Mogulettes End Season with First Round Sectional Loss to Windthorst

No less than 20 turnovers in the first half of play at the sectional tournament game against Windthorst plunged the Mogulettes to defeat at the hands of the state ranked Trojanettes. Last Friday's 70 to 40 dismantling was due in part to poor passing by the Mogulettes, but credit also has to be given to the quick-as-a-cat Trojanette man defense which eliminated most of Munday's outside scoring opportunities. Keisha Collier, on the bench for most of the second period with early foul trouble, also added to the Mogulettes woes in the contest. Second half turnover problems continued to haunt the Mogulettes as they had another 14.

Munday was able to achieve some success inside, and coach Kent Josselet has to be pleased with what Keramie Brown was able to accomplish against an all state opponent. Brown had a double double with 18 points and 11 rebounds, and Collier scored 12 and snagged 9 rebounds as the Mogulettes had their usual strong inside game working. Sophomore Kylie Myers showed Mogulette fans that she will be a force in the seasons to come as she turned in a strong defensive performance and scored 4 points with 7 rebounds coming off the bench. Laurie Welch score 4 points and had 4 rebounds, Krisi Harlan had 2 rebounds, and Jennifer Hernandez snagged 1 rebound in the Friday afternoon playoff game.

The Mogulettes fought hard and gave a good effort, and came out strong in the third period scoring 16 points, but were just overmatched by the Trojanettes in the contest. Windthorst scored a consistent 19 points in the third and another 19 in the final period to slam the door on the Mogulettes and bring their season to a close.

Coach Kent Josselet commented after the game, "I'm really proud of these girls, we've worked hard all year but they've especially given a maximum effort the past few weeks. We've had good workouts and morale has been great. I'm looking forward to next year. We'll have 5 or 6 girls back, and we should have a strong team."

Munday finishes their season as Bi-District Champions with last week's victory over Cross Plains, and Windthorst defeated Brock by 1 point and moves on to the State Semi Final Tournament in Odessa.

MOGULETTE MOVES. Senior Krisi Harlan maneuvers the basketball down court last Friday at the Sectional Tournament held in Fort Worth. The Mogulettes were on the short side of the scoreboard with the Trojanettes from Windthorst advancing. The Mogulettes finished an outstanding season as Bi-District Champions while the Trojanettes moved on to beat Brock by one point and advance further in the play-offs.

Moguls Bury Baird to Win Bi-District Title

Munday cranked the offensive fire power up a notch to storm past the Baird Bears 63 to 40 in last night's Bi-District game at Merkel. Tony Tomlinson lead the offensive charge with a game high 18 points followed by Alan Albus and Jason Josselet both with 15. Will Longan and Jeffery Toliver both had 5 points each, and Chance Myers and Jeffrey Urbanczyk both had 2 each. Colt Weeks went 1 for 2 at the free throw line to complete the offense for the Moguls.

The Bi-District win propels the Moguls to the sectional tournament this Friday at Wilkerson Greines Arena in Fort Worth where they will face either Alvord or Era in a game to be played at 6:00 PM.

Senior leadership seemed to play a huge role in the Moguls victory as Tomlinson, Albus, and Longan made key plays at key times that just nailed the door shut on the Bears' hopes for a play off run. Both Tomlinson and Albus added 7 rebounds each in a contest that featured very few offensive rebounds as the Moguls seemed to hit just about everything they put up.

Jeffery Toliver drew first blood with three pointer, and Jason Josselet was on fire in the first to run up a 23 to 7 opening quarter for the Moguls.

On this night everything seemed to be clicking for the Moguls who not only had the height advantage, but also seemed to have an aggressive edge over the Bears who played much of the game trying to figure out just who to stop. Alan Albus created numerous opportunities with his defensive efforts all evening, particularly in the second half.

Munday built the lead up to over 30 until coach Ralph Klinkerman graciously emptied the Mogul bench and had all of his JV squad on the court to taste a little play off action.

The big win against Baird was the highest point total for the Bi-District Champion Moguls so far this year.

Quilters Find Business Opportunity in Stitching

For many living on the Knox Prairie creativity is often needed when starting up a new business venture. Jobs are often scarce in the rural areas of Texas but those who reside there often find themselves in a position of needing additional revenue to keep the home fires burning. And for several quilting hobbyists in the area their love and expertise of stitching has been just the right avenue to take towards creating a "cottage business."

