Unusual year faces voters in city, school elections

More positions to be filled in each instance

Things are so quiet on Main Street this week that speculation already is beginning as to who will seek city and school offices this spring—even before the two April elections have been officially called.

It will be an unusual year as voters will name one additional member both to the city council and school board over the normal number.

FOR THE first time in years, city voters will elect a majority of the city council, with the mayor's post and three councilmen's seats up for grabs.

Usually, voters name three to the council each year for two-year terms, but the appointment of D. C. (Billy) Hill last November, to fill the vacancy left by the moving to Houston of Councilman Leo Acker, according to law could be only until the next spring election although Acker's term would have run into 1968.

Mayor Harold Lucas told The Dispatch today that he has "made up his mind" whether or not to seek re-election to the city's highest office but won't announce that decision until the city election is officially called by the city council at their February meeting Monday night, Feb. 6.

Lucas is completing his second two-year term as Post's mayor. Prior to that he served three years on the council as a councilman.

COUNCILMEN whose terms will expire in April, besides Hill, are Bob Collier, who is completing his second term, and Lewis C. Heron, who is a first-terminer.

The city election will be held Tuesday, April 4, and all city candidates must file with the city secretary at least 30 days prior to the election. The filing deadline will be March 4.

Only holdover councilmen will be

Arnold Farrish, who is serving his second two-year term and Jess Rogers, who was elected to his first term last April.

THE SCHOOL district will have three of its seven trustee positions up for election on Saturday, April 1.

This happens only every third year. The other years only two trustees are elected.

Those whose terms expire are Russell Wilks Jr., board president who is completing three terms and nine years on the board; Ted Aten, who is completing his first three-year term; and Earl Chapman, board secretary who was appointed Dec. 14, 1964, to fill the unexpired term of E. R. (Buster) Moreland, and has yet to run for the position on the ballot.

The school trustee race is different from the city councilman races where the three top vote-getters are elected to council positions.

Each school trustee position is numbered and candidates filing for office must file for a specific position. Hence several could file for one position and at another position a candidate might run unopposed.

THE NUMBERED positions on the school trustees coming up this April are No. 1, now held by Chapman; No. 2, now held by Aten; and No. 3, now held by Wilks.

School trustee candidates must file with Chapman, the board secretary at least 30 days in advance of the election. This places the filing deadline on March 1.

Parchman funeral is held Friday

Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist Church in Carlsbad, N. M., at 10 a.m. last Friday for Mrs. Bessie Parchman, 82, former Justiceburg resident, who died early Thursday morning in a Carlsbad hospital.

Graveside services were held at 4:30 p.m. Friday at Terrace Cemetery here, with burial under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home.

Mrs. Parchman had been in the hospital 14 days.

Born June 12, 1884, in Kentucky, she moved with her family to East Texas when she was five years old, later moving to West Texas and living in Dawson and Lubbock counties before moving to Justiceburg. She moved to Loving, N. M., about 15 years ago and to Carlsbad about a year later, where she made her home with her son, Ernie Parchman.

Her husband, W. T. Parchman Sr., died 14 years ago.

Mrs. Parchman was a member of the Baptist Church.

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Sam Heinz of Post, Mrs. L. H. Graves of Andrews, Mrs. L. E. Matthews of Lamesa and Mrs. Melba McGinnis of Loving; six sons, Ernie of Carlsbad, E. W. and W. E. of Loving, and Guy, H. B. and W. T. Parchman Jr., all of McKinney; two sisters, Mrs. Lillie Ballard and Mrs. Lula Wolf, both of Rochester, Tex.; 29 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Keith Wiginton and Paul M. Chambliss officiated at the funeral services in Carlsbad and at the graveside rites here. Pallbearers for the service here were Bandy Cash, Spence Bevers, Happy Bevers, Vernon Reed, Hans Hudman, Alton Meeks and Weldon Reed.

Ladies' night is planned by club

Plans for next Tuesday's ladies' night meeting were made by members of the Post Lions Club at this week's meeting, held Tuesday night.

The winner of the club's peace essay contest will be presented at the ladies' night meeting, Lion President Preston Poole said. Jack Alexander is the club's peace essay contest chairman.

ESCAPED PRISONER BACK IN HOOSEGOW

Meizar Johnson Jr., 35-year-old local Negro, probably won't get either the chance to "walk out" of jail again, or any more ice cream and cookies from his wife. Johnson was arrested at Southland Friday night, March 1, E. (Fay) Claborn told The Dispatch, and was immediately lodged in the Lubbock County jail for safe-keeping.

Johnson strolled from the county jail here on Tuesday evening, Jan. 10, when a trusty turned his back after bringing him up some ice cream and cookies.

Johnson, who is awaiting trial on a charge of theft over $50, has also been charged with "voluntarily escaping jail," as a result of his freedom walk, and a $1,000 bond set.

Johnny Wells

Post resident found dead in home here

John William (Johnny) Wells, 36-year-old carpenter, was found dead at his home, three miles north of Post on the Rails road, shortly before 10 o'clock Tuesday night.

Justice of the Peace D. C. Roberts ruled following an inquest that Mr. Wells died of natural causes. He had suffered from heart trouble.

Mr. Wells' body was found on the kitchen floor by his son, Jimmy, who is home between semesters from Southwestern State College, Weatherford, Okla., where he is a pharmaceutical student.

Mr. Wells, a resident of Post for 21 years, lived alone. He was born Feb. 17, 1919, in Knox County. In addition to working as a carpenter, Mr. Wells had also been in the restaurant business in Post and elsewhere.

Survivors besides the son include his mother, Mrs. J. J. Wells of Post; two daughters, Mrs. Billie Lou Stewart of Fort Worth and Mrs. Mildred Wilson of San Angelo; four sisters, Mrs. Grace Johnson and Mrs. Daisy Smith, both of Post; Mrs. Flora Vanwey of Sand Springs, Okla.; and Mrs. Opal Carmichael of Lincoln, Neb.; three brothers, Roy of Greenville, Frank of Grand Prairie and Clifton Wells of Garland, and five grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. today (Thursday) at the Trinity Baptist Church. The Rev. Clayton Pennington, pastor of the Flint Avenue Baptist Church in Lubbock, will officiate, assisted by the Rev. Jimmy McGuire, Trinity Baptist pastor.

Interment will be in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home.

Plans for next Tuesday's ladies' night meeting were made by members of the Post Lions Club at this week's meeting, held Tuesday night.

The winner of the club's peace essay contest will be presented at the ladies' night meeting, Lion President Preston Poole said. Jack Alexander is the club's peace essay contest chairman.

Roadside park is to overlook Post

The Texas Highway Commission in Austin has modified plans for reconditioning a scenic overlook on U. S. Hwy. 84 in Garza County to include the purchase of a scenic easement for a roadside park.

The roadside park, which will overlook the city of Post and surrounding area, will be located three miles northwest of town, where the highway ascends the Caprock escarpment.

According to Julian F. Smith, resident highway engineer, the roadside park will be on the south side of the highway near the N. C. Outlaw home. The proposed site is now a caliche pit, which the highway department will acquire from its owner, Smith said.

Reconditioning of the overlook, including the park, will cost an estimated $22,000, which was included in the 1966-67 Highway Beautification program.

The Post Dispatch

Post, Garza County, Texas Thursday, January 26, 1967 Number 35

Best rumor we've heard lately about the long-range weather forecast. It calls for an "unusually February". At the present time a little dampness would fall in the unusual category around here.

The First National Bank has the best basketball promotion here—throwing souvenir basketballs into the stands at Antelope district games. President J. Potts and Vice-President Lewis Iron started throwing them into a crowd at last Friday night's game. It caught fans by surprise—and the ones who didn't know what was happening.

You know what to expect now. The bank is advertising the "throwing" on today's sports page.

January has been a mighty dull month around town from almost any standpoint, but by the time Annual Chamber banquet rolls and Feb. 9 things should be popping up for Post's new "industry hunt."

The board of directors of the new Industrial Foundation has an busy and could have an announcement of real importance before banquet time on its selection of a man to head up the hunting.

Emphasis at the banquet will be on the search for industry too. W. W. Clark, executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission, will fly up from Austin to be the speaker and he will be talking about how Post can "get with it" in its search for industry.

Clark has been an energetic man for many years. Even before he came to Texas and took present position he was recognized by the Jaycees as Mississippian outstanding young man. The year? It was 1950.

Don't miss hearing Harry Clark. (See Postings, Page 8)

Youths injured in auto wreck

Two youths were injured Saturday morning when their automobile turned inside the city limits of Road 609.

Injured were Lasara Flores Aguirre, 14, the driver, and Ramon Torres, 17. Both have been discharged from Garza Memorial Hospital where they were taken following the accident.

Police Chief Bill Gordon, the investigating officer, said the driver lost control of the car on a curve and turned bottom-side up after striking a culvert. The automobile was described as a total loss.

Tuesday is last day

1,129 registrants for voting rights

Only four days, counting today (Thursday), remain for those wishing to vote in this year's elections to register, Garza County Tax Assessor-Collector T. H. Tipton reminded citizens today.

Tuesday, Jan. 31, is the last day for voter registration, with the county tax office—the registration place—closing at the usual time, 5 p.m., on that day.

School census deadline Friday

The 1967 school census is now coming down to the wire with all enumeration needed to be completed this week, Supt. Bill Shiver said today.

Census cards to all parents of present school-age children here "went home" with students yesterday and were due back to school authorities from parents today.

If any have been overlooked they should be turned in Friday, the superintendent said.

He said parents who have no present school-age children and will have a first-grader for next fall should contact Don Kinard, elementary school principal, this week to have their child counted in the census.

ATTEND SCOUT DINNER

Attending the annual recognition dinner of the South Plains Council of Boy Scouts at the Tech Union building in Lubbock Tuesday night from Post were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Potts, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Aycock, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Thomas. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Runkles from Camp Post.

Tonight at bank

Meeting is set for riding enthusiasts

Everyone interested in the organization of a sheriff's posse and in other riding or roping activities is invited to attend a meeting at 7:30 tonight (Thursday) at the community room.

Howard Hopkins, who notified The Dispatch of tonight's meeting, said plans are to discuss not only the organization of a sheriff's posse or similar riding group, but also a play day for young people, calf roping and steer roping events. Hopkins said it is hoped that any persons had registered for voting privileges. The count at the same time last week was 906.

The only elections scheduled thus far this year are the school trustee and city elections in Post, both set for the first week in April, and school trustee elections at Justiceburg and Southland.

Everyone registering to vote will receive a certificate which they must take to the polls just as they did their poll tax receipt.

Eligible to register are voters who have lived in the state one year, in the county six months and in the precinct 30 days.

One of the differences this year is that a family representative may pick up registration forms for all members of the immediate family eligible to vote.

One person who is a registered voter may even sign for another member of the immediate family where a signature is required.

If a voter is over age 60 on Jan. 1, 1967, he may vote without registration if he lives outside the city limits of a town of over 10,000 population.

Persons who will become 21 years of age anytime during 1967 must register before Tuesday's deadline if they wish to vote.

Mrs. Ruth Young hurt in fall at office

Mrs. Ruth Young caught her heel in an open file cabinet drawer and fell while working at her job at Southwestern Public Service Company's office Jan. 18.

She cracked her pelvic bone in the fall and has been in Garza Memorial Hospital since the accident.

