Odds Bits Salvaged

The old landmark looks kinda peculiar, now.

We're thinking of the old Masonic building, which has withstood the sun and rain and the storms of many seasons.

For something over 40 years, she stood there—and she wasn't looking any too good for her age, either.

But recently, workmen came along and tore down the shed room on the north side, leaving the old two-story building there with straight walls on both sides.

Makes it look kinda peculiar to those of us who had become familiar with that shed room.

But all things, nearly, must give way to progress, and this Masonic building is no exception.

It served its purpose well in its day, but during recent years it became rather shaky.

There were times when the Masonic order was meeting in the uppermost story, a cloud would come up, and high winds seemed to shake its very foundations. Then it was when one felt like taking off for safer places.

Lots of history is connected with the old building—but not just Masonic history—but the lower floor has housed a number of business establishments.

Time was, in years past, when the Munday Times occupied the lower floor.

Even today on the ground floor may be seen those squares or oblongs of solid concrete, and few of the younger generation knew that upon those concrete slabs stood the heavy equipment of the printing office.

Sometimes during the interim, a box of old 10-point handset type found its way into the lodge room proper.

It has been used for several years in a special way in conferring one of the higher Masonic degrees.

We once picked it up and marveled at how heavy such a small box and its contents could be.

Then through a crack in the box, some of the contents spilled out into the floor, and we recognized it as that stuff printers used over and over again in "hand spiking" a newspaper before the days of the type setting machines.

Before long the remainder of the old building will be torn down, and a new and modern building is scheduled to occupy that lot.

Work on the new Masonic building is going along nicely, and the structure itself is taking on form. Workers hope to complete it within the next few weeks.

We learned this week of another remarkable story to come out of the tornado disaster of March 13th.

Several miles to the northeast of Munday is the Melton farm. One day after the storm, Mr. Melton was working in his fields when he discovered a man's billfold.

He opened the wallet and found a $1 bill and the name and address of a member of the Ashley family, from which family the tornado claimed five lives in the Jud community.

Mr. Melton placed a $10 bill in the billfold, along with the one, and mailed it to Mr. Ashley.

From various parts of the county have come reports of people picking up pieces of flooring, screens, rugs, etc., that had been carried for 20 to 25 miles by the vicious storm.

And to Munday went the credit last week for making the largest contribution to the disaster relief fund of any town in the area.

Members And Friends Are Present At Dedication Of New Gillespie Church

Sunday, March 29, was an enjoyable day for members and friends of the new Gillespie Baptist Church as they gathered at 2 p. m. for the dedication service of their new building.

Rev. Henry Littleton of Lueders, district missionary, brought the dedication sermon. Other guests, including a former pastor, Rev. H. L. Bingham of Lamasa, brought inspirational talks. This was followed by an open floor testimony period in which members and guests engaged.

Members and visitors also had an opportunity to inspect all parts of the new building.

The new edifice, which is valued at around $25,000, was constructed at a cost of around $10,000, according to the pastor, Rev. Roger Butler. This was made possible by using lumber from the old building, which had been in use since 1902, and by members and friends donating a greater portion of the labor. Many friends from outside the church aided the members in this work.

In spite of the drought last year, members were able to raise a greater portion of the money. Rev. Butler stated there is an indebtedness of only $1,000 against the building.

The white brick building is divided into two sections, the main auditorium and the educational building, each measuring about 31x50 feet. The educational building includes an assembly room, nine Sunday school rooms and a kitchen. Sidewalks, curbing and shrubbery will be added later, the pastor said.

The building committee was composed of Howard Myers, chairman; T. J. Partridge, Jerry Nix, R. C. Partridge and Fred Reddell. R. C. Partridge was in charge of finance; T. J. Partridge, the materials, and Jerry Nix, the labor.

Spring Revival To Begin April 12 At Gillespie Church

Rev. Roger Butler, pastor, announced this week that a spring revival will be held at the Gillespie Baptist Church beginning on Sunday, April 12, and continuing through all the following week.

Rev. Donald E. Johnson of Corpus Christi will be the evangelist, and the public is cordially invited to attend the services and hear this great man of God.

Services will be held daily during the week, at 10 a. m. and at 8 p. m.

