Munday City Council met in regular meeting April 11. At this time new aldermen, Jeff Anderson and Joe Choucair, and Kenneth Baker, re-elected, were sworn to serve the next two years.

E. W. Harrell, City Secretary, stated that there has been some eight or ten new families moved into town in the past three or four weeks and that Munday is very short of rent houses. He said there was a great demand for 3-bedroom.

The seven inch rain received in the Thorp community ran into town just before noon Wednesday, causing the streets to be flooded and businessmen putting sandbags in front of their businesses to keep out the water. The street between the Fair Store and the First National Bank was roped off to keep the venturesome ones from being stalled in the waters which ran into the cars going down that street. Rodgers Food Mart on that street reported business mighty slow or maybe just plain drowned

> The water started receding Thursday afternoon and by Friday morning was pretty well off the streets except in the lowest parts.

People reported flooded cellars and basements. The Bullington Law Office was flooded and a big time was had trying to get out the mud and water. One man reported he had a new boat motor in his basement which was flooded. The Dorse Collins reported their deep freeze, which they kept in their storeroom, was ruined due to the high waters and their cellar flooded.

McDonald from Haskell, who was working on the Big Ditch with his dragline, reported for work Thursday and found too much water. He said it had not even sprinkled in Haskell.

Probably lots of other damage happened that was not reported but things were all on the way to normal by the latter part of the week.

For this performance, Mr. Smith has assembled an allinclusive program of classical and contemporary works. During this portion of the contest, the band will be scored by three concert judges.

Afterward, they will be given sheets of music which they have never seen before, and will be asked to play it after a short period of visual study by each member.

The last judging will be on sight reading, and then will come the tabulation of the points from each area, which will determine the winner.

Until then? More practice for the band students and more headaches for Mr. Smith!

WHAT'S A "MR. IT?" What's a "Mr. It"? Ask Rickie Kuehler - he can tell

Last week was FHA week all over the country. At MHS, the 21st year of FHA was celebrated by a series of worthwhile events. It began on Monday with the selection of Junior, Debbie Kuehler, as Miss FHA.

Also on Monday, Mrs. Barbara Ratliff was announced as the winner of the "Teacher Appreciation" contest, with Mr. Charles Hawpe as runner-up.

Tuesday was highlighted by Band, under the direction of Mr. the selection of Freshman, Rickie Kuehler, as "Mr. It". The basis for this selection was the number of ribbons received by a boy during the day for acts of kindness and good manners. On Wednesday, the halls were brightened with shades of red and white, since this was the day chosen to wear FHA colors. Thursday, FHA week was celebrated by a dinner honoring the officers of the local FHA chapter.

Friday saw shades of spring pated in "Dress-up Day". The celebration of FHA week came to a close on Saturday, which was "work day", with a bake sale.

The naming of Knox County Senior, Sue Duke of Benjamin, as the winner of this year's

STUDENTS CREATE PLANET DIORAMAS By Elaine Walsh

How does a third-grader feel when he discovers that man dwells everywhere . . . from the wide, open plains to the small, tropical islands . . . that man has learned to over-come the hardships of nature and inhabit the undesirable terrains of the earth.

To further their knowledge of the different climates and terrains of the United States, Mrs. Bowman's third grade class has been engaged in a worthwhile project.

They have made colorful dioramas representing four of the different terrains of the United States - the desert, the plains, the island, and the ocean.

The students were divided and worked without any help their "dioramas of knowledge". "learning by doing".

How Munday Looked 18 Years Ago Last Sunday!

Munday received only a brief shower last Sunday, the 18th anniversary of the "Big Flood" which occurred here and shown in these photos. This was June 13, 1930.

Citizens milked their cows on front porches, boats were used in the streets, water stood ten inches deep in the Times office, no lives were lost. Munday's flood came as a result of heavy rains in Munday and Thorp. The above scene was repeated in a lesser degree in 1940.

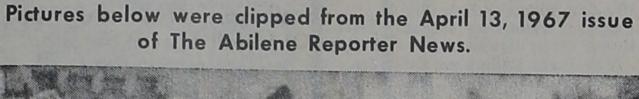

These pictures were clipped from the June 17, 1948 issue of The Munday Times

Plenty of water then as when it rained Wednesday of last week.
