Final Tribute For J. S. Hart

Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon (Friday) for Jesse S. Hart, 84, beloved pioneer resident and early day cowboy of this county. Mr. Hart passed away Wednesday at 7:15 p. m. at his home here after two months illness. Services will be conducted at the Presbyterian church with Rev. S. P. Collins, Presbyterian pastor, Rev. John A. English, Methodist pastor, and J. C. Strickland, minister of the Church of Christ, officiating. Burial will be in Ross cemetery under direction of Wylie Funeral Home.

Mr. Hart was a life member of the Masonic lodge, and the graveside rites will be conducted by the Masons. He was a retired rancher and had made Baird his home for 81 years, coming here with his parents and settling on the Jim Ned River when he was three years old. His parents were forced to leave their home on the Jim Ned at one time because of Indians, but later returned.

Born February 17, 1863, in Palo Pinto, Texas, Mr. Hart lived to see this section of West Texas grow into the empire that it is today from a sparsely settled wilderness. He helped make Baird and Callahan county the pleasant place it is today in which to live. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and Baird Masonic Lodge. His wife died November 29, 1925.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. J. W. Turner of Abilene; three sons, Fred of Baird, J. R. and H. D. Hart of Fort Worth; eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

FRANK T. BAILEY BUYS FUNERAL HOME AT CLYDE

A deal has been consummated whereby Mr. Patterson has sold the funeral home property to Frank T. Bailey. It is reported that Mr. Bailey will resume management on Oct. 1.

Bailey, son of Mrs. J. H. Bailey, was reared in Clyde, attended McMurry college, and graduated from the Dallas School of Embalming in 1938. He was with the Kiker-Warren Funeral Home in Abilene before entering the armed forces in 1941. He has been with Kiker-Warren the past two years since his release from service.

While in the service Bailey spent two years with an embalming and graves registration unit in the southwest Pacific.

Dorothy Barnhill, E. O. Parsons Wed

Mrs. Willie Barnhill has announced the marriage of her daughter, Dorothy, to E. O. Parsons, which occurred Saturday, July 5th, 7 p. m., in Houston. The marriage vows were read by Rev. Alfred M. Dorsett, pastor, in the Heights Presbyterian Manse, in the presence of only a few close friends and relatives. Mrs. Geneva Flores Murphy, the bride's aunt, was her only attendant.

The bride wore a navy blue street dress and she carried a point lace handkerchief which was made by her mother for her aunt, Mrs. Kate Young. Mrs. Young had carried the dainty handkerchief at her own wedding fifty years ago. For something borrowed, the bride wore a platinum bracelet belonging to Mrs. Murphy.

The bride is a native of Baird, having been born and reared here. She graduated from the Baird high school and has since made this her home. During the past two years she has been employed as bookkeeper in Parsons Electric and Refrigeration Shop in Baird.

Mr. Parsons is owner of Parsons Electric & Refrigeration Shop, which recently moved into new quarters on Market Street and is one of Baird's most thriving enterprises.

The happy couple took a wedding trip to San Jacinto Monument, Galveston, Texas City and other south Texas points, as well as a visit to the State capitol at Austin. Their many friends here are extending congratulations and best wishes for their happiness.

METHODIST-DEEP CREEK CO-OP MEETING

Rev. W. E. Hawkins, director of the Deep Creek Camp Meeting, said today that this summer's final session of the camp meeting would be held Friday.

Rev. Hawkins and Rev. John A. English announce that the final meeting will be held at the Baird Methodist church with W. F. Burcaw, the well-known baritone soloist, singing and speaking. The services begin at 8 p. m. Rev. Hawkins reports full attendance at the camp this summer. It has been unanimously voted to include the first two Sunday of July in the 1948 camp meeting. Speaking of the cooperative meeting at the Methodist church, Rev. Hawkins stated that it is very fitting for Rev. English to invite such an arrangement since he was Rev. English's pastor in Navarro county while he was just a boy.

