and the Judge kept pretty close tab on us, too! In any event we had George Houston, Jack Arledge, and Mayor D. S. Gothard of O'Brien with us and we think they are still friendly?????

George Houston had made an appointment for us to take a series of pictures of Mrs. Donald Tankersley last Saturday morning to be used in the Stamford Rodeo publicity division. Elizabeth is representing Knox City at the Rodeo this year, and we wanted to send pictures of her to the association for use in their publicity campaign. We ran Elizabeth through all the paces of changing from western to formal attire. Then we decided to make a few pictures of her mount. Now all of this was a lot of trouble for Mr. and Mrs. Tankersley, but they were very nice and obliging about it, which made everything fine and dandy 'til we got back to the office and started developing the pictures. The chemicals were too warm, so we put them in the refrigerator to cool. The acid fixer and the negative developer are in the same type bottle, and after being in the semi-darkness we couldn't read the labels and used the fixer instead of the developer on the negatives, and there went all of that work, time, and effort right in the waste basket! We had to go back Monday and put those nice people to all that work again, so I guess we lost two more good friends.

To top it all off, last week I

Knox Citian Takes Part In "Twin Peaks" Operation

Frank E. Griffith, radioman third class, USN, son of Frank S. Griffith of 501 E. Main, Knox City, serving aboard the dock landing ship USS Whetstone, took part in an amphibious landing on the beaches of Camp Pendleton, Calif., May 28.

The operation known as "Twin Peaks", involved more than 60 Navy ships and 25,000 Marines and was the largest exercise of its type since January 1957.

Participating in "Twin Peaks" were cruisers, destroyers, minesweepers, submarines, underwater demolition teams, and assorted amphibious force ships which comprised both "friendly" and "aggressor" forces. They employed conventional and simulated atomic weapons in carrying out their part in the amphibious assault exercise.

misread the wife's copy and we printed in the Herald that the new roof for the courthouse was to cost $14,000, instead of $1900! So, now everybody in Benjamin is mad at us, and it is doubtful if the wife will be on speaking terms with us for printing all the boners she has pulled, and we will probably starve to death in the near future if Wesley Garrison doesn't take pity on us and throw us in the pokey for safekeeping. Wonder how the food is over there?

On the way back to Knox City from the Tankersleys we stopped by the hangar where George Houston has his crop dusting plane. George explained all the finer points of flying and aviation in general to us and this brought up the subject of an airport for Knox City. This would certainly be a worthwhile project for all of us to work on as a community project. An airport is a very worthwhile project that the town needs and will someday have to have to keep pace with the times. There are a number of businessmen in Knox City right now that would purchase their own planes and use an airport if one were available. Not only that, but there are more and more oil companies and allied business men that would come to Knox City if there were facilities for them to fly here.

Knox City is one of the most progressive towns in this part of the country . . . probably it is the most progressive, for its size, and air facilities is just another step in keeping the record straight. It will have to come someday, and if we can help accelerate the inevitable, we think we should.

Uncle Ben from Benjamin says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Well, school has let out for another year and the fellers at the country store Saturday night was paying their respects to this modern education system. One feller asked me to write a piece for him this week, on account of him having a complaint he wanted to make public. I'll give it to you just like he told it to me.

This feller says that modern education has got so high falutin that the parents can't even understand the report cards their kids fetch home. He says it used to be that a kid in school got A, B, C, D, E, or F on reading or somepun. Now they give him a mark on "aptitude" or "energy" or mark it down that the kid is "emotional" or maybe ain't washed his teeth today. This feller says the idea in having a kid bring home a report card is to let parents know how he's doing in school. If he gets a C on reading, they'll know he's doing pritty good, and if he gets a F in arithmetic they'll know he takes after his Ma and ain't much on figgers. But now they don't know no more when they git the report than they did afore he bring it home. All they know is their offspring is good or bad in "aptitude" or somepun.

This feller wants the school folks to just rig up a report and send it home that tells the simple fact of how the kid is doing, without all the extra trimmings about being "emotional" or "in-

TOPPING A TON of twisting, endswapping brahma bull, this cowboy hangs on to the loose bull rope and digs in with his spurs. In bull riding spurring doesn't add points to the rider's score, as it does in the bronc riding events, but the dulled hooks are mighty helpful for hanging on when this meanest and biggest of all rodeo animals cuts loose. This one of the most popular events at the Santa Rosa Roundup to be staged June 24-27 in Vernon, Texas.

dustrious." He says that if the parents was smart enough to understand all that junk they wouldn't be sending the kid to school in the first place. They'd be teaching him at home. That's the way this feller give it to me, Mister Editor, and I'm just passing it along to you fer what it's worth.

As a rule, I don't read them Washington columnists, not if I can help it. But last night I got to reading one by mistake and saw where rose bugs had about ruined Mamie's roses this year. I never dreamed, with all the money they're spending in Washington, that they didn't have a Bureau For The Protection Of The White House Rose Garden, with a Director, Field Superintendent, Bureau Chemist, Bookkeeper, Receptionist, and Janitor. They could take such an organization and tie it in with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and then they could set up a Liason Department. It seems a Liason Department is one that links up two departments, giving 'em three instead of two, creating many more jobs. Somebody shore went to sleep at the switch on this one. Them politicians could take this situation and create 200 jobs out of it, maybe 300 if the rose bugs got worse along in July.

