New Food Store to Open Here on Saturday, Mar. 31

John Rasor and son, John Thomas Rasor Jr., will open a new grocery store in Crowell Saturday in the Weiss building on the southwest corner of the square. The store will be known as the Rasor Food Store. The store will open on the 27th anniversary of the entry of the senior partner into the grocery business in Crowell which was April 1, 1924, when the Haney-Rasor partnership was formed.

Work of installing the fixtures and placing the groceries on the shelves has been in progress this week. C. A. Parker, formerly with Fox-Thompson Grocery, will be in charge of the meat department. The entire front of the building will be used for the display of the grocery stock with the checking counter in the center near the front.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rasor and Mrs. and Mrs. John Thomas Rasor and small son will move from Vernon to Crowell to make their future home here.

Soil Conservation News of District

Several more district cooperators seeded grass during the past week. Those seeding grass were Henry Greening, H. E. Davis and Marion Hughston. There are still several cooperators who will seed grasses as soon as possible. All grasses seeded so far have been native grasses such as Side oats grama, and Blue grama and the introduced grass, King Ranch Bluestem. Seeding of Blue panic grass has not started yet, but plans are made to start seeding this grass as soon as all the other grasses have been seeded. Blue panic is a warm season, perennial grass that is planted in rows. It is a high protein grass and in normal seasons will carry a cow to the acre during the growing season. Approximately 500 acres of this grass will be planted in this part of the district this spring.

A waterway was shaped last week on the Lawrence Glover farm. This will be seeded this week to King Ranch Bluestem. When established, terraces will be run on the farm and excess water will empty into it. A waterway will also be seeded on Grady Halbert's farm this week to King Ranch Bluestem. K. R. Bluestem is an excellent grass for this purpose. It makes a dense growth and is easy to establish. Terraces are being built on the Egbert Fish farm in the Vivian community. Work should be completed this week. Terraces will also be built this week on the Teague Estate, which is operated by Roy Barker. Clover is still being planted for a summer legume. Sty Barker planted 16 acres last week to Hubert clover and Jack Seale plans to plant some this week. For information on grasses and legumes, see personnel of the local Soil Conservation Service or your District Supervisor.

Mrs. A. G. Magee Appointed Chairman 1951 Cancer Crusade

Selection of Mrs. A. G. Magee, registered nurse and leader in Cancer Crusade work for the past five years, as chairman of the 1951 Cancer Crusade in Foard County was announced this week by George E. B. Peddy, state Crusade chairman and prominent Houston attorney.

Mrs. Magee will direct the educational and membership drive of the American Cancer Society during April, appointing community chairmen and organizing a county-wide public educational program. A message of congratulations was sent by Mr. Peddy to Mrs. Magee, expressing appreciation for her acceptance of this post of leadership.

"We are participating in a work which is increasingly successful," Mr. Peddy said. "Many people are being cured of cancer today with the knowledge we now have and which we spread to every corner of Texas during the Cancer Crusade. Cancer research is making rapid progress with the financial support we give it. Science has developed new ways of aiding even the advanced cancer patient."

Mr. Peddy said that the American Cancer Society expects to raise more than $500,000 in Texas this year to carry on its program of education, research and service to cancer patients.

What is the one thing that everyone can do that will definitely save lives from cancer?

The answer, according to Mrs. Magee, chairman of the Foard County Crusade, is to learn and observe cancer's seven danger signals.

"Knowing the danger signals which may mean cancer and seeing a doctor when one appears would result in saving thousands of lives every year," the chairman said.

"Early diagnosis and prompt treatment can double the figure of 70,000 cancer cures annually," she added. "Because of the importance of this part of the program, we consider it the first objective in the Texas Cancer Crusade."

Mrs. Magee explained that educational literature listing the danger signals would be distributed free throughout the county during this year's crusade. "We believe that it is just as important for people to learn the danger signals as it is to contribute money to the American Cancer Society," she said. "When a solicitor leaves a leaflet at your home, a few minutes spent in memorizing the seven danger signals might well be invaluable to you. It could mean the difference between life and death."

