

Crop prospects hold up despite heavy rainfall

Moisture total tops 30 inches

A week of wet weather which has brought the official rainfall total in Post to over 30 inches for the first time in many a year hasn't hurt Garza's bumper cotton crop prospects — yet.

At least that's the opinion of local cotton observers.

"What we need now is some clear, dry weather," Lewis Herron, the bank's agricultural representative, told The Dispatch yesterday.

"I don't think we've been hurt if it'll clear off," Herron declared. "I think the cotton was too far along for the rain to affect the microclimate."

But, as Herron pointed out, five days of wet, dank weather out of the last seven has "brought everything to a stop" as far as cotton maturity is concerned.

Post officially has received 2.87 inches of additional moisture from last Thursday through yesterday morning.

That brought the year's total to 30.47 inches.

Since only 72 of a inch was recorded in the first four months of 1972, this means that almost 30 inches of moisture has been received here in less than six months.

The 2.87 inches of new moisture was recorded as 30 last Thursday, .75 on Friday, 1.29 Saturday, .65 Sunday, .43 Monday, and .65 to 8 a. m. today.

In case you want to look at the 1972 month by month picture, no moisture was recorded in either January or February, .60 in March and but .12 in April.

Then came the deluge.

It reads: May 2.74, June 3.40, July 4.38, August 11.49, September 4.87, and now October 2.82—all of October's in the last week.

The average freeze date for this area is around Nov. 4.

So a real bunch of cold weather right now would hurt all late maturing cotton.

"A couple of light frosts before our first freeze would really be beneficial," Herron explained. "because the frosts would help the cotton harden and open."

Only a few bales have been harvested in the Post area to date, and reports on these haven't come back as yet to serve as an indicator of what may lie ahead.

"Production wise," Herron said, "we've got a good crop in sight."

CONVICTED OF MURDER HERE IN 1951

New trial or release ordered for prisoner

The U. S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas has ordered that William Ray Woods, now serving a 50-year sentence from Garza County for murder with malice, be given a new trial within 120 days or be released from custody.

Woods, a Negro, was convicted of murder at a jury trial in the 106th District Court here, on Dec. 20, 1951, and sentenced to 50 years in the penitentiary.

Woods, in application for a writ of habeas corpus, asserted that his conviction is constitutionally void and should be set aside on the following grounds:

A. That petitioner was afforded ineffective assistance of counsel at his trial, thereby denying his rights under the Fifth Amendment of the U. S. Constitution.

B. That he has been effectively denied his right to appeal his conviction and have counsel on appeal, a denial of Fifth Amendment rights.

C. That those of the Negro race, of which petitioner is a member, were systematically and deliberately excluded from service on the grand jury and petit juries in Garza County, Texas, prior to and at the time of his conviction, as were all Spanish-surnamed persons, denying his rights under the 14th Amendment of the Constitution.

Post lawyer Pat N. Walker, who represented Woods at his trial here, said he brought up the jury exclusion points in getting Woods' first indictment for murder quashed. A second indictment was quashed as faulty, but a third indictment resulted in Woods' trial and conviction of murder with malice.

Woods was charged with the murder of an innocent bystander who was shot to death by Woods while the latter was having an altercation with another man.

The court order that orders the new trial for Woods or his release from custody states:

"Although the record is not exactly clear, it appears that in the year of petitioner's trial, 1951, one Negro was summoned as a member of the petit jury panel. This same man was summoned for a period of at least five years thereafter and on each and every occasion he claimed his legal exemption of being blind and at all times was excused from petit jury service. Other than this there is no indication in the record that any Negro, during the period in question or approximately 20 years prior, was a member of or ever summoned to

NOT TO BE DIVIDED

School trustees rescind order on bus route here

Here we go again on that controversial school bus route — or is it bus routes?

Post school trustees in a special session last Friday afternoon rescinded their previous order dividing the bus route northeast of Post into two routes, after Super. Bill Shiver was told in no uncertain terms by the state that the local board had no authority to split up the route in the first place, and that the continuation of two routes could have "serious future implications."

The local school district has been paying the extra cost for the extra route since the route was divided at the start of school because of a very muddy road which had to be negotiated twice daily during the August and September rains.

At that time, school trustees said they acted "in an emergency."

Shiver was told last Thursday by the state transportation authority such bus route action rested with the county school board and then required approval of the state school commissioner.

School trustees are hopeful that the county board may be able to "initiate something". So they rescinded their illegal act, and wrote a letter to the county school board asking them to work closely with the state to try to alleviate "our problem."

Old restaurant is being torn down

Demolition of the old Levi's Restaurant building, just off Main street on North Broadway, began Tuesday.

The building, which was condemned by the city council after having been declared a fire hazard, is being torn down by a crew headed by Spike Strofer.

J. N. Power of Lubbock, one of the owners of the property, gave the city the go-ahead sign on its demolition after being notified that condemnation proceedings against the structure were under way.

The late Levi Noble owned and operated the restaurant for several years. After he sold it, the place was under two or three different operators until being closed a few years ago.

Funeral held for former resident

Funeral services for Mrs. Hallie Brannon, 79, of Lubbock, formerly of Post, were held at 3 p.m. Sunday in Hudman Funeral Home chapel with Rev. Robert Griffin, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

Mrs. Brannon, who had been a resident of Lubbock for 27 years, died Friday morning in West Texas Hospital there.

Survivors include two sons, Ben Howell of Houston and Ted Brannon of Everman; a daughter, Mrs. Ethel Jean De La Rue of Kentucky; two stepsons, Grady Brannon of Dallas and Claude Brannon of St. Petersburg, Fla.; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Mae McMahon of Post; 10 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home.

Fire destroys auto following explosion

An automobile parked at Mac's Lounge was destroyed by fire at 10:30 p.m. last Friday.

Fire Chief Neal Clary said what was described to fireman as "an explosion" caused the fire that destroyed the automobile.

An oil field worker from Snyder who has been working on a rig near Post was owner of the car.

OPES HIGH FOR BROADER COVERAGE

$9,500 UF drive is off to a good start

Garza County's 1973 United Fund drive is off to a fast start, but it's too early to tell whether it will be a smashing success or a disappointing failure.

The progress report to Jim Cornish, drive chairman, said that many of the drive's leaders had high hopes of broader population coverage than in the drive with three years ago. City police again this week warn parents that they will be held responsible if they allow their minor children to operate automobiles or other motor vehicles, including motorcycles, without an operator's license.

Parents are reminded that a state law prohibits anyone operating a motor-driven vehicle on public property without a driver's or operator's license.

"We intend to enforce the law and parents will be fined on if their children are picked up while operating a motor vehicle without a license," the police said.

Funeral conducted for Mrs. Denton

Funeral services for Mrs. Magdalene Denton, 80, who died Sunday at her home in Hackberry, were held at 2 p.m. Sunday at the First Baptist Church in Southland, with the Rev. J. N. Power officiating.

Mrs. Denton, who was born in 1892, in what was then the Territory, was married to J. H. Denton at Hollis, Okla., on Oct. 10, 1909. They moved to the Hackberry community in 1915.

Mrs. Denton was a member of the Order of Eastern Stars, and the Hackberry community. She was the wife of J. H. Denton, who was a member of the Hackberry community.

Survivors include her husband, J. H. Denton, and three children: Alvy Williams of Post, Tex.; Curtis Williams of Post, Tex.; and Curtis Williams of Post, Tex.

Mrs. Nancy Jolly has taken over the downtown employees division chairmanship on an emergency basis when Mrs. Mary Jo Tanner was called out of the city by the critical illness of her husband's father. Mrs. Jolly volunteered to step into the breach because Mrs. Tanner wasn't sure how long she might be gone.

The big business division kicked off Friday afternoon with an assignment meeting at the First National Bank, but several committee members were out of town and didn't get started until this week.

DISTRICT CONVENTION

School out Friday; teachers to meet

This Friday will be a school holiday for the approximately 1,200 students of the Post Public Schools while teachers and administrators are attending the fifth annual convention of District XVII, Texas State Teachers Association, in Lubbock on Friday and Saturday.

More than 5,000 South Plains educators are expected to attend the convention, which has as its theme "Quality Education for All."

Delegates to the convention will meet Thursday evening at 6:30 in the cafeteria of Coronado High School for a banquet and business session. Standing committee reports will be heard, and officers for the ensuing year will be elected. Mrs. Mary Raphael, district president, will preside.

Dr. Kenneth W. McFarland of Topeka, Kans., educator, author

Usually, the business division gets up to a week's head start.

The Postex Plant employees division was to get down to work this week under the direction of Postex Plant personnel manager, Walter Didway.

"We've only had scattered returns," Cornish reported. "But one of them was a $300 check mailed from a regular contributor in the business division before a contact was even made."