Her husband, Dr. B. E. Young, told The Dispatch yesterday that she is getting along fine and hopes to be dismissed in the next day or two.

$17,000 damage suit filed here

A $17,000 damage suit was filed in Garza District Court here Friday by Robert and Ben Sanchez, two brothers, against an Abilene truck driver as a result of a highway accident north of Post Nov. 20, 1966.

Defendant in the case is Cecil Blackburn of Abilene.

The Sanchezes allege in their petition that Robert, who is 23, was driving a tractor-cotton stripper on FM 122, three and one-half miles north of Post, and had properly signaled a left turn when a large truck and trailer driven by Blackburn coming up from the rear crashed into the stripper while in the turn.

Robert Sanchez is seeking $13,300 for pain and suffering from alleged serious and permanent injuries to his right arm and back and loss of wages and future earning capacity, and an additional $1,500 for medical expenses. Ben, who is a Garza County commissioner, is seeking $2,000 for damages to the cotton stripper and tractor.

ED BLANTON

Blanton December Jaycee of Month

The Post Junior Chamber of Commerce has selected Ed Blanton as "Jaycee of the Month" for December, and he will be presented a certificate at the Jaycees' regular dinner meeting this evening (Thursday) at Judy's Cafe.

Blanton received the Jaycee of the Month honor for his outstanding work and enthusiasm on projects during December.

He is a charter member of the Post Jaycees, which were organized in March of 1964, has served the club as vice president and is now a director.

Blanton, 31, has been a resident of Post for nine years and is a barber at the Corner Barber Shop. He and his wife, Anita, and their two sons live at 914 West 7th St.

The Jaycee of the Month award was started in November with that month's honor going to Hoyt Thomas.

Seven complete credit course

Seven local employees and employers were presented certificates here last Thursday night signifying their completion of a 10-hour course, Consumer Credit Procedures, sponsored by the Retail Merchants Association of Post.

The seven were Mrs. Mary Eckols, Mrs. Ollie Stevens, Pat Sullivan, Bernard Pewitt, Mrs. Marie Neff, Bryce Martin and Mrs. Katie Mae Martin.

Class instructor was Theron Lee, retail credit training specialist from the University of Texas.

ANIMAL WARDEN IS AFTER STRAY DOGS

Thomas Ammons, city animal warden, is stepping up his campaign against dogs this week following an incident a few days ago in which a child was bitten by a dog running at large.

The child received treatment at the hospital, and the dog is being kept up for observation, Ammons said.

"All dogs running at large will be picked up," the animal warden said.

County needs to pinch every penny

The county's financial plight, headlined last week in The Dispatch by the commissioners court's arrangements with the bank to borrow up to $85,000 for 1967 operations, is not new.

The trouble has been with us for years and came to a boil well over a year ago.

What happened was that the county over the last few years simply spent more than it took in at the tax window until it found itself a year behind in its finances.

Either it should have raised the "tax take" several years ago or drastically cut expenses to make income and outgo balance out.

The county taxes collected in the fall, which should be available for 1967 operations, went to pay off 1966 borrowing. This not only puts the county behind financially but it adds 5 per cent interest cost for the privilege of operating on somebody else's money.

When the court sat down last January and decided to equalize real property values in the county for the first time in decades, it brought what amounted to hefty tax increases to almost all Garza County taxpayers.

In three to five years the increased tax take was planned to "catch up" the county's financial status so it would no longer be a year behind.

It doesn't yet seem to be working out, however. From all indications we can not fund balances are in no better shape this January with increased taxes than they were in January a year ago.

Which means more tax money was spent for operations—and no real gain made in "catching up" the county.

It should now be crystal clear for everyone that the only way the county can ever work its way out to pinch every penny it can in operations.

When individuals lose income they are forced to cut expenses. The same must apply to all levels of government. There is no justification for increase of taxes when the taxpayers are finding that tax money might be hard to come by unless it is absolutely essential.

A reorganized county commissioners court with two new members is now facing the problem. It is not something to be "forgotten" from January to January either by the court or by the taxpayers.

The county budget needs to be stared at and worked over every month—every time the court meets.

Frugal operations are essential. The court must keep this uppermost in mind. So must citizens in making any demands for county funds.

Emphasis for the next several years now must be squarely placed on how best to cut expenses, not in considering how to incur any new ones.—JC

VD control plan taking shape

It always has been a "hard fight with a short stick" when the public schools have tried to take a part in educational and control campaigns against venereal disease, but the time may be near for things to start looking up along those lines.

The Texas Medical Association is preparing for an intensive VD educational and control campaign which has the potential of becoming one of the most extensive such programs in the nation.

Saturday of this week, a joint Action Conference on Venereal Disease will be sponsored by the TMA, Texas Department of Health, Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce and Texas Parent-Teacher Association.

Attending Saturday's conference will be the key officers and committee chairmen of 11 state organizations which already are actively working in, or have adopted policy action statements about venereal disease control.

The conference is designed to stimulate the state organizations to greater effort and activity, and to coordinate programs in a more effective approach to controlling VD.

It is hoped that this conference will result in public schools officials having more freedom in educational campaigns in the schools against VD. Many of them in the past have drawn criticism from patrons for "subjecting" the students to films, talks, assemblies, etc., on VD control. William F. Shiver, superintendent of the Post schools, told The Dispatch, "We move against VD at every opportunity by showing an occasional film and in other ways, but we rarely escape criticism for it."

The cold facts are that an estimated 140,000 Texans are infected by VD each year; that for the four-month period from July through October, 1966, Texas was one of only two states showing a significant increase in reported infectious syphilis; that Texas reported the second highest number of infectious cases and the largest number of venereally infected teen-agers during that same period.

This information alone should be enough to provide the impetus for a coordinated multi-phased education program in this state. Venereal disease isn't something that will go away just by being shuddered at.—CD

Last call on voter registration

Some folks, right here at the brink of the Jan. 31 voter registration deadline, are saying, "What's the use of registering to vote? There are no important elections coming up this year."

They are right only if they consider their city and school trustee elections unimportant, and consider as unimportant any special elections that might come up later in the year.

Who serves on our school boards and on our city councils should be as important to any citizen as who serves in the higher offices of the land.

Many citizens who have complained of having to pay a poll tax to vote are among those now failing to register for a free vote in this year's elections.

At the risk of "snowing under" the office force at the county tax assessor-collector's office let's make these last few days before the deadline a record-breaking voter registration period.—CD

Circle Feb. 9 on your calendar

Now, not at the last minute, is the time to mark a red circle around the Feb. 9 date on your appointment calendar, and make your plans early to attend the annual membership banquet of the Post Chamber of Commerce.

By waiting until the last minute to fix such an important date in your mind, you can more easily overlook it, or make it easier for some other appointment to come up in conflict.

Everyone with a stake in Post's future should attend the Chamber banquet and help the organization and its new officers and directors get off to a good 1967 start.

The banquet chairman and his committee have arranged an outstanding program for the event, including an address by Harry W. Clark, executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission. Don't miss it.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

We're just a printer away out in the farming country, but for the life of us we can't figure out why civilians like McNamara and Rusk should be calling the shots in a shooting war. McNamara may be great in his place, which we doubt in view of the fact he produced the Edsel, but we'd have a lot more confidence if the Pentagon and the Military were running the war.—Frank Hill in The Lynn County News.

The advice he can't use himself—Spotlight, San Diego, Calif.

I read where a Louisville, Ky., woman became disgusted with the over-abundance of football games last weekend and ran an ad in the paper offering both the TV set and her husband for sale. The best offer to date was $200, which makes me wonder just how much of that was for the TV and how much for the husband.—Tuck in the Morton Tribune.

Many a man's charity is to give unto others

EIGHT O'CLOCK Monday morning and it's dark, damp and gloomy outside. Where did our June-January weather of the weekend go?

Next Tuesday is the last day of January and it's also the last day to register to vote in this year's elections. Just a reminder . . .

FEBRUARY 1967 makes its debut Wednesday, right in the middle of the week, and it'll be the last 28-day February for two years, since 1968 will be a Leap Year, with February gaining an extra day for the benefit of those folks born on Feb. 29 who have birthdays only once every four years.

Going deeper into the calendar than February, you'll notice that Easter this year falls on the last day of March—which takes care of the hardest holiday of the year to keep up with.

THEN, COMING back to February, you'll notice that Thursday, Feb. 2, is Ground Hog Day; Sunday, Feb. 12, Lincoln's Birthday; Tuesday, Feb. 14, St. Valentine's Day, and Wednesday, Feb. 22, Washington's Birthday.

All of which proves that the calendar is the best thing there is to help a dull mind get a column started on a damp morning.

AND THE MAN up the street says you can't change the past, but you can ruin the present by worrying about the future.

One of my readers writes that he's been reading round-ups of the most important news stories of 1966—accounts of the major events that seemed to make the globe spin a little faster during the past twelve months.

He also writes that he thought it might be worth while to record what he considers the most insignificant news events of 1966. He says: "These, in my opinion, did not make the terrestrial sphere move any faster; they just made a lot of spectators dizzy with the amount of word, clean newsprint wasted on them!"

1. The present status of God and religion as pronounced by a member of that learned body The Beatles, whose name escapes me.

2. Various ultimatums presented by the people of the United States by one Stokely Carmichael.

3. The earth-shaking controversy over that royally commissioned book by a chap named Manchester.

4. His Lordship Bertie Russell's attempts to haul President Johnson before Russell's Court of Global Justice, for sentencing as a war criminal.

5. Senator Bobby's humanitarianism toward the Viet Cong, which he thought worthy of his blood.

6. The Columbia Broadcast System's venture into baseball with what used to be the world champion Yankees.

7. Senator Javits' pitch to become vice president (of the United States!)

8. Assorted public statements by the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

9. The heavyweight champion talker, Cassius Clay.

10. The strutting would-be Napoleons—Nkrumah, Sukarno, Mao, Castro, et al.

Then, the reader writes: "The list could be extended. Now with 1967 here, you can start building your own list. Probably the same cast of characters will star in the Follies of 1967."

An interesting caller at The Dispatch office one day last week was J. L. (Jack) Warren of Lubbock, revenue officer for the Internal Revenue Service. Jack immediately set my mind at ease by telling me the only purpose of his call was to thank The Dispatch for its use of Internal Revenue Service news releases.

OUR VISITOR went on to say that newspapers throughout the nation are rendering a distinct service by helping get the Internal Revenue Service's messages across to the taxpayers. He also said that 97 per cent of the taxpayers make the IRS worker's job an easier one, with only the remaining 3 per cent "muddying the water."

The tax man also called attention to the fact that only in America is found the truly democratic way of collecting income taxes. "The American taxpayer figures his own tax," Jack said, "but in many countries, notably France, the tax collector walks into your place of business, takes a short look around, and tells you how much income tax you owe."

I HOPE I haven't misquoted Mr. Warren, because if there is anyone at this time of year I don't want to misquote, it's an Internal Revenue Service man.

O'Donnell Negro

Money found cached in dead man's home

O'DONNELL—Lynn County sheriff's officers report that "a considerable amount" of money was found in the house of "Rock" Williams, 96, O'Donnell Negro, who was found dead of an apparent heart attack in his home Christmas Day.

Since none of his relatives have been located the money has been deposited in a "Rock Williams Estate" fund in the O'Donnell bank.

