

Common Sense

BY DR. JUNE M. COOK

We learn in grade school physiology that the body is made up of a bony framework enclosing organs, and controlled by the nervous system.

Peculiarly, many forget this fundamental fact, and as time goes on, and when sickness is present in our own bodies, we may think of the affected area as a lone structure in the body, rather than connected with the nervous system.

For example, in a case of heart trouble, the heart fails to function normally; consequently, symptoms of pain, shortness of breath, dizziness, etcetera, result. It is only common sense to locate the cause rather than to try to cure for the heart as a separate part of the body.

When one stops to think that the heart has a hook-up or nerve connection in two ways, one set of nerves act as an accelerator to speed up function and the other as an inhibitor to slow down function, it becomes clear why the "machine" must all be in perfect order to receive perfect results. How much better it is to restore the nerve supply for normal function. This example is true of every organ of the body.

It should be remembered that when any organ fails to receive its normal nerve supply from the brain through the nervous system, it will cease to function normally.

This, then is the basis for sickness or disease. Correct the cause through Chiropractic Adjustments and health is the natural result.

Money vs. Lives, Vital Question

"The debit side of the cancer ledger exceeds the credit by more than 150 fold," this observation by Mrs. A. G. Magee, county Cancer Crusade chairman, means that although cancer costs the family and society, on an average $10,000 for each cancer death, only $66 was given to the American Cancer Society last year for every cancer fatality.

Mrs. Magee issued the statement in connection with the Cancer Crusade, which is seeking $500 at its share of the national goal of $14,565,000 which is needed to maintain the American Cancer Society's programs of research, education and service.

"I believe that the amount given to fight cancer is unrealistic compared to the needs of cancer control," she said. "I also believe people will give more when they realize the extent of the cancer problem. Last year the public spent $404,000,000 for restaurant tips, while they gave $13,900,000 to the American Cancer Society. Americans spent $8,550,000,000 for intoxicants. Even the cost of nail polish, $18,825,000, exceeded the investment in cancer research education and service through the American Cancer Society."

"The cost of fighting cancer, along with everything else, is going up while funds for cancer con-rol are not keeping pace with mounting prices," commented the chairman.

"We need larger amounts of money every year just to maintain the same level of attack against cancer," stated Mrs. Magee. "The use of American Cancer Society funds ranges from such widely divergent as a penny pamphlet to a $250,000 research grant—and both might save lives."

She explained that there are cases on record of a person reading about cancer's danger signals in a pamphlet that was produced by the ACS at a cost of less than one cent. The reader had one of the symptoms, rushed to his doctor and was treated in time to save his life.

"We hope that everyone will realize that his or her gift is worthwhile," the chairman explained. "A single dollar will buy ten test tubes that are a necessary tool in cancer research. The same dollar might feed one mouse, used for experimental work in the laboratory, for more than eight months, along with many other uses for your dollar."

Directory of Texas Manufacturers Just Off the Press

Austin, Texas—The 1950 edition of the Directory of Texas Manufacturers, just off the press, includes descriptions of 9,800 manufacturing companies in the state. The 306-page book lists all these businesses, first by location, second by the products they make.

To safeguard the accuracy of Directory listings, the book was compiled by use of a new system, direct from electric-tabulation cards. This method of publication will also allow for more frequent revisions and more supplements to the Directory. The local Chamber of Commerce and other chambers throughout the state gave invaluable help in collecting data for the Directory.

Each firm in the Directory is listed by its exact name and address, followed by the names of officers of the company, type of organization, date of establishment, products made, distribution area, number of employees, and home office location if it is a branch plant.

The Directory will be useful to all business, especially to advertisers compiling mailing lists and to manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers who want information on resources, transportation, the labor market, population trends, and competing companies as well as those whose products may serve them.

The Directory of Texas Manufacturers is now available at a price of $3.50 from the Bureau of Business Research, University of Texas, Austin.

Health Letter

Texas State Department of Health, Austin, Texas, Geo. W. Cox, M. D., State Health Officer.

