Community workshop proposed

The city council Monday night virtually accepted the offer of two SPAG representatives to conduct a community improvement workshop for Post sometime early in 1979.

Truett Mayes and Ken Leggett of the South Plains Association of Governments appeared before the council at its December meeting to propose such a workshop without cost to the city for their services.

Citizen participation at every level would be sought, including young people, Mayes explained. "It's basically a brain storming session for all interested citizens," he said.

Mayes said through such workshops SPAG is helping towns under 10,000 population develop self-improvement programs.

The SPAG sponsored workshops have been held in a number of area towns in recent years, and, as Mayes put it: "We've never held one that something good didn't come of it."

The last such workshop was conducted here 16 years ago by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Mayes said "we make a full night of it", get a lot of suggestions, and then Leggett, the second SPAG representative, will come back to help guide followup committee work on designated projects.

"We had such a workshop in Petersburg recently which drew 130 people who came up with 157 suggestions," Mayes said, and cited several workshops which have developed beneficial community projects.

Mayes proposed the council name a steering committee and then a date after Christmas could be set up. The council put the workshop proposal on their January agenda for final action.

1st Yule Drawing Saturday

The first of three Post Yule Drawings will be held at 4 p. m. Saturday in front of Wackers with $175 in three gift certificates the prizes.

Drawings will be for $100 and $50 gift certificates for those 18 years of age and older, and one $25 certificate for youngsters 17 years of age and under.

Those whose names are drawn must be present to win.

If the persons whose names are drawn first are not present, a second name will be drawn for each prize. If there is still no winner, the amount of the certificate will go into the jackpot to be drawn Dec. 23.

Other drawings are scheduled for 7 p. m. Thursday, Dec. 14, one of the nights Post stores will be open late for shoppers, and at 4 p. m. Saturday, Dec. 23.

All told $600 in gift certificates good in any of the 45 participating stores will be given away.

Santa Claus will make his first visit to Post Saturday afternoon. He is scheduled to arrive here at 3:30 p. m.

but won't stay long. He'll be on his way in 30 minutes.

Mr. Claus' last trip into Post will be Saturday, Dec. 16, with an hour's visit from 3:30 to 4:30 p. m.

Most Post stores will remain open for the convenience of night shoppers on each Thursday and Monday nights until Christmas, beginning tonight.

In other actions, the council passed the new city garbage ordinance on second and final reading, agreed the community center board should have prime responsibility for operation of the center, including the youth room, over the youth center board; and authorized sale of $12,800 in warrants to the First National Bank to help pay for the recently completed city-county paving project.

The council is facing "a financial situation" in final payment of $75,684.35 to Lubbock Asphalt Co., the paving contractor, in that property owners who had agreed to pay cash for their portion of the curb and guttering still owe the city approximately $9,000.

Of the $32,833.38 in curb and gutter costs for the project, property owners had agreed to pay $19,200 in either full payment or in 20 percent payments with the city borrowing the $12,800 via warrants to pay the remainder.

City Manager Pete Maddox reported only $10,387. See City council, Page 16

Chamber bylaws rewritten

Directors of the Post Chamber of Commerce at a special meeting at the bank Monday night approved a rewritten constitution and bylaws for the civic organization designed to give the organization's operations more long run stability.

Copies of the proposed constitution and bylaws were mailed to the entire membership Wednesday preparatory to taking a final vote on them at the quarterly membership breakfast Dec. 15.

The push is being made to obtain adoption prior to the procedure for electing new Chamber directors for 1979. The new bylaws provide a considerably different procedure.

Under these bylaws, a nominating committee will select a single slate of three directors and submit it to the board of directors.

The Chamber president will then mail the slate of nominations to the membership. Members who desire can nominate additional directors via petitions signed by at least 10 members submitted within 10 days.

If any petitions are received within this period, ballots are prepared and mailed to the membership for election of directors. If no petitions of new nominations are received, the board of directors then declares the nominating committee's slate elected.

Another change provides the board of directors will elect the president each year plus a president-elect to be groomed to take the helm the following year.

Heretofore the membership has elected the president and there has been no president-elect position.

Under the proposed bylaws, directors terms would be extended from two to three years with three new ones elected each year, and none being eligible to directly succeed themselves.