BANDERA PAPER SALE CALLED OFF

Last week The Star reported that the editor's father, J. Marvin Hunter, Sr., had sold his newspaper, The Bandera Bulletin, but we learned later that the deal was called off. His plan to be relieved of the responsibility of the newspaper and be able to spend time as editor of Frontier Times in Baird is working out fine. Our sister, Mrs. John V. Saul, and brother, Warren Hunter, will run the Bulletin with assistance of an extra printer in the shop. Mrs. Saul has been associated with the paper since its beginning, but Mr. Hunter has been devoting his attention to commercial art since selling The Harper Herald some fifteen years ago. While publishing The Herald, he won the honor of having the best all 'round weekly newspaper in Texas, as well as all other first prizes offered that year, 1929.

In assuming responsibility on The Bulletin, he does not intend to give up his art, but will continue that work that has placed him in a group of the south's top artists.

Buck Cargal and Buddy Davis arrived Thursday from N.T.S.T. C., Denton, to spend the 4th of July holidays here.

Siadous Elected Head Co. Co-op

The Board of Directors of the newly organized Callahan County Farmers Cooperative, Inc., met July 9 in the county commissioners' court room in Baird and selected organization officers, and then proceeded to transact business. The officers elected were: C. H. Siadous, President; Harry Benson, Vice-President; and J. L. Farmer, Sec'y-Treas., all of Baird.

The directors are asking all members of the organization to take their vetch and rye seed to Rising Star for Cleaning, separating and handling as the Rising Star organization invited this organization to do at the initial meeting.

All farmers in Callahan County are asked to let J. L. Farmer, Sec'y-Treas., Baird, know their needs for fertilizer (phosphate) and equipment needs for fall planting of vetch and other farm crops. Self-return cards will be sent to farmers requesting this information and the Board of Directors are hoping every farmer will cooperate and return the cards filled out, in order that the Cooperative can be of service to them. A fertilizer company is being contacted to secure enough fertilizer to supply the needs of all Callahan County Farmers — members of the organization will be taken care of first.

A committee was appointed to make arrangements for holding meetings in the various communities to inform the people of the value and service the co-op can render them, and to get the wheel rolling at full speed, the directors have decided that someone should devote his full time to selling the stock and an agreement with Harry Benson to sell stock at customary commission rates, was decided upon.

Projects contemplated: vetch cleaning and separating plant, buying and selling of small grains, grain elevator, cheese plant, sweet potato dehydrating plant, to sell and buy for farmers, and a feed mill.

The board members present at the meeting were: Will Appleton, C. Z. Anderson, C. H. Siadous, E. F. Browning, J. L. Farmer, and R. W. Robinson. Hiram Cook and A. R. Magill, the two other members, were unable to attend.

FOURTH IS QUIET IN BAIRD

With almost all the business places closed and many of our people taking trips, the Fourth of July weekend was very quiet and peaceful. Only an occasional fire-cracker broke the silence to remind us that the glorious Fourth had rolled around again. The heat of summer caused a large number of Baird folks to rest in the shade at home, while others fished in nearby spots or took trips to distant cities. Some sweltered in the heat and dust of rodeo entertainments. The Star force took off for the weekend, J. L. Ault and Jimmie Hallmark going to Throckmorton county on a weekend fishing trip, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hunter went to Carlsbad Cavern. Whatever choice local people made for their Fourth of July entertainment, we are sure that they, as we, had a good time, a good weekend vacation, and were back Monday morning to pick up where they left off, feeling refreshed and ready to get back in the "harness."

Mr. Waldrop, having been Callahan County supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration since April, 1943, refused to be transferred when that office was closed here. Stating that he likes Callahan county people, he is remaining here and entering a business that will keep him in close touch with all his friends throughout this territory. He plans to enlarge the present business at the feed store, handling Purina and Abtex feeds, farm supplies and seed. Mr. Waldrop is an alert business man with a vision, and The Star joins other Baird firms in extending to him a welcome into our business circle.

Drive Benefits Girl Scouts

Beginning Monday morning the Baird Girl Scouts will open a subscription campaign throughout Callahan county to raise very much needed funds to carry on the girl's program. They will solicit one-year subscriptions to The Baird Star and Frontier Times magazine, beginning the drive in Baird. The agreement was made as to plans for the campaign at a Girl Scout council meeting Monday night, when the question arose as to how funds might be raised for the girl's activities in Scouting. The offer made by J. Marvin Hunter, Jr., publisher of the Baird Star and Frontier Times was to allow a commission of fifty cents for each one year subscription to each of the publications. Regardless of when a current subscription expires, the Girl Scouts may accept a one-year subscription renewal to begin when the present subscription is out.

