Living Conditions in Army Are Good

Childress, Texas, June 25.— "Good living conditions are sought by all Americans today," Sgt. Allen Halford, U. S. Army Recruiting Officer, stated this morning. "And the Regular Army gives you that in good measure during peacetime. With the post-war Army greatly reduced, many of the isolated emergency posts that were hastily built during the war years will be inactivated. "Many of the post-war Regular Army soldiers will be assigned to one of the big permanent Army posts and will live more comfortably than any other soldier in the world. "Single men will find well-con- structed barracks, conveniently lo- cated and well heated, well lighted, well ventilated. Married men in the first three non-commission- ed grades will find that the Army is making every effort to give them that domestic comfort and security that is to be found in normal times in civilian life. Many of the posts have already estab- lished housing units for the mar- ried men and their families, com- plete with all utilities both in the continental United States and in overseas. More and more are being built so that the married soldiers and their families may live in comfort. Men of the post-war Regular Army will find that their quarters are modern and com- fortable."

Few Unemployed Civilians Here

Unemployed veterans outnumber unemployed civilian workers by six to one in Crowell, W. C. Albright, claims examiner for the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission, reported this week, comparing veteran unem- ployment with individuals receiving civilian unemployment insur- ance. He said that the veterans were searching for jobs themselves and that the employment service was aiding but that churches, civic clubs, and merchants associations were needed to help solve this major reconversion problem, the re-employment of war veterans. In Crowell there are five unem- ployed civilian workers and thirty unemployed veterans. The latter are receiving readjustment allow- ances under the G. I. Bill of Rights, which is administered by the TUCC in Texas through agree- ment with the Veterans Adminis- tration. Payments under the G. I. Bill comes from monies sup- plied by the VA out of congress- ional appropriations for that pur- pose. Our economy will be unbalanced until these veterans find jobs. Mr. Albright declared, explaining that this was not only a local problem but nationwide. Everyone has got to help because our post-war econ- omy is not absorbing them fast enough. These young veterans want the kind of jobs on which they can build a future, get married, raise a family. Mr. Albright said that in the few instances where the veterans have refused suitable jobs, their allowances have been stopped as provided in the G. I. Bill.

In 1935, he rededicated his life and joined the Missionary Bap- tist Church of Crowell, of which he was a member at the time of his death. Mr. McDaniel had many friends, for he was a good friend, himself. He was a quiet, un- assuming disposition and did many kind deeds to his fellowman. Has the Picture of Your Service Man or Woman Been Turned in to the News Office? Many Being Received Daily

Hundreds of pictures of men and women of this county who served in World War II, along with short histories of their service, will make the World War II Service Book, soon to be published by the Foard County News, one of the most cherished mementos of the great military conflict. The main object to be attained in the publication of this service book is to assemble the pictures of the men and women of the county who were connected with any branch of the service and it is very important that every one be included to make it complete. The responsibility is great and we appreciate the hearty response received up to the present time.

West Texas Veterans Now Being Served by Lubbock Office

West Texas veterans and their dependents residing within the 49 counties formerly under the jurisdic- tion of the Veterans adminis- tration Waco regional office should be reminded that they are now supervised by the newly au- thorized Lubbock regional office, said Robert W. Sisson, Lubbock regional manager.

To facilitate efficient VA operations and to minimize delay for those seeking VA assistance, veterans and their dependents should apply to the contact representatives attached to the Lub- bock regional office for all VA services, including vocational re- habilitation and education, com- pensation and pension, retirement pay, burial expenses, insurance, hospitalization, medical treatment, domiciliary care, guaranty of loans, readjustment allowances and other related benefits. For the convenience of veterans and their dependents, contact offices are located at Lubbock, Odessa, Big Spring, San Angelo and Abilene. The proposed plan calls for itinerant contact service to be available at each county seat, ac- cording to Gerald W. Collinsworth, chief of the contact division.

Transfer of files from the Waco office to the Lubbock office was accomplished by June 5 and full operations are now under way at temporary quarters at Lub- bock Army Air Field. These case files represent claims of veterans in the territory controlled previously by the Waco office, but continuing as part of the Dallas branch area.

The 49 counties now served by the Lubbock regional office are as follows: Andrews, Bailey, Borden, Cochran, Coke, Concho, Cottle, Crane, Crosby, Dawson, Dickens, Ector, Fisher, Floyd, Foard, Gaines, Garza, Glasscock, Hale, Hardeman, Haskell, Hockley, How- ard, Irion, Jones, Kent, King, Knox, Lamb, Loving, Lubbock, Lynn, Martin, Midland, Mitchell, Motley, Nolan, Reagan, Runtels, Scurry, Sterling, Stonewall, Taylor, Terry, Tom Green, Upton, Ward, Winkler and Yoakum.

of the service of individuals will be printed alongside the pictures, giving a graphic portrayal of the contribution made by the men and women of this county to victory in World War II. Pictures are being received daily and the enthu- siastic response is very encouraging. The main object to be attained in the publication of this service book is to assemble the pictures of the men and women of the county who were connected with any branch of the service and it is very important that every one be included to make it complete. The responsibility is great and we appreciate the hearty response received up to the present time.

