BOUQUETS CONTINUE to come to Baird and to Mrs. W. P. Brightwell and Mrs. A. E. Dyer Sr. as a follow-up to the February visit here by the visitors from Peru.

Mrs. Dyer and Mrs. Brightwell have received a stack of complimentary letters but they insist -- and we agree -- that the entire community deserves a share of the praise.

Among the most noteworthy letters have been two of the most recent. One is from U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, the other from James H. Boren, director of Partners of the Alliance Programs of the Alliance for Progress.

Portions of both letters seem beamed directly at the entire town.

BOREN IN HIS letter, said in part:

"I wish to express the keen appreciation of our office for your work and for your dedication of hemispheric understanding.

"In addition to this expression of our appreciation, I am also taking the liberty of calling your interest and your work to the attention of Edward Marcus of Dallas, who is chairman of the Texas Partners of the Alliance. This is a private sector program which seeks to establish strong operational ties between the citizens of Texas and the private sector of Peru.

"It is my hope that you may, in future activities, collaborate with this developing program in Texas."

YARBOROUGH, IN HIS letter, had this to say:

"The welcome extended to these visitors from South America did more for good will, and thus hemispheric solidarity, than it is possible to estimate.

"The account of the warm reception, visiting a Texas ranch, and the friendly hospitality at Baird will be told and retold and will serve to kindle a deep sense of appreciation and a glow of affection in the heart of each one who hears it.

"The students themselves will hold fond memories which will live with them always and will serve to make deep and lasting friendships with North Americans. By your efforts, thoughtfulness and generosity you have made a valuable contribution toward better understanding, toward better drawing of the peoples of North and South America closer together.

"These are the things of which peace is made."

ALTHOUGH THOSE TWO letters were written by men without knowledge that the other was writing or what had been said, we note with interest that they have the same central theme.

Boren mentions hemispheric understanding. Sen. Yarborough mentions hemispheric solidarity. And to that we must agree. We're sure not one of those students who visited Baird back in April will ever participate in or condone an anti-American demonstration -- now seemingly a popular pastime in other countries -- in the streets of Lima.

BIRTHDAYS WE HAVE for next week include:

Scotty Mitchell and Danny Vestal, March 28; J. D. Barnes, Carlynn Cotton, Rob Cochran and Mrs. Ed Petty, March 31; Mrs. Joe A. Alexander and Sheri Eubanks, April 1; Mary Barnhill, April 2; and L. E. Griffin, April 3.

County Screwworm Eradication Committee Plans Fund Campaign

Callahan County Screwworm Eradication Committee is laying plans for this county's participation in a concentrated drive to raise $300,000 from the Texas livestock industry for the screwworm eradication program.

"The goal for our county is $4,000," according to Judge Byron Richardson, who is chairman of the local committee. He pointed out this goal can be attained if every farmer and rancher will contribute on the basis of 10 cents per animal unit. An animal unit consists of one dairy or beef animal, or one horse, or five sheep, goats, or hogs.

The fund drive will begin Monday, March 29, and will be concluded April 12. A meeting of all Texas county committee chairmen in Austin this Friday will officially kick off the drive.

Necessity for additional producer funds were announced earlier this month by the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation which, along with the State of Texas and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, is conducting the eradication program.

The program needs approximately $1.1 million to operate through April, May and June, Richardson explained. The Texas Legislature has already voted $250,000 and Congress is expected to appropriate $550,000 for the three-month period.

These government funds cannot be spent, however, unless producer money is also made available, the county chairman stressed.

The screwworm fly has been eradicated from the Southwest, but a barrier of live, sterile flies must be maintained along the U. S.-Mexico border to prevent fertile flies from Mexico reinfesting the U. S. Approximately 10 million sterile flies will be needed each week during April,

May and June. If funds are not available, the southwest stands to lose the gains that have already been made.

Pat Garner, county agricultural agent, said in the three years the program has been in existence, savings of more than $168 million have been realized by producers. He said that no screwworm infestations were detected in this county last year.

Congress is considering a USDA request for $5 million which would make the program financed entirely by the Federal government beginning July 1.

