Second Issue Petition for County Hospital Is Being Circulated

WOULD ISSUE CARRY, A NEW $25,000.00 COUNTY HOSPITAL WILL BE BUILT IN CROWELL

A petition calling for a bond issue to raise $12,500.00 for construction of a $25,000.00 county general hospital is being circulated in the county.

A sufficient number of copies, of which there must be 120 resident property owners, have signed the petition and it will be presented to the commissioners' court to pass upon and call an election. It is expected to present the petition next Monday, Sept. 26, and should be passed an election called to be held thirty days later, which would be on or about the week of October 24.

The bond issue carries, it is estimated, that Foard County will have a modern hospital cost between $25,000.00 and $30,000.00. Of the sum to be raised the county, about $7,500.00 will be used to match WPA funds for the construction of the building and the remaining $5,000.00 will be used for fixtures and equipment.

Rev. O. L. Savage Resigns As Pastor of Coleman Church

Rev. O. L. Savage, who has been pastor of the First Baptist Church in Coleman since leaving Crowell nearly four years ago, has resigned to attend school at the State University, according to a news item in the Coleman Democrat-Voice. He and Mrs. Savage entered the State University at Austin Sept. 21.

Crowell Boy Elected President of Vernon FFA District at Meet

James Welch, Crowell F. F. A. boy, was elected president of the Vernon FFA district at a meeting of the FFA teachers and boys at Harrold Saturday, Sept. 17. James served as the district vice president last year. Kenneth Halbert, Crowell FFA boy, was also elected as district band leader.

James and Kenneth were two of the outstanding FFA students in the district last year and were recently awarded their Golden Star Farmer keys at El Paso.

Other officers elected were: Dillard Rose of Chillicothe, vice president; O. J. Cooper of Burk Burnett, secretary; Quinton Willburn of Harrold, reporter.

The FFA boys of the Vernon district outlined their aims for the 1938-39 term at the meeting. Chapter advisers decided to sponsor the following tournaments: poultry judging at Crowell, basketball at Quannah, volleyball at Harrold, soft ball at Chillicothe, meat judging at Vernon, milk judging at Burk Burnett, and leadership contest at Vernon. A field day for all district chapters will be held later in the year, at which time the conservation projects on Adams Creek near Vernon will be visited.

Small Tax Raise

Many citizens have consulted Judge Claude Callaway as to how much the bond issue would raise in the present tax rate. According to figures released by Callaway, the tax raise would be only four cents on every $100.00, or 40 cents per $1,000.

Judge Callaway stated that the bond issue would be approved by Foard County citizens, the issue would run for a period of ten years with a four per cent interest rate. Foard County had $500.00 on the bonds last year and $1,000.00 annually thereafter.

F. A. Chapter Holds First Meeting Tuesday, Sept. 20

The Crowell F. F. A. Chapter held its first 1938-39 meeting on Tuesday night, Sept. 20, at which newly elected officers were installed and objectives were set for the year.

Thirty boys and their parents, Marvin L. Myers, were present at this meeting which was held in the high school building.

Officers for the chapter for the year are: Edward Gafford, president; Cecil Carroll, vice president; Raymond Joy, secretary; James Halbert, treasurer; James Halbert, reporter.

These officers were elected in a class meeting on Sept. 19.

Committees for initiation of new hands into the chapter and entertainment for the next meeting were appointed. The next regular meeting will be held Tuesday night, Oct. 3.

$56,176.00 WPA GRANT HAS BEEN GIVEN CROWELL FOR CITY-WIDE STREET IMPROVEMENT PROJECT

Presidential approval of a Federal grant of $56,176.00 for a city-wide street improvement project for Crowell was announced Friday by A. T. Cromwell, Administrator, with the City of Crowell as sponsor.

The project of paving and curbing the property owner under the WPA set-up will be 50c per lineal foot for paving and 25c per lineal foot for curbing, making a total of 75c per lineal foot for both paving and curbing. This is approximately one-fifth of the cost of paving and curbing under normal conditions.

Much interest is being manifested in the street improvement project and it is expected that several residential streets will be paved and curbed under this program not only provides the property owners with an opportunity to get the work done at low cost, but it will furnish labor for WPA employees.

May Secure Cheap Paving

With the WPA grant of $56,176 for a city-wide street improvement program for the City of Crowell and the City Council ready to sponsor paving projects on the resident streets of Crowell, a rare opportunity is afforded property owners of Crowell to secure paving and curbing at a very low cost. This is no doubt an opportunity of a lifetime and it is hoped that everybody who lives on a street that efforts are being made to pave will take advantage of the chance to secure it at a most reasonable price.

The paving is badly needed, especially on streets running to the school buildings, and a special effort will be made to secure a paved street to these buildings in order that they may be reached during rainy weather without so much slipping and sliding.

Paved streets will enhance the value of property far in excess of the cost of the improvement under this program. If you are approached to sign up for street paving that touches your property consider it from the standpoint of real value to the property and at the same time lend encouragement to a program that will be of great benefit to the town. Not only that, but it will give employment to workers for which the appropriation of the money was intended.

A saving in the insurance rate for the city will also be effected when the residence streets are paved, we have been told.