Rhineland Raises Over $400 Disaster Fund For Victims

The people of Rhineland joined those of other communities in making liberal contributions to the storm disaster relief fund following the tornado which demolished homes in the Knox City, O'Brien and Jud areas on March 13.

A. B. Wilde, chairman of the committee at Rhineland, this week expressed his appreciation to all workers and to those who contributed. Workers made a drive and raised a total of $414.50 in a short while.

Working with Mr. Wilde were A. J. Kuehler, Vernal Zeissel, P. F. Homer, A. J. Loran, V. F. Albus and A. C. Loran.

Burlington Road Replaces Puffer With New Diesel

Freight trains through Munday maintained their usual schedules Wednesday, but there was something different. Made one think that the old steam engine is on its way to oblivion.

The old "puffer" had been replaced by a bright new 1,500-h. p. diesel engine. A. E. Drake, general agent for the branch of the Fort Worth and Denver, said two of the new diesel engines had been purchased to use on the route, formerly known as the Wichita Valley Railroad. The trips Wednesday were their initial runs, and some of the line's dignitaries were making the run.

The road was established in 1906 as the Abilene Northern. For the last three years, the line has been using larger steam powered engines, but the new diesels have taken over.

Drake said the addition of the new diesels will greatly benefit the railroad in saving of time and of damage to freight, as well as speed up the line's operations.

BENJAMIN—A meeting of the citizens in the Benjamin school district was held in the Knox County courthouse Wednesday night of last week for the purpose of discussing the current water problem and organizing a group to work toward solving the town's water shortage. Mayor Leroy Melton presided, and approximately 50 people attended. Melton announced that only four feet of water is left in the city lake.

He also pointed out that other sources of water supply must be investigated. The city lake is rapidly filling with silt and the watershed has been greatly reduced. This cuts down on both the available water and the storage for the city.

Paul G. Bentley, consulting engineer from Dallas, was introduced. He told the group that the problem Benjamin is facing is similar to that of many cities both large and small over the state of Texas. For economical reasons, he suggested that a water district be formed, and engineers be brought in to find a suitable water supply, and to determine the cost.

Steps in forming the water district which would include the Benjamin school district was outlined as follows:

1. Petition of 51 eligible voters or 51 per cent of the voters in the proposed district, depending on which is the smaller, to the County Commissioners Court asking for an election for setting up the proposed water district. Voters would be those paying property taxes and living in the district, and holders of a poll tax.

2. An election to determine if district should be formed, and the election of five commissioners to be the governing body of the district.

3. Research work by competent engineers to determine a source of water and the cost of developing the source for city use.

4. Plans laid for water tax to repay money borrowed by the district.

Bentley also pointed out that the contractor must agree to build the system for a definite amount, so that the job could be completed for a specified amount of money.

To inaugurate work on the proposal district, a steering committee of five members was appointed. These were Jack Barker, S. E. Reed, O. D. Propps, J. D. Redwine and W. A. Glenn. Barker was named chairman of the group.

DALLAS, TEXAS, PARK CITIES NEWS:

DENVER, COLO., MINING RECORD: “The events leading up to . . . the ‘nationalization’ of gold . . . actually amounted to the robbery of a trusting, hard-working people who have as a result lost not only their gold but more than half the value of their savings, pensions, life insurance, etc. The government had not one more whit of right to seize gold than it had to seize the steel properties.”

GARDEN CITY, N. Y., NEWS: “America is a little like Noah’s Ark. It is sailing some uncharted and dangerous seas. And the passengers have come from every land in the world. For us the promotion of a brotherhood is a necessity. With our heterogeneous population, we must actively try to be tolerant, to see others’ point of view—or we will all be in peril.”

TEAMWORK ON THE LAND

Soil conservation and efficient land use have become the prime concern not only of progressive dirt farmers, but of far-sighted agricultural and industrial leaders. In the period from 1930 to 1950 there was a population increase in the United States of 23 per cent. Yet, for several decades our crop acreage has remained virtually stationary at about 370,000,000 acres. At the same time, farm land formerly cultivated but now ruined for further immediate and practical cultivation by erosion and abuse totals approximately 100,000,000 acres. The importance of this lost land may be judged by the fact that the entire wheat crop of 1950 was harvested from 61,000,000 acres.