All of these changes are designed to provide more continuity in the Chamber's operation with the head of the organization selected by those on the board who can better judge qualifications, interest and performance.

The bylaws basically are those proposed by the United States Chamber of Commerce and this will be the first updating here since 1952 when the late George (Scotty) Samson was Chamber president.

The directors have worked (See By-laws, Page 16)

Yule lighting contest on

The Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a lighting contest for the Christmas season.

A first place prize will be $50; second, $30 and third place $20.

Judging will be held Dec. 18 and entries may be had by calling the Post Chamber of Commerce office 3461.

Breakfast set for Dec. 15

A two-part program has been arranged for the Post Chamber of Commerce's quarterly membership breakfast scheduled for 7 a.m. Friday, Dec. 15, in the community center.

George Thompson of Sweetwater will give a talk on community appearance and attitude, and members will vote on revised Chamber constitution and bylaws.

A $50 cash door prize will go to the Chamber member whose name is drawn, providing he is in attendance at the breakfast.

Tickets for the breakfast, priced at $1, are now on sale at the Chamber office and from Chamber directors.

Narcotics burglars hit Collier Drug

The Bob Collier Drug store was burglarized Friday night, Nov. 24, apparently by professionals looking for hard narcotics. They found them, too.

Don Payne told The Dispatch this week that $1,450 worth of "the hard stuff" and $50 in one dollar bills were taken.

Payne declared "If I'd been down here with them, I couldn't have picked much better myself."

He said the burglars apparently knew exactly what they wanted and left the rest of the drugs.

Entrance was gained by sawing through bars on a rear store window. The street light in the alley had been knocked out and a cardboard screening apparently erected around the window to shield the light from inside.

It was only a little more than a year ago that drug burglars also hit the drug store hard.

"They're just looking for hard drugs," Payne said, "but if they happen to run across some money, they will take it too."

The Dispatch was not informed of the burglary last week through its regular news sources.

Water permit is extended

Another two year extension of time has been granted the White River Municipal Water District to construct a 52,420 acre foot reservoir in Garza County east of Post.

The proposed reservoir is on the North Fork of the Double Mountain Fork of the Brazos.

The time grant was made by the Texas Water Commission.

This is the fourth extension of the water permit given the water district since they first secured it.

The original permit was issued July 24, 1970.

Actually, no action can be expected on construction until the City of Lubbock signs a contract for water delivery from the proposed reservoir. The White River water district then would finance construction through a revenue loan.

Lubbock has had a bond issue which would provide some initial funds for water projects tied up for months via a court suit.

Correction please

The Dispatch erred in reporting last week that the two insurance proposals submitted to school trustees for all-risk coverage of school district buildings and contents were "similar."

The proposal submitted by the Tom Power Insurance Agency, on which Dispatch cost comparisons were based, was for 100 percent co-insurance, while the proposal accepted from the Bryan Williams & Son agency provides for 80 percent co-insurance.

The 80 percent co-insurance costs more because it allows the policy holder a 20 percent tolerance in being fully insured at replacement costs without penalty in event of a loss. The 100 percent co-insurance allows no tolerance from full coverage without penalty.

TEXAS TECH ADMINISTRATOR REPORTS—

Nursing, pharmacy schools next

Dub Harris of Lubbock, who is on the administrative staff of Texas Tech University's new medical school, told Post Rotarians Tuesday that the university hopes to take in its first class for a new school of nursing in 1980 and its first class for a new school of pharmacy in 1981.

In answer to a question, he said he doubted if the legislature would grant Tech a veterinarian school of medicine in the immediate future because of strong opposition from Texas A&M University supporters.

Harris explained the legislature authorized the new pharmacy school two years ago and provided funding for it but it was vetoed by the governor.

Citing the critical need for nurses both in West Texas and throughout the state, Harris said Texas Tech hopes to gain approval for a new nursing school from the state legislature this coming winter.

"We have over 300 pre-nursing students at Tech right now who soon will be looking for a nursing school to enter," he declared.

It would require only $700,000 to start a school of nursing and operate it for the first two years, he said. Only $500,000 in state funding would be needed for two years operation of Tech's new pharmacy school.