The News feels that, in view of the important role the book is to play as a record, it is tremen- dously vital that pictures be in- cluded of every man and woman of this county who served in World War II. You are urged to see that your picture, or the pic- tures of your loved ones are in- cluded. There is no cost for pub- lishing of the picture in the book, and the pictures themselves will be returned undamaged.

Every man and woman who entered the service from this county had a vital part in the winning of the war, and the publishers want to properly represent that part in this service book.

Bring in your pictures at the earliest time possible. They will be left in the care of the newspa- per office for only a short time. There are no strings attached to placing pictures and write-ups in the book. They are absolutely free, but it is anticipated that many people will want copies of the book. Arrangements have been made for orders to be placed for these at once. The book will sell for only $3.50 and the print- ing will be limited to the number of orders placed. So, if you want a book, place your order now.

County Receives Two Good Rains During This Week

Crowell and Foard County have received two good rains this week. The first rain which fell Sunday afternoon measured 1.65 inches by the Government gauge at the Crowell State Bank.

Another rain came Wednesday evening about 9 o'clock and was probably as much as was received Sunday. This moisture will be of great benefit to the row crops and gardens, and no doubt all the tanks in the county were filled up to make plenty of stock water.

Election Precinct No. 9, Merged with Precinct No. 4

At a meeting of the Commis- sioners' Court held on Monday, June 24, 1946, Election Precinct No. 9, commonly known as Black Election Precinct, was merged and consolidated with Election Precinct No. 4 in Crowell, Foard County, Texas, so that here- after all qualified voters of said Black Election Precinct shall vote in Precinct No. 4 in Crowell, in all special and general elections.

Judge Leslie Thomas informed the News that such action was deemed necessary in view of the fact that the Black School Dis- trict had procured authorization to dispose of its school building and further to the appeal to the Court by the majority of the peo- ple in such Black election pre- cinct who desired to vote in Crow- ell rather than at Black.

Claims on Dairy Products Due Now

All dairy producers who pro- duced and marketed dairy products during the quarter of April, May and June will be eligible for sub- sidy payment provided they file their sales receipts for butterfat and list of customers for whole milk before August 31, 1946.

All dairy producers are urged to file their application immedi- ately after July 1, 1946.

Place Order Now

Because of the shortage of paper, the printing of the Foard County War Service Book will be limited strictly to the number of orders placed in advance. Those wanting books should place orders now. This will make it possible to supply everyone with books, and any- one may order a book, regard- less of whether a relative served in the armed forces. The book will sell for $3.50.

Lumber Production On Upswing—Report

There's bright spot in the lumber outlook. Lumber production is on the up-swing. Actual increased amounts of lumber won't be felt by farmers for some time yet, but prospects are definitely looking up, according to information furnished the News.

Lumber output during March was one-fourth greater than during February. The production in March normally jumps one-tenth over February, but this year it was increased one-fourth, according to Civilian Production Administration. If the present rate of production can be maintained, total lumber output this year will be about 7 per cent greater than last year. Of course, veteran's housing comes in for a large share of the lumber supply. But, officials are trying to work out a plan to give a fair share to essential users, and provide production reserves for veteran's housing. More lumber should be available to farmers in the not too distant future.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Dirt on White Furniture.—Dirt marks may be removed from white furniture with any good soap or cleansing powder. Ammonia used in the water turns white paint yellow.

How to put Glassware in Hot Water.—When washing glassware do not put it in hot water bottom first as it may crack from sudden expansion. Each delicate glass can be put in very hot water if slipped in edgewise.

Cooking Peas.—Peas should not be shelled and allowed to stand for hours in or out of water before being cooked. Do not boil peas rapidly. Better results are obtained if they are allowed to simmer.

Qualifying Veteran Students Next Fall to Be Simplified

Less paper work will be required of schools and colleges next fall in qualifying veteran-students for payment of G. I. subsistence allotments, Robert W. Sisson, manager of Veterans administration Lubbock regional office, have announced.

Schools will have to fill out only one form when the veteran arrives to resume his education under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act.

Sisson said this form, considerably simplified since last fall, no longer contains such technical questions as the cost of the course, the probable cost of books and similar questions, none of which directly concern the veteran's subsistence allowance.

Schools can fill out the new form in a few minutes and that will be the only instrument required by the VA to resume subsistence payments to veterans.

The form will soon be available in this regional office for distribution to educational institutions.

Prompt handling of the forms by the schools and colleges next fall will prevent delays in the payment of veterans' allowances. Sisson emphasized.

Trailer Company President Blames Wagner Act

Harvey C. Fruehauf, President of the Fruehauf Trailer Company, minces no words and pulls no punches in blaming the Wagner Act for holding up the prosperity of the country. Says President Fruehauf in a report to the stockholders of his company:

"Naturally, our quarterly earnings are somewhat disappointing to us. We had hoped that 1946 would see a lessening of strikes and industrial strife, so that we could all get back to work and increase production. There was definite improvement in our situation in April—there was no strike trouble and our shipments for the month were approximately 50 per cent higher than the average for the first quarter. Nevertheless, the outlook is again uncertain."

