Odd Bits Salvaged

They're having trouble up at the school.

k-k

When asked about school troubles at Lions Club last week, Supt. W. C. Cox said they had them, but there was nothing the Lions could do about it. He had reference, of course, to absenteeism because of illness.

k-k

These most recent troubles are with traffic, and despite the fact the traffic rules for the school zone were published in this paper and announced over the public address system at a football game, the rules are still being violated. The safety committee has asked that they be published again and they urged to comply with them. Here's the substance of them:

k-k

No "U" turn permitted between street intersections in the school zone. No backing, stopping or parking in the crossing lane. Come to a complete stop any time a child is in the crossing lane. Slow down to 20 miles per hour in the school zone. The area will be patrolled during school hours, and violators of these rules will be fined.

k-k

And this one is for students who ride bicycles: All bicycles should cross the street in the crossing lane.

k-k

Strict observance of these rules may save you a fine and embarrassment — and maybe a child's life. Shucks, these school students are our children. Let's help to protect them!

k-k

You can never tell what will happen in the Southwestern Conference! We hear that almost every year, and last Saturday proved the statement, when the Rice Owls toppled the Texas Aggies from their No. 1 perch in footballdom. And it's yet undecided who will host the Cotton Bowl game on January 1.

k-k

Another team got toppled, too — those Oklahoma Sooners who had won so long they'd just about forgotten the bitterness of defeat. We have admiration for Notre Dame, who showed the Sooners they could be beaten, and on their own field.

k-k

Something that was welcomed by everyone this week was the appearance of sunshine to dry up the cotton and maize fields so harvest can be resumed. What most of us want, now, is several weeks of this welcomed sunshine.

k-k

Some of the Chamber of Commerce group are working on the annual Christmas season program, with visits from Santa Claus, a nativity scene on the city hall lawn, and other things that will make the town pretty and add to the Yuletide spirit. Things are going to be somewhat different this year — something that possibly everyone who comes to our town will enjoy.

k-k

That "Howdy, Neighbor" group of the C of C is something else that's new for Munday. The group calls on families who have moved into Munday, giving them a welcome to our town. It's been done in other towns, but this is the first time for Munday. A number of merchants are cooperating — perhaps not as many as should — by having gift certificates from their stores for the newcomers.

Awards Program For 4-H's Set Here For Monday

A county-wide 4-H awards supper and presentation ceremony will be held at the Munday Grade School on Monday evening at 6:30 p. m. This annual event is sponsored this year by the Munday Chamber of Commerce, honoring the outstanding 4-H boys and girls of Knox County.

Thirty-one 4-H boys and girls will be awarded medals for outstanding work in the various phases of 4-H, with the presentations beginning at 7:30, following the supper. Anyone interested in attending the awards presentation is cordially invited.

Cotton Growers to Vote December 10 On Marketing Quotas For 1958 Crop

Cotton producers of the nation will vote on December 10 to determine whether or not marketing quotas will be in effect on their 1958 crop. According to R. G. Shrauner, chairman, Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, this will be the twelfth time that growers have registered their choice on this question.

Marketing quotas have been in effect for the last four crops. Last December, 92.4 percent of the farmers voting approved quotas for the 1957 cotton crop. Two-thirds of the voters must favor quotas too, if they are to remain effective. The first referendum was held in 1938.

Under legislative provisions, the Secretary of Agriculture must proclaim a national marketing quota and a national acreage allotment for upland cotton whenever he finds that the total supply exceeds the normal supply. The total supply of upland cotton for the 1957-58 marketing year is estimated at 23.6 million running bales and the normal supply, that needed for domestic uses, for exports and a 30 percent carry-over reserve, is estimated at 17.6 million bales. Thus, the prospective total supply exceeds the normal supply by about 5.6 million bales, and quotas for the 1958 crop of upland cotton had to be proclaimed.

Marketing quotas, point out Shrauner, operate through acreage allotments. A grower who exceeds the cotton acreage allotment for his farm, under a cotton marketing quota program will be subject to a marketing quota penalty of 50 percent of parity on the farm's excess production. Growers who do not exceed their cotton allotments may market free of penalty all of the 1958 cotton production from their farms.

Sharuner said growers could get detailed information on the referendum by visiting the ASC office in their county.