Plans Made for Santa Rosa Show

Forty-two members of the Santa Rosa Horticultural Society attended a business meeting, luncheon and informal round table discussion in preparation for their Second Annual Horticultural Flower Show to be held May 5 and 6 at the Santa Rosa Ranch. This meeting was held Wednesday, March 21, at the Wilbarger Hotel in Vernon.

Mrs. Kenneth Henry, president, gave a brief talk on the purpose of the society, which is to further all of the horticultural arts and conserve our natural plant life. Mrs. Henry named some of these arts as growing plants and flowers, landscape designing, and artistic arranging. Mrs. Henry also explained that anyone living in Harbinger, Foard, Wilbarger, Knox, Baylor, Archer, and Wichita counties and interested in the objective of Santa Rosa Horticultural Society may be a member without dues.

The Society plans to have lectures and programs throughout the year and encourages its members to experiment and do research on their own initiative. Mrs. Henry explained that the reason so much time should be spent on the horticultural arts is so that we might have more attractive highways, parks, public buildings, yards and homes.

Mrs. George Beaver, program director, gave an interesting and amusing talk on the problems encountered in staging a horticultural show. Mrs. Albert Jones assisted her as the "frustrated exhibitor."

Class in both horticultural and arrangement divisions were discussed as pertaining to the scheduled set up for the May 5 and 6 show in Vernon.

All counties in the seven-county area comprising Santa Rosa Horticultural Society were represented with the exception of Baylor, Knox and Archer.

New Fence Next Project Desired for Cemetery

Mrs. N. J. Roberts, president of the Crowell Cemetery Association, says that a new fence around the cemetery is badly needed and projects that it should be the next project to be promoted in connection with beautifying the cemetery.

Mrs. Roberts asks the question, "Have you been to the cemetery lately?" and continues with the following information: "The sexton has been busy bumping the weeds, removing all rubbish and smoothing the streets. The general appearance is exceptionally good. Probably some are not aware that in the fall, when town paving was in order, that Bax Middlebrook furnished the gravel, the City used its grader and supervised the unloading, and $380.00 from cemetery funds were spent for hauling—all this to improve the streets in the east portion. A section of new drive-ways on the west side. The county has built a new culvert at the south entrance."

"Our next project is the building of a new fence. Already there has been $185.00 subscribed toward this fence. One man has suggested that he will spend a day with his mechanical post hole digger. Some, or all of the old fence, can be used in places.

"Since we are not spending any money this year to celebrate the county's 60th birthday, let's build a new fence around the cemetery. "Some are setting out cedars this spring. We need more. They withstand the dry weather better than any other shrubbery and add much to the general appearance. Send your contributions to Lee Black at the bank, or to me.

Please specify if it's for the fence. You pay us, we pay the sexton. He is furnished a house, city water and a salary."

Contributions received since last report: W. F. Hlavaty, $10.00; Gordon Gafford, Clovis, N. M., $10.00; Mrs. M. J. Girsch, $5.00; Mrs. S. F. Hofues, Dallas, $10.00; H. E. Ferguson, $5.00; J. C. Jones, Thalia, $5.00; a friend, $25.00; Mrs. S. J. Boman, Vernon, $5.00.

What Is Arthritis?

BY DR. JUNE M. COOK

Arthritis is essentially an inflammation of the surfaces of the joints. This inflammation involves not only the bony surfaces, but the musculature and ligaments surrounding the joints. In many instances this joint inflammation results from excessive stresses and strains arising from improper functioning. This is a matter of faulty body mechanism arising from a bad posture, curvature of the spine, bones out of place, and other conditions which would cause body imbalance. Another factor that is often involved in arthritis is faulty calcium metabolism. This means the body's inability to utilize for its own purpose the natural calcium salts found in certain foods. Recent research has demonstrated that there is definite relationship between arthritis and an upset nervous system. Disturbances in the nervous system interfere with metabolism. The Chiropractor, in dealing with arthritis, seeks to restore body balance, and normal functioning of the nervous system. By removing the pressure which clog, re-establish the proper calcium metabolism as well as the correct mechanical functioning of its parts. When he does so, symptoms of arthritis disappear. A series of articles published in the public interest explain and illustrate the practice of Scientific Chiropractic, written by Dr. June Cook, Chiropractor, whose office is located at 308 E. Commerce, Crowell, Texas, Tel. 2-1000. Good Insurance Now Includes Chiropractic

LAST ROUNDUP

"Howdy, there, pardner! Welcome to the Last Roundup," greeted me and my partner as we stepped into the corral of the Last Roundup. We not only saw lariats, saddles, spurs, and cowgirls, but we saw juniors and seniors because this was the Junior Senior Banquet that was given last Thursday night, March 22, at the Community House.