NOCONA BOWS TO WILDCATS IN TILT, 27-0

Blocking of Crowell Boys Feature of Practice Game

Crowell High School's Wildcats dumped a much heavier Nocona Indian eleven 27 to 0 in a non-conference game at Nocona last Friday night in the Wildcat's second start of the season and the Indian's first.

Blocking Outstanding

The Crowell team gave a mid-season performance with each player turning in a brilliant game, but the blocking of Coach Grady Graves' cohorts was easily the outstanding feature of the game. The Crowell ball carriers were acclaimed for their ground-gaining runs, but a large portion of this praise must go to the blockers who made the runs possible. This point was clearly shown because all the ball carriers going over the goal line standing up.

Joy Scores Early

J. S. Owens, Wildcat fullback, took the opening kickoff on his own 25-yard mark and returned it to the 43. From that point the Wildcats staged a successful drive for the opening touchdown, featuring Raymond Joy, John Lee Orr and Que Meason. The ball was put in scoring position on the Nocona 10.

Five Calves in Four Years

Here's a "Believe It or Not" story told us this week by Richard Johnson, who lives in the sand seven or eight miles northeast of Crowell. Johnson has a 4-year-old Jersey cow on his farm that has had five calves, having two sets of twins within twelve months, and all the calves are living and healthy and normal. What a cow?

This cow is not only good for calf production, but is a good milk cow and her milk is rich in butter fat.

WILDCAT GRID TEAM TO PLAY AT PADUCAH

Rivals Will Meet in Wildcat's Last Practice Game

Coach Grady Graves will take his Crowell Wildcats to Paducah Friday night to meet the Dragons in their annual grid clash. This will mark the last non-conference tilt for the Wildcats before they start conference play Friday, Sept. 30, in the Iowa Park Hawks' sport.

Crowell has played and won two games this season, one over the Haskell Indians, 7-0, and the other from the Nocona Indians, 27-0. The Paducah Dragons played their first game of the season with Lakeview last Friday and won 6 to 0.

NEW FIRE HOSE

Six hundred feet of new fire hose for the City Fire Department arrived Wednesday and was tested out on the court house lawn. A new spray nozzle of the latest type was also included in the shipment.

Joy Out of Game

Raymond Joy, first string Wildcat quarterback, will not be in the line up of the Paducah game because of a physician's order to Coach Grady Graves Wednesday. This order stated that Joy should not take strenuous exercise during the past few days or the remainder of this week. Joy will be back in uniform next Monday for work out and will be at his quarterback post when the Wildcats take their positions on the Iowa Park field next week. Joy was not able to work out during the past week and the physician deemed it advisable for him not to play tomorrow night.

Branch Injured

Charles Branch, Crowell guard, received two fractured ribs and a painfully bruised chest in the work out Monday afternoon. He did not practice Tuesday but was back in uniform for the last time up practice Wednesday afternoon.

Line Up Changed

Coach Graves had planned for Branch not to work out until after the Paducah game in order that his injuries might heal completely, but because of physician's order for Joy not to play Friday night, Coach Graves has changed the line up so that Branch, only other experienced Wildcat player with training in that position, might play in the backfield, although he will do very little blocking and ball carrying.

Frank Dunn, strong reserve, will fill the guard slot made vacant by Branch's removal to the backfield. He has seen service in both of Crowell's games this season and Coach Graves is confident that Dunn will capably handle the guard duties.

If Branch does not start the game at Paducah tomorrow night or is forced to retire from the fray, Que Meason, first string back, will be moved to the quarterback position from the left half. Leroy Gibson, promising rookie, will come into the game to fill Meason's left half position.

The probable starting line up for the Wildcats Friday night is as follows: B. Fitzgerald, left end; Gafford, left tackle; Dunn, left guard; J. Fitzgerald, center; H. Sollis, right guard; Johnson, right tackle; Canup, right end; Branch, quarterback; Meason, left half; Orr, right half; Owens, fullback.

Two New Troops

The First Baptist Church and the First Methodist Church of Crowell have agreed to sponsor a new troop each. Plans are now being worked out for the organization of these troops.

Scout Hall Secured

The original Scout troop with Recie Womack as Scout Master has recently secured the sheet iron building on the south side of the square for a meeting place. The building was cleaned up and repaired by the Scouts under the supervision of Mr. Womack and John Long and regular meetings are being held there.

Gifts of Value

Many of the gifts offered by Crowell merchants have a value of $5.00 or more, and still a large number which are valued at $1.00 or more. All gifts are useful articles and well worth being in Crowell to get.

TWO CRIMINAL ASSAULT TRIALS TODAY END COURT TERM; GRAND JURY RETURNS SIX INDICTMENTS

The impaneled petit jurors for the September term of district court were recessed Monday morning until Thursday morning (today) by District Judge C. Y. Welch. Jury cases will be continued this morning and continued until the last day of court.

Delton Higgs and Raymond Ford, who were indicted by the grand jury Monday, Sept. 12, will be tried on complaints of criminal assault charges. Ford was tried on the same charge last Monday but after deliberating over four hours the jury had not reached a decision and was dismissed by Judge Welch.