Harris paid tribute to Mayor Giles McCrary for servicing on the executive board of the Tech med school during its formative stages.

He said Tech now has 186 med students in school and plans to take in a class of 100 in 1979 and then 120 in the 1980 entering class.

The med school also has 132 residents in Lubbock, Amarillo and El Paso studying general practice or specialties.

Experience from other medical schools shows 60 percent of resident doctors stay in the area in which they complete their study, but it's too early to tell for the fledgling Tech med school how many new young doctors will remain in West Texas, he said.

"Getting doctors to serve in rural areas and small towns is a problem all over Texas and the nation, not just in West Texas," Harris said.

He explained that in their (See Nursing, Page 16)

The farm and ranch division, headed by Delores Dunn, made its first report this week and turned in approximately $600 with work still incomplete.

Several divisions, including city employes, hospital employes, and Justiceburg are yet to report.

Most of the big business division has been worked but a number of big contributors are yet to be heard from.

"We're hopeful," Cornish said. "It's always best to be optimistic."

Workshop is great idea

The offer by SPAG to conduct a community improvement workshop here after Christmas is a good one.

A night spent in a brain storming session by a large group of citizens who care about their community's future should produce ideas in abundance.

The efforts of SPAG officials would be concentrated upon organizing the session so that the best and most broadly supported ideas would be focused upon and action taken to implement them through all available means.

Two questions probably will be raised in connection with the workshop proposal.

One obviously is why the city was approached to sponsor such a project instead of the Post Chamber of Commerce. The answer is quite simple.

SPAG is an association of local units of governments on the South Plains. If it sought Chamber backing, ultimately several workshop projects would land in the city council's lap for action.

Therefore SPAG approaches such workshops through its member cities to first obtain their backing.

The second question is, remembering a similar workshop conducted here 16 years ago by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, what good will come from it this time when all those good suggestions virtually went to waste 16 years ago.

The answer to that is that SPAG intends to follow up on major ideas by counseling with work committees on major projects which grow out of the workshop.

Unfortunately, WTCC didn't have those capabilities 16 years ago.

This time SPAG will not only assign a specialist to followup work but would make available to local committees all the available SPAG "know how" in many fields as the association employs a number of varied specialists to assist its members in successfully carrying out all types of projects.

Obviously the Chamber of Commerce and all other local organizations will play major roles.

The success of the workshop probably will ultimately depend upon its organization and the understanding of the local citizens as to what is trying to be accomplished so their enthusiastic support may be assured.

The rush to Christmas of course now will put the workshop on a back burner, but it can promise much for this community's future once the yule holiday has come and gone.

'Surplus battle' joined

The "battle of the state surplus" already has been joined between new Republican governor-to-be Bill Clements and Democratic legislators.

Clements recently announced he would seek to cut Texas taxes another one billion dollars over the cuts made at a special legislative session last summer, citizens in voting the tax relief constitutional amendment in November, and enabling legislation to implement the amendment at the upcoming legislative session.

Clements was taking aim at the $2.6 billion surplus which has accumulated in the state treasury from present taxes.

What happened was last week the house senate budget panel, composed of the legislature's most powerful members and led by House Speaker Bill Clayton and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, by adopting a proposed state budget for the next two years which would spend roughly $2.5 billion of the surplus and leave only $80 million for any tax cuts, program enrichment, or new state services.

The budget adopted by this legislature budget board historically is a "bare bones budget" with no new programs. The budget adopted later by the legislature is usually much larger as new expenditures are added.

Thus the challenge has quietly been thrown to the governor who has no power over the legislature except his veto and the support of the people.

In an unexpected move, the board added about a billion dollars for funding of public schools including $450 million to reimburse local school districts for voter-mandated property tax cuts.

Equally surprising, it recommended a 5.1 percent pay hike per year for teachers in public schools and others paid out of foundation school funds.

It was John Hill, defeated Democratic candidate, who had promised to boost teachers salaries — and Democratic legislative leaders have included this in their budget proposal with a single committee hearing or ten minutes of floor debate.

The total recommended for public schools is about $5.2 billion for the two-year fiscal period as compared with $4.3 billion in the current biennial budget.

