

Washington, D. C. Nov. 9—Most of the work of Congress this week has been done in committees. Many important problems are now receiving serious attention and debate in the various committee rooms on Capitol Hill.

On Thursday of this week I attended a meeting of Senators and representatives who listened to several of the eminent atomic scientists attack the proposed Johnson-May bill pending before the Military Affairs Committee. Most of the scientists went to pool all knowledge concerning atomic energy and make it available to all nations.

The American Association for the United Nations, Inc., an organization of distinguished Americans, contend that this secret should be controlled through the United Nations organization. They say that following our first statement we would keep the secret, the Russians immediately began developing uranium deposits in Czechoslovakia and hiring German scientists at fantastic salaries to work on the problem of atomic energy.

Secretary of Labor Schwelienbach appeared before one of my committees this week. Expenditures in Executive Departments, to testify in support of the so-called full employment bill. On cross-examination I asked Secretary Schwelienbach if he did not feel that Congress should pass some law or laws giving him more authority and power to settle labor disputes and to prevent strikes that were particularly against the public interest.

The election of Mr. O'Dwyer to be mayor of New York, the largest city in the world, on Tuesday of this week, is causing a lot of discussion in political circles. It is well known that Mr. O'Dwyer had the aggressive and militant support of Tammany Hall plus the active support of Mr. Sidney Hillman's Political Action Committee of the CIO.

To get a license to practice law before the Supreme Court of the United States, one must be introduced to that court by a member of the Supreme Court bar. It was my pleasure this week to introduce Mr. Tom M. Miller of Grambling, Texas, to the Supreme Court, for this purpose, Mr. Miller accompanied to Washington his young son, Dayne.

The Knox City Book Club met Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. H. W. Finley. Mrs. B. C. Anderson reviewed "Anna and the King of Siam," by Margeret Landon.

New members voted into the club are Mrs. Jack Wilson and Mrs. Leonard.

Triple-A Program For 1946 Will Be Locally Operated

The 1946 Agricultural Conservation program in Texas will give more responsibility to farmers, working through their AAA county and community committees in recommending conservation practices to be carried out on farms, according to N. E. Dodd, director of the Field Service Branch of the Production and Marketing Administration.

Under this plan the counties will be given an allocation of funds within which to operate their conservation programs. The local committees will sit down with individual farmers and help plan a conservation program based on the actual needs of the farms. Final approval of the plan will rest with the county committee. Past AAA programs have allocated assistance principally according to a statewide formula applicable to each farm in order to get practices carried out on a broad scale.

Mr. Dodd pointed out that the "grass roots" approach should help speed the efficient reconversion of the nation's farmland from the strain of wartime production to longer-range soil building and water conservation.

"The end of the war with its urgent demands for all-out production sounds a note of caution for farmers to take inventory of the most important capital asset—their land," Mr. Dodd declared. "Unless we conserve the productivity of our farms, we will jeopardize the bedrock foundation for lasting postwar prosperity."

The 1946 program has been planned to provide about the same assistance that farmers received under the 1945 program. However, more soil practices are expected to be carried out under the new program since the farmer will bear more of the conservation cost than under the 1945 program.

The 1946 program is divided into these types of practices for which assistance will be available: (1) Application of lime, fertilizer, and other materials; (2) planting of cover crops; (3) harvesting of legume and grass; (4) erosion control and water conservation; (5) range and pasture improvements; (6) forestry practices; (7) other practices such as noxious weed control and clearing land for pasture.

Special emphasis will be on the application of lime and fertilizers to grasses and legumes. Much of the soils in the humid areas of the state have been leached of their calcium and phosphorous.

Farmers receive ACP assistance in the form of conservation materials, service purchase orders or payments. Conservation materials are purchased largely through regular trade channels including local dealers.

There is need for planting legumes, green manure, and winter cover crops of many thousands of acres of pasture and meadow which were plowed up during the war. This land must be brought into system of cropping which will protect it against dangers of water and wind erosion.

With the demand for livestock and other farm products expected to remain at high levels for the next few years, there is a definite need for pasture and range improvement, including construction of ponds and reservoirs.

SUNDAY SINGING AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Tomorrow's Game With Megargel Is KC Greyhounds Last Contest Prior To District Clash With Paint Creek, 22nd

The Megargel Mustangs come to town Friday afternoon to play the Knox City Greyhounds in the final game of the season in this half of the district. Although defeated in their first encounter with the Knox City boys, the Mustangs field a classy team and promise plenty of competition to the north half district champs.

