Perch Nesting Prompts Fish Feud

Rockport, Texas—Down in the tank room of the Game & Fish Commission's Marine Laboratory, the situation appeared normal. The Paradise fish did seem slightly twitchy and one of the Sea Horses had momentarily turned a weird pink.

Peace also prevailed in the Rio Grande Perch tank. But a relic of more hostile times was evident in the form of an adult fish with its tail tattered.

This specimen was scarred up when it ignored an out-of-bounds edict imposed by a pair of mating perch. The two kept the other fish from the area and one stood guard while the other fanned the water over the eggs.

Before the spawn hatched, Aquatic Biologist Howard Lee removed some of the eggs, used an agitator to successfully simulate natural conditions and began rearing a perch family of his own.

Chevrolet is the only low-priced car to offer...

Extra-Easy Power Steering

The Bel Air 4-Door Sedan (above) and the "Two-Ten" 2-Door Sedan (right)—two of 16 beautiful models in 3 great new series.

You park and steer with finger-tip ease, yet the familiar feel of the road is still there. Driving is easier—and safer than ever!

MORE PEOPLE BUY CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER CAR!

Power Steering! It's yours in Chevrolet for 1953 and in no other low-priced car!

This wonderful new feature, optional on all models at extra cost, marks the most important advance in driver convenience and safety since the automatic transmission, which Chevrolet also introduced into its field.

Power Steering makes steering virtually effortless on all roads and at all speeds. It permits you to park, even in a tight space, with finger-tip ease. It cuts steering effort approximately 80%; reduces driver fatigue; makes driving simpler, safer and more enjoyable than ever before.

But come in! See and drive Chevrolet for 1953 with Power Steering and all its other exclusive advantages!

Continuation of standard equipment and trim as illustrated is dependent on availability of material.

Behind closed doors went senators and representatives trying to agree on the Legislature's big spending bill.

A guard kept out reporters, one of whom recalled, somewhat bitterly, that a House committee had recommended passage of a resolution condemning the federal government for doing business behind closed doors. The Senate had already passed such a resolution.

Senator Ottis Lock and Representative Max Smith explained that it is customary for conference committees to meet privately. These men, chairmen of the Senate and House appropriations committees, said the conferees were trying to get together on policy.

Both the Senate and House have passed appropriations bills, but they differ in amount. The Senate bill is about six million dollars higher.

Action on other spending bills was held up until the houses finally passed the big one, which is for general government expense.

That was a ruling of House Speaker Reuben Senterfitt, the case in point being a move to change a teachers pay-raise bill from the appropriations committee to the public lands and buildings committee.

The motion failed, but the appropriations committee set a hearing on three bills to hike teachers salaries. Under Senterfitt's ruling it is proper to hold the hearings, but no action can be taken on these or any other pending measures until the general appropriations bill is finally passed.

One of the teacher bills would boost all teachers' salaries $600 a year, another would give them $240, and the third sets up a sliding scale giving lower bracket teachers $504 additional and less for the higher-paid pedagogues.

One of the teacher bills would boost all teachers' salaries $600 a year, another would give them $240, and the third sets up a sliding scale giving lower bracket teachers $504 additional and less for the higher-paid pedagogues. Texas officials expressed gratification when the national house of representatives passed a bill returning ownership of the tidelands to Texas. Governor Allan Shivers, Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, and Attorney General John Ben Shepard comprise the Texas School land board, which would administer the vast area. They all expressed the wish that Congress will give Texas a part of the revenue from all of the continental shelf. The present bill puts Texas' boundary at three leagues out in the Gulf of Mexico. Congress last year passed legislation returning ownership of the tidelands to the states, but the measure was vetoed by President Truman. The tidelands are particularly valuable because they are rich in oil. Senator George Moffett's proposed constitutional amendment to get money for needed state office buildings was passed by the senate without a dissenting vote. The funds would come from the surplus in the Confederate pension fund. A property tax of two cents per $100 valuation now raises about a million and a quarter dollars a year for the pension fund, which now has a surplus of $4,604,163. Only two veterans of the Confederate Army are now alive in Texas, but there are 525 widows of Confederate veterans. Returns from the property tax are more than enough to pay the pensions. The House of Representatives has passed a bill which would permit the state to sell bonds for construction buildings and retrograde in rent for office space. The state now owns the capitol where the buildings could be located. The Senate also proposed a constitutional amendment that would give terms of office to judges, and district office members of the House senators. In the house there is a proposal which includes representatives in the office of office. Several senators expressed their opposition to the resolution. Those who favor the reason that local officers serve two terms anyway, running for office every takes time and cost. Program Completed for 1953 Edition of Santa Rosa Roundup