Jimmy Woods, who was the toastmaster and who was known as Lasso Harry, gave the welcome. The foreman of Crowell High School, Mr. Grady Graves, gave the invocation. While waiting for the chow to be served, the "Junior Toast of Welcome" was given by Cowpuncher Hannah, known on the reward posters as Maurine Youree, Dungere Dude, who is known to the cowhands as Jimmy Tom Cates, gave the "Senior Toast of Thanks."

Chow was then served to us in the good old western style. The chow, prepared by the class mothers, Mesdames Tom Geaslin, Seth Woods, Jimmy Franklin, J. L. Brock and Jeff Bruce, consisted of fruit cup, cow puncher potatoes, cactus salad, flapjacks and saddle soap, ranger's delight, buck shots, and glass 'o spurs. Cowgirls who helped to serve were Bessie Franklin, Virginia Tamplen, Bobbie Spears, Rosemary Moss, Helen Ribble, Lareta Lyons, Faye Black, Charleita Ketchersid, Norma Jones and Mary Lou Woods.

After chow, Lasso Harry introduced the outlaw, Longhorn Smith, who is sometimes known as Jamille Caram. Longhorn read the class prophecy. The reading of the prophecy was followed by good Western songs, "On Top of Ole Smokey" and "My Love Is a Rider" were sung by Calico Molly, Hill-billy Sue and Yodeling Lucy. These girls were recognized by Sheriff Henry Black to be Peggy Traweck, Elba Caddell and Pat Owens. Buckaroo Billy, alias Bobbie Ruth Abston, gave the reading of the class will.

While waiting for Jimmy Johnson's Western String Band to tune up, I began looking at "all them purty" evening dresses. A dress of champagne net over matching taffeta, trimmed in gold and full length was worn by Camille Todd. She wore a yellow carnation in her hair.

"Which has the Toni?" was the question asked Pat Hammonds and Jean Gamble, who wore matching evening dresses. Red rosebuds fastened to the waist of these white nylon organdy dresses over lilac taffeta were worn with matching ballerinas.

Mildred Tamplen wore her green taffeta, strapless evening dress, trimmed with net. This evening dress also had matching gloves. She wore pale pink pearls and ear screws that matched her pink corsage.

A ballerina dress of dark fuchsia that tapered off to light crepe in front which was strapless was worn by Maurine Youree.

Mary Alice Rader wore a dress of white frosted organdy over white satin with a waist corsage of red roses.

A black net over taffeta evening dress was worn by Virginia McKown.

Norma Mathews wore an ankle length light orchid net evening dress over taffeta.

A dress of green taffeta with yellow net and matching yellow net stole was worn by Laverne Shultz.

Opal Browder wore a full length dress of blue taffeta with a corsage of red carnations.

Dorothy Wilson was seen at the banquet in a dress of yellow taffeta trimmed with rosebuds.

A lovely white lace dress was Bertha Johnson's evening dress. This dress was set off by black velvet ribbons.

Eva Rae Geaslin wore a lovely dress of blue taffeta trimmed with nylon net.

A white full length dress worn by Essie Franklin was trimmed with a wide orange sash.

Joyzell Thomson had on an evening dress of white satin that was strapless and trimmed in fuchsia velvet.

Melba Ward was seen wearing a pink evening dress that was of taffeta and net.

Bobbie Abston's dress was of white frosted organdy which was of a ballerina length with a strapless top. She wore a lovely corsage of red roses.

A ballerina length evening dress of white eyelet organdy which had a pink corsage of carnations was worn by Ann Haynie.