The offer was made, first, to assist the girls in their Scouting program; secondly, to increase the circulation of the Baird Star; and thirdly, to introduce Frontier Times to more Callahan county people. The magazine is now nearly twenty-five years old, but has been published in Baird only for the past year. Quite a number of people are ordering the magazine, others drop in at the Star office to purchase the current issue each month, but in this complete canvass of the county we hope to add several hundred new readers to the subscription list. The solicitors will have copies of Frontier Times to show when they make their rounds.

The only limitation in this drive will be that only one-year subscriptions will be taken. Hand the girl the regular price of subscription that is printed on the newspaper or magazine and also on the subscription order blank, and she will fill out the blank in duplicate and give you the duplicate copy for your file. If you plan to renew your subscription to The Baird Star or Frontier Times anyway, do so in this way at no extra cost to you. If you have a friend or relative who would enjoy these publications, subscribe for them also and give the Girl Scouts that much extra commission for their fund. If you are not a subscriber to the Star or to Frontier Times, we cordially invite you to become one while this campaign is in force. The drive will close September 1st. The Girl Scouts will be pleased if you will hand them your subscription or call them and they'll be right over.

PIONEER TEACHER CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Observing his 81st birthday today is C. W. Logsdon, Sr., ill abed of a heart ailment at his home in Abilene, who pioneered as a rural teacher in Callahan and Taylor counties and became a leading West Texas stockman.

Mr. Logsdon, as a lad of 16, came with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Daniel Logsdon, to Baird in 1882, soon after the county seat had been moved from Belle Plain. A noted Methodist circuit-rider, his father preached in many small communities.

Young Logsdon taught school and spent his salary acquiring land. He went to Colorado at the age of 21, and filed on government land. He returned to Stanbury (Mo.) Teachers' Normal. Later, after a short time teaching school in Missouri, he returned to schools around Hamby, including Deadman and Willow Creek where the salary was $50 a month, with $50 tops. This he invested in land.

Mr. Logsdon was married on July 20, 1902 in Abilene to Miss Daisy Reed, daughter of Dr. J. L. Reed, who after serving as a surgeon in the 1st Tennessee Cavalry, emigrated to the Content country when Mrs. Logsdon was seven. She is now 71.

Going to Andrews county in 1905 to take up lands, the Logsdons lived three miles east of Potosi for eight years, sending their two children to Potosi school. The children are Charles W. Logsdon, Jr., 1302 Cedar, Abilene, a stock-farmer, and Mrs. S. A. (Kathryn) White, 802 Mulberry, Abilene. The only grandson is Franklin White, 8.

The Logsdons returned to Abilene in 1920 and saw their son and daughter graduate from Hardin-Simmons university. Relating early days in the Abilene country Logsdon said: "We depended on the range. In 1885-1886 a terrific drought struck and cattle died by the thousands. So pinching was the drought, the State sent provisions. I remember a carload of flour unloaded and distributed at Baird for the hungry."

Logsdon continued to invest hard-earned tutor's salary in land and cattle until he accumulated a nucleus that grew into large holding when he retired in 1925.

Mr. Logsdon returned to his home only a week ago after being under an oxygen tent for eight days at Hendrick Memorial Hospital. He is slightly improved.

Only a quiet celebration is planned July 20 also when Mr. and Mrs. Logsdon will celebrate their 45th wedding anniversary.

WHO WILL RUN THE NATION'S LARGEST BUSINESSES IN 1974?

YOUNG MEN back from war wonder about the country's future and their own future. What will they be doing 27 years from now?

The 143 top men who manage 50 of the nation's largest businesses can help answer that one.

Twenty-seven years ago, most of them came back from a war, too.

All of them, after the war or before, began their business careers at the bottom.

One started work for $1.50 a week—11 others for less than $5 a week. 43 others started work for less than $10 a week.

Eighty-one others received between $10 and $25 a week. Only 7 received more than $25—the highest getting paid $69.23 a week.

The average first wage of all 143 was $13.40 a week.