The program for the 1953 Santa Rosa Roundup has been completed for the six-day event scheduled this year from April 27-May 2 in Vernon. The Beutler Brothers of Elk City, Okla., will produce the rodeo again, according to manager John Biggs. A number of new specialty acts have been added, and Cy Tallon, famed Madison Square Garden rodeo announcer, will return to Vernon his second year as announcer.
This year's show will be an all-evening performance again, and Beutler Brothers report that they are bringing a completely new array of wild stock here for the show.
Specialty acts will include the Glen Randall Liberty Act with eight golden palomino horses; the Hoofbeat Harmony, two dancing horses presented by Lynn and Corky Randall; the Red Pony, a specialty act by Corky Randall especially planned to please children and horse lovers; "Equestrian Elegance" by Lynn Randall and Top Hat; Wanda Lou McCush in a Roman hurdle performance; Zeke Bowers in a skit with his monkey, Marie; and last but not least, music by Ruby Nance's famous cowboy band.
And of course there will be plenty of rough and tumble rodeo at its best—or worst. One of the largest collections of champions ever to gather in the Southwest is expected for this year's show.
The usual rugged schedule will be carried out this year, including the Wild Mare Race which has been made famous by the Santa Rosa Roundup.
Other events will include cowboy's bareback riding, calf roping, saddle bronc riding, open cutting horse, steer wrestling, Brahma bull riding.

Guarantee Your Harvest by CROP-HAIL INSURANCE

REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD BUY CROP-HAIL INSURANCE

An average of one in every seven policy holders report losses during a normal hail season.

A reliable Crop-Hail policy will protect the FARMER against this big hazard, which is the worst with which he has to contend.

The Farmers' crop is his "STOCK IN STORE" and is at the mercy of the ELEMENTS: the only protection he can get is a CROP-HAIL POLICY.

You never heard of a FARMER going broke because he paid a crop-hail insurance premium, but many have met financial ruin because they did not buy Crop-Hail Insurance. You cannot prevent a HAIL STORM, but you can replace the damage caused through the medium of a CROP-HAIL INSURANCE POLICY in a sound reliable stock company. You owe it to YOURSELF, YOUR LOVED ONES, and your creditors if any, to protect your crop investment against loss from a HAIL-STORM.

DO YOU KNOW?

that crop-hail losses paid by STOCK INSURANCE COMPANIES during 1952 EXCEEDED TWENTY ONE MILLION DOLLARS.

THAT UNINSURED LOSSES FAR EXCEED THIS AMOUNT. LOSSES ARE PAID IMMEDIATELY UPON RECEIPT OF PROPER PROOF OF LOSS.

THAT HAIL POLICIES ALSO INCLUDE PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE.

Worth more... and why

There's an old saying that a thing is worth what someone is willing to pay for it. Well, if you could tour the wholesale and retail used car auctions around the country, if you could survey hundreds of used car lots you would discover that used Fords bring higher prices than any competitive make—and by substantial amounts.

THAT'S WHY we feel our '53 cars should not be compared with cars in the same price range. Not because our competitors don't do a good job—obviously they do—but because we feel Ford Cars have more in common with the highest priced automobiles. The similarities are far greater than the differences.

For example. Today, the most expensive cars in this country have V-type, 8-cylinder engines. Ford Cars have had this exact same type of engine for over 20 years.

What's more astounding, the current Strato-Star V-8 sells for hundreds of dollars less than several other makers charge for a six-cylinder car. Now there's nothing wrong with a Six but they do cost less to make. Ford makes a Six—the most modern overhead valve Six in the industry. And if it's a six-cylinder car you want, Ford has it and for less money than the V-8, which is as it should be.

What about ride? Here's another Ford similarity with high-priced cars... Riding Comfort. One of the misconceptions for many years has been that weight—sheer weight—is what it takes to make a car ride well. Ford has found that you can make a 3000-pound car ride softer and hold the road better by far than many cars that weigh a full 1000 pounds more. In the '53 Ford, for example, front end road shock has been reduced up to 80%. We say it compares most favorably with the heaviest cars sold today.