Ask Court House Improvements

After being in session for three days, the grand jury returned six true bills. The grand jury also asked the co-operation of citizens in helping local peace officers to enforce the laws which prohibit Men, women and children of this territory are invited to be in Crowell Saturday, Sept. 24, to attend the first "Gift Day" to be held by the merchants of Crowell. Practically every merchant in Crowell is co-operating to stage this event for the people of Foard County and surrounding counties, not only by offering free gifts, but by offering bargains in merchandise at their stores.

Merchants will give those who are in Crowell Saturday approximately 300 free gifts and each item will be a useful and valuable gift that anybody will want.

Every merchant co-operating in putting on this "Gift Day" for Crowell will give from one to many gifts and each gift has been listed on a coupon bearing the name of the merchant. These coupons will be thrown from the top of the court house Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in a way that everyone will have an opportunity to obtain a coupon for a gift. The bearer of a coupon may claim the gift by presenting it at the store whose name appears on it.

Practically all Crowell stores have stocked fall merchandise and will be glad to show the new fall lines as well as staple merchandise.

The grand jury report carried a number of suggested improvements to the commissioners' court to be made in the court house after an inspection and were as follows: provide a convenient and comfortable place for grand jurors and petit jurors to work and sleep; weather-strip and repair windows of court house. A plea for the co-operation of citizens in stopping trespassing on grounds and campuses of schools of the district by reporting any trespassers to officers.

Grand Jury Report

WPA IMPROVEMENT PROJECT ON STATE HIGHWAY 28 WEST OF CROWELL TO BE STARTED SOON

A WPA project, which calls for the employment of about eighty men to widen the right-of-way of State Highway 28 from Crowell west to the Cottle County line, lowering of hill tops, filling ditches, rip-rapping slopes and general beautification highway work, will be started in about two weeks, according to reports received here this week.

A grant of $6,588.00 was made by the WPA to the State Highway Department and Foard County, joint sponsors, for this project last week, according to A. T. Cromwell, area WPA administrator.

A grant of $11,300 was also given Foard County for construction of community sanitation devices. This project, about which additional information will be released next week, will be sponsored jointly by the county and the State Health Department.

Information released by Judge Claude Callaway stated that about one-half of the right-of-way on the highway project has already been donated by ranchmen and was obtained without any cost whatever to the county. Most of the fence on this section has already been moved back from the road.

The total amount of right-of-way that has already been donated is approximately 45 acres and, according to the engineer's figures, it will take 81 acres of land to widen the right-of-way from Crowell to the county line.

Dwight Campbell will be the WPA superintendent on this project.

WHAT WE THINK
(By Frank Dixon)

A democratic form of government faces many perils and many problems due to the ease and rapidity with which one group of executives can be turned out of office and a new set put in.

While the plan has its advantages it also has its disadvantages in the fact that in the scramble for place and power in politics, political leaders often come out with cleverly designed appeals to the popular vote who are more concerned with attracting the vote than they are in supplying good government.

The depression, with the necessity of federal, state, and county aid to many unable to make a living, has brought this fact clearly to the fore.

In many localities, though the relief being given has already created a heavy burden upon the few remaining taxpayers, political demagogues are waging a campaign on no other platform than that of larger pensions, more old age assistance, and larger doles.

These demagogues, unable to find a real or a constructive issue will appeal to the mass of voters, and which, under present conditions, will be most difficult to combat. They will know that no matter how ridiculous, or uneconomic, or unfair such a proposition may obviously be, few who stand to benefit even temporarily from it, will vote against the proposition or the candidate offering it.

In my state the sales tax was recently put into effect for the purpose of paying old age assistance and old age pensions.

Though it has only been in operation a little over a year, already candidates of the opposing party are going up and down the state preaching to the people that those receiving assistance should be given materially more assistance, and that most of those paying sales tax should be relieved of the burden.

It is a strange thing that the recipients of a tax never seem to stop and think that some one pay it. The mere passage of law levying the tax does not reduce the money. It merely takes it from some one, who, in cases out of ten has saved through industry and self-denial to run its course, as do all things in a democracy. I can help but be concerned, however what the cost will be and final, demoralizing, and stifling effect of mounting, illy advised, ill considered tax levies. The must inevitably come.

I am quite certain that when the final extremity is reached and the back of the broken through the weight of taxes, and more taxes, these still be those who will go up down the land and for the sake votes preach the doctrine of more benefits and still higher taxes. The recipient will never enough, and there will always an office seeker willing to pay to what seems to be a major demand of the voters.

GEN. PERSHING IS 78

General John J. Pershing, now in France, was reported to be in good health again on his 78th birthday, September 13; a bit of news which was most pleasing to all his fellow-countrymen. It will be recalled that last winter he was given up by his physicians and a special funeral train was actually made up to carry his body from Arizona to Arlington.

But the doughty old soldier made an amazingly rapid comeback, and a few weeks later was able to attend his son's wedding in the East, shortly after which he embarked for a long vacation in France.

The former commander of the American Expeditionary Force in the World War has had the most remarkable career of any United States Army officer of his generation. He saw service in Indian campaigns, the Spanish-American War, the Philippine Insurrection, and commanded the expedition sent into Mexico in pursuit of Villa.

While serving in the campaign against the Filipinos he so distinguished himself as to be promoted directly from captain to brigadier-general. Upon our entry into the World War he was placed in command of the A. E.
F., and in 1919 he was made General of the Armies of the United States, a rank created for him by a special act of Congress.