Who will manage the nation's largest businesses in 1974? Exactly the same kind of men.

Then, as now, they will be leaders with courage, ambition and initiative enough to come up the business ladder, rung by rung.

Neither the men and women in industry nor the money in industry can be effective without good management. Nothing else is so important to the workers' welfare, the investors' welfare, or the public welfare.

FOSTER-BAILEY WEDDING HELD AT CLYDE

The Clyde Baptist church was the scene of a beautiful wedding last Monday evening, June 30, when Billie Ruth Foster, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Foster, became the bride of Frank T. Bailey, son of Mrs. Cordelia Bailey.

Rev. Russell Clubb read the impressive double ring ceremony before a background of greenery complimented with white gladioli in floor baskets with candles in tall candelabras, palms and an arch entwined with ferns.

Mrs. A. T. Barton of Brady, sister of the bridegroom, played the traditional wedding music. She also accompanied Emmalee Alexander who sang "O Promise Me," and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original white, slipper satin wedding gown. She carried a white Bible topped with orchids and showered with satin streamers tied with carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. R. C. Davis, Jr., sister of the bride, served as the matron of honor. She was gowned in a dress of cornflower blue water-marked taffeta, and carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli.

Bridesmaids, Cecile Hampton,

Mrs. Mel Rust Thurman of Abilene, and Nelva Martin of Sweetwater, wore dresses in pastels of nylonette over taffeta. Shoulder-length veils were held in place with hats fashioned like the bride's. They carried arm bouquets of white gladioli.

John Bailey, Jr., nephew of the bridegroom, lighted the candles and Dixie Fern Davis, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Dr. Joe Bailey of Austin, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were the groom's nephews, Bob Bailey of Abilene, and Bill Kennard, also A. B. Foster, Jr., brother of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. After the bride cut the four-tiered wedding cake, it was served by Mrs. Homer Kennard, sister of the bridegroom. At the other end of the table was the crystal punch bowl where Mrs. Louie Midland, aunt of the bride, ladeled punch.

The couple left immediately on a wedding trip to points in West Texas, New Mexico and Colorado. The bride wore a two-piece linen suit, with black accessories and an orchid from her bouquet as her traveling suit.

The couple will make their home in Clyde.

The bride is a graduate of Clyde high school, and attended Hardin-Simmons university in Abilene. She taught school at Denton and Clyde for the past three years.

Mr. Bailey attended McMurry college, and is a graduate of the Dallas School of Embalming. He served four and one-half years in the medical corps of the Army, three years of which was in the Southwest Pacific. He is now manager of his own business, the former Patterson Funeral Home in Clyde.

BRIDAL SHOWER

A bridal shower honoring Mrs. Bill Jones was held in the home of Mrs. Bill Bragg, June 30, from 8:00 to 9:30 p. m. The house was decorated throughout with daisies and other summer flowers. Flanking the punch service were tapers in crystal candelabra with cut flowers centering the lace-covered table. In the receiving line were Mrs. Lacy Meredith, Mrs. George Jones and Mrs. Bragg. Miss Ida Mae Glover presided at the registry and Miss Reba Jo Price ladeled punch. Hostesses for the occasion were Reba Price, Joyce Tyson, Polly Settle, Billy Jean Linecum, Hope Glover, Evadene Ellis, Ida Mae Glover, Wenona Wagner and Eloise Grant.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clemmer of Chowchilla, Calif., are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Raylene, to Walter Wittwer, on June 8, in St. Columba's Catholic church at Chowchilla.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. W. Burke, before the candle lit altar decorated with white gladioli and daisies.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown made with a long fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and pointed wrist length sleeves, a bustle and long train. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a heart-shaped halo. She wore a gold cross set with diamonds, a gift from the bridegroom, and carried a prayer book with a bouquet of white carnations, and a handkerchief of her grandmother's, Mrs. A. L. McIntosh of Clyde.

Wedding music was played by Anne Pedretti on the organ, and Maxine Bear sang Ave Maria. Approximately 160 guests attended the reception held in the home of the bride's parents. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Rose Wittwer.

