Keep Down Weeds
A practical method of killing the aphid in infested cotton is not known, but in this case farmers should adopt a rigorous clean culture so that weeds may be kept down in and around the fields. This will help to prevent the aphid from spreading.

The wingless louse is dark, varying to yellow. Its legs are light yellow, and its honey tubes are black, long, and tapering. Its length is one-fifteenth of an inch. The young stages are similar, but are smaller and wingless. Winged individuals are developed whenever the lice are compelled, through lack of food or removal of a crop, to seek new feeding ground. Consequently attack may come on suddenly and unexpectedly.

Control for Gardens
When found in garden crops, the lice may be killed by spraying with tobacco extract or five per cent kerosene emulsion. Fumigation with carbon bisulphide will destroy them, using an inverted tub as a fumigating chamber. The cotton aphid is usually seen in wingless form, and works for the most part on the undersurface of the leaf, which is badly curled by its attack. Tender growing shoots are a favorite feeding place.

ROBERTS, SNODY IN RACE FOR STATE OFFICE

O'Daniel Given Large Majority in Foard; Wins Nomination

In the first Democratic primary election held Saturday, all of the county officials were re-elected to office. One county commissioner was defeated and another elected without opposition. Run-offs will be held in the remaining two precincts.

County Judge Race
In the closest county race this year, Claude Callaway was re-elected to office over his opponent, Leslie Thomas, with a very small majority. With complete results reported from eleven of the 12 boxes in the county, the votes for the two candidates were nearly deadlocked, but the last box, Rayland, to be reported, gave Callaway a margin of 36 votes to give him a 26-vote majority. Thomas carried all of the Crowell boxes and the east Thalia and Black boxes, but Callaway polled enough votes in the remaining six boxes to again become the county judge of Foard County. Votes cast in the county judge's race are as follows: Callaway, 803; Thomas, 777.

Sheriff Re-Elected
Amos W. Lilly received one of the largest majorities probably ever before polled by a sheriff seeking office in Foard County. Lilly received 1,108 votes and his opponent, Howard Bursey, received 464. Lilly carried all of the twelve boxes in Foard County.

Curtis Re-Elected
Miss Margaret Curtis was also given a majority by Foard County voters in her re-election to the office of county treasurer. Miss Curtis polled 878 votes to 682 votes for her opponent, Mrs. Ruth Marks.

J. A. Stovall and Foster Davis were re-elected to the offices of county and district clerk and county attorney, respectively, without opposition.

Roberts Leads
Grady Roberts, Munday newspaper editor and publisher, lead his two opponents in the race for representative of the 114th district. In the four counties comprising this district, Foard, Knox, King and Hardeman Counties, Roberts received nearly as many votes as his opponents, B. W. Snody and J. S. Kendall, lacking only 469 votes receiving the nomination in the first primary.

Results in this race follow: Roberts, 3,311; Snody, 2,515; Kendall, 1,200. County results were: Foard—Roberts, 687; Snody, 535; Kendall, 143. Knox—Roberts, 1,104; Snody, 805; Kendall, 716; King—Roberts, 151; Snody, 88; Kendall, 87. Hardeman—Roberts, 1,369; Snody, 1,087; Kendall, 254.

Moffett Carried County
George Moffett of Chillicothe was given an 876-vote majority in this county in the 23rd senatorial district race. Charles H. Tennyson of Wichita Falls, the other candidate in the race, received 305, as compared with Moffett's 1,818 votes.

Moffett was nominated to the State Senate from this district with 16,355 votes from the nine counties. A total of 12,645 votes were polled for Tennyson.

Moffett has served Foard County as State Representative for the past six years and this is the first time that he had sought a promotion.

Foard Favored Gossett
Foard County voters favored Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls over the incumbent, W. D. McFarlane of Graham, as was shown by a near 2 to 1 majority vote received by Gossett in this county. County results in this race were: Gossett, 920; McFarlane, 466; K. C. Spell, 103; C. L. Somerville, 5. This is the second time that Gossett has carried Foard County over McFarlane in a primary election.

Gossett led the field of four candidates in the district by a near majority. His total district vote was 28,813 and the second highest candidate, which was McFarlane, polled 26,199. Spell and Somerville ran third and fourth with 3,509 and 768 votes, respectively. Gossett lacked only a little over 1,600 votes receiving the nomination without a run-off.