A Senior girl, Neva Lou Potts, was wearing a strapless, ballerina length evening dress of tulle. It was of a hyacinth color with matching shoes of satin. Two lovely gardenias were worn in her hair.

Mr. J. W. Sollis, Junior sponsor, wishes to express his appreciation for the cooperation given to him by the Junior Class and the class mothers. He also wishes to thank Mrs. Fred Youree for her help with the decorations.

The Junior and Senior classes wish to thank Mr. J. W. Sollis for giving and supervising the banquet. "Thank ya, pardner, for letting us all have a good time."

CLASS WILL

(by Bobbie Ruth Abston and Betty Barker)

We, the class of 1951, in the City of Crowell, the County of Foard, and the State of Texas, being in sound but fatigued mental condition, in possession of amazing training and unlimited ability, do hereby make this, our last will and testament, rendering void any former wills that may have been previously made, very bally or in writing, by us during a period of temporary anger, dissatisfaction, or unusual optimism.

We have one last request that we will think only of our good traits and forever erase from our memory our cruises. Do not just bury us, but praise us too.

Through our unusual wit and ability we have acquired a vast estate. We do wish to dispose of our possessions as follows:

Section I

To the high school superintendent we bequeath our unusually fine odd lot of articles left behind after all others have claimed their rightful inheritance. These priceless items will include compacts, combs, blotters, notebook paper, poetry, notes from Charles Pittillo to Mildred Tamplen, library books we failed to return, lipsticks, hobbys pins, and other sundry objects which may be extremely helpful in case of an emergency. This same superintendent may dispose of these collector's pieces as he deems wise and fit.

To the entire teaching staff we will be coming summer vacation. Now that we are about to depart, they are entitled to a much-needed rest after laboring night and day to care for our necessities.

To Henry Black and Marvin Myers, our class advisors, we prepared for both parties we had and parties we did not have. We also bequeath to our worthy sponsors our remarkable ability to unify a class. This power can be loaned out to any distressed class and used many times over, so great an organization have we outlined for our successors.

To J. W. Sollis, the junior class advisor, we will our famed credit rating.

Section II

To the junior class as a whole who will next year be seniors we will our esteemed position in this school. This is an honor you may receive only once in your lifetime, and should be accepted with an attitude of humility and respect. May you be honored by everyone in the school from the superintendent down to the dumbest freshman. Your welfare is of great concern to all the teachers under whom you study. There is more than glory in being a senior, for it carries a challenge as well. All the younger students look to you for leadership, they will do what you are doing because of your hallowed position. This post you may retain not more than one year, and if you are found unworthy, the glory may be taken from you at any time. By all means follow the advice of your teachers and the younger students will turn to you.

Section III

Personal Bequests

I, Glen Jones, wish to leave all my set of Encyclopedia Britannica with the extra volume of which I am the author to Eva Rae Geaslin.

I, Neva Lou Potts, will all my sweaters to Camille Todd.

I, Jimmie Louis Jones, bequeath my case of Hadaool from which I obtained my pep and energy to James McBeath.

We, Joyzell Thomson and Peggy Weaver, leave to Jane Brunger and Thurston Edgin our reducing pills.

I, Anna Rea Owens, confer my jitterbugging talent on John Diggs.

We, Jimmy Tom Cates and Gordon Wood Bell, leave the carbon copies of our love letters to Dorothy Wilson to use when writing to Vernon.

I, Harold Dean Ribble, will all the passes Mrs. Sloan wrote sending me to the study hall to Leonard Myers, who can make good use of them.

I, Haskell Norman, bequeath the shaving cream I never used to Jimmy Franklin.

We, Mary Rader, Frankie Mabe, Betty Barker and Bobbie Abston, will to Maurine Youree those hundreds of banana splits we didn't eat for fear of losing our school girl figures.

We, Opal Browder, Patricia Ann Owens and Peggy Joyce Traweck, present our seats on the Truscott bus to Elba Caddell with the hope that she isn't hit by as many spitballs, papers, books, pencils and flying saucers as we were.

We, Iris Abston and Myra Self, leave our title, "The Belles of Thalia," to Lana Short.