The unusual thing about this was that the check was misaddressed to a local business firm, which promptly wrote out its own United Fund check and passed it along with the $300 check without a solicitation either.

"We depend on our regulars to get close to our goal and new money to put us over the top," Cornish said.

The First National Bank in an ad in today's Dispatch says that a 100 per cent participation by everyone is needed.

Homecoming dance

The Post High Ex-Students Association reorganized in a meeting last night in the Reddy Room and completed plans for a Homecoming dance in the community center following the Homecoming game with Roosevelt Nov. 10. A. J. McAlister was elected president.

Next week will be the "political edition" of The Dispatch. It's the last issue before the Nov. 7 general election. So, if you want to squander a few bucks on your favorite candidate in his search for votes, get your ad copy in Monday at the latest. We'll take them tomorrow, or Saturday too.

Two general sessions will be held concurrently Friday afternoon at 2:15. Dr. John H. Furbay, whom a New York City newspaper called, "America's Non-Stop Airborne Orator," will address the secondary teachers in the Coronado High School auditorium. His subject will be "Education for a World in Transition."

Elementary teachers will be at Dr. Madeline Hunter, principal of the Universal Elementary School in Los Angeles, Calif., in the Monterey High School auditorium. Her subject will be "Individualized Instruction."

Emmett Barnard of Post is an officer of District XVII. TSTA, serving as treasurer.

Remember the atrocity pictures which came out of Germany at the end of World War II? Well, we're calling the pictures in last week's paper "The Dispatch's German atrocity pictures."

The whole thing was our little German engraving machine went completely haywire and we didn't know how bad the pictures were— and there was a raft of them—until we went to press Thursday morning. It was too late then because the little picture machine would have had to "buzz-buzz-plunk" for five full hours to make another set.

We hope we've found the trouble but we're never sure. Anyway, this is to report we're especially sorry to all those nice folks who were in the pictures, including the 4-Hers. It wasn't Editor Charlie's fault. His pictures were plenty good.

Fans are "talking" a bus to the Denver City game next Friday night — a week from tomorrow night — so if you're interested, make up your mind.

Round trip tickets will cost $5 for the game trip and there must be 33 tickets sold to charter the bus. If you want to go call in your reservation to Ronald Simpson, Antelope Booster Club prexy, at the bank. He must know by Monday (and this Monday the bank will be open).

Jack Alexander and Jim Cornish attended the dinner meeting at which some 14 new sponsors of troops indicated they will push forward to organize new troops or explorer posts in the next few weeks.

A luncheon meeting is scheduled here in early November to start work on obtaining leadership for such a troop.

Lucas successful bidder on truck

Harold Lucas Chevrolet-Olds was revealed as the successful bidder on a new sanitation truck at a special meeting of the city council last Thursday.

The local firm's bid, the lowest of three submitted, was $5,266.45.

At its regular October meeting, the council had accepted the Pak-Mor bid of $3,540 on a refuse collection unit for the new sanitation truck.

The new equipment deliveries are expected to be made within five to six weeks and the new sanitation truck in operation soon afterwards, according to Pete Maddox, superintendent of public works.

Three pass their GED exams here

Three adult students already have passed their GED tests to qualify for the equivalent of a high school diploma. Lane Tannehill, instructor for the new adult education program here, told The Dispatch this week.

Tannehill said 31 adults are enrolled in the GED class and attendance at the night classes is averaging 24. He said 20 attended Oct. 16, 24 on Oct. 17, and 22 Oct. 23.

"I'm proud of their efforts," Tannehill declared.

Absentee voting mail requests taper off here

The peak of mail requests for absentee ballots for the Nov. 7 general election appears to have been reached last week with the announcement at the county clerk's office that approximately 50 requests had been processed.

Clerks in the office said yesterday that only "a few more" mail requests for ballots have been received, and that only a few persons have been in the office to cast absentee votes in person.

Four of the mail ballots sent out have already been returned to the office, a clerk said.

Absentee voting for the general election opened Oct. 18 and is to close Friday, Nov. 3.

The general election ballots will carry the names of candidates from the precinct offices through that of president. In addition, there will be 14 proposed constitutional amendments on the ballot.

Creating interest locally is the write-in campaign of O. G. (Jr.) Shepherd for the office of county sheriff, where Sheriff J. A. (Jimmy) Holleman is a candidate for re-election on the Democratic ticket. Shepherd is a former Post city marshal, policeman and chief of police, and for the last several weeks has been employed as chief of police at Wilson, in Lynn County.

New Scout troop pledged for Post

Two members of the Garza County Community Action Committee pledged efforts to establish a new Boy Scout troop under the committee's sponsorship at a dinner meeting of sponsor-interest organizations within the council area in the officers club at Reese Air Force Base in Lubbock Tuesday night.

Jack Alexander and Jim Cornish attended the dinner meeting at which some 14 new sponsors of troops indicated they will push forward to organize new troops or explorer posts in the next few weeks.

A luncheon meeting is scheduled here in early November to start work on obtaining leadership for such a troop.

MILLER TELLS ROTARIANS

Community library requirements met

"The Post Public Library is now a full member of the Texas State Library System," the Rev. George Miller told the Rotary Club at its Tuesday luncheon in City Hall.

"It has met all requirements, including a book collection of 10,000 volumes, to qualify as a community library. To reach this goal in six years, we think we've done a good job," Miller added.

These remarks followed a tape and slide presentation on the Library System and services available in the 29-county Lubbock Major Resources Center area. Through its link with Lubbock, the Post Library has access to all the library materials available in the ten major libraries of Texas as well as the Texas State Library in

Dispatch reviews four amendments

Come poll time Nov. 7, voters are going to be handed a ballot which contains 14 proposed state constitution amendment changes. Unless you give this some advance thought, it will be difficult to cast an intelligent vote on these.

As has been The Dispatch's editorial policy, we review the pros and cons of these amendments before such elections and give you our recommendations, too.

Amendment No. 1 is to increase the annual salaries of members of the Texas Legislature from $4,800 to $8,400 with no changes in the $12 per diem expense allowable or mileage expenses.

It has been 12 years since voters approved a change in such salaries, boosting them to $4,800 and dropping per diem expenses from $25 a day during the session to $12 for 120 days and 30 days for special sessions.

Texas voters have turned down salary increases for their lawmakers in 1965, 1968, 1969 and 1970 when it was proposed a commission set legislative compensation.

The arguments are still the same. Some won't make the financial sacrifice to run, many who do have to keep a business or job going "on the side" to afford it. The arguments against it is the increase in cost of state government at a time when Texas finances are already overburdened, the fact that law-making still remains a part-time job, and even a boost to $8,400 wouldn't open up the position to most folks, so why change. The Dispatch is willing to go along with the increase, but expects the voters to turn it down again.

Amendment No. 2 is to abolish the Lamar County Hospital District. Lamar County wants it this way, so why not let them.

Amendment No. 3 would require that all justices of the peace be paid by county commissioners on a salary rather than a fee basis, effective Jan. 1, 1973. Texas voters switched all county law enforcement officers and constables onto a salary basis in 1948 from fees.

Arguments in favor include (1) promotion of integrity and better justice by removing possibility of conflict of interest, (2) would establish more uniformity in compensation for justices of the peace, and (3) should reduce appeals to county court of decisions. Against is that (1) law system tends to encourage more diligence among these judges, (2) a justice of the peace dependent upon the commissioners court for salary may lose some of his independence, and (3) a loss of some excellent justices could result as an aggressive justice of the peace could receive a much larger income from fees than a mandatory salary set by the commissioners court. The Dispatch would vote yes, nonetheless.

Amendment No. 4 is the most important on the ballot. It would grant the legislature the authority to establish a constitutional revision commission which would report its recommendations no later than Nov. 1, 1973, and also provide convening of members of the 63rd Legislature as a constitutional convention to serve 60 days for the purpose of drafting a new constitution for submission to the voters of Texas.

For general background, consider this. In its 95-year history, the Texas Constitution has been amended by the voters 200 times. It contains no provision for constitutional revision, although most state constitutions do establish such a procedure.

Arguments for are (1) there is real need for a more workable basic law such as that of the proposed amendment, which would require less periodic revision, and (2) as the legislature has always been entrusted with the function of proposing constitutional changes, the legislative body is the logical choice for responsibility in the preparation of a new or revised constitution.

Arguments against are (1) constitutional reform cannot and should not be effected through an entirely new document, which is one of the alternatives open to the convention, and (2) constitution revision is not a legislative function and should not be so delegated. The people themselves should elect members to such a constitutional convention if a new or revised constitution is wanted.

The Dispatch sees this amendment as only the first step in change, as the people in the end can turn it down. But this newspaper does not believe the climate is right for constitutional consideration in the wake of the recent Austin scandal. Right now, the folks at home simply don't trust the politicians in Austin.

The Dispatch will review the last 10 proposed amendments next week. There are some dillies left, too.