MARKETING with Marjorie

On warm days, rise before the thermometer does, and you'll shine as a cook without getting all hot and bothered! Just serve dishes you can fix early in the morning and heat up at mealtime. Here are a few that will help you keep cool, calm... and collect compliments:

BEANS AT THEIR BEST

Add 1 tbsp. prepared mustard to 1 can ANN PAGE BEANS WITH PORK. Sauté 1 medium onion (finely cut) and 1 medium apple (unpeeled and chopped) in 1 tbsp. fat, and mix with beans. Bake in casserole in moderate oven, 375° F., 20 minutes. This recipe makes enough for 4 servings, but ANN PAGE BEANS make you want more... they're so tender and tasty. Better buy a few extra cans next time you're shopping at the A&P.

APPETITE BAIT

Fish is so light and digestible I serve it often in summer, varying the sauce like this: To 1 cup of medium white sauce I add a tbsp. of ANN PAGE PREPARED MUSTARD or 6 to 10 sliced SULTANA OLIVES or a tbsp. of ANN PAGE GARDEN RELISH. I always keep these thrifty "pepper-uppers" from the A&P on hand, so I'm never at a loss for a sauce.

ICY AND SPICY

Ice and spice make tea mighty nice... especially when it's as invigorating as the famous, Flavor-Tested teas sold only at the A&P: OUR OWN, NECTAR and MAYFAIR. Try serving one of these fine blends over spiced tea cubes made this way: Add 3 cups briskly boiling water to 1½ tbsps. tea, 1 tsp. whole cloves and 3 lemon slices. Steep 3 to 5 minutes; strain; add ¼ cup orange marmalade. Freeze in ice cube trays, place in 5 glasses and pour freshly made tea over them.

DANDY FOR "DOG DAYS"

It's never too hot for "hot dogs" at my house. I split them, spread the cut side with mustard, and fill with cubed American cheese. Then I wrap a piece of bacon around each one, fasten with a skewer and broil until the bacon is crisp and the cheese melted. Come roll call, I tuck them into toasted MARVEL FRANK-FURTER ROLLS from the A&P, which are so fresh and delicious my family tucks them away by the dozen.

HOUSE BILL 525

With the passage of House Bill 525 it is deemed advisable to call your attention to the importance of "Bangs Disease" control, thereby having you realize the significance of this recent legislation.

In the fiscal year of September 1, 1944 to August 31, 1945, there were 133,891 head of cattle tested for Bangs Disease and of this number 9,435 were reactors.

House Bill No. 525 in part is as follows:

Section 1. That when an accredited representative of the Livestock Sanitary Commission of Texas, or an accredited representative of the United States Secretary of Agriculture, or an authorized veterinarian makes an agglutination blood test for Bangs Disease of cattle in this State, he shall furnish to the owner of such cattle in writing data showing that certain identified animal or animals have reacted to the test and are affected by the disease, it shall be the duty of the said authorized veterinarian or accredited representative of the Livestock Sanitary Commission within 48 hours to brand each reactor or animal affected with the disease on the left jaw with the letter "B", and place a metal tag in the ear of such animal with numbers thereon and report in writing to the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas the numbers on such tag.

Section 2. Any person, firm or corporation who shall fail or refuse to allow the said authorized veterinarian or accredited representative of the Livestock Sanitary Commission to brand the letter "B" on the left jaw of the cow showing a positive reaction to the agglutination test for Bangs Disease shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined as herein provided.

Section 3. If any person shall violate any of the provisions of the preceding Sections 1 and 2 of this Act, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum not to exceed $200 for each offense.

Section 1. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person to sell or otherwise dispose of any cattle for milk purposes when he knows or has reason to believe said cattle are infected with Bangs Disease. If any person shall sell or otherwise dispose of any cattle having the brand of the letter "B" on the left jaw, the same shall be taken as a prima-facie evidence in any Court or competent jurisdiction, that such person knew that said cattle was infected with Bangs Disease.

Section 2. If any person shall violate any of the provisions of this Act, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined a sum of not less than $10 nor more than $100. The sale of each particular cow shall be considered a separate offense.

Section 3. The fact that the laws of this State are now inadequate to control the ravages of Bangs Disease and the fact that the livestock industry of this State will probably suffer enormous losses unless said laws are strengthened, create an emergency and imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three separate days in each House be suspended and the same is hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

For further information consult the County Agent's office. The complete bill is on file.