Austin—"It is a well known fact that typhoid fever may result from the use of water, milk, or other food contaminated by bodily discharges of patients or carriers who harbor typhoid germs," stated Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"The fact that we know the source of infection and the means by which infection may be controlled, emphasizes the importance to all communities of providing water and milk of the highest quality."

"Texas is being host to many visitors this year, and all communities should put forth every effort to see that no epidemic occurs which will put an unnecessary blot on the health record of the state."

"Typhoid fever may be controlled by the use of pure water, pasteurized milk and clean foods, by the proper disposal of sewage, by screening homes against flies, by protecting food from contamination by flies, by destruction of the fly and its breeding places, by search for and care of carriers, and by antityphoid vaccination."

"Excreta from persons ill with typhoid should be carefully disinfected to prevent the germs from polluting the soil and thus being carried into streams or wells and contaminating the water supply. Where there is an efficient system of water purification, typhoid fever has greatly decreased."

"It is the responsibility of each community to establish adequate safeguards against the consumption of contaminated products at all times and in all places."

"It is the responsibility of each individual to further control the occurrence of typhoid fever by establishing immunity for himself by vaccination."

Weekly Sermon

A GUIDE INTO TRUTH

by M. Wilson McKenzie, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

"For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables" (II Tim. 4:2,3). Thus Paul the apostle described some whom he met in his missionary journeys. If he were alive today, he would also find individuals who "turn away their ears from the truth."

God has not left those of us who trust in Christ without a guide, however. That Guide is the Holy Spirit. Jesus spoke of Him as "the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him; but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you and shall be in you" (John 14:17), and "loveth when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth" (John 16:13).

Christ not only spoke of the Holy Spirit as a Guide, but also as a Comforter. "And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever" (John 14:16). The word Comforter comes from the Greek word Parakletos, one called alongside to help. "Certainly, God the Father has amply provided for our needs!"

On the day of Pentecost, as related in Acts 2, the Holy Spirit came as Jesus had promised, and all believers in Christ were indwelt with the Holy Spirit. As believers today, we can look to the Holy Spirit who indwells us with perfect confidence. He will help us to correctly interpret the Word of God, and discern that which is false or true in the teachings of men.

Only those who are born on the Spirit through faith in Christ as Saviour are indwelt by the Holy Spirit, however. Jesus said to Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit" (John 3:6), and summed up the whole matter of the new birth, or salvation, in this statement: "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16).

MINING INDUSTRIES USE NI-HARD

Substantial quantities of Ni-Hard, a white iron containing 2.5 to 4.75 per cent nickel, as well as chromium, were consumed in 1950 in the form of steel mill rolls and as abrasion-resisting castings for the iron, copper and nickel mining industries and the power and ceramic fields.

MILITARY OIL NEEDS HIGH

Military petroleum requirements are an important factor in total demand. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950, these requirements were estimated at 101,887,000 barrels. While considerably below those for 1945, they were more than eight times 1941 needs, which amounted to 12 million barrels.

Southwestern Life Issues Yearly Report

Texans, who like to tell their out-of-state friends about Texas "firsts," could add to the state's already fabulous reputation by reference to Southwestern Life Insurance Company's 48th annual report, recently distributed to policyowners. The booklet reveals that Southwestern Life:

1. Is the largest life insurance company in the United States that does business in only one state (Texas, naturally).

2. Ranks in the top eight per cent of the more than 600 legal reserve life insurance companies in the country from the standpoint of the amount of life insurance in force.

For the benefit of folks who think all dollars paid out by life insurance companies are related to the unhappy occurrence of death, there's a surprise in Southwestern Life's report. During 1950 more dollars were paid to living policyowners—in the form of maturities, cash values, annuities, disability benefits and other income payments—than were paid to beneficiaries of deceased policyowners. The former received $5,943,138 and the latter $4,346,418.

Southwestern Life also acknowledges the professional-like caliber of its agency force and its home office staff. There are now in the ranks of Southwestern Life more than one-fourth of the Chartered Life Underwriters in Texas.

