Odd Bits Salvaged
By The Editor

There's no better time for a plentiful supply of water than when temperatures hover around 105 degrees in continued hot July weather.

k-k

Two towns in particular — Childress and Quanah — had cause for celebrating an abundant supply of water last week end. They celebrated a red letter day.

k-k

In addition to welcoming the water supply, Childress was also welcoming a new industry. Quanah has an industry almost assured.

k-k

The source of the water supply are springs near Lelia Lake, which is about 45 miles from Childress and at least 75 miles from Quanah.

k-k

Childress received its first water at 9:10 a.m. Saturday, and water from the Greenbelt Municipal and Water Authority reached Quanah at 6 p.m. Friday — and water rationing has been ended. Other towns to receive the Greenbelt water supply are Crowell, Hedley and Clarendon. The project will cost about $11 million.

k-k

Childress and Quanah were the first to receive water, since both towns faced an acute shortage.

k-k

A colorful Water Festival and Pageant, complete with outstanding musical entertainment and a Greenbelt Water Appreciation Dinner was held Saturday. Speaker of the House, Ben Barnes, spoke at the dinner hosted by Quanah to honor the Greenbelt Water Authority and the state boards and others who had a part in providing the water.

k-k

The water pageant also included a water polo contest staged on the west side of the Quanah courthouse by the Quanah Fire Department. Such contests had been "passed" in the past few years because of a shortage of the principle item in a water polo contest—water.

k-k

Another huge source of water is the Meredith Reservoir on the Canadian River near Borger. Recent rains have swollen the reservoir to 6,413 surface acres. Some reported that 10 1/2 inches in June gave the lake the size that normal rainfall over a three-year period would have done.

k-k

These two wonderful sources of municipal water are results of years of effort and planning, and their stories should be of interest to those of us in this area who have been seeking water from the Miller Creek Reservoir, yet to be built.

k-k

The towns working together had enough to overcome the opposing towns, if any, and we're sure there were some. It should be heartening to us to renew hope and efforts—and not give up.

k-k

If you're complaining about the hot weather these days, it may be comforting to you to know that these 100-degree temperatures came three days later than last year. The thermometer reached an even 100 on June 30, 1964, and it was July 2 this year that it climbed to that height. From that date on, we've been clicking along the same notches as last year.

k-k

We thought, too, that we had a wet June, but the records of H. P. Hill, local U. S. weather observer, showed last week that we had received about .25 of an inch less rainfall than last year.

k-k

"What we need now is a good rain." We've heard this remark for a number of days, now—but Mr. Weatherman isn't giving us much encouragement.

k-k

We've goofed again, and have run short of two issues of "the good old Munday Times." We need at least two copies of issues of June 10 and June 17, 1965, and are ready to pay four-bits apiece for them. Any takers?

Tax-Man Sam Sez:

The old saying that only death and taxes are sure is still considered a pretty sound statement.

Unless we change things a lot, operating the government is gonna require us to pay taxes. This includes taxes on our death. Of course Texas, along with most other states, collects an inheritance tax. Internal Revenue collects an estate tax if your estate is worth more than $60,000 (or $120,000 community property).

The estate tax works similar to the income tax but most of us would like to postpone the filing date on this tax for a long, long time.

GUIDING THE SCALPEL

It may be that the protracted and often bitter controversy over opposed means of providing medical services to the elderly has obscured, in many minds, the most important element of all.

The World Medical Journal says this: "The patient does not want to see a hospital; he wants to see a doctor. In an authoritarian system without professional freedom, the doctor will be identified with authority and the immature patient will lapse into permanent dependency. He cannot regain his independence—one condition for cure—unless his doctor also has independence."

There is no relationship quite like that of the doctor and the patient in a system of free medicine. The association is a voluntary one. It has its base in confidence and competence. The physician's duty is to his patient and to no one else. No bureaucrat tells him what he can and cannot do, what he can and cannot prescribe for the condition he finds. All his skills and knowledge are devoted to seeking a cure and prolonging life and health.

In an authoritarian system, whether it be called socialized medicine or anything else, this relationship inevitably suffers, and badly. The hands of politicians and the bureaucrats are, so to speak, guiding the scalpel. The standards of care inevitably decline. And that subtle but vital element of which the Journal speaks, independence, is lost.