Since his retirement from active military service for age in 1924, he has served as chairman of the American battle monuments commission, spending much of his time in Europe on that duty.

General Pershing is a great soldier and a great American. May he enjoy his well-earned honors for many years to come.

Calvin Coolidge once said:
"Nothing in this world can take the place of persistence. Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent." There is a splendid sermon for every man in times such as these. The power of persistence is little realized by many, but everywhere, all about us, are to be found evidences of the truth of these words. They constitute the formula that would make success of a hundred thousand failures in this country today. A man with a purpose to which he clings tenaciously is the nearest approach in this world to an irresistible force.

Five-in-One Defeats Medicine Mound Here in Exhibition Game

The Five-in-One football team won the six-man grid exhibition game over Medicine Mound last Thursday night on the Crowell Wildcat gridiron by a score of 6 to 0 in the first six-man game ever played in Crowell.

Foard County fans, who have been loyal followers of 11-man football, were slow to form opinions as to their like or dislike of that type of game, although everyone agreed that it is a good game for the smaller schools that can not support a larger squad.
Neither the Five-in-One or Medicine Mound teams had been in training long and therefore did not have the blocking, broken field running or sharp-shooting passing that is necessary to make this game as thrilling as it is heralded to be. For that reason a large number of local grid fans were disappointed, but are planning to see more of the games later in the season.

Fans were surprised at the low score of the first exhibition game as it is supposed to be of wide-open play that means scoring.

Scores Late
The first three quarters were scoreless with Five-in-One holding an edge over the Medicine Mound lads, but failed to produce a scoring punch until late in the last quarter.

M. Burelsmith of Five-in-One intercepted a pass in Medicine Mound territory in that quarter and a drive netted the only score of the game with Burelsmith going over for the counter. The attempted conversion failed and the score was set at 6-0.

There was comparatively little passing for a six-man game as most of the plays were into the line. Five-in-One tried only 10 passes, completing two, and Medicine Mound passed 15 times, completing 4. Five-in-One gained 114 yards from scrimmage and lost 15 yards, Medicine Mound gained 57 yards and lost 7. Five-in-One punted 5 times for an average of 38 yards, and Medicine Mound punted 9 times for an average of 31 yards.

Nocona Game—

yard stripe with a 10-yard pass from Joy to Bernice Fitzgerald, Wildcat wingman. On the second play of that series, Joy found an opening at center to go across the line from the 8-yard stripe standing up, B. Fitzgerald kicked the extra point to set the score at 7-0 in the opening minutes of the till.

Orr Scores
John Lee Orr, Crowell half, turned in his first touchdown of the season with a spectacular run which carried him all over the field to gain about 40 yards after completing a long pass from B. Fitzgerald. This run, which was the longest of the game, was made in the opening minutes of the second period after Crowell had taken an Indian punt on its own 33-yard line. On the play, Orr took the opportunity to pull the hide-out pass trick which caught the No-cona boys unaware. After catching the pass, Orr found himself hemmed for the goal line and without blockers and he started drifting back and forth across the gridiron until he had reached the opposite sideline where he picked up Owens who cleared his path to the goal line.

Meason Goes Over Shortly following the second score, the Wildcats took possession of the ball on the Nocona 47-yard marker and staged a drive, alternating a passing attack with a running attack to account for the Wildcat's third score. After shooting two incomplete passes, Joy found a receiver in Wayne Canup to advance the ball to the Indians' 14-yard line. On three plays, Meason and Joy placed the ball on the 2-yard stripe. Orr lost 3 yards and Joy made one yard after passing incomplete to B.
Fitzgerald over the goal line. On the last down, Meason tucked the piskin under his arm and skirted left end to cross the goal line standing up. B. Fitzgerald passed to Canup for the extra point.
Crowell 21, Nocona 0.

Fitzgerald Ends Scoring B. Fitzgerald finished Crowell's scoring after taking a short pass from Joy and stepping across the line. The ball had been placed two plays before with a long run from Canup who took a short pass from B. Fitzgerald from the No-cona 44-yard line. Canup fought his way into the clear but was unable to outdistance the faster Indian backs, Fitzgerald's try from placement was blocked.

Backs Shine
The ball carrying of Meason, Orr and Joy brought thrills even to Indian supporters. Meason added many yards with his sweeping end runs and his blocking aided his team mates in picking up yards. He also turned in a nice pass receiving game.

Joy and Orr matched the pace of the hard-running Meason with their line thrusts. Orr seemed to find his old stride in the contest and picked his way through the line and secondary defense on numerous occasions. His blocking equalled that of any Wildcat which makes him a dangerous threat whether he is carrying the ball or not.

Joy continued the heads-up play that is characteristic of this fly-weight all-district team and was the Wildcat's offensive spark plug in his quarter back position. His twisting broken field running and quick line plunges kept the Crowell attack rolling at a high speed with which the Indians were never able to cope.

Line Strong
The Wildcat line again proved itself to be very strong in fact, the heavy Indian backs were never able to penetrate it for much yardage, while at the same time allowing the Crowell backs to consistently gain yardage.