And the Life Office Management Association, which directs a program of training for the home office personnel of a large number of life insurance companies, commended Southwestern Life during the past year as being the leading company in the United States in the matter of honors attained by members of its home office staff on completion of its course.

Southwestern Life is represented here by W. A. Simmonds.

H. D. Agent Tells How to Use Little-Known Spices in Cooking

Often the homemaker thumbs through her recipe book and glances at words such as "anise, caraway, coriander, cumin, and marjoram," only to wonder just what they mean and how they are used in cooking. Mrs. Mary D. Brown, Acting County Home Demonstration Agent, describes some of the less familiar herbs and tells what they should be used for.

For instance, anise, a widely cultivated plant in Europe, China and Mexico, is grown for the seed which are used for flavoring purposes. The seed are borne in umbels like those of carrots. When the seeds turn brown, the umbels are harvested and dried. The seeds are separated, cleaned and stored for later use. The seeds are used in cookies and candies. The fresh leaves are used in salads, especially caraway seed or fruit comes from a plant native to Europe and Asia, and is cultivated in many parts of the world. Mrs. Brown recommends adding a few caraway seeds to boiled cabbage, or potatoes when they are being cooked in their jackets. Potato salad, cream or cottage cheese, cookies, or bread are other foods which she believes this herb can improve.

Mrs. Brown describes coriander seed as flavoring and scenting agents. She says that the plants should be cut for seed when the fruits have turned brown. The pleasing flavor of coriander fruit is not thoroughly developed until it is completely dry. The seed is used in cookies and French dressing.

Cumin, the agent points out, is a small annual plant of the parsley family, widely cultivated in the Mediterranean area and in India. The mature seeds are used in certain kinds of breads, sausage, and cottage cheese. The ground seed are an important ingredient in chili and curry powders.

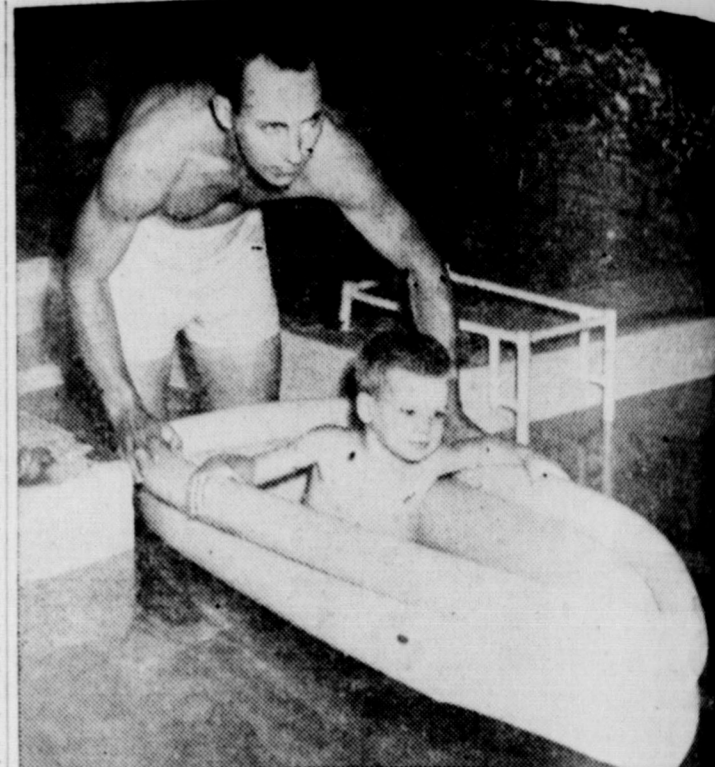

Marjoram comes in three species, Mrs. Brown says, the sweet, the pot and the wild. Sweet marjoram, because of its more delicate flavor, is most commonly found growing in gardens. The fresh leaves are used as needed during the season for flavoring. Sweet marjoram leaves, Mrs. Brown says, are good with veal and liver, in herb butter, on cold roast-beef sandwiches, in egg dishes and meat, and in poultry stuffings and soups. They also add new flavor to potato salad, creamed potatoes, and string beans. Pot and wild marjoram leaves are excellent for pot roasts.

