Christmas promotion here to begin night of Nov. 29

New events scheduled

A much busier Christmas promotion program has been planned for Post merchants this year by the Post Chamber of Commerce Retail Promotions Committee.

With Thanksgiving coming a week later this year, the committee at a planning session last Thursday night decided to kick things off on the night after Thanksgiving — Friday night, Nov. 29.

A "Moonlight Sale" is planned for that night with cooperating merchants remaining open from 6 to 9 p. m.

The big event will be "Surprise Discount Day" on Saturday, Dec. 7, an all-day promotion in which customers will draw to see how large a discount they will receive after making a purchase.

That same Saturday, the Chamber of Commerce Women's Division will present the Post High Choir, Band, and different chorals groups, beginning at 3 p. m.

There will be a drawing for merchandise prizes also that day, as well as a bake sale. The traditional "10 per cent off for cash night" is scheduled for Friday night, Dec. 13, from 6 to 9 p. m., with all participating stores remaining open for these hours.

Mrs. Loveta Josey, chairman of the promotions committee, has announced plans to bring Santa Claus to town for his pre-Christmas visit at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, Dec. 14.

At 4:30 p. m. the same

Saturday there also will be a drawing for prizes donated by various participating merchants worth $10 or more.

Another Saturday afternoon, Dec. 14, event will be the selection of the Garza County Jaycees raffle winner. The winner will have five minutes of free selection of any food he or she wants at United Super Market at 2 p. m.

That's another new effort here.

The final Christmas promotion event will come Saturday, Dec. 21, when Santa will come back to town for a second visit and Post merchants will have another surprise Discount Day all day in their stores for gift buyers.

Council discusses new police salary plan

The city council Monday night discussed a new police salary plan put forward by Police Chief Jim Trulove but decided not to take action until written copies of the proposal could be placed in each councilman's hands for study.

In other actions, the city rejected a $3,037.40 bid for a new drive-in window unit for the city water department as too expensive, heard a report that a special city-county committee has been named to study the problem of rural fire costs, and heard Attorney Harvey L. Morton say that "in my own mind" any city ordinance passed to name a fiscal agent for the city would be illegal.

At the close of the session, Mayor Pro-tem Ed Sawyers who presided in the absence of Mayor Giles McCrary declared there is a lot of citizen misunderstanding here about the legal restrictions placed upon the $100,000 in the city water fund which had been set aside over the years to build a new sewage plant which in the end wasn't necessary.

Sawyers called for Councilman Bill Pool and Mayor McCrary to get together before the next council session and come up with all the facts of the matter to be presented to local citizens as an open letter from (See City Council, Page 12)

Ordinances passed on first reading

The Post city council Monday night passed two ordinances on first reading, one prohibiting alcoholic beverage consumption in public places and public littering and the other a new

"junk car" ordinance to bring city "junk car" procedures into conformance with a two-year-old state law on the subject.

Attorney Harvey L. Morton also gave councilmen a long proposed ordinance for the regulation of mobile homes in Post which he advised the council to study carefully before taking action upon it.

The two ordinances passed on first reading will not be adopted until approved on second reading at the next council session.

Morton told councilmen that the city apparently has no restrictions against the consumption or possession of alcoholic beverages in public places, or against littering.

Post high school gets Antelope head of brass, steel

The 1965 Post high school football team presented Post High School with a four-foot-high antelope head and brass and steel mounted on a painted board which was made after the pep rally of the high school.

No. 40 was the leading ground gainer in each game. Tailback Dennis McDonald wore that number in Taboka. Benny wore it 10 years ago against Slaton.

Oh yes, Benny added, both those teams ended up the same way finishing second in the district by losing to Denver City.

United Fund workers now hopeful of reaching goal

Garza County's 1975 United Fund drive moved past the halfway mark toward its $10,000 goal this week and by Thanksgiving workers expect to be in the windup stage of what is hoped will be another successful campaign.

Most of money and pledges counted so far have come from the business division where increases were asked all up and down the line in an effort to offset the inroads of inflation expected on the smaller givers.

The Postex Plant employees division is due to be completed Friday and is reported to be far more successful than had originally been anticipated.

"If the smaller givers do their best, the goal may be in sight," Drive Chairman Jim Cornish declared after making a "giving projection" on many of the divisions over the weekend.

Substantial gains in the business division is the cause for optimism, he said.

"But we're not home yet and we're never over by much," he pointed out, predicting it will probably take until about Dec. 10 to complete the drive cleanup.

Mini-bus for aged gets 'action' sponsorship

The Garza County Community Action Committee voted Tuesday night at the Lorenzo Alexander Community Center to sponsor this county's upcoming transportation project for the aged in which a 15-passenger mini-bus will be provided.

Judith Jackson from the aging planning group at SPAG in Lubbock told the committee that the head of the Texas Green Thumb program will be in Post Thursday to make arrangements for the sponsorship.

Howard Maddera of Levelland, executive director of the South Plains Community Action Association, Inc., of which the Garza committee is a part said his organization could provide the necessary matching funds for the sponsorship at least for the first year.

The mini-bus project is a new effort to provide transportation for senior citizens who need it. Both Maddera and Miss Jackson said a broad program could be developed, but one of the essentials will be volunteers to take telephone requests for transportation and schedule them.

Approximately 20 cities are having such programs. A Post Chamber committee will meet soon to decide whether to initiate the program here.

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS HONORED — Joe Craig, right, of Post and Edwin Davis, left of Lubbock, are recognized by Dr. Wayland Bennett, acting chairman of Texas Tech's Dept. of Agricultural Engineering as 1974-75 winners of Plains Cotton Ginners scholarships. Thanksgiving comes up next week and its going to be a real "thanks season" for us because we are going to point our little station wagon toward Houston and visit our son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Koerselman, and our two granddaughters for the big weekend.

