A couple, desperate to conceive jamin, Monday, November 11 at a child, went to their priest and asked him to pray for them.

"I'm going on a sabbatical to Rome," he replied, "and while She is the mother of Paul de los I'm there, I'll light a candle for you."

When the priest returned three years later, he went to the couple's house and found the wife and the Munday High School pregnant, busily attending to two sets of twins. Elated, the priest asked her where her husband was so that he could congratulate him.

"He's gone to Rome, to blow that candle out" came the harried reply.

MOGUL #51 TREY TAYLOR gets in on blocking duties against the Paducah Dragons last Friday night. The Mogul Offensive line helped to sustain their team and lead them to a 30 - 14 victory in last week's game, putting them at 3-0 in district play. The Moguls will travel to Hamlin this week to take on the Pied Pipers who are also looking for a victory that would put them in a district play-off position. Please travel to Hamlin this week and support the Moguls as they continue to work hard and improve each week. (Special guests at the Hamlin game will be the Baylor University Band who will perform at half-time.) See "Sports" Page 10.

Trick or Treat--the main Halloween activity for most children in the United States. The youngsters dress in costumes and masks and go from door to door saying "trick or treat." The neighbors, to avoid having tricks played on them, give the children such treats as candy, fruit, and money.

It is only fitting that the problems involving Iraq are accelerating during this time of the year. Although the world is supposed to wait until October 31st to invoke the "trick or treat" ritual, some have of his countrymen don't TREAT-- Saddam plays a already begun the merriment.

Take Saddam Hussein, for example. For the past 10 years or so that he had been defying United Nations sanctions (potentially eliciting tricks from the U.N.). He has, for instance, violated 16 or so resolutions and has, in fact, thumbed his nose at the world. How to handle such violations? Well, since Saddam didn't provide a TREAT, someone should probably play a TRICKon him, like maybe exhibiting some backbone and bombing him back several more centuries.

Simultaneously, while Saddam has been playing God--er, Allah--he has been a busy boy--gassing thousands of his own countrymen. Yeah, that would probably be considered naughty behavior--except. of course, not by the French and Germans. They're much more tolerant, don't you know. What to do? How about playing a trick on him?

Like maybe UNANIMOUSLY requiring him to conform to all U.N. resolutions.

Naw, too tricky. (There are too many little-bitty countries that have their little-bitty feelings hurt because they're not as successful as is the U.S.)

Oh, here's another trick-or-treat scenario. How about conducting an election for the supreme, mother-of-all-leaders of Iraq? EVERYBODY gets to vote, because if they don't, they will be hunted down like a rabid animal and shot on sight. How else could Saddam receive 11 million votes to 0?

Hey, now that's what I call a landslide! The country's No. 2 man, Izzat Ibrahim, gushed, "The 100 percent turnout, and 100 percent "yes" vote shows that all Iraqis are poised to defend Saddam against all evil outside forces."

Remember, when during the last vote taken 7 years ago, Saddam garnered a mere 99.96 percent of the vote, he persuaded the dissidents by playing a trick on them with rifles and ropes? Sort of a modernday, mother-of-all versions of trick or treat. (If some TRICK on them. Boo! Blam!)

Now, finally, comes the time for the ultimate trickor-treat event--Halloween, 2002. The goblins have voted 296-133 and the ghosts have voted 75-25 to travel over to Saddam's house and to roar, "Trick or

The head Halloween Master has mustered support from most of the civilized world to carry out

Here's how it will work: Ghosts and goblins will line up in Saddam's yard, knock on his many palace doors, and say, "Trick or treat." If he provides treats for everyone by allowing them to inspect ALL his facilities, including his many palaces, then all the ghosts and goblins will be happy and quietly go

However, if Saddam DOESN'T provide the treat, then the ghosts and goblins will play a trick on him--like attacking his sorry little regime with ships, planes, missiles, tanks, special forces, computers, psychological warfare and other attitude-adjusting Halloween tricks.

Hey, Saddam! Boo!

Farmers legal battle continues

About the only thing that has been going on is continued legal wrangling over the lawsuit involving the Attorney General's office and Farmers Insurance.

The state has information it maintains will show that the company's pricing policies are not legal. The company has maintained that information is proprietary and wants to keep it secret.

Last week both sides were awaiting a ruling on the matter from a Travis County district judge.