License Sales Set Saturday

Almost half of Callahan County's vehicle owners have yet to purchase 1965 license plates -- and the deadline is less than a week away.

Callahan County tax assessor-collector Albert Lovell said this week his office will be open from 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. Saturday to give county residents extra time to get the new plates. Slightly more than 1,600 passenger cars had been registered at Lovell's office by Wednesday afternoon. This figure does not include any registered at a sub-station in Cross Plains.

About 3,600 passenger cars are expected to be licensed by the March 31 deadline.

TALENT TEAM TO PLAY

Baird High School's FFA Talent team, which will perform at the New York World's Fair this summer, will appear on television next Tuesday night. They will be guests on the Harry Holt program on Channel 9.

Baird Eighth Graders Run 2nd In Track Meet at Sweetwater

Baird eighth graders finished second to Mann Jr. High of Abilene in a track meet in Sweetwater. Seventh graders from Baird finished third in their division of the same meet.

The eighth graders scored 33 points to 38½ of Mann. Colorado City was third with 22 points, followed by Sweetwater and Snyder.

Franklyn Alexander scored one of Baird's two first places with his heave of 116 feet in the discus. He was second in the broad jump and also finished second in the 220-yard dash with 25.7.

But in the 220 he trailed Baird's Alan Towler to the tape. Towler was clocked at 25.4 to clip 2 of a second off the old record while winning that event.

In the relays, Alexander, Towler, Billy Collins and Bryan Reese ran third in both the 440 and 880 yard events. Baird had a 50.3 in the 440 and 1:45.9 in the longer race.

Reese shared another blue ribbon for Baird with a 42 flat in the 330 yard dash.

Collins was second in the high jump with 5-1, and Chris West was third in the low hurdles with 15.9.

Baird's seventh graders scored 13½ points. Snyder won first place with 41½ points and Sweetwater had 32. Haskell was fourth with 13 points.

The seventh grade relay team of Donny Rowe, Howard Gordon, Tom Townsend and Gene Hughes tied for second in the 440 yard relay with 55 seconds flat, and were third in the 880 relay with 1:56.1.

Rowe was third in the high jump, and Gordon and Melvin Jolly finished third and fourth, respectively, in the broad jump.

Next meet action for the Baird juniors will be April 5 at Santa Anna.

IN COUNTY 'FENCE WAR' CASE

Attorneys Accept Facts

A tentative agreement on a statement of facts in the Callahan-Coleman-Taylor county line dispute was reached Tuesday by attorneys for the three counties.

The verbal agreement will be put in writing and submitted jointly by the three attorneys to 52nd District Court at Comanche -- which has been assigned the case -- by April 1.

Meeting in Coleman Tuesday to draw up the agreement were James Paul Shanks, Callahan County attorney; James Jeffrey, Taylor County attorney; and Hal Woodward, who represents Coleman County.

Boundaries Overlap
The boundary dispute involves land overlaps claimed by the three counties.

A strip which ranges from 850 feet to about 400 feet in width is claimed by both Callahan and Coleman counties along their 25-mile boundary. And an area about 400 feet in width is claimed by Coleman and Taylor counties along their 4½ miles of mutual boundary.

Five basic points of agreement were reached and placed into the statement of facts by the representatives. They are:

1. That in 1882 Taylor County conducted a survey, markers of which can be located on the ground, which could constitute the common corner of all three counties.

2. That in 1885 Coleman County surveyed a line between Coleman and Callahan counties, beginning at the northwest corner of Brown County, markers of which can be located on the ground.

Callahan Survey
3. That in 1898 Callahan County made a survey, as ordered by the General Land office, beginning at the southwest corner of Stephens County, of which markers can be located on the ground.

4. That in 1884 the line between Brown and Callahan counties was surveyed and approved by the courts.

The line claimed by Coleman County is an extension of that line.

5. That no representative from Callahan County took part in the Coleman survey, and that a representative of Coleman County took part in the Callahan survey but did not sign the report.

Coleman County contends that since its survey was prior to Callahan's, that line should be accepted. Callahan County contends, on the other hand, that its line should be accepted since it followed directions of the General Land Office in making its survey.