I, Martha Ohr, hand down my bus driving job to Jimmy Woods hoping you don't hit as many cows as I did.

We, Wanza Spears Parks and Melba Ward, leave to Mary Bergt our wedding dresses with the confidence that she will choose the one that Vance will like the better.

We, Pat Hammonds and Jean Gamble, offer our light green Chrysler to Norma Mathews provided she fills it with as much Quanaah boys as we did Truscott boys.

I, Rozella Autry, will my lambiepie, Martin Earl Langham, to Jamille Caram. Remember he likes candy and whispered sweet nothings.

We, Billie Jean Love, Ruth McRae and Joe Williams, present our ability to be quiet in class to Coy Payne, knowing that he needs it. Perhaps he will deserve C-plus next year.

We, Buster Laquey and Jon Sanders, bequeath our track trunks to Mary Matus for use during volleyball season.

I, Ann Haynie, will my glasses and billfold to Elwin Setliff if he can find them. I can't. He may also have my little black memorandum and my very muchly used first aid kit.

We, Charlie Reynolds and Wayne Shultz, hand down our cherished draft cards to Nettie Black with the expectation that she will finish school before she enters the WAC's.

I, Billy Caddell, will my ability to sleep unnoticed in geometry class to John Greening. Choosing a back seat and bringing a pillow to class will make your snoozing more enjoyable.

I, Virginia Paige McKown, will my swing (of course the one in the back yard) to Gene Paul Pogue and Arthur Marlow.

I, Jimmy Rasberry, leave my flaming red hair to Robert Brock. It has snared many little de-icers into my clutches.

We, H. L. Ayers and Charles Pittillo, bestow upon Clinton B. low our daring burr hair cut. It will be especially beneficial in keeping your vision unobscured during basketball games.

I, Donad Reynolds, donate my Mr. Black's permission, my copy of "Sir Joshua" to Don B. Take this as a coveted honor and uphold it through the trouble and strife of your senior year.

We, Charles Wilson and Don Sparks, leave our "growing" to Margaret Caram with the hope she doesn't grow in spots.

I, Mildred Tamplen, will my job in the candy store to Betty (Continued on Page 7)

SPECULATIONS ON SPEECH Speech Department Presents Contest Play at CHS Thursday

As an introduction to the Easter holidays beginning Thursday afternoon, the CHS speech department presented its contest play, "Special Guest," by Donald Elmer. A drama in one act, the play was submitted for the opinion of Crowell students and faculty by arrangement with Raw-Peter-son & Co. "Special Guest" is played in the setting of the living room of a farm home. The time is an early fall evening; date, the present. Each character plays a definite place in the unfolding of the plot. Atmosphere for the play is mysterious and melodramatic.

The final cast of characters, chosen from two casts, are Nora Andrews, a middle aged farm woman, Betty Barker; John Andrews, her shiftless husband, Jimmy Franklin; Edward, their son, Billy Johnson; Robert Norton, a detective, Don Gobin; and Elaine Madison, his fiancée, Marcia Kincaid.

All-important back stage workers are student director Maurine Youree; electrician, Robert Brock; stage manager, Thurston Edgin; and properties, Rebecca Calvin and Wanda Jones.

This play is Mrs. Elmo Todd's selection for entering the Interscholastic League Contest Friday, March 30. Other schools entered in this contest are Burkburnett, Chillicothe, Olney, Holiday, Seymour and the host school, Iowa Park.

The opinion of the spectators is that "Special Guest" has the properties for a winner. Good luck, dramatists.

DECLAMATION TRY-OUTS Monday, March 26, was the final day for all speech students wishing to enter a declamation contest at the Interscholastic League meet April 6.

Declamation try-outs were held in the auditorium Monday with Mrs. Moody Bursley, Henry Black and Supt. Grady Graves serving as judges. Names of students who qualified for the contest will be announced later.

Declamation entries are divided into two divisions: the juniors and the seniors which include juniors and seniors. Declamations are chosen according to division and league qualifications.

THE ROVING EYE The silence of the halls was shattered Monday by the students of ole CHS talking over their Easter holidays.