In September, Farmers announced it would abandon the Texas homeowner insurance market and cease policy renewals effective Nov. 11. The company still offers other types of insurance in Texas.

Early voting begins

The polls don't open for nearly another week, but thousands of Texans have already voted. As of late last week, 169,657 people have voted in the early balloting that started earlier this month. Of 7.8 million registered voters in 15 of the state's metropolitan counties, 2.17 percent have voted early so far either in person or by mail.

AUSTIN — 'Twas a only a few nights before the 3.68 percent of the registered voters have already in Fort Bend County, with 1.16 percent voting early.

For another half-million or so Texans, another important date on the calendar is Saturday, Nov. 2. That's the opening day of deer season this year. Hunting continues through Jan. 5 in the North Zone, and

The Parks and Wildlife Department said that deer population is considered better than last year. That number is somewhere around 3.5 million deer.

Tourists still traveling

Even with the terrorist attacks, the sputtering economy and a drop in tourist spending nationally, folks are still coming to Texas just for the fun of it. Statistics compiled by the Department of Economic Development show that leisure trips to Texas in 2001 were up by 8 percent compared with 2000. That is five points higher than the national average.

Texas also passed Florida to become the secondmost visited state with 6.9 percent of the market share of all U.S. leisure travel. California remains the top destination with 11.8 percent of all tourist travel.

TDA extends deadline for Family Land Heritage applications

The Texas Department of Agriculture has extended the deadline for accepting applications for the 2002 Family Land Heritage Program to Nov. 15. The extended deadline gives families who were busy with summer ranching and farming operations extra time to submit their applications.

The Family Land Heritage Program recognizes farms and ranches that have been in continuous agricultural production by the same family for 100, 150 and 200 years.

These individuals along with their parents, grandparents and greatgrandparents laid down a solid foundation that helped build Texas agriculture into what it is today - the state's second-largest industry." Agriculture Commissioner Susan Combs said. "I don't want any of these families to miss an opportunity to be honored for their contributions to Texas agriculture."

Program applications are available through TDA, county judges and on TDA's website at www.agr.state.tx.us. For more information, contact Family Land Heritage Coordinator Melissa Burns-Blair, Texas Department of Agriculture, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711 or (512) 463-2531.

Got Investment Losses? Make Them Work For You

If your investment goals are long term -- sending children to college, planning a comfortable retirement, providing a legacy for the next generation -- you probably adhere to a long-term investment philosophy.

But, a buy-and-hold strategy doesn't necessarily mean owning a stock forever. At some point, you may decide to sell a stock because it no longer meets your diversification needs, or because the underlying company has lost its competitive position within its industry. And, on occasion, you might sell a stock because its price has fallen so far that it may never recover. Whatever your reason for selling a stock, you'll want to get as much benefit from the losses as possible.

Fortunately, you've got an ally - the U.S. tax code. Your investment losses are tax-deductible, to a point. You can use your capital losses to offset any capital gains you have, plus up to $3,000 of other income, including earned income. So, for example, if you realized a $2,000 capital gain this year from selling stocks or other appreciated investments, you could write off up to $5,000 in losses. And you can carry forward any "excess" losses for future years.

In fact, because so many investors have realized more losses than they can write off in a single year, Congress is considering increasing the amount of losses that can be deducted annually. What happens if you'd like to write off some losses, but you still want to hang on to the stock that caused them? If you sell the stock, and then buy it back within 30 days, you can't deduct the losses, because you'd be violating the IRS' "wash-sale" rule. You could sell the stock, wait for 30 days, and then repurchase it - but you'd run the risk of having the stock's price rebound in the meantime.

As an alternative, you could sell the stock and immediately reinvest your proceeds in a similar company. As long as you're not investing in a stock that is "substantially identical" to the one you sold, you can generally avoid the wash-sale rule.

Nonetheless, you'll want to consult with your tax advisor and investment professional before making any of these types of moves. You'll probably never wish for your stocks to decline, but, if it happens, you can use the losses to brighten your tax season a bit - and that's always good news.

To go along with Friday's drug theme, the spirit day was 'Spook Paducah". Spooktacular spirit winners were Ezequiel Carranza, Maria Carranza, Lambrey Rawlins, Sarahlee Sanchez, and John Searcey. Way to help the Moguls do a "Boo-tiful" job, students!

SPOOKY SPIRIT WINNERS for "Spook Paducah" were Ezequiel Carranza, Maria Carranza, Lambrey Rawlins, Sarah lee Sanchez, and John Searcey.