Mary Cartwright of Munday and owner of "Mary's Creations" and partner in "Crafts 'N Clutter" says "I can't remember when I didn't quilt. My grandmother quilted and she must have taught me the basics. It has always been something I enjoyed."

Cartwright started "Mary's Creations" some thirty years ago and still utilizes a shop behind her home where she most often can be located.

Quilts, quilt tops, place-mats, vests, pot holders, - if it can be quilted or stitched it can find it's way from Cartwright's loving hands to new homes, hope chests, and the treasure boxes of it's new owners.

"I do nearly all my work by hand. I enjoy it so much - it's just what I prefer to do," says Cartwright.

Janice Albus of Knox City also works out of her home. "If you need to find me I'm out in my shop. The biggest part of my time is spent out here," relates Albus.

Albus started quilting only about seven years ago but has always been into stitching and other crafts. She was painting and also stitching up fancy stuffed animals complete with clothing when she found out that she would need back surgery and an extensive recuperation period. "I knew I would have to do something to keep me busy and I got the urge to do quilts when I was sewing stuffed animals. When you get your foot stuck in quilting you don't get it out," she admits.

Albus keeps busy stitching up quilts and other quilted items out of her shop. Sometimes people bring her the material they have chosen for their quilt while others find just the right combination of colors and blocks in the quilts that Albus has finished.

Since 1986 Albus has held a "Fun Nite" on Wednesday evenings in her home. After fifteen years many friends still come out to spend time together crafting. "We all quilt now. The Wednesday night's are open to everyone," she says. "It's therapy night for me - I get away from everything and enjoy the friendship of others."

Knox county native Christi Ross fell in love with quilting during her high school career at Benjamin High School. Ross has now turned that love into "Old Tyme Quilts" - a business that she runs out of her home. She specializes in heirloom quality hand-guided machine quilting. Ross takes her customers quilt tops and "understands the amount of time and money they have invested into the top," she says. "I believe that my customers deserve

Two husbands, Sam and Kregg, were discussing their wives.

Although happily married, they admitted that there were arguments sometimes.

Then Sam said, "I've made one great discovery. I now know how to always have the last word."

"Wow!" said Kregg, "How do you manage that?"

"It's easy," replied Sam. "My last words are always 'Yes, Dear.'"

In an American History discussion group, the professor was trying to explain that society's ideal of beauty changes with time.

"For example," noted the professor, "take the 1921 Miss America. She stood five feet one inch tall, weighed 108 pounds and had measurements of 30-25-32. How do you think she'd do in today's version of the contest?"

The class fell silent for a moment. Then one student piped up, "Not very well."

"Why is that?" asked the professor.

"For one thing," the student pointed out, "she'd be way too old."

Minding Your Own Business

with Don Taylor, co-author of Up Against the Wal-Marts

Great times never last, but great companies do!

Business will be better or worse. - Calvin Coolidge Surviving a slow down

Robert Schuller wrote a great book titled, Tough Times Never Last, But Tough People Do! I'd recommend the book to any of you who are struggling with your life or business.

Schuller's main premise in this book is that bad things happen to good people and you should expect some tough times. More importantly, you should know how to deal with tough times so that you get through your trials and difficulties with minimum damage.

I re-read portions of the book from time-to-time when I need a little mental toughening up. I was considering the title recently when it occurred to me that the opposite is also true in business. Great times never last, but great companies do. There is probably a good business book in that title, but for now I'll just use it for a column.

Before any of you accuse me of being a prophet or a pessimist, let me say that I'm not predicting a recession or even an economic slowdown. However, we've always had periods of decline alternating with growth. It's the nature of the business cycle to be up and down.

Be prepared

One of the best ways to weather the storms of life is to be prepared for them. I don't expect my house to burn down, but I carry insurance. I don't expect to lose my job this week, but I have a back-up plan to go to if that happened. I don't plan to die soon, but I do own a burial plot.

One of the best ways to survive in business is to be prepared for difficult times. We cannot anticipate all of the bad things that can happen to us, but we can anticipate the most common problems.

Here are some tips for surviving a slow time. I hope you'll give some thought to incorporating them into your business plan.

• Have a back up plan. Every business needs a plan "B." If what you're doing suddenly doesn't work anymore, what will you do? When I was young and immature I had no plan. I didn't even have a clue. My thoughts for success were focused on today.