Bernice Fitzgerald and Wayne Canup, wingmen, were two of Crowell's offensive and defensive stars. Fitzgerald's defensive play was a large factor in the Indian's small yardage gain. He did all the Wildcat's punting and a large part of the passing.

Canup was on the receiving end of nearly all of Fitzgerald's passes and ripped off two brilliant runs to place himself among the stars of the night. He played his consistently good defensive game at his end position.

Ed Gafford is fast becoming one of Coach Graves' most powerful linemen and is crowding Oran Johnson for tackle honors. If these boys keep up their present play they should be two of the outstanding tackles in this district within a short time.

The center section of the line, composed of Charles Branch and Hugh Sollis at guards and Jack Fitzgerald at center, was found to be practically impenetrable by the Indians and their fast charging defensive play slowed the Nocona offensive to a point that it bogged down on nearly every series. Branch and Sollis paved the way for a larger part of gains turned in by their team mates.

Everybody Plays
After the Wildcat first-stringers had rolled up a comfortable lead, Coach Graves removed them from the scrap and turned it over to the second-string boys for experience and they showed that with a little more of regular play they will be ready to take over positions on the first eleven.

Indians Threaten
Only once, early in the last period did the Indians come within striking distance of the goal line, when they pushed to the Crowell 8-yard line after blocking Fitzgerald's punt in the closing minutes of the third quarter. Taking the ball on the Crowell 25, the Indians, pass-placed the ball on the 12. McBride picked up four yards to advance to the 8. Meekens was thrown for a three-yard loss, McBride shot a pass over the goal line, but the ball was blocked enough by H. C. Brown, Wildcat

NOBODY'S BUSINESS
BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—When Governor-Nominee W. Lee O'Daniel was persuaded to endorse a slate of six candidates for other offices in the runoff primary, he stirred the O'Daniel bloc of over half a million votes into a seething mass of dissent.

That major mistake of strategy backfired on him last week at the Beaumont Democratic state convention. The delegates booted him off the stage when he pushed to the microphone at midnight in the desperate effort to stave off defeat for his platform plank on pensions. The delay resulting from the near-riot on the convention floor enabled O'Daniel's floor managers to whip loyal delegates into line, and push through a vague and meaningless plank on pensions.

O'Daniel then returned to Fort Worth, went on the radio and made a speech in which he denounced the newspapers, and charged reporters who wrote the sorry story of the spectacle of O'Daniel, the fallen hero, retreating from the stage in confusion and embarrassment, with dishonesty and corruption.

They Wanted $30
The issue was clearly drawn at Beaumont. O'Daniel told hundreds of thousands of voters in every speech he made during the campaign, that he would give those over 65 a pension of $30 a month, regardless of need. On that promise, he rolled up the huge total of votes which elected him without a runoff.

At Beaumont, he, or his advisors, brought out a platform that was a bitter disappointment to everybody, in virtually every particular. The convention opened under extreme tension, as friends of the victorious candidate, who O'Daniel didn't endorse, brought their resentment to Beaumont.
Tit konyotr virtually denounced the Roosevelt administration, and President Roosevelt hasn't lost his popularity with the Democracy of Texas yet. The address of the Governor-Nominee was a weak and ineffectual effort. Instead of talking about practical plans for delivering upon promises, compromises, O'Daniel read a prepared paper in a monotonous voice. The talk was clothed in glittering generalities. It referred to mother, home, church, and the Ten Commandments—subjects which had proved sure-fire in sentimental radio programs, but which fell rather flat upon an audience of practical minded delegates who came to Beaumont to find when the $30 pensions would begin. A snatter-ing of barely polite applause rippled through the hall when O'Daniel had concluded.

The Pension Plank
Then the platform committee brought out a platform which "recognized the leadership" of Roosevelt, but didn't even damn him with faint praise; acknowledged the services of Gov. Allred and wished him success as a Federal Judge; commended the two Senators urged industrial development, governmental economy, recommended continued maintenance of schools and highways, and the conservation of water and natural resources.

On Pensions, the platform merely said: "The Legislature should make immediate and adequate provision for the social security program and immediately provide for the payment of the maximum amount of pensions and old age assistance to persons over the age of 65 years within the limits and provisions of the constitution of this state and constitution and laws of the United States."

That brought on the war. Analyzed, it means exactly nothing.
The State already is administering its pensions law upon that basis. As was pointed out in this column and by virtually every newspaper in Texas, while O'Daniel was promising the people $30 a month in July, "the limits and provisions of the constitution of this state and constitution and laws of the United States" forbid the payment of $30 a month pensions to everybody.

There was one other platform plank—calling for abolition of the poll tax as a requirement to vote.
The delegates smashed that one to pieces in short order, and kicked it entirely out of the platform.
A couple of speeches by old-line Democrats who waved the bloody shirt and demanded that Negroes be kept from controlling the State elections did the job.

Issues Are Ignored
The platform had no word or suggestion as to how to raise money to pay larger pensions. It contained no hint of how O'Daniel second-string back, to cause the intended receiver to miss it. The drive was ended with that play and Crowell took the ball on the 20-yard line.

Clay County to Hold Pioneer Celebration October 7 and 8

Plans for the annual reunion of the Clay County Pioneer Association are nearing completion, according to an announcement received this week from Eb Wor-sham, treasurer and business manager, and a former Foard County cowhand, who says the reunion will be held this year on Oct. 7 and 8.