Crowell Downs Moguls 46 To 0 In Final Game

After a scoreless first quarter, the Crowell Wildcats started crossing the goal stripe last Thursday night and downed the Munday Moguls, by a final score of 46 to 0 in the final chapter of the 1957 football season for the Moguls. The game was played at Crowell.

Prentice Gidney, Wildcat quarterback counted for five touchdowns as his team scored 20 points in the second quarter, 19 in the third and seven in the last stanza.

Crowell, who will play Henrietta on November 23 in Wichita Falls in the bi-district game, finished its regular season with a 9-1 record. The wildcats were unbeaten in winning the District 11-A title.

The Moguls won one game and tied one during the season.

Gidney scored three touchdowns, passed for another and punted. His touchdown scampers lateraled off for still another six-yard dash, 11 and 16 yards. The latter came on a pass from reserve quarterback Ivan Cates.

Halfback Gerald Bradford scored two touchdowns for the wildcats — both on 25-yard dashes. He took a lateral from Gidney for one of them. Cates got the final score for Crowell on a one-yard sneak in the fourth period.

End Harvey Smith kicked three extra points and reserve halfback Duane Nichols ran a cross the final extra point.

John Thomas Swain, 21, of Fort Worth was found dead in his bed at Roy's Courts in Knox City at about 8:15 a. m. Tuesday. Friends of Swain discovered the body when they went to his room to pick him up for work.

The body was taken to Fort Worth last Tuesday for burial. Justice of the Peace W. E. Lovelace and Dr. C. G. Markward said the cause of death was asphyxiation. They said the gas heater in the room where Swain was found was "wide open."

Postmaster Urges Early Christmas Mailing This Year

Predicting that the Christmas mail this year will set an all-time record, even exceeding the record set in 1956, Postmaster Haymes, announced his 1957 "Mail Early for Christmas" Campaign today.

With Christmas only a little more than a month away, the Postmaster reminds us, "It's later than you think!". Most folks have a tendency to wait until December rolls around before they give their Christmas mailing plans a thought!

The Postmaster further suggested that right now is the time to take the following steps: Check your Christmas card lists very carefully — make sure that each address includes the full name, street and number, city, zone and state.

He said, also, that it is a good idea to stock up on heavy wrapping paper, sturdy corrugated cartons, strong cord, and paper adhesive tape for use in securely packing and wrapping your Christmas gifts. If you'd like to include your Christmas card or letter inside your gift package, just add the appropriate First Class mail postage to the postage for the package itself; thus, insuring simultaneous arrival of your gift and greeting.

Mrs. S. A. Bowden returned home last Saturday from Wichita Falls, where she had been under treatment of a doctor for the past four weeks. She is reported to be getting along fine.

POLICING OF SCHOOL ZONE NOW UNDER WAY

A junior patrol, or mothers, of grade school children will be policing the school zone. The license number of any traffic violator will be taken and turned over to city police.

"We hope that everyone will do his best in observing the new rules," members of the P-TA safety committee, stated, "and that very few fines will be paid. We must do something about traffic violations in the school zone, and safety must start right there."

Letter To Mary

Dear Mary,
Thanks for reminding me to attend the bazaar on November 26, and the bake sale on November 27 at McCauley Furniture Co.

I would not miss it for the world. Those delicacies the Guild members bake simply melt in your mouth — and a bazaar fascinates me so. Hand-made gifts will eliminate some of my Christmas shopping.

Will see you on the above dates.

Love,
Ann

Celebration Set At Gillespie Church For Thanksgiving

A community supper and program at Sunset School on November 28 at 6:30 p. m. will mark the observance of Thanksgiving Day. Although the celebration is sponsored by the Gillespie Baptist church, it is meant for anyone from Munday, Knox City, or the area in between. Those who would enjoy spending a portion of this holiday with friends and neighbors are invited to attend, bringing their families and relatives.

The supper will be potluck style, with everyone bringing something to contribute to it. Afterwards there will be a program of community singing and an 80-minute film "Reaching From Heaven." This is a most effective story of how God uses ordinary people to accomplish His purpose in the lives of others.

Committee chairman are the following: Supper, Mrs. T. J. Partridge; decoration, Mrs. Charles Smith; program, Mrs. Howard Myers; tables, Bud Offutt; clean-up, Mrs. Lendon Walling and Mrs. Ressel.