Now I have contingency plans. I call them my "what if" plans. What if I lose my day job? What if my work slows down? What if my health fails? I ask tough questions and I look for feasible answers.

Think carefully. Think ahead. Then you'll be ready to act quickly when a crisis comes.

• Have a cash reserve. Someone once said money is a good servant, but a bad master. When tough times come, having cash will serve you well. However, if you're caught short life gets hard very quickly.

Personally, I like to have at least six months cash reserve. I want it working - earning interest - but available. For businesses, I'd recommend being able to cover at least three months of your operating expenses.

• Tighten your belt before you're hungry. It is hard to convince most business owners that they should work hard to eliminate waste when sales and profits are good. But, it's the perfect time to do it.

I've seen at least a hundred folks spend themselves poor in good times only to regret it when a slow-down came. The late Sam Walton became the richest man in America in 1985. He built his empire by keeping his belt tight. Wal-Mart operated on only half the expenses consumed by other retail giants at the time.

Keep your belt tight in good times. Frugality is a great source of income.

Texas Independence Day celebration gaining momentum

By Mike Cox
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN-When 59 Texans signed a declaration of independence from Mexico on March 2, 1836, the Alamo was surrounded by an army whose leader viewed those advocating Texas sovereignty as nothing but pirates.

General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna intended to put down the rebellion and leave Texas scorched and soaked in blood. The 42-year-old dictator had done the same thing the year before in putting down a revolt in the Mexican state of Zacatecas.

Four days after the Texas independence declaration was signed at Washington-on-the-Brazos, Santa Anna stormed the Alamo and soon was marching east in pursuit of the remainder of the Texas' ragtag Army.

But on April 21 Sam Houston and his soldiers defeated the Mexican general at San Jacinto and Texas was on its way to a decade as an independent republic before becoming a state of the union.

The anniversary of the signing of that cheeky document that got it all started has been a state holiday for years. As late as the 1960s, most schools closed in observance of the day.

Eventually, the day was dropped as a school holiday and activities in observance of the holiday began to fade.

Three years ago, a group of later-day Texas patriots led by Jay L. Johnson and Roger T. Moore of Austin decided more attention should be paid to March 2 and the reason the date stands out in Texas history.

The result was the organization of Celebrate Texas, a non-profit group whose goal is to "encourage and promote the education of the general public regarding Texas Independence Day and the history of Texas and its people."

Since then, the group has organized a Texas Independence Day celebration in Austin that has grown larger each year.

This year's March 2 observance begins at 9:30 a.m. that Friday with a memorial ceremony at the State Cemetery. At 11:30 a.m., a parade will move up Congress Avenue from First Street to the Capitol.

So far, 80 units, from bands to reenactment groups, have signed up to be in the parade. That's 13 more than last year.

At noon on the south steps of the Capitol there will be some brief speechifying and Texas music.

"My attitude is that we ought to appreciate Texas at least one day a year," said Moore, an Austin advertising agency owner and cartoonist.

"There was a lot of Texas-bashing in the presidential race last year, but we happen to think Texas is a pretty nice place," he said.

Good drivers to get a break

Beginning soon, qualifying Texans will be able to renew their driver licenses or identification cards on line or by telephone.

There's a catch, though. Only those eligible to renew by mail will be able to take care of driver license or ID card business without going to a Department of Public Safety driver license office. To qualify, you have to have a clean driving record for the previous three years.

The DPS says about 80,000 Texans a month currently renew by mail. That number is expected to increase when the online and telephone renewal program kicks in. Eventually, the DPS says, it expects 40 percent of Texas driver license or ID card holders will be renewing without having to go to a DPS office.

This should substantially reduce waiting time for those who still need to visit a DPS driver license office.

To access the DPS website, go to www.txdps.state.tx.us or www.texasonline.com.

CAPITOL COMMENT

U.S. SENATOR
KAY BAILEY HUTCHISON

'I deem it the duty of every man to devote a certain portion of his income for charitable purposes, and ... his further duty to see it so applied as to do the most good of which it is capable.' - Thomas Jefferson, 1806

Thomas Jefferson never imagined in his wildest dreams that the federal government which he helped to found would exact tribute from Americans' philanthropic efforts. But that is the case in our country today.