Halloween parties will be held this week on Thursday, October 31. Please do not wear costumes. Find out when your child's party will be held and come join the fun! It will be a "bewitching" good time!

Class Happenings

PPCD has been singing "Rain, Rain go away" as these little guys focused on rain as the theme. The class read many books associated with rain, discussed things to do while it reading the award winning novel, rains. Students really enjoyed Number the Stars by Lois making rain noises with musical instruments.

Pre-K students are keeping safe learning about signs like stop, exit, yield, and hospital. The number 2 was the number of the week, and the class colored, traced, dotted, and wrote tooooo many two's! Celebrating birthday #5 was Diamond Perez. Ross Denman and Mary Nobriga were noted for doing a great job reciting the Pledge of Alligiance.

Kindergartners were like the Eric Carle book, The Very Busy Spider, as this class webbed of knowledge concerning spiders. Students enjoyed making spiders, eating spiders (chocolate covered), and sitting with spiders. On Thursday, Parker Finley brought a black widow spider to school for everyone to see. It scared Mrs. Pierce so much she missed school on Firday! Ff was the letter with all doing a fine, fantastic job, and action verbs were the language lesson. Students were thought to be plenty active with little outside playtime last week. Eye colors were tagged on the pictograph and brown was the most "seen" color. Senior helper, Jenni Carlson turned the voting age of 18!

First graders looked at the sort "i" sound and final "x" sound in reading, while English worked on word order. Social Studies look at homes as our shelter from weather and animals, while science delved into animals helping plants. Math class had students working on facts and adding zero to the number. Math Whizzes for the week were tatum Bufkin, Ana Campos, Rylie Decker, Molly Denman, Jarett Earle, Jarred Escobedo, Ethen Griffith, Brandy Homstad, Mayra Ramirez, Heather Thomas, and Kaylan Urbanczyk.

Second graders taste tested apples and graphed the results, and students enjoyed Mrs. Griffith, school counselor, reading a book about saying no to drugs to the class. Do oyu know if a word ends with "ck" or "k"? Ask a second grader, he/ she will know after last week's lesson. Also visiting the class were Uncle Sam and Lady Lib-

Third graders defined fact and opinion as they read about iceburgs and the Titanic. The class explored dictionaries to locate words with multiple meanings, and in computer students continue to work on prpoer keyboarding. Word processing was used on the paragraphgs students wrote on the dangers of iceburgs. Spelling star was Daniella Serrato, and English had the students looking for information in the library and paragraph organiza

The eco system was the science lesson while the Alamo and the War with Mexico was the social studies unit. Math continued with math facts while English classes worked on various writing topics. In art, students made hand bats and then wrote about what drove each batty Unfortunately most picked a sibling, but each student said he/she still loved the batty sib-

This week we feature two cooks who are sisters. "The Clowdis Girls" AKA Margaret Bartlett and Jacqueline Lowrance. They have lovingly submitted this recipe in memory of Melinda Lynn Lowrance, deceased daughter of Margaret and niece of Jacqueline.

This was one of Melinda's favorites and she insisted on having it at family gatherings. It is printed just as she wrote it in long-hand to give to her mother.

Raspberry (or Strawberry) Salad

2 cups pretzels, crushed 3/4 cup margarine, melted Mix together and pat into a 9" X 13" baking dish. Bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes. Cool.

1 1/2 cups powdered sugar

9 oz. carton Cool Whip

8 oz cream cheese, softened

2 cups miniature marshmallows

Mix sugar with cheese. Fold in Cool Whip and marshmallows. Spread onto layer of pretzels.

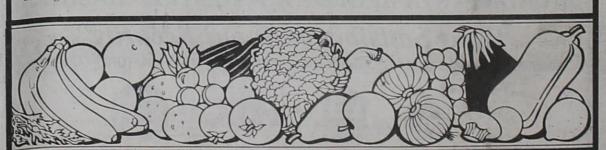

2 (3 oz.) pkgs berry Jello

1 (10 oz.) pkg. frozen berries

2 1/2 cups boiling water.

Dissolve Jello in boiling water. Add frozen berries. Chill until partially set. Pour over cheese mixture and refrigerate until firm.