Coal Strike Toll

"As this is written, a 40-day strike of the nation's coal miners—under the leadership of John L. Lewis—has been succeeded by a truce, during which the men are back at work and efforts are being made to settle the questions at issue so that coal can continue to be mined."

"Even though a settlement is reached, however, far-reaching damage to the nation's economy has been done. Many factories and business establishments have already had to close. More will still be closing, because the 40-day strike ate into the nation's backlog of coal, steel, and other essential materials, and months will be required to make it up."

"Your Company will be among those forced to stop production for the month of June—for lack of materials and supplies cut off by our vendors' inability to supply."

Wagner Act to Blame

"This era of widespread strikes and dictatorial labor czars we owe to the Wagner Act, the repeal of which is needed before America can hope for lasting production and prosperity."

"The Wagner Act gives to 'Labor' power that no part of society should possess—Monopolistic power, power to kidnap an employer's plant and hold it for ransom, power to enforce its demands through strikes, 'peaceful' picketing, violence, and threats, power to cripple the nation's economy by shutting down basic industries like coal."

"The result is that the employer today is tied hand and foot—" helpless to defend his rights and those of the stockholders of the business from whatever unreasonable demands the unions may decide to make.

Higher Wages Bring Inflation

"Nothing good can come to society through ill-gotten gains. If labor leaders think they have gained by jeopardizing the rightful earnings of stockholders and by kidnapping property, they are mistaken, because unwarranted increases in wages have cut the purchasing power of the dollar, labor being the basis of all costs. Workers will pay dearly for these wage increases in the long run through higher and higher living expenses, and America will be driven out of foreign markets. Depression will be the result."

"Though business men sometimes dislike competition, they know it's good for them and good for business. Workers, too, need competition if they are going to make real honest progress. What we need in the United States is the repeal of much of the labor legislation and a return to free competition. The customer is still the boss. He must be free to spend his dollars where he feels he gets the most for them!"

In spite of heavy tax contributions to help win the war—increases in cost of materials and supplies, together with increases in labor costs, made necessary in turn by increased living costs—

Electric service is still the smallest item in the household budget.

The electric dollar now buys 50 per cent more service than it did even 15 years ago.

Technical developments in production and distribution of electric energy under private management and initiative have made these lowered costs possible.

Yes, electricity is in good hands!

The spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.—Job 33:4.

It begins to appear that the purchase of that new refrigerator which the family has been planning on for the past four years will have to be put off at least another year and perhaps longer. In the meantime while we are waiting for the refrigerator and the new radios and the million and one other things which we were told would be available in such an assortment after the war, we can put away a few more savings bonds because it looks like refrigerators and cars and other post-war gadgets are going to cost a good deal more than original estimates indicated.

It seems well nigh impossible to escape injury or death in an accident. Train wrecks and wrecks of air liners indicate that these modes of travel are not wholly safe. Take a ride in the family car and one is not only at the mercy of the mechanical condition of the car but also at the mercy of every incompetent driver on the road to say nothing of dangerous highway conditions. One can remain quietly at home but according to the Safety Council records more accidents happen in the homes of the country than any place else. There is, it appears, no escape.

A lot is being said on the radio and in the press relative to traffic accidents and how to reduce their number. Three things, a local car driver says, would help, stricter examinations for driver's license, more frequent checks on car brakes and heavier penalties for driving while intoxicated. It does little good to plead for more care in driving with the hope of reducing accidents while little or no attention is paid to these things.

One of the most abused laws in the country today is the law providing for unemployment compensation. When the law was passed it was designed to help the deserving workers who might be thrown out of employment. Millions of dollars have been drawn in unemployment compensation by men who have studiously avoided work of any kind, as long as they could draw a dollar's worth of unemployment compensation.

The hope that the conflict between capital and labor will ever be over is an idle dream. Human nature is such that the industrialist never makes quite as much as he would like to make and the worker, no matter what wages he is paid, will always be planning on what he could do with more.

Some men who can't remember the wife's anniversaries, may be able to remember the date when someone owes them some money.

What We Think
(By Frank Dixon)

Within the past few weeks we have had an opportunity to view in action the inconsistency of the American people in reference to the stoppage of strikes which have bogged down the reconversion program and have added to the threat of inflation by creating a scarcity of needed merchandise.

It will be recalled that when the country was faced with a coal strike and a railroad strike that would have paralyzed our economy, the clamor went up from one end of the nation to the other that the administration do something—that drastic action of whatever kind was needed to get the nation a chance to get back to normal production.

In response to the rising demand President Truman intervened and asked for legislation that would give the government a voice in the settlement of the dispute.

The nation was thrilled at the announcement of the President and from the four corners of the country messages of commendation rolled in. The press the next morning was filled with words of commendation and rejoicing over the stand taken by the President. This was what the country wanted. This was the thing it had been seeking and demanding. This was the thing the President should have done.

Within a few days the objections of the second guessers began to come in. Many of the second guessers belonged to the group that had demanded that something be done, and not a few of them commended the President's action when it was taken, but the lapse of a few days gave them time to make a political issue out of it. Here was something that could be developed to partisan advantage. Here was fodder for the demagogues. It did not matter that it was for the good of all the people, to save them from loss and inconvenience and even hunger, it made good political firewood and the partisan second guessers began blowing upon the small spark that they had kindled to make it grow into a conflagration. They were joined by other second guessers who while they had clamored for some such action now that the danger that threatened had passed, hopped on the critics band wagon.