Right now, Americans who wish to donate assets held in an IRA to a charity of their choice have to pay federal taxes on those assets first. Under current law, Uncle Sam takes as much as 39 percent of such gifts out in taxes. So I have sponsored legislation, the Charitable IRA Rollover Act, to allow these generous-hearted individuals to roll over assets from an IRA to a charity without incurring a tax liability. Gifts to charity shouldn't be taxable events. This measure is written to encourage America's best charitable instincts, and to strengthen our charitable organizations as well as our colleges, universities and other educational institutions.

Here's how it would work: Many people have done such a good job of saving for their retirement that, when the day comes, they find they do not need any or part of the assets they hold in IRAs for living expenses. They would like to donate those funds to a charity or educational institution whose work they support.

Under current law, they must remove the funds from their IRA, pay any federal taxes owed and make their diminished contribution to charity.

My bill would change that burdensome and costly process by allowing a person who has reached age 59 to move assets from an IRA directly to a charity or into a qualifying deferred charitable gift plan without having to pay federal tax on the transfer funds.

This could provide a valuable new stream of philanthropy for our nation's charities. Recent studies show that retirement plan assets comprise a substantial part of the net worth of many individuals. So these IRA assets represent the main source of funds from which they can make charitable gifts.

The additional giving encouraged by my Charitable IRA Rollover Act would support increased public services through the nonprofit sector. I believe voluntary charity changes hearts and lives much more effectively than government programs — the hearts and lives of those who voluntarily help as well as those in need of a hand.

Americans are among the most generous people in the world — 70 percent of all U.S. households contribute to charity — but we have the potential to give even more. To those who argue we can't afford to forego this particular stream of tax revenue, I would counter with Thomas Jefferson's words once more: "I would rather be exposed to the inconveniences attending too much liberty than to those attending too small a degree of it."

I first introduced the Charitable IRA Rollover Act in 1998. Unfortunately, it was part of the tax relief bill that President Clinton vetoed in 1999. With a President who has expressed support for tax relief and for encouraging private charities to step in where government cannot, I'm hopeful the time is right to make the Charitable IRA Rollover Act the law of the land.

Keeping an Eye on Texas

Do Less, Save More

According to a recent research study, U.S. businesses and nonprofit organizations saved more than $15 billion by using the Internet for various purposes, such as transactions previously conducted in person, by mail or by phone. Researchers estimate these savings will rise to about $600 billion by 2002.

State and federal government agencies also could reap savings by eliminating or streamlining the following activities through technology:

- ✈ error correction,
- ✈ manual data entry,
- ✈ paper forms handling,
- ✈ outdated mail sorting procedures,
- ✈ call centers providing basic information and
- ✈ physical handling of documents for microfilming.

Commissioner's Court Appoints Members to the Knox County Historical Commission

On January 8, 2001 a regular meeting of the Honorable Knox County Commissioners' Court was held at the Courthouse in the city of Benjamin, Texas.

Knox County Judge David N. Perdue called the Commissioners' Court to order. Also present were Commissioners Johnny Birkenfeld, Weldon Skiles, Jerry Parker, and Jimmy Urbanczyk, Treasurer Penny Goodwin, Sheriff Dean Homstad, Chief Appraiser/Tax Assessor - Collector Stanton Brown, and County Attorney Bobby D. Burnett. County Clerk Ronnie Verhalen absent.

The Court considered the following matters as posted and filed for Record in the office of the County Clerk on January 4, 2001, at 3:00 p.m.

Upon motion by Commissioner Birkenfeld and seconded by Commissioner Parker, Minutes of the Regular Meeting of December 11, 2000 were unanimously approved.

Judge Perdue moved to bring off the table the issue of Section 6.24 (b) of the Property Tax Code, previously submitted by Tax Assessor-Collector Stanton Brown. Commissioner Urbanczyk seconded the motion, with all in favor. Judge Perdue stated that this item had been on the court's agenda numerous times and the issue needed to be resolved.

Stanton Brown had previously submitted an item concerning a notice to the Court that said he planned to exercise his rights under Section 6.24 (b) of the Property Tax Code which would allow him to collect all Knox County taxes in the future after January 31, 2001. Additionally, he expects the County to have in place the necessary computer hardware and software to accomplish these collections. The County's taxes have heretofore been collected by the Knox County Appraisal District since the District was organized, but that contract was not renewed.