Deputy Sheriff Harmon Watts told the Lynn County News at Tahoka that about an hour after Williams' body was removed from his home, he received a call that several persons were trying to break into the house.

Accompanied by Pete McMillan, Watts went to the house and found what he described as "a very large amount of money."

Watts said they found silver and small bills hidden in closets, a trunk, under a bed and all over the bedroom in sacks, tin cans, and boxes. There was so much, the officers said, that they had to carry it away in a tub.

Although the officers declined to say just how much money was found in the house, it is rumored to be "about $3,500."

According to the Tahoka newspaper, Williams was in trouble with the law many times, and was reputed to have engaged in bootlegging. He claimed to be half Negro and half Indian and to have once been a deputy sheriff near Abilene.

Feb. 11 deadline for windbreak seedling orders

Now is the time for farmers and ranchers to do something about the sharp winds of winter and the parching winds of summer, Mason Cloud, head, Reforestation Section, Texas Forest Service, said today.

Windbreaks, when properly planted, reduce soil erosion by winds, protect homesteads and livestock, reduce soil moisture loss from evaporation, and protect newly seeded crops.

Feb. 11 is the deadline for ordering windbreak seedlings to be planted this year, Cloud said.

Windbreak species available now include: black locust, catalpa, Chinese elm, cottonwood, mulberry, orange, redbud, sycamore, euonymus, buffalober-

Orders must be for 100 or more trees in multiples of 50. Cash seedlings and seed is $1.50 per tree plus state sales tax. All orders will be shipped prepared between mid-January and the week of March, 1967. Seedlings may not be resold nor used for ornamental purposes. "Orders will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis," Cloud said.

Applications for ordering windbreak seedlings can be obtained from your local County Agent or from the Director, Texas Forest Service, College Station.

committees, future speakers will be limited to filling vacancies. Normal attrition would take the Legislature through at least six and possibly eight regular sessions before the committee majorities appointed by Barnes would be dissipated. The extensive rules changes sponsored by Speaker Barnes are one of a series of steps moving the Legislature toward a permanent status similar to that of Congress. Following will be proposed amendments to the Constitution authorizing annual sessions, higher annual salaries for members of the House and Senate, and substantial annual salaries for the speaker and lieutenant governor. IT CAN BE expected that as the Legislature becomes more permanent in nature, after seniority on committees has been well established, and the annual salaries of lawmakers climb to higher brackets, the rate of turnover in the Texas House, now about one-third every two years, will be sharply reduced. One of the reasons given by sponsors of the Texas House seniority system and permanent committees is to strengthen the prestige of legislators and help them in their campaigns for re-elections. As a starter the seniority system is one of no actual benefit, but it establishes a trend toward the seniority system in Congress. The rules change recommended by the speaker and unanimously adopted by the House after coaching from the senior interim committee which wrote them, kills off one theory that the best protection the citizenship has is the constant turnover in the Texas legislative halls. In the past there has been enough infusion of "new blood"—both conservative and liberal—to keep the floor and committee makeup free of perpetual domination by any one group or clique. IT MAY never happen—as argued by Speaker Barnes and Rep. DeWitt Hale, chairman of the rules changes committee—but the new committee system offers the possibility that any one permanent committee with a permanent nucleus, perhaps majority, eventually can be controlled permanently by one philosophy, or to be blunt, by one lobby. This possibility, made almost impossible as a permanent thing by the shakeup of committees every two years, is now there, even though it may never happen. The Legislature through its general investigation committees—although they have never proved themselves to be effective—has the right to extensive probing when a majority considers it necessary. The new committee system is armed with witch hunting powers if future speakers and future legislators decide to make the most of their possibilities. Again, the argument is that it never will happen. But the House rule changes make it possible. WHEN THE Legislature is not in session the speaker has the authority to determine the times and places standing committees may meet, or he can delegate this authority to the committee. The speaker can assign the subject. Section 36 of the new rule says: "Each standing committee shall have the power to issue process to witnesses at any place in the State of Texas, to compel their attendance, and to compel the production of all books, records, and instruments where necessary to obtain compliance with subpoenas or other process, all of which may be addressed to and served by either a sergeant-at-arms appointed by such committee, or by any peace officer of the State of Texas; and to cite for contempt, and cause to be prosecuted lawfully issued by it, in the manner provided by law." Facts About Water Farming requires almost three times as much water as the total needed by industry.

The steel industry through American Iron and Steel Institute, has sponsored research in the control of water quality since 1938.

A single body of water may have many users. Reasonable standards of water quality control, set by local officials, can protect this valuable resource so it serves all — industry as well as the recreation seeker.

Justiceburg resident undergoes operation

By MRS. BUD SCHLEHUBER
Mrs. Dezire Bevers underwent surgery at Hendricks Memorial Hospital a week ago Wednesday. She had been a patient there previous to the surgery for tests. Her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bevers Jr., were with her at the time of surgery. Their children, Glenna and Sonny, were overnight guests of the Ira Farmers in Post while they were gone. Mrs. Ella Murphy was a Tuesday luncheon guest of the Cecil Smiths.

Mrs. Bud Schlehuber, Mrs. Harry Wood and Mrs. Lee Reed were Tuesday visitors of Mrs. Fernie Reed.

Mrs. Harry Wood was a medical visitor in Slaton Tuesday. Bob Wilson of Midland was here on business last week.

Visitors in the Lee Reed home Tuesday morning were Mrs. Bud Schlehuber and John Boren.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Franklin celebrated a wedding anniversary Jan. 19. Rafael Rios Jr. celebrated a birthday Jan. 22. Mrs. John Boren, Jan. 25, and Ronnie Reed and Andy Torres and Irene Moreno will celebrate birthdays Jan. 27 and 29, respectively.

Bruce Reed was ill and missed school last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Schlehuber and Denise were medical visitors in Lubbock Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Morgan attended funeral services in Jayton a week ago Wednesday for Robert Taylor, a cousin of Mrs. Morgans.

MRS. W. T. Parchman, mother of Mrs. Sam Heintz passed away last Thursday morning in Carlsbad, N. M. where she had lived for the past several years. Mrs. Parchman was a former resident of Justiceburg. Funeral services were held in Carlsbad with graveside services at Post. We all extend sympathy to the Heintz family and all the other family members. Attending the graveside services were Mr. and Mrs. Raymon Key, Mr. and Mrs. Bandy Cash, the E. C. Franklin home Saturday. Mrs. Claude Pettigrew celebrated a birthday Jan. 16. Mrs. Fernie Reed was reported on the sick list Monday. Dee Cecil Justice returned to school Monday following an absence of several days due to being ill with the flu. Mr. and Mrs. Mason Justice have also been sick. Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Odom and children of Lubbock were recent Sunday visitors of his mother, Mrs. Harry Wood, and Mr. Wood. Visiting in the Elton Nance home one night last week were his sisters, Mrs. Morris Neff of Post, Mrs. Marvin McKinley of Mountainair, N. M., and Mrs. Ed Owens of Truth and Consequences, N. M., and Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Justice.

How to save your tax refund... and make it grow.

ONE CHECKMARK on Line 25 of your tax return is all it takes. It's that simple to get your tax refund in the form of a United States Savings Bond—which you can tuck away to be part of a down payment on a home, or the beginning of an educational fund, or a bit of extra security when an emergency comes along. And, you know, Savings Bonds pay you back $4 for every $3 invested in only seven years, so you'll have the satisfaction of watching your money grow. What's more, every Bond dollar backs up our men in Vietnam and helps to keep our country strong.

So think it over when you ask for your refund this year. Taking it in Savings Bonds is some of the easiest saving you'll ever do—and the most important for your country.

Bond Facts: Savings Bonds pay you back $4 for every $3 in only seven years... are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen... have special tax advantages... can be redeemed whenever the need arises.

Draft registrants are required to keep mail addresses up to date

Mrs. Ava Lee McGlaun, clerk of Local Board No. 88, Selective Service System, says failure on the part of registrants to furnish current information, especially their mailing address, was brought to the board's attention recently when a review of certain files began.

All Selective Service registrants are required by law to furnish up-to-date information for their files. The law also requires local boards to review files regularly. Files now under special review are those of men classified III-A because they are thought to be maintaining a bona fide relationship with their child or children. Files of many men classified I-Y are also being reviewed.

The clerk says the board has found an unreasonable number of questionnaires they mail out being returned for lack of proper address. This places the registrants in a tentative violation of the law, and continued negligence on their part can result in an unexpected penalization to those found guilty of violations.

Mrs. McGlaun said this notice is not intended to alarm registrants whose files are current, but to warn those classified II-A and I-Y whose files are not up to date.

Anyone wishing to respond to this warning should do so in writing, the clerk said. The letter should be over the registrant's signature, identified by his Selective Service number that is shown on his cards issued by the board.

Telephone calls are not considered authentic nor can they be accepted, compiled and recorded by the local board staff. For this reason, all responses should be in writing or by a personal visit to the local board office that has jurisdiction over all registrants of Crosby, Garza, Lubbock and Love counties.

During the Civil War, a New York City mayor, Fernando Wood, proposed that if the country should become permanently divided, New York City remain neutral and declare itself free.

In Palo Duro Canyon 'Texas' epic again paces park culture

CANYON — The cultural phase of the statewide state parks system will be paced again in 1967 by the outdoor production, "TEXAS" staged in picturesque Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

This pioneering project, so successfully sponsored in 1966 that it drew 61,338 persons, marks culmination of dreams by the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation.

Pursuit of the project now is a year-around undertaking. According to Mrs. Ples Harper, Foundation president, this was typified when twelve members of the production cast were flown to Austin to decorate an enormous float in the Governor's inaugural parade.

Also the Foundation will have an exhibit in the Sports, Vacation and Travel show in Los Angeles. It will adjoin the elaborate, official Texas state booth at the west coast event expected to attract 900,000 persons.

The national touch for the undertaking was established from the beginning when the noted playwright, Paul Green, was retained to handle the musical production about Panhandle history.

Green also has other outdoor dramas staged nationally including one, "The Lost Colony," set to begin its 30th season in 1967.

His directorship, according to Heritage officials, has helped establish a wide rating and to attract patrons from practically every state in the Union.

Reservations already are being received from vacationers in distant places for space in the 1,200 seat open air theater that has a distinctive 600-foot backdrop against the rugged canyon scenery.

One dramatic critic described Palo Duro State Park as a fascinating place to visit beyond the theatrical attraction because it is "a cross between the Grand Canyon and the Painted Desert."

Mrs. Harper said ticket application information may be obtained by writing the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation, Inc., Box 268, Canyon, Texas.

Enjoying birthday cake, cookies, coffee and Cokes were: Mrs. and Mrs. Buddy Kaatz and Mrs. and Mrs. J. D. Gindorf, Mrs. and Mrs. Wheatley, Jan Capps and Edie Cook of Post, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gindorf, Mr. and Mrs. Bishop, Page and Bill and Mrs. Gindorf of Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stolle, Mr. and Mrs. Stolle, Mrs. C. W. Gindorf and Jake Gindorf of Southland.

Homemakers hear about convention

Jane Terry and Joyce Howard were hostesses at the Monday night meeting of the Garza County Young Homemakers at 7:30 o'clock in the high school home economics department.

During the business meeting, Patsy Craig resigned as secretary-treasurer and Margie Pennell was elected to fill out the term. Joyce Howard reported on the recent state convention at Corpus Christi which she and her husband, E. A. Howard, and the Robert Craigs attended.