Mrs. Emma Mayo returned last week from a three weeks vacation in California. She went by Amarillo where she was joined by her daughter Mrs. Agnes Mayes, for the trip. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Mayes and children in Los Angeles, and with Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Mahan in Long Beach. They also visited with friends in Hollywood. They made the return trip the southern route and saw lots of beautiful scenery.

THE QUEEN VISITS A SUPERMARKET

Queen Elizabeth II's visit to the United States was, naturally, a split-second affair, with every activity, small or large, meticulously planned long in advance by officials of the two nations concerned.

There was, however, an exception to this rule, and an unusual and interesting one. While driving to a football game, the Queen passed a modern supermarket and said that she would like to see it. The necessary arrangements were made. On the return drive the Queen's entourage stopped, while she visited the market, to the obvious amazement of personnel and customers. The Queen was obviously impressed and pleased with what she was shown.

Elizabeth reigns in England, and the Commonwealth over which she presides, as a symbol of tradition and unity is highly advanced in the arts of material existence. Even so, it is far behind us, for the most part, in retailing and in everything to do with retailing—efficiency, economy, standards of service, abundance of goods, and so on. And most of the other countries of the world are much farther behind still. One of the great economic achievements of this century in this nation has been the development of a mass-distribution system to complement and to act as a full partner to our system of mass-production.

The supermarket the Queen saw deals primarily in foods. But what is true of it is true of retailing in all its manifold branches—variety goods, clothing, furnishings, appliances, whatever. American retailing knows no equal in the world—and it is also the most intensely competitive. That last fact explains in large measure why it is the best.

From Editor & Publisher: "Three hundred employees—about 5 per cent of the total working force—succeeded in blacking out Boston newspapers for about three weeks. About half that number—2½ per cent of the working force—blacked out all the Detroit newspapers for a week. There is something radically wrong with a system that permits a handful of people to decide that millions of people cannot read their daily newspapers until their own conditions are satisfied."

On the light side: An English teacher offered a pie to the pupil who would write the briefest essay on two of life's problems. The winner used only one word: "Twins".

WHERE THERE ARE NO PARKING PROBLEMS

Adjacent to American automobile factories there are always big parking lots. And these lots are loaded with cars belonging to the workers.

But, as William Henry Chamberlin points out in a Wall Street Journal article, there are no parking problems around the auto factories of communist countries. The reason is found in the wage-price relationship. As an example, he cites the principal car produced in Communist Poland, the Warszawa. At its state-fixed price, it would take the average worker five years to earn enough to buy one, if he put aside every cent of his earnings for that purpose. And the fixed price is way below the going black market price.

This is what total government does to the masses of workers—the people it is supposed to serve and revere. It forces them down to a subsistence basis of living—and keeps them there.

Over the nine-year 1948-56 period, workers' wages rose an average of 61.4 per cent. Average productivity per worker, on the other hand, rose only 26.1 per cent. The difference was in large part made up by increased prices.

It now looks as if the St. Lawrence Seaway will cost $473 million—as against an initial estimate of $305 million.

A study made in Minnesota shows that only about two per cent of the state's 55,000-plus automobile accidents last year could be attributed to causes beyond the control of drivers—which simply means that the human factor was responsible for 98 per cent.

Columnist Robert S. Allen writes that it is now feasible to produce a weapon capable of destroying missiles flying through outer space at speeds of 15,000 miles and hour and more. The cost of a missile-destroyer program would run into the billions.

Candy and gum add up to big business in this country. The food chains alone will sell something like $400 million worth of these savories this year. World population is now increasing at the rate of 47 million a year, and the rate may soon reach 75 million.

A study based on government statistics shows that the sum a worker gets for an hour of labor is increasing more than twice as fast as his rate of productivity during that hour. Higher prices are the result.

MODERN HOMEMAKING

Recipes . . . Household Helps

By Julia Hunter

HOME ECONOMICS DIRECTOR, LONE STAR GAS CO.

"The frost is on the pumpkin" and it is indeed, time for pumpkin pie. For the old-fashioned kind combine 1 cup brown sugar, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted, 2 cups mashed canned or cooked pumpkin. Stir in 1/2 teaspoon ginger, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/2 teaspoon allspice, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 3/4 teaspoon cinnamon. Add 3 slightly beaten eggs, 2 cups milk and mix well. Pour into an unbaked 9-inch pastry shell. Bake in hot gas oven (450 deg. F.) 10 minutes, then reduce temperature to 325 deg. F. and continue baking 35 minutes.