It would appear from these figures that the country should now be suffering from near famine. The reason it is not is that production per acre as a result of improved land use and modern machinery, has increased sufficiently to keep pace with our rising population. In recent years industry, particularly the farm equipment industry has teamed up with agriculture to a far greater extent than most people realize in a vast land use and conservation program. Standard farm tractors with attachments are suitable for terracing, contouring and other soil and water conservation measures.

GOOD VALUE

An organization which represents thousands of retail stores, recently conducted a survey to find what representative retailers expect their experience to be in the immediate future. The consensus was that volume will increase—due to better salesmanship, better assortments, and better values.

What makes this interesting to the public at large is the emphasis on salesmanship, values, and variety of goods. In a free competitive economy, every merchant who wants to survive must devote most of his thought and effort to pleasing, not himself or his colleagues, but the demanding consumer. If we feel that one store does not give us the right kind of service or charges too much, we transfer our patronage to another store which does a better job at pleasing us. In the case of many kinds of goods, purchases can be deferred for long periods of time or abandoned altogether if we can’t find what we want at what we consider the right price. In our free economy, the consumer is king—and every retailer must try to “sell us” with all the intelligence and resources he possesses.

Competition, in sum, tends to give us more goods and better goods, and at fair prices. Typical business today earns, as profit, only three or four cents out of each dollar spent with them—some earn as little as one cent. When we walk into a retail store and make a purchase, we get good value.

GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL

Beginning the second week following Easter, America will observe the ninth annual recognition of National Sunday School Week (April 13 through 19). Lasting the entire week, this all-faiths drive is planned with an idea of stimulating the attendance of every adult and child at the Sunday School of his own choice on Sunday, April 19th.

Sponsored by the Laymen’s National Committee, a non-profit, non-sectarian organization consisting of men and women from civic as well as business fields, this worthy project is yearly highlighted throughout the entire country.

Laying foundations of faith through the training in religion for our little ones is all important to us as a nation as we survive in today’s world of paganism and constant conflict. Our Sunday Schools are more than mere religious training institutions—they are a combination of the ministry and lay workers, a happy team, united in their selfless dedication to an ideal of an ever closer relation between man and God.

Churches of Christ Salute You THE GREAT COMMISSION OF JESUS CHRIST

One of the last things Jesus ever said before ascending to the Father above was in the giving of what is known as the “Great Commission.”

This is called a commission, because it begins with the authority of Jesus Christ, and shows His authorization of the apostles to preach the Gospel.

It is called the great commission to contrast it with the sending out of the seventy and the sending out of the twelve during His personal ministry. Then, He sent them only to the Jews. (Matt. 10:5-6). Now, under the Great Commission the Gospel is for all.

ALL AUTHORITY STANDS BEHIND IT

Jesus said, “All power (ARV. authority) is given unto me in heaven and in earth.” (Matt. 28:18). What Jesus commanded is backed by ALL authority. It must not be ignored or disobeyed.

IT INCLUDES EVERY NATION

The commission reads, “Go ye therefore and teach all nations,” (Matt. 28:19). Judaism was for only one nation—the nation of Israel; Christianity is for every nation, Jew and Gentile.

IT INCLUDED EVERY MAN

The commission reads, “Go ye therefore and teach all nations, to every creature, to every creature.” (Mk. 16:15). In Luke’s account, Christ says, that the “Remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.” (Luke 24:47).

THE GOSPEL MUST BE PREACHED

In Matthew’s account of the commission we have these words, “Teach all nations,” (Matt. 28:19). In Mark’s account of the same commission we read, “Preach the Gospel to every creature,” (Mk. 16:15). In Luke’s account, Christ says, that the “Remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.” (Luke 24:47).

NEW HERBICIDE LAW PROPOSALS

Any Texas farmer who has felt the heartbreak of crops ruined or heavily damaged by accidental dosages of weed killing chemicals will be interested in a piece of legislation now under consideration in Austin. It concerns a revised law dealing with hormone-type herbicides.

Hormone herbicides are invaluable in the control of weeds and eliminating mesquite. The most widely known chemical of this type is 2,4-D, closely followed by 2,4,5-T. Both react against broad-leaf plants, energizing the plant mechanisms and causing them to literally “grow themselves to death.”