Let's re-elect Sen. John Tower

The Dispatch endorses Sen. John Tower for re-election in the upcoming general election in the belief that he has made Texas a good senator, so why change?

This newspaper believes the state can certainly benefit from having a Republican senator because we are convinced the country will have a Republican administration for another four years. That's a plus his opponent can't offer.

What's more, Senator Tower has gained considerable seniority in the job and should Republicans win control of the senate he will be a powerful committee chairman in that body. That's also a plus his opponent can't offer.

We think most folks will agree Tower has done Texas a good job.

There are no real issues in the senatorial campaign that we have been able to discover other than Democratic Candidate Barefoot Sanders thinks Tower has missed too many days on the senate floor. Well, Barefoot missed a whopping total himself when he was in the Texas legislature and shouldn't be trying to pull the wool over voters' eyes with the idea that a good senator spends all his time on the senate floor.

Senator Tower has a good record for performance. That's what counts. That's why he deserves another six years in the job.—JC

Ten years ago

NEXT TUESDAY is Halloween, which is one holiday most folks had just as soon forget, and have everybody else forget.

Halloween has proved costly to Post on many occasions, with not only the city, but also business places and, in some instances, private citizens having to "dig deep" to pay for the destruction wrought by Halloween "vandals."

WITH HALLOWEEN night coming on Tuesday this year, perhaps that will cut down on the property damage and other vandalism that shouldn't come under the heading of "Halloween fun." Let us hope so.

If it isn't raining cats and dogs on Halloween night, as it is right now (Friday morning, Oct. 20), there'll be the usual number of youngsters out trick-or-treating in g. So, watch out for them if you're driving around next Tuesday night.

I DIDN'T realize until I read it somewhere a day or two ago that trick-or-treating was originally an adult custom instead of a children's custom, as it is today. English country folks went "a-souling" on Halloween, begging for "soul cakes, door to door."

In Ireland, hundreds of years ago groups of farmers went from house to house soliciting food for the village Halloween festivities, promising good luck to cheerful givers and threatening tightwads with evil fortune.

BUT IT WAS the kids who originated Halloween customs after all. It was the custom in some regions for children to dress up in each other's clothes (boys donning girls' outfits and vice versa) and go out to play tricks and collect loot.

In recent years, some of the fun has been taken out of trick-or-treating because of such dastardly acts as razor blades being hidden in apples or candy bars, "doped" chewing gum and candy, etc.

HOWEVER, WE'VE just received a letter from the Confectionery Industry Education Council, which, in effect, pours "cold water" on such reports. Naturally, they're interested in the sale of candy and other Halloween confections, and they "hope" none of these reports are true.

While I'm quite sure many of the stories of "tainted" treats are "made up" by the children themselves, there have been too many instances for them all to be childhood fantasies. Anyhow, here is the letter from the Confectionery Industry Education Council:

"Traditionally, Halloween has been a time for parents and children to join together for an evening of family fun. Recently this event has been marred by reports of alleged occurrences which have received coverage by some newspapers and other media. Usually, the report is of a 'tainted' treat which has supposedly been given to unsuspecting children during their Halloween rounds.

"Growing evidence now shows that most of these stories in reality are hoaxes which have proven to be unfounded through police investigations. Since any threat to children, real or otherwise, is a matter of great concern to all of us, the 'trick' provides an effective means of creating an emotional response among parents and notoriety and publicity for the perpetrators. In a sense, this sort of trick is on us.

"Two major dailies have published investigative features on the problem of Halloween hoaxes. In the case of the Los Angeles Times, the reporter found that a study of the files of detectives in Los Angeles, Detroit, Philadelphia and elsewhere revealed that 'almost two-thirds of the incidents that are reported — turn out, under scrutiny, to be either hoaxes or occurrences of minor importance.' The Des Moines Register and Tribune reporter found that 'police in Iowa cities and towns have been unable to confirm a single one of the Halloween reports this year.'

"It is your duty, of course, to report to the public any matter in the public interest. However, the snowballing effect of the publication of a number of unverified reports not only tends to encourage the perpetration of similar hoaxes but also can encourage sadists to attempt the 'real thing.' When the police are kept occupied with hoaxes, they are unavailable to attend to the real needs of the community.

"Therefore, you are urged to check all Halloween stories this year with careful scrutiny. We are not requesting any publicity on this matter. The National Confectioners Assn., in cooperation with the national Jaycees, sponsors a Halloween Safety Program which has been adopted by over 200 communities. We would appreciate your support of this program.

"We would also appreciate any information concerning Halloween hoaxes which comes to you in the

About This Question:
"Outboard motor boats and equipment are covered only to $500 by a Homeowner Policy — including many risks of loss or damage when actually in the water. Would 'all risk' Outboard Motor and Boat insurance cover the motor dropping off in deep water or the boat splitting on a submerged rock or stump while the basic Homeowner Policy would not?"

you'll switch to electric heat

An electric heating system has staying power and maintenance is practically unheard of. It's the modern way to heat, now and in the future. Operating cost? Why not find out? Get the whole story. Call us this week for your free operating estimate. It's a real eye-opener.

First business meeting held by HERO Chapter

By CONNIE FLORES
The Home Economics Cooperative Education Program is set up to help junior and senior students gain on-the-job under actual business experience. Training is offered in many businesses in our community including the following: food service employee, care aide, companion to the elderly, clothing assistant, housekeeping management, and house-keeping maintenance.

We are a part of the Future Homemakers of America organization and our chapter is known as HERO-FHA. Mrs. Marion Wheatley serves as our classroom instructor in addition to our training-on-the-job. Officers have recently been elected by the chapter. They are: president, Carmen Flores; vice-president, and Randy Flores; secretary-treasurer, We had Donald Windham from Garza Hospital speak to us during a job interview and the advantages training offers to the students and employers on Oct. 18.

It is learned that there are certain characteristics which an employer looks for in his employees. These include honesty with his job performance and with himself, they like to have someone who is sincere about his answers, shows interest in the place of employment and who has some knowledge about background information in his specific field. They like someone who is neat in appearance and job performance as well as having someone who is motivated and looks toward the future.

An employee who will be employed also has qualifications which make him an asset to any organization. He is one who has gained self-confidence, works and gets along with others, looks ahead to the future by reading up-to-date information on his job and asks for help when he needs it.

Having an optimistic attitude is by far the most important asset an employee and employer can offer his organization. An employee should look for the opportunity in advancement and also look into the benefits offered by the organization he plans to join.

the citizens this week are from senior class. Congratulations to Connie Flores and John Johnson. Sure everyone is excited about today from school this Friday. I don't know how I'll spend the state we get report cards soon it might not be a bad idea to get on the good side of my parents and brace them for that shattering news.

anyone has noticed all the braided rings being worn wondered why so many people wear them—believe it or not they're wedding rings. It seems that everyone in school got married at the marriage booth hon-

Twirp Night.

For the people who don't know, the student body isn't supposed to leave the gym before all of the football boys are out and the band quits playing the fight song after the pep rally.

One of our teachers, Miss Harris, has decided that at lunch when there's no place around Collier's to park - the sensible thing to do is to get out and move the bus stop sign (which is also a no-parking sign). Miss Harris, I must hand it to you, that's the logical solution, (but I'm not so sure it's legal).

Jo Beth Gandy has a "secret plan" that she's using to eliminate Country & Western music—find a cowboy and tear up his tapes. Much to Ricky Thomas' misfortune, he was almost her first victim. Run fast, Ricky!

The junior class is doing a really swell job with the concession stand at the football games — they're lucky to have such a nice new building, too. It was a little different last year—wasn't it, seniors.

HINT TO THE WISE: Mud thrown is ground lost.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: The pessimist sees difficulty in every opportunity. The optimist sees opportunity in every difficulty.

Mr. Giddens named 'Teacher of Week'

This week's "Teacher of the Week" at Post High School is Joe Giddens.

Mr. Giddens has been teaching for 12 years and has spent two years with the Post school system and enjoys associating with young, energetic people. Mr. Giddens graduated from West Texas State University with a B.S. degree and teaches United States History. In his spare time, Mr. Giddens hunts, golfs, and loafs. He also participates in the TSTA and Texas High School Coaches Association. When asked what being chosen "Teacher

By JENNY MILLER
There was a pep squad meeting held Tuesday of last week after school.

The meeting was called to order by Jenny Miller since the president and vice president were both absent. There were questions brought up and discussed about the trip to Denver City and eating with the band students.

The meeting was adjourned and signs made afterward.

of the Week" meant to him, he neatly summed it up as "An honor."

Two seniors named as 'Citizens of the Week'

By GLENDA NEWDIGER
Last Friday Connie Flores and John Johnson were elected "Citizens of the Week." They both are seniors at Post High School.