Whatever laws are passed, now and in years to come, the battle to maintain our traditional doctor-patient relationship must never stop.

GLOBAL CONVEYOR BELT

Back in June, 1947, Pan American World Airways introduced the first round-the-world air passenger service. Just the other day, on July 1, it recorded another aviation "first", by inaugurating round-the-world all-cargo jet service tying 17 of the world's major industrial centers to what in effect is a global freight conveyor belt.

These cargo flights crisscross the globe both eastbound and westbound. A New York distributor can place his goods on one of the Pan Am jets and have them delivered in far-off New Delhi 33 hours and five minutes later. The San Francisco buyer is just 33 hours and 40 minutes away from the Karachi businessman.

The significance of this has been expressed by an officer of the airline in these words: "Round-the-world jet freighter flights will open up new opportunities for promotion of American exports to the world's major industrial centers and will serve as an important tool in the nation's efforts to ease the balance of payments problem." The jet age has shrunk the world to an amazing degree for the traveler. Now it is doing just that for the shippers of goods.

IMMUTABLE LAW

The New York Times recently carried a story on New Zealand, where an all-embracing welfare state has been established. For example, unemployment and extreme poverty have been eliminated and adequate housing, health service and education are available to all.

The story then says: "Yet few visiting Americans are satisfied with what they see. They complain of poor service, of a take-it-or-leave-it attitude toward work when other jobs are readily available, of a lack of competitiveness and what they regard as an air of backwardness compared to the United States."

This caused The Wall Street Journal to observe: "The point is simply that any society deliberately fashioned in the framework of governmental gratuities for everything from planting wheat to painting water colors is bound to grow mediocre or worse. That is practically an immutable law, whether the people concerned are New Zealanders, Swedes, Russians, Britons or Americans, and it should not be particularly difficult to see why...."

Everyone favors the elimination of poverty and of human distress and misery in all its forms. In this endeavor, government inevitably plays a role. The problem is how to help those who truly need help without sapping the initiative, the independence and the ambition of vast masses of people. When that happens, national decadence and decline must follow, no matter how great any country's material wealth may be.

FORT MILL, S.C., TIMES: "At this time of confusion, uncertainty and unrest in so many areas of activity we might well think of William Penn when in a critical period facing his people he met the Indian chieftains and said, 'My friends, we have met on the highway of good faith. We are all one flesh and blood. Being brethren, we shall not take advantage of another. When disputes arise we will settle them in council. Between us there shall be nothing but openness and love.' The Indian chiefs replied, 'While the rivers run and the sun shines we will live in peace with the children of William Penn.'"

A Blue Cross release states that whooping cough, which is almost 100 per cent preventable, causes more deaths in the first year of life than measles, scarlet fever, diphtheria and polio combined.

Rainy Spell Clips Parks, Aids Angling

AUSTIN — Refreshing rain storms have been raising state parks waters and stimulating fishing at the expense of installations in at least two instances.

A sudden ten-foot rise in ordinarily "constant level" Inks Lake caused flooding of the concession stand, according to reports to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department headquarters. But W. M. (Mark) Gosdin, assistant director for parks, said the slight damage was borne by the concessionaire under contract with the department.

Earlier, more substantial storm damage was caused to shade trees and some shelter roofs at Lake Whitney State Park. Gosdin said the cover on the new 10,000 gallon water tower had to be replaced.

High water from the Leon River flooded low parts of Mother Neff State Park near Moody.

The camp grounds were inundated for a time and the floor of the tabernacle was under one foot of water. The concession building was above the high water level.

Generally, said Gosdin, the rains have helped beautify parks and have bristled fishermen.

DON'T SIMMER THROUGH SUMMER!
 STAY COMFORTABLY COOL

for
AS LOW AS

$6.64
 per month

On days when the heat is unbearable, people go to the lakes or beaches to be cool and comfortable. The cool breeze of the lake or sea shore is air in motion that has been cooled by the process of water evaporation. This same process is created by a Paramount Evaporative Cooler. The large squirrel cage blower continuously pulls outside air through wet redwood filters thereby lowering the temperature through evaporation of water in the filters. This cool, fresh, filtered air is then directed into the area to be cooled.