Fellow Citizens of the 13th Congressional District: I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the splendid support you gave me in the first primary, last Saturday, July 23rd. I recognize what you all know, that the campaign just ended has been actively waged by my opponent since January 1, while I was detained in Washington, looking after your interests until after the adjournment of Congress, June 18th. As you know I have had a great sorrow and have had the care of my five little children in addition to the duties of my office which has kept me from thinking about this contest until after my return home. Now, we face the run-off on more equal terms. I promise you that I will use every effort to vindicate and uphold the principles of fairness in the run-off campaign and that we will demonstrate and uphold the principles of good government. I trust and believe that each of you, regardless of your former alliance, will be interested to know from the record that truthfulness, justice and honesty prevail. I greatly appreciate your friendly co-operation and support in the past and hope that you will continue the good work. Sincerely yours, W. D. McFarlane (Political Advertisement)

To the People of Foard County:

I want to thank the people of Foard County for the splendid vote given me in last week's Democratic Primary. It helped me to lead the ticket by almost 3,000 votes, and gives me courage and inspiration for a run-off campaign that I know we will win.

In the second primary of 1936 I carried 8 out of 15 counties. In this primary I have carried at least 11 counties in incomplete returns.

I have only the kindest feeling and regard for those who did not support me in the first primary, and want to solicit their support and influence in the second primary.

I will make a thorough and aggressive campaign, in which I will discuss what seems to me to be important issues of Government—explaining what I think to be a constructive platform for service of the people.

Require all who prepare the food for use to wash their hands thoroughly before handling it. Avoid excessive hand contacts with the food. See that clean containers are used and that special care is exercised in wrapping foods and in protecting them from contamination.

"If food must be prepared much in advance of use, cook it thoroughly, keep it refrigerated and otherwise protected at a temperature under 50 degrees F. until you are ready to use it. Avoid serving foods that are readily infected, such as certain salads, and cream-filled pastries. Any foods that are not to be served immediately should be kept on ice. Milk, ice cream and dairy products in general should be from approved sources.

"Digestive upsets cannot always be blamed on the food served or eaten at an outing. Sometimes excessive heat and humidity combined with over-exertion and over-heating, as well as over-eating, help to bring them about. Remember this and don't indulge in too strenuous exercise when the days are hot and muggy. Don't over-indulge, either, in unwise combinations of foods."

road who seems to violate the rules of or infringe on his pride, must be disciplined with inner anger and perhaps with downright discourtesy and cursing. Of course, he may cause no accident. He may leave the death and injury toll where he found it. But the resultant turmoil has a price — and he will pay it, in frayed nerves, in an overworked heart.

O. Henry Home in Austin Is State Shrine
The modest four-room cottage that housed William Sidney Porter (O'Henry) when the young man was then unknown to fame and employed in the general land office, has been converted into a museum by admirers of the world's greatest short story writer, and is already a state shrine.

The city of Austin keeps a capable curator in charge and this interesting museum now draws visitors from all parts of the world. The payrolls of the land office during the '90s, when Porter was employed as a mechanical draftsman, is kept in easy access for the many interested visitors to this department by the present land commissioner, William H. McDonald.

Four Students of University Scale Heights
In the spring of '37 four young Texans finished working their way through the state university, received their law degrees, and went their separate ways.

Less than 30 years later these four bosom friends were serving simultaneously as senior senator from Texas, junior senator from Texas, governor of Texas, and attorney-general of Texas.

The four, in the order named, were: Morris Sheppard, Tom Connally, Pat M. Neff and Walter A. Keeling.

Princely Land Grants Handed The Railroads

Some commentators now bemoan the fact that three million acres of land were given in exchange for our state capitol, and due to the fact that these lands are now valued roughly at a hundred million dollars, we thus have the costliest capitol building in the world.

But records show that thirteen times as much land was given to Texas railroads to hasten railway construction. That prior to 1892 exactly 38,826,880 acres of the public domain had been so awarded.

Thus, a billion-dollar land bounty was handed to our railroads by the people of Texas, on a proverbial silver platter.

RATS AND MICE ARE CUNNING

Rats and mice are notoriously cunning, and many stories are told of their smartness in getting out of difficulties or adapting themselves to changed circumstances, says Tit-Bits Magazine. Rats, for example, have been known to turn themselves into living lories. They have actually been seen to turn on their backs and clutch with all four paws an egg that is too difficult to carry in the ordinary way, while a companion in crime drags them away from the scene of the robbery by the tail. This same tail has also been used to extract refreshment from otherwise burglar-proof bottles. It is hung down inside the neck, and after extraction its owner sits down and enjoys refreshment. Both mice and rats have been trained by electric shocks to find their way to the center of complicated mazes without a mistake.