According to the announcement from Mr. Worsham, the pageant, one of the yearly high-lights of the reunion, will be under the direction of Mrs. Harry Olsen of Wichita Falls, an instructor in the Knickerbocker School of Fine Arts. This pageant is based on the book the association has just published, "Romance and Dim Trails," a history of Clay County.
The pageant will be staged in a natural setting north of Henrietta and will include 100 characters.

Another feature of the entertainment will be an amateur rodeo open to any one who may care to enter regardless of residence.
This will be a contest strictly for the amateurs and no professional will be allowed to take part.

Rev. Paul J. Merrill, local hand director, also former Foard County resident, will be in charge of the hand contest in which prizes will be offered. Any hand wanting to compete is invited to do so and to write Rev. Merrill for particulars.

feels about legalized horse race ling; about sale of whiskey by the of farmers, whose prosperity has reached a low ebb in Texas this year; about regulation of public utility rates, or solution of the transportation problem, which is the state's most acute economic problem and includes the development of navigable waterways, revision of the 7,000-pound truck load limit, and other ramifications.

The platform and the other developments at Beaumont reflected the conflict in views of O'Dan-iel's advisors. Surrounded by men who are as widely apart in their views on public questions as the two poles, the nominee apparently was pushed and hauled about until he was thoroughly bewildered.
Unless the new governor decides whether he will go along with Frank Rawlings, the Fort Worth liberal and horse-race advocate, or Carr Collins, the Dallas conservative; with the old folks who want $30 pensions, or the special interests who want to escape taxation and block progress with the professional politicians who know better than to try to interrupt a roll-call vote with a sentimental speech, or the amateurs who don't know anything about public affairs;—he faces endless trouble during the next two years.

It was the first political convention O'Daniel had ever seen. But until he sees the Texas Legislature in action he hasn't, "seen nuthin' yet."

Texas Planning Board Will Back Industrial Program of O'Daniel

Austin, Sept. 20.—The Texas Planning Board today was prepared to throw all its resources behind the industrialization program of W. Lee O'Daniel, nominee for governor.

O'Daniel met with the planning board in Fort Worth and appeared to be particularly impressed with the work of the board in respect to mapping and the assembling of information required by financial interests which might make industrial investments in Texas.

"I can see where your board and its program fits into the plan I have for the industrialization of Texas," O'Daniel said after hearing members of the board report on their activities.

The planning board's 10-point program for the social and economic development of Texas was outlined to the gubernatorial nominee by W. M. Massie, Fort Worth, chairman; E. A. Austin, director; E. L. Kurth, Lufkin, who is in charge of the board's forestry work; C. S. Clark, Austin, chairman of the board's water resources committee; Hull Youngblood, San Antonio, who discussed the need for correction of rates and better health of and Tom Cotton, Amarillo, discussed the need for encouraging mining.

Since its creation in 1933 planning board has gathered a mass of information and the resources of Texas and of this information already has been disseminated to industrial men who have requested information on Texas resources.
Numerous industrial have been made by the B. technical staff and these used by O'Daniel when he his campaign to bring new tries to Texas.

Policemen of Brighton, dressed as women, secured evidence on which a prostitution club was ordered closed.

A Bible, a small quantity of grape juice and $13.25 in churches in Petersburg, Va.

State Police Urge Texas School Children Safe Transportation

Austin, Sept. 20.—State police voiced warnings today to parents and others charged with the safety of children to provide for their safe transportation to and from schools.

Safety officials particularly urged that drivers of vehicles transporting school children use caution in discharging their passengers. Never permit them to alight from automobiles or buses except at the curb nearest the school or other destinations, they warned.

Capt. Homer Garrison Jr., assistant director of state police, declared that precautions should be taken this school year to avoid the recurrence of tragic accidents that, last year, killed 166 children between the ages of five and fourteen and injured 1,087.

He urged that teachers instruct their students in safety particularly as to their conduct while walking or riding to and from classes. Capt. Garrison said parents and instructors alike should be able to forestall many school traffic accidents by warnings to:

- Cross streets only at intersections, and then only after making sure that no vehicles are approaching.
- Be guided by school patrols and others who direct school traffic.
- Not play games while walking to and from school and walk only on sidewalks.
- Be particularly careful when retrieving footballs, baseballs and other paraphernalia from streets as most accidents to children happen at those times.
- A number of Texas schools have adopted traffic safety subjects as a requirement for their students, Capt. Garrison said. The state safety department, through its safety education bureau, is assisting them with this type of instruction.

Street and Highway Fatalities in Aug. 81 Less Than Year Ago

Austin, Sept. 20.—Texas made traffic safety history in August with a 43.3 per cent reduction in street and highway fatalities, state police reported today.

The August death toll was 106, a saving of 81 lives over the same period of last year when 187 persons were killed in traffic crashes. This was the greatest single-month reduction in Texas traffic records, the nearest approach being last June when there was a 33 per cent drop.

Captain Homer Garrison Jr., assistant state police director, said the 1938 death total rose to 1,013—228 less than the first eight months of last year. This comparatively sharp reduction was made in the face of a ten per cent increase in gasoline consumption and a five per cent increase in automobile registrations.