Make a walnut pastry shell to give new flavor to pumpkin pie. Sift into mixing bowl 1 cup sifted flour and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Stir in 1/3 cup finely chopped walnuts. With a fork, two knives or a pastry blender, cut in 1/3 cup shortening until mixture resembles coarse corn meal. Add 2 to 3 tablespoons water, 1 tablespoon at a time, stirring mixture with a fork until small balls of dough form. Form into a large ball of dough and roll out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth to 1-8 inch thickness. Fit into 9-inch pie pan, trim and flute edge. Pecan pastry is good too, just substitute pecans for walnuts.

A special topping for pumpkin pie is gilding the lily, but there are some delicious ones to cause comment. Make Orange Cheese Topping by combining 1 three-ounce package cream cheese, 3 tablespoons orange juice and 1/2 teaspoon orange extract. Mix until creamy. Blend in 1/4 cup sifted confectioners' sugar and 2 tablespoons grated orange rind. Beat until light and fluffy. Heap on 9-inch pumpkin pie.

Youngsters and oldsters will go for Peanut Brittle Whip Topping. Whip 1/2 cup whipping cream, 1 teaspoon confectioners' sugar and 1/4 teaspoon vanilla together until stiff. Fold in 1/2 cup crushed peanut brittle. Store in gas refrigerator about an hour, then spread evenly over a 9-inch pumpkin pie.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
 Pumpkin Chiffon Pie: Soften 1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin in 1/2 cup cold water. Combine 1 1/2 cups mashed cooked or canned pumpkin, 1 cup brown sugar, 3 egg yolks, 2 teaspoons cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon allspice, 1/2 teaspoon ginger and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Cook mixture over low gas flame until thickened, stirring constantly. Stir in softened gelatin. Cool. Fold in 3 egg whites stiffly beaten with 2 tablespoons sugar. Pour into cold baked 9-inch pastry shell. Chill in gas refrigerator until firm. Top with whipped cream just before serving.

Gems Of Thought

HAPPINESS

Happiness is a butterfly, which when pursued is always just beyond your grasp, but which if you will sit down quietly will light upon you. — Hawthorne

I am more and more convinced that our happiness or unhappiness depends far more on the way we meet the events of life, than on the nature of those events themselves. — Humboldt

Happiness is spiritual, born of Truth and Love. It is unselfish; therefore it cannot exist alone, but requires all mankind to share it. — Mary Baker Eddy

All who would win joy, must share it, happiness was born a twin. — Byron

It is not how much we have, but how much we enjoy, that makes happiness. — Charles Haddon Spurgeon

The foolish man seeks happiness in the distance; the wise grows it under his feet. — James Oppenheim

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas

A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

PROBATE LAWS RECENTLY CHANGED

Easier handling of the estates of deceased persons, and at less cost, will result from laws recently passed by the Texas Legislature.

During its regular session in early 1957, the 55th Legislature enacted a number of amendments to the Texas Probate Code. The changes became effective on August 22nd.

Here are a few of the new provisions:

1. Some of the notices issued in probate proceedings may now be served by Certified Mail. Formerly the law required service by Registered Mail, which is more expensive.

2. The amount of bond required of an executor or administrator has been reduced under some circumstances. The estate will thereby save on bond premiums. The old law required a bond to be double the value of all personal property in the estate, even if issued by a corporate bonding company. Now a corporate bond need only match equally the value of the property.

3. Sometimes it is desired to use a bond signed by individuals rather than a bonding company. The old law required these individuals to own real property worth double the value of the estate. Personal property could not be considered. The new law allows personal property to be used in qualifying as a bond signer. However, the two-for-one requirement is retained on this type of bonds.

4. The old law providing for compensation of the executor at not less than 2 1/2 percent of the value of the estate has been eliminated. Now this compensation is left for the courts to fix on some reasonable basis — this will mean lower costs to many estates.