It was a pitiful exhibition of lack of unity even in a common purpose. I concede the situation might have been handled in some other way, but since we are operating under the lopsided Wagner act, and other inept labor legislation, it was the only course open to the President. What we need is a statesman-like, instead of a politically labor-management court in which capital and labor can and must settle its differences without work stoppage that paralyzes the public, which has no interest in the quarrel.

Until Congress can summon the courage to create such a court we are going to continue to be harassed with work stoppages and drastic stop gap action. The solution is up to Congress. Is it big enough to handle it?

Washington News

By Congressman Ed Gossett, 13 District of Texas.

Washington, D. C., June 22.—Congress this week passed the Hobbs anti-racketeering bill and sent it to the White House. This bill will prevent labor unions from halting farm trucks carrying produce to market and forcing the farmers to pay a union driver before he can enter the big cities.

OPA has just announced an increase in the price of coal amounting to an over-all cost to the consumer of $222 millions of dollars. On the heels of this announcement the Interstate Commerce Commission approved a six per cent increase in freight rates which will add $290 millions onto transportation costs. In two days the consumer has had a half billion dollars added onto the cost of essential commodities. I have long condemned and protected the percentage formula for increasing freight rates. Such a formula raises the rates considerably more in our section than in the industrial sections of the nation.

The House this week passed the War Department appropriation bill for the next fiscal year in the sum of $7 1/2 billion. Total appropriations for the armed services for the next fiscal year approximate $11 billion. Interest on the national debt will amount to $5 billion. Appropriations for the Veterans

IN THE NEWS
30 YEARS AGO

News items below were taken in whole or in part from the issue of The Foard County News of June 30, 1916:

Foard County has had numerous small hail storms at different times in years past, and a few this year, but the one which swept a large east of town Monday afternoon, if all reports are true, puts all the to shame. The hail storm, which was preceded by a sand storm, covered a strip about ten miles long and two to four miles wide. Hail stones were as large as base balls. Members of threshing crews which were in the fields at the time had narrow escapes. Ed Hudlow was struck on the wrist and badly wounded. Another struck him on the head and cut through his heavy felt hat and made a deep scalp wound.

Members of the Columbian Club, their husbands and a few invited guests, were entertained at Beaver Lake Wednesday evening by Mrs. E. P. Bomar.

Rev. A. C. Gettys, former pastor of the Baptist Church of Crowell, and Miss Lyda Dickson, were married at the home of the bride's parents in Goree at 9 o'clock, Thursday, June 22.

There will be a big barbecue at Beaver Lake July 4th. Nine beeves and several muttons have been secured and several hundred dollars contributed to make it one of the biggest things ever attempted in Foard County, on July 4th.

Frank Long was here from Thalia on business Monday.

Mrs. H. W. Norwood and children of Vernon came in Saturday for a visit with the family of Dr. Clark.

Major Johnson and family left this week for Wichita Falls where they will reside permanently.

Administration will amount to another $5 billion. These are essential and inescapable obligations. However, to this $21 billion will probably be added around $19 billion more, making a total outlay for the next fiscal year of around $40 billion. Prospects for a balanced budget in 1947 look exceedingly dim.

However, the Congress this week passed a bill reducing our overall debt limit from $300 billion to $275 billion. Fiscal experts think we can operate within this limit.

Sitting members of Congress have been greatly encouraged with results of elections already held. Two hundred thirteen House seats in 18 states have already been decided. Of these 213 seats only four sitting Congressmen have been defeated.

A new problem facing the Immigration Committee is that of loyal Japanese legally residing in this country but who must now be deported unless our immigration laws are changed. Among these Japanese are a great many who served with valor as soldiers with American forces and many others who served our country as spies in Japanese occupied areas. We are trying to devise some means to permit those to remain who have actually demonstrated their loyalty and who have contributed to American victory.

After a long and bitter fight the House and Senate conferees have finally agreed upon the terms of a draft extension bill. This compromise which must still be approved by the House proposes:

- (1) Extension of the draft law until March 31, 1947.
- (2) Elimination of future draft of 18-year-olds. The draft to extend from 19 to 44, inclusive.
- (3) The elimination of future draft of fathers and the release of all fathers now in service after August 1.
- (4) A ceiling of 1,550,000 on the Army at once, this ceiling to be reduced to 1,070,000 by July 1, 1947.
- (5) A prohibition of re-induction except for students, etc., of any overseas veteran or any man with six months' service.

The Conference Committee also agreed on a separate bill to increase the pay of enlisted men as high as 50 per cent in an effort to spur enlistments. These measures will not go to the President until both the House and Senate have approved the action of the Conference Committee, but it seems probably the compromise will be accepted.

The present breakdown of our economic structure due to the strikes did not happen overnight. It has been coming on for years. The one-sided Wagner labor act has been an invitation to disturbance that the sharp witted labor leaders have not failed to take advantage of. The government for several years has been making the bed in which it now finds itself lying.