That means of course our first chance to view and hold Lara, our No. 2 granddaughter, who was born about a month ago.

We have been bouncing around this week on a swollen knee but that won't keep us from heading south.

The Dispatch is coming out early next week, remember. It's to be published Monday evening and in the mail Tuesday morning. The Dispatch office will be open Tuesday, but for the rest of the holiday week it will be a holiday for Dispatch staffers.

The Chamber of Commerce retail committee has come up with a very interesting program for Christmas promotion this year. We think a bunch of committee gals cooked it up — so it ought to be good.

Editor Charlie Didway has gone back into the hospital — this time here at home at Garza Memorial. His broken bones are mending fine, but he is having some other problems with his legs now. Charlie has had a long siege. We miss his efforts here at the paper and we know our readers miss his columns, predictions and other writings.

Holiday paper out early here

The Dispatch's Thanksgiving issue will be published early next week to permit distribution before the annual American holiday.

The paper will be printed late Monday afternoon and will go on newsstands Monday night and in the mail Tuesday morning.

Advertising deadlines for the edition have been moved up to Friday noon.

The news office will be open on Saturday for receiving any news or social items.

County gins yet to get started

The Dispatch's first "gin check" of the "harvest season" this week revealed most Garza gins haven't even begun operations — gins that is which are answering the telephone.

Ginners reported not a hard enough freeze yet for the harvest to get started and predicted it will be sometime in December before ginning really gets started.

An excellent football season

The Antelope footballers wound up a successful and satisfying season Friday night, even though it fell short of the title hopes of Post coaches and fans.

First off, it was a winning season with a 6-4 overall record. Second, the 'Lopes finished second in district play at 5 and 1 and came "within a foot" of winning the top prize, the district grid crown.

The club gave a good, hard effort. It was the kind of a season which attracts fan interest from beginning to end.

Since Editor Charlie Didway was out with a broken hip, and complications for the entire campaign, it offered us our first return to the press box on a regular basis since coming to post over 16 years ago.

We thoroughly enjoyed it. We could see the improvement, the maturity, and the confidence grow in this team until it climaxed with excellent efforts against both Denver City and Roosevelt in the final weeks of the season.

From this fine club, Post will lose 15 seniors by graduation in the spring. But if the 'Lopes can come up with a new tackle corps to replace the tackles who will soon be receiving diplomas, the 'Lopes will be back next year with a very interesting ball club.

Post is beginning to see the results of a football program which under Coach Bobby Davis and his assistants is now starting to flower.

A start has been made on a new football tradition for Post to go with its fanatic fan support. The 1974 season is a big step forward in establishing this tradition.

The 'Lopes came so close to their ultimate goal—that district crown—but though they did not achieve that they did achieve a very great deal for the future of high school athletics here in Post.—JC

Depletion allowance tottering

The oil depletion allowance is under severe legislative attack again and with the current oil shortage and high prices for crude, it appears likely that the oilman is going to have to surrender the allowance.

The allowance has been under attack for some years now with consumer advocates applying the steadily mounting pressure. Lawmakers from the oil states have been forced into gradual retreat.

Now with oil prices made unrealistically high by Arab control of supply it appears the American oil industry will have to scramble to hold onto any kind of depletion aid in tax matters.

It takes a long range attack to topple something as well established as the oil depletion allowance, but 60 cent gasoline is almost sure to do it.

It's just the old story of one can't have his cake and eat it too. The Dispatch has supported the oil depletion allowance for 16 years because oilmen in Garza oil patches by and large have needed every advantage they could get to turn a profit.—JC

Are beefalo the answer?

The West Texas rancher beset by market woes, the cost squeeze, and high priced grain is no doubt wondering if his present difficulties are only temporary.

Well, it sounds far-fetched now but the "beefalo" may in time be his answer.

A purebred beefalo is three-eighths buffalo, three-eighths Charola's (a French-bred strain) of cattle, and one quarter Hereford.

A California cattleman named Domenich C. Basolo is the developer of the beefalo. There are just 9,000 beefalo in existence today and Basolo has a herd of 5,000 of them.

What's so great about beefalo?

Basically they are low-cost meat animals that do not have to be fed expensive grain. Basolo says beefalo meat is rich, tender, and the taste palatable.

Mr. Basolo thinks beefalo will be this country's main meat staple in just a few years.

The advantages of beefalo over beef, according to the Basolos, include expensive grain not required to fatten while beefalo thrive on grass roughage (weeds and cactus). Beefalo grow to more than 1,000 pounds in nine months, cattle take up to 24 months. Beefalo appear healthier and harder than other breeds. Their coats are so thick they live just as comfortably outdoors in southern California as they do in a 40 below Wisconsin winter.

Beefalo are strong like buffalo yet docile like cattle. What's more beefalo meat is 19 to 21 per cent protein while choice beef is only 10 to 11 per cent protein.

As to the meat market prices on beefalo to the consumer, choice cuts range from 25 to 40 per cent below current beef prices.

Basolo recently sold a prime beefalo bull for two and one-half million dollars to a Canadian breeding company. When his own herd of 5,000 builds up enough, he plans to market beefaloburger, beefalo stew meat, roast beefalo and beefalo steaks, plus beefalo robes, coats, after-ski boots, moccasins and rugs.

It sounds far-fetched to us, but maybe the buffalo which were slaughtered through this part of the country by the millions are staging a comeback. Maybe they'll be crossbred someday into the Texas cattle industry, sort of a mixture of the old and the new.—JC

Piggly Wiggly in WIN drive

Effective Sunday, Nov. 17, all Piggly Wiggly supermarkets in Texas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma operated by Shop Rite Foods, Inc. will begin waging their WIN, "Whip Inflation Now" campaign to hold down prices for the benefit of the consumer.

Major complaints from consumers in regard to food prices have been that many times the prices on items throughout the supermarkets will be changed and raised several times before the consumer has a chance to make the initial purchase.