Mr. Brown advised the Court that the contract between the County and the Appraisal District was not approved because it is his option, not the option of the Appraisal District nor of the Commissioners' Court, under the aforementioned rule of the Property tax Code. The Court was also told that the contract between the two entities did not cost the County anything. However, if these options take place it would cost the County an additional $30,000 to $40,000 per year for the same service that had not cost the county anything since the KCAD was formed.

Judge Perdue asked Mr. Brown to clarify if this request was for the budget year 2000-2001 or 2001-2002, since the County's budget began October 1, 2000, we are now in the fourth month of our budget year, and no funds were requested to implement such a contract during the budget workshops last summer. The Court was advised that his request had been on the agenda several times but no action was taken by the Court.

Commissioner Urbanczyk requested Mr. Brown to advise the court what equipment would be needed to make such a move because the Court had never received a request for funding during the budget process and had no idea what it might cost. Mr. Brown told the Court that the only comparison would be from Fisher County, which is comparable to Knox County and that the cost would be an additional amount between $30,000 and $40,000 per year.

Commissioner Birkenfeld asked Mr. Brown if the salary issue was the reason he had chosen to pursue these changes. The Court was advised that Knox County paid less than any county in the state for the same job he performs. There are approximately thirty-four counties in Texas that have a combined office of Tax Assessor/Collector and Chief Appraiser. Judge Perdue informed the Court that, according to an Attorney General opinion, salary changes cannot be made after the budget had been set and approved by the Court. It was finally concluded that the Court cannot make a change at this time.

Commissioner Urbanczyk moved that Stanton Brown determine how much additional funding would be needed to properly equip his office to obtain his request. Commissioner Birkenfeld seconded, and the vote was unanimous in favor.

Judge Perdue asked how much the Appraisal District had in reserve and why that amount was needed. The Court was advised that the Appraisal District had in reserve and why that amount was needed. The Court was advised that the Appraisal District had approximately $138,000 in certificates of deposit, which amounted to an excess of funds from the previous ten years of the District.

Upon motion by Commissioner Birkenfeld, seconded by Commissioner Skiles, and approved unanimously, the Court appointed the following members to the Knox County Historical Commission: Mary Jane Young (Chair), Clara Brown (Co-Chair), Mary Cartwright, Mary Birkenfeld, Frances Cook, Joy Hord, Bill Baker, Doris Crownover, Faye Railsback, Oscar Mangis, Leta Mangis, Alice Partridge, Bob Therwanger, Edith Beck, Herald Beck, W.T. Cartwright, Jo Etta Cartwright, Benny Grill, Jackie Young, Kenneth Roberts, Ramona Helms, and (ex-officio) David Perdue.

Commissioner Skiles initiated a motion to leave the elected officials on the County Grievance Committee and draw names from the past Grand Jury list for public members, to include (after the drawing took place) Beverly Kinnibrough, Christine Toliver, Dennis Welch, and Fred McGregor. Commissioner Urbanczyk seconded, and the motion passed unanimously.

The following Holiday Schedule for 2001 was approved on a motion by Commissioner Birkenfeld, seconded by Commissioner Parker, and approved unanimously:

Knox County Holidays - 2001
January 1 - New Year's
January 15 - Martin Luther King

Day
February 19 - Presidents' Day
April 13 - Good Friday
May 28 - Memorial Day
July 4 - Independence Day
September 3 - Labor Day
October 8 - Columbus Day
November 11 - Veterans' Day
November 22,23 - Thanksgiving
December 24,25 - Christmas

Judge Perdue advised the Court of the following information items:

- The Appraisal District will amend its contract in its February meeting to reimburse the County for its share of health insurance payments that the County had previously made.

- The Safety Committee discussed proper safety maintenance by CAT on heavy machinery operated within the County. A letter from Valor phone Company concerning the cutting of phone lines was made available.

- The Extension Service has interviewed two young men, recent college graduates, for the position of Agricultural Agent for the County.

- Commissioner Parker attended a Septic Tank Installation School, putting the County into compliance with three state regulations. Fees that Mr. Parker collects will be added to the budget for Precinct 2.

Treasurer Penny Goodwin presented the monthly bills. Upon motion by Commissioner Parker, seconded by Commissioner Urbanczyk, and approved by all, the Court voted to pay all bills.

Upon motion by Commissioner Birkenfeld, seconded by Commissioner Skiles, and carried unanimously, the meeting of the Court was adjourned.