Some of the advantages of a Paramount Cooler are:

- Low cost of equipment, operation and maintenance
- Quick and easy installation
- Maximum comfort at all times
- 100% fresh, cooled, filtered air
- Fresh air ventilation, without cooling, for spring and fall—just turn off the water

See the Paramount DeVille evaporative cooler at your WTU Showroom.

Normal installation FREE for WTU residential customers.

COMMUNICATIONS — Your Tool for Progress

In case of fire,
 this telephone rings the alarm

In many of our towns, fire protection comes from a volunteer fire department. An effective communications system summons these volunteers by ringing all members' telephones at the same time. What's more, it is a distinctive ring which means "FIRE!" and brings firemen on the run. Here is another example of how Communications becomes a Tool for Progress—a communications service of great value to every town with a volunteer fire department. For full information about our many communications services, please call our Business Office.

Entomologist Warns Against Hazardous Pesticide Practice

There are enough natural hazards for agricultural flyers without creating new ones.

This comes as a word of advice from the Entomology Department at Texas A&M University and involves the use by some aerial applicators of a new, low-volume technique for controlling some cotton insects.

There is much interest in this new method of aerial control by the flyers because it costs less to do it this way. That is, it costs everyone less if the right chemicals are used in the right way.

"The personal hazard to applicators from pesticides greatly increases if these materials are used undiluted rather than diluted," warns Dr. J. C. Gaines, professor and head, Department of Entomology, Texas A&M University.

Dr. Gaines also stressed that the more toxic the pesticide is, the greater the hazard. He was commenting on a recent report that some aerial applicators were applying undiluted parathion and methyl parathion, both highly toxic pesticides, to control cotton insects in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. He noted that malathion is the only pesticide that has been registered for undiluted use in low-volume spraying of this type.

To this date, there is not enough scientific information available as to the persistence of undiluted pesticides after application. Accurate predictions can be made on the safety factors for handling the crop in a field if a diluted pesticide is applied according to the registered directions for use. Research by the entomologists at Texas A&M is adding new information daily on this new technique of applying pesticides, but, until it becomes available applicators should use the method only with malathion.

Dr. Gaines said, "The cotton insects cause an estimated annual loss of over 70 million dollars to cotton growers in Texas. This tremendous crop loss emphasizes the importance of an adequate control program if the cotton grower is to realize a profit."

Pesticides and similar chemicals are necessary to maintain a high level of high quality in both our foods and fibers. The manufacturers of these chemicals have met the requirements and standards established by federal and Texas laws before they released the chemicals for agricultural use. It now becomes the moral and legal responsibility of the user to exercise care in the handling, application, storing, and proper disposal of the empty containers.

For Women Only
by Joy Tomlinson

The Value of a Name

Consumers - and women in particular - face a difficult problem these days shopping for some items. Sometimes you can't tell from the label in the package who made a product. Such phrases as "distributed by" or "manufactured for" replace the name of the real maker. There's nothing illegal or morally wrong with this; it's just that most of us put our faith in products and companies that are proud of the quality of their products.

Just the other day in the supermarket I picked up a can of peas that had "Packed for..." and then the name of the company on the label, I had never heard of the brand of peas, nor the company. Needless to say, I didn't purchase this particular brand.

On the other hand, all of us are constantly aware of popular items that clearly advertise their manufacturer. I recently read a statement by J. N. Cooke, president of The Bayer Company, which contained a phrase I like... "Leadership Brands," which describes products that are of superior quality and the makers are proud to put their name on them. The aspirin of Mr. Cooke's company is an example. Every tablet has the familiar Bayer cross on it, proclaiming that the company's reputation stands solidly behind the product... and the claim that it is ready to go to work much faster than official standards require for aspirin.

The public encourages the "invisible" manufacturers, for as long as people buy on price alone, products of dubious origin and quality will continue in vogue. For myself, I prefer the assurance of quality, safety and integrity that is inherent in the name of a "Leadership Brand," whether it be clothing, vacuum cleaners, radios... or aspirin.

Joey Bowley returned to his home in Corpus Christi on Wednesday of last week after a month's visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bowley and Mrs. Fannie Armstrong. His cousin, David Tynes of Goree, accompanied him home for three weeks visit.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Fruehwirth and daughter last week were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fruehwirth, and his sister, Mrs. Doris Soldner, and daughter of Coeyman Hollow, N. Y.