No Trial Date
Although the statement of facts is to be filed with the court in Comanche by April 1, no trial date has been set. If and when the matter come to trial, it is to be heard in the Comanche court by Judge Truman Roberts of the 52nd District.

"There is really no precedent in this particular case," Shanks said, "but in most suits involving county lines the boundary generally in use is usually made the legal one."

"Although there may not be a boundary generally accepted in this case, Callahan County contends that our line is used by the General Land Office and by abstract companies in Coleman and Callahan counties," he said.

Hamilton Rites Held Monday

Last rites for Mrs. Glenn (Patsy Jo) Hamilton, 39, of Houston were at 2 p. m. Monday in Godfrey Funeral Home chapel with Roy Phemister of Clyde Church of Christ officiating.

Burial was in Ross Cemetery. Mrs. Hamilton, a former Baird resident, died last Friday in Houston.

She was born May 24, 1925 at Lawn and lived in Baird for a number of years before moving to Houston, some eight years ago.

Survivors are her husband; one son, Tony Dugan, and one daughter, Charlotte Sue Dugan both of Clyde; her mother, Mrs. Earl Barber of Dublin; one sister, Mrs. Billie Pitcock of Baird. Her father preceded her in death.

Both teams will take part in contests this Saturday at Sweetwater, and the livestock team will take part in a contest next Monday at Abilene Christian College.

Calves Found Killed By Animal Near City

Two calves pastured at the Clyde sewer plant were found dead Wednesday morning, apparently killed by an animal of some type. The calves, weighing about 200 pounds each, were owned by Tom Tucker.

Both calves had been mauled and partially eaten. Signs near the spot where the carcasses were found indicated a struggle, and several large animal tracks were found.

Baird Tracksters Run at Comanche

Trackmen from Baird High School will compete in the Indian Relays at Comanche Saturday. Prelims will be unrecalled Saturday afternoon, with finals scheduled for the evening.

It will be the last practice meet on the schedule for the Baird cindersmen before the District 10-A events scheduled April 8 in Ranger. Since the district meet is scheduled for a Thursday, the Baird team will take the April 3 week end off to polish up for a shot at the district crown.

Fourth at Stephenville

The Bears finished fourth at the Tarleton Relays last Saturday in Stephenville, after winding up as the only class A team competing. Every other team in Division B of the Stephenville meet competes in Class AA.

Several other Class A schools had been expected -- including Clyde and De Leon of District

10-A -- but only Baird was on hand.

Baird scored 28 points, trailing Iowa Park with 39, Burleson with 36, and Seymour with 29½. Copperas Cove was fifth with 14.

Although they won just one blue ribbon for their efforts, the Bears wound up scoring points in nine of the 14 events.

Improve Relay Time

Baird's first place was in the mile relay, with the time a good 3:30.8, almost four second better than their previous best effort of this year. J. D. Faircloth ran a 54.1 leg, followed by Maxie Gordon with a 52.5, and Steve Stanley and Kelton Jones, each with 51.8 readings. Seymour was second.

In the sprint relay, Baird stepped off a 44.8 to a close second to Burleson's 44.5 timing.

In the individual events, Baird athletes captured two second places -- Richard Windham in the discus and Bobby Voigts in the high jump. Windham sailed the discus 139 ft., 5¼ in., while Voigts cleared the bar at 5-8.

Third In Shot
Windham was third in the shot put with 53-6.

Dyer Windham tied for third with two others in the pole vault at 11 ft., a full 12 inches below the winning height.

Donald Price was fourth in the mile run at 4:59, and Kelton Jones took fourth in the 100-yard dash. Steve Stanley gave Baird a third place in the 440-yard dash.

Cold, windy weather helped keep performances slightly below par in almost every event of the Saturday meet.

Graveside Rites Held For Andrew Hopkins

Graveside services for Andrew Jackson Hopkins, 81, of Fort Worth were at 4 p. m. Monday in Baird's Ross Cemetery. Services were held at 10 A. M. Monday morning at Miller's Chapel in Fort Worth.