Margie Pennell presented the program on "How to Protect Your Children from Sex Molesters."

Refreshments were served to the following:

Lynette Thuet, Ruth Ann Young, Patsy McCowan, Margie Pennell, Elfreda Carpenter, Diane Moxley, Kay Lamb, Melody Thompson, Gayle Newsom, Sandra Hall, and sponsors Willa Didway and Marion Duncan.

Chapter to make library donation

Fifty dollars will be donated to the Post Public Library to be used toward the purchase of a card catalogue cabinet by the Gamma Mu chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority.

This action was taken at a called business meeting and social held last Thursday night at the Community Room.

The chapter also voted to donate $25 to the Birth Defects Center in Galveston as part of the sorority's stat philanthropic project.

A committee was appointed to evaluate all members and select the "Most Outstanding ESAer" to represent the chapter. March of Dimes envelopes were stuffed to be used in the Jan. 30 annual drive.

Margaret Allen and Linda Reynolds were hostesses and served refreshments to Sandra Alexander, Betty McLeroy, Bill Bullock, Gale Birkes, Theresa Gilbert, Blenda Roberson, Kay Pace, Betty Bilbo and Lavita Norman.

HOME FOR WEEKEND

Diane Kiker of Lubbock spent the weekend at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kiker.

Cherri Lee Norman, A. G. Cook wed Friday evening at Tahoka

Miss Cherri Lee Norman and A. G. Cook repeated their wedding vows last Friday at 8:30 o'clock in the evening at the First Baptist Church at Tahoka.

The Rev. Ray Martin, Baptist minister from Coleman, officiated at the double ring ceremony amid a setting of a large oval candelabra entwined with greenery and baskets of bronze mums.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Norman of the Grassland community and the bridegroom is the son of E. A. Cook of Tahoka.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal-length gown of white peau fashion with a florentine neckline, long fitted petal-point sleeves and an A-line skirt. The empire bodice and skirt front were accented with re-embroidered Alencon lace. The removable coat was bowed at the shoulders and swept into a chapel train. Clusters of pearl-trimmed roses held her elbow-length veil of imported silk illusion. The bride carried a cascade of stephanotis and a white orchid.

The bride handed her mother a white rose as she came down the aisle.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Dale Kincer of Floydada, sister of the bride. Maid of honor was Miss Nan Saage of Slaton, cousin of the bride. Other attendants were Miss Judy Connelly of Tahoka and Mrs. Tommie Jones of Lubbock. They all wore formal-length gowns of antique gold velvet made with scoop necklines, elbow-length sleeves and A-line skirts. They carried ball-shaped arrangements of bronze pom pom mums, ivy, and brown velvet ribbon.

Dawnann and Donny Kincer, niece and nephew of the bride, were flower girl and ring bearer, respectively. Auvie Dale Kincer, nephew of the bride, lighted the candles.

Gary Dan Thomas of Tahoka was best man. Groomsman were Dennis Clem of Tahoka and Bobby Cook of Tahoka and Lynn Cook of Patricia, brothers of the bridegroom. Ushers were B. J. Patton of Levelland, Joe Bell of Meadow, Mike Northcutt of Tulia and Milton Miller of Tahoka.

Mrs. Glenn Norman accompanied Vernon Scott at the organ as he sang "More" and "I Love You Truly."

The reception followed in Fellowship Hall. Members of the house party were Mrs. Bobby Cook, Mrs. Ray Saage, Mrs. W. A. Kincer, Mrs. G. W. Grogan, Mrs. Biscoe Mathis, Miss Jan Whitaker and Miss Voncell Grogan.

For the wedding trip the bride chose a yellow wool shift with matching coat, brown accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The newlyweds are at home at 117 28th St. Apt. 4 in Canyon where they are both students at West Texas State University. Mr. Cook is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Among the out-of-town wedding guests were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. S. L. Cox of Miami, Okla., and the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Charles Bragg of Fairfax, Va.

We received gift copies of two almanacs last weekend — one from Bob Collier and one from Bob Cox. (Note the alphabetical listings.)

I've never really studied an almanac before so I've been browsing through them and never have I learned more than I wanted to know in all of my life.

The Ladies Birthday Almanac came complete with calendar and alternates pages with information and ads. I take it that Black Draught For All the Family and Cardui For Women have been around for 85 years and no family should be without these items in the medicine chest. I'll let you guess which Bob gave us this one.

I was puzzled at first as to the why of "birthday" in the almanac name. After much perusing I found that there is a birthday proverb for the Bible for each day of the year. For instance, my birthday is Nov. 28 and I should read Romans 12:9.

The Farmers' Almanac is a by more modern looking publication and has been around for 150 years. According to the cover it contains "bits of logic, formulas for good cookery, weather prognostications, humor, poetry and odds and ends designed for your enjoyment and edification."

I never remember what sign of the zodiac I was born under and will probably forget it again but those born between Nov. 23 and Dec. 21 come under the sign of Sagittarius. According to the almanac this means I am impulsive, (true) honest, (most of the time) quick, (not as quick as I used to be) confident, (overly so) fond of sports, (true) a good housekeeper (debatable) fond of children (depends on the children) and firm, (was, but getting a bit flabby).

My lucky day is supposed to be Sunday (that's probably because I get to sleep late) and my unlucky day is Friday (which is my second Monday of the week because I have Thursdays off.) I'm going to be most successful in February and June. Successful in what, it doesn't say, and I can only hope that the other months aren't going to be so bad that those two just seem successful.

Both almanacs agree on the weather — we are going to keep having it.

In looking under the planting and garden calendar in the Farmers' Almanac I find that I wasted my time and pesticide spraying my shrubs Sunday, the 21st. I should have waited and sprayed through Jan. 26-29. Now, I have a problem. Will I kill the shrubs by over-spraying if I re-do it next Sunday or are they going to die from the pests anyway so more spray won't hurt a thing? Help!

Another problem arises. If I can't plant flowers on the dates specified should I not plant flowers or should I plant them and just not expect quite so much from them?

Under the "Wife Savers" column which is a Heloise-type affair in the Farmers' Almanac one is told how to mix their own furniture polish, what makes muffins rise in peaks and burst open, how to remove discoloration from teflon pans, how to make a glue which will stick to glass.

One is also told to keep the cotton from the top of pill bottles and use it to remove nail polish. When children lose the tips of shoelaces and the ends are frayed and unmanageable clip the ragged edges, twist and dip in colorless nail polish.

I think perhaps they should stick to weather prognostications!

FAMILY LUNCHEON

O. K. Bowen Sr. of Brownwood, Mrs. J. Lee Bowen, Linda Cannon, Mrs. Charlie Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Harper, Mrs. Mansil Richardson and son and Mrs. Bill Williams of Lubbock were Tuesday luncheon guests of Mrs. Mell Pearce, Gayle Bowen of Lubbock visited during the morning.

Recent bride is shower honoree

Mrs. Thomas Baker, the former Miss Joy Thomas, was complimented with a bridal shower last Friday in the home of Mrs. Roy LeMond in the Grassland community.

Mrs. Baker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Thomas and was recently married in Lubbock where the couple makes their home.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Ted Pridmore as they called during the hours of 2:30 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Clark Wood Jr., of Slaton, sister of the bride, served hot spiced tea, coffee, finger sandwiches, nuts and mints from a table decorated in the bride's chosen colors of blue and white.

Hostesses were:

Mmes. Irving Stewart, H. W. Edwards, Sam Edwards, John Thomas, L. S. Turner, O. C. Harrison, Bernice Shepherd, E. A. Thomas, Gus Porterfield, Pridmore and LeMond.

Shower is held for bride-elect

Miss Deanna Adams, bride-elect of Bobby Gibson, was honored with a bridal shower Saturday night between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock in the Community Room.

Miss Adams, her mother, Mrs. Keith Adams, and the prospective bridegroom's sister, Mrs. A. J. Howell Jr., received the guests who were registered by Miss Sue Litton.

Miss Nedra Childs served from a table carrying out the honoree's chosen colors of pink and white. Crystal and silver appointments were used.

Hostesses for the affair were: Mmes. Stanley Mathis, Jackie Braddock, Troy Horton, Bill Dixon, Jack Hair, J. B. Jones, Don Rose, Donald Ammons, Billy McKamie, Don Angerer, G. H. Clanton, Ralph Dean and Fannie Richardson.

WORKING IN OFFICE

Mrs. Darrell Jones is working at Sexton Insurance while Mrs. J. D. McCampbell is off for two weeks.

'Informal Education' program presented at chapter meeting

Dave Sanford, manager of Radio Station KPOS presented an interesting program entitled "Informal Education" at the Monday night meeting of Xi Delta Phi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority in the home of Mary Eckols at 7:30 o'clock.

Using excerpts from different recordings, Mr. Sanford pointed out how a person could be educated historically and informally by listening to recordings. He played actual recordings from World War II, excerpts of the voices of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Princess Elizabeth, (now queen of England) Winston Churchill, Lee Harvey Oswald, and songs and language of an early Indian tribe from the album, "The Great West."

Mrs. Ruby Butler is Mystic Club hostess

The Mystic Sewing Club met last Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Ruby Butler and enjoyed visiting and sewing.

The hostess served open-faced sandwiches, pie, nuts, mints, coffee and Cokes to a guest, Mrs. George Bell Johnson of Albuquerque, N. M. and to the following members:

Miss Henrietta Nichols and Mmes. Katherine Rankin, Lillie D. Short, Ruby Shedd, Aylene Runkles, Nell Windham, Jimmie Hudson, Cecil Gary, Winnie Henderson, Mae Shipley, Edna McLendon and Estlea Nichols.

Mrs. Henderson will be hostess for the Feb. 3 meeting.

Trinity women attend meeting in Lubbock

Representing the Trinity Baptist Women's Missionary Union at the quarterly association meeting last Thursday at the Highland Baptist Church at Lubbock were:

Mmes. Bobby Gordon, R. J. Blacklock, Keith Blair, Chester Keeton and Jimmy McGuire.

The group tied with the Antioch W.M.U. for the high attendance award.

Work Basket Knitting Club elects officers

New officers were elected at a recent meeting of the Work Basket Knitting Club. They are:

President, Pauline Wilke; vice president, Lottie Sanders; secretary, Pearl Riley; reporter, Susie Schmidt.

Mrs. Cleo Rogers was welcomed as a new member at this meeting which was in the home of Mrs. Sanders.

The club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Montee Adams. Coffee and cake were served to the following members:

Pauline Wilke, Lelia Gilley, Lottie Sanders, Willie B. Sullivan, Susie Schmidt and a guest, Minnie Graeber.

Actual sound tracks from the war in Vietnam, Harlem, etc., illustrated the value of past and current news events.

Actual sound tracks from the war in Vietnam, Harlem, etc., illustrated the value of past and current news events.

Mr. Sanford played excerpts of the musical, "Hello, Dolly," music from foreign countries, educational household tips, an interview of Miss Patty Duke by Norman Vincent Peale, and a studio production of the "Replica of the Birth of Christ" to show what we could have learned from this historical event had we had radio and television then.

Plans for the Valentine dance, which will be held in Lubbock Feb. 18 were discussed preceding the program.