Under the WIN program being put into effect by Piggly Wiggly, once a price is marked on an item and placed on the shelves for sale, it will not be raised in price. The only time a price change will take place on a shelf stocked item will be if the price goes lower than originally marked.

This program being introduced to the food consumer is in conjunction with the WIN campaign urged by President Ford in an effort to halt the climbing inflation of food prices.

Piggly Wiggly will continue to offer a series of weekly specials as they have in the past. Under the WIN program, sale prices will remain in effect during the course of the sale week. Once the sale has lapsed, the price of the item will return to the regular retail prices as listed before the sale began.

According to Shop Rite Food management, the company is determined to help the consumer, "now", in the fight against rising prices. It is the goal of Piggly Wiggly to help halt the continuous climbing of food prices and to aid the consumer in holding down prices.

Under the WIN program if the price of the item goes beyond what is marked on the item when placed on the shelves for sale by Piggly Wiggly, the price of the item will not be raised.

Pray and Be Thankful

I read a story out of the life of Dwight L. Moody that I would like to pass on to you.

Dwight L. Moody was passing along the streets of Chicago when he saw two little girls playing out in front of an underground saloon. His heart was moved with love for the children and went into the cellar. The barkeeper, thinking he wanted a drink, asked, "What will you have?" "Those children for my Sunday School," Moody replied.

"Children for your Sunday School? Do you know where you are? An infidel Club meets here Thursday nights." But the tactful soulwinner knew it was no time of retreat. So, resting his elbows on the bar, and looking into the face of the father of the children, pleaded with him in behalf of the little girls.

Finally the man's heart was touched, and he said, "I'll tell you what I'll do, Preacher, if you come here next Thursday and meet the boys in joint discussion and win, you shall have the children. If you do not win, it is all off."

"Agreed," said Moody. "I'll be here" and he left. Mr. Moody looked up a little crippled boy whom he knew, who could lay hold on God in prayer, and said to him, "Tommy, I want you next Thursday night."

When the hour arrived, Tommy and the evangelist entered the saloon. It was full. The men were sitting whiskey barrels, beer kegs, and the counter, while they were sticking in at the windows in an expectation of debate.

Moody opened the meeting by saying, "Gentlemen is custom to open our meeting with prayer. Tommy is on that barrel and pray." Tommy got himself on the barrel and turned his little face toward heaven. And how he pray! As the tears stole down his cheeks, the tenderhearted beat a retreat, and finally those rock-like, subdued by the pathos and spiritual power of occasion, slowly retired, until there was none left but the barkeeper, Moody and the praying boy.

"That will do, Tommy," exclaimed the evangelist, "claim the children," he said, turning to the father.

"They are yours according to contract," replied the father. "But it is a strange way to fight."

"It is the way I win my battles," said Moody. Moody had instructed the boy not to cease praying until he had prayed them all out.

Pray, pray, and pray more. It has been said someone (unknown to me) "the largest room in the world is - room for improvement" and prayer will really improve us all. So be thankful . . . and pray.

Whites grab Southland's 'outsiders' grid game

By MRS. ROBERT MOCK
Saturday night the outsiders met on the competitive field of football. A rough and tumble contest ensued at Southland with the white clad team winning the contest. The score was 6 to 6 until late in the second quarter when the white uniformed team got their second wind and went ahead to win 28 to 6. The teams were cheered on by Wanza Mock, Libby McGehee, Carolyn Courtney and Karen Calloway. Needless to say there's not too much activity in the community this week with most of the male population moaning and groaning.
Happy Birthday to Steve Ellis, also Happy Birthday to Amy Flores.
A Tacky Party provided fun and entertainment to 15 couples in the home of Robert Lee Mock Friday night. Co-hosting the affair was the Dennis McGehee's. Costumes and fun games provided the guests with a barrel full of fun.
Lynn County ASCS manager, Bill Stewart met with some 30 or so farmers at Hackberry Co-op Monday morning to discuss and explain the government disaster program.
Marlana Adamek and Rene Mock spent the night with Rhetta Smallwood Friday night and worked with the ojija board. They found out lots of things.
New resident in the community is Ronald Saunders. He is occupying the house his parents vacated when they moved into Slaton. Welcome home, Ronald.
Thanksgiving dinner will be served Tuesday, Nov. 26 at the Southland School Lunch Room.

Second-ranking participants in each state will receive $500 college grants.

Seniors get with it!

There is certainly a sad note in the halls of PHS this week. The Seniors and fellow students are suddenly realizing that the seniors are in fact in their last year at this school.
Friday, the juniors dedicated the day to the seniors and especially the football players who were playing and watching the last district game that they will see as the Antelopes play as members of PHS.

Different seniors have expressed different attitudes toward graduating. Some of them cannot wait to get out, and then there are those faithfuls who hate to see their life as a student of PHS pass by so swiftly.

We here on the paper staff say, "Seniors, you have five and a half months to be the Upper Classmen at PHS, so get with it and make this the best year PHS has ever seen."

Survey shows food ad specials widely used

COLLEGE STATION—Except in extraordinary times, shopping habits change slowly. With the current increase in food prices, these are extraordinary times, one authority contended this week.

Figures for family food expenditures last year show that consumers are changing their shopping habits and food use to meet the times," Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System, reported.

"Consumers increased the amount of money they spent on food last year by only 11-12 per cent—but food prices rose 21 per cent for the year."

Mrs. Clyatt said that a Progressive Grocer-Home Testing Institute survey indicated some of the reasons for the slower increase in spending.

"Shoppers prepare better now for food buying with lists, planned menus, and consultation with other family members. This shows the importance of supermarket shopping among family financial expenditures."

Homemakers have met higher meat prices more often by cutting down on total meat purchases rather than by switching to cheaper cuts.