But all too frequently, when these chemicals are sprayed in an area to combat weeds or mesquite, the vapor drifts to adjacent fields where susceptible crops are growing. The result is twisted and mutilated field crops which either die or suffer a considerable drop in yielding qualities.

The Texas Department of Agriculture administers a law which seeks to protect farmers from such damage. Unfortunately, the current controls are not as practical as they should be, considering the ever-growing demand for use of these chemicals. Another law, now being studied by the Legislature, is aimed at correcting these difficulties.

Briefly, the law would expand the scope of present regulated areas to include more counties where susceptible crops are grown. It is designed to regulate the sale, use and transportation of the chemicals and provide for inspections and better license provisions.

This new law is not, by any means, meant to hamstring so large and important an operation as the control of undesirable plants. But it does afford more protection to farmers from damages by careless or accidental mis-use of the herbicides.

Like a swinging door, the pro-

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Phillips of Dallas visited relatives and friends here and at Goree during the week end. Kenneth’s mother, Mrs. Ellie Phillips, returned home with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Maddox and children of Oklahoma City visited relatives here this week and attended the funeral of Mrs. Maddox’s grandmother in Lubbock on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Watkins and daughter of Wichita Falls spent last Wednesday and Thursday here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Peddy and son, Jerry, left Monday for Dallas where Jerry is to have nose surgery this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harrell visited relatives in Anson last Sunday.

Protection works both ways, however. The commercial sellers, handlers and applicators are provided assurances against unfair or mistaken claims of chemical damage during their operations. No part of the law gives the Department of Agriculture or the Commissioner undue or excessively restrictive powers. Much of the working policies of the law are left in the hands of the persons affected through local court action. The department is merely attempting to serve as a more alert watchdog for the interests of Texas farmers and ranchers.

News From The U. S. Congress

Congressman Frank Ikard

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 26—This week the President sent to Congress Reorganization Plan Number 2 which deals with the reorganization of the Department of Agriculture. This proposal creates three new high ranking administrative jobs and would transfer to the Secretary of Agriculture the authority and functions now held in other offices and agencies of the Department and allows the Secretary to authorize any officer, agent or employee of the Department to perform any of the functions that are vested in him with certain exceptions. The powers and functions of the Farm Credit Administration are not transferred to the Secretary, as well as the powers and functions of the Boards of Directors and officers of the corporations that exist in the Department. Of course the Corporations of the Department, such as the Federal Land Bank, the Production Credit Corporation, and others, legally speaking, independent personalities and act on their own in their own name rather than in the name of the Department of Agriculture of the United States. The Plan further calls for the appointment by the President of two additional Assistant Secretaries of Agriculture and the appointment by Mr. Benson of an Administrative Assistant who will be under Civil Service. Of course, the purpose of the Plan is to simplify and make more workable the operations of the Department of Agriculture and to place the administration of the various farm programs close to the State and local levels. While I have not yet had time to really study the Plan, there is some question in my mind about whether or not this stated purpose of the Plan will be carried out and whether under the Plan there is not too much power granted to the Secretary and too great a centralization of power in the office of the Secretary of Agriculture. Therefore, I expect to reserve my final judgment on the Plan until after he has had an opportunity to study it carefully and hold hearings on it. I am fundamentally opposed to putting too much power in the head of any department of our government, and at first glance, it seems that this Reorganization Plan does that with regard to the Department of Agriculture.

Buick's First Customer — A Half Century Later

In the days when most doctors made their daily rounds in a horse and buggy, an enterprising young physician just starting his practice in Flint, Mich., purchased a "horseless carriage." It was the first car ever sold by a new maker—Buick Motor Car Co. Buick, now the fourth largest manufacturer of automobiles in the world, is observing its Golden Anniversary this year and when the city of Flint staged a "Salute to Buick," Dr. Hills, who lives in Birmingham, Mich., was present. He is shown at the wheel of an early model Buick with Ivan L. Wiles, general manager of Buick and vice president of General Motors.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Richmond and children visited relatives in Olney last Sunday. J. E. Reeves was a business visitor in Fort Worth the first of this week.

Apparently the Administration Leaders have agreed to abolish the R. F. C. effective June 30, 1954. At the same time, they plan to propose the creation of a new agency to carry on the small business loan program of the R. F. C. Personally, I can see little chance of any real economy being accomplished when one agency is abolished and another one created to perform the same function as the old agency. Chances are it would cost a lot more money to get the new agency organized and going than it would to simply let the old agency continue in business.