The Greyhounds are untied and undefeated in district play and the Pirates have suffered only one tie. In the first game of the season the Knox City boys were barely able to come out on the big end of a 13-12 score against the Pirates.

The game will begin at 7:30, Thursday, November 22, at Haskell. A good crowd is expected and everybody is urged to come out and see what looks from here to be the season's best.

Mrs. Martina Rocha, 105 Years Old, Buried Thursday

Funeral services were held in Knox City last Thursday for Mrs. Martina Rocha, whose sons, Pete, Raymond and Antonio Rocha, gave as her birth date, June 22, 1840, making her 105 years, four months and 17 days old.

Mrs. Rocha passed away at the home of her son, Antonio, three miles east of Rule, on November 7th. Graveside services were conducted at the Knox City cemetery by the Rev. Flores of Munday.

A son, Pete Rocha, is a well-known member of Knox City's Latin American colony. In whose home Mrs. Rocha had lived before moving to Haskell County 10 months ago.

Mrs. Rocha had lived in Texas for the past 50 years, and in Knox County a third of this time. She was born in Mexico, in the state of Tamaulipas, on June 22, 1840, five years before Texas became a state, and while Mexico was establishing her rights as a republic after throwing off the Spanish yoke. The U. S.-Mexican war was to begin six years later and then the treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo that brought peace between the neighboring nations.

Surviving Mrs. Rocha are three sons, Pete and Raymond of Knox City, and Antonio of Rule; six grandchildren and one great grandchild.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The Sophomores are still here even though everything is quiet. The school turned out Monday afternoon as it was Armistice. Our game Friday was called off by the O'Brien Bulldogs. We play Megargel Friday afternoon here. We hope everyone will turn out as it will prove to be a good game.

JUNIOR NEWS

The last two weeks we have been selling subscriptions for the Curtis magazines. We netted $84.00. The boys sold more subscriptions than the girls so perhaps you can expect a party real soon.

Our play books came in this morning so before long we will present the best play ever given. Everyone in high school who weren't already out were turned out, because the ones that were out were playing hooky.

Our game this week will be a good one, so we will be expecting a lot of you out. We play Megargel.

SENIOR NEWS

Everybody had a big time last week at the Sadie Hawkins party. All the pep squad girls invited boys. We went to Marie Robin's house and ate supper, then everybody went to the show. I think the boys had the best time because they didn't have to spend a thing.

We sold poppies for the American Legion Friday and Saturday, and we want to thank everyone who cooperated with us by buying one.

SADIE HAWKINS PARTY

Wednesday night, November 7, the pep squad girls gave a Sadie Hawkins party.

The girls, which were very nice gentlemen, went for their dates about 6:30, and then we all met in the home of Maire Robin. For refreshments we served them sandwiches, potato chips, cookies, fruit and drinks.

Immediately after refreshments were served, we took them to the show here at Knox City.

Of course, we all tried to use our best manners, such as walking on the outside, helping them into the car, opening the door, buying them popcorn, etc. Maybe we set a good example for them!

Those present were: Lora and Henry, Dorothea F. and Bobby Joe, Billy O. and Rudolph, Beasie and Richard, Mildred and Monte, Louise and Sam, Bobby Lynn and Virginia, Dessie Mae and Fred, Edna Earle and Robert, Mary Lou and Sammy, Jessie and Ken, Margaret and Charles, Clara Dean and Jack, Marie and Wheeler, Mary B. and Mr. Graves, Maxine and Mr. Cape, Carol and Donald, Ruth Jane and Willie, Sheila and Hardy, Mary Sue and Quincey, Mary Jo and Roland, Olene and Sam.

I believe I can say for everyone else, as well as for myself, that we all had a good time, but it looks like we'll have to swear off having another one, because most of the boys are sick, and those who aren't sick are getting that way.

Billie Faubion.

DOGHOUSE

The Family Altar

By Rev. Violet Byers
Co-Pastor Foursquare Church

"For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ; for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth." These words are found in Romans 1:16, and were written by the apostle Paul to the Romans.

Paul, a man of God, used every means to further the gospel. He truly had a passion for souls and even when he was persecuted and thrown in jail he kept right on preaching by the very life he lived before others, and while in jail he wrote the Epistles to the different churches, which even today is the pattern for every church and every Christian to live by.