Connie Flores keeps herself quite busy here in school. She is second vice-president of FHA, president of HECE. She is in the National Honor Society and is training for child care aide in Post kindergarten.

Her favorite subject and teacher are Home Economics Cooperative Education and John Alexander. Her favorite pastimes are reading books, cooking and sewing and drawing objects of nature. For her future she plans to attend Texas Tech University and major in elementary education (kindergarten).

When asked what it meant to be selected as "Citizen of the Week," she said, "It's a great honor. It makes me feel that I am doing something worthwhile for myself and for my school. I will do the best I can to uphold this honor."

Our other elected citizen, John Johnson, is active in quite a few of our activities also. He is in football, FFA, FCA, the National Honor Society and is a Senior Class Officer.

His favorite subject and teacher are Civics and John Alexander. He uses his spare time working with livestock and problems in agriculture and youth. He plans to attend Tarleton State College and Texas A&M and receive a degree in agriculture.

When asked what it meant to be selected as "Citizen of the Week," he said, "This is one of the highest honors offered at PHS. Winning this honor means that you have accomplished some of the goals that you set yourself while in high school."

Senior class to sell mums again

By CONNIE FLORES
The senior class held its second class meeting of the year regarding homecoming mums. At a previous meeting the class voted to sell the mums this year, as has been the tradition of senior classes in the past. The mums are priced according to the size: Small $2.50 medium $3 large $3.50 and a super mum $4.50.

The committee in charge of the mum selling project are Jo Beth Gandy Dan Hodges, Debbie Hood, and Roger Pace. Your mum orders may be taken by any senior.

You'll elect a President and a United States Senator, among others, on November 7th. How the election goes determines how we go, as a state and nation, in the years immediately ahead.

The choice should be clear to Texans by now. It centers on one major point—who is best equipped to get the job done.

KEEP THE BEST TEAM FOR TEXAS

"I've said it before, and I'll say it again, on the national security issues, whenever we need a good, strong man to speak up we call on him.

"I want to say to this group here that in terms of quality there isn't a man in the United States Senate who is more reliable, a man who has a better record... there isn't a man that I need more than John Tower. We appreciate what he has done and we would certainly appreciate whatever you can do to see that he's re-elected."

This is not the year, and these are not the times, in which to try the untested. Now, more than ever, we need men who are rational, men with proven abilities, men we know can handle the job

Richard Nixon and John Tower have records of performance which speak for themselves. The two have worked hard. And, they have worked well together for the good of all Texans, and for all Americans.

It appears virtually certain that President Nixon will serve another four years. For that reason alone, we must keep John Tower in the United States Senate. We must keep the team together.

In a personal letter to Senator Tower, September 29th, the President expressed his continuing, deep interest in the Senator's political future.

"Your candidacy for re-election to the United States Senate has my enthusiastic endorsement, and I want you to know how grateful I am for your faithful and energetic support of my Administration.

"For over a decade, your leadership in the Senate has been a source of strength to the State of Texas and the nation. Having observed the impressive results of your hard work and having benefited from your thorough knowledge of the issues, especially in the vital areas of national defense and economic policy, I can testify to the importance of your continuing service in Washington.

"We need your informed, articulate voice in the United States Senate to meet the challenging problems that confront America in the coming years."

And, again, the following day the President told an audience in San Antonio:

"I know that there's not one Senator in the United States Senate who has a record superior to John Tower. He's a Tower of Strength.

On November 7th, we need to keep the best team for Texas — Richard Nixon and John Tower.

Grant approved for development of Brazos plan

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Cong. Omar Burleson announces approval of a $75,000 Environmental Protection Agency grant to the Brazos River Authority for Water Quality Management Planning. The purpose of the study is to develop a basin-wide water quality management plan for the Brazos basin and adjoining coastal areas, comprising about one-sixth of the area of Texas. Garza County is one of 68 in the basin. The study is to be financed half by state and local funds and half by this federal grant under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act.

The desirability of having an effective plan throughout the basin is fully realized by all concerned. The urgency of developing such a plan has been emphasized by federal regulations requiring that sewage systems built with federal assistance in the future must be consistent with basinwide water quality management plans; if such wide plans are not in existence, the proposed sewage treatment facilities will not be eligible for federal grants to assist in paying construction costs. Congressman Burleson expressed gratification at the approval of the grant, having made personal contacts with the EPA administrator in behalf of the Brazos River Authority request.

Easy jobs are hard to find—the competition is so keen.

FROM TWIN CEDAR... Nursing Home News

By SARA WHITLEY
 Hello again from Twin Cedar. Sorry I missed mentioning something last week but had to have something to write about this week.

Henry Clark is back from the hospital. He seems happy to be back.

Jo Thomas is some better. Hope she soon will be well again. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Sanderson and Mrs. Thelma Thomas have been to see her.

George Tillman has gone home. Danny came to take him home after Mary Dell got to go home from the hospital. Hope they both are doing okay. Mrs. Loretta Thaxton came and gave George speech therapy while he was here.

Mrs. Emma Franklin's son and daughter-in-law are frequent visitors. They visit most everyone when they come to see her.

Mrs. Ruth Scarborough's children come to see her often. We missed having church Sunday. Bro. Ramsey is very faithful about coming to visit and give every one the church bulletins. We all enjoy reading them. Rev. George Ascher of the Faith Lutheran Church also visits us every week. We all enjoy their visits.

Virgil Dudgeon also visits almost every day. He sees and talks to everyone when he comes. Very often he plays dominoes with Billie Caylor.

Mrs. Ada Queen is not feeling up to par the last few days, but seems to feel better today.

Mrs. Wilma Hodgkiss visits her mother, Mrs. Hazel Miller, as much as she can.

Low Baker's sisters, Mrs. Ruth Young and Mrs. Margie Dietrich, visit him often.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carter and Mrs. W. H. Rodgers of Buffalo Lakes visited Mrs. Docie Wooten.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cockrum, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Askins and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Marable of Snyder visited Mrs. Marable.

Bill Cravy of Seminole visited his mother, Mrs. Will Cravy.

Mr. and Mrs. Hank Walker of Grassland and Mrs. Inez McGrew of Lamesa visited Mrs. Inklebarger.

Others visiting were Eula Mae Willingham, who comes over and cuts hair, Mary Criedo, Mrs. Aubrey Ritchie, Virgie Hunter, Mrs. Rosa Boucher, Mattie Vaught, Mrs. Sue Foster and Daryl, Mrs. E. M. Lott and Mrs. Rowland Anderson of Slaton.

The mountains on the West Coast are the source of as much as 59 per cent of the nation's water power.

Navy recruit to speak at church

Seaman Fritz Gerner of Spore will conduct the regular morning worship at the Faith Lutheran Church here at 8:15 this Sunday. Seaman Gerner is home on leave after having completed basic training at San Diego, Calif.

Gerner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Gerner, is a former resident of Post and graduated from Spore High School before enlisting in the Navy. He will conduct the entire morning worship at Faith Lutheran 10th and Avenue K, and will also give his personal witness to the congregation as he relates the meaning of Christ in his life and Navy recruit.

The Rev. George P. Ascher, pastor of the church, issues an invitation to all the youth and adults to Post to hear Seaman Gerner on Sunday morning.

A short period of Christian fellowship will follow the morning service before Seaman Gerner goes to Paul Lutheran Church, Wilson, to repeat his personal witness.

SPOOK HOUSE INVITATION

Anyone who wants to go through a "spook house" is invited to the basement of the Calvary Baptist Church Saturday night. The spook house will be open to everyone following a weiner roast of Calvary Baptist young people that night. Jim Jackson has announced.

Chapter sets date of pledge ritual

Pledge ritual for the Mu Alpha chapter of Beta Sigma Phi pledges will be held Nov. 13 in the home of Mrs. Iris Rogers. These plans were made at the Oct. 23 meeting held in the home of Mrs. Linda Richardson, club president.

The opening ritual roll call was answered by four members and three pledges.

Communication from International consisted of the Beta Sigma Phi's new cookbook entitled "Fondue Buffet". Also a letter from Sherman, asking for a donation to help Mary Knight, a member of Beta Sigma Phi, who had a successful kidney transplant in September. The treasurer's report was given by Flute King, and a motion was made and approved to donate $15 to the Mary Knight fund.

The Thanksgiving supper for members and husbands will be held in the home of Mrs. Anne Leake.

Those attending were Mmes. Tonya Buchanan, Kathy Brown, Jane Smith, Lou Carter, Richardson, King and Leake.

CREDIT RATING

The weather was "stinky" last Thursday, but those able to attend the area South Plains Development meeting on "The Cashless Society" gained many points toward understanding credit.

Phillip Hadley of Retail Merchants in Lubbock spoke on "Your Credit Rating" or as he preferred to call it "Your Credit History."

He said "Credit rating often plays an important role in a family's life—thus, false or inaccurate reports in some credit bureau files can be tragic."