The budget also includes 30 percent boosts for the state court system, a 20 percent increase for health, welfare and rehabilitation services, and a 14 percent boost for executive and administrative agencies.

To maintain present services in this time of inflation is going to cost more over the next two years, but not that much more. Texas government it seems is going to get still bigger despite the voters overwhelmingly expressed desire to cut back state governmental costs.

In the end, it is the people who will decide. The Texas governor is very limited in his powers. He can only exert some measure of control over the legislature by obtaining the support of the people. In this case, most of the Texans involved are Democrats.

FLB increases loan rate

The Federal Land Bank of Houston has announced that their billing rate on farm and ranch loans and rural residence loans has been increased from eight percent to eight and one-half percent, effective Dec. 1. This increase in billing rate affects 20,000 loans in the total amount of $1.2 billion.

In making this announcement, the Land Bank stated, "The rapid acceleration of the cost of money in the recent weeks, with the dramatic one percent increase in the discount rate to an all-time high of nine and one-half percent and an 11 percent prime rate is being charged by commercial banks, are the indications of the significant effect in the average cost of funds to finance the Land Bank's lending programs." Also, they mentioned that the eight and one-half percent rate is a very competitive rate in today's economic climate.

The Federal Land Bank of Houston makes long-term real estate loans on farm and ranch land and rural residences throughout Texas, and now has more than $1.4 billion in loans outstanding.

The local association makes and services loans in Lubbock, Lynn, Garza and part of Borden counties.

Christian Charity DIGNITY AND A LAMB

Maria Pilar does not have much in the way of this world's goods.

But she has a lamb and her solemn dignity.

Courtesy Maryknoll Missionaries

Maria Pilar lives in the high country of Bolivia where the average wage is less than $400 a year. Her family scrapes a bare existence from a small plot of tired earth and raises a few sheep for food, clothing and a bit of extra money.

Voluntary relief and development agencies like Catholic Relief Services recognize that the people they help in Bolivia are not just statistics. They are individuals like Maria Pilar.

The goal of Catholic Relief Services is to help people help themselves. The American agency believes that man should be the principal actor in his own development. By helping Bolivian farmers to raise better crops, to improve and preserve their flocks and herds, Catholic Relief Services is contributing a lot more than food to the nation's life. It helps preserve personal dignity.

By helping to build roads, community centers, cooperatives and pure water systems, Catholic Relief Services encourages people to do what they want to do and to do it themselves. Giving a person a chance to stand on his own two feet and the opportunity to improve his life and that of those around him is Catholic Relief Services' contribution to the dignity of man.

The fashionable part of the populace also appreciates pure cotton poplin coats in the new longer length. This double-breasted beauty designed by Casteljajac is an all-weather coat with a removable, quilted bib, a squared breastplate to wear over the coat when it's really cold. button collar for a sensationally sophisticated look.

Dior has designed this rainsuit of polished cotton—comfortable in all seasons. Chicly shiny, this suit shows its fashionably furry lining at cuffs and large lapels. The fuller pants are wider at the top and narrower at the bottom, the jacket is a little longer, and the boots both shorter and higher-heeled than in the recent past.

Comfortable, pure cotton poplin can be fitting fashion whatever the weather.

HOLY MEANING OF CHRISTMAS

The English word for Christmas comes from Cristes Maesse, which means "the Mass of Christ." Most nations derive their term for Christmas from the lengthy Latin name Festum Nativitatis Domini Nostri Jesu Christi (The Feast of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ) or the shorter form Dies Natalis Domini (The Birthday of Our Lord). In Spain Christmas is called La Navidad, in Portugal, Natal, and in Italy, Il Natale. Christmas is called Rozhdestvo Khrista in Russia, and the German word for Christmas, Weihnachten stands for Holy Night or Blessed Night, referring to the Nativity only by implication.

A Traditional Christmas Dinner Features Delicious Roast Goose

A savory, fat roast goose has long been the favorite choice for a traditional Christmas dinner. Filled with delectable fruit stuffing it becomes a sumptuous gourmet treat as well.