April 1 marks the end of the first three months of the 83rd Congress. Administrative leaders such as Speaker Martin and Senator Taft have expressed a hope that Congress could adjourn by early July. I hope they are right in this; however, to date, none of the really important legislation has been considered by Congress. We have yet to vote on all appropriation bills and many other pieces of legislation upon which action is essential before we can recess or adjourn. Since so few of the important legislative matters have been settled during the first three months of the session, it means that if we are to get home in July, the next three months will be extremely busy ones.

Further evidence that man has no control over the whims of Mother Nature is shown by the fact that the cherry blossoms here in Washington are now in full bloom two weeks ahead of schedule. The City of Washington had planned their very elaborate annual Cherry Blossom Festival for the second week-end in April, and now that Mother Nature has brought the blossoms out ahead of schedule, the Festival will have to be held without the blossoms.

Visitors in the office this week from home included Maurice D. Kaderli of Muenster, Jack Crownover of Nocona, T. R. Qualls of Denton, W. E. Latham of Bluegrove, Tom Craddock of Seymour, and Mrs. M. J. Neville of Henrietta.

DARK BEAUTY

Dark cottons are going to be popular this summer, the National Cotton Council reports, and this striking afternoon dress by Henry Rosenfeld is typical of the smart, simple dark cottons that will be warm weather favorites. In navy blue Bates cotton, the scooped-neckline frock is accented with rows of stitching in kelly green.

SEWING MACHINES TO BE AWARDED

Cabinet sewing machines and other prizes will be awarded 4-H club winning state competitions in the 1953 Sew with Cotton Bags Contest, the Textile Bag Manufacturers Association and Singer Sewing Machine Company, sponsors of the contest, have announced.

The cotton bag sewing contest is organized on a state-by-state basis by the Extension Services. Groups participating make complete exhibits of wearing apparel and household items from cotton feed, flour, and fertilizer bags.

Individual clubs compete in county elimination contests, and county winners vie with winners from throughout the state for first prize of a Singer cabinet sewing machine and a second prize of seventy-five dollars in sewing equipment. Most of the Extension groups hold final exhibits and judging at their state fairs.

Six states, Rhode Island, Kentucky, North Carolina, Florida, Mississippi, and New Mexico, already have completed plans for their state cotton bag sewing contests. Additional states are expected to participate during the summer and fall.

Temporary Grain Storage
THE time to prepare extra storage for grain is before the storage is needed. Temporary bins holding up to 800 bushels can be built on the farm of materials that can be used later for other purposes, according to Masonite Corporation.
The illustrations show how several panels of Tempered Preswood are bent into a huge circle.

18' 8" in diameter and bolted together. A floor of shiplap boards, covered with sisalkraft, is laid over joists.
Grain in such a bin is kept dry and clean. The cover is a double thickness of sisalkraft laid over a protecting shoulder of hay or straw. Weights attached to wires keep the cover down. Sides of the bin are durable and moisture-resistant. Tempered Preswood has proved itself as an all-around farm building material over a period of years.
Easy-to-follow but detailed instructions for putting up a temporary grain bin may be obtained by writing Farm Service Bureau, Suite 2039, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, and asking for free plan AFB-177.

I might say that we kept at it, mounted the band, and it played mounted for Colonel Tommy's birthday. For a time it was the only National Guard mounted band in the nation and later became famous.

Munday Study Club Meets For Easter Program March 27

The Munday Study Club met for an Easter program at 4 p. m. March 27 at the study club house.

Mrs. Tom Bullington, director of the program, presented Rev. Doyle Ragle in an interesting lecture on "The Trial of Jesus Christ." He read excerpts from a letter, which if authentic, would be thousands of years old. It was written by the wife of Pontias Pilate.

The grade school chorus directed by Mrs. J. H. Bardwell sang two numbers, "Allelujah, the Strife Is O'er," by Palestrina and "The Crusader's Hymn," by Richard Wallis.

Mrs. Russell Penick presided at the business meeting, and Mrs. W. R. Moore, Jr., was hostess for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Almond and son, Chase, of Fort Worth were Sunday visitors in Munday.