A mistaken report can lead to several complications or denials. If a person is denied credit, insurance or employment because of a bad credit rating, the Fair Credit Reporting Act, effective since April 1971, might be able to help.

If a poor rating is the reason for denial, the law states the person must receive the name and address of the credit bureau or any reporting agency that made the report.

After receiving the name and address of the credit bureau that released the credit rating, the person can contact them.

The bureau must reveal free of charge anything it has in its files about the individual except medical records. Except for the reports on character and morals, it must disclose the sources of information. If questionable information is on file, the person may request credit bureau reinvestigation of the matter and deletion of information that cannot be verified. And where there's a dispute, he can add a 100 word counterclaim to the file.

If false information has been distributed, the person involved can request the credit bureau to send notices of correction to all who have received the report within the past six months.

A person may want to know what his report says, even if there hasn't been a problem. According to the law, he has the right to this information—the credit bureau must disclose the information if requested. A fee may be charged by some credit reporting agencies.

If interested in your credit rating, check it out with a personal visit to the local credit bureau.

Lunchroom Menus

Post schools lunchroom menus for the coming week are as follows:
Monday: Tamales, whipped potatoes, cabbage slaw, sliced peaches, cornbread and half pint milk.
Tuesday: Hamburger served on homemade buns, lettuce, tomato, onions, pickles, green peas, chocolate cake and half pint milk.
Wednesday: Barbecued weiners, pinto beans, mixed greens, pineapple cobbler, cornbread and half pint milk.
Thursday: Oven fried chicken, green beans, lettuce salad, special K cookies, sliced bread and half pint milk.

4-H Club adds three new members Oct. 24
Three new members were added to the Post District 4-H Club at a meeting held Oct. 24 at the courthouse.

New officers elected were: David Poole, president; Jay Young, vice-president; Benny Kennedy, secretary-treasurer; Allen Carpenter, reporter. Benny Kennedy was also elected county council delegate.

The new members added were Allen Carpenter, Billy Carpenter and Ken Young. Projects for the year were announced by each boy.

You'll notice a large number of band students working at the carnival in one capacity or another and there's a good reason for that. The proceeds will be used for band scholarships and for the band's Colorado trip later on in the year.

Now's your chance to benefit a good cause as well as have a good time.

See you Tuesday night!
Fire prevention in the home is meeting topic

Mrs. Iris McMahon gave the program on "Fire Prevention in the Home and the Flammability of Fabrics" at the Oct. 20 meeting of the Graham Home Demonstration Club. The meeting was held in the Graham center with Mrs. Nita McClellan and Mrs. McMahon as hostesses.

Refreshments were served to: Mmes. Bernita Maxey, Louise Robinson, Rene Fluit, Iva Edwards, Lois Fluit, Viva Davis, Itasca Messer, Jewell Parrish, McClellan and McMahon.

The Graham Club and the Close City Club will hold a workshop on Nov. 3. The next meeting for the Graham Club will be Nov. 17 in the center.

Two honored at chapter coffee

Jan Davidson and Ruth Ann Young were honored guests at the pledge coffee held Monday night by the Gamma Mu chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha. The coffee was held at the First National Bank community room with vice-president Louise Green welcoming the pledges and presenting them with their blue and gold pledge ribbons.

A Halloween theme was carried out on the serving table with hostess Laveta Norman serving punch, chips and dip to the following:

Jane Mason, Judy Bush, Ruth Pate, Anita Blanton, Johnnie Norman, Helen Mason, Orabeth White, Green, and the special guests.

A report was given on the two recent Tupperware parties with a profit of $115 for the sorority project reported.

The next meeting will be Monday, Oct. 30 at the home of Judy Bush in Tahoka. It will be a salad supper and social.

Club contributes gifts to Big Spring hospital

Mrs. Kate Morrel presided over the business session at a recent meeting of the Needlecraft Club held in the home of Mrs. Sadie Storie. Mrs. Morrel read a thank you note from Mrs. Samson, Necklaces and earrings were brought by the members to be sent to the Big Spring hospital.

Those attending were: Mmes. Minnie Graeber, H. J. Dietrich, Joe Callis, Maggie Mae Jones, Morrel, Bernice Smith, Nell McCrary, Eula Evans, Mattie Hagood, Katherine Johnson, Innis Thuet, Linda Malouf, Helen Richards, Storie and two guests Mmes. Lois Williams and Nora Kiker.

Club quilt is quilted by Merry-makers Club

A club quilt was quilted at the Oct. 24 meeting of the Merry-makers Club, held in the home of Mrs. Sadie Storie.

Those attending were Mmes. Lola Peel, Pearl Storie, Bonnie Adamson, Gladys Floyd, Opal Williams, Nora Kiker, Alma Sims, Pearl Crisp, Storie and Bonnie McMahon.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 14 with Mrs. Williams.

HARVEST-AID CHEMICALS
Delaying cotton harvest after the crop is ready can result in lower grades, shorter staple and possibly a loss in yield.
In early maturing fields harvest-aid chemicals can be used to prepare a crop for timely harvest. But used improperly these chemicals can lower profits by reducing lint quality and yield.

The most common and costly error is applying harvest-aid chemicals before the cotton crop is mature. Sometimes there is a mistaken notion that these chemicals somehow speed-up maturity of the crop. But just the opposite is true — all fiber development stops when plant growth stops or leaves are removed. Only time and warm, sunny weather will promote maturity of cotton. So harvest-aid chemical should be used only on mature cotton. The chemicals are only what their name implies — a chemical to aid in the harvesting of a naturally matured crop.

There are two types of harvest-aid chemicals — defoliant and desiccants. True defoliants are mild materials that act slow and cause leaves to drop off. In contrast desiccants kill the entire plant rapidly — so rapidly that most leaves "freeze" or stick on the stalk. Before a defoliant is applied 65 per cent or more of the bolls should be open. And before applying a desiccant 80 per cent or more of the bolls should be open. At those stages the remaining unopened bolls are mature enough to open later. But if chemicals are sprayed too soon, smaller or immature bolls may never open and yield drop off sharply.

This year, as in most years on the South Plains, we need all the time before frost to mature our crop. So as long as bolls are closed and are still producing fiber, increasing mife, and yield the maturity process should not be stopped with harvest-aid chemicals. Materials such as sodium chlor-ate (Shed-a-leaf) and organic phosphates (DEF, Folex) are defoliant. Paraquat and arsenic acid are considered desiccants. Large, tall, and rank cotton that is well open can be effectively treated for earlier harvest. Producers have obtained good results by first dropping the leaves with a defoliant, then following with a desiccant.

This double treatment is more expensive, too expensive except for high yielding crops, but better grades, less boll rot and better maturity of lower bolls may result. Arsenic acid usually gives better control of regrowth and less cost than paraquat. However, the acid is not as effective as paraquat with cool temperatures, below 70 degrees F.

Proper application is essential for good results regardless of the chemical used. Coverage is highly important. On cotton less than two feet tall use three cone type nozzles per row and five nozzles per row if cotton is taller than two feet.
Before application check the weather reports. If a cold front is moving in hold off application until weather settles or some prolonged warm period follows. Poor results usually result if harvest-aid chemicals are used during or just ahead of a wet spell.

Normally desiccated plants are ready for stripping 8 to 10 days after chemical application. Starting the stripper, check crop. Leaves and stems should break and crumble easily. Higher lint grades and quality come from cotton harvested when it is dry. Cotton should be harvested at 10% moisture. (See Farm Topics, Page 6)

1972 another record-breaker for rodeo payoffs; Texan big winner

DENVER, Colo. — Pro rodeo's lucrative 1972 season is another record-breaker, the Rodeo Cowboys Association said.
 Prize money at more than 500
 sanctioned rodeos has already topped $4 million for the third consecutive year, and is expected to reach

$4.5 million before the end of the season, an association spokesman said.

The sport's leading winner is also on the road to setting a record for winning the most money in a single year.

Phil Lyne, reigning world champion all around cowboy from George West, Tex. has collected $53,902 to date—more than $2,000 ahead of Larry Mahan's total at this time in 1969 when the Salem, Ore., cowboy set a record of $57,726.

Lyne, 25, may reach $60,000 by the end of National Finals Rodeo in December, and on top of that he will have picked up about $20,000 from the Winston Rodeo Awards—more than enough money to pay for his year's travel expenses and rodeo entry fees.

Lyne will receive $10,000 from Winston for winning his second all around crown, plus $5,000 if he wins another calf roping championship.

 The rest of the money will come for finishing among Winston's
 "second half" standings in calf roping and bull riding.

Altogether, Lyne's 1972 rodeo income will be more than $80,000;
 that's more money than a rodeo cowboy has ever made in one season.