(The Prairie Pantry is a column that is featured weekly in The Munday Courier. We hope that cooks in the area are excited about this feature and will volunteer to star in one of the weekly columns If you have a recipe you would like to share or if you know of a good cook in the area that we could call on please telephone us at (940) 422-4314. Knox County history book includes WWI references

by Clara Brown

History of Knox County include, first, a mention of Kelley Woodall of Goree, son of Dr. and Mrs. O.L. Woodell.

Kelley served in the AEF, American Expeditionary Forces, in WWI. The U.S. did not enter WWI until April 6, 1917 when war was declared on Germany following the sinking of U.S. merchant ships and discovery, in January, 1912, that Germany had attempted to draw Mexico into an alliance against the United

Gen. John J. Pershing began landing AEF troops in France on June 26, 1917. Bruce McCon of Truscott served Gen. Pershing as an aide. The general once reprimanded Bruce for helping a poor German family, but Bruce told the general, "You may courtmartial me (for fraternizing with the enemy), but I will continue to help this unfortunate family." And, he did continue to help (P. 431 of Between the Wichitas).

Two Knox City boys who died in WWI were Charles Leroy Teague and Charlie Jones.

The Knox City First Christian Church named members who served in WWI: Tom Paul Frizzell, E.R. Carpenter, Benton Anderson, Vance Favor, Rufus McClain, and Mike Perry

History of Knox County references to World War II include the following:

Bob Lee of Goree was born in 1918, the time of WWI and served in WWII.

Knox City men who gave their lives in WWII included Sam Ed Carpenter, Walton Dunlap, Willie Gene Klotts, Dickie Mullins, Lunsford Sanders, and Warren L. Smith.

Not a story of Armed Services, but certainly a reflection of the times; was that during WWII no new civilian cars were produced, World War I references in the all manufacturing of vehicles was aimed at supplying the war effort. So, J.M. Ashcroft, a Knox City Car Dealer, moved to Stamford after the war started.

Two mentions were made of the Knox County Selective Service and the draft board. The office was in the courthouse and record books listing hundreds of Knox County men are still preserved at the County seat.

Although no military draft exists in the U.S.A. at this time, young men between 18 and 25 are ordered by law to register with Selective Service and keep it up to date with their current addresses. Registration forms are available at local post offices.

A chairman of the county draft board in WWII was Jack C. Idol and J.A. Wilson served as board secretary.

County veterans exists, but most of it is in the memories of the men themselves and the memories of their friends and families.

The Knox County Historical Commission continues to seek out and record these memories to help make the service of veterans alive and real for future generations.

The annual Veteran's Day program is part of this effort. The annual fund-raiser after the ceremony not only serves to care for the markers, to help fund the expense of correcting or adding names, but also to help with the expense of gathering, writing, and publishing information about our veterans.

Knox County Commissioners have budgeted funs to help pay for monthly expenses such as lighting and water, to make the Knox County Veterans Memorial the respectful and beautiful place that it is.

In fact, David Counts wrote a bill early on to roll back your auto insurance rates by closing costly loopholes - but special interests shut it down.

David Counts knows that insurance rates are out of control. That's why he'll plug the loopholes and lower rates. He won't let the greed of the big insurance companies crush the dreams of Texas families.

Haynie & Hickson united in marriage

Mrs. Scott Hickson

Andrea Marie Haynie and Scott Hickson were united in marriage at 7:00 in the evening of October 5th; 2002 at St. Ann's Catholic Church in Coppell, Texas. Father Tom Dyer of Canton, Ohio, a friend of the groom's family, officiated at the nuptial mass.

Parents of the couple are David A. (Andy) and Dana Haynie of Flower Mound, Carol Cunningham of Roswell, New Mexico, and Bennie Hickson of Waco. The bride is the granddaughter of Valera Hertel and Sue Haynie of Munday. The groom's grandmothers are Roma Hanes and Wynelle Crow of Roswell, New Mexico.

Given in marriage by her father, Andrea wore a traditionally styled, ivory matte satin wedding gown designed by Ginza of New York. The gown featured a ball gown silhouette, sweetheart neckline and an A-line bodice that was lavishly covered with bridal pearls and sequins. The spaghetti straps of the gown were adorned with a single row of pearls. The hemline and cathedral train were outlined with wide appliqués of delicate alencon lace encrusted with bridal pearls and sequins. The ivory veil, designed by Symphony of New York, was fashioned with a beaded bun-wrap headpiece. The elbow length veil had two tiers accented with pearls. The bride carried a french bouquet of ribbon tied, royal ambiance roses and a rosary that belonged to her great-grandmother, Loretta Albus

Serving her cousin as Maid of Honor was Marcy Graves, of Chicago, Illinois. Bridesmaids were Ann Marie Midkiff and Cherie Hollis, of Dallas and Jennifer Hanes of Roswell, New Mexico. The bridesmaids wore floor length dresses of cranberry silk and carried bouquets of mixed jewel-toned flowers.