During this last 14 months I have written this column for our weekly paper endeavoring to point people to Jesus, the savior of the world. And through this other doors have been opened to preach through the printed page, so with this column I want to admonish each and every one to seek Jesus while he may be found, as I will not be writing this column again for a little while, but as soon as time will permit I will again write the Family Altar.

I have truly had great pleasure in writing this column, but as Paul says in 1 Corinthians 16:9, "For a great door and effectual is opened unto me." And truly like Paul I want to grasp every opportunity to preach Jesus Christ and Him Crucified.

Many people do not understand the Foursquare Gospel. But, dear friends, it is the Bible from beginning to end, bringing salvation to the lost, healing to the sick, the Baptism of the Holy Ghost to the believer, and the glorious hope of the Second Coming of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

We believe that every professing Christian should live a separated life unto God, shunning the things of the world, because the Scripture says we cannot serve both God and Mammon.

Dear Friends, live so that others will see Jesus in your life. Give your best to him, and lay up for your-elves treasures in Heaven, because it is only what we do for Christ that will live on. May God bless each and every reader and please pray for this new undertaking that it might be a blessing to everyone. Always remember that Jesus loves you.

Hungry for Turkey? Here's How To Fix It Just Right!

If your family has not had a holiday turkey for the past few years, you may be a bit rusty on a how to select and cook the 1945 turkey. This year, most families can have the traditional holiday birds if they want them, says Miss Lucile King, county home demonstration agent.

If it's roast turkey you want, get a bird that's young and tender with plenty of fat under the skin. The body should be well-rounded and the breast full-fleshed. Blemishes and pinfeathers should be few.

To prepare, draw and groom the turkey, then sprinkle the inside with salt. Next, put the stuffing in, not too tightly since it expands as it absorbs juices that cook out of the bird. Slip a large crust of bread into the opening. This holds the legs under the band of skin at the tail. It's easy to put one stitch at the end of the breastbone and wrap the cord around the legs under the tail to secure the legs.

Now put some more stuffing in at the base of the neck, fold the neck skin toward the back of the bird and fasten with skewer, poultry pins or a few stitches. After you have rubbed the bird all over with fat and added salt and pepper, it's all ready for cooking, says Miss King.

A shallow uncovered pan is best for cooking a young turkey. Start by placing the bird in the pan breast down, and if the bird is young, don't put water in the bottom of the pan. Just place a rack under the bird to keep it from sticking and to allow hot air to circulate. Use moderate temperature for the bird—usually the larger the bird the lower the temperature. For example, a 10 to 13 pound bird will take about 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 hours at 300 degrees F. A larger bird, 14 to 17 pounds, takes about 5 to 6 hours at 275 degrees F.

Don't forget to baste frequently, turning the bird every time it is basted. This turning keeps parts standing high in the oven from cooking faster than others.

Major Consideration in home building plans

HEAT

The time to decide about your house heating is during planning stage because the new gas heating equipment requires flues for venting.*

When heating is planned as part of house and equipment installed when it is built or remodeled, it can be included as part of monthly payments. In this way the finest automatic gas heat costs so little more each month that even the builder of a modest cottage can afford it. So plan heat as part of house.

*Only when heating equipment is vented to a flue are wall sweating and stuffy air eliminated. Lone Star Gas Company recommends only equipment that is vented.

"IS THAT IN THE RULE BOOK?"

Whether it's football or business, Americans expect fair play all down the line.

In football, the referee is there to see that the game is played according to the rules. But he's not supposed to run with the ball.

In business, the referee is the government, which establishes regulations and fair practices.

But when government goes into business and competes with its own citizens, the American tradition of fair play is set aside. The referee then becomes a player, and he enjoys advantages that are denied to all the other players in the game.

Government-owned electric power systems, for example, pay no taxes. When they need capital, they get your tax money at little or no interest from the U. S. Treasury. To cover operating losses—an accepted political condition—you, as a taxpayer, will take care of that.

Business-managed power systems—unlike tax subsidized political methods—do not have these special privileges. They are not tax dodgers, they pay their full share of taxes, pay fair interest on public loans. Fortunately for you and your tax bill, over 80 per cent of all the electric power in this country is produced by tax-paying, self-supporting electric companies, owned and operated by several million folks like you.