Throughout the world, the salinity of sea water averages about 35 parts per thousand — 35 pounds of salt per 1,000 pounds of sea water.

New Personnel
Our new hard-working custodian is Locke Tuttle. He was born in Sweetwater, Tex. in Nolan County. He married the former Gayle Long March 3, 1956. Mrs. Tuttle was born in Girard, Tex. They have three children: Frankie, a sophomore; Ealine, an eighth grader; and Bobbie, a third grader.

They moved in to the Weaver house south of Southland July 17, 1972 from Seagraves where Mr. Tuttle was a self-employed plumber.

Mrs. Tuttle works in the lunchroom, and both Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle drive school buses. According to the Tutttles, Southland is a great place.

New Lockers
New lockers for the high school students arrived recently. Supt. Ray Simmons and the high school boys installed the lockers, which are now in use.

New Building Progresses
The foundation for the new facility west of the gym has been laid, and the frame is completed. However, the construction crew from Amarillo has not arrived as scheduled, and Mr. Tuttle and a few local men have been working on the building. If any men in the community can volunteer their time to help with construction work, it will be appreciated.

First Baptists of Post to hold Lay Witness Mission

Members of the First Baptist Church are anticipating an unusually busy weekend with their Lay Witness Mission, for which some 13 committees have been making plans for over two months.

Activities will include meals at the church, coffee group meetings from 10 to 15 homes, besides the usual worship activities.

Laymen and lay women will begin arriving late Friday afternoon from Tulsa, Ralls, Tahoka, Happy, Roscoe, Petersburg, Littlefield and Hale Center, Tex., and Frederick and Chattanooga, Okla.

These laymen travel at their own expense and are provided accommodations by members of the church. Some 20 couples and 20 young people are expected.

Buddy French of Frederick has been the mission coordinator, and J. R. Hagins has coordinated local activities, assisted by Mrs. Russell Wilks Jr.

All age groups are being provided for. Included in the young people's plans is a trip to the church encampment cabin in Floydada on Saturday.

The first activity will be a congregational dinner in Fellowship Hall at 6:30 p.m. Friday.

Money is topic at 4-H meeting

"What Money Would Mean to You" and "Learning to Use Money Wisely" were the topics discussed by Dana Feaster, Garza County home demonstration agent, at a meeting of the Graham 4-H Club Monday at the community center.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Jerry Johnson, and Mike Macy led the opening ceremonies.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wagoner Johnson to the following: Jerry Johnson, Jan Hall, Melanie King, Steve White, John Bill Hedrick, Jarita Norman, Jim Norman, Mike Macy; adult leaders Noel White, Mrs. Wagoner Johnson, and guests Lynn Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hedrick, leaders of the Graham 4-H Horse Club, and Bob Macy.

serve on a panel to hear cases in the District Court of Garza County, Texas.

"Although the Negro population of Garza County is small percentage-wise, there being only 242 Negroes out of a total population of 6,281 in 1950, even this small ratio would indicate that at some time members of this race would be called to serve on the jury panel, and the fact that they were not is, in itself, indication of an exclusion of this race on a systematic basis."

Walker said Woods had been trying to have his conviction set aside for a number of years and that about four years ago the American Civil Liberties Union took up his case and has been assisting him since.

Walker said Woods was about 19 years old when he went to prison 21 years ago to begin serving his term.

"Evidently he never gave up hope," Walker said, "of being given a new trial or released on some of the very same points I brought up 21 years ago at his trial."

"We may be a little longer in getting into big figures this year because our business division did not get out ahead of the main drive but we hope to wrap the whole campaign up in two weeks except for the dribbles," Cornish declared.

"The way everybody has pitched in is an indication that we're off to a good start," he added. "The cooperation this year has been tremendous."

The Rev. Bob Ford, president of the United Fund organization, also announced this week that Dr. Charles Tubbs will be the new treasurer for the organization, replacing Lou Marks who has been the UF "money man" for several years.

Lopes have open date to get ready for Denver City

The Post Antelope football team will have an open date Friday, but will be in action in a district race with other six District 5AA teams. Post coach Bobby Davis predicted the team could end up in a "big mess" before a champion is decided.

Figure out three remaining games with Denver City, Tahoka and Roosevelt are with the three remaining teams in the district," Davis said.

Tahoka's 187 win over Cooper on Friday night left Roosevelt as the only "clean slate" team in the district, and they have Cooper, Tahoka, Post and Denver City remaining on their schedule in that order, Roosevelt plays Cooper at Cooper Friday night.

Other Friday night games, Frenship hosts Denver City and Tahoka goes to Slaton.

Roosevelt is 2-0 in district play; Cooper, 2-1; Denver City and Tahoka, 1-1; and Post, Frenship and Slaton, 1-2.

Coach Davis said the Antelopes played better against Frenship Friday night than they have since the Floydada game, which started their four-game losing streak.

"We were especially well pleased with the play of some of our sophomores, especially the running of halfback Joe Moore and the defensive work of Sammy Gutierrez and Tim Owen, who started at linebacker positions," the coach said.

Starters Robert Mindieta and Johnny Minor are still slowed with knee injuries, and it is doubtful if either is back at full strength the rest of the season, according to the coach. He said they had learned that Mindieta has loose cartilages in both knees.

Lineman Dan Hodges was able to work out for the first time Tuesday since suffering a chipped elbow in the Slaton game.

Coach Davis said the squad will take Friday off, but will resume practice Monday in preparation for the Denver City game at Denver City on Nov. 3.

Grid forecaster hits on 11 of 13 predictions

Hitting 11 and missing only two predictions last week, Pigskin Pete boosted his season's percentage to .715 — an over-all total of 79 right and 31 wrong.

The only games The Dispatch forecaster missed last week were the Cooper-Tahoka and Dumass-Muleshoe contests.

Hoping to do as well this week, Pete picks them as follows, his choices in capital letters:

Post, open date. Giving Antelopes time to regroup for Denver City game.

DENVER CITY at Frenship. But the way things are going, it's hard to tell.

Roosevelt at COOPER. Pirates to bounce back from Tahoka upset.

Slaton at TAHOKA. Bulldogs have established themselves as title contenders.

TULIA at Idalou. Hornets will have to look out for upset on the Wildcats' home field.

LOCKNEY at Ralls. Longhorns too much for Jackrabbits.

FLOYDADA at Abertaylor. The Whirlwinds to retain No. 1 South Plains rating.

Morton at OLTON. Indians coming off open date, but probably did not get enough rest to beat Mustangs.

Friona at LITTLEFIELD. This game may decide District 3AA championship.

Dimmitt, open date. Bobcats will try to get ready for Nov. 3 date with Friona.

ANSON at Stamford. Bulldogs having worst season in a long time.

BALLINGER at Winters. Coach James Williams' Bobcats shooting for District 6AA crown.

Hamlin at HASKELL. Indians to scalp Pied Pipers.

LAMESA at Brownfield. Someone asked Pete to throw this one in. He hates to go against the Cubs, but it looks like a bad night for them.

Texas Tech at SMU. Pete thinks SMU defense too much for Raider offense, and vice versa.

FRENSHIP TIGERS ARE VICTIMS

Antelopes end losing streak with 8-7 win

Overcoming a 7-0 deficit with only 2:55 remaining, the Post Antelopes nudged the Frenship Tigers, 8-7, in the rain here Friday night for their first District 5AA win against two setbacks and their third triumph of the season against four losses.

med across the goal line, but Frenship drew a five-yard offside penalty on the play. Harney gained three at end, and Booher kept for four to the one, scoring on a quarterback sneak on the next play. Rusty Dove kicked the extra point.

Harper returned James Rogans' kickoff to the Post 40, and Conoly gained 15 yards to the Tiger 45. On a fourth-and-two situation, Price gained seven yards to the 30, but Whitehead intercepted a Post pass on the final play of the half.

Frenship had scored with 2:25 of the first half remaining and for a while it appeared the Tigers' 7-0 lead would stand up on the rain-slicked gridiron and before only a scattering of fans — many of them under umbrellas.

But Johnny Minor pounced on a Frenship fumble on the Tiger 35 yard line after the visitors had held the 'Lopes inside their 10.

Following Minor's fumble recovery, Moore made four yards to the two, and on the next play, quarterback Jerry Tyler pitched back to a fullback Kenneth Price, who swept his right end to the touchdown. On the extra point try, end Ricky Shepherd took the ball from Tyler on an end-around and found the other end, Randy Kennedy, a 11 alone in the end zone with a perfectly thrown pass that gave the 'Lopes two points and the ball game.

Frenship returned Jay Pollard's short kickoff to the Tiger 35, and quarterback David Booher had to run for two yards after failing to find an open receiver. On the next try, the Frenship quarterback spotted a man open, but Post's Shepherd intercepted the pass from his free safety position, and the 'Lopes ran out the clock on runs by Donnell Harper, Moore, and Robert Mindieta.