Texas is the only state that is showing a consistent death decrease through its selective enforcement program. Traffic violation warnings and arrests have been more numerous this year in an effort to decrease street and highway accidents.

"The enviable record that Texas has maintained this year is due to the strong enforcement program by state police," Garrison said. "Public opinion, aroused by newspaper comments, radio and other means, has played an important part in this co-operative program."

Elmer Frank, director of a choral society in Sandusky, O., made a survey which, he says, proves that only "three persons in a hundred know the second verse of the Star Spangled Banner."

District Court—

have returned six true bills, to-wit:

The State of Texas vs. Raymond Ford, offense, rape; The State of Texas vs. William Pruitt, offense, rape; The State of Texas vs. Emery Gray, offense, operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated. The State of Texas vs. Raymond Ray, offense, child desertion. The State of Texas vs. Delton Higgs, offense, rape.

We have also investigated other violations of the criminal statutes and find that there has been numerous violations of the law which we have been unable to obtain sufficient testimony to warrant our returning true bills at this time.

We submit that there seems to be an epidemic of reckless driving of automobiles upon the streets, roads and county and state highways in this county, and in view of the fact that the lives of our children are at stake, we feel that every citizen should make a special effort to co-operate with the peace officers of this county and the highway patrolmen to enforce the laws which prohibit reckless driving.

We hereby go on record as a grand jury that endorses the steps that are being taken by the local peace officers and highway patrolmen in curbing the reckless driving on our streets, roads and highways, and pledge them our support in their efforts.

We beg leave to report that from our inspection of the court house, that we find that the grand jury and petit jury are not provided with a convenient and comfortable place for their work in that the place originally intended for their use is being used and occupied by other departments. We therefore recommend to the commissioners' court that hereafter when district court convenes that those who occupy the jury rooms be requested to make other arrangements in order that the juries may have the use of said rooms during the term of the district court.

We also recommend that the commissioners' court provide a desirable place for the petit jury to sleep while in service of the district court.

We also have found that the windows in the district court room are in a poor condition and need to be weather-stripped in order that the district court room will be comfortable during the winter term of said court. And we therefore, recommend that the commissioners' court investigate this matter and if possible at all, have said windows weather-stripped or repaired otherwise.

Upon our investigation we have found that there has been considerable trespassing upon the grounds and campuses of the various schools of this district, and we hereby submit that the citizens of this county should report any and all such trespasses to the next grand jury and should co-operate with the school officials and other officers in stopping such conduct.

We have made an examination of the county jail and report to your honor that the said county jail is in excellent condition, and we also desire to pay our compliments to those in charge of the jail for their splendid work in keeping the same in the condition that they have kept it.

No further business coming to our attention we humbly beg of you to be dismissed for the term.

T. H. MATTHEWS,
Foreman of Grand Jury.

DEVIL'S PUNCHBOWL, OTHER THINGS NAMED FOR SATAN

The Devil's Punchbowl at Hindhead, in Surrey, is known to thousands of visitors says a writer in London Answers Magazine. But there are actually three Devil's Punchbowls in these islands—one being in the Scillies and the other near Killarney.
As a matter of fact, the Wicked

Old Gentleman whom we call the Devil has given his name to all kinds of places in Britain.

There is the Devil's Dyke, near Brighton, the Devil's Staircase at Glencoe, the Devil's Chimney near Cheltenham.

You will find the Devil's Frying Pan at Cadwath, his Spoon at Petersfield his bellows at Kynance Cove, in Cornwall, and his Kitchen at Llyn Idwall, in Wales.

On Studland Moor, in Dorsetshire, is a large boulder known as the Agglistone, or Haggerstone, about which a satanic tradition is woven. It seems that Old Satan was carrying it to drop on Salisbury cathedral but it proved to be too heavy for him and he dropped it where it now rests.

Money in the Bank

Richardson, Secretary
Breeder-Feeder Ass'n.
The silo is like money—safe as long as you have it and subject to withdrawal whenever you need it. What thousands of farmers will tell you affirmatively is that the silo is the "money in the bank" of the farm. It is the storehouse for the four adjectives for which the silo is available at the moment of need. It is the range in size from the capacity down to those of a feed one or two cows, to the tiny silo as efficient for its purpose as the huge silos holding thousands of beef steers. The silo probably has the longest record in history. Many of the diverted land from wheat into other crops, now on their farms can be stored above ground for its palatable feeding value gradually, but if properly stored in a silo it will be available from now—if not long before—the next hard winter—as it is after filling the silo.

Brief Bits of News From Here and There

Since 1934 cattle production has declined in the United States due to drought conditions. Last week the Bureau of Agricultural Economics announced a change in the trend. The tendency, barring further droughts, will be to rebuild herds. This will probably be reflected in a lowering of meat prices.

Through a government subsidy Secretary Wallace plans to market 100,000,000 bushels of American wheat in foreign countries in an effort to reduce local surplus. The government may spend up to $25,000,000 on the program. By this subsidy the wheat is sold on the foreign market at whatever price is necessary to sell it and the difference to the producer is made up out of the $25,000,000 subsidy fund. For example, if Secretary Wallace paid the American farmer sixty cents for his wheat and was only able to sell it for forty cents the government would lose twenty cents a bushel on each of the 100,000,000 bushels sold at $20,000,000.