Best man was Kirk Martin of Lubbock. Groomsmen were Jason Haynie of Arlington, and Josh Hickson, Grant Looney, and Jeff Odorizzi of Lubbock. All groomsmen wore formal black tuxedos with white shirts, patterned vests and berry boutonnieres.

A reception and dance followed the ceremony at the Eisemann Performing Arts Center in Richardson. The bride's father was the project manager on the construction of the building, and the project was completed only a month earlier. Kristen Annett assisted the guests with registration.

The cake table was covered and draped with ivory satin with kissing balls as accents. The bride's cake was displayed on a silver, footed tray. Each of the three layers of amaretto-flavored cake had fondant icing and was encircled by gum paste roses. The same roses covered the top of the cake. The groom's cake was raspberry chocolate and depicted a golf scene. Punch was served from a silver and

The groom's mother and stepfather hosted a rehearsal dinner on Friday night at Lone Star Park in Grand Prairie, Texas.

The bride graduated from Texas Tech University. She is employed at the Wall Street Journal in Las Colinas. The groom is a graduate of Texas Tech University, and has a masters degree from the University of Notre Dame. He is employed by Ernst & Young in Dallas.

Following a honeymoon trip to Cozumel, Mexico the couple have made their home in Valley Ranch.

Maulers football teams to celebrate season with banquet cheerleaders are invited to celebrate the close of their first season with a banquet. The banquet will take place at the Perry Patton Community Center on Monday, November 4th. The festivities will begin at 7:00 and last until 8:30 p.m.

During the banquet the featured speaker and entertainer will be Phil Cole. Cole is the new youth leader at First Baptist Church in Munday. He resides in Abilene where he is involved with Pioneer Drive Baptist Church as an intern and also is a worship leader at McMurry University on Monday evenings. Cole is an active member of the Christian rock group Burgundy Road and travels through out the area using his musical talent as a witness for his Christian faith.

Maulers and Mauler Cheerleaders will all receive a participation award for their efforts during this first year of Pee Wee and Midget football in Munday. Winners of the latest fund-raising event will also be announced during the ban-

Brittany entered two items in the clothing category, finishing 1st with both a dress she made and a matching hat. Brittany was busy in the kitchen as well, as she entered 3 canned items. She ended up with 3 first place ribbons here with her salsa, pickles and relish. In the livestock division Brittany entered 4 meat goats. Competition was tough as she finished with a ninth and three tenth places.

Still talking goats, Chase Reed of Truscott ended up wiht an 8th and 9th place with his. A new family to Knox City, Trent and Becca Harris tried their luck in the Lamb Show. Trent received 5th place with his Fine Wool Cross and Becca 4th with hers. Becca also finished 8th with her medium wool and 2nd with her Southdown. Competition was steep in King County, but we all had a great time.

Brittany Coop entered the Jones County Fair and the West Texas Fair in Abilene in September. At Jones County on September 21, Brittany was 1st with her hat and two dressed, she received 2nd on her pillows and 1st on her duffle bag. In the Arts & Craft division she won 1st place on her lamp, a sreth, Christmas ornament and a terra cotta angel. Brittany's relish received first place and her two canned pickle varieties were second. Brittany alst entered in the meat goat division and finished 13th and 14th.

The West Texas Fair was September 6th and 7th. Miss Coop entered her hat and dress. The hat received a first place. She also placed 1st with her zucchini pickles, 4th with her relish, and 5th with her cucumber pickles.

Goree has great turn-out for 16th Homecoming was held on October 18-20 with a capacity crowd of approximately 250 ex-students, teachers and friends in attendance. The festivities began on Friday, October 18th with a hamburger supper and Bingo in the goree Memorial Building. The street dance had to be canceled because of the rain, but spirits were not dampened as ex-classmates spent the time re-living old school days and catching up on each other's lives since the last reunion.