The hostess served sandwiches, relishes, cake, Cokes and coffee to Bernice Eubank, Rosa Gambin, Willie Cross, Johnnie Francis, Wanda Mitchell, Margaret Lee, Betty Sanford, Shirley Moore, Lois Kennedy, Sherry Josey and Loretta Cates.

Mrs. Sanford will be hostess of the Feb. 13 meeting.

Lisa Morris is party honoree

Lisa Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Morris, was honored on her third birthday Saturday in the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Vera Gossett, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Following games birthday cake and punch were served to Lisa's brother, Ronnie Lee Jr., and to Becky and David Bausman, Todd and Jada Guy, Diana Blanton, Tim and Barry Moris, Dayla Redman, Mike Anthony, Marinette Hays, and Deann Ammons.

Mothers and relatives attending included Mmes. Jewel Graham, Ruth McClellan, Patty Bausman, Judy Guy, Sharon Morris, Allene Ammons, Lora Blanton, Judy Redman, Daphne Berkeley of Slaton, Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Ramage and family of Spur, Sonny Gossett, and the honoree's other grandmother, Mrs. Chester Morris.

Hostess quilts hemmed by Merry-makers Club

The Merry-makers Club members hemmed two quilts for their hostess, Mrs. Mabel Martin, when they met Tuesday in her home.

Roll call was answered with each member reading a Bible scripture. After the business session, Mrs. Martin served refreshments to the following:

Mmes. L. H. Peel, A. E. Floyd Percy Printz, J. F. Storie, S. C. Storie Sr. and Alma Sims.

The club will have a Valentine party Feb. 14, in the home of Mrs. Sims with Mrs. Wrenn Cross as hostess.

'Dance' program given Monday at chapter meeting

Flute King presented a program on "Dance" at a meeting of Texas Mu Alpha chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Community Room.

Mrs. King was assisted by Pat Schmidt, Janet Peel, Lois Fluitt, Karen Callaway and Becky Brown, who gave impromptu demonstrations of five different ballet positions.

Plans were made for the annual Valentine Dance, over which Maritta Reed will reign as "Sweetheart." Invitations will be mailed to guests for the dance, which will be held at the All-Star Corral.

Friday at 7:30 p.m. the chapter will host ten girls from Coahoma who are forming a new chapter, Alpha Beta Omicron. The pledge ritual, installation of officers and their first official meeting as a new chapter will be conducted by the local chapter at the Community Room.

Private training is under way with the first meeting to be held at Mrs. Callaway's home tonight (Thursday).

Sammie Maddox and Joyce Teaff served refreshments to those mentioned and Agness Parnell, Barbara Ethridge, Markey Rasbury, and Ruby Williams.

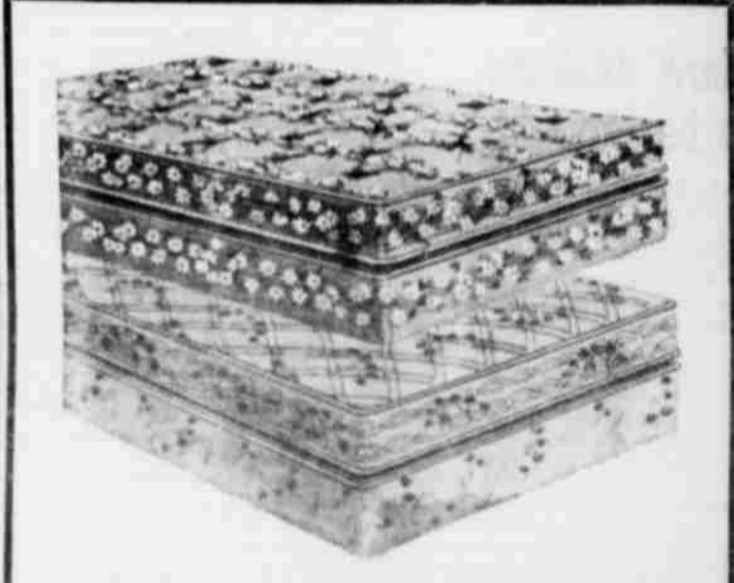

VISITS SISTER

Mrs. Ruby Kennedy spent the weekend in Lockney visiting her sister, Mrs. Maule Brister, who is in the hospital there.

Invitation Extended

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McCampbell extend a cordial invitation to friends and relatives to attend the wedding of their daughter, Judy, to Jerry Bush, Friday, Jan. 27, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening in the Post Church of Christ.

A reception will follow in the McCampbell home, 112 South Avenue P.

Power line falls on car, injuring Hamlin teen-ager

HAMLIN — Shooting insulators on a rural power line resulted in serious burns to a 16-year-old Hamlin boy Jan. 16, with his two companions narrowly escaping injury.

Steve Feagan was seriously burned when a power line on which an insulator had been broken fell on the car he was in. Robert Bailey, driver of the car, and Jimmy Lee Hastings had jumped from the automobile when they saw the line begin to sway.

Hastings, a Hamlin High School junior, said he saw Feagan with his hand on the dash and his clothes on fire. He attempted to pull him from the flaming car, but the shock knocked him to the ground.

Hastings was successful in a second attempt to rescue his companion, and revived him with mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

The father of one of the boys said the three were shooting insulators when the accident occurred.

The automobile was completely destroyed by the flames.

The injured youth was taken to John Sealy Hospital in Galveston, where it was reported that skin grafts will be necessary on three spots on his body.

Ralls-Tex Mill operations end

RALLS — Ralls-Tex Mill here ceased operations in December, it has been announced.

Real property and most personal property owned by the mill was purchased in a trustee sale by Sam Pettigrew of Grand Prairie, subject to a prior and first lien in favor of Citizens National Bank and a prior and second lien in favor of Jean D. Smith, president.

Smith, in a letter to stockholders, stated that any stockholder or group of stockholders desiring to help put the mill back into operation should contact him.

More Afghans to be brought TYLER — Early in February the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department will make a second release of Afghan whistling pheasant, says Biologist Joe B. Davidson.

The birds, 140 of them, will be air-shipped from California to western Texas as a part of the Department's foreign game-bird experimental program. This is an effort to supply more wild game for the hunter, without interference with native game bird stocks.

These pheasants will be released in Gaines, Lynn and Lubbock counties, according to Davidson.

This area has been inspected by wildlife biologist and determined to provide habitat suitable for the imported birds.

Colorado City stores lose to check artists

COLORADO CITY — Bad check artists hit five food stores here Jan. 14.

They walked away with groceries and the better part of $210 of the six checks they cashed. Each of the checks was written in the amount of $35.

Assistant Police Chief Truman Henderson said description of the man and woman cashing the checks were meager, but he believed they were out-of-towners experienced in the racket.

Chemicals' role in agriculture to be discussed at Texas Tech conference

LUBBOCK—Chemicals and their contributions to West Texas agriculture, including a vital role they can play in the problem of brush control, will be discussed in a conference at Texas Tech Feb. 8-10.

The 14th annual Agricultural Chemicals Conference, a joint venture of Tech, Texas A&M, the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, will feature presentations by more than 20 regionally and nationally known chemical experts.

Aimed at agricultural chemical industry personnel, the conference will cover new developments and ideas in chemistry. Conference participants will include those who work directly with agricultural users. More than 300 are expected to attend.

Parke C. Brinkley, president of the National Agricultural Chemicals Association, will deliver the keynote address on Feb. 9. Two special seminars on insect and plant disease control and fertilizers and control of weeds and brush will highlight the afternoon session.

Registration will begin at 5:30 p. m., Feb. 8 at the KoKo Palace followed by a reception at 6 p. m. Registration will continue Feb. 9 in the Tech Student Union.

Dr. Grover E. Murray, Tech president, will officially welcome the delegates at 9 a. m. The welcome will be followed by Brinkley's address.

Activities of the USDA Pest Control Service will begin the work session discussions with emphasis on the Mediterranean fruit fly program and a leafhopper and a grasshopper survey. Programs on verticillium wilt of cotton and the use of chemicals on close-row planting will round out the morning's program.

The special seminars will occupy the afternoon.

Included in the discussions on insect and plant disease control will be analyses of seed treatments with fungicides, cotton seedling diseases, nematodes and nematocides, pesticide residues on vegetable crops and seed treatment with systematic insecticides.

Fertilizers - and - control - of - weeds - and - brush seminar topics will cover soil surface applied barriers for moisture conservation, fertilizer research 1966, herbicides for weed control in agronomic crops, new herbicides and developments in weed control and practical economic aspects of weed and brush control.

A session on the progress and future of the boll weevil program will kick off the final day of activity followed with a report by the soil fertility committee. A study of new developments in brush control and a wrap-up on the economic outlook for use of chemicals in West Texas will end the meeting.

Tech agronomy Prof. Chester C. Jaynes is conference chairman along with Dr. Robert W. Berry of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

CAN YOU HEAR A

CHILD'S HEART?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

That poor doctor! All he can hear is a thump-thumping in his stethoscope.

But parents can hear more!

They can hear their child's heart in his excited voice... in his pounding feet... in his noisy play. And the sounds they hear are full of happiness, and hope, and promise.

In his prayers, too, parents can hear their child's heart... reaching confidently toward the Love and Power that grown men sometimes forget.

But hearing a child's prayers is only one little gesture in the tremendous responsibility of nurturing the spiritual development of a Christian heart.

Like the doctor's stethoscope it's a kind of routine checkup before we prescribe what the patient needs.

The heart of a child needs religious example in generous doses which only his parents can provide. And the heart of a child needs spiritual truth, of which his family's Church is the convenient, trusted dispensary.

One-act play's cast is chosen

By Elaine Bland
The Interscholastic League one-act play will be presented April 1 and is "Death of the Hired Man" taken from the poem by Robert Frost.
The cast was chosen as follows: Max Jimmy Johnston; Mary Elaine Bland; Warren, Paul Walker; Edna, Paula Cravy.
The play is under the direction of Mr. Gordon Lee.

The sun gives the earth six million times as much light as do all other stars put together.

Post High School Happenings

By Marcella Newby
Last Friday several of the high school organizations and classes met to elect their representatives for the FHA Sweetheart contest on Feb. 11. Those chosen were: Kay Altman, cheerleaders; Donna Stewart, Future Teachers of America; Debbie Eubank, Library Club; Donna Mathis, Commercial Club; Edith Johnson, FFA Greenhands; Natha Jo Mears, FFA; Marcella Newby, Lettermen's Club; Nancy Hendrix, Pep Squad; Linda Altman, Senior Class; Nedra Childs, Junior Class; Belinda Lee, Band; Sharon Bilberry, Sophomore Class. Other representatives will be chosen at a later date.

Last Friday the High School Choir presented a program for their peers in the gymnasium. The entire choir sang a number of Irving Berlin songs first, and then the boys' choir performed. Following the boys' choir, the four special groups sang some popular songs, concluding the program. The choir did a fine job, and was greatly helped by the accompanists, Jan Wilks and Nancy Hart.

The Senior Ways and Means Committee, with the help of the Senior sponsors, have selected a play which will be presented April 7, barring no complications. The play, entitled "Hobgoblin House" is a mystery comedy with a cast of 12 characters — six boys, five girls, and one "headless phantom". The part of the headless phantom is the most sought after, since there'll obviously be a scarcity of lines to memorize. Support the Super Senior class and come to the play April 7. Don't forget!

Speaking of support, the Does and Antelopes would like to thank all these loyal fans who never miss a game and to those who do miss the weekly basketball games, maybe you don't know what you're missing, or maybe you do. Anyway, since we are now in district competition all the games are very important, so get out and support your team! O. K?