Canned dog food is said to be the largest selling canned goods item. When John and Mack Rust brought out their mechanical cotton picking machine the fear was expressed that it would cause greater poverty in the cotton belt by throwing out of employment thousands of cotton pickers. The Rusts have announced that they will only take from the business a wage equal to ten times that paid their lowest paid employee. The balance of the earnings will be put into a foundation fund whose purpose will be to seek "a permanent solution to our problems of poverty and unemployment and, above all, preserve and extend civil liberties."

New York City consumes 12,000,000 pounds of milk daily. This supply is secured from 60,000 dairymen in five states within a radius of 500 miles of the city. The city has 10,000,000 milk consumers. The price paid by the consumer ranges from 9 to 15 cents a quart.

Two Minute Sermon (By Thomas Hastwell)

The Only Way Out: One of the most commonly used subjects these days for an address of a religious nature is the need of the world for a spiritual revival. We have come so used to solving the whole problem of the world with this one answer that we are prone to turn to it on any and all occasions and deliver a series of trite platitudes and then step back with an air of "well, that is taken care of nicely." I feel, in common with the speechmakers and the orators, that there is a need, a very great need, for a spiritual revival in the world, but I am skeptical that it is going to come, like the typhoon of the south seas and sweep the world, carrying with it everyone, the righteous with it everyone, the righteous and the unrighteous. The spiritual revival, when it comes, will come first in the hearts of individuals. Whether that will be after war has devastated the world and leveled it out in universal and dire extremity, or whether it will come while we still possess the power and the force to realize its wonder and its beauty, I do not know. I have but one conviction, and that is that a spiritual revival is the only thing that will save the race. History furnishes many mute, though eloquent, evidences of past civilizations now buried deep in the dust of centuries that failed to experience a spiritual revival. God's plan cannot be altered by man. If today's civilization fails in its rendezvous with destiny it will be swept aside as have a score of other civilizations and a new world built on the ruins. A desirable revival is not only a desirable thing today, it is imperative if this civilization is to live. There is no alternative.

4-H Club Activities (Myrna Holman, Agent)

"I have found 4-H Club work both interesting and helpful and have enjoyed both my work and the friends I have made," says Corinne McLarty of the Riverside 4-H Club, in the story of her work for the past year.

One outstanding piece of Corinne's work was her nature scrap book. This book she called "The Great Outdoors," and arranged it in sections with birds in one division, flowers in another, moth and butterflies in another, and so on through reptiles, insects, trees and others. The title of the book and the heading for each section was artistically done with letters cut by hand from construction paper. Corinne is interested in art and did the designs herself as well as collecting articles and pictures for pasting in the book.

Two educational toys made for the baby brother completed another goal. These toys were a nest of different size cans, painted various colors with lids to match, and a painted can with a dot in the top and colored disks for dropping through the slot.

Corinne has completed all of her other work, raised 94 chickens, and taken part in all club activities. The following report shows how she made good use of information secured in club by passing it on to others.

"The children of this farm organized a club," said Corinne. "We called ourselves the Treasure Club. We went on a picnic at Antelope Springs. I was president at that time so I showed them how to cook on the bottom of a gallon can by cutting a piece out of the side to put the fire under. We cooked flapjacks and bacon on the top. I learned how to do this at an outdoor demonstration on cooking."

Members of the West Side Club agreed that it would be a pleasure to spend from twenty to fifty hours each week in a pretty kitchen like the one Mrs. Walter Thomson, club demonstrator, exhibited to her club Wednesday, September 14.

A color scheme of white and red had been carried out by Mrs. Thomson. White paper with red dots was used for walls and ceiling. The cabinet had been extended to the ceiling and painted white with red trimmings. Six-inch shelves had been added, which doubled the shelving capacity. Little red flowers decorated the ceiling lamp. The carpet had been painted white striped with red altogether making a very pretty kitchen.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. E. L. Ribble, Sept. 28, at 2 o'clock.

LIBRARY NOTES

Faith Baldwin's latest books: "The High Road," and "Enchanted Oasis," have been readily accepted by the readers of modern fiction. Faith has written hundreds of short stories, many novels, and has even written poetry. Her books of fiction have always been popular, and are showing an increase in selling lists.

Youth with its compelling urge to do—to dare—is the theme of this vibrant novel of "The High Road." This is told of those merry vagabonds of life that you find along the high road, who have abundant youth and little else. They were young in point of years, but old in point of wisdom. This is a very romantic and entertaining novel.

"Enchanted Oasis," unlike "The High Road," tells of a million-dollar Cinderella, who had youth and everything else. The scene is laid in Palm Springs, Mecca of Hollywood and the Social Register, but even here the people seek love. Here are triumph and heartbreak, tenderness and cynicism, blinded in a stunning contemporary novel.

A demonstration of Perfection cooking stoves and Superflex oil and distillate heaters will be held all day Saturday, Sept. 24, by D. Mr. Womack stated that although a majority of the ladies in Foard County were already acquainted with Perfection stoves, the newer models in both kitchen ranges and heaters would be introduced and their advantages explained by Mr. Dillingham.

The W. R. Womack Furniture Store's ad explaining details of the demonstration will be found on page two of this issue of The News.