Public Spirited People

A leading reason why progressive towns go ahead, is that they include many public spirited people. Such folks are a blessing to any community, and it is impossible to thank them too warmly. Usually these people have plenty of personal and business cares which would naturally take up all their time and attention. Yet somehow in their busy lives they manage to squeeze out a little time here and there for public and organization work. Their experience and judgment are extremely valuable. They know how to make an appeal that interests the public and secures co-operation.

There are a large number of people who are willing to take hold and do active work in town activities. The community is greatly indebted for their efforts and enthusiasm, and the community that possesses a good number of such people is sure to make progress and present an attractive life.

Vincent's Angina Discussed by Dr. Cox

Austin.—Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has released some interesting information concerning Vincent's angina which was commonly called "trench mouth" during World War I. Dr. Cox states that Vincent's angina is a specific infection producing inflammatory condition of the mucous membranes, more commonly those of the mouth, and the disease is spread by indirect as well as direct contact.

"Because of the readiness with which this disease is transmitted, it has been occasionally found in epidemic form among school children and other groups," Dr. Cox states. "Vincent's angina assumed epidemic proportions in the front line trenches in 1914-1918 and was during this period that the disease became generally known as trench mouth."

Although trench mouth is now world-wide in distribution, reasonable application of preventive measures which are merely those in line with approved personal health practices will be found a sufficient defense against this infection.

According to the State Health Officer the most common causes of Vincent's angina are neglected mouths, broken teeth fillings, and other types of oral irritation. Daily hygiene, plus the periodic visit to the dentist can be relied upon as reasonable buffers against this infection. However, persons who are very careful regarding oral hygiene can acquire this disease by using infected drinking cups and eating utensils and other personal articles; also by kissing, though healthy gums and mucous membranes have a much superior resistance to the infection than does an unclean mouth.

We cannot find the words to express our appreciation and grateful thanks to the friends who were so very kind to our loved one during his illness and to us at his passing. JESUS' FRIENDS CARRY ON HIS WORK

Lesson Text—Mark 16:15, 16, 19, 20; Luke 24:45-49; Acts 2:46, 47; 5:42.

Memory Selection—Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.—Mark 16:15.

Friendship brings results. We respond to it with our own interest, and by our desire to bring others into its helpful circle of influence. Obviously, the man who knows the friendship of Jesus wants others to meet his friend and know his love and power.

The disciples had seen the risen Lord, a privilege which carried with it the responsibility of declaring the good news of complete redemption to all the nations of the earth.

We find them engaged in 1. Blessed Preaching (Mark 16: 15, 16, 19, 20).

The call and commission of the Lord before he was caught up into heaven was clear and definite. How glad we are that the disciples obeyed, went and preached, and had such blessed results.

ADLERIKA
TONE-UP YOUR NUTRITION ZONE ASK YOUR DRUGGIST

The response of these early Christians was immediate and enthusiastic. Would that such a spirit had characterized the church through all the generations since then, and if it had, the commission would long since have been carried out. It has been estimated that if everyone in a church of two thousand were to win one soul a year, and each convert win one soul each year, the world would be evangelized in less than thirty-five years. Why not?

But while on the whole the church has failed, there have been valiant souls all down through its history who have given themselves to the business of preaching the gospel. With them, as with these of the first century, the secret is ever, "The Lord working with them."

II. Powerful Witnessing (Luke 24:45-49). The death and resurrection of Christ made possible the preaching of repentance and remission of sins, the message of redemption which was to go out to all nations through the disciples.

They were witnesses of these things they spoke that which they knew and had experienced, and so their word carried weight and conviction. That, however, was not the secret of the success of their efforts; there was something more. It is never enough for a man to speak of the things of God, no matter how brilliant and eloquent he may be, nor how certain he may be of his facts. He must have the power of God.

The early believers were to tarry until they received the Holy Spirit. We need only yield to him for he is present with every believer—the in-dwelling One—ready to empower and use us.

We need a real revival of the Holy Spirit power in the church, and we need it now. If the church as a whole will not yield to God, let us do so as individuals that we may be witnesses with power.

God is looking for men. He has always honored those who in faith have obeyed his command. The whole history of church and missionary endeavor bears eloquent testimony to that fact.

HOUSTON McMURRY

Houston McMurry of Henrietta in Race for Congress

Houston McMurry of Henrietta, Clay County, candidate for Congressman from the 13th Congressional District of Texas, was in Crowell Friday in the interest of his candidacy for that office.

In authorizing the News to make his announcement, Mr. McMurry released the following information concerning himself and his qualifications for the office: "I am 39 years of age.

"Born and has spent his entire life in the 13th Congressional District.

"Married and owns his own home in Henrietta, Texas. "Was admitted to the bar of the State of Texas in 1933 and has practiced law in Henrietta since that time with the exception of the time he has spent in Austin as a member of the Texas House of Representatives.

"Was elected State Representative from the 110th District (Archery and Clay Counties) in 1938 and has served continuously since that time, being re-elected for his third and fourth terms without opposition.

"Was chairman of the Committee on Constitutional Amendments in 1941 and 1942 and Vice Chairman of the same committee in 1943 and 1944.