ROAST GOOSE WITH APPLE-PRUNE STUFFING

1 Goose—18-19 lbs.
Stuffing—recipe below
Salt and pepper to taste
 1 clove of garlic
 1 cup coarsely chopped celery
 1 cup coarsely chopped onions
 1/4 cup coarsely chopped carrots
 1 bay leaf
 1 cup water

Preheat oven to 400 degrees—goose will take approximately 3 hours to cook. Fill goose with stuffing, truss and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Place bird breast side up in shallow baking pan and bake 1 hour. Baste occasionally. Pour excess fat off and add the garlic, celery, onions, carrots and bay leaf all around the goose. Cook one hour more, basting frequently. If goose looks like it is getting too brown, cover with aluminum foil. Continue roasting for one last hour, then remove goose to warm platter. Drain fat from roasting pan, add the cup of water and stir, scraping brown bits from sides and bottom of pan. Strain to serve as gravy. Remove trussing, carve. Makes 10 generous servings.

APPLE-PRUNE STUFFING

1 goose liver, 1 heart and 1 gizzard
 3 Tablespoons butter
 1 clove of garlic chopped finely
 2 1/2 cups onions finely chopped
 2 cups finely chopped celery
 1 cup finely chopped parsley
 1 bay leaf
 1 Tablespoon chopped sage
 1/4 teaspoon chopped thyme
 1 cup dry white wine
 1-12 oz. box pitted prunes, chopped
 6 cups apples, peeled, pitted and sliced into thin wedges
 2 lightly beaten egg yolks
 2 cups coarse bread crumbs
 Salt and pepper to taste

Trim off outer coating of gizzard; remove veins from liver. Thoroughly blend pieces of heart, liver and gizzard in food processor or electric blender. Heat butter in large, heavy skillet, add onions and celery, cooking until glassy. Add liver mixture. Mix and add garlic, parsley, bay leaf, sage, thyme and wine. Cook about 5 minutes, stirring all the while. Add remaining ingredients and using hands, blend well. Cool, fill goose, then proceed with goose recipe.

Be inventive when planning the other dishes for your grand feast and make this a really memorable meal!

PLASTIC Facts And Fancies

If we didn't have plastics, about 40 million acres of agricultural land would be needed to grow enough cotton to replace the 20 billion pounds of synthetics now manufactured each year. And, only one percent of America's petroleum is converted into plastics used for thousands of products—including 70 percent of America's fibers.

Today's efficient washing machines and dryers cost only 75% of what they did 15 years ago. Why?

One reason is plastics—because so many heavy, expensive metal parts have been replaced by durable plastic ones. Prices has gone down... quite an achievement in these days of inflation. (One example is the washing machine agitator—some 95% of them are now made of polypropylene.)

Automobile manufacturers use so much plastic in so many places—for example, the now widely-used polypropylene battery—that to use other material would greatly increase an average automobile's weight, and consequently reduce its gas mileage.

GREAT MOMENTS IN SPORTS IN A NUTSHELL

Brief Stories Of Long-Remembered Triumphs

A great moment in sports occurred in the 1920s when Babe Ruth scored a home run by hitting a line drive through the pitcher's legs and over the center field fence.

A great moment in sports occurred in 1964 when Sixten Jernberg of Sweden won his eighth Nordic skiing title, a record number. Young skiers can enjoy Baby Ruth® and Butterfinger® snack bars and get some of the energy they need to ski.

A great moment in sports occurred in 1975 when Billie Jean King won her 19th Wimbledon tennis championship, tying the world's record for Wimbledon wins with 6 singles, 9 women's doubles and 4 mixed doubles.

Kids...Fun-To-Make Christmas Presents!

When you give a gift you make yourself it shows you really care. Surprise Mom and Dad, or a special friend, with a set of brightly colored coasters or a gay Christmas tree ornament! They're a snap to make and you'll probably find the supplies right around the house. If not, they cost very little to buy.

THINGS YOU NEED:
 Corrugated cardboard
 Christmas gift wrap or cards
 White glue
 Colored yarn if making decorations
 Paint brush
 Varnish and scissors

Cut a circle from the cardboard, about 3-3 1/2 inches in size. Trace around the rim of a wide glass or jar for this. You need 1 circle for each coaster or ornament. Cut same size circle from the gift wrap or colored greeting card and glue onto cardboard circle, pressing down from center to outer edges. When glue is dry apply 1 coat of varnish—let dry overnight. Apply a second coat of varnish and let dry again overnight. (Clean the varnish brush after you use it so it doesn't get hard). You now have a pretty waterproof coaster. A set of four makes a handsome gift!