Post mounted the first scoring threat of the game after Price ran the opening kickoff back 28 yards to his 33. John Johnson, starting at quarterback, Price, David Conoly and Harper kept the ball on the ground to the Frenship 17, with Harper's runs of 25 and nine yards the big gainers. The Tiger 17 was as far as the 'Lopes could go, however, and Frenship took over on downs on their 20.

A 15-yard penalty against Post took the Tigers to their 35 and halfback Johnny Silvas gained seven to the 42, but Mindieta recovered a fumble on the Frenship 40 to give Post good field position.

A five-yard penalty and a three-yard loss on a pincushion forced Post to punt, with Danny Lee's kick being downed on the Frenship five. The Tigers couldn't go, and punted to their 45, with Shepherd returning six yards to the 39.

A 15-yard penalty wiped out a good gain by Harper and set the 'Lopes back to the Frenship 47. Harper gained three and Conoly four yards, and Tyler's pass to Kennedy was deflected into the hands of Shepherd on the 30.

Johnson, Harper and Conoly made it a first down on the 20, and Harper gained 11 more and another first down on the nine. Conoly hit the right side of the line for three, but lost four on a pitchout, with Harper able to get only a yard of it back. From a fake field goal formation, holder Shepherd failed to hit Kennedy with an end zone pass and the ball went back to the Tigers on their 20.

With Mike Wright, Travis Harney and Gerald Whitehead doing the ball toting, the Tigers drove to the Post six, and an offside penalty against the 'Lopes deposited the ball on the three. Whitehead ram-

Eagles lose to Fluvanna team

SOUTHLAND — With rain falling throughout the game, the Southland Eagles lost a six-man conference game to the Fluvanna Buffaloes, 25-6, last Friday night on the Fluvanna gridiron.

Fluvanna built up a 19-0 lead before Southland was able to dent the scoreboard. J. W. White scored on a five-yard run in the first quarter and later in the period, Richard Gill threw a three-yard touchdown pass to Steve Beaver. White ran across for the extra point.

The Buffs made it 19-0 with a 38-yard Gill to Beaver pass in the third period. The Eagles narrowed the count to 19-6 late in the third on a 16-yard pass from Joe Bevers to Larry Koslan.

Fluvanna's final touchdown came in the fourth quarter when Chuck Jones scored from five yards out.

This Friday, Southland stays home to entertain Ira in a district game. The Eagles are now 2-1 in district and 3-3 on the season.

med across the goal line, but Frenship drew a five-yard offside penalty on the play. Harney gained three at end, and Booher kept for four to the one, scoring on a quarterback sneak on the next play. Rusty Dove kicked the extra point.

Harper returned James Rogans' kickoff to the Post 40, and Conoly gained 15 yards to the Tiger 45. On a fourth-and-two situation, Price gained seven yards to the 30, but Whitehead intercepted a Post pass on the final play of the half.

Neither team was able to mount a sustained drive during the third quarter, with the Tigers losing the ball on downs on the Post 36 two plays before the period ended. Moore gained a yard at end, but Harper lost it back before Tyler completed a 10-yard pass to Kennedy on the first play of the fourth quarter.

Tyler kept for a yard and Moore broke through center and dashed 15 yards to a first down on the Tiger 38. Four running plays lacked inches of making a first down and Frenship took over just outside its 28-yard line.

On a fourth down play from the 30, a bad snapback got away from the Frenship punter, who managed to bring it back to the line of scrimmage where the ball went over to Post.

Moore gained four yards, with Harper picking up three more and Johnson getting one on a quarterback sneak. Shepherd went for six on an end-around play and a first down on the 16. Mindieta gained two yards, Moore three and Harper three before Price failed just by inches to make a first down, with Frenship taking over on the seven. That set the stage for Minor's fumble recovery and the winning points.

TO DAUGHTER'S WEDDING

The Rev. George P. Ascher, pastor of Faith Lutheran Church, accompanied by Mrs. Ascher and their two sons, left Wednesday for Chicago, Ill., where the Rev. Mr. Ascher will officiate Saturday at the marriage of his daughter, Janice Ascher, to David Pusteria. The wedding will take place in Hillside, a suburb of Chicago.

Post 8th graders rip Idalou, 28-0

Coach Joe Giddens' 8th grade football team defeated Idalou, 28 to 0, here Tuesday evening, after Coach Don Black's 7th graders had lost, 8-0, in a defensive battle.

In the 8th grade game, Post's first touchdown came in the first quarter at the end of a sustained drive in which Post controlled the ball for about five minutes. Fullback Byron Gray scored from three yards out, but the extra points attempt failed.

Coach Giddens credited his offensive line with the success of the opening drive and also with good blocking throughout the game. The offensive line is made up of Mike Waldrip, left end; Butch Pierce, left tackle; Buddy Britton, left guard; Mark Kirkpatrick, center; Florenz Gonzales, right guard; Danny Saldívar, right tackle; Randall Wyatt, right end, and Steve Babb, alternate left guard.

Coach Black said the team played an excellent defensive game in the second half, especially Heater at his safety position.

The 7th and 8th grade teams go to Lockney next Tuesday.

Town & Country Review

C. A. GRICE - Manager

This progressive firm, located in Snyder, is well respected in this area for their service to the cotton growers. They offer the cotton planters of this area top market prices for their cotton, and through their straight forward and above board policies, they have built up an excellent reputation.

As believed by the writers of this 1972 Town and Country Review, no

Review of the business, agricultural and industrial interests of this section of the state would be complete without prominent mention of this company which aids in little measure to the progress and prosperity of this section. By reason of the fact that the management has had wide experience in every feature of the cotton business, this firm has continued to increase the number of their patrons.

There are no more public-spirited citizens in the community than the management of this firm and in making this Business Review of the area it is natural to compliment them and to direct your attention to this business as one of the most reliable establishments which has added to the development and progress of the cotton planters of this part of the state.

Action Electric

DALE SWIGERT - Owner

City and county ordinances affecting electric wiring of all buildings and homes are definitely strenuous. The purpose, however, is evident. Many disastrous fires and home accidents are the result of defective wiring. For these reasons, it is imperative that every one needing electrical wiring, insist upon the services of a competent, licensed electrical contractor, who is qualified to do this work.

Action Electric at 1704 College in Snyder is a local firm of licensed electrical contractors. Few persons in this line of work can boast of so many years of competent and skilled service to the residents of this area. They have established an enviable reputation throughout the entire field of electrical contracting and has proved itself worthy of the faith and patronage of our people. For all your electrical problems as well as power, industrial, commercial, and residential wiring, see this firm.

The writers of this 1972 Review recommend Action Electric to all our many readers.

HOWARD LIMMER - Manager

Conveniently located at 1809 25th in Snyder, phone 573-3972, this firm bears the name which is both familiar and popular with the people and is a place where you can feel at home while you are shopping. Its friendly atmosphere which predominates at all times has placed this store in an individual class by itself and can well be termed 'shopping headquarters for this entire area'. That much discussed word, 'SERVICE', finds true expression in the friendly atmosphere that envelops every customer of this popular store.

Each department is superintended by well trained personnel and the merchandise is well handled so that all goods will be the latest quality that the market affords in style design, material and quality.

This 1972 Review and its editors, suggests that you do business with this reliable firm which has the interest of every customer at heart.

Bea Owens Specialty Shop

BEA LEWIS - Owner

The Bea Owens Specialty Shop is located at 2506 College Ave. in Snyder, phone 573-5152 where quality reigns and style is paramount in ladies wear.

Here they feature individual and distinctive garments and accessories for the most fashionable ladies at reasonable prices. Their quality wear is the very latest in smartness and the styles will distinguish the wearer as a well dressed woman.

For any one firm to assume the fashion responsibilities of this section is rather a large undertaking, but through their desire to represent only the finest and best, they have become known as fashion headquarters for ladies in this section. The principle upon which this store is operated is to sell individual and distinctive garments and to meet any and all competition in quality, style and price.

This 1972 Review and its writers wishes to compliment the Bea Owens Specialty Shop.

House of Fabrics

LUCILLE BYNUM - Owner

This well known fabric center is located at 2506 Ave. R on the east side in Snyder, phone 573-5861. This home of fine fabrics is deserving of more than passing notice in this Review. Their service and merchandise is most complete and they realize the popular demand for quality merchandise. In their dealings with the public, a spirit of fair treatment and accommodation is so evident that it has become a hard and fast rule - "once a customer - always a customer." You will find everything you need in fabrics, sewing notions and patterns at the House of Fabrics. Folks from this area continue to shop here because they know they can find all their sewing needs in one convenient store.

We, the editors, are more than pleased in our 1972 Review, to call the attention of our readers to this popular fabric center and to say that they are leaders and up-to-date in their merchandise and deserve the support of the people of this section.