On Driver's Training

Post High School is in TV contest

By Lorena Anderson
"How would you like to be on TV?" This was a question Mr. King asked several PHS students the last few weeks. He is trying to get some representatives from Post to enter a contest in Driver's Training. All the schools in the area are represented and competing against one another.

The show is similar to College Bowl and comes on Saturday at 3 p. m. The contest is already in progress but PHS's first showing will be on Feb. 18. Before that time arrives Mr. King will give a trial test to all the students he has asked. The three that make the best grades will be the representatives from Post and the fourth highest will be a stand-by.

These representatives will travel to Lubbock on Thursday, preceding the 18th, and will be recorded. If they win that day they will get to compete again. Prizes and trophies will be awarded.

'Fantastic Voyage' showing at Tower

Intriguing science - fact and exciting science - fiction describes "Fantastic Voyage," 20th Century-Fox's CinemaScope and DeLuxe color adventure drama now showing through Saturday at the Tower Theatre.

"Fantastic Voyage," for the first time on the major film screen, visualizes the beautiful and strange world of "inner space" — living body of man.
A group of scientists in a special nuclear submarine, all reduced to the size of a microbe, is injected by hypodermic into a man's neck, and suddenly enter a dazzling world of color and beauty, a floating wonderland of huge red corpuscles, whirling globules, platelets and other particles in the bloodstream. In their mission, to perform a delicate brain operation, which can only be performed from inside the body, they must combat the elements of the body as well as a saboteur within their group.
Starring are Stephen Boyd, Edmond O'Brien, Raquel Welch, Donald Pleasence, Arthur O'Connell, William Redfield and Arthur Kennedy.

PHS seniors ordering graduation invitations

By Ann Usery
As the year finally begins to grow to an end the seniors are beginning to prepare for graduation. One of the preparations is the ordering of senior invitations.
The seniors have until Feb. 10 to order them and are doing so through the Post Dispatch.

Youngster is burned in trash barrel explosion

SEAGRAVES — Joe Smith, 14-year-old Seagraves boy, was seriously burned Jan. 16 when a container of turpentine exploded in a trash barrel near which he was playing.
The youth received severe burns on his hands, arms, chest and the right side of his face. He was flown to the John Sealy Hospital in Galveston by air ambulance.

Disguise For Modern Power Plant

Hollywood—(HK)—An ominous looking throwback to the days of gunboat diplomacy plied the shallow inland waterways of Formosa last spring, but the USS San Pablo stowed more face powder than gunpowder. Built from the keel up as a movie prop, the ship was crammed with lighting and special effects equipment—including a coal-burning stove to provide the smoke belching from her tall stack. Her actual power, built into a four-foot-high engine room aft in the hull, was supplied by two 180-horsepower Cummins marine diesels. The San Pablo was built for the Robert Wise production of "The Sand Pebbles," a movie being released by 20th Century Fox and is a replica of a steamboat used to patrol the Yangtze River during the mid-twenties.

Area youths praise Job Corps training

Manuel Criado of Post and Samuel Camacho of Lubbock, formerly of Post, were two of four Job Corps youths interviewed by the Lubbock Avalanche - Journal while home for the holidays.

According to the article in the Lubbock paper, the four Job Corps members "gave the organization a high score, are happy they joined it, and recommend it to others who might find themselves in circumstances similar to theirs."
Criado, 19, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jose Criado. Camacho, 18, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Camacho of Lubbock, and the brother of Abel Camacho, an employee of the Post Dispatch.

Camacho attended Matthews Junior High School in Lubbock, but dropped out of school. He said he was just loafing before he joined the Job Corps and was sent to Grants, N. M., Job Corps Center June 28.

"I hope to become a heavy equipment operator and have received some training on a caterpillar at camp. I like it fine and am getting a lot out of classes in algebra, blueprint reading and science," Camacho said.
Camacho also is learning water and sewer line installation.

Criado, who went to the camp at Grants the same time as Camacho, went through the sixth grade at Post. He had dropped out of school and had some experience as a construction worker before joining the Job Corps.

"I hope to be a welder after I'm through with the camp and expect to complete the camp in another year and a half. I've had some shop training and am learning reading, mathematics and blueprint reading," Criado said.
Criado said he enjoys playing on

Q. I have a widow's pension from the Veterans Administration. I received in the mail a punched card asking about my income this year and expected income next year. My income has not changed from that I have already reported the past several years. Do I need to return this card?
A. Yes. It is necessary that the questionnaire be filled out and returned each year so that your payments may be continued without interruption.

Q. Is it true that the cutoff date for World War II veterans to get a G. I. Home Loan is near?
A. Time is growing short for veterans of World War II to use their eligibility for home and business loans. The deadline is July 25, 1967.

Even the ash tray rides smoother in Chevrolets

When you're down at your dealer's trying out a new Chevrolet, be sure you pull out the ash tray. Notice how nice and easy it glides, never hanging up or even scraping. The reason is, it rides on ball bearings. Four shiny little ball bearings. (Take the tray all the way out and you'll see them.) You say you don't even smoke? Then look at it this way. That ash tray is a symbol of the way we make cars: Paying extra attention to the little things as well as the big ones, as a way of making extra sure your '67 Chevrolet gives you

Former Post youngsters to play with combo at youth center Saturday

Steven Michael and Dale Kay, sons of former Post residents Mr. and Mrs. Jess Michael and Mrs. Letha Kay, will play at Post's Teen Town Saturday night, Jan. 28, with "The Lox," teen-age combo from Lubbock.

Steve, a former member of the "The Shantells," who played for the Victory Dance here, is lead guitar player for The Lox, and Dale is lead singer for the group. Both boys attended the first three grades in the Post schools.

The Lox is a well-known combo among Lubbock teen-agers. They play for Texas dance parties, city-sponsored teen dances and many other activities.

Mrs. Will Wright is Thursday Club hostess

By MRS. O. H. HOOVER
Mrs. and Mrs. Glenn Huffaker and family, who are moving soon to Denver City to make their home, were honored with a covered dish supper in the Community House in Tahoka Jan. 19.

The Thursday Club met Jan. 19 in the home of Mrs. Will Wright. All members were present except Sue Maxey.

I spent the weekend in Childers and attended funeral services of my brother-in-law, Sylvester Stevens at the Baptist chapel. He would have been 93 May 2 and he and my sister would have celebrated their 67th wedding anniversary Feb. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hester of Lamesa visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl Greer Monday. Other visitors were Mrs. Vada Warrick of Lubbock, Mrs. Lucy Cunningham, Mrs. Tom Murray and Mrs. O. H. Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Townsend visited the Carl Greers Saturday night. Ruby McClendon brought hamburgers, French fries and cold drinks and they enjoyed a picnic supper and watched Lawrence Welk on colored TV.

The Greer children surprised their mother on her birthday last Thursday with a covered dish dinner. Attending were Bethel Brown, Alton Greer, Morris, Ruby and Phil McClendon, J. B. and Hazel and Lori Greer and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Freer of San Angelo.

Mrs. Joy Linley underwent major surgery Monday at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. We hear she is doing very well at this time. She is the mother of Mrs. Sam Edwards. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

The W. G. McCleskeys' daughter, Jonell, and granddaughter, Lori, went home last Thursday to Selah, Wash. leaving from Amarillo on the train at 9:45 p. m.

THE BERT McDONALD and Hulan Murrays of Odessa spent Sunday with their parents, the Tom Murrays.

The W. G. McCleskeys visited Uncle Mas and Aunt Nora Ritchey Sunday afternoon.

The H. E. Huffakers were Sunday luncheon guests of their son, Roy, and family in Lamesa.

Mr. and Mrs. McCleskey, Mrs. Lucy Cunningham and Mrs. Tom Murray visited Grandma Gribble and Jim Patterson Monday. We are glad to report Mrs. Patterson is much better—walks around and can talk some.

The Carlos McCleskey children all have the measles. The mother, Janette, had them first so, of course, the kids were next. Happy landings, children.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Laws, J. F. Moore, Opal and Otis Bosworth attended the funeral services of an aunt, Mrs. Kate Brookfield, Tuesday of 10 a. m. in Prisma.

Rocky Gribble will play on the Al Hayes program sometime this Saturday afternoon on TV.

Mrs. Gerner's mother, Mrs. O. F. Haley, seems a bit better at this writing. She is in Mercy Hospital recuperating from a broken hip. She has to have lots of medication to keep her easy. We wish for her better days soon.

Laura Gerner spent the weekend at home.

Visitors of Mrs. O. F. Haley during the weekend were Mary Kaywood, Beulah White, Mrs. Le-man Mathis, Bishop and Reba Mathis, Minnie Boyd, Laura Gerner, Peggy Claborn, the Rev. Joe Vernon, Mrs. Ralph Gray of Lubbock, Glen and Ruth Mathis, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Haley and Cindy of New Home and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Josay.

ECONOMIST OUTLINES

OUTLOOK FOR CATTLE IN 1967 COLLEGE STATION—Total cattle numbers in the nation on Jan. 1, 1967 were down an estimated one and a half to two per cent from a year earlier, reports John B. McHaney, Texas A&M University Extension economist.

More important, he adds, from the price standpoint is that cow numbers are down and the result will be a lessening in the productivity capacity of herds.

The 1966 calf crop in the nation was down almost 900,000 head from 1965 and a further reduction is likely in 1967, McHaney says.

Cattlemen, he notes, are generally more optimistic now about future prices and are beginning to take steps to expand numbers. This is indicated by reduced cow and calf slaughter in the last half of 1966 and is expected to continue in 1967, the economist says.

McHaney sees a smaller supply of feeder cattle in 1967 than in 1966, and this, coupled with a strong demand, is expected to give continuing strength to this phase of the industry. Feeder and stocker prices are expected to remain well above year earlier levels during the coming months due to interest in herd rebuilding and the strong demand by feeders.

The economist says strength in fed cattle prices this year likely

Santa Fe Slaton Division is safety award winner

AMARILLO—J. P. Spears of Slaton, superintendent of Santa Fe Railway's Slaton Division, was singled out for special honors today at the railroad's annual safety meeting here.

Spears' division won first place in safety over 15 other operating divisions that comprise the Santa Fe Railway by working more than 1,750,000 man hours in 1966 without a single lost time injury.

"We have searched the company's records as far back as they have been kept, but this spectacular achievement has never been equalled," declared F. N. Stuppi, general manager.

More than 250 officials from over the entire system heard Stuppi credit much of the Slaton Division's safety performance to Spears.

Spears has 847 employees under his jurisdiction to operate the 1,188 miles of railroad that make up the Slaton division. The division is bounded on the north and east by Canyon, Tex., and Altus, Okla., extends west to Farwell and south to Presidio, Tex. Within these boundaries are such important Texas communities as Post, Plainview, Lubbock, Slaton, San Angelo, Sweetwater, Snyder, Floydada and Seagraves.

Asked what he attributed his division's amazing safety performance to, Spears responded instantly, "Enthusiasm."

"This has been wholly a team effort," he said. "We've held a lot of meetings which I feel have penetrated deeply into the safety consciousness of the employees. They realize there is more than just life and limb at stake. There's the well-being and happiness of their home and family, too."

The 57-year-old superintendent is married and the father of two sons, both of whom are also employed by the Santa Fe.