What about automatic transmissions? It would take the fingers of both hands to count the various kinds of automatic and semi-automatic transmissions on the market today. The one we offer is called Fordomatic. It is the most versatile on the market, it represents the most profound consideration of engine-to-wheel power transfer—and that it does the best job for our engines isn't even open to question. It "shifts" better than you could shift by hand.

What you can see is also important. Here again Ford Cars lead not only in their price field but in the medium and upper brackets as well. Ford visibility is Full-Circle Visibility. This means huge, curved unobstructed glass area, front and rear, plus side windows that allow all passengers what the hotels call "room with a view."

Appearance? A higher price, of course, does not make a car more beautiful. Conversely, beauty in a Ford comes "for free." Ford has found that it costs no more to develop a beautiful car than one that is less pleasing in appearance. You can drive up to the most exclusive doorways in the world and feel perfectly at home in your Ford. Fords "belong" . . . in exactly the same social category as the finest, one-of-kind creations. After all, a Ford is a custom creation multiplied.

What about running costs? Here's one place that Ford's advantages are obvious. For oil and gas economy Ford has the big cars whipped. Ford parts cost less. Ford service charges are less. Ford tire mileage is thousands of miles greater. And, Ford depreciation is the lowest of any car on the market—bar none.

What are Fords made of? Some people have the idea that the costliest cars are made of "better stuff." It's true that some high-priced cars have costlier upholstery and fittings. What Ford has is so good, both in durability and appearance, that you probably could not tell the difference. You might even prefer it, because of its better design and more pleasing appearance.

Then there's the question of sheet metal. If you were to measure and analyze the sheet metal structure in the most expensive car, you most likely would find it identical in thickness to the corresponding panels in Ford.

After all, then, what is the difference between a Ford and the costliest cars?

In our opinion, the difference is largely a matter of dimensions, weight (and the power required to move it) plus the distinction of owning a car that not so many other people own. The desire for these things is understandable . . . and probably justified for people who are willing to pay the price to satisfy it.

As to comparing Ford with other cars in its price range, by all means do so if you wish. But, as we said before, you'll get a better picture of Ford value by comparing with cars that are most like Fords—those that are priced up to twice as much. In fact, we think you'll quickly begin comparing the other cars with Ford—because the 1953 Ford has really established the New Standard of the American Road.

News from the Congress

by Congressman Frank Ikard

Washington, D. C., April 2, 1953 — Restoring title of the States to the submerged lands within their historic boundaries moved a step closer to realization when the House passed the so-called tidelands bill by a vote of 285 to 108. The effect of this bill is to confirm and establish the title of the States to the submerged lands within their historic boundaries which, in the case of Texas, is ten and one-half miles. The Senate will immediately begin consideration of a similar bill, and I feel certain that the action there will also be favorable.

The debate on the bill in the House reflected the fact that probably no issue to come before Congress in recent times has been so widely misunderstood. Many have seen fit to beat the drums of prejudice and charge that this bill was nothing but a gigantic give-away. This has done much to spread the widely held misconception that the so-called tidelands matter was purely a sectional issue that affected only three or four States and that the other States and the vast majority of the people would have everything to gain and nothing to lose by the taking of the tidelands by the Federal government. Of course, this is not true for the tidelands issue is not a sectional one. Rather, it is a question that involves the fundamental concept of State and private ownership of property, and as such, is a matter in which every man, woman, and child in the United States has a vital stake. It exemplifies the familiar spectacle of the Federal government usurping more and more power from the States, and it strikes at the very heart of the historic organization of our government.

The real question to be decided was one of principle which was whether individuals and States that make up this Union have rights and property that are sacred and deserve protection or whether all of our ownership is subject to the whims of an all-powerful Federal government that might divest us under the ill conceived theory of "paramount rights" as pronounced by the Supreme Court.

Visitors in the office this week were H. T. Cole of Medicine Mound and Mrs. Grace Pool of Wichita Falls.

B. & P. W. Club Has Easter Breakfast

The home of Miss Lottie Russell was the scene of a beautifully appointed breakfast on Easter morning for members of the Business and Professional Women's Club and guests. Hostess duties were shared with Miss Russell by Mrs. Inez Spencer and Miss Mayme Lee Collins.
 A lovely Easter lily graced the entrance hall, and a profusion of spring flowers were placed at advantageous points in the entertaining rooms, with a beautiful arrangement of iris and lilac centering the dining table. Miniature Easter bonnets fashioned from a wisp of pastel organdy, lace and ribbon over a crown of rose-petal sachet marked each place and added to the table decorations.
 Following the breakfast, a short program was introduced by Miss Collins. She gave a brief discussion of the origin of the Easter customs, and described the unique old-world Easter celebration staged at Fredericksburg, Texas, each year. The ever popular "Easter Parade" was played as a piano solo by Miss Rebecca Calvin, and the program was concluded by Misses Mildred and Virginia Tamplin, who sang the beloved hymn "Neath the Old Olive Trees." Piano accompaniment for the vocal number was played by Mrs. Spencer.
 Those enjoying this early morning affair other than club members were Miss Thelma White of Throckmorton, Mrs. Doyle Kenner, Miss Ora Mae Fox and the Misses Tamplin and Calvin.