"Is now Chairman of the Committee on Banks and Banking of the Texas House of Representatives.

"Has been a member of the powerful Committee on State Affairs since January 1941.

"Houston McMurry is and has always been a Democrat. In 1944 after the forces of the Republicans and Texas Regulars captured control of the machinery of the Democratic Party in Texas at the May (Austin) convention, McMurry entered the battle to regain this machinery for the real Democrats and to give the people of Texas an opportunity to vote for the Democratic National nominee, President Roosevelt. McMurry was elected Chairman of the Clay County delegation to the State Democratic Convention in Dallas in September, 1944, and arrived in Dallas three days before the convention opened and was appointed a member of the Steering Committee of the Democratic forces. At the caucus of the delegates from the 23rd Senatorial District, he was elected as that district's member of the Convention committee on Platform and Resolutions which wrote the platform and provided for the ousting of the Presidential Electors who were refusing to vote for the nominees of the party (Roosevelt and Truman) and replaced them with loyal electors. He was also active in the campaign that followed. Had the State Convention not taken this action every Democrat in Texas supporting Roosevelt and Truman would have been disfranchised by having their vote stolen from them.

"Houston McMurry advocates and will vote for in Congress: "1. Aid and support to the returning veteran to help him secure a job, to get started in business for himself, and to build a home for himself and family.

"2. Retaining Price Control until the country has returned to normal conditions. He will not vote to abolish or cripple OPA until the present crisis is over and past.

"3. Aid to the Public Schools, particularly giving the grossly underpaid school teachers a long overdue raise in salary. He has fought for this constantly in the Texas Legislature.

"4. All legislation sponsored by the Democratic Party leadership in Congress which has as its purpose the greater good for the greater number and which is for the benefit of the farmer, small business man, the men and women who work with their hands for a living, and the average man generally.

Prospector Wants Mountain Blown Up

Schenectady, N. Y., June 17.—"There's a gold prospector in New Mexico, near the place where V-2 rocket tests are being made, and he has a plan which would save him a lot of digging.

The plan was told in a General Electric Science Forum address over WGY and WGFM by Lt. Col. H. R. Turner, commanding officer of the White Sands, N. M., Proving Grounds for the 46-foot rockets.

"You see," Colonel Turner said, "when we selected the White Sands Proving Grounds, we naturally selected a section of the country that was pretty sparsely inhabited, away from railroads and airlines. But within this area there is a gold prospector who owns a mountain, and he has been pestering us to aim a rocket over his way and blow up the mountain. He said this would save him a lot of digging, but I'm afraid we can not oblige."

Colonel Turner revealed that Army Ordnance engineers plan to send up 24 more rockets, in addition to the one that was successfully launched May 10. "That means," he pointed out, "if we follow our schedule, we'll celebrate the fourth of July about four times a month for the next five months at White Sands."

It is the very essence of love, of nobleness, of greatness, to be willing to suffer for the good of others.—Spencer.

Weekly Sermon

By the Rev. Will H. Houghton, D. D., President Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

Changing Society At twenty the college man wants to savor the world. At thirty he earnestly desires to save the nation. At forty he would be glad to save a little out of his salary! Which is really another form of the old saying, "Any man who is not a socialist at twenty has something wrong with his heart, but if he is a socialist at forty there is something wrong with his head."

The world is vociferous in its demand that youth shall experiment and tinker with society. But the older one gets the more he realizes that the world's ills are not cured en masse. Society is wrong in the measure that its individual members are wrong.

And this all takes us back to the basic elements presented in the gospel; that is, that men as individuals are alienated from God and separated from each other, that through Christ they are brought into relationship to God and adjusted in their relationships to others.

We must first produce good men (born-again men) to produce a good society. These are related like cause and effect.

Jesus said, "Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again" (John 3:5-7).

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house" (Acts 16:31), was Paul's reply to the Philippian jailer who asked, "What must I do to be saved?"

Suntan Not Needed To Cure Rickets

Schnectady, June 17.—It is not necessary to get a suntan, from long exposure to ultraviolet rays, to cure or prevent rickets, according to Dr. Lewis R. Koller of the General Electric Research Laboratory.

"The antirachitic effect is quite independent of the tanning effect. Rickets can be prevented and cured by repeated doses of ultraviolet too small to produce any tanning," Dr. Koller said in a General Electric Science Forum address here.

Ultraviolet does not penetrate very far into the body tissue, Dr. Koller pointed out. "It is practically all absorbed in the first millimeter of skin," he said.

"Ultraviolet radiation either from the sun or from ultraviolet lamps has the property of converting certain substances present in the skin to vitamin D," Dr. Koller explained. The value of ultraviolet for this purpose has been definitely confirmed, "and we know quite accurately the amount of energy required at various wavelengths," he asserted.