5. Where a husband or wife is adjudged mentally incompetent, the other spouse now acquires

The annual Dairy Short Course sponsored by the Department of Dairy Science of Texas A & M College will be held on December 5-6. All meetings are scheduled for the Memorial Student Center. BOYCE HOUSE
Gives You Texas

In Corpus Christi, the weather forecast — instead of flatly naming a high temperature — will give a range such as, "High today will be between 89 and 94." Of course, it being Texas and summer, (when I was there) you knew it was going to reach 94 — but doesn't "between 89 and 94" sound more cooling?

A bluff divides the downtown section of Corpus Christi. There are three ways for the pedestrian to get to the top of the bluff. One is by a walkway which curves around beside the street. Another is a picturesque flight of steps which has a white sculptural design in front of it. The third way is by means of a tunnel — yes, you reach the top by going through a tunnel. But there is a slope and then a flight of steps. I know of no other city with three-way method.

On my arrival in Corpus Christi, I heard a terrific voice which sounded as though it was coming over a loud-speaker turned as high as it would go. On entering the tunnel, I perceived the source: a crippled beggar who was preaching. The acoustical power of the tunnel is amazing.

La Retama library is in the center of the business district — on the spot where the city hall used to be.

The city busses go in for advertising — not just cards inside or signs on the outside, but the entire bus. One, for example, looks like a huge loaf of bread. Another looks like a package of butter.

I wonder if the citizens instead of speaking of such-and-such a bus route (such as North Beach) don't say, "You catch Jones Buttermilk and transfer to Smith's Palm trees, cape jasmynes (or is it jessamines?), a church with towers and a tiled dome, the pink Princess Louise Hotel on the beach, the immense Robert Driscoll Hotel on top of the bluff — the bay, deep blue in the late afternoon and rippled by a wind, the water stretching to the rim of the world — these are a few of the features that make Corpus Christi highly attractive.

Growers of upland and extra long staple cotton will vote in referendums on December 10 to determine whether or not marketing quotas will be operative on their 1958 crops. At least two-thirds of those voting in the two referendums must approve the quotas if they are to remain in effect. Texas has been allotted 7,474,661 acres of upland cotton and 27,829 acres of extra long staple cotton for 1958 planting.

In Observance Of Nat'l. Book Week

For a number of years, the Munday Public Library has been a continuous project for various organizations of Munday.

The library is located in the Chamber of Commerce office and contains 1,744 books. Many of these have been made possible by the civic organizations of Munday, and local townspeople have donated books.

On the shelves of the library may be found good reading for all ages—in fiction and non-fiction, as well as sources of reference material.

During the summer months, when school libraries are closed, a large number of books are checked out by children. For this reason, new books are nearly always supplied for their summer enjoyment.

In a survey last August, it was reported that 250 books were checked out for summer reading during that month alone. The library committee is encouraging the use of the library by renewing interest in this project.

The board of directors express appreciation to the various organizations for financial support and to individuals for donations. Through this support, 40 new books and a volume of Bible stories have been purchased. A total of 59 children and 25 adults have donated.

The directors are attempting to secure financial aid from the Rural Library Service.

Mary Barbara Clifton And Ed Martin Bowman Marry In Nov. 11 Ceremony

Wedding vows were read Monday night, November 11, at 6:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church in Silver for Miss Mary Barbara Clifton and Mr. Ed Martin Bowman of Munday. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Warren Ellis, pastor of the Methodist Church in Junction.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Clifton of Silver, Texas. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bowman of Munday, Texas.

Nuptial music was furnished by the organist, Mrs. Ruth Higginbotham, and Mr. Glen Hodge, soloist, who sang "Till," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Before a background of candleabra holding white cathedral tapers and baskets of red gladioli, the bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a ballerina length gown of white chantilly lace over satin and net, fashioned with a long torso and long sleeves ending with points over the hands. The bouffant skirt of lace ruffled shirred over satin was edged with lace scallops. Her finger tip veil was of silk illusion and attached to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with red rose buds and ribbons tied in love knots.

Miss Sandra Clifton, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of red taffeta. The princess style gown was ballerina length with a figure molding tucked bodice with a bateau neckline and short capped sleeves. She carried a colonial nosegay of white carnations.

Miss Kay Munn of Valley View, Texas, was bridesmaid. She wore a red gown identically made to that of maid of honor. She also carried white carnations.

Best man was Don Bowman, brother of the groom. Groomsman was Herbert Itz of Fridickburg and usher was Marion Elliott of Munday.

The reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The table was covered with a white linen cloth centered with red and white flowers. Appointments were of silver and crystal.

In the house party were Mrs. Marion Elliott, Munday, Miss Kay Stewart of Silver.

For her wedding trip the bride wore an original suit of brown wool with a white beaver hat and gloves. Her other accessories were in black.

Mrs. Bowman graduated from Colorado City and attended Texas Tech for two years and was a member of Pi Omega Pi. Mr. Bowman graduated from Gore High School, where he played football four years, track three years, and was activity editor of the school annual, The Wildcat. He attended Arlington College for one year and Texas Tech for two years.

The couple will make their home in Munday where Mr. Bowman owns the Gulf Service Station.

NURSERY TRADE FACED WITH ANT QUARANTINE

One of the worst agricultural nuisances of our time — the imported fire ant — has taken such a firm hold in the South that a ten-state federal quarantine on movement of soil and plants is being seriously considered.

A public hearing soon to be held in Memphis, Tenn., will decide whether to impose trade restrictions requiring inspection and controls on nursery products in areas where fire ants are present or suspected.

The imports, detected by the mounds they build and the painful bites they inflict, are known to exist in six extreme southeastern Texas counties in an area ranging from the Louisiana border to Houston. A survey is now underway in adjoining counties to determine to what degree the ant has moved westward into the state.

Other states known to be infested include Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee.

The most significant quarantine proposal up for consideration at the Memphis meeting is a requirement for treatment by approved methods of all nurseries found infested in any degree. Such treatment would have to be followed by a 30-day waiting period during which no shipment could be made.

In order to avoid these possible serious business delays from the proposed quarantine action, nurserymen should act quickly on their own to check for infestation and then either spray or dust their premises so that they might be rid of both the imported fire ant and the possibility of restrictive quarantine. Nurseries treated prior to quarantine action would not come under the 30-day trade restrictions.

The fierce little fire ants, which first appeared in Alabama from their native South America 30 years ago, are so named because of the burn-like effect of their bite. They aggressively attack small animals in numbers and have killed new-born calves on farms.

In heavily-infested fields, it is extremely difficult for cotton pickers and other farm laborers to work. The huge, hard-crusting mounds they inhabit mar lawns, damage pasture lands, and interfere with farm machine operations.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holtz, M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Asian influenza vaccine is now so plentiful that doctors and druggists can obtain it at will in almost any quantity, exactly as they obtain any other drug product.

This means that you can now be vaccinated at your own discretion, regardless of your age, job, or physical condition.

In the early days of the influenza epidemic, vaccine was so scarce — even though six drug manufacturers were commissioned to produce it and worked 24-hour shifts at the task — that available supplies had to be distributed to states according to population, with populous states getting the lion's share.

Today, however, reports coming from state health departments and from manufacturers indicate that supplies are catching up with demand, so that controls on allocations to states are no longer necessary.

By lifting controls — which have been voluntary from the beginning — manufacturers will be free to ship more vaccine into states where demand is still high, instead of attempting to send equitable shares to each state.

In some communities throughout the nation, including many in Texas, enough vaccine is on hand to permit vaccination of the general public without regard to priority needs. Former priority groups included pregnant women, very young children and oldsters, and people with chronic ailments such as heart trouble.

Well over 40 million units of vaccine has been cleared for release to the nation to date. Heretofore, Texas has received approximately five percent of the amount released for civilian use, since this state has 5.2 percent of the national population.

Vaccination is still the only reliable means of preventing influenza, despite a flood of advertisements proclaiming the curative or preventive powers of other products. Incidentally, two federal agencies have announced their intention of taking prompt action against anyone making false or misleading claims that

40 ABUNDANT LIFE BY ORAL ROBERTS

SUCCESS CAN BE A HABIT

Have you noticed that there are some people who seem to have the habit of succeeding in whatever they do? In fact, each success seems to lead to another success, and that success seems to make the next achievement easier. Well, that is absolutely true. Success can become a habit and each one can make it easier to succeed again.