OBITUARY OF MRS. MATTIE JANE RUSSELL

Mrs. Mattie Russell, of Vera, entered into rest Monday, July 5, 1965 at 9:40 p.m. at the Knox County Hospital, Knox City, Texas after a lengthy illness. She was born December 27, 1880 in the Verona community in Collin County. She was the former Mattie Jane Grisham and was the last survivor of the eight children of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Grisham.

She was married to Charlie W. Russell on February 2, 1898, at McKinney. They lived in Collin County until January, 1920, when they came to Knox County and settled in Vera. Her husband was engaged in farming and ginning until his death in 1940.

Mrs. Russell became a Christian at an early age and was a member of the Baptist Church. She taught a Sunday School Class for many years and was faithful in all other activities of the church until her health prevented her attendance. She was a Past Worthy Matron of the Order of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Russell was a good neighbor and was always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need and was loved, in return, by all who knew her.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning, July 7 at the Vera Baptist Church with pastor, Rev. Douglas Crow, officiating, assisted by a former pastor, Rev. W. M. Copeland of Haskell. For special music, Mrs. Crow sang "God Lead Us Along," "When They Ring Those Golden Bells," and "The Pearly White City". Mrs. Tom Hardin was accompanist. Pallbearers were her grandsons; Maurice Hughes, Eunice, N. M.; Clelan Russell and Clyde Beck, Vera; Paul Russell and Neil Atchison, Levelland; and Nicky Russell, Fort Worth.

Besides her husband, she was preceded in death by two children; an infant daughter, Geneva and a son, Paul Stephen. She is survived by two sons, Ted, of Vera, and Charles, of Fort Worth; two daughters, Mrs. Pearl Hughes, Eunice, New Mexico, and Mrs. Johnnie Skelton, Houston, Texas; eight grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren, and a host of nephews and nieces.

Out of town relatives attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hughes, Challa and Byron, Eunice, New Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Miss Wanda Jean Miller And Jerry Floyd Hester Are Married At Weinert

Miss Wanda Jean Miller and Jerry Floyd Hester were united in marriage at 5 p.m. Saturday, July 10, in the Weinert Baptist Church. Rev. Ross Anderson, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Miller of Weinert and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hester of Rochester.

Traditional wedding music was rendered by Miss Margara Walker of Haskell, organist and Pat Thurman of Tuscola, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of white peau de soie with a scooped neckline, fitted bodice, long tapered sleeves and chapel train. A large bow at the waistline accented the back of the dress. A white pillbox hat of peau de soie held the elbow length veil of tulle. Flowers were two small white orchids surrounded by white carnations.

Miss Patsy Miller, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Wayne Offutt of Weinert was bridesmaid. Their dresses were of blue polished cotton with lace bodices. Their pillbox hats had a butterfly veil. Bouquets were white gladioli.

Billy Wayne Hester served his brother as best man. Groomsman was Ronnie Walker of Dallas, cousin of the groom. Ushers were Wayne Offutt of Weinert, Benny Archer of Dallas and Dale Carroll of Weinert, cousin of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Toby Yates were host and hostess for the reception. Members of the house party were Mrs. Ronnie Walker of Dallas, Jessie Parson of Fort Worth, Carol Gann of Rule, and Linda Byrd of Rochester. Sue Cyfert of Munday presided at the bride's registry.

The bride is a graduate of Weinert High School and is a junior education major at Hardin Simmons University in Abilene. She is a member of TSEA and Beta Gamma Epsilon social club.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Rochester High School and is presently engaged in farming at Weinert where the couple will live.

For her wedding trip the bride chose a two-piece suit of blue linen with white accessories and wore her orchid from the bridal bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hester were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at their home in Rochester.

Decorations at the church were an arch of greenery with white gladioli flanked by standing baskets of white gladioli. Pews were marked with white satin bows.

Miss Rita Massingill of Texas Tech in Lubbock spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Massingill.

The Flying Leviathan

Staggering statistics tell the story of Lockheed's projected four-engine C-5A cargo plane designed to meet Air Force demands for a jet carrier twice the size of the mammoth airlifters now in operation, and the biggest airplane ever built. The new carrier would fly more than 6,300 statute miles non-stop, at a speed more than 500 miles an hour with a 100,000 pound payload. It could cross any ocean non-stop with twice this load. It is as high as a six-story building, as wide as a two-lane highway, as long as some steamers, and could accommodate six Greyhound buses within its commodious interior.