TEXAS FARMERS COMMENT ON SOIL TESTING

Texas farmers, 1,500 of them, recently were given an opportunity to comment on services provided by the soil testing laboratory operated by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Texas A&M University.

Extension soil chemists C. D. Welch and Carl Gray, said 720 farmers returned the survey cards. The 1,500 who got the cards had one or more soil samples analyzed by the laboratory during the past year.

Gardens, lawns, greenhouse tomatoes, and samples from problem fields were not included in the survey, the chemists said.

Ninety-five per cent of the returned cards showed that farmers understand the information on the soil test report sent from the laboratory; however, comments made by many producers indicated they needed assistance from the local county agent, fertilizer dealers or others to properly interpret the analysis and recommendations.

Ninety-eight per cent said they read the explanation sheet returned with the soil test report. The purpose of these explanations is to clarify questions about time and method of application for some crops and to emphasize the importance of following a good production and soil management program to get the greatest money return on fertilizer investments, the chemists explained.

Eighty per cent said they used the fertilizer recommended. This, said the chemists, is strong evidence that soil tests are an accepted tool or guide for decision making on the kind and amount of plant food to use. Those who did not follow the recommendations gave several reasons for their decisions. Decided not to fertilize, recommendations were too high, recommendations were too low, could not obtain the fertilizer suggested; applied fertilizer suggested by a dealer while three per cent gave other reasons, including a lack of adequate financing.

Then the big question—has the use of fertilizer been profitable? Ninety-seven per cent of the 720 answering said yes. Many commented that fertilizer use is a must in today's agriculture and indicated they'd like additional information on how to use more and also would like to get test reports on secondary and micronutrients.

Most of those who said fertilizer use last year was not profitable also pointed out it was not a good crop year in their area.

Welch and Gray said as farmers continue to use fertilizer over longer periods and in higher amounts, soil tests will become even more important for measuring the changes in soil fertility levels and as an information source on which to base a fertilization program.

Frenship tilts Friday open home stand for Post teams

Post Antelopes and Does open a three-game home stand Friday night against the Frenship Tigers and Tigerettes in District 4AA contests.

The Slaton Tigers and Tigerettes here Tuesday night, Jan. 31, and will meet the Stanton boys' and girls' teams here Friday night, Feb. 3.

District 4AA play, with the Slaton games here Tuesday night launching the second round.

The Antelopes are heavy favorites to defeat the Frenship five, which is winless in four district outings. The Does, however, will have to pull all stops to score a win over the Frenship females, who are defending district champions and have won their first two league games over Slaton and Stanton.

Donna Howard and Judy Townsend are the Frenship Tigerettes' one-two scoring punch. Donna scored 30 points and Judy 22 in Frenship's 62-54 win over the Slaton girls, and Donna scored 30 Tuesday night in her team's 66-57 victory over the Stanton girls' team.

Post freshman on all-tourney team

Post's high-scoring freshman, Altman, made the all-tourney team Saturday in the annual 9th grade basketball tournament despite the fact that his team lost both its games.

Altman pitched in 11 of his 24 points in the final quarter.

In Friday's game, Lamar maintained a slight edge over Post throughout most of the action, leading 14-5 at the end of the first quarter and 23-17 at halftime.

Post's David Pierce was credited with seven points in the Lamar game and the same number against Sweetwater. Steve Newby hit 13 against Lamar, but only one against Sweetwater. Butch Houston scored seven points in each game, while Neff Walker got one against Lamar and two against Sweetwater.

Snyder Travis won the tournament by beating Lamar, 52-48. Stamford won the consolation trophy, and Sweetwater copped third place with its four-point win over Post.

Methodist pastors plan conference

Twenty Methodist pastors attended a called meeting of the Northwest Texas Conference's Board of Evangelism here Tuesday.

The group met at the First Methodist Church here and had lunch with Post Rotarians.

The Rev. Curtis Lee, local pastor who is secretary of the board of evangelism, said the all-day session was held to plan a conference on renewal of the ministry to be held in early April.

O'Donnell defeats Post's 8th grade boys in overtime

O'Donnell hit a field goal in the final nine seconds of a three-minute overtime Monday night to nudge Post's 8th grade boys, 35-34, in conference action at O'Donnell.

Post led 30-23 with five seconds left in the regulation playing time, but O'Donnell knotted the score with a field goal just before the buzzer to send the game into overtime.

Johnny McGuire and Robert Bulluck were Post's top scorers with 12 points apiece. W. D. Sims and Larry Bilberry each hit five. Mersch, with 16 points, was O'Donnell's high scorer.

Others seeing action for Coach Bud Davis' Post team were Eddie Jennings, Pat Ayala, Johnny Hodges, Bobby Hodges, Lee Wayne Maddox and Jerry Bratcher.

Coach Waco Reynolds' 7th grade team won, 18-7, with Kyle Josey and David Woods hitting seven points each, and Danny Vargas and Jimmy Dooley, two points each.

The Post junior high boys' teams go to Tahoka for conference games Monday night.

Antelopes shoot past Morton tribe, 61-51

The Post Antelopes brought their conference mark to 2-1 and their season record to 14-4 here last Friday night by downing the stubborn Morton Indians, 61-51.

The Antelopes, sparked by Ronnie Pierce's 28 points, broke the game open early in the third quarter after the Indians had made it close throughout the first half.

With sophomore Bryon Willis doing a good job, the Indians stayed nearly even throughout the first quarter, and were behind by only one point, 15-14, at the buzzer.

Pierce, held to five points in the first period, scored seven in the second on a fielder and five free throws, and Duke Altman hit two from outside to help the Antelopes post a six-point, 35-27, halftime lead.

Pierce hit 11 points on five field goals and a free throw in the third period, as Post racked up 18 points to only eight for the Indians. Also helping the Antelopes in their third quarter surge were field goals by Altman, Davis Heaton and Norman Tanner and a free throw by Heaton.

The 'Lopes were ahead by 16 points, 51-35, when the third quarter ended, but Morton pulled six points closer by outscoring the locals, 16-10, in the final period.

Pierce's 28 points and Altman's 12 were the only double figures in the Post scoring column. Willis finished with 23 for Morton and Donnie Harvey with 12.

The scoring summary: MORTON — Thomas 1 4 6; Moore 1 2 4; Willis 9 5 23; Harvey 4 4 12; St. Clair 1 0 2; Davis 2 0 4. TOTALS 18 15 51.

POST — Windham 2 1 5; Tanner 3 1 7; Pierce 10 8 28; Heaton 3 2 8; Duke Altman 6 0 12; Sappington 0 0 0; Bartlett 0 0 0; Johnson 0 0 0; Smith 0 0 0; Harper 0 1 1. TOTALS 24 13 61.

7th, 8th grade girls win pair

Post's junior high girls' basketball teams won a pair of close ones at O'Donnell in conference action Monday night, the 8th grade girls winning, 20-18, and the 7th grade girls, 11-10.

Rita Valdez paced the 8th grade girls' triumph with 11 points. Cynthia White hit five; Sue Eubank, three, and Sherry Bird, one.

Wilma Bullard and Melvena Stewart did all of Post's scoring in the 7th grade game. Wilma making eight points and Melvena, three.

The junior high girls, coached by George Edgerton, go to Tahoka Monday for conference games.

Post rolls over Mustangs, 75-53

A big second half enabled the Post Antelopes to overcome a seven-point Denver City lead and defeat the Mustangs, 75 to 53, Tuesday night at Denver City.

The Mustangs led by four points at the end of the first half and upped the margin to seven before the Antelopes caught fire behind the 39-point performance of Ronnie Pierce.

Post outscored Denver City, 43 to 17, in the second half, but were three minutes deep into the third quarter before they started hitting.

The Mustangs hit 32 per cent of their field goal attempts in the first half, while the Antelopes were connecting on only 40 per cent. Post came up to a 47 per cent in the second half, however, while the Mustangs cooled off considerably from their first half shooting percentage.

Pierce's 39 points came on 14 buckets from the field and 11 from the free throw line. Davis Heaton and Duke Altman hit 12 apiece.

Dwaine Young and Gary Hatfield each scored 14 points to pace the Denver City scoring. The victory brought the Antelopes' season record to 15-4 and their District 4AA mark to 3-1. Denver City is now 1-3 in district competition.

The scoring summary: POST—Heaton 4 4 12; Altman 4 4 12; Pierce 14 11 39; Windham 1 2 4; Tanner 1 0 2; Smith 3 0 6. TOTALS 27 21 75.

Late rally by Does nips Tahoka, 50-45

The Post Does came roaring from behind in the fourth quarter here Monday night to defeat the Tahoka girls, 50-45, in a crowd-pleasing non-conference contest.

The Post victory evened the score between the two teams, Tahoka having won, 69-66, on their court last Thursday night.

Coach Jiggs King's Does, trailing by five points, 38-33, going into the final quarter, outscored their opponents, 17-7, in that period to gain the victory.

After trying the game twice on field goals by Sherry Woods, the Does went ahead to stay on a free throw by Karon Windham.

The game was a rough one, Post being whistled for 31 personal fouls and Tahoka for 25. Edith Johnson and Linda Altman fouled out and three other Post players finished the game with four fouls.

Both teams had bad nights at the free throw line, Tahoka hitting only 10 of 23.

Rotarians see movie on art of weaving

Post Rotarians at their weekly luncheon in City Hall Tuesday saw a Burlington Industries' sound film on the modern art of weaving.

It was presented by Dick Dickson, public relations and personnel manager for Postex Mills.

21 of 40 attempts and Post 14 of 33. Sherry Woods was the game's high scorer with 20 points. Sue Woodall and Teresa Mason each hit 19 for Tahoka, and Karon Windham 18 for Post. Other Post scorers were Sharon Windham with seven and Edith Johnson with five. Both Woods and Johnson alternated between forward and guard positions.

The Does' starting guards were Vicki Martin, Marcia Newby and Linda Altman, with Kay Altman and Jaymie Josey also seeing action at guard and LaGayluah Young at forward.

At Tahoka last Thursday night, Edith Johnson scored 28 points and Karon Windham, 25, in Post's 69-66 loss. Sharon Windham hit eight points, Sherry Woods four and LaGayluah Young one. Sue Woodall led Tahoka with 31.