If you want to make tree decorations, continue as follows: Glue colored yarn around edge of finished coaster. Cut a 5 inch piece of matching or other color yarn and glue onto back of coaster making a loop at the top. Now it's ready to hang on your tree or to give!

8th graders drop opener

By ALPHONSO REYNA
The eighth grade basketball team began their season last week when they played Cooper in the Post High School gym. They lost 26-25 in overtime.

Congratulations are in order this week to the varsity girls and boys for their play in the Plainview tourney last weekend.

The girls brought home third place honors and the boys, while placing seventh, had stiff competition and played real well. They improve with each game and I wish them both well in the Colorado City tourney this weekend.

The boys and Coach Tannehill also did an outstanding job in yelling for the girls while they were playing and vice versa. It WAS GREAT!!!

Still on the basketball scene, the Lubbock A-J gave a scoring tally of the girls defeat of Lubbock High in last Friday's paper. Post has two new girls on their teams, Bobb and Bagmann. Some are still trying to figure out who it is supposed to be.

I understand one of the boys got a real facial by some of the feminine players on the bus Friday. Mascara, lipstick, rouge, the works. I heard one coach remarked, "It was a great improvement." Just sorry we didn't get a picture for the annual, Rance.

Happy birthdays this month go out to Barry Morris, Jalena Bilberry, Kyle Duren, Luann Kennedy, Jeff Lamb and Toni Ammons. HB people.

Well, they sure don't make things like they used to. After purchasing a new Chinese Checker game last week, so all the marbles would match, they didn't anyway. We got too many black ones and not enough green ones. And Greg Pollard won the game. Win some, lose some.

While doing research for an item for the paper this week I came across some very interesting letters to Santa back in 1967. Just to refresh your memories, I am printing three of them this week and will continue to run some others until Christmas. Here goes:

Dear Santa: My name is Brent Mason. I am five years old and I am in need of two front teeth. Please bring me a new bicycle and some teeth so that I can eat the candy you leave in my stocking. I am looking forward to Christmas and I hope that everyone has a very happy Christmas this year. Love, Brent Mason.

Dear Santa Claus: I want a big burger grill, and I want an Incredible Edible set. And how are the reindeer? Is Rudolph going to be the leader? Love, Rodney Owen.

Dear Santa Claus: I am six years old and will start to school next year. I have been a good girl — just ask Mommy and Daddy. Please bring me a low-tired bicycle, a doll that cries and smiles and one that sticks her tongue out when you mash her stomach, a Suzy Home-maker oven and electric iron and ironing board, Incredible Edibles, Creepy Crawler set, washer and dryer, new records by the Monkees and I guess that is

FCA sponsors cage tourney

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes will sponsor its annual freshman basketball tournament here this weekend.

Eight teams are entered in the girls division with Lockney and Snyder beginning the tourney play at 12:30 p. m. today followed by Roosevelt and Petersburg at 3:30. Post will play Borden County at 6:30 and the two remaining teams, Wilson and Lorenzo seeing action Friday at 12:30.

Games are also scheduled for 3:30 and 6:30 on Friday and Saturdays action begins at 9 a. m. and continues through the championship game at 6:30.

The tourney also has a boys bracket.

all, I love you, Santa, Crista Dawn Didway.

The FCA Huddle is sponsoring a freshman basketball tournament beginning Thursday in the Post High gym. There will be lots of good games to watch, so let's all go out and support this effort.

Jarita loves job with flowers here

Jarita Norman is employed at the Prairie Flower Shop and works as an assistant florist. She works from two in the afternoon until closing time.

During the summer, Jarita went to Denver, Colorado, to a Florist School to train for her job. When asked if she liked her job she said that she loved it. "It gives me a chance to meet people and work with flowers. I like my bosses, too."

Jarita plans to be an x-ray technician.

She isn't sure where she is going to attend college but would like to go to medical school. She says the HECE program is a good program and everyone should be in it.