Miss Ollis Bateman of Waco is visiting with her father, J. R. Bateman, who is ill.

Climbs Again

Six year old James Ray is learning to climb steps.

His steps are slow and sometimes he falls down. But he keeps on trying.

Jimmie — that's what his friends call him — gets lots of kicks out of life though he can't run and play like other kids right now. Hopalong Cassidy is his favorite cowboy. Someday Jimmie is going to be able to ride a horse like Hoppy. At least he's gonna try.

Jimmie is just one of thousands of crippled children in Texas who has received help from the Texas Society for Crippled Children and its federation of a hundred county units.

When Jimmie's parents learned that he was a victim of cerebral palsy due to an injury received at birth they turned to their Local Easter Seal Society for help. They didn't have much money. But, they found guidance and hope and a skilled therapist who could help train Jimmie's damaged muscles so they'd work better. Now he can stand and walk a little with the aid of crutches and braces. Easter Seal money bought these, too.

Jimmie and thousands of others like him can have the opportunity to walk again if Texans will prove their "bigness" by sending a contribution to Crippled Children, in care of your local post office. These funds will be used to bring strength to weak arms and legs, smiles to childish faces and hope to those who love the handicapped.

Drive carefully. The life you save may be your own!

Mrs. E. S. Vaughn Is Honored With Birthday Dinner

Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Bunch Norman of Mineral Wells, Mrs. Bernard Vaughn and children of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Oakly and son, Gary, of Ranger, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Garrett and son, Bennie, Marce June and Kathy Hall of Olney, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Garrett and daughter of Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. Stanely Shelton and son of Munday and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Vaughn of Goree.

Banquet To Honor Game Commission Member April 9th

WICHITA FALLS — Farmers, ranchers and sportsmen of Munday and surrounding areas are invited to attend a banquet here at 7 P. M., Thursday, April 9, honoring members of the Texas Game and Fish Commission, Frank M. Wood, Wichita Falls member of the commission announced this week.

Dr. Ira Gabrielson, director of National Wildlife Institute, and one of America's best known wildlife conservationists, will be the speaker in a program designed to bring together the landowner and the men and women of Northwest Texas who hunt and fish. The banquet program will be woven around a theme of sportsmen and farmer-rancher co-operation, and Gabrielson will speak on that subject.

The nine-member Texas Game and Fish Commission will hold its quarterly meeting Friday morning, April 10, in the Kemp Hotel, and the public is invited to attend, according to Commissioner Wood's announcement.

Banquet tickets are now on sale at the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce office, 304 Radio Building, at $2.00 per ticket.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Jungman returned home last week from a three weeks vacation trip to New Orleans, La., and points in Mississippi and Florida. They also took a trip to Havana, Cuba while away.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Russell of Wichita Falls were week end visitors with relatives and attended the Gillispie Baptist Church dedication.

Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Cook spent the week end in Putnam with Mr. Cook's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Cook, and with other relatives.

Elbert Owens of San Angelo was a Munday visitor the first of the week.

Mrs. James R. Rodgers spent the week end in Abilene.

GLAMOROUS MAID

Glamorous Alice Carr of Selma, Ala., 1953 Maid of Cotton, wears a gay date dress designed by Carolyn Schurer in cotton broadcloth embroidered in a rich Oriental pattern of leaves and flowers. This is one of the beautiful fashions from the famous cotton wardrobe which the Maid wears on her 65,000 mile international goodwill and fashion tour for the cotton industry.

Public Education In Texas Cheaper Than Baby Sitters

AUSTIN — Your child's education in the Texas public schools costs less than the hourly rate charged by the youngest baby-sitters, Charles H. Tennyson, executive secretary of the Texas State Teachers Association, said today.

"A lot of people talk about the high cost of education," Tennyson said. "Actually, during the 1951-52 school year, the actual cost per classroom hour for each child was only 21 cents."

Figures for the 1951-52 school year are the latest available. Total public school costs for that year were $318,963,078, according to figures compiled by the Texas Education Agency. Average daily attendance was 1,213,000. Dividing that figure into the total cost shows that $262 was spent that year for each child.

Dividing $262 by 180, the number of school days, gives a cost per day of $1.45. Dividing $1.45 by seven, the hours in a school day, gives an individual per hour cost of 21 cents.