Austin Highlights

(By Senator George Moffett)

Austin, Texas, April 28—It is likely that a good solid three-inch rain would do a lot more good at this time in Northwest Texas than any bill which will be passed by the Texas Legislature. However, about 1,100 bills have been introduced at this session, some good and some bad. Not nearly all will pass and the duty of the 181 members of the Legislature is to screen out the worthwhile bills and send them to the Governor's office. This screening process brings on endless argument because there is difference of opinion as to what constitutes a good or bad bill. We do make some mistakes. However, when the final roll call is made on the last day of the session, it can usually be said that we have not made as many mistakes as we had an opportunity to do.

And it is generally conceded by those who visit other Legislatures that the State of Texas turns out a legislative product which is better than that of states which join the Lone Star State. For instance, each state around us has both a state income tax and a state general sales tax, Texas has neither. The people of our state pay only a federal income tax, and I doubt that we will have either a state general sales tax or a state income tax in Texas at any time in the near future. The Texas Legislature has invited General MacArthur to address us in joint session. He has not yet accepted, but we sincerely hope that he will do so.

This present session will probably adjourn about mid-May. Important bills will be discussed in a later article.

YOUTH WEEK . . .

The game between the colored and white, also an exciting game, was won by the white with a score of 9 to 3.

The golf tournament was played Thursday afternoon. The winners were: senior division: Jon Sanders, 1st; Bill Pruitt, 2nd; Joe Pruitt, 3rd. Junior division: Henry Earl Pruitt, 1st; Billy Rader, 2nd; Gordon Graves, 3rd.

Because of conflicting events, the kite contest did not have many entries. However, there were four ribbons issued. For the best performing kite, Nickle Chatfield won first and Louis Sprague was second. The best looking and best constructed kite was that of Mary Lynn Graham and the second place ribbon went to Mark Harris.

Tennis matches were played off all during last week. Doubles teams which placed were: Boys, 1st, Glyndon Johnson and Billy Abston; 2nd, Thurston Edgin and Glen Jones; 3rd, Ginger Johnson and Ray Whitley. Girls: 1st, Eva Rae Geaslin and Bobbie Jean Spears;

One Day for Mom
 Out of the 365 days of the year we pick one to pay our respects to Mom. We bring her candy, flowers and perfume, and try to show her in one day what we feel during the rest of the year.
 The fact that Mom is usually left to clean up the mess the next day doesn't detract from the beauty of Mother's Day. For in this one day we've done our best to show her just how wonderful and dear she is.

It's the only new-type engine in any "new car"!

Chrysler FirePower Finest engine ever put in an automobile

180 HORSEPOWER

The new Chrysler Hemispherical Combustion Chamber, heart of the finest car engine built today. In this dome-topped area, you see the only ideal combustion chamber . . . the only way to develop full combustion, full compression, full work and value from every drop of fuel!

With so many engines claiming newness . . . how can we call FirePower the only new type engine today? The answer's very simple, and one you ought to know before you invest in a car. The fact is that engine "improvements" happen every year . . . but a basically new motor car engine is a very rare thing. And FirePower is the most basic new development since Chrysler introduced high-compression in 1924!

To get to the heart of the matter, just go to the heart of the engine . . . the combustion chamber where the spark fires gas into power. Here Chrysler brings you something no car has had till now . . . a Hemispherical combustion chamber . . . the only perfect and ideal combustion chamber in any passenger car. Here the same amount of gasoline delivers you far more energy than it could in any other car. What this means to the man at FirePower's wheel is impossible to tell you till you take that wheel yourself. FirePower's 180 horsepower can outperform any other engine on the road, even on regular grade gas.

Remember, too, that Chrysler now offers the wondrous road-ease of new Oriflow shock absorbers with twice the shock-absorbing power of any others . . . and the exclusive safety and delight of Hydraguide power steering* which takes four-fifths of the work out of steering! You can learn for yourself how Chrysler has changed your motoring life by seeing your Chrysler dealer now!