The program was held in the old Goree gym on Saturday, October cafeteria, catered by the Coffee Shack in Seymour. Superintendent Donald Ballard welcomed the guests and provided the answer to the question on everybody's mind - assuring the crowd that just because Goree School is probably ending next year, the homecoming will con-appoint Greg Clonts as the new County Judge. Based on the submitted applications and interviews with six of the chosen applicants, he said, Mr. Clonts appeared to him to be the best and most qualified candidate for Judge. Commissioner Parker seconded the motion, and the Court unanimously approved. Commissioner Birkenfeld said that he would notify the other five candidates.

Members of the Court discussed at length requirements emanating from the U.S. Justice Department/Civil Rights Division/Voting Rights Section - requiring bilingual translators or poll watchers at each polling place for the upcoming General Election on November 5, including costs and difficulty of implementation. Commissioner Urbanczyk moved to have the Clerk take steps to comply with the Voting Rights Act by having Spanish speakers/translators at all polling places, including Early Voting. Commissioner Parker provided a second, and all voted in favor.

The Court considered Bobby G. Day's Application for Declaration of a Public Road to give him access to his Blue Goose Ranch north of Truscott. Upon the advice of County Attorney Bobby D. Burnett, Jerry Bob Daniel, the only person whose land the "neighborhood road" would affect, will be issued a citation and Bobby Day will be notified by letter so that each may appear at the next regular Commissioners' Court to plead his case. No action taken now.

Sheriff Dean Homstad delivered a written message from State Trooper Brian Williams stating that the radar equipment for his patrol car, previously discussed, would cost $2245. (The used radar equipment would be give to the Sheriff's Office.) Commissioner Parker moved to purchase the equipment, Commissioner Skiles seconded, and all con-

Munday rolls to 3 and 0 start in district play with 30 to 14 win over Paducah

Moguls tied for first can nail down a playoff spot with win this Friday over Hamlin

Munday piled up 246 yards on Paducah advanced the ball to mid-board. the ground and netted 118 yards through the air as their balanced attack put the squeeze on Paducah and brought the Moguls their first years. Jeffery Toliver was 4 for 8 with no interceptions and two touchdowns as the Senior quarter- after a Toliver fumble was back turned in another stellar performance showing marked improvement each week.

Munday got the ball rolling their way in the opening period after fumbling away their first possession at the Paducah 41. Dustin Flye took a pitch from Toliver and roared 77 yards strewing would be Dragon tacklers in his wake as he showed big league determination with a "not to be denied" stiff arm at the Paducah 10 that left a Dragon safety sprawling on the carpet with a handful of air. Toliver hit the PAT kick and the Dragons took over on their 26 after the kickoff.

The Munday defense lead by Junior Sanchez, Jerome Flye, and Micah Yates held the Dragons to three and out and after a short punt, Munday set up at mid-field and went back to work. Brandon Urbanczyk broke a quick hitter up the middle for 25 and Dustin Flye rushed the ball to the Dragon 9 where Toliver took it in with just :58 seconds left in the half. Toliver's PAT put the score at 14

Munday's line did a number on the Dragons this week opening holes and containing the Paducah ground game. The offensive line win over the Dragons in four Dragons to within 7 with :39 sec- for the second week in a row gave Toliver added seconds of protection and controlled the line of scrimmage in the contest.

This week the Moguls find themselves squarely in the hunt for a playoff spot and sit tied for the lead in district 9A with the Knox City Greyhounds. A win against the Pied Pipers of Hamlin this Friday clinches a payoff berth from post season play. Munday Munday's defense held the fleet will have to play their absolute bring home the win and force a district championship showdown with the 'Hounds the following week. The Munday secondary will face its toughest test as the air attack and balanced ground game of Hamlin will work to control the ball and keep the Mogul offense off the field. Munday's defensive line will most definitely have to come of age and control the game. Offensively Munday will need a big game out of the big guns. Toliver, Flye, both Urbanczyks, and Josselet will have to be unstoppable and determined to win in order to win. Nothing short of the Moguls' absolute best effort will do in this district match up.

TxDOT offers a Halloween reminder on the way, the Texas Department of Public Safety is reminding Texans to be safe and responsible this coming Halloween.

"Halloween is a fun time for both children and adults, but oftentimes people act or drive carelessly or are not aware of their surroundings," said Col. Thomas A. Davis Jr., director of the DPS.

On Halloween of 2000, there were 546 injuries and 11 fataliand to be on the lookout for trick- out visible porch lights.