"Consumers are also buying more meat alternates such as beans, eggs, cheese and soy products. In fact, the increase in the price of beans is a direct reflection of greater consumer demand," Mrs. Clyatt explained.

The survey also showed that people are eating less food—an average of 1.3 per cent less per person last year, she said.

Another factor in lower food expenditures is the homemaker's reluctance to "shop around" which uses more gasoline. Shoppers now tend to concentrate their food buying in one area — often in only one market, she reported.

"The average number of supermarket trips per household has dropped 25 per cent. Fewer shopping trips usually means less temptation to impulsive buying."

She reported that the survey showed consumer interest in "specials" surged last year. Newspaper ads are a favorite source to learn about store specials. Those who "almost always" read newspaper ads rose from 60 to 68 per cent, Mrs. Clyatt said.

"Both supermarket managers and consumers are doing the single most thing in the effort to keep food budgets from increasing at an increased rate."

Another money-cents-off coupon popularity soared last year. Favorite this savings are in tops, mail, magazine circulars and newspapers.

HELPING CHILDREN LEARN

Children growing up in a loving family atmosphere are apt to develop better attitudes toward learning. An understanding parent is essential in creating the proper atmosphere.

Parents can generate a desire for learning several ways.

—Gaining the child's trust.

This is a parent's greatest support—and is important in forming a parent-child bond. The simplest things—a friendly smile, reassuring hug or a little time to listen—help develop a happy, receptive, eager-to-learn child.

—Provide an atmosphere for learning.

Let a child experience the many emotions associated with learning—among them joy, freedom to explore with all his senses, and a sense of achievement.

—Be a good example.

Imitating is a "tool" utilized in learning. Therefore, parents should be what they wish their child to be—such as honest and having a love for learning.

—Talk and listen.

Talk with children. They need to talk with others—and have a good "listener."

For example, a walk in the park can lead to a talk about nature. Story reading also leads to early conversations about various subjects.

—Make the child feel important.

Not only does a child need to know what he's learned is important, but also that he is important.

Never degrade a child—no one responds to degradation. Instead, praise him whenever possible.

—Realize that questions are expressions of eagerness to learn.

It's the absence of questions—not their presence—that should cause concern.

—Pay attention to what the child does.

Show interest in his school work and activities.

Learning something new can seem like an endless, frightening experience. With the proper attitude and outlook, the prospects can seem much more appealing.

'Lopes zap Tahoka 41-0 to close out winning year

Finish close second in 5AA district race

The Post Antelopes closed out a 6-4 winning season by ripping the Tahoka Bulldogs for six touchdowns and a 41-0 victory Friday night at Tahoka to finish second "by a foot" behind Denver City in the exciting District 5AA race.

Coach Bobby Davis' club ready to play and left no doubt as to the outcome after the first quarter of play. They drove 53 and 21 yards for touchdowns the first two times they got their hands on the ball. Defensively they held the Bulldogs without a first down in the first half and limited their traditional foes to but five for the night and a total of 81 net yards from scrimmage on the ground and in the air.

The Lopes so completely bottled up Tahoka that the Bulldogs crossed midfield only once all night with the ball and their deepest offensive thrust was only to the Post 40.

Five different backs scored touchdowns as the 'Lopes stuck basically to their running game in rolling up 23 first downs and 277 net yards running.

Quarterback Bryan Davis threw but six times, completing two for 55 yards, one a long one for a 38 yard gain in the second period and the other a screen which netted 17.

Coach Davis cleared the bench and gave everybody a chance to play.

The game was halted momentarily with seven minutes to play when it was announced Roosevelt was leading Denver City 19 to 7 going into the fourth period and the team danced in joy on the field before going back into their huddle and continuing a touchdown drive.

Everybody, including the Post fans who let out a loud roar, jumped to the conclusion that Post was one of the district's 1974 tri-champs. They didn't find out until they got home how wrong they were.

The Lopes scored in seven plays, going 53 yards with Tailback Dennis McDonald slashing the final 12 yards right up the middle untouched to score standing up, the first time they got the ball. Tony Conner converted.

Conner then kicked off through the end zone, the 'Lopes forced a kick and Safety Jimmy Dorland who had returned the first one 13 yards brought this one back 29 yards to the Tahoka 21.

It took five plays for Post to get in from there with Fullback Joe Moore ramming the final five to score standing up. Again Conner converted.

Nothing much happened after that until the final minutes of the second quarter when the 'Lopes drove 64 yards for their third touchdown with Davis diving over tackle for the final yard with only 14 seconds on the clock. The big gainer in the drive was a 38 yard throw from Davis to Conner who was dropped on the Tahoka 5-yard stripe.

On the conversion points, off a fake kick, Mike Shepherd passed to End Andy Williams for two conversion points to make it 22-0 at intermission.

Tahoka made the mistake of trying an inside kick on the second half kickoff and Mark Terry covered the bouncing ball on the Post 45 to give the 'Lopes good field position to open their fourth touchdown drive.

Garland Dudley broke for a 16 yard gainer and Davis rambled around right end for 15 and threw a screen to Moore which picked up 17 more. Tailback Edward Price broke loose to score standing up from the 14, and believe it or not but Conner missed his conversion kick to the left and it was 28-0.

ON HIS WAY — Halfback Jimmy Dorland, No. 10, is on his way zigzagging 59 yards for an apparent score against the Bulldogs at Tahoka Friday night only to have the ball called back because of a teammate's clip 18 yards beyond the line of scrimmage. It would have been the 'Lopes longest scoring play of the year. — (School Photo)

Coaches pick 'Lopes for cage champs, open at Spur

Coach John Alexander's Post Antelope cagers, picked by rival District 5AA coaches to win the district crown this season despite a 7-18 record last year, will open their season at Spur Friday night in the final game of a tripleheader also involving the Post Does and the Post JV girls.