She's engaged, she's lovely, she's—Mary Bergt. Ah! Yes! In the spring a young gal's fancy turns to things and rings, and Mary has a beautiful one!

Speaking of spring, one sure sign of it is the look on the seniors' faces. It's kind of amazing to realize that graduation is only about nine weeks away.

From Fort Sill comes a fellow to spend a week end in Crowell and escort Neva Lou Potts around town.

And from very special in Abilene came a very special someone to see Pat Hammonds.

I hear that the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom were quite a success. Couples seen there were Jimmy Rasberry and Tommie Meason, Mildred Tamplen and Charles Pittillo, Peggy Weaver and Donald Reynolds and Frankie Mabe and Bud Rader.

JUST A WISHIN . . . Melba and Layton wish that school would hurry and turn out. Wedding bells!

Bubba and Kildee wish Abilene wasn't so far away so they could visit Geraldine and Melba.

Wanza wishes April 3rd would roll along soon. Hubby, Dowal Parks, is coming home for a two-weeks furlough.

Helen Ribble wishes Jimmy McKibben could come home from Japan.

Joyce Ford wishes stamps would grow on trees, so that she could write her "fly boy" a letter twice a day instead of once.

Myra wishes May 4 would get here so that she can go to A&M to represent this area for Cotton Ball Duchess.

Martha wishes Bob would hurry and get to come home from the army.

Rosemary and Norma wish Vernon was closer to Crowell, so that they could see their fellows more often.

Cute Noma Kelly was seen with Joe Bill Sunday night. What is this leading to?

We hope that Jimmy Louis and Mary Alice will see eye to eye again soon. Good luck, kids.

Wonder why Doyle McNeese never dates the girls? Give them a chance, Doyle.

Break Up—Coy Payne and Virginia Tamplen.

Two new couples around CHS are James Hall and Jean Whitby and Ruth McRae and Wayne Shultz.

Marcia Kincaid and Ted Brown and Fay Black and Billy Johnson were together over the week end.

We're glad to see Jean Gamble and Jimmy Woods together again.

George Ann Davis has so many boy friends she can't make up her mind which one she likes the most.

Be prepared for anything in the next issue, kids. I don't know why, but be prepared for anything.

Cat's Tail. P. S.: The following ex-CHS students were seen in the halls Thursday and Monday: Rondyn Self, Billy Roy Cooper, Charles Bursley, Rouse Todd, F. L. Ballard, Billy Johnson, Baxter Gentry, J. P. Bartley, James Weathers. Welcome to CHS!

Miss Dorothy Pechacek and Mr. Henderson Wed Here Monday

The light of many candles formed the illumination for the wedding Monday night at eight o'clock, when Miss Dorothy Pechacek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Pechacek of Crowell, became the bride of Bobby Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Henderson of Quannah. The double ring vows were recited in the presence of the immediate families and close friends, with the Rev. Father Ed J. Shopka of Vernon officiating.

Large oriel windows in the Pechacek country home formed the background for the ceremony, with wrought iron candelabra holding tall white tapers and tall altar baskets of white gladioli, making a beautiful setting for the occasion. Burning tapers at vantage points with pink and white floral arrangements added further beauty to the reception suite.

CROWELL, TEXAS

Arthur Lee Henderson of Quannah, younger brother of the groom, lighted the candles as the strains of "A Perfect Day" were played with Mrs. A. G. Magee at the organ, who also accompanied Miss Ruth Ann Henderson, the groom's sister when she sang, "On This Day, O'beautiful Mother," and Gounod's "Ave Maria," immediately preceding the ceremony. Mrs. Magee also played Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus as the wedding party entered the nuptial space, and a muted rendition of "Traumerei" was played during the recitation of vows.

Mr. Pechacek gave his daughter in marriage. The bride's frock was an all white Jobern original ballerina length fashioned on princess lines, featuring cotton net with contrast bands of pique and net, with inset swirls on the skirt, and low scalloped neckline and fitted bodice.