The C-5A is Lockheed's latest entry in the heavy airlift field. It features a huge nose that swings up to permit free passage of trucks, tanks and other heavy equipment. Lockheed is the builder of the fan-jet C-141 StarLifter for the Air Force, and the C-130 Hercules, used by all military services and a dozen other countries throughout the world.

Hot Nights, Dense Weeds Menace Fish

The advent of hot summer days, with still nights and early mornings, presents a potential danger to fish in farm tanks and ponds, warns K. C. Jurgens, Region V inland fisheries supervisor, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Ponds with lush bottom vegetation or a green soupy appearance from excess algae are very susceptible to oxygen depletion fish kills, Jurgens said.

After a hot day, a warm still night and a still morning, pond owners should observe tanks and ponds very closely for signs of fish in distress.

When fish are seen rising to the surface "gasping for air" it's time to take immediate action.

An outboard motor churning the surface of the water or a pump to pick up the water and spray it over the surface, can usually save the fish, but this may have to be continued intermittently for an extended period of time.

Jurgens went on to caution pond owners that, during this period of intense agricultural activity, extreme care must be taken during the spraying of in-secticides. Even a minute of some sprays drifting into a pond can produce a fish kill of major proportions, he said.

Early Soil Tests For All Fall Crops

Soil samples should be collected now and submitted for testing in preparation for fall planting, advises C. D. Welch, Extension soil chemist, Texas A&M University.

Early soil sampling and testing is encouraged to avoid the fall rush that crowds the state's three testing laboratories. Also, early sampling is important if lime is needed. Since lime reacts over a long period of time, it is important, explains Welch, to make the needed application two to four months before planting legumes.

Established legume pastures and hay crops are among those which will be needing fertilization and possibly limestone this fall, points out the chemist. An increasing number of acres is being seeded to vetch, crimson and white clover, and since fertility and lime needs of these crops vary, soil tests will help in developing a profitable treatment, says Welch.

Liming is especially important in East Texas and the Coastal Prairie. The chemist points out that half of the East Texas and eastern Coast Prairie soils need lime, and that it should be applied before fall plantings are made.

Miss Wanda Jean Miller And Jerry Floyd Hester Are Married At Weinert

Miss Wanda Jean Miller and Jerry Floyd Hester were united in marriage at 5 p.m. Saturday, July 10, in the Weinert Baptist Church. Rev. Ross Anderson, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Miller of Weinert and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hester of Rochester.

Traditional wedding music was rendered by Miss Margana Walker of Haskell, organist and Pat Thurman of Tuscola, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of white peau de soie with a scooped neckline, fitted bodice, long tapered sleeves and chapel train. A large bow at the waistline accented the back of the dress. A white pillbox hat of peau de soie held the elbow length veil of tulle. Flowers were two small white orchids surrounded by white carnations.

Miss Patsy Miller, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Wayne Offutt of Weinert was bridesmaid. Their dress were of blue polished cotton with lace bodices. Their pillbox hats had a butterfly veil. Bouquets were white gladioli.

Elly Wayne Hester served his brother as best man. Groomsman was Ronnie Walker of Dallas, cousin of the groom. Ushers were Wayne Offutt of Weinert, Benny Archer of Dallas and Dale Carroll of Weinert, cousin of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Toby Yates were best and hostess for the reception. Members of the house party were Mrs. Ronnie Walker of Dallas, Jessie Parson of Fort Worth, Carol Gann of Rule, and Linda Byrd of Rochester. Sue Cypert of Munday presided at the bride's registry.

The bride is a graduate of Weinert High School and is a junior education major at Hardin Simmons University in Abilene. She is a member of TSEA and Beta Gamma Epsilon social club.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Rochester High School and is presently engaged in farming at Weinert where the couple will live.

For her wedding trip the bride chose a two-piece suit of blue linen with white accessories and wore her orchid from the bridal bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hester were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at their home in Rochester.

Decorations at the church were an arch of greenery with white gladioli flanked by standing baskets of white gladioli. Pews were marked with white satin bows.

Miss Rita Massingill of Texas Tech in Lubbock spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Massingill.