County H. D. Agent's Column

Evelyn Wieland

DEFROST IN TIME

For the sake of your refrigerator watch the frost line and defrost before the accumulation is a fourth of an inch thick, reminds Miss Evelyn Wieland, H. D. Agent.

Thick frost slows down the cooling of foods and may send the temperature of the food-storage compartment up . . . even though the system is working harder than it does normally.

Before you defrost, take the freezer trays out, see that the drip tray is empty and in place, then, IF the manufacturer says you can do it, keep the trays filled with hot water while the control is set at defrost. This hot water defrosting is helpful to some refrigerators but not to all, so check your direction booklet.

One more reminder is . . . never use anything sharp to chip frost from the evaporator or to loosen ice-cube trays, for you may injure the coils that hold the freezing fluid.

FALL GARDEN PLANNING

It isn't too early to start thinking about that fall garden.

Now, while supply and selection of garden materials are good, the smart gardner will begin to plan and lay in supplies of seed, inoculating dust, seed testing materials, insecticides and fertilizers. Planning what to plant, when and how much is just another wise step in modern vegetable raising.

Here are a few things to do in the future fall garden site that will start things off right. "Shave" the plot where the garden will go. Add well rotted barnyard fertilizer, applied broadcast, and plow or spade it in near the top of the ground. Keep the site well pulverized, and watered if it needs moisture. Start now controlling weeds and grasses, to get a head start on the pests.

ATTENTION PICNICKERS

Vacuum bottle and jugs are nice things for travelers and picnickers to have these days, but they need special care if they are to render the best service.

Ordinary dish washing will not do for these containers because if they are put in water, the outside insulation may be injured. It is a better idea to fill the container with warm soapy water and soak for an hour or so. A soft bottle brush may be used. Finally, rinse with clear, lukewarm water and then with water containing a small amount of chlorine. Turn upside down to drain, dry and air. Scrub corks and screw tops with soapy water, then rinse and dry.

Here's a warning from Miss Wieland: Sudden changes of temperature may crack the glass in glass-lined bottles. Before filling a bottle with hot liquid warm it gradually by rinsing in lukewarm water and then in warmer water. Chill gradually before filling the vacuum with cold liquid.

Pasteurized and very cold milk may be kept in vacuum bottles, if the bottle is well chilled. Cocoa or soup should be brought to a boil and poured into the container while still hot. The bottle should be heated in advance. Foods of this type should not be kept in a vacuum bottle for more than an hour or two before using.

Mrs. Ross Young and daughter, Hazel, have returned to Clyde from Fort Worth, where they visited their daughter and sister, Mrs. A. R. Pearce and family.

T&P CREDIT CARDS NOW IN WIDE USE

DALLAS—Tally-sheets on the first few months of credit card operations on the Texas and Pacific Railway showed today a rising trend of public acceptance to this travel convenience.

It is the first railroad in the country to make public any detailed breakdown of exactly how the credit card plan is working. T&P cards have been in force since February.

The Texas and Pacific was first to bring credit cards to railroads in the southwest and is the only one of 45 railroads cooperating in the so-called "universal" credit card which has a No. 4 designation. That is, the card can be used unrestrictedly for any service connected with train travel, including club cards.

The T&P discovered that up to June 1 it had issued 4,350 cards, 3,700 to individuals, 650 to persons in 180 business establishments.

Its list of credit card holders touches almost every field of endeavor, from meat packing, insurance, radio broadcasting and laundering to oil drilling, jewelry and funeral homes. One T&P credit card owner is proprietor of a motor transport line, arch-competitor of all railroads in the freight business.

A Fort Worth department store holds the largest number of cards, 31. And a law firm in the same town has 24 - for their special investigators. Several morticians along the T&P use credit cards because they find it advantageous in shipping bodies. For one thing, it relieves survivors of being bothered for train ticket fare at a delicate time. For another, it allows the mortician to divert part of the credit load from his business to the railroads.

Nobody yet has inquired into how many stranded salesmen have used the cards to get home on when the expense money ran short.