He was preceded in death by two sons, Tillman Hopkins and Dan Smith.

Surviving are his wife; two daughters, Mrs. W. O. Taylor and Mrs. W. H. Norvell of Fort Worth; two sons, Andrew J. and Ford T. of Fort Worth; 13 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Children's Art Is Club Topic

"Children's Art -- The Mirror of the Mind" was the subject for a program presented to members of the Junior Wednesday Club by Mrs. Mike Young Monday, March 15, in the home of Mrs. Ed Cotton.

Mrs. Young explained that the purpose of the art program in school is to get the child to reveal his thought and feelings and not necessarily drawing skill.

"Self-expression in art can be of definite help in a child's difficulties and can give an alert teacher the clue to a confused personality or a mental or physical defect," said Mrs. Young.

From examples of children's art, Mrs. Young showed how children of different ages draw in a similar way and how children reveal their unique experiences in their drawings.

Mrs. Emil Ringhoffer Jr. president, presided for the business meeting. Members made individual donations for a library in Peru, honoring Mrs. Raymond Liles, Mesquite District resident.

Members were asked to bring books to donate to the Callahan County Library to the March 29 meeting.

Mrs. James Eubanks served as hostess for the social hour. Present were Mmes. Young, Cotton, Ringhoffer, Eubanks, Black, Corray, Favor, Cason, Crow, Earr, Garner, Greenway, Harris, Higgins, Hardwick, A. H. Ringhoffer, Townsend, Vestal, Walker.

Next meeting will be March 29 in the home of Mrs. Charles Greenway.

Presbyterian Women Discuss Study Book

Members of the United Presbyterian Women's Society met Wednesday night in the home of Mrs. Dorothy Parsons, with Mrs. Sallie Eastham as co-hostess.

Mrs. James Asbury called the meeting to order and presided for a business meeting.

Mrs. Vernon Townsend led a discussion on chapter two and three of the study book "Live A Free Man."

During the social hour, the hostesses served ice cream and cake to Mmes. Rubye Berry, Mary Kehrer, Vernon Townsend, Grover Berry, James Asbury, Will Seelig, Lee Ivey and Juanita Danielsen.

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE

By OMAR BURLESON, M. C. 17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Senator Bob Bartlett of Alaska recently stated on the Senate Floor that doctors had found a high percentage of toxic poisons in the bodies of Eskimos. The theory is that some migrating from the United States and Canada are supposed to account for a part of it. The remainder has been accumulated from caribou and reindeer meat, but certainly neither has been down in this part of the country. It was determined that they fed on perennial grasses which, unlike seasonal grasses, had collected a large amount of pesticide fallout. Since no pesticides have been used within hundreds, and probably thousands of miles, the theory is that, like radiation fallouts, residual poisons from pesticides can, in one way or another, travel vast distances.

In 1961, this column quoted Dr. Clarence Cottam, Director of the Welder Wildlife Foundation at Sinton, Texas, who said, "When man in his frenzy to make a quick dollar depicts the productive soil, encourages its erosion or adds poisons to it that, directly or indirectly, endangers plant and animal life, he is jeopardizing his own security and future."

The four basic ingredients for life on earth are soil, water, air and sunshine. Life is curtailed or handicapped to the extent that any of these requirements are made unuseable or unavailable.

Pesticides, when used wisely and skillfully under responsible practices, have done much to improve agriculture and effect better health.

Improperly and extravagantly used, they are doing much unnecessary damage to wildlife and to human health.

Rachel Carson wrote her book, "Silent Spring" in 1962, but it was obvious a long time ago that the problem of pesticides and insecticides was bound to mount and grow before adequate answers were found.

Again in 1961, this column pointed to the need for research on direct and indirect effects of residual poisons to humans and wildlife for these reasons:

1. Some medical authorities believe cancer and blood diseases, as well as serious nutritional disorders are related to chemical poisons and their carriers.

2. Highly toxic and long lasting pesticides cause numerous deaths of birds, mammals, fish and other organisms beneficial to human life. Tests strongly indicate some of these chemicals reduce natural reproductive rates in birds and animals and weaken them to the point where they fall victim to predators and disease.