ADELPHIAN CLUB
 Mrs. Guy Todd, Mrs. Henry Borchardt and Miss Martha Rettig entertained the members of the Adelpian Club on April 1st with an Easter Tea at the club house. Special guests were the members of the Junior Adelpian Club.
 Mrs. W. B. Johnson, president, gave a special greeting to the junior club and appreciation of the willingness and competence with which the junior members have contributed to special senior club programs.
 Mrs. Jack Sauls, as leader for the program, presented Mrs. M. A. Walker who sang "The Holy City." She was accompanied by Mrs. Paul Shirley.
 Mrs. Clinton McLain entertained the group with a most dramatic short story, which was selected as one of the best and most outstanding short stories of 1952.
 At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Borchardt invited the guests into the dining room for tea. The table was beautiful, with an arrangement of lovely spring blossoms through which a white styrofoam Easter bunny frisked. Small wicker baskets held lily sandwiches, Easter egg cookies and salted nuts.

COLUMBIAN CLUB
 On Wednesday, April 1, the members of the Columbian Club met for their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. R. L. Kincaid. The president, Mrs. D. R. Magee, conducted routine business, after which Mrs. Pearl Carter led the study on the Northwestern States.
 Mrs. Kenneth Halbert chose the state of Wyoming, which is most typically "frontier" of all the 48. It is still sparsely settled compared to its neighbors to the east. Cheyenne is the rodeo capital of the world.
 Then Mrs. Kincaid brought an informative brief of Montana. With its vast ranches and farms it is coming to the front in stock raising and agriculture.
 Mrs. Bedford Smith pictured Idaho as a land of enchantment. It has the deepest canyons and highest waterfalls. With its annual Indian fairs, it preserves the traditions of the west. Idaho potatoes are known the country over.
 Mrs. Kincaid served a delicious salad plate to 21 members.

GAMBLEVILLE H. D. CLUB
 Mrs. W. J. Garrett was hostess to members of the Gambleville Home Demonstration Club in her home in town on April 3.
 Recorded Easter music was played during the early part of RODEO CLOWN—An integral part of every rodeo is the rodeo clown. Not only does he provide many a laugh for the spectators, but he protects the cowboys from the angry bulls by his antics designed to distract the attention of those rugged animals.

Miss Doris Rummel Is Honored with Shower

Miss Doris Rummel, bride-elect of Leroy Hobratsch, was honored with a wedding shower on Thursday evening of last week in the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Lena Rummel, of Vernon.
 Arrangements of blue and white carnations and snapdragons decorated the entertaining room, and blue streamers inscribed "Doris and Leroy" highlighted the table setting.
 Seventy-five guests called throughout the evening and were presented to the receiving line consisting of Mrs. Lena Rummel; Miss Rummel, the bride-elect; Mrs. August Rummel of Crowell, mother of the honoree; and Mrs. Alvin Hobratsch, mother of the groom-elect.
 The wedding will take place at St. Paul's Lutheran Church on April 12 at 7 p. m. Rev. J. A. Birnbaum, pastor of the church, will officiate.
 Miss Rummel is a graduate of Crowell High School.

PRESENT PROGRAM

The Home Demonstration Club of Truscott presented a program at the community house in Truscott on the evening of April 3.
 The program consisted of a pantomime with Mesdames Jack Hickman, Jack Brown, Hub Gillespie, Jess Boykin and Nell Looney participating; a saxophone solo by Mary Ann Brown, accompanied by Mrs. Jack Brown; tap dance by Carolyn Hickman, accompanied by Mrs. Curtis Casey; a five-act play with Mesdames Jack Hickman, Newell Looney, Walter Carl Taylor, Mary Kathleen Chowning, Oscar Solomon, Jack Brown, Newt Bryant, Felix Taylor participating.
 The pantomime and play were directed by Mrs. Curtis Casey.