Spots on the Window Pane: The story is told of a woman who one day glanced out the window at her neighbor's wash, hanging upon the line in the sun to dry. "My gracious," the woman said, "if I was Mrs. Jones I would be ashamed to hang out a wash as dirty as hers is. She must be very shiftless indeed." The next day the critical housewife discovered that the dirt that she thought she saw on her neighbor's clothes was on her own window pane. The clothes were spotless but the window was soiled and spotted and grimy. The critical housewife is common among us. Too many people rush to criticize others when the fault is often their own. Too many people set themselves up as perfect examples of what they think others should be. They belittle or deliberately shut their eyes to their own short comings and in their exalted position of false security condemn all those who do not conform to the rules which they themselves have set up. Before we criticize some one else it is well to look at our own window panes, perhaps the glass through which we are looking has its faults that distort the things we are so quick to condemn.

Airmaid Hosiery, made in Texas, sold in 27 states, will put 150,000 pairs of nylons on the market in February.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Don't Use Butter to Grease Cake Pans.—It is always better to use lard or a butter substitute for greasing bread and cake pans. Butter burns so quickly, whereas the other fats do not. Besides they are cheaper than butter.

How To Store Potatoes.—When storing potatoes, even a few pounds, lay them in a shallow basket or box, allowing as much air as possible to circulate through them to aid in preventing them from sprouting or spoiling.

Wiping Linoleum.—A little kerosene put into the water when wiping up the kitchen linoleum will loosen the dirt.

It is almost impossible to find a person 40 years of age, man or woman, who has perfect sight.

James D. Denison and Miss Toombs Wed in Merkel Sun.

The marriage of Miss Peggy Joyce Toombs of Merkel to James Dickey Denison of Crowell, was solemnized on Sunday evening, June 23, at 5 o'clock in the Methodist Church of Merkel, with Rev. D. D. Denison, pastor of the church in Crowell and father of the groom, officiating with the impressive double ring ceremony.

The church was beautiful with decorations of white gladioli, palm ferns and white satin ribbons. The couple knelt on a white satin kneeling bench.

Mrs. D. D. Denison, mother of the groom, played a musical epoch portraying the courtship of the couple, before the entrance of the wedding party. She also played "Intermezzo" and accompaniment for Mrs. Mollie Frank (Touchstone) Jordan, who sang "Always" and "Because" as pre-nuptial music. The traditional wedding marches were used, they also being played by Mrs. Denison.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a wedding dress of white imported marquisette over white tulle with a finger-tip veil falling from a heart-shaped halo. She wore a string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white plastic Bible, topped with a spray of gardenias and white satin ribbon streamers. For some thing old and borrowed, she wore a pearl set ring belonging to her maternal grandmother. For something new, a leather-bound Discipline was used for the ceremony and she also wore something blue.

Miss Mary White of Abilene was maid of honor to the bride and she wore pink net over tulle with a heart-shaped halo on her hair. Misses Gynolene Vaughn and Irene Moore of Merkel were bridesmaids and were attired in dresses of pastel teal net over tulle and pale yellow over tulle, each using a matching halo headress. The three carried colonial bouquets of white net filled with white carnations and white ribbon streamers. The dresses of the bride and her attendants were modeled on the same fashion.

Best man was Mack Jacobs of Matador, life-long friend of the groom and ushers were Coy Bacus of Merkel and Ralph Barr of Dallas. All the men have recently been discharged from the service and all, including the groom, wore military uniforms.

Following the marriage, an informal reception was held in the foyer of the church, after which Mr. and Mrs. Denison left for a trip to Ruidosa, N. M., going by way of Lubbock. They will be at home at 1601 Soyles Blvd., Abilene, after July 15th.

Mrs. Denison, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will W. Toombs of Merkel, is a graduate of Merkel High School and attended McMurry College in Abilene for one year, where she was a member of T. I. P. Social Club, Speech Arts Club and the Christian Social Group.

Mr. Denison is the son of Rev. and Mrs. D. D. Denison, is a graduate of Merkel High School, also, and while a student at McMurry for one year, was a member of Theta Ta Mu, the Chanters and the Christian Social Group. He spent two years in the Navy as a Signalman and was recently discharged.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Denison plan to enter McMurry College in September.

Out-of-Town Guests Entertained with Series of Parties

Mesdames L. R. Emerson of Austin and Harvey Turnbough of Lubbock were the honor guests at three parties last week. Mrs. Emerson was the house guest in the home of her sister, Mrs. M. S. Henry, and Mrs. Turnbough of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Kincaid.

Mrs. Henry honored the two out-of-town ladies with a bridge party at her home Thursday afternoon. With the home artistically arranged with bouquets of summer flowers, games of bridge were enjoyed throughout the afternoon.

Attractive guest prizes were presented the honor guests. A combined salad and ice course was served.

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. R. L. Kincaid was hostess to two tables of bridge as a compliment to the two visitors. Flowers of the season were used in the living room. Mrs. C. E. Ferguson won high score in the games and was given a pretty gift while guest prizes were given the honorees.

Guests were Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. Turnbough, Mrs. M. S. Henry, Mrs. O. R. Boman, Mrs. M. O'Connell, Mrs. C. R. Ferguson, Mrs. Merl Kincaid and Mrs. Chippie Griffin, to whom an ice course was served at the close of the games.