Symbols Adorn Greeting Cards

Christmas card artists have a wealth of symbols from which to draw when preparing illustrations. Holly is symbolic of chastity. Flying birds symbolize spiritual life and a peacock stands for eternal life. Lambs call attention to the sacrifice on the cross; beasts of burden often stand for humility. And a white rose with the little shepherd girl whose tears were turned to roses by an angel. The dove had burst into tears at the manger because she had no Christmas lights symbolizing the Glory of God and holy men. The drops of blood coming from Christ's crown of thorns.

Grandma's Remedy Still Good for Colds

Colds and other upper respiratory tract illnesses probably cause more discomfort and time lost from work or school than any other American health problem.

A cold is caused by one or more of many viruses, the American Medical Association reminds. Actually, grandma's remedy is still good. If you get a cold, stay home in bed. Keep warm. Gargle with warm salt water to ease a sore throat. Take a mild pain reliever for the discomfort.

None of this will cure the cold, but it will make you feel somewhat more comfortable while your body's natural defense mechanisms are building up enough steam to overcome the virus.

In some circles in recent years, massive doses of Vitamin C have been advanced as therapy or preventive for the cold. Physicians everywhere hoped it would work, but scientific studies thus far have failed to prove the usefulness of Vitamin C for colds.

Most of us have a cold or two during the course of the winter. Usually we try to keep going to the office, but sometimes we feel too bad to work, and spend a day or two at home.

There are medications now available — antihistamines, pain relievers, cough suppressants, and fever reducers — that can make the symptoms of a cold much less severe. These have their limitations and their problems. Antihistamines can cause drowsiness, which can be highly dangerous when driving an auto. If you get a cold, ask your doctor about the medications that reduce runny nose and sneezing and coughing.

As youngsters heard the old folks say: Treat a cold and cure it in two weeks; let it alone and it will go away in a fortnight. The time element isn't that exact, but the theory is the same.

Harvest now in full swing

The High Plains cotton harvest resumed when skies cleared last Friday, according to Paul R. Dickson, Area Director at USDA's Marketing Services in Lubbock.

High Plains Marketing Services Offices graded 45,000 samples last week, bringing the season's total to 228,000. This compares to 1,813,000 graded by Dec. 1 last year, Dickson said.

Predominant High Plains grades this week were grade 41 at 15 percent, grade 51 accounted for 20 percent, grade 42 amounted to 37 percent and grade 52 was 20 percent. Twenty-three percent were reduced one grade because of bark, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service. Five percent was reduced because of grass.

Staple lengths were mostly staple 31 at 26 percent, staple 32 was 38 percent and staple 33 accounted for 19 percent.

Micronaire was mostly in the desirable 3.5 — 4.9 range at 80 percent of the total. Twenty percent was lower.

Cotton prices were steady to firm the week ending Nov. 30.

LUBBOCK — The Producer Steering Committee (PSC) of the National Cotton Council (NCC) has adopted a cotton set-aside and diversion recommendation similar, but not identical, to that adopted earlier by the Board of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

The Committee, meeting in Dallas, Nov. 28 and 29, voted unanimously to ask the Department of Agriculture for a 10 percent cotton set-aside and a minimum 10 percent paid voluntary diversion program. The PCG request, sent last month to USDA, Congressmen and Senators, is for a 10 percent set-aside and 15 percent voluntary paid diversion, with payments "at a rate sufficient to attract producer participation."

Representing the High Plains organization at the Dallas meeting were W.B. Criswell, PCG Board Chairman, and PCG Executive vice president, Donald Johnson.

The Secretary of Agriculture is required to announce certain program provisions, including whether there will be a cotton set-aside, by Dec. 15.

Criswell and Johnson came out of the PSC meeting encouraged that the producer arm of NCC endorsed essentially the same program sought by PCG. "This is definitely a positive step," Johnson said. "But unfortunately, we are also seeing some negative signs."

For example, Howard Hjort, USDA's Director of Economics and Policy, spoke to the group in Dallas and his remarks gave little cause for encouragement. He left the impression that first, USDA is not inclined to propose a set-aside or diversion program, and second that such a program, if recommended, would not be acceptable to the White House and the Office of Management and Budget.