Denver City 'B' team beats Post

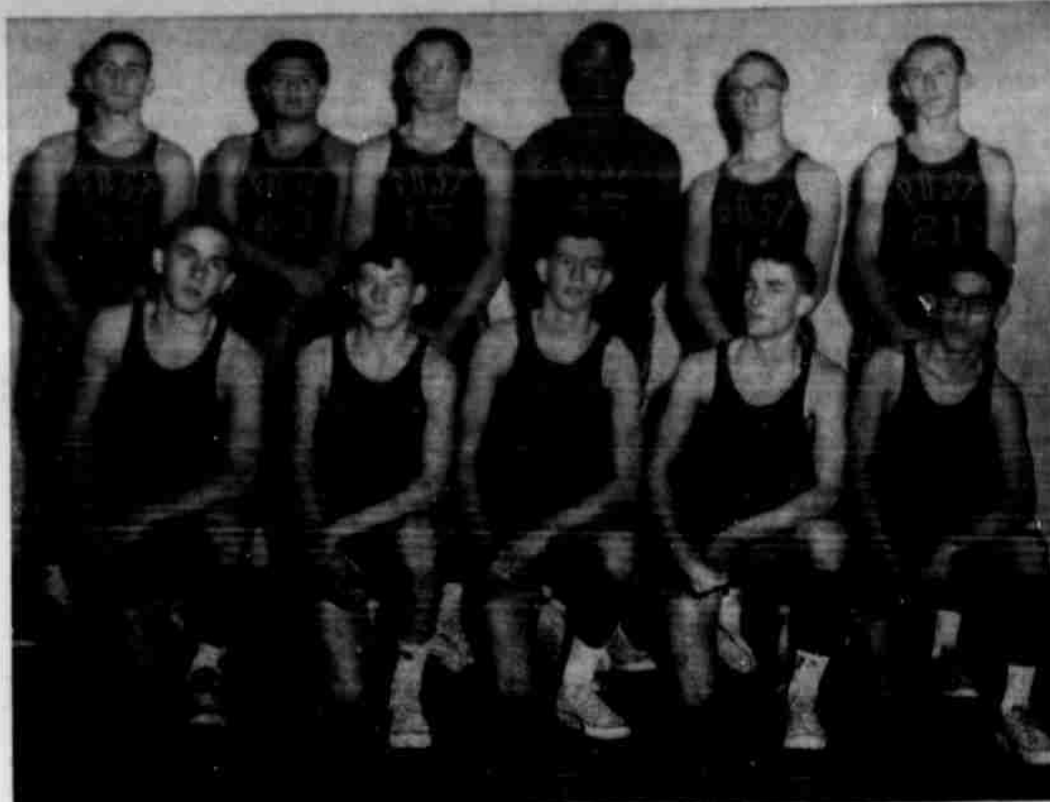

Mike Scott scored 17 points in a losing cause Tuesday night as the Post Antelope "B" team lost to the Denver City "B" team, 63 to 36, on the Mustangs' court.

The teams were tied, 12-12, at the end of the first quarter, but Denver City pulled away to a 33-21 halftime lead, and were out in front, 59-29, going into the fourth quarter.

Scott's 17 points tied him with Denver City's Taylor for game scoring honors.

Others scoring for Post were Nick Pantoja, nine; Ronnie Petty and Elbert Rudd, four apiece, and Jimmy Pollard, two. Mike Robinson and Delbert Rudd also saw action.

More than half the people of the United States live within 500 miles of Cleveland, Ohio.

The Post Antelope "B" squad, which played at Denver City Tuesday night, is trying hard to even its record before the season ends. Front row, left to right, are: Delbert Rudd, Darrell Odum, Mike Robinson, Ronnie Petty and Steve Collazo. PIERCE AVERAGING 30 POINTS A GAME

Ronnie Pierce, senior post man for the Post Antelopes, is averaging 30 points—right on the button—through his team's first 18 games.

Pierce, through last Friday night's Morton game, had scored 540 points on 211 field goals and 118 free throws.

Davis Heaton is second in the Antelope scoring totals with 206 points for an 11.5 average.

Other scorers, their totals and averages, are: Duke Altman 159, 8.8; Donnie Windham, 124, 6.9; Norman Tanner 120, 6.7.

Post 'B' cagers lose to Morton

The Morton Indian "B" team overpowered the Post Antelope "B" team, 57 to 30, here Friday night in a preliminary to the varsity game.

Morton led 10-3 at the end of the first quarter. Post's only points coming on a field goal by Nick Pantoja and a charity toss by Ronnie Petty.

The locals didn't do much better in the second stanza, scoring only four points on two free throws by Mike Scott and free throws by Petty and Gary Young. The Indians, meanwhile, scored 16 points and led 26-7 at the halftime intermission.

Post did better in the third period, scoring 14 points to Morton's 15, then falling behind by seven more points, 16-9, in the final quarter.

Pantoja was Post's high scorer with 12 points. Hawkins scored 19 for Morton.

SNYDER VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Penser and daughter, Earlyn, of Snyder were weekend guests of the Monroe Lanes. They also visited Mrs. L. A. Barrow.

Youth revival set at local church

Garner, Donald Cobley.

Parents wishing more information on their sons joining the Cub Scout program are asked to check with the den mother nearest their neighborhood. There is room for several others who would like to join.

The dues for each Cub are 50 cents for registration and $1.50 for the magazine Boy's Life, which is used for preparation for each den meeting, plus the fact that it is good reading for the entire family. Each Cub is to bring 10 cents to each weekly meeting. This is to help pay for supplies used at the weekly meetings and dues.

The Rev. Richard Young of San Antonio will conduct a youth revival at the Church of the Nazarene beginning Wednesday, Feb. 1, and continuing through Feb. 5.

Services, to which the public is invited, will be held at 7 p. m. during the revival, according to the Rev. Charles E. Peters, pastor of the church. There will be special music.

Southland area news

Funeral conducted for former area resident

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE
 Say, how did you like that fog and dampness Monday morning? Was nice for a change, wasn't it? Just wish it would have hung on, and then turned into rain!

We would like to extend our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Winifred L. Hallman who died early Sunday morning in West Texas Hospital after being hospitalized for several days. He was raised in this community and graduated from Southland High School in 1911. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hallman. He is survived by his wife, Fern, one son and three daughters. Three brothers and one grandson. Funeral services were held Jan. 25 at the Episcopal Methodist Church and he was buried in the City of Lubbock Cemetery. Mrs. G. D. Miller and he with this family in their time of sorrow. Winifred was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Loo Spivey. We would like to extend sympathy to Mrs. G. D. Miller who is brother-in-law. Gene Murey of Fossil, Okla., died and was buried last week. Mr. and Mrs. Edie attended the funeral. May the Lord comfort them in their sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Wilke of Wilson visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Becker Saturday night and enjoyed playing "49".

Thom Forster of Lubbock was a weekend guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Limmer and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Mueller and Linda visited in the home of the Benio Wilkes Sunday.

THE SOUTHLAND High School basketball team journeyed to New Home Tuesday of last week for three games. The boys "B" team was defeated, but then the picture changed and we came out the owners of the other two games. Darrell Wilke got his ankle twisted in the very first play of the game and will be out of the action for while. Friday night, the Wilson Mustangs came to Southland to play and our girls beat their girls 36-24. Our girls tried to make 100 points but failed to do so. The boys got beat 71-57. Our girls have won all their district games so far and the boys have lost two games. They played Comper Tuesday night here and the junior high teams played at Ropesville Monday night.

Patsy Gindorf woke up Saturday morning with the mumps after playing a line game against Wilkes Friday night. Guess she will be out of action for while. Patsy we are going to miss you!

Edmund, Sherri, Darrell and Yvonne truly visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Becker and Helen in Slaton Sunday. Also visiting the Beckers were Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McMin and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kiser.

R. D. Eckert is still a patient in John Sealy Hospital in Galveston and isn't doing very well. His wife and her daughter, Marie, are still there with him. I am sure they would enjoy and appreciate a card or word of comfort from some of you. Just send it in care of the hospital and I am sure they would receive it.

Mr. and Mrs. Arno Albrecht and son, Warren, of Corpus Christi, arrived early Monday morning to be with their daughter, Mrs. Winifred Hallman, in her time of need and sorrow. They had just been here visiting the Hallmans and the Leo Stoiles and had returned to their home one day last week.

We were so sorry to hear that Mrs. Ed Lieske's grandson who lives in Wichita Falls suffered a bad arm injury recently. We certainly hope that everything goes well with him.

The Rev. and Mrs. Billy Wilson of Wellington visited last weekend with his brother and family, the Rev. and Mrs. Tommy Wilson and Tommie Jean. Billy preached at the Southland Methodist Church on Sunday. He is pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church in Wellington.

FRIENDS of the Rev. and Mrs. Cline Drake bid them a fond farewell at a supper party given in their honor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon McGehee. Twenty-two were present at the party. The Drakes were presented a beautiful wall clock. Rev. Drake has been pastor of the Gordon Church of Christ for a number of years and has made many friends here and in other communities. They are moving to Cotton Center and this community is really going to miss them. He always had a smile and a word of cheer for everyone, regardless if you were a member of his church or not. Bye now!

Sherri and Darrell Wilke went with a group of young people from Grace Lutheran Church at Slaton on Sunday night to the Winchester Theatre where they saw "The Blue Max."

PLEASE call me your news!

Library

By ROSEMARY CHAPMAN
 The questions left for the Library Listening Post in the "Question and Suggestion" box at the library were not quite the sort of thing anticipated. However, it's been a slow week.

Q. Just exactly what is it that Mrs. Jack Lott does to raise money for the library?
 A. Mrs. Lott plays the tambourine at various local functions. Sometimes people put money in it to make her stop.

Q. Is it true that you don't really have a sister?
 A. No.

Q. Our family would like to make a small monthly contribution to the library. Do you have any suggestions?
 A. Good question — the only one. It might be added. Why not join one of the many book clubs available and give each monthly selection to the library? We also need magazine subscriptions and, of course, just plain cash is always welcome. If any of these ideas seem appealing, contact Helen Cornish, our new and very competent Acquisition Chairman, for further information.

Q. Did you ever get any fan letters?
 A. Yes, Iris Power sent me a fan letter. It read, "Hello from Wonderful Wyoming."

Q. Who told you you could write?
 A. Who told you you could?

One of the above questions is a fake. If you can guess which one, this column will personally pay your next library fine. Also, your name will appear on our bulletin board. (We have to have SOMETHING to put on that board.) Send entries to R. Chapman, 1815 Crest Dr. Just one entry per person. Contest ends Monday, Feb. 2.

If you are feeling rather gloomy this week, check out "Everytime But Money" by Sam Levenson. It is a warm, happy book of childhood reminiscences which could provoke a chuckle from the most devout man — depressive.

There are good bits like this on every page: "Compulsory education was not regarded by my people as a legal imposition but as a golden opportunity — part of the dream that had brought millions of immigrants to America. The word "culture" brought tears even to Papa's eyes, but he could not taste sense out of the stuff they were teaching us in school, like "The cow says, 'Moo, moo,'" the cat says, "Meow," the dog says, "Bow wow." What's the matter with these animals? Papa used to say, "Can't they talk English?"

"Everything But Money" is currently leading the non-fiction best-seller list and I'm glad. Have you ever noticed some of the losers that get on there?

For a rousing sea adventure, try Ian de Maritz's new book, "The Captain," which tells the story of Martinus Harinxma, master of a Dutch rescue ship during the 1940's.

Kay Pace, treasurer of "The Friends," reports that the Gamma Mu chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha has voted to donate $50 towards the purchase of a much-needed card catalogue cabinet for the library. We are extremely grateful.

This sum, combined with Jerri Lott's contribution of $77.46, leaves us only $76.04 short of the price of the cabinet. Would anyone like to make up the difference? Give up now, and give. You know what nests people who need money can be.

The Jayceeettes have done it again. Many thanks to Myrna Richardson, Norman Baumann, I. O. F. Blanton and Anita Blanton for the latest repair work done to a large sack — full of our older books.

Rev. George Miller is sponsoring a book discussion group which will meet for the first time tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 in the Presbyterian Church. Plays and books underlining Christian beliefs will be selected for future topics. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

I cannot think of an ending "Helen, since you are 'Our new and very competent Acquisition Chairman,' would you consider tackling something new and competent onto this?"

Rosemary: "No, I wouldn't. I'm having enough trouble with my own column."