The Golden Text is: "The Lord is good to all; and his tender mercies are over all his works" (Psalms 145:9).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God is not moved by the breath of praise to do more than He has already done, nor can the infinite do less than bestow all good, since He is unchanging wisdom and Love" (page 2).

Texas Suffers Great Economic Loss Yearly from Typhoid Fever

Austin—Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, estimates that the State of Texas suffers an economic loss of one-half million dollars annually from typhoid fever, a preventable disease.

Last year 378 Texans died of typhoid and approximately 4,000 were ill with the disease. The average duration of the illness is from six to eight weeks plus a convalescent period of about six weeks.

Early fall and late summer each year sees a tremendous increase in the prevalence of typhoid in Texas, due to vacation travel and the hazards brought to the local population by itinerant labor.

Typoid is particularly prevalent in those sections where there is seasonal employment bringing into the area great numbers of laborers who live in tents, shacks and trailers without adequate sanitation.

The local communities have the problem of dealing with this shifting population put squarely on their own shoulders. Insofar as is feasible, the itinerant population should be immunized against typhoid and should be made to conform with sanitary regulations.

Typoid fever can be controlled by the use of pure water, pasteurized milk or clean milk, clean foods, proper disposal of sewage, screening against the fly and destroying its breeding places.

In selecting a place for a vacation choose one where you know that the water and milk supply is pure. Be sure that the kitchen and dining room are screened to protect the food from flies.

Itage can only be possessed by those who have the courage, the persistence and faith in God and themselves, that, if they but do their part, God will do his part.

One-Minute Stories of 100 Texans

(By W. T. Carley)

Charles Goodnight

Colonel Goodnight was born March 9, 1826, three days after the signing of the Texas Declaration of Independence. From the cradle to the grave his strenuous life was the complete personification of the turbulent spirit of the old frontier.

At nine he was riding bareback from Illinois to Texas. At 13 was hunting with the Caddo Indians far beyond the frontier. At 20 was venturing into the cattle business. At 24 was an able-trusted guide for the hardy Texas Rangers. At 30 was blazing new cattle trails more than 2,000 miles in length. At 45 was completely dominating almost 20,000,000 acres of grazing lands in the interest of law and order. At 60 was the most scientific breeder of range cattle in the Golden West, and at 90, an international au-

ANNUAL REPORT U. S. FOREST SERVICE MADE

Much Progress Made in Shelterbelt Planting and Cultivation

The annual report of the Vernon District of the Prairie States Forestry Project for 1938 reveals that 648 acres of land was planted to shelterbelts and 309,100 trees of over twenty different species were planted to form forty-five miles of new shelterbelt in the four counties that compose the district—Wichita, Wilbarger, Hardeman and Foard. Other interesting information is contained in the report which was furnished by Thomas C. Croker Jr. of Vernon, junior forester.

The report in detail which represents work accomplished under the U. S. Forest Service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, follows:

"Eighteen hundred and ninety-nine acres of shelterbelts have been cultivated, an average of two times in order to assist landowners during spring planting season and in other cases of emergency. Most of the cultivation has consisted of hand-hoeing the trees.

Planting

"Six hundred and thirty-four acres of land was subdivided or reserved for planting during the last winter; six hundred and forty-eight acres of land was planted to shelterbelts; about one thousand acres of land was examined for its fitness for tree plantings and need for windbreak protection; 309,100 trees of over twenty different species were planted to form forty-five miles of new shelterbelt.

Re-Planting

"Twelve hundred and ten acres of trees were checked by replanting crews and 270,210 trees were used to replace losses on 1936 and 1937 strips.

Rodent Control

"Poison grain and salt were distributed for use in controlling jackrabbits, kangaroo rats and gophers on approximately 757 acres of land.

Seed Collection

"The Vernon District collected the following seed to be used in raising trees for next year: black locust, 90 lbs.; walnut, 1,946 lbs.; osage orange, 2,280 lbs.; jujube, 507 lbs.; hackberry, 821 lbs.; catalpa, 541 lbs.; desert willow, 188 lbs.

"Five hundred and eighty-three thousand tamarix seedlings were collected.

"Four and one-quarter miles of fence was constructed.

"Approximately 816 man months of labor was used to accomplish the above jobs."

LIBRARY NOTES

A new book, "Family Affair," by Nella Gardner White, has been added to the library this week. This is another novel of modern American family life, the sort that Mrs. White has excelled in since her first book. Her stories are made of homely things, the problems and the excitement that all American families know.