CARD OF THANKS

For every consideration shown me and for all patronage given while I operated the Round-up Cafe in Crowell, I would like to say a sincere, "Thank you."

Margaret Jefferson.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express thanks to the many friends and loved ones who helped in any way during my recent illness. Memories of your cards and flowers, your kind words and deeds, will always be cherished.

Mrs. W. A. Traweek.

CARD OF THANKS

We extend at this time our sincere appreciation to our many friends and neighbors who have been so infinitely kind during the illness and at the death of our mother and grandmother, Mrs. J. R. Flesher.

We are grateful for the beautiful flowers given, the delicious food contributed, each step taken for our comfort, each kind word spoken and the cards of sympathy. Such tokens of friendship mean so much in hours of sorrow and have lightened our burden of grief. May God bless each of you.

TEEN-AGERS NEED SOME WHOLESOME NEGLECT, ALONG WITH OTHER THINGS

This article gives opinions expressed by the editorial staff of the "Saturday Evening Post" and are not those of the Wildcat Staff. We believe this article will arouse thought, however.

One needn't read many biographies of successful men to wonder whether the average middle-class American teen-ager isn't being stunted with too much attention. Many of these embryonic citizens may become permanent adolescents because their parents won't let them grow up. If lives of great men remind us of anything, it is that young people require a little wholesome neglect.

A century ago boys and girls of sixteen were supposed to be mature enough for marriage and other adult responsibilities. Why, then, does the modern teen-ager remain so long a juvenile? The answer or one answer at any rate, could be that modern parents need more vision, and the teen-agers less supervision. The young undoubtedly need guides in living, but not guards. The very expression "supervised play" is repulsive enough to give the idea. Adolescents need time out for some aimless starting off into space. Particularly important in this period of perpetual distractions is a quiet time to collect their thoughts and even day dream a little.

Contemporary parents, also victims of the leap-to-live system, have a hard time accepting the idea that their nearly full grown teen-agers are responsible individuals, entitled to use their own ingenuity within the framework of home or community rules. Since most modern adults have also been misreared from childhood, they fear like the plague any free, unplanned moment for inner growth or decision. And although adults often complain bitterly of the tension of the times, they seldom try to relieve their children from the same nervous pressure. On the contrary, they conspire with educators and community planners to keep their offspring too busy with "projects" to initiate anything on their own. If the planned schedule lags for a brief span, television, movies, radio and records fill in the gap. Thus narcotized, the teen-ager has a struggle finding time to think creatively for himself, or to read just for the sake of reading, or to question his own vague inclinations.

If young people were not able to survive almost any experience, the sensitive teen-ager might well acquire an acute case of mental indigestion from the chop suey of daily events. He or she might well become a "problem child" or even a delinquent. If he goes to college, he has to take a year to accustom himself to habits of organizing his own time and acting in general as an individual instead of a mere fraction of a community. Fortunately, youth has shown as much imperviousness to over-attentive adults as to neglect. But does upbringing have to be something to recover from?

CROWELL PLACES THIRD IN ANNUAL STATE DRAMA MEET IN AUSTIN

Crowell's cast for "Special Guest," by Donald Elser, brought new esteem to CHS by placing third in the Annual State One-Act Play Contest of the Texas University Interscholastic League on May 4. Individual honors went to Betty Barker, who was placed on the all-star cast, and Billy Johnson, who received honorable mention.

The Crowell stage troopers left for Austin Wednesday at 4 p. m., stayed overnight in Brownwood, and attained their destination, The Kinman Courts, at noon Thursday. Thursday afternoon provided time for registration. The cast gained information on rehearsal and performance times, the general rules of the contest, and watched AA performances.

Conference A contestants were scheduled for rehearsals Friday morning, Crowell's time being 9:50. The first session of actual performances began at 4 p. m. with Lampasas High School. Crowell dramatists rested quietly at the courts until 5:30, time to enter the dressing rooms and make-up for their all-important show. At 6:30, "Special Guest" was presented by arrangements with Rowless Peterson & Co. After successfully producing their play, the CHS students joined the audience to watch the remainder of contest plays.