Individuals in all brackets dot the credit card file. There are ones like Herbert and Stanley Marcus of Dallas' famed Neiman-Marcus; Bishop Charles C. Selcman of the Methodist Episcopal Church; R. G. Page, vice-president of Bankers Trust, New York City; the governors of Texas and Louisiana. And people like John E. Howell, mayor of Wills Point, Texas; Mrs. C. L. Breazeale, editor of the Natchitoches (La.) Enterprise; Francis W. Emerson, registrar at the Texas State College for Women in Denton, Texas.

leveling off to issuance of about 400 per month. However, actual use of the 4,350 cards in the hands of customers just now is beginning its upward swing: 19 used in February, 211 in March, 325 in April and 408 in May. Even though these total sales represent a minute portion of T&P annual passenger revenues ($9,858,000 in 1946), the rising trend in use indicates public acceptance of railroad credit cards. And with real use of credit cards just establishing a working trend, Passenger Auditor W. M. Mooney finds that employees must index applicants and receipts, analyze and breakdown monthly returns.

With the first spurge of card applications over, the T&P is

FIXING UP the HOME
By Diane Greeter

Hot Water is an Easy Luxury
ONE feature that the modern homemaker will certainly not ignore in planning a new home or remodeling an older one is abundant hot water. The value of hot water in protecting health, furthering comfort, and shortening hours of household work is well understood by home economists.

The easy and obvious means of supplying the home with abundant hot water is an automatic gas water heater which will deliver water at desired temperatures and in desired quantities at the turn of a faucet. Modern methods of fuel distribution make this indispensable household tool available all over the country. In the cities, utility gas provides the perfect fuel for water heating because of its cleanliness, speed, and economy both in cost and in space required for the heating unit. In the suburban or country or farm home, liquefied petroleum gas—"bottled" or "tank" gas—give the same service and are supplied by dealers whose delivery systems blanket the nation, leaving no home more than one mile from a scheduled route.

It should always be remembered in selecting a heater, that need for hot water varies with the seasons, the number in the family, and other factors. A heater with capacity exceeding the greatest expected demand is a wise choice. It will insure uninterrupted satisfaction.

(Not necessary to use space above for your entry. . . . just write it out on any piece of paper, but be sure your name and address are given.)

Here's all you do: Write out in 25 words or less what this girl is saying about Pepsi-Cola.

Consider these facts: Pepsi-Cola, despite sharp increases in its own costs, is maintaining its lead in giving you your full money's worth, thus keeping down your cost-of-living expenses. You can buy Pepsi-Cola today in the big 12-ounce bottle at a half cent an ounce. Compare that with the cost of other nationally advertised soft drinks. Discover the real value Pepsi-Cola gives you at its "half cent an ounce" price.

More facts to consider: Pepsi is deliciously uniform, always the same. It is made under ideal conditions of cleanliness and sanitation. Bottled right here . . . yet its quality is protected by a large national company operating throughout the United States.

Because you get so much more Pepsi-Cola in the big 12-ounce bottle, it saves room in your refrigerator. Pepsi is handy to buy and handy to take home in the six-bottle carrier.

Pepsi-Cola is the favorite of millions throughout the country . . . Tops in Flavor . . . Tops in Quality.

NEW ALMANAC OFF THE PRESS

Industrial development in Texas during 1940-46, inclusive, was greater than in all previous history of the State, it is shown by the 1947-48 edition of the Texas Almanac, just published by The Dallas News.

The number of industrial employees during that period increased 100 per cent even after the closing of many of the large war plants. This has solved an accumulating problem of fifteen years of declining cotton acreage by giving employment to displaced tenants and has greatly increased the average individual income of both rural and urban population, the volume shows.

During the wartime and post-war period, the value of products increased by 200 per cent with a similar increase in State and national bank assets.

Along with a large shifting in population from rural to urban areas, there have been a rapid decline in farm tenancy, an increase in average farm acreage and a high rate of farm mechanization.

The expanded section on the livestock industry reveals that cattle are now bringing a greater cash income than Texas crops.

A feature of the new Almanac is the text of the State Constitution, with historical notations on all present and past amendments, an account of Texas activities in World War II and a complete summary of the new agricultural census.

Revised population estimates are shown for all counties, cities, towns and villages.