"For some unknown reason that the other coaches picked us," Coach Alexander told The Dispatch Tuesday after the initial basketball workout with his charges Monday. "We'll do our best to prove them right."

Slaton was named to finish second followed by Cooper, broke for 59 yards on a scoring scamper which was called back for an Antelope clip 18 yards beyond the line of scrimmage.

Late in the fourth Linebacker Sammy Gutierrez intercepted a Tahoka pass and returned it to the Bulldog 25 to set up the fifth 'Lope TD.

Post scored in three plays with Senior Halfback Jackie Blacklock, out most of the season with injuries, getting his one and only 1974 touchdown on a nine-yard burst. Conner converted.

The Antelopes took the ball over from Tahoka on downs on the Bulldog 29 when the home club gamely failed to make a fourth and three for a first. Moore ripped for 11 and McDonald for 10.

Then Randy Josey, another senior who has had to watch most of the 1974 game action from the sidelines due to injuries, slammed into tackle for three only to be dropped on the one instead of getting his touchdown. He limped off on his bad knee and Moore came back in to get the score. By that time the team was mostly reserves and Senior Jay Kennedy was trying his hand at quarterback for the last time.

It was the Antelopes' biggest offensive display of the season and left this writer wondering how far the 'Lopes could have gone if Quarterback Bryan Davis hadn't gotten off to a bad start with "mono" and then a deep back bruise, and if Tailback Price hadn't been out early with that blood clot in his leg.

All this got the offense off to a mighty late start.

Denver City, Roosevelt, Freshman and Tahoka in that order. Cooper got the most first place votes but also were dropped to fourth by some coaches. The top three teams were closely bunched in the pre-season poll.

Coach Alexander, who has 24 candidates out for varsity and B workouts, has six senior lettermen returning from last season's team, including three starters.

The returning starters are Tony Conner, 6-2 forward, Kent Kirkpatrick, 6-0 guard, and Bob Craig 6-2 center. Other lettermen are Randy Josey, 5-9 guard, Grayling Johnson, 6-0 center, and Jackie Blacklock, 5-10 guard.

Probable starters Friday night — and that's only a guess on Tuesday — would put the three starters on the floor along with Bryan Davis, 6-3 junior postman, and Mike Shepherd, 5-9 junior guard.

Alexander indicated the team may employ a double post this year.

"We've got the defense and the rebounding if we can find us a shooter," Alexander said. He hopes "the shooter" will be

Freshmen, Jvs close season

The Post High freshmen and JVs closed out their 1974 football seasons with easy victories over Tahoka in Antelope Stadium last Thursday night.

The freshmen took the opener 28 to 0, and the JVs the nightcap 28 to 0.

The freshmen were rather methodical in their victory, scoring a touchdown in each period.

Brad Shepherd passed 15 yards to Ronnie Bratcher for the first TD in the opening quarter and Randy Baker ran a sweep for the two conversion points.

In the second the freshmen pulled the end around pass for a score with Evans Heaton throwing to Mark Williams. Baker again ran over the extras.

Tommy Reed scored on a one-yard dive for the third period touchdown and the extra point try failed. Reed tallied in the fourth too on a five yard dash. Tahoka got its TD in the fourth.

Randall Wyatt scored the Post JVs first touchdown in the first quarter and the locals led 6-0 at the half. In the third quarter, Perry Rogers on an end sweep for a TD and Alfred Pena ran in two extra points.

The JVs got the final two in the fourth. Kyle Duren going for six on the first one and Kenny Curtis tallying the second. Wyatt got the extras after the final TD.

The defense played an outstanding game.

Post Does drop return game at Seagraves 69-53

The Post Does were as "cold" as the Seagraves' girls were "hot" with their shooting in a return game at Seagraves Tuesday night as both teams even their seasonal ledgers with Seagraves taking a 69 to 53 victory.

The locals hit only 33 per cent of their shots from the field while Seagraves was canning 76 per cent.

T. Stevenson scored 41 points in leading Seagraves to the win with 12 fielders and a big total of 17 free throws.

Melani King and Jenda Gilmore tied for scoring honors for the Does with 20 apiece. Joni Hays got six fielders for another 12 and Karen Williams completed the Post scoring with one free throw.

The teams were tied at 12 all at the end of the first quarter but Seagraves pulled out into a 38 to 23 intermission lead and were never headed as they outscored the Does 18 to 16 and 18 to 14 in the last two periods.

The Post JV girls made it two in a row over Seagraves by grabbing the opener of the twin bill, 37 to 25.

Brenda Weaver led the locals with 15, Amy Cowdrey got 12, and Donna Ammons, Nancy Gandy and Melani Holly two each.

WHAT HAPPENED AT DENVER CITY

Season just 1:40 too long for title share

Coach Bobby Davis' Antelopes got their last bad break with only one minute and 40 seconds left in the 1974 season—and it cost them a one-third share of the District 5AA title.

The "break" didn't come at Tahoka where the 'Lopes were overpowering the Bulldogs 41 to 0, but out west at Denver City where the Roosevelt Eagles fumbled the ball to Denver City on their own 14 yard line with 1:40 left on the clock and leading 19 to 14.

The fumble came on a first down play after the Eagles had halted a last ditch Mustang drive with a pass interception. From the 14, the Big Red went in to score with 28 seconds on the clock for their seventh straight victory 21 to 19 and the district 5AA crown.

The victory was the first over Roosevelt in four years and put Denver City in the bi-district playoff game for the first time since 1970.

Denver City will meet Hamilton, the District 6AA winner over Coahoma, at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Lubbock's Lowery Field in the bi-district game.

The victory gave Coach Bill

Gravitt his first district crown in his first season as Denver City's head coach.

Fumbles played an important part giving Roosevelt a two-touchdown lead in the third period as well as Denver City the last minute opportunity for victory.