The climax of the evening, with anxious participants awaiting the judges' decision, came around 10:30. Judges for the plays were Byrle Cass, assistant professor of drama, and B. Iden Payne, guest professor of drama. The judging panel was well-balanced, as the judges were of different schools of thought in their field. Both judges were excellent and fair in their decisions. These judges ranked the play first, second and third, with an all-star cast of 3 boys and 3 girls. Two boys and 2 girls won honorable mention.

For ranking first place, Cuero received a silver plaque for their play, "All My Sons." Second place winner, Floydada's "This Night Shall Pass," was awarded a certificate by the National Thespian Society as was third place winner, Crowell's production of "Special Guest."

Samuel French awarded silver plaques for the best actress and the best actor, both from the Cuero play. Gold medals were given the six members of the all-star cast. The National Thespian Society gave each winning play a year's subscription to the Thespian Dramatics Magazine.

Our play was praised very highly, especially by Mr. Cass. We received more compliments from the judges than did any other play. The fact that the loud chime of the Texas University rang all during our play was pointed out by the judge as very distracting. Criticism for the play, both adulatory and constructive, was as follows:

Mr. Cass: "The best selected cast of any play and the only play without a weak character. Excellent lighting, good diction, excellent make-up, technical side, excellent, good timing. Very good movement. Too much obvious line-pointing. Lack of perfection due to undeveloped stage practice."

Mr. Payne: "Excellent use of all stage areas—best example in all the A plays. Should not have left Edward on stage during the entire play. Too much obvious line pointing. One scene actor should have played in a different spot."

Twenty-three plays represented AA, A and B schools. The 1951 meet was the largest drama festival ever to be held in Texas. This was a well-planned and well-conducted meet, directed by Bruce Roach.

The "Special Guest" cast, Billy Johnson, Jimmy Rankin, Marcia Kincaid, Don Gobin and Betty Barker; their director, Mrs. Elmo Todd; and student workers—Maurine Youree, Thurston Edgin, Robert Brock, V. A. Smith, Wanda Jones, Rebecca Calvin and Ann Haynie wish to thank Mrs. Merl Kincaid for transportation to Austin and Elmo Todd for his work and time. Special thanks go to the school board for the contribution which covered gasoline and lodging for the meet as well as supper after the play. The students also wish to thank teachers who permitted class members to miss classes several times in order to practice.

We are proud of the CHS dramatists and the work they have done. We realize that the play cost work, time, money and giving up many social activities. We take our hats off to you.

BOBBIE ABSTON, MARY ALICE RADER SENIOR SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Bobbie Abston and Mary Rader triumphed over five other straight A pupils for the scholarships given to the two students of the highest scholastic rank in the senior class.

Bobbie's achievements include three years in the band as solo clarinetist, co-editor for the Wildcat, typist for the Roundup, selected as Who's Who, football queen for 50-51, elected city secretary for Youth Week, and two years in the pep squad. Her average, 93.81.

Mary Alice, first clarinetist in the band, is proof reader for the Wildcat, senior representative for the Youth Student Council, typist for the Roundup, was band captain 49-50, and a member of the Pep Squad 47-48, and 48-49. Her average, 93.25.

Ann Haynie came in third for the girl's competition. She is an officer in the FHA, vice president of the Dramatics Club, co-editor of the Roundup, and was selected as Who's Who. Her average, 92.59.

Betty Barker, another student of Crowell High, is a member of the FHA, parliamentarian for the Dramatics Club, a Thespian, is co-editor of the Wildcat, was selected Who's Who, photography editor of the annual, school favorite, volley ball captain, class reporter, cheer leader 4 years, football queen 48-49, served in the band 2 years, won first place as regional actress, and was selected a member of the all-star cast at state. Her average 92.22.

Peggy Traweck, another product of CHS, is a member of the FHA and Pep Squad. Her grades averaged 91.84.

Wanza Spears Parks is a member of the FHA, Pep Squad, social reporter of the Wildcat staff. Her average was 91.2.

We feel that Frankie Mabe deserves honorable mention for having an average of 89.64. Frankie is a member of the Wildcat Band, serving as lieutenant. She is active in all extra-curricular activities.