Mrs. M. O'Connell and Mrs. H. Schindler were joint hostesses at the home of Mrs. O'Connell on Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. Turnbough and Mrs. Emerson named as honor guests and additional guests, Mrs. M. S. Henry, Mrs. R. L. Kincaid, Mrs. O. R. Boman, Mrs. Chippie Griffin, Mrs. Hubert Brown, Mrs. George D. Self, Mrs. T. N. Bell, Mrs. C. R. Ferguson, Mrs. Merl Kincaid and Miss Mary Frances Self. High score was made by Mrs. O. R. Boman. The hostesses presented guest favors and high score prize. Refreshments of sandwiches, sherbet and cake were served.

Foard City WSC Meets with Mrs. Mills

On Monday, June 24, the Foard City Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Foard City Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. G. G. Mills to continue the study of Africa. Mrs. W. L. Johnson presided and the opening song was "There is a Name & Love to Hear," followed by a prayer by Mrs. Grady Halbert. A touching poem, "Peace Priorities" by Mayme Garner Miller, was read by Mrs. Virgil Johnson.

During the business session, it was announced that Mrs. Johnson was to go from this district to Mount Sequoyah School of Missions. Mrs. J. H. Jernigan of Childress, Mrs. Grady Bingham of Vernon and Mrs. Johnson are the three chosen from the district to attend the two weeks of study.

The devotional, led by Mrs. Jack Welch, dealt with the scriptures telling of Jesus' teaching the young lawyer just what the term "neighbor" implies. Her devotional tied in well with the study of Africa brought by Mrs. Halbert. During the war, Africa was thought of in terms of her raw materials, diamonds, gold and cocoa in abundance. Two-thirds of the American music is played on African ivory. Sixty per cent of the world's radium comes from Africa. The largest deposit of copper in the world is found in Africa. Chromium, found on cars and kitchen ranges comes from Africa.

The African has not only given raw materials to the world but has given social contributions as well. The African has no desire for personal ownership but values the friendship of one man more than any personal possessions.

In speaking of the area of responsibility, Mrs. Halbert said that if one could see the beatings, the malnutrition, the hardships and the sufferings that are behind all the raw materials enjoyed by the people of America, they would not be so enjoyed nor wanted. Not only has the body of Africa suffered, but the very soul has been hurt. The question is, how can these wounds be healed. The African seems to be thought of as an inferior being, who has been created only to serve his superiors. To be sure, some of this country's culture has been taken to Africa but the Bible has not been taken, the most important thing. If the culture of each nation could be presented in its entirety to others so that complete understanding could result, then men might learn to live together.

Mrs. Jack Welch dismissed the meeting with prayer after which the hostess served delicious refreshments to those present.

Birthday Party for Sandra Jean Campbell

Sandra Jean Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Campbell, was honored by her mother on her sixth birthday Monday, June 24th, with a party for cousins and friends at the Campbell home.

The guests were entertained with games, swinging and seesawing. Sandra Jean received many nice birthday gifts.

Cake, ice cream and lemonade was served to the following: Larry Ford, Joyce Morgan, Karl and Carol Bell, Charlene and Barbara Borchardt, James Borchardt, Judy and Bob Borchardt and Patricia Brosser, George Morgan, Jana Black and Barbara Jane Goodwin and the honoree.

Physical Defects

The modern age gives a great deal of attention to the question of the physical defects of children, young people, and persons of older ages. The wonderful results obtained by modern science in curing these defects or relieving them, is a great encouragement to people to try to have these defects attended to.

Young people who are playing active games are getting physical exercise that gives them better appetite for food, and greater ability to digest it. They are likely to come in from such games full of physical vigor, hungry for their meals, and the activity promotes their growth and health.

The communities that have spent a reasonable amount of money to provide playgrounds and opportunities for healthful sport and recreation, do a great deal to improve the physical condition of their young people and give them a good start in life.

Gay Comedy "Sailor Takes a Wife" to be at Rialto Sunday-Monday

The trials and tribulations of a newly-married couple provide laughter and poignant moments alike in "The Sailor Takes a Wife" which will be presented on the Rialto Theatre screen on Sunday and Monday, June 30 and July 1. With Robert Walker as the sailor and June Allyson as the wife, the picture tells the heart-warming story of the two falling in love at first sight after their meeting at a New York canteen. Thinking they have little time left, the couple is married by a justice of the peace and set up housekeeping in an unfurnished brownstone apartment. Much to Walker's chagrin he is given a medical discharge and finds himself looking for a job. Walker has one of the best roles as the young husband who inadvertently does the wrong thing toward winning the confidence of his suspicious bride and Miss Allyson makes the girl sympathetic and understandable. Miss Trotter is a captivating villainess and the cast is aided by the work of Hume Cronyn as Miss Allyson's employer, Eddie "Rochester" Anderson as a procrastinating janitor, and Reginald Owen as a man who is deterred from giving Walker a job when the latter spills an entire dinner on him.

The pepper shortage that exists in this country to the point where imitation pepper is being sold consisting of buckwheat hulls and pepper oil, is said by some to be due to the OPA price policy. It is said that there are ample supplies of pepper in India for which the world price is 20 cents a pound. The OPA ceiling in this country is 10 cents a pound. As a result no pepper is being shipped to the United States. Consumers are paying an inflated price for imitation pepper while the real pepper is being shipped to other countries.