3. Poisons washing from fields into streams and lakes not only kill fish, birds and mammals but threaten to contaminate surface and subsurface public water supplies.

4. Residues of poisons build up or accumulate in tissues and can be transmitted to man through the consumption of domestic meat products and wild game as well as milk and raw vegetables.

5. A rapidly increasing list of pests are developing immunity to some chemicals, requiring larger and larger dosages, which create additional hazards.

Rather exhaustive studies already show:

1. Minimum dosages required to control pests should not be exceeded.
 2. More emphasis be placed on the development of selective chemical pesticides which will control specific pests without damage to valuable resources.
 3. It is important that emphasis be given to biological control methods. As an example, the sterilization of the male fly by radioactive cobalt has proved successful in the control of screwworm.
- As was pointed out in this newsletter in 1961, "The use of poisonous chemicals will become a more acute problem unless, by research, better methods and practices can be developed."
- Breaches were formerly called hose in England.

UNION USUALS AND UNUSUALS

BY MRS. B. CROW

Hi neighbor! Old man winter nearly overdid it last week. Br-r makes me cold just to think about it. Got to 15 Friday night and 19 Thursday night. Still freezing and the wind is blowing itself away I do believe. Looks like this Monday morning it would just as soon come a sandstorm and I think that it what it will do by noon.

Glad to say Burette Ramsey came home Friday afternoon from the hospital. He had been there for about ten days with pneumonia and some other trouble. He is still staying in, the weather is so cold.

Mrs. G. S. Pruet, who spent about a week in the hospital, came home Friday. She was able to be out some Sunday afternoon.

Visiting with the Burette Ramseys Sunday afternoon were Fay and Emmett Wood and Lucille Kelley of Cisco. I visited with them a while too -- so did Ollie Burnam.

Mark and Ollie Burnam had dinner Sunday with Mrs. Mary Ramsey. Mark visited a while Sunday afternoon with Tom Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allyn of Trent spent Thursday with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Isenhower. Ollie Burnam and I visited a while Thursday afternoon with them and really enjoyed seeing all of them.

John and Roma McIntyre spent the weekend in Fort Worth. Think they visited with the Loyd McWhorter family.

While the Mc's were away, their bird dog disappeared. He is liver-brown and white. If you see him, send him home.

Guess I better get busy, got lots of work to do, so be good and I hope to see you next week.

OPLIN OBSERVATIONS

By DAPHNE FLOYD

Weatherwise, I'd say old man winter went down fighting for even though last Saturday was officially the first day of spring, the mercury stood at a low of 15° Saturday morning.

Ernest Windham, lifetime resident of the Oplin area, passed away Monday morning at 7 a. m. in Callahan County Hospital. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Tom Windham, pioneer ranchers of Callahan County.

Herbert Rogers has been seriously ill for several weeks, due to a blood clot in his head and neck, thus causing severe pain and swelling in his right arm. A sister-in-law, Mrs. Ruth Rogers of Abilene visited in their home Sunday afternoon and stopped by for a short visit with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Floyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Floyd and Freida Straley attended Workers Conference at the First Baptist Church of Cross Plains on Monday night.

Mrs. M. C. Miller accompanied her oldest daughter, Mrs. Pete Downing of Potosi, to Midland to be on hand when the Downing's daughter underwent surgery.

Callahan Regular Field Draws Site for Proposed Rotary Well

Don L. Choate & Wico Oil Co. of Abilene staked No. 7-B James L. Snyder as a proposed 2,800-foot rotary venture in Callahan County Regular Field three miles northeast of Baird.

SEN., MRS. TOM CREIGHTON . . . governor for a day

Sen. Creighton To Take Over As Texas Governor for Day April 20

A statewide celebration honoring Texas Sen. Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells is planned when the newly elected senate president pro tempore becomes "Governor For A Day" on April 20 in Austin.

Sen. Creighton, who has represented the 22nd senatorial district since 1960, will on that date assume the duties of chief executive, by virtue of his election on Jan. 12 to the post which made him third in line of succession to the governorship. It is the highest position that may be held by a member of the state legislature.