Gordon Wood Bell holds the highest average, 86.7, for senior boys. He was elected a member of Who's Who, vice president of his class his junior year, lettered in football and basketball four years, track III and IV and served as officer of FFA.

BLACK AND WOODS REPRESENT FHA AT STATE CONVENTION

The two girls in the Crowell FHA chapter that won the trip to the annual state meeting of the Texas Association of Future Homemakers of America at Fort Worth May 3-5 by earning fourth and fifth place in the number of points were Faye Black and Mary Lou Woods. Jean Hughston, Marcia Kincaid and Rosemary Moss, who held the first, second and third places, were unable to attend.

The two girls and Mrs. Doyle Kenner left Crowell Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock and arrived in Fort Worth at 6:40. They registered for a two-night stay at the Elk's Club. At the Texas Hotel, Faye and Mary Lou registered as the two delegates from the Crowell chapter and received their badges of identification.

At 7:30 Thursday evening, Mrs. Kenner and the girls attended Stunt Nite held in the Texas Hotel. There they enjoyed all sorts of singing and guessing games and magic tricks. Two girls from TSCW were the leaders of the games. After the games they saw the movie, "Lullaby of Broadway."

Nine o'clock Friday morning found them at the Will Rogers Memorial Auditorium for the first general session. A hand concert by the Arlington High School band, group singing led by area song leaders, and the usual opening ceremony marked the first activities of the session. Following this was the FHA prayer song and color guard in which two girls and boys carried the United Nations (Continued on page 9)

Miss Myra Don Self, a resident of Thalia and CHS student, was chosen by the Northwest Texas A&M Club for its representative at the 17th annual Cotton Pageant and Ball.

A TSCW freshman, Wanda Harris, was crowned queen at the Cotton Pageant and the chosen King was A&M senior, Ray Keenze. Duchesses representing 163 clubs were presented at the pageant, one of which was Myra.

The 48-foot stage was decorated with 600 yards of silver, green, and white cloth in the form of a royal tent. Topping the stage was a silver "75" enclosed in a silver wreath, which signified the 75th anniversary of the college. Seventy-five candles that were four feet high further carried out the anniversary theme. The backdrop was of silver glitter with a 7-foot cotton stalk in the center. The throne of the king and queen was on each side.

For her presentation, Myra wore a white lace ballerina gown studded with silver sparkles. Silver ballerinas complimented the gown and a corsage of orchids was presented to her by the Northwest Texas Club.

Myra attended the Cotton Ball at "The Grove," an open-air night spot, escorted by Rouse Todd, A. & M. freshman.

CHS was proud to have one of its students chosen for this honor.

SENIORS ARE ISSUED CAPS AND GOWNS

Can you imagine Bubba Bell wearing a graduation gown that strikes him above the knees or Ruth McRae wearing a gown that sweeps the floor? Thus was the situation when the caps and gowns were issued to the seniors Thursday morning.

This mix-up, of course, was cleared up by many of the students desiring to exchange gowns.

Such remarks as "I thought I'd never wear one," "Gee, this is sad," and "Thank heavens" were heard throughout the typing room as the seniors donned the familiar gray robes.

The matching caps with shiny gray tassels were fitted and the white collars were presented to the girls.

Henry Black asked that all the gowns be the same length, about seven inches from the floor.

Hurry back to Crowell, Fred. CHS students are hoping for your speedy recovery and will be writing to you often.

FRED IS IMPROVING

We're glad to hear that Fred Barker, who is now in a Dallas hospital, is improving each day. His address is Room 357, Parkland Hospital, Dallas, Texas.

flag, United States flag and the Texas flag and the FHA flag and placed them on the stage to preside over the remainder of the meeting.

Mr. J. P. Moore, superintendent of the Fort Worth schools, gave the greetings. Then Ruthy Gripon, president of the Texas FHA, from Lampasas, and Rosalyn Wilson, first vice president from Coleman told of their trip to the Mid-Century White House Conference on Children and Youth which met at Washington, D. C., Dec. 3-7.