After the two teams exchanged touchdowns in the first half, Denver City stopped a third period Roosevelt thrust by holding for downs after the Eagles had a first down on the Mustang two.

Then the Big Red coughed up the football on a fumble on their two and the Eagles slammed across for a touchdown with Rodney Jackson getting the tally.

This go-ahead score came with only 2:17 left in the third, and in 20 seconds the Eagles were on the board again. The Mustangs fumbled again on the first play after the kickoff and the Eagles recovered on DC's 21.

Quarterback Jeff Anderson hit Jackson with a 21-yard scoring pass to give Jackson all three Roosevelt touchdowns. Denver City didn't quit and

Post girls sweep triple bill in cage openers

Post High School's three girls basketball teams opened their 1974-75 "winter" seasons here Saturday night by sweeping a tripleheader with Seagraves.

Coach John Morrow's Post Does stood off a final period rally by Seagraves to pull out an 84 to 81 triumph.

The Post JVs scored a 38 to 31 victory with the Post freshmen having the easiest time in the opener with a 36 to 24 win.

Four Post girls scored in double figures in the varsity contest with Jenda Gilmore dumping in 11 fielders and ten out of 15 free throws for 32 points.

Melani King was next with 25. Joni Hays tallied 15 and Karen Williams 12 to complete Post's scoring.

Seagraves jumped out in front 20 to 16 in the first period and led 43 to 39 at the halftime intermission. But the Does came back with a big third period to outscore Seagraves 24 to 11 and go into the final period with a nine-point advantage, 63 to 54.

T. Stevenson was the high point shooter of the game with 36 for Seagraves with C. Mitchell tallying 32 and T. Mills 13.

Also seeing action for Post were Sandy Bullard, Patricia Bilberry, Ann Mitchell, Kim Mitchell, Genetta Kennedy, Nancy Reno, Hope Johnson and Brenda Price.

In the junior varsity game, Post jumped out ahead in the first and were never headed, having a 25 to 15 intermission advantage.

Amy Cowdrey scored 16 points for Post, Donna Ammons 11, Brenda Weaver 8, and Nancy Gandy 3 to complete the scoring.

3 rural wrecks in October

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated three accidents on rural highways in Garza County during the month of October according to Sergeant H. E. Pirtle, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in only one person injured. The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first ten months of 1974 shows a total of 34 accidents resulting in two persons killed and 22 persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for October, 1974, shows a total of 502 accidents resulting in 19 persons killed and 215 persons injured as compared to October, 1973, with 664 accidents resulting in 31 persons killed and 377 persons injured. This was 162 less accidents, 12 less killed, and 162 less injured in 1974 at the same period of time.

The 19 traffic deaths for the month of October, 1974, occurred in the following counties: three in Hale; two each in Haskell, Lubbock, Palo Pinto, Wise; and one each in Clay, Briscoe, Hall, Ochiltree, Oldham, Roberts, Swisher, and Wheeler.

LETTERS To the Editor

SEEKS IDENTITY

Dear Jim:
 I acknowledge your kind words about me last week (okay, so who else lost a shotgun?) but, unless a personal plug costs money, your remark that I should remain mercifully nameless puzzled me a bit. Having been born without looks, talent, wealth, or much of anything else, I could use all the mercy anyone can spare—but I need anonymity like a fish needs a raincoat. I've had fifty-odd years of that.

As to your statement that someone swiped my gun while I wuzn't looking, well-I-I—Jim, I almost wuz looking. While I don't have a case I could take to the courthouse—and wouldn't take it there if I did have—I'd give some fair odds that I could lay hands on the hippie that took it.

The gun has a small defect, tho, and I sincerely hope the first time he attempts to shoot it, the damn thing blows up and sets fire to his beard.

I'm not griping, you understand, but that bit about namelessness sorta cut me to the quick, and—as anyone in my age group can tell you—trying to hack it through DISCUSSES ISSUES — Newly-elected State Senator Kent Hance (right) discusses the issues that face the Texas legislature with Dean William B. Cannon of the LBJ School of Public Affairs.

Ken Hance already busy learning about problems

AUSTIN — The results of the 1974 General Election were only a week old when the newly elected State Senator from the 28th Senatorial District, Ken Hance, Democrat from Lubbock, was at work in his new job. Of course, any work before Jan. 14 is without pay or expenses.

Hance is in Austin attending the Pre-Session Legislative Conference sponsored by the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs at the University of Texas at Austin.

The conference started Nov. 13 with a new member orientation session dealing with the rules and procedures of the legislature in Texas. It wound up Friday, Nov. 15.

Thursday morning conference centered on the issues and alternatives involved with the surplus of revenue facing Texas government during the next year. Among those giving talks were Dean William B. Cannon of the L. B. J. School of Public Affairs; Thomas M. Keel, Budget Director of the Legislative Budget Board of the State; William H. Kelly of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, speaking on the Texas outlook; and Leon Rothenberg discussing changes and prospects of state finance and taxation in other areas of the United States. Rothenberg is research director of the Federation of Tax Administrators from Chicago, Ill.

Thursday afternoon the discussion was directed to modernizing the Texas property tax system with Lynn F. Anderson of the L. B. J. School moderating. Among the panelists comparing the Texas property tax system to other states was Ronald Welch of the California State Board of Equalization and Jason Boe, a state senator from Salem, Oregon.

The conference was concluded Friday with analysis of public school finance in Texas.

Good lease agreement can prevent problems

COLLEGE STATION — A good, well-thought-out written agreement when leasing a farm can often eliminate problems and disagreements between landlords and tenants, believes Dr. Wayne Hayenga, economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"A lease should be tailored to fit the farm, the landlord and the tenant," points out the economist with the Texas A&M University System. Hayenga says the lease should cover such areas as property rights, land use, and livestock production and restrictions, and should have provisions for conserving and maintaining farm resources, sharing of costs and returns, and length of the agreement.