The Flying Leviathan

Staggering statistics tell the story of Lockheed's projected four-engine C-5A cargo plane designed to meet Air Force demands for a jet carrier twice the size of the mammoth airlifters now in operation, and the biggest airplane ever built. The new carrier would fly more than 6,300 statute miles non-stop, at a speed more than 500 miles an hour with a 100,000 pound payload. It could cross any ocean non-stop with twice this load. It is as high as a six-story building, as wide as a two-lane highway, as long as some steamers, and could accommodate six Greyhound buses within its commodious interior.

The C-5A is Lockheed's latest entry in the heavy airlift field. It features a huge nose that swings up to permit free passage of trucks, tanks and other heavy equipment. Lockheed is the builder of the fan-jet C-141 StarLifter for the Air Force, and the C-130 Hercules, used by all military services and a dozen other countries throughout the world.

Hot Nights, Dense Weeds Menace Fish

The advent of hot summer days, with still nights and early mornings, presents a potential danger to fish in farm tanks and ponds, warns K. C. Jurgens, Region V inland fisheries supervisor, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Ponds with lush bottom vegetation or a green soupy appearance from excess algae are very susceptible to oxygen depletion fish kills, Jurgens said.

After a hot day, a warm still night and a still morning, pond owners should observe tanks and ponds very closely for signs of fish in distress.

When fish are seen rising to the surface "gasping for air" it's time to take immediate action.

An outboard motor churning the surface of the water or a pump to pick up the water and spray it over the surface, can usually save the fish, but this may have to be continued intermittently for an extended period of time.

Jurgens went on to caution pond owners that, during this period of intense agricultural activity, extreme care must be taken during the spraying of in-secticides. Even a minute of some sprays drifting into a pond can produce a fish kill of major proportions, he said.

Early Soil Tests For All Fall Crops

Soil samples should be collected now and submitted for testing in preparation for fall planting, advises C. D. Welch, Extension soil chemist, Texas A&M University.

Early soil sampling and testing is encouraged to avoid the fall rush that crowds the state's three testing laboratories. Also, early sampling is important if lime is needed. Since lime reacts over a long period of time, it is important, explains Welch, to make the needed application two to four months before planting legumes.

Established legume pastures and hay crops are among those which will be needing fertilization and possibly limestone this fall, points out the chemist. An increasing number of acres is being seeded to vetch, crimson and white clover, and since fertility and lime needs of these crops vary, soil tests will help in developing a profitable treatment, says Welch.

Liming is especially important in East Texas and the Coastal Prairie. The chemist points out that half of the East Texas and eastern Coast Prairie soils need lime, and that it should be applied before fall plantings are made.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Can't Imagine Any Old Place That Takes A 25-Million-A-Mile Road To Pass

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek apparently is buffaloed by some figures he has found on highway costs.

J. A.

Dear Editor:
I walked down to my mail box this morning and while I was pulling out my mail four cars and two pickups drove by and I got to thinking, this road is becoming a major thoroughfare.

Then I came on back and sat down in the shade and started reading a newspaper which was left in my box by mistake and which I will put back in when I get around to it, never figured it hurt to read somebody else's newspaper, or for somebody else to read it a day late, news is something you haven't read before and I've rarely seen the day when I wasn't just as well off with day before yesterday's news as yesterday's.

At any rate, I hadn't gotten far when I read an item that said there is a highway in Los Angeles County in California where as many as 343,000 cars pass a given point in one day.

I guess this is true, but personally I don't see how a mail carrier on a route like that ever gets a chance to stop to leave any mail. Every time he stops, traffic must back up as far out as Nevada. With 343,000 horns blasting. On the days when he has free samples of a new soap for everybody, it must reach clear to Texas.

Furthermore, the article said such roads carrying so much traffic cost as much as $25,000,000 a mile to build.

I haven't figured this up, but it seems to me that the people paying for such a highway would be better off if they put the money out at interest and stayed at home.

FOR SALE—The John Cure home in Munday. Excellent location, close to town and Post Office. A good buy. Call Charles Baker Insurance, 6611. 2-tfc

Any time anybody wants to build such a highway by this Johnson grass farm carrying that many people, it would suit me better if they just gave me the cash for my part and I'll move somewhere else.