The 12 of February 2001 was approved for the next regular meeting.

ten to their requests, and offers choices in thread, quilting styles and batting. Each quilt is unique and therefore deserves individualized attention," says Ross.

Ross has also been a quilt instructor for more than a decade. She has taught classes in Oklahoma and Texas, and also teaches classes on the internet at www.QuiltUniversity.com. Ross specializes in making memory and scrap quilts, and has been active in Quilting Guilds in the Oklahoma area. Ross now resides in Guthrie, Texas and is excited to be close to her parents, Jack and Judie Whitten of Benjamin, Texas.

Custom Machine Quilting by Donna Mizer has been on the Munday business scene since 1999.

Mizer began gathering quilting books in the early 80's when her interest in the craft began to emerge. It wasn't until 1989 that her first creation was actually realized. "I came from a quilting family but I didn't really realize that until recently," says Mizer. "My mom had done special quilt projects on occasion but never had much time for the craft. My grandmother had enjoyed quilting for many years but gave it up when she and my grandfather opened their own business," she relates.

Mizer has kept busy in the past several years with her business which focuses on creativity and customer desire.

Mizer, who has co-chaired the Cotton Pickin' Quilt Show committee for the Munday Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture for the past several years, has also lent her hand to piecing the last three Chamber of Commerce raffle quilts and has been in the group of volunteer quilters for two of them.

Mizer says she enjoys the creative aspects of quilting. "I never considered myself a creative person until I started quilting. Now I think there is creativeness in everyone - this is my outlet."

Jo's Machine Quilting in Munday is owned and operated by Jo Heard.

Jo began quilting in adulthood and often did hand quilting with a group of friends in the Gilliland area. Due to vision problems, Jo's husband talked her into getting a quilting machine which can now be heard humming away in the shop behind her home.

Since opening the business in 1991 Heard has finished a remarkable 1396 quilts. "When I have the energy and if it's a good day I can finish two or three," says the almost always energetic Heard. Quilts of all sizes and many home decorative items have found their way through Heard's hands, onto her machine, and into the happy hands of customers.

*We are grateful to all for the many kindnesses shown to us during a very trying time. To all who brought food, offered prayers, flowers, visits and mass offerings, we thank you. ## Cattlemen To Explore Beef Quality Assurance at March 5th Meeting

Rolling Plains cattlemen can get the low-down on a beef quality management system designed to improve consumer confidence in beef products and producer's bottom-line profitability at a March 5 meeting in Haskell County.

"Ron Gill, Extension livestock specialist at Dallas, and Dr. Buddy Faries, Extension program leader in veterinary medicine, will be on hand to explain how the Texas Beef Quality Assurance system works," said Brandon Anderson, Haskell County extension agent-agriculture. "The meeting will begin at 6 p.m., in the Haskell County Memorial Civic Center. There is no charge to attend, and a meal will be provided."

The Haskell County Extension Agriculture Committee and Haskell Veterinary Clinic are sponsoring this event, with help from Fort Dodge Animal Health and Hi Pro Animal Health, Anderson noted.

The Beef Quality Assurance (BQA) system was created 10 years ago by the National Cattlemen's Beef Association (NCBA) to maximize consumer confidence and acceptance of beef products. The system combines science, research and education to teach production methods that enable cattlemen to focus on quality from "the range to the table."

A united effort by state cattlemen's associations, beef councils, the Extension service, animal scientists, veterinarians, feed and animal health companies, packers, and retailers helps ensure that beef producers have access to BQA information. This information focuses on environmental management, record keeping, safe use of animal health products and sampling procedures for feed and feed ingredients. Ninety-eight percent of cattle going through feedlots, and 90 percent of cattle on farmers and ranches today are from states with BQA programs.

The Texas Beef Quality Producer program - sponsored by the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, Texas Beef Council, Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Texas Veterinary Medical Association - provides BQA education and certification for Texas cattle producers. This program helps producers develop their own customized BQA management plan, as well as records that document essential management procedures and support sound business decisions.

"If you plan to attend this meeting, please RSVP by calling the Haskell County Vet Clinic (940-864-3496) by Feb. 28 - so we can plan accordingly," Anderson added. "Those who attend can earn two general Continuing Education Units (CEUs). If you need more information about the meeting or BQA, feel free to call me at the Haskell County extension office (940-864-2658)."