The bride enhanced her costume with a tiny white hat, the halo brim covered with white flowers. White linen opera pumps and a Colonial bouquet of white roses, centered with an orchid, completed her attire. The traditional something old, new and blue was observed, and a coin in the bride's shoe was an 1854 cent piece, originally owned by Gen. Lew Wallace's bride, a great-great aunt of Mrs. Magee and loaned to the bride for the occasion.

Mrs. Warren Wilson of Vernon, sister of the bride and matron of honor, wore a ballerina length pink organdy frock, fashioned similarly to the bride's dress, with pink linen opera pumps. A circlet of pink buds adorned her hair and she carried a colonial bouquet of pink rosebuds.

James R. Henderson attended his brother as best man. Mrs. Pechacek, mother of the bride, wore a black Cirilo creation of crepe with rhinestone studdings. Her flowers were pink carnations. The groom's mother, Mrs. Henderson, chose to wear a lime green linen frock with rhinestone trim and a white carnation corsage.

During the reception following the ceremony, Mrs. Bob Wright of Vernon presided at the silver coffee service and Miss Toddie Ann Turner of Quannah cut the cake. Assisting in the dining room were Misses Irene Pechacek of Wichita Falls, sister of the bride, and Miss Mona Monroe of Quannah. Mrs. James R. Henderson of Quannah secured the signatures of the guests for the bride's book.

Silver appointments accented the Madris appointed table which was entered with an arrangement of pink roses in a footed silver bowl. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a garland of pink rosebuds with a cluster of the same buds and lacy greenery surrounding the base of the cake.

When the couple left on a short wedding trip, the bride wore a navy suit with navy and white accessories and an orchid corsage. The couple have established residence in Quannah, where they will live following their return. Mrs. Henderson is a graduate of Crowell High School and has been associated with the National Farm Loan organization for the past three years. Mr. Henderson graduated from Baylor University in Waco, and served in the Navy as lieutenant. He is associated in business with his father at Quannah.

Bill Bruce and Miss Betty Robinson Marry in Waco on March 16

The marriage of Bill Bruce of Waco, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bruce of Crowell, and Miss Betty Robinson, daughter of Mrs. Jessie Schmidt of Fort Worth, took place at 11 a. m. on Friday, March 16, in the chapel of Austin Avenue Methodist Church in Waco in the presence of relatives and a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce of Crowell were present for their son's wedding.

The chapel was appropriately decorated for the occasion with arrangements of white gladioli and greenery. The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. A. Norman Evans, pastor of the church. The bride wore, for the morning marriage, a suit of blue gabardine with which she wore brown accessories. She also wore an orchid corsage. Her matron of honor, a sister, Mrs. Charles Ross, of Fort Worth, wore a navy wool suit with black accessories.

Best man to the groom was Geo. Raborn of Waco. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce left, immediately following their marriage for a bridal trip to New Orleans, La. Upon their return, they established residence at 1411 N. 29th St., Waco. Mr. Bruce is night editor of the Waco Tribune News. He is a Crowell High School graduate of 1944. He attended the University of Texas for 3½ years, which period was interrupted by service in the U. S. Navy for 1 and one-half years. He was in the employ of the Temple Telegram in Temple for one year and has been in Waco for one year.

Mrs. Bruce is a graduate of a Fort Worth High School and of a business college. She is now a bookkeeper on the staff of the Waco Tribune News.

HENRY CIRCLE

Henry Circle members met at 4 p. m., March 26, at the church to start a new study, "The Christian's Vacation."

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mrs. Foster Davis. Members were told of the decision to buy the picture, Praying Hands, at a joint business meeting with the Pioneer Circle on March 19.

Mrs. Doyle Kenner opened the lesson with a short devotional based on the appropriate scripture, John 6:28, "What must we do, that we may work the works of God?" To complete the opening, circle members sang, "This Is My Father's World" and "Draw Thou My Soul."

Mrs. Kenner then presented the first chapter of the new study which was entitled, "My Work." She stressed the universal obligation to work, but it is not enough for a Christian to work. His labor must meet a need. It must contribute to the common good.

It was evidenced by the good crowd who attended in spite of the rain that the circle intends to meet the goal of the new study. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Youree on April 2, when Mrs. Earl Manard will present Chapter II, "My Income."