"Family Affair" deals with the mother-in-law and the first case of young love in the family circle. The heroine is a rare woman who knows the secret of making marriage invulnerable. The story is light, easy to read, and entertaining in its particular fashion.

ROTARY CLUB

The Crowell Rotary Club held its regular weekly meeting at O'Connell's Lunch Room Wednesday at noon. Guests for the meeting were Rev. W. B. Fitzgerald, Rev. J. Ralph Grant of Childress and Volus Norsworthy of Vernon. The program, in charge of Ernest King, included a piano number by Mr. Norsworthy and a talk by Rev. Grant.

Mr. Norsworthy and Rev. Grant are leading the revival meeting in progress at the First Baptist Church.

SHIPMENTS DECLINE IN MAY

Austin. — Livestock shipments to the Port Worth Stockyards and interstate points from Texas farms and ranches during May were moderately below those of the corresponding month last year, it is reported by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. The total of 10,308 cars represented a decline of 12 per cent from May, 1937.

Cattle shipments, 6,788 cars, declined 15 per cent from May last year; shipments of calves, 844 cars, declined 4 per cent; hog shipments, 615 cars, declined 1 per cent, and shipments of sheep, 2,061 cars, were down 6 per cent.

F. F. A. Boys—

Requirements for the Lone Star Farmer degree are based on individual achievement. A boy must be in the upper forty per cent of his entire class scholastically. He must be a leader, having held FFA offices. He must show that he is capable of making money as shown by his record book, which must be without error. He must be established in farming as shown by ownership of projects, and he must have secured at least three certificates of merit in various lines of FFA work. Only 2% of the state membership is eligible for this degree, and over 20,000 boys paid dues last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Todd and son, Gene, and Cecil Carroll attended also the convention. Mr. Todd was one of the ten committeemen to pass on the Lone Star Farmer applications. One adviser from each of the ten areas in Texas made up the official state committee. The three Crowell boys also acted as representatives from this school and district in the business session of the convention.

The El Paso Chamber of Commerce was host to the boys at a barbecue Friday afternoon and then sponsored a trip through Carlsbad Caverns Sunday. The Crowell group visited many interesting spots around El Paso and crossed the border into Old Mexico at Juarez to spend a few hours in a foreign country.

Primary--

(Continued from Page One) of Texas in one of the "wildest" primary elections in the history of Texas. O'Daniel is the first man ever to receive the nomination in the first primary in which he had been a candidate. He was given a majority of nearly 28,000 votes over a field of twelve aspirants. Nine hundred and thirty-one votes were cast for O'Daniel in this county and 613 votes were given to the gubernatorial candidates.

The unique campaign staged by O'Daniel from the top of the sound truck which he used in advertising his four business and featuring the music of his hillbilly band, and "lambasting professional politicians," attracted nationwide attention. Following the election, editorials in newspapers over the United States commented upon the sensational leap of O'Daniel from a flour broker to governor of Texas without going through the "promotion process." Several papers stated that apparently Texas was not out of the "wild and woolly" stage.

C. Y. Welch of Quanah was unopposed in his re-election campaign to the office of district judge. Jess Owens of Vernon was re-elected as district attorney without opposition.

Frank Moore again secured the office of public weigher of Precinct No. 1. He did not have an opponent this year. J. W. Klepper was also unopposed in the race for Justice of the Peace of Precinct No. 1.

Commissioner's Race
Frank Cates was re-elected as the commissioner of Precinct No. 1 without opposition. A. L. Davis defeated the present commissioner, A. W. Barker, for the Precinct No. 3 office by a vote of 143 to 128, or a majority of only 15 votes. Davis received nomination to this office by the large majority polled in the Good Creek box, his home community.

Run-offs are necessary in the remaining precinct races for county commissioners.
W. A. Dunn, incumbent, and E. G. Grimsley were given 288 and 164 votes to enter the run-off. Edgar Womack was a close third with 154 votes and E. M. Crosnoe was fourth with 103 votes.

Marr Withdraws
In Precinct No. 4, Hartley Easley and J. M. Marr were scheduled for a run-off, but Mr. Marr withdrew from the race Tuesday in favor of Mr. Easley. Easley received 180 votes, Marr 137 and Egbert Fish 62.

William F. Bradford defeated E. F. Dunn for public weigher of Precinct No. 3 by receiving 108 votes to 50 for Dunn.