Ella Mae's Charcoal Grill

ELLA MAE PEARCE, Owner

Good food and fast service are the bywords of the Ella Mae's Charcoal Grill located at 2403 1/2 25th in Snyder, phone 573-3411. As many people in this area have found, there is no better place in town to eat than this one.

On their menu you will find tempting charcoal hamburgers, chicken, steak sandwiches, chili, french fries, all types of cold drinks, and some of the best desserts you've ever tasted, all prepared in the most sanitary conditions with modern equipment.

The editors of this 1972 Review make it our pleasure to recommend this fine store to all our readers.

Grimmett Brothers Construction

BILL & R. L. GRIMMETT - Owners

If you are planning on having any excavating or earthmoving work done, call on this reliable firm located at 1807 14th St. in Snyder. Grimmett Brothers Construction has the latest modern equipment to turn out an excellent job, and no job is too large or too small.

Their service includes road building and maintenance, land clearing, grading, leveling, dump truck hauling and earthmoving, bulldozing, drainage and terracing work, site preparation - as well as oil field service and soil conservation work. They have radio dispatched trucks for fast service, and they are fully insured for your protection.

This capable concern is noted for giving a "Square Deal" to all. Their prices are right and their fast efficient service is guaranteed to please. Phone 573-2102 for estimates on your excavating problems.

This service is important to contractors, builders, oil field service, cities, towns, as well as to farmers and ranchers in the rural areas. They have had years of experience in this line. Call them today for service.

We, the editors of this 1972 Review, wish to take this opportunity to compliment the services of Grimmett Brothers Construction and recommend them to all our readers who are contemplating having any excavating, earth-moving, grading or clearing work done.

Bob McKinney Construction Co.

BOB MCKINNEY - Owner

In the estimate of many people in this section of the state who have had the Bob McKinney Construction Co. located at 3718 Ave. U in Snyder handle any of their general excavating, trenching, pipeline and oilfield work, there is not a better qualified contractor anywhere.

You can be assured that the job will be completed by competent men in the field with the best of materials and in the shortest time possible. Unlike so many other construction companies, this firm is noted for their reliability, fair prices and general business-like policies.

They use only the latest equipment and tools, combined with the most up-to-date building practices of the day, and perform their work in a professional manner.

Their service includes backhoe, trenching and pipeline work, earthmoving, leveling, road building and excavating work; as well as oil field ditching, road building, pipeline, and general oilfield construction work.

Without hesitation, we, the authors of this 1972 Town and Country Review take this time to make public our commendation of the Bob McKinney Construction Co., and suggest to our readers that they have them handle any earthmoving and excavating work, as well as general oilfield construction work.

Top Acidizers

WENDELL YORK - Mgr.

They feature oil well acidizing, cementing & transport.

This firm is one of the leaders of its kind in this district and has built its reputation upon service, satisfaction and the good will of its many satisfied customers. Having been in this line of business for a number of years, the management knows the demands of his customers and furnishes quality service at reasonable prices.

People everywhere prefer doing business with them because they know they will be treated fairly. It has often been said that business goes where it is invited and stays where it is well-treated. That accounts in a very large measure for the success and popularity of Top Acidizers on Lamesa Hwy. in Snyder, phone 573-5533.

They also have a representative in Post, Richard Lenz, to serve you. Call 495-3374.

In this 1972 Review we, the planners of it, in making mention of the reliable concerns in our trade territory, wish to recommend Top Acidizers to our many readers.

Snyder Trailer Sales and Rental

DAWSON and ALMA MORELAND - Owners

If you've been wanting to enjoy the use of a camper or pick-up coach, but thought that you could just not quite see the way to buying one, let the friendly people at the Snyder Trailer Sales & Rental, located at 911 17th Street in Snyder, phone 573-7528 solve the problem for you with your choice of a unit to rent or lease. They have in their stock in a variety of types and sizes, one that will fit your needs and your budget.

All of their units are maintained in the most careful and sanitary manner. They also keep in stock the necessary accessories and attachments for use with the units. In writing this 1972 Town and Country Review, we, the editors, point out to our readers the advantages of renting or leasing your mobile vacation home rather than buying one and suggest that they let the friendly people at the Snyder Trailer Sales & Rental explain their low rates for renting or leasing.

Carol Lee Donut Shop

JIM CLARADY - Owner

Any bake shop can make donuts, but no bake shop can make them tastier than the Carol Lee Donut Shop at 2519 College Ave. in Snyder, phone 573-8241.

They have built an enviable reputation in this area for their high quality donuts, turnovers, and other assorted pastries. With the use of their special, modern equipment and specially blended batters, they have achieved the perfect flavor so enjoyed by everyone who eats their products.

Whether you stop in for just a coffee break and a donut, or need several dozen to take home, you will immediately know why this donut shop is so well patronized. Their friendly service cannot be matched anywhere.

Many housewives who do not live in the immediate area have found that they can buy a large quantity of donuts to freeze so that they can serve them whenever they want.

The narrators of this 1972 Town and Country Review commend the management of this shop for the fine products and friendly service and recommend to our readers that they stop in soon.

Rhodes Welding Company

COY RHODES - Owner

The Rhodes Welding Co., located on the Lamesa Hwy., in Snyder is one of our leading industrial organizations specializing in a complete welding service, including portable field equipment for outside work. This is one of the best equipped welding shops in this section of the state. Their complete service includes welding for water tanks, oil field storage tanks, treaters, steel mud pits, and custom built tanks for industrial uses.

With the increasing demands of farms, ranches, contractors, builders, and oil field drillers and services, the services of this well known welding shop becomes more and more necessary each day. They are in a position to give you expert workmanship on any part or machinery that is broken and can have your shop, machine or equipment machine going again in a short time.

You will find that they serve with courtesy, do their work with accuracy, and if it will pay to have broken part, machinery or equipment repaired, get their advice what to do.

The developers of this 1972 Town and Country Review wish to commend this modern firm as the service people.

Phone 573-2861 for estimates and information. They are also located in Pecos, Tex. - call (Odessa) 333-4011.

The designers of this 1972 Town and Country Review, without reservation, recommend this reputable contractor to anyone who needs this type of service and recommend A-1 Electronics on the fine business practices they follow.

E. J. Vineyard Electric

E. J. VINEYARD - Owner

E. J. Vineyard Electric in Ira is equipped to render you a complete electric motor and transformer service.

This concern's knowledge of electric motor repair work was received in the past but greatly specialized school of experience and personal contact with the public. When you have electric motor repair work to be done, you can rest assured that it will receive the attention of qualified personnel and the best service when taken to this firm. They use only the best in quality materials. So from a standpoint of thoroughness, the policies of this reliable company are the best possible to be secured. Industrial, irrigation, pump and farm motors are specialties with this firm.

Nothing in the way of an electrical motor is too small for them. There are few too large. They carry a complete stock of repair parts, such as brushes and bearings.

It is with great pleasure that the writers of this 1972 Review call your attention to this progressive concern, and suggest that you make E. J. Vineyard your headquarters for electric motor repair. Phone 573-9611 for information.

Von Roeder Seed Farms

BENTLEY BAIZE - Manager

You will find this popular cotton seed breeder on the Lamesa Hwy. in Snyder, phone 573-3341.

No one is better acquainted with cotton seed breeding than this firm. Their many years of experience in this business have enabled them to offer you seeds that will produce, seeds that will give you the highest yield for the variety.

They are continually studying the results of planting of various brands of cotton seeds, the soils, etc., and are so close that planters in this section may seek their advice and in return keep them posted on the results of their own progress on cotton seed experiments.

The progressive cotton planter recognizes the great value of this contact, and the fact that it is economy to deal with the local merchant where adjustments are more easily made and personal interest is maintained.

This popular cotton seed breeder is at all times experimenting with different new strains of seeds, in order to constantly prove the quality and productivity of their seeds to further the cotton planters of this area.

We, the compilers, recommend the Von Roeder Seed Farms our readers for anything they need in this Town and Country Review.

Carlos Little Mexico Cafe

CARLOS MIJARES

For authentic Mexican food, the people of this area visit Carlos Little Mexico Cafe at 1703 College Ave. in Snyder, phone 573-2251.

Through the efforts of the management here to serve only the true Mexican dishes with a real flavor of the country, as well as an interesting Mexican decor, this restaurant has become a very popular eating place.

They have captured the true tangy flavor of the Mexican dishes by using the exact spices and foods to prepare them.

Contrary to the belief that Mexican food is very hot, they serve all their dishes with the hot sauce and green peppers on the side so that you can enjoy it the way you want.

For a fine place to eat authentic Mexican food in the same atmosphere, and with friendly service, the writers of this 1972 Town and Country Review suggest that you go to the Carlos Little Mexico Cafe. We know you'll want to return many times.

while playing. Wise parents know this is important to the comfort of their children.