Your truly,
Uncle Ben

Corner on Cotton

BY BOB COLLINS

Two or three of the best farm publications have run reader surveys to determine whether or not the farmer wants the government to continue the support programs . . . one of the surveys indicated that only 22 per cent of the readers wanted more help from the government . . . another survey showed that 86 per cent of the cotton farmers wanted some kind of a support program . . . now there are all kinds of ways of reading into a survey the results you wish . . . in fact, it is pretty difficult to reach any kind of a firm conclusion as a result of a survey taken like either of the two mentioned here . . . but one thing is certain to anyone who stops to think about it: continued supports that keep the price of any product above its true value can't last forever . . . we can't expect to keep on getting a price for American grown cotton that just isn't realistic . . . just as we can't keep on subsidizing cotton to foreign mills forever . . . this fact should make us look at the kind of research we need now.

There is a move to slant most of research on cotton toward finding new use for the product . . . but it is just as important to reduce the cost of growing the fiber . . . let's not let the fact that there is a surplus influence us to spend all our research in getting rid of the excess . . . let's channel a fair part of the research into cost of production . . . this is getting to be a more serious problem as publicity piles up about the farm surpluses.

Cotton Use Beter

Amount of cotton used in the U. S. is increasing over estimates of '58-'59 season . . . in fact, the USDA has had to up its forecast for the third time since November . . . estimate now is that U. S. spinners will utilize 8.7 million bales . . . that's up 450,000 bales over the November estimate.

More Farm Cash?

All across the country used farm machinery is bringing better prices . . . up about 20 per cent over last year . . . folks who know say this is because the farmers have money to spend now, that they are looking forward to large crops and that they hope to beat the high cost of farm labor by adding ma-

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Texas—When tax bills finally were passed by both the Texas House and the Senate, it was not dollars, but ideas that delayed agreement.

House bill was designed to raise about $150,000,000 over the next two years; Senate bill, about $160,000,000. Big difference was in where the money would come from. House bill was evenly between selective sales taxes and taxes on natural resources and corporation franchises.

Senate, which heard a long of witnesses on the dangers of shutting prosperity-making industries out of Texas, changed the ratio. In its version, natural gas and corporations pay about 18 per cent of the tab; selective sales taxes, 82 per cent.

Senate voted a 15-15 tie on its bill, with Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey breaking the tie in favor of the bill.

Named to a free conference committee to adjust differences were Sens. R. A. Weinert, Seguin; Dorsey Hardeman, San Angelo; Charles F. Herring, Austin; Jimmy Phillips, Angelton; Bruce Reagan, Corpus Christi; Also Reprs. V. L. Ramsey, Beckville; W. T. Oliver, Port Neches; Don Kennard, Fort Worth; Alonzo Jamison, Denton; George Cook, Odessa.

HOW THEY STACK—These items were hit, in varying degrees, by the House and Senate bills that went to conference committee:

CORPORATIONS—Senate, raise $10,800,000 by hiking the franchise tax from $2.25 to $2.75 per $1,000 capitalization. House, raise $12,000,000 by a new two-factor tax on interstate corporations.

NATURAL GAS—Senate, raise $8,000,000 by increasing the production tax from 7 to 8 per cent. House, raise $36,500,000 by lowering production tax to 5 per cent and adding a 5 per cent severance beneficiary tax.

MOTOR VEHICLE SALES—Both houses agreed on increasing sales tax from 1.1 to 1.5 per cent to bring in an additional $7,000,000 to $8,000,000.

CIGARETTES—Senate, raise $31,500,000 by boosting tax 3 cents a pack. House, raise $10,500,000 (estimated) by a 1 cent a pack increase.

UTILITIES—Senate, increase the tax on water, gas and electric utilities by 20 per cent, for an estimated $2,600,000. House, increase all other utilities to the telephone company rate of 2.3 per cent, for an estimated $8,000,000.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES—Senate, increase liquor tax from $1.40 to $1.65 a gallon, to raise $2,000,000. House, increase it to $2.25 a gallon for $7,000,000.

Wine, Senate increased tax by 20 per cent, for $201,000. House doubled it for $1,000,000.

Senate also tripled fees for selling beer and wine, doubled permits for liquor selling, for an estimated $1,600,000. House bill does not include this.

TOBACCO PRODUCTS—Senate, would tax all such products, except snuff, by 12.5 per cent, to raise $3,400,000. House tax is twice this.

Sulphur—Senate voted to retain present rate. House would reduce from 1.40 to $1.0 per ton. There is disagreement as to whether production increase would offset the tax increase in total revenue received.

THEATER ADMISSION—Both Senate and House lopped this by about $120,000 a year.

SOUND EQUIPMENT—Senate added a 2.2 per cent sales tax on radios, televisions, hi-fi and hi-fi and stereophonic sets for an estimated $3,200,000.

BOATS—Senate added 1.5 per cent sales tax on boats and motors for an estimated $5,000,000.

PROPERTY BILL NIXED—For the second time this year, the House of Representatives has refused to sweep unclaimed property into the State Treasury.

The vote of 66-66 killed efforts in the Special Session. Vote that killed the bill earlier in the regular session was almost as close.

Gov. Price Daniel has urged the measure as a means of raising an estimated $25,000,000 for the State's ailing general fund. It would have required banks, oil and gas companies, insurance companies and others to turn over to the state any property belonging to persons who have been missing for more than seven years.

Bank lobbyists were blamed by Daniel for defeat of the bill. He said they must accept responsibility for the state's having to raise, through new taxes, the $25,000,000 the bill would have produced.

Bankers have contended the