Other State Offices

Other candidates in the state races who carried Foard County and the offices they ran for follow: Nelson, lieutenant governor; Woodul, attorney general; Terrell, railroad commissioner; Sheppard, comptroller; McDonald, commissioner of general land office; Lockhart, state treasurer; Woods, superintendent of public instruction; Westfall, commissioner of agriculture.

County Chairmen

Henry Black was appointed to the office of county chairman last week to fill the vacancy made upon the resignation of A. R. Sanders.

Precinct chairmen elected Saturday follow: Jack Roberts, No. 4; Marion Crowell, No. 5; Joe L. Orr, No. 6; J. F. Matthews, No. 8; E. V. Halbert, No. 10; R. S. Haskew and Ben Easley will be in the run-off in No. 11; H. D. Lawson, No. 12.

The remaining precinct chairmen will be appointed at a later date.

Early Ohio Auditor Assisted

When the clerical work of the Ohio state auditor's office had grown to such an extent by 1898 that it was felt the auditor could not handle all the bookkeeping by himself an appropriation was made to hire a clerk to assist him.

Aspirants' Final Plea Heard Here Thursday Night

The final candidate speaking in Foard County before the first Democratic primary election was held on the west side of the court house in Crowell Friday night of last week. Prior to the main speaking, George Moffett of Chillicothe spoke in behalf of his candidacy for State Senate.

Following Moffett's speech, Judge Bert King of Wichita Falls gave a talk in behalf of Ernest O. Thompson of Amarillo, candidate for the governorship of Texas. The sound equipment loaned by the Ernest O. Thompson headquarters in Wichita Falls was used to broadcast the speeches of the office aspirants to the large crowd on the lawn and in the cars which lined the curb of the court house square.

J. B. McNeil of Wichita Falls also spoke briefly for Charles H. Tennyson of Wichita Falls, candidate for State Senator.

R. D. Oswalt of Crowell acted as master of ceremonies at the speaking, introducing the candidates and keeping time during their talks. Each candidate was given a limited time to make his plea to the voters of Foard County.

C. Y. Welch of Quanah and Jesse Owens of Vernon, unopposed in their campaigns for re-election to the offices of district judge and district attorney, respectively, made short talks of appreciation to voters for their support.

County Offices

In the order of the offices as they appeared on the official ballot, the candidates spoke. Claude Callaway was the first speaker and was followed by Leslie Leslie Thomas. Both were candidates for the office of county judge.

And J. A. Stovall, county and district clerk, who were candidates for re-election without opposition, made short talks.

In the following order the candidates for sheriff, tax assessor, collector spoke: Amos W. Lilly and Howard Bursey.
Miss Margaret Curtis and Mrs. Ruth Marts spoke in behalf of their candidacies for county treasurer.

Congressmen

All three candidates for congress either spoke or were represented Friday night. Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls spoke in behalf of his candidacy. The second speaker was True Strong who represented W. D. McFarlane. The third and last congressional candidate to talk was K C Spell of Wichita Falls.

State Representatives

All three of the candidates for state representative of the 14th district took part on the program, and the order in which they spoke is as follows: Grady Roberts of Munday, J. S. Kendall of Munday, and B. W. Stody of Benjamin.

Commissioners

Frank Cates, who was unopposed for commissioner of precinct No. 1, talked briefly. His talk was followed by Edgar Womack, W. A. Dunn, E. G. Grimsley and E. M. Crosnoe, aspirants to the office of precinct No. 2 commissioner.

The commissioner of precinct No. 3 candidates, A. L. Davis and A. W. Barker, spoke and were followed by the seekers of the office of commissioner of precinct No. 4, Egbert Fish, Hartley Easley and J. M. Marr.

Frank Moore, unopposed candidate for public weigher of precinct No. 1, made a short speech.

TO the VOTERS of Precinct No. 4
and Foard County:
I want to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of you for the co-operation that you have given me for the past 3 1/2 years as your commissioner, and the support you gave me in my campaigns for this office.
Since my friend and neighbor, Hartley Easley, has received a larger vote than I did in the primary election last Saturday, I have decided that it is the best interest of my community and Foard County for me to withdraw from the race.
Therefore, I am asking the county executive committee to leave my name off the ticket, and I want to assure Mr. Easley that I will be glad to co-operate with him in making the best commissioner possible for my precinct. I also want the people of Precinct No. 4 and Foard County to know that I will do my best as your servant until Jan. 1, and then you will find me in the future, as in the past, willing to do everything that I can for the upbuilding of my community.