The Bible tells us, "Unto everyone that hath shall be given and he shall have abundance." The truth is that the man who succeeds carries with himself an inner assurance that he will succeed again. Each past success helps strengthen his confidence. I can think of only one exception to this rule. It is a man who became known as the Great Emancipator. Had he let his failures stop him, he would not have achieved the great successes in life that he did. Here are some of his failures, to mention only a few. Eight times he was defeated for public office; once he failed in business; he suffered a nervous breakdown, and for 23 years endured an unhappy marriage. Only did he enjoy success intermittently. But with every defeat or failure, he arose, dusted himself off, and tried again. At the end of the road his reward was waiting, for in 1860 he was elected President of the United States. His motto was: "With God's help, I cannot fail." That man was Abraham Lincoln, the Great Emancipator.

But others think along this line. "I've tried this once before but I failed. More than likely I will fail again." And there may be those who encourage them in this attitude by reminding them of their past failures.

Do not discuss your failures with others or let it come into your mind to even think of failing. First of all, decide on something that is good that you wish to do and by all means allow nothing, absolutely nothing to stop you. Then crown this success with another until you form the habit of succeeding.

I am reminded of a portion of a poem that has a simple but pungent message: If you come to a place that you can't go through, or over or under, the thing to do is to find a way around this impassable wall. Don't say, "I'll go my way or not at all." If the mountains are high, go through the valley. If the streets are blocked, go up an alley. If the parlor car is crowded, don't scorn a freight. If the front door is locked, go around to the side gate. To reach your goal in life this advice is good I've found. If you can't go over or under, go around. But with God's help, we can't go under for going over.

This is, however, a vital secret that you need to know. God wants you to be a winner and He will help you. Ask His guidance and He will give it. There is no way to fail if you trust Him. Remember, success is yours. You may climb the ladder one step at a time, but "success" can be a habit. You can do all things through Christ.

unevenly higher again.

All kinds of stockers and feeders were fully steady and bulls again sold at the advances of last week.

Trade on cows was rather slow as most packer interests tried to lower costs on the early rounds. However, the clearances was at generally steady prices. Fed cattle were relatively scarce, and some interests were talking 50 cents lower prices in view of the big run in the cornbelt points. However, quality considered, there was little change in the market.

Comparative prices: Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings $20 to $22.50, high choice or prime quotable well over this bracket. Common and medium sorts sold from $14 to $20. Fat cows cashed at $14 to $15.50, and canners and cutters cashed at $9 to $14. Bulls returned $12 to $16.50. Good and choice slaughter calves cashed at $20 to $23, and common and medium sorts cashed at $15 to $19.50. Culls sold mostly from $12 to $14. Good to choice stocker steer calves cashed at $20 to $24, and stocker heifer calves ruled at $22 down. Stocker steer yearlings bulked at $22.50 down. A few replacement cows sold from $10 to $16.

NEW ZEALANDERS BEEF TO AGAIN PLAKUE U. S. CATTLEMEN

Advices received in Fort Worth this week from the Foreign Agricultural Service of the USDA say that attractive prices "in the United States for manufacturing beef" from Australia and Argentina have led the New Zealand meat exporters to plan increased exports to the United States.

In the January through August period in 1956 only 2,990,000 pounds of New Zealand beef was imported to the United States, however, during the same interval in 1957 the New Zealand imports totalled 27,573,000.

By "manufacturing beef" they mean boned out meats suitable for canning or sausage operations, which renders competition to the "Canners" and "Cutters" produced by United States cattlemen and dairymen.

At times during the past year these imports had a depressing effect on the market for binning types of livestock in the trade at Fort Worth.

SHEEP AND GOATS OPEN ON STRONG BASIS MONDAY

The small (1,400) receipts reported in the sheep yards at Fort Worth Monday included about 500 goats. The trade was active and strong, quality considered, and good and choice fat lambs sold from $21 to $22. Fancy types were lacking. Stocker and feeder lambs of just medium and good kinds sold from $18 to $21. A few slaughter ewes sold at $9.

The goats again continued to make a lot of news as this new "outlet" was again very good.

Slaughter goats sold from $6 to $7.50, and stocker kinds would be quotable well above that range. The trade in goats is relatively new at Fort Worth, but with a number of packers interested in getting goats here, it has followed that buyers seeking stockers have come in to pick off any youngish ones.

National packers are expected to step into the trade and allocate definite periods to goat slaughter on the basis of the numbers now coming here to market.

Under federal rules goats and sheep can not be killed together, and the change-over involved with the national packers, if a big factor in the development of the trade.