"The agreement should clearly state the rights, duties and responsibilities of each party and should provide for change and adaptability." The goal of the agreement should be to provide reasonable returns to both landlord and tenant for the resources provided.

"A good lease provides for the development, improvement and maintenance of the land, buildings, fences and other improvements," notes Hayenga. "It should assure the tenant a reasonable reimbursement for the investments he leaves in the farm when his period of occupancy ends." Hayenga contends that a rental agreement should have a provision for equitable sharing. "This does not always mean equal sharing. The landlord and tenant should receive an income from the farm in proportion to the amount of total operating expenses each pays." The economist favors a whole farm income sharing plan rather than one for each crop or livestock enterprise.

New milestone in fusion reaction

AUSTIN — Temperatures 10 times that of the sun have been achieved by University of Texas scientists working on the Texas Tokamak project to use nuclear fusion reactions as a source of future energy.

By heating to more than 200 million degrees a super-hot gas known as plasma, then "containing" the plasma in a magnetic field for a fraction of a second, the UT researchers reached a milestone on the way to creating controlled fusion reaction.

The UT research could be a forerunner of fusion power plants that would provide the world with an almost unlimited supply of electrical energy.

City Council —

Sawyers said a lot of people think we can spend this $100,000 any way and at any time "when we can only apply it on the $200,000 city water debt until that debt is retired."

On the police salary boost, which was first proposed by Chief Trulove two weeks ago, the chief told the council that his plan is to reduce one officer from a five-day week to a three-day week to provide him with the opportunity to further his education, and that this salary saving be used to make the Post salary scale "competitive with other small towns in this area."

He said patrolmen who aren't certified would receive a $550 monthly salary with no increases until they are certified. Then they would be increased to $600 monthly.

The certified officer also would start at $550 monthly but receive a $25 increase after 90 days and a second $25 boost in another 90 days to reach a $600 monthly salary.

Councilmen said they approved the idea that certified officers would be paid more than uncertified officers. Certification requires completion of certain law enforcement courses plus a year's experience in law enforcement.

Trulove, who was accompanied to the meeting by Police Sergeant Jim Howard, said the average salary of patrolmen at Snyder, Brownfield, Slaton, Seagraves and Tahoka is $630 monthly. He added that Lubbock was not included because it was much higher.

"If the city police here are on a competitive salary basis with surrounding towns we have a better chance to get certified officers for replacement rather than spending $1,000 to $1,200 for the training of uncertified officers," Trulove said.

The only bid the city had for a new drive-in window at city hall to facilitate drive up payment of city water bills was from the LeFubure Corp. of Cedar Rapids, Ia.

Although the $3,307.47 bid was rejected as costing too much, the council instructed City Manager Pete Maddox to look into possible purchase of a used unit or the construction of a home-made unit.

Maddox told the council the present "open window" method in the driveway often scatters money all over the office on a windy day and results in a very cold office on cold days.

The council did not go into possible action on how to resolve its legal problem of Mayor McCrary being a major officer and stockholder of the only bank in the county which is the depository for city funds because McCrary was absent from the meeting.

Morton was instructed to mail copies of his legal opinion on the matter to all council members, including McCrary, so the matter could be taken up at the next meeting.

The attorney said in his opinion any ordinance passed to provide for the naming of a city fiscal agent would be illegal because Post is not large enough to be a home rule city and can therefore only operate within the provisions of state law which makes it illegal for the bank to serve as a depository for the city if a bank officer or major stockholder is on the city council.

Pat N. Walker, former city attorney, raised the legal question along with others at a meeting with the council several weeks ago when he appeared as "a concerned private citizen." Walker, while city attorney, had told the council a city fiscal agent would be one solution to the problem.

If a city fiscal agent is ruled out, and councilmen have shown considerable reluctance to take such a step in the past, that leaves the solution as either McCrary's resignation as mayor or the city obtaining a new depository for city funds.

City ordinances---

minimum size for such a park at 45,000 square feet.

The ordinance would restrict the use of mobile homes for living purposes to the following instances:

When located in a mobile home park licensed by the City of Post, when located in a mobile home sales or service business with only one such residence per business; when used as temporary living quarters for guards at a construction site when approved by the chief of police; or...

"When located on a lot with a minimum frontage of 50 feet, not joined on either side by a lot being used for residential purposes, provided that the wheels must be removed and a covering shall be placed completely covering the space from floor level to ground level around the entire trailer; the mobile home shall be located a minimum of 10 feet from any property line and building and no more than one trailer shall be located on each 50-foot lot."

The ordinance does contain a hardship clause under which the city council could approve use of a mobile home as living quarters in a residential area which do not meet these requirements.

Most of the ordinance sets forth requirements and licensing provisions for mobile park or vacation trailer parks.

Violation of the mobile home ordinance would be a misdemeanor with provision for a fine upon conviction of up to $200 with each day the violation continues being a separate offense.

Like the present ordinance, the new one provides for notification of owners of such vehicles and for a hearing if requested by the junk car owner.

Violation of this ordinance also would be a misdemeanor and upon conviction a violator shall be fined not more than $200.

The ordinance on mobile homes proposes to regulate how and where a mobile home can be placed in a residential area for living purposes and regulating and licensing mobile home parks.

Attorney Morton told the council the ordinance is patterned after Lubbock's mobile home ordinance and is needed to provide increased fire protection in residential areas, a protection of property values and a means of assessing property taxes for mobile home use here.

The ordinance would not apply to the parking of trailers or mobile homes on private property unless they are used as living quarters.

The ordinance would establish requirements for any mobile home park established within the city limits and set a

Plant fire is caught Sunday

Bo and Jim Jackson are glad Bo had a weekend customer early Sunday afternoon.

When Bo went to Jackson Bros. Meat Packers plant to get some meat for the customer about 12:30 p. m. he found the thick wooden door to the cold storage meat vault afire.