"The Store With the Goods" Munday, Texas

FORT WORTH—F. F. A. youths had the top fat cattle at Fort Worth Monday at $23. The top was earned by the Burnett County F. F. A. group and the Frisco group from Collin County. The "commercial" type of feeding project is taking hold this year, while a couple of years ago no more than a couple or three existed.

The "commercial" feeding tests teach youngsters how to fit cattle for market, instead of the showing. It teaches how to make a profit, or how to make a loss. This year has been bitter for many young folks because of adverse price trends, high feed costs, and in many cases, feeders that cost too much. These lessons, while hard, are teaching the boys and girls the fact of economics—profit and loss—and may save them from much costlier mistakes in the years ahead.

We simply cannot fail to add our bit to this matter. We think commercial feeding projects are the answer to the farm youth livestock feeding program. A tiny percentage of livestock producers in adult life fit livestock for shows. Yet every livestock producer fits cattle for market whether on grass or in the feed-

Knox Prairie Philosopher Says Congressman Wanting Stronger Words To Call Russia Is Barking Wrong Way

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm in Miller Creek may know a little something about what he's talking about this week, as it involves words, and he seems to have plenty of that commodity.

Dear editor:
I was out here the other afternoon watching my cattle graze, there's nothin more satisfying than watching your own cattle graze on your own land, although I'll admit it was a little more satisfyin this time last year, about 40 per cent more satisfyin, to be exact, as that's how much the price of the things has dropped, and I stumbled onto a copy of a newspaper which was several days old but readin an out-of-date newspaper is a lot more interesting than dozens of things I can think of around this place and I took it to the shade and read where a Congressman in Washington was demandin that a resolution denouncin Russia for enslavin people be worded a lot stronger.

As I understand it, the Congressman wanted to re-write the resolution and put in some words at least four times as strong as the ones under consideration, but I'm afraid he's up against an impossible situation. What would he do with the words after he put em together? If I tried right hard I could think up some words a lot stronger to call Russia, but you wouldn't print em and I would not blame you. Nobody on the radio could use em, either.

Moreover, I don't believe there are any words, printable or unprintable, which we could get hold of which would have any effect on Russia. Anybody who's figurin on settin up a bunch of scientists on a research project to invent stronger words to call

J. A.

Russia, is barkin up the wrong rain spout. In an atomic age, a word bombardment is about as effective as a barrage of arrows against the 12-foot-thick walls of the Kremlin. The pen is mightier than the sword, but it ain't mightier than a jet bomber loaded with an atom bomb. The man who could fell a thousand with a phrase, ought to see what they are doin now with jellied gasoline. Congress may be able to solve domestic problems with words and there's no recognizable shortage of ammunition in that department, but oratory is a mighty poor weapon to throw against a tank.

I've heard of people who could annihilate an enemy with a word, but there's just not many of them people left, or else they're just not makin words as strong these days.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Diphtheria is a disease of neglect, declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. If all babies, beginning at three months of age, were taken to a physician or clinic for immunization against diphtheria, the infant deaths from this disease would cease. Such immunizations may be given in conjunction with whooping cough and tetanus vaccine for triple protection.

Diphtheria occurs most frequently in early childhood. It is caused by a germ that grows in the nose and throat and throws out a toxin or poison into the blood stream. This poison may attack the heart muscle or it may cause a paralysis known as peripheral neuritis.

Diphtheria is a dangerous disease for a child to have as it is highly infectious to other children. It starts with a sore throat, fever, and sometimes croup and hoarseness.

Adequate immunization early in life is the main defense against the dangerous malady.

About a year after the completion of the initial triple immunization against diphtheria, whooping cough, and tetanus a booster injection may be given and another at four to six years of age. Some physicians advise a further injection at nine to ten years of age.

Although the death rate from diphtheria has been markedly reduced in the past twenty years, infants were unsafe without immunization. It is only when all babies are immunized early in life that the conquest of diphtheria will be accomplished.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bowly attended the exhibition baseball game between the Spuders and Greenville in Wichita Falls last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Addie Lane left last Saturday for a two weeks' vacation with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Layne, in Beaumont.

Mr. and Mrs. Rylan Crabb and daughter of Dallas visited friends here over the week end.