There must be places in this country where it's worth $25,000,000 a mile to get past, but this place out here sure doesn't qualify. For just a fraction of that you can avoid the place entirely, and probably be happier.

I'm sorry I read that newspaper and will get up out of my chair immediately and put it back where it belongs.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by the State Health Department

Cancer can be cured. Almost a million and a third Americans are living proof of that fact. One out of four, statistics show, will have cancer—the second leading killer of persons in Texas.

The problem is to detect cancer early—before it has spread—so it can be removed by surgery or destroyed by radiation. Cancer can insidiously creep up on a person with only subtle signs of warning. Frequent medical checkups are a person's best guard against the disease.

Uterine cancer, once a most dread form of the disease, could be dramatically reduced, the experts say. A simple, painless "Pap" test included in every woman's yearly health examination can detect this type of cancer in early treatable stages.

Breast cancer, the leading cancer killer of women, can also be forestalled. Every woman should examine her breasts monthly for suspicious swelling, lumps or other signs. Literature is available from your health department or cancer society explaining breast self examination methods. Check with your doctor when you first detect suspicious changes.

Skin cancer can many times be averted by early observation of changes, too. A mole, for example, which grows or bleeds should be called to your doctor's attention. Other abnormal skin conditions should be brought to the doctor's attention.

A proctoscopic examination should be made part of every man and woman's annual physical checkup for early detection and treatment of colon-rectum cancers.

And always be on guard for cancer's seven danger signals; unusual bleeding or discharge, a lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere, a sore that does not heal, a change in bowel or bladder habits, hoarseness or cough, indigestion or difficulty in swallowing, or a change in a wart or mole.

If your danger signal last longer than two weeks, go to your doctor immediately.

Another field of two rows of maize on each bed will be visited in Munday. The tour will end on the J. C. McGee farm, Knox City about 2:30 p.m.

Everyone interested is urged to attend.

The District 3 4-H Boys Camp will be held this year at Buffalo Gap on July 21-22-23. The Knox County quota is 8 boys. Any 4-H boy interested in going is urged to contact me. Recreational activities of swimming, softball, washers and horseshoes will be conducted during the day. Other activities are scheduled for the night meetings.

June had the highest number of screwworm infestations in 19 months. A total of 208 confirmed cases from all over the Southwest was recorded. The number confirmed last week declined sharply to 36. Officials hope this is a trend as hot weather sets in.

The Senate Agricultural Appropriations Committee dealt the program a blow last week. They recommended that $2.8 million be appropriated for the fiscal year that began July 1. They also recommended, and this is the blow, that all but $250,000 be matched by the state or producer funds. The program has been costing $5 million each year so the states and producers affected will have to pay the difference, if this passes.

There is one ray of hope, however. The bill passed by the House does not include the matching language. Should the Senate approve the measure as now worded, the bill would have to go to a Conference Committee to settle the differences.

Panhandle Lakes Catch Good Rains

Record high late June rainfall totaling 10½ inches in the Amarillo area has swollen Meredith Reservoir on the Canadian River to 6,413 surface acres, reports the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Most other Panhandle lakes, largely without sufficient run-off since 1961-62, are now full and overflowing because of recent rains.

Lake Meredith, the site of recent walleye releases by the department, is the Panhandle's newest and largest lake. The newest reservoir, destined to cover 20,000 surface acres when full, has already become one of the major centers for water-oriented sports in northwest Texas.

Activities of The Colored People

By Fannie Mae Johnson

Sunday School was well attended at all churches Sunday morning.

West Beulah Sunday School was held on time. Subject of the lesson, Our Continuing Response. Back ground scripture, Philippians 3:7-16. A wonderful lesson for such times as we are living in right now.

Some of the members of West Beulah motored to Haskell Sunday morning to hear Rev. J. W. Wade of Amarillo preach out of his soul. Our hearts was made to rejoice. One united with the church in that service.

Mr. and Mrs. Clemmy Toliver, Mrs. Georgia Toliver and Mrs. F. M. Johnson visit in Wichita Falls Monday.

Mrs. John Williams is visiting in Wichita Falls this week.

Mr. Willie Williams of Paris is visiting here this week.

Mrs. Gracy Bradley of Wichita Falls is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Toliver, this week.

Mrs. Endia Beals is expecting to come home this week from the hospital.

Attend the church of your choice next Sunday.