He doused the flames with a fire extinguisher and called the fire department. Firemen extinguished the stubborn fire within the door.

"If he hadn't gone to the plant when he did we could have had a very damaging fire," Jim told The Dispatch.

He said damage was confined to the door and the door frame which will have to be replaced.

Cause of the fire was a short in wiring running around the door to enable the door to be opened easily.

Ruling Elder Bill Jones elder of the Snyder Presbyterian Church and a member of the Commission on Ministerial Care, also will participate.

Mrs. Margie Pennell of the Presbyterian Church and Mrs. Marita Jackson of the First Baptist Church will sing a duet, "Alleluia" during the service.

Following the installation, a Mexican Dish Supper will be served in the fellowship hall with the church's entertainment committee, composed of Mrs. Rosemary Chapman, chairman Mrs. Mary Prather, Mrs. Ruth Ann Newby and Mrs. Betty Boren in charge.

After two years of research, the Veterans Administration hospital at Buffalo, has fire-proofed and prolonged the life of mattresses.

are dismayed by what they see on the House floor, and anything that helps restore order may be a public service.

COURTS SPEAK — Failure to buckle a seat belt is no legal cause to cut down compensation to accident victims, the State Supreme Court held.

In another case, the High Court directed a fullscale trial of a lawsuit by the widow of a crane operator against an oil company in a controversy over safe working conditions.

A retrial was ordered for a $250,000 alienation of affections suit filed by a Braxton County man against a chiropractor.

The Court of Criminal Appeals held that a person's presence in a house where LSD is discovered is not enough grounds for conviction of possessing the drug.

The same court concluded that former House Speaker Gus Mutscher and associates convicted of conspiracy to accept bribes must start serving five-year probationary sentences, although they have taken further steps to appeal.

AG OPINIONS—A police officer may not break into a dwelling to execute a court seizure writ on personal property, Atty. Gen. Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

- University land lease record files (except for sealed bids) are public information no matter who requests access.
- Questions concerning validity of a proposed inter-agency government agreement should be submitted initially to the Board of Control.
- Student records are available to educational institution personnel, the student, parents, guardians or spouse.

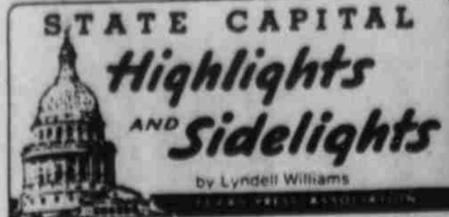

REGULATION SOUGHT — Nine organizations banded together to support legislation calling for a state regulatory agency to deal with utility rates.

Spokesmen indicated cities would be offered an option whether they wanted a state board to regulate their rates and services.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED—E. Hartley Sappington will be new assistant deputy commissioner of community services of the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, effective January 1.

Angelina County District Attorney John Hannah, former state legislator, will succeed Randall B. Wood as general counsel and lobbyist for Common Cause, "the people's lobby."

Randall Meyer of Houston

AUSTIN, Tex. — The whopping state surplus expected to be available to the legislature will permit $500 million in new spending without generating tax bills for another eight years.

This was the good news handed a House revenue and taxation sub-committee last week.

However, Texas Research League added the warning that spending all the billion dollar surplus in sight would make a $1.43 billion tax bill necessary in 1977.

Legislative Budget Board has told lawmakers present spending levels, plus mandatory increases for state employee salaries and emergency school aid, will "leave over" $1.502 billion at the end of fiscal 1977.

A TRL projection handed the legislative sub-committee discussed creation of a tax stabilization fund as one alternative for dealing with the unprecedented surplus.

Creation of the fund would make it possible to avoid new state taxes for at least eight years and still permit new program spending of $250 million a year increasing to $500 million a year by the 1982-1983 biennium, TRL calculated.

However, TRL conceded: "It may be unrealistic to suggest that the next three sessions of the Texas legislature might be willing to hold in trust such a large surplus solely for the purpose of avoiding tax increases in future years. There is no historic precedent for such restraint."

SCHOOL AID ALTERED — An attorney general's opinion, hailed as one of the most significant in recent months, signaled a new approach to state formulas for finance aid to schools.

Atty. Gen. John Hill held the Commissioner of Education should require county tax assessors to report the percentage of market value used in determining assessed property value.

And he said the commissioner should use that data in "computing the county economic index to achieve uniformity of property values of each county as compared with every other county."

Education Commissioner Dr. M. L. Brockert last week wrote all county tax officials requesting the data, and said it will be used for computing the 1975-76 economic index to be considered by the State Board of Education next March.

NEWSMEN OUT — Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake, expected to be named speaker next January, said consideration is being given to barring news reporters and other non-legislators from the House of Representatives floor.

No firm decision has been made, however, Clayton stated.

Meanwhile, the House administration committee named a three-man sub-committee to consider what facilities may be made available for reporters covering the legislature if they are banned from the floor during legislative debate.

Clayton said he considered the move only in the interest of promoting "decorum" in the legislative process. He said onlookers at the capitol

Dalby praises revenue sharing

County Judge Giles W. Dalby told Post Rotarians at their Tuesday luncheon in city hall that in three years time Garza County has received $199,000 in federal revenue sharing funds to help finance a large variety of county projects.

As state revenue sharing chairman for the Texas County Officials Association, Dalby said he has received assurances from both Senator John Tower and Congressman Omar Burleson that the revenue sharing program probably will be extended beyond its present fiscal year of 1976.

Dalby ticked off the many good community revenue sharing projects that have been put in place. He pointed out that the federal government has bypassed in favor of money to use for revenue sharing.

He also listed revenue sharing projects in Garza County: the "mighty" Rotarians club, flute quartet, Giddens, Peggy Lucia Pousy and Director Scott Burleson who were promoted into the club as a member by Bob Collier.