Second in line to Texas Governor John Connally is Lieut. Gov. Preston Smith. However, both officials will be out of the state, thus creating the vacancy in the top executive office.

In assuming the responsibilities of the governor's chair, Senator Creighton will carry on all routine duties for the day. Following a brief ceremony in which he will take the oath of office, a reception is to be held for friends and guests during the morning at the governor's offices in the capitol building.

At the noon-hour, Governor Creighton will join his family for luncheon at the executive mansion. Later, he will resume his official activities in the capitol offices, where a number of conferences and meetings with constituents and other state and district leaders will be held as a part of the day's official program.

Eula FFA Gives Honors to Four

Four men were presented honorary chapter farmer degrees by Eula Future Farmers of America chapter Saturday in recognition of their cooperation with the organization.

The awards came at the chapter's 14th annual parent and son banquet, which was held Saturday night in the Eula school cafeteria. Some 115 persons attended.

Receiving the honorary awards were Mac Coppinger, Weldon Edwards, Ralph Brock and W. T. Moore.

Medals to chapter members who were National FFA Foundation winners included Larry Ash, dairy farming; Randy Cranfill, farm mechanics; Irvin Robinson, soil and water erosion; Hugh Tarrant, livestock farming; Jerry Bentley, scholarship and chapter Greenhand; and Larry Ash, chapter Star Farmer.

A DeKalb agricultural award went to Jimmy Johnson, and a certificate to Larry Ash for work in livestock farming.

A report by David Black, chapter secretary, emphasized national superior chapter rating and Texas gold emblem rating -- the highest to be won -- which were earned by the chapter during 1963-64.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Eager were their two grandsons, Chuck and Bobo Coats of Pecos.

Variety of New Titles Received For Callahan County's Library

In preparation for National Library Week, April 25-May 1, Callahan County Library at Baird has received a variety of new books.

For the Memorial Shelf, two titles have been given in memory of Mrs. Robert Stephenson of Eula. There are "Robert E. Lee, The Man and Soldier" by Philip Van Doren Stern, and "He Speaks The Word of God," (a discussion of the sermons of Dr. Norman Vincent Peale) by A. Broadhurst. In memory of Brenda Webster of Stephenville, 10-year old granddaughter of Mrs. R. A. Webster of Baird, a book especially suitable for children "Carolina's Courage" by Elizabeth Yates, was presented. For the Texas Shelf, there is a tale of pioneer days in Northeast Texas "The Ordways," by William Humphrey, also an amusing story of her family history called "Mama Was Pregnant" by a well-known citizen of Eastland, Lilliam (Mrs. Jim) Horton.

Other titles are "Up The Down Staircase," a witty book about the experiences of a teacher in a large high school, by Bel Kaufman; two graphic picture of Viet Nam, "Street Without Joy" by Bernard B. Fall, and "Viet Nam Dairy" by R. Tregaskis; "All About Men," a story of the author's year in the medical profession, by Dr. Joseph M. Peck; a well-written, interesting biography of James K. Polk, "The Slender Reed" by Noel B. Gerson; a two volume biography of John Adams, second president of the United States, based on his papers and letters, by John Page; "The Legend of The Seventh Virgin," by Victoria Holt; "The Purple Quest," by Frank Slaughter; and a biography "Martin Luther" by John Dellenburger.

For the Garden Shelf, three titles should interest readers who need advice about gardening and flower arranging: "Your Garden In Town," by Ruth M. Peters; "Garden Smartly" by Nancy R. Smith, and "Japanese Flower Arrangement" by Nina C. Powell.

New reference material can be found in "History of Biology" by E. Nordenskiold; "Stars and Planets" by J. Muirden; "The Insects" by Lanham; and "Giant Golden Book of Birds, by Allen; "World Almanac for 1965," the "Report on the President's Commission on the Assassination of John F. Kennedy," and the "1965 Official Baseball Annual with Official Rules."

Also several titles of fiction chosen especially for teenagers have been purchased.

Reading certificates provided by the Texas State Library will be awarded again this summer to young people who read the required number of books.