Rev. Walter K. Kerr, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Kerrville, gave the principal address on "Youth in Today's Democracy." Rev. Kerr stated that we can do little about our environment and very little about our heredity, but we can do something about our response to it.

At 1:30 the meeting began its second general session with the emblem ceremony. Each section of the octagon shaped the emblem of the FHA organization was placed one by one and each was explained. A string ensemble then entertained the audience.

Members of the FHA from the Philippines, Germany, Latvia, Japan and Sweden told something of their native countries and their experiences of attending college here in the United States. The girls especially enjoyed the talk of the girl from the Philippines. Some had such an accent that they could hardly be understood. The girl from Latvia already loved the United States so well that she was hoping to bring her mother and father over to live in the states very soon.

At 9:30 the Saturday morning meeting was called to session. Reports and the installation of the new state officers constituted most of this meeting. At the closing ceremony, Ruthy Gripon, state president, told of the trips she had made to the various FHA meetings over the country by reading the letters she had written to her parents about her experiences.

There were 2898 girls at the convention, 500 of whom were delegates. The next state meeting is scheduled to meet at Houston.

BLOND HAIR BARBARA WHITE PLANS TO BE OFFICE WORKER

Has anyone else noticed that strawberry blond tripping through town with a green and white invoice in her hand? Barbara Ann White collects Miller & Miller freight bills for her father on Saturdays.

Barbara, senior of the week, is a blue-eyed girl whose favorite pastime is running 'round, and her hobby is collecting miniature cups and saucers.

"Crowell is the only school I've ever attended, and I think it's swell," said Barbara. After her graduation she plans to attend Midwestern where she will major in business administration and minor in music. Her ambition is to be an office worker.

Five feet and one inch tall, Barbara enjoys a meal of fried chicken. The dominant color of her wardrobe is blue, her favorite color. Typing is Barbara's favorite subject.

Barbara has been active in extra-curricular activities. Being a member of the pep squad for a year, she is also solo flat sax player in the Wildcat band.

JOY ANXIOUSLY AWAITS GALVESTON TRIP

Joyzell Thomson, more widely known as just "Joy," is another lucky 18 year old senior who is looking forward to Galveston and graduation.

Like most people she has a yen for western movies, war stories, and those with a tendency toward the more romantic adventures. William Holden and June Allyson rank first on Joy's list of favorites as well as fried chicken, strawberry ice cream, Bing Crosby, and her pal, Peggy Weaver.

Now that the summer season is right around the next corner, Joy can be found at the nearest swimming pool practicing her diving form or just soaking in the sun.

Because of her interest in girls' athletics, Joy would like to become a volley ball coach. That's only a secret ambition though, for she plans to attend a business school either at Abilene or Wichita Falls after graduation. Volley ball coach or secretary, we wish you the best of luck!

VIRGINIA LIKES HILLBILLY MUSIC, FRIED CHICKEN AND SPORTS

Who is she? Why that's Virginia McKown, who really doesn't look big enough to be all of eighteen and a soon-to-be graduate of Crowell High.

Virginia with her lovely disposition and an infectious giggle, has a lot of friends, and they all feel the same way about hillbilly music. That is, they love it! Her favorite at present is "I Want to Be with You Always" usually sung by Lefty Frizzel but Virginia would much rather have Thad sing it to her in person.

Like a true Texan, Virginia thinks the world of fried chicken and dewberry pie. And, like a woman, her favorite actor is naturally Guy Madison with Elizabeth Taylor in the feminine role.

Virginia has a million hobbies, such as swimming, and playing tennis and should make some lucky man a wonderful mate with her unusual ability to sew and crochet.

After graduation day, Virginia has made arrangements to enter a business college in Wichita Falls. The best of luck to this week's senior personality.

WILDCAT PURRS

What would CHS be like if: Bobbie Abston and Jon Sanders, Posey Autry and Martin Langham ever broke up? Ah been seen!

Lots of CHS students waiting in line to see "Hamlet." Cute Betty Barker and Buster Laquey strolling down the halls together.