An extensive chapter on State Government includes a current list of all officials of the State. All county officials are also listed as well as superintendents of independent school districts and officials of various civic organizations.

The new issue of the Almanac, which has been portraying the economic picture of Texas since 1857, contains 608 pages and approximately 750,000 words or word-equivalents.

Among the thousands of subjects covered are oil, gas and other mineral production, manufacturing, communications, transportation, rainfall data, a forestry survey of East Texas, detailed election returns, recreational resources, a political calendar for 1948, up-to-date articles on the 254 counties and various maps, including one of all highway and railroads revised to March 1, 1947.

DR. CALHOUN OF TEXAS U. DIES

AUSTIN, July 7—Dr. John William Calhoun, 74, veteran member of the faculty of the University of Texas and well known in educational circles throughout the nation, died here Monday afternoon.

He suffered a stroke on June 30, and had been in a coma for several days.

Dr. Calhoun, professor of applied mathematics and astronomy at the time of his death, had held positions ranging from tutor to president of the university. He was president ad interim from the spring of 1937 when he succeeded the late Dr. H. Y. Benedict, until the summer of 1939.

Dr. Calhoun came to the university faculty as a tutor in pure mathematics in 1905. In 1909 he became an instructor, in 1913 an adjunct professor, in 1917 an associate professor, and in 1923 a full professor. In the department of applied mathematics, he was made comptroller of the university in 1925, holding that position in addition to his teaching duties.

Before joining the University of Texas he had taught in rural schools in Tennessee and Texas between 1890 and 1901. He was superintendent of schools at Arlington, Texas, from 1902 through 1903.

He was born in Manchester, Tenn., Oct. 24, 1872. He attended Winchester Normal College, and received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Texas and his Master's degree from Harvard in 1908. Abilene Christian College conferred an Honorary Doctor of Laws degree on him in 1938.

Dr. Calhoun was co-author of "Unified mathematics," and of "algebra for junior and senior high school."

He founded the Texas mathematics teachers bulletin. He was an active member of the Texas Academy of Science, the American Mathematics Society, the American Association of University Professors, and Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic fraternity.

From 1911 to 1936 Dr. Calhoun was a member of the board of directors of the University Co-operative Society; from 1922 to 1925 he was a member of the board of directors of Texas Student Publications, Inc., which he helped create.

WHEAT CROP RECORD SEEN

WASHINGTON, July 7—The Agricultural Department reported Sunday night that prospects point to slightly above average wheat crop in the Northern Hemisphere.

The outlook was said to be brightest in North America and poorest in Europe.

The European crop, excluding Russia, will again be substantially below the prewar average production of 1,670,000,000 bushels, and may be as much as 10 per cent or more below the 1946 harvest of 1,350,000,000, the department said.

The United States has prospects of a record-breaking crop of about 1,400,000,000 bushels. The department said imports of wheat will again be large taking into account the poor bread grain prospects in many areas and the very low level of stocks.

Based on present indications, wheat production in Soviet Russia this season will be larger than in 1946, although still considerably smaller than in the prewar period when the crop exceeded a billion bushels in some good years.

BALLINGER LAKE 1-3 COMPLETED

HAMILTON WRIGHT
BALLINGER, July 4—Work on Ballinger's 4,000-acre-foot lake water supply on Oak creek west of here is between 33 1/3 and 40 per cent completed, K. V. Northington, city engineer estimated today.

Northington said core excavation on the dam is about complete. Of the dam itself an estimated 85,000 of the 183,000 cubic yards of earth have been placed. Clearing is complete in the lake area where big pecan trees, prickly pear, and cross fences were removed.

"We are anticipating completion sometime in September," Northington said. "The lake site contains 550 acres, of which 400 will be covered with water when water pours over the spillway."

R. T. Dickinson, Ballinger, sub-contractor, estimates 75 per cent of the intake has been completed. Riprapping upstream is now being done by Seidel and Son, also sub-contractors. Contract for pipe line, a distance of five and a half miles, and a treating plant has not been let. The pipeline will be 12-inch, already acquired from the Johns-Manville Co. It will be cement-asbestos. Northington says delivery should be made some time in November.

Total cost of the project will be $375,000.