HOGS STEADY, BUT SOWS SAG BY AS MUCH AS $1.00

Butcher hogs managed to hold steady at Fort Worth Monday with the top $17.50 and $17.75, and medium to good butchers at $16 to $17.25.

The packing sows, which for long have been selling right up against the top butchers, took a tumble. A few choice lightweights sold steady at $16.50 to $17, but the rank and file packer sows sold from $15 to $16, and some of the heavies in the $15 to $15.50 level were about $1 off.

Drive carefully. The life you save may be your own!

SEASONAL STRENGTH SEEN ON SLAUGHTER SALVES

FORT WORTH — Trade at Fort Worth Monday featured a very active and strong market on calves. Both slaughter and stocker interests were active in the trade. Fat calves of the choice variety have been increasingly scarce in the runs, and some sales in this category are their products are effective in preventing or treating influenza.

Just because a wave of influenza has passed through your community and you escape don't make the mistake of thinking you don't need a vaccination. Flu sometimes makes a re-entrance, and there is a strong possibility that those it missed the first time will be hit the second.

Vaccination is especially important for older age groups in which chronic diseases are much more common, and, to a lesser extent among pregnant women. Serious complications often follow influenza attacks in these groups.

The fact that winter is fast approaching lends a note of urgency to vaccinations.

Letters From The People

Editor,

Agriculture and livestock are the basis of all industries. If the cotton farmer does not have any market for what he produces, then he is not able to buy any commodities.

If we do not help the cotton industry in every way possible, then it will fall down and there will be unemployment and work hardships on the people in all lines. Use more cotton every day. Nothing takes the place of cotton.

Cotton should be King of all crops, and everyone should work to make it possible.

How to Keep a Free Press FREE

SELDOM does Freedom of the Press disappear in one annihilating blow.

In countries where the Press has been chained, there was first a period when it failed to realize and resist the beginnings of its end — the first encroachments on its freedom. There were powerful interests which wanted certain facts "kept out of the newspapers." There was pressure here and pressure there to have the truth withheld.

Before the Press of any nation succumbs to tyranny, there always has been a period of failure to speak out.

Here in America there is only the limitation of national security — the necessity to protect and preserve confidential military and scientific information — which can be accepted by a Press that is determined to stay free.

America's newspapers have made, and will continue to make, a conscientious effort to protect that security — at the same time keeping the people informed as fully as possible on all matters concerning their welfare. So long as American newspapers pursue that policy fearlessly, our Press, our people and our country shall remain free of tyranny.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Joins Fight Against Inflationary Spiral By Just Dozing In His Comfortable Chair

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek apparently has gotten his mind off Russian satellites and back to inflation. He's as much an authority on one as the other.

J. A.

Dear editor:
I found two copies of some newspapers out here yesterday afternoon alongside the road by my farm where somebody had dropped them from his car and judging by the ants in them, they'd been used to wrap up a picnic lunch, and I thought you'd like to know that one of them was a copy of The Munday Times and the other a copy of The Dallas News, and I examined them both carefully and found exactly fourteen ants in each one, which proves that when it comes to being ant-proof, there's not much difference in newspapers.

But what interested me, after I'd shook the ants out, was an article in the big daily about two Senators on a special committee in Washington to investigate inflation.

According to one of them, Americans should be allowed to have more spending money, as he claimed the factories in this country aren't producing as much as they could and would if the people had more money to spend. The only thing is, he didn't say where this extra spending money is coming from. According to the other, that's just the trouble, the people have too much money to spend, which in turn produces inflation. He said if we had more money, we'd be bidding higher for more goods, which would only produce more inflation.

Now I'm not smart enough to settle this argument, but I would like to say that while maybe his latter Senator concurance his wife he has enough money, I'll have to admit I must have a different type wife. When I pointed out to her that the reason I didn't furnish her with more money was because me and this Senator didn't want to be contributing to the inflationary spiral, she just snorted and said the Senator could run the Senate and she'd run her house and it'd run a lot smoother if she had more cash. She also added that she'd have more cash maybe if I worked harder, but anybody can see the more you work the more you make and the more you spend and hence the more you contribute to the high cost of things, and I'd appreciate it if more women around here understood this.

What the women of this country ought to understand is that when a man is dozing in his chair he's not loafing, he's fighting inflation.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.