In response to a direct question from Johnson, Hjort said when one compares this Fall's conditions with conditions last fall, one has to come to the conclusion that the White House and the "interagency group" would turn thumbs down on a set-aside proposal this year just as they did in 1977.

Hjort was referring to the fact that when the set-aside decision was made in 1977 there was a prospective cotton carryover of 5.5 million bales, compared to a projected carryover in the range of 4.2 million bales at the end of the current marketing year.

Hjort also indicated that the Department is still working on its analysis of the situation, that USDA's recommendation to the White House would not be ready before late in the week of Dec. 6, and that an announcement should therefore not be expected until near the Dec. 15 deadline.

In spite of the negatives involved, Johnson states, "we have a strong case for a program that will reduce cotton plantings in 1979, we will continue to argue that case at all levels of government, and because we are right and the opposition is wrong, I think we still have a chance to achieve our objective."

Legends Surround Custom Of Trimming The Christmas Tree

From the top: Glass tree ornament, probably an early image of Santa, c. 1900. "Silver" color glass duck ornament, c. 1900-1910. Dog's face on three sided glass ornament, c. 1900. Photographs courtesy of The Oakland Museum History Dep't.

The Christmas tree and the ornaments we hang on it are German in origin and legend dates them back many centuries. St. Boniface, an English missionary who Christianized the German Druids in the 7th century, supposedly toppled a holy oak of the pagans with a single blow on Christmas night. Behind the oak was a small evergreen, which the missionary explained was a holy tree, and a symbol of endless life. St. Boniface decreed that the fir was to be recognized as the tree of the Christ child.

Another legend tells that Martin Luther improvised a Christmas tree in an effort to explain to his wife and children, the impression the night sky made on him. He placed lighted candles on the branches of a fir and saw myriad stars in them!

German settlers brought the Christmas tree custom to America where it became popular in the early 1800's. The custom was so unique that for some years churches and private businesses often set up decorated trees and charged admission to view them.

Craftsmen in the Thuringian Mountains in Germany started production of delicate glass ornaments to decorate their evergreens in the mid-1870's.

By the turn of the century, the Yule tree moved from the church auditorium into the home and tree trimming became a family tradition. Electric lights and tinsel replaced candles, but many traditional trims, like popcorn and cranberry garlands, still grace fragrant trees.

Today our tree trims are as varied and personal as our people. Corn husk dolls and ornaments have been "rediscovered", and quilted, patchwork stars, animals and figures are gay and popular. Trees are hung with frosted pine cones, yarn figures, miniature toys and glazed cookie dough ornaments. In this land of endless creative talents there's no end to the imaginative directions tree trimming takes.

The wonder of Christmas is enhanced by this lovely custom and we share the special beauty it brings to a bewitching, festive season.

Household Hints

Love to cook, hate to clean up? A little salt in your frying pan helps keep oil from splattering. When whipping cream, slip the beater stems through wax paper before fastening in place. The paper will cover the bowl, to prevent long-distance splashes.

Kitchen need brightening? Glue decorative tiles around sink and stove. They're pretty to look at and easy to clean—especially with your heavy-duty cleaner. Used full-strength on a sponge, it makes grease spots disappear!

THEN and NOW Texas drive launched to slow car thieves

THEN: IN 1978, THOMAS A. EDISON INVENTED THE FIRST PRACTICAL INCANDESCENT LIGHT, WHICH WAS EVENTUALLY USED TO LIGHT THE STREETS AND HIGHWAYS OF AMERICA!

Right now in Texas, there is one motor vehicle theft every 10 1/2 minutes. And that's too high a rate, according to several organizations which have joined to boost a statewide campaign to stop auto thieves.

Recently in Austin, Col. Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS), unveiled the program. It will depend in great part on the support of local law enforcers, the general public, media, and business owners. The campaign kickoff was designed to coincide with the heavy shopping season between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

"We will ask citizens to place their purchases in the trunk to keep them from view of thieves," Col. Speir said. This general message will be followed by additional more detailed instructions and training.

In addition to moving attractive or enticing packages from view, the public awareness campaign will ask vehicle owners to remove the key from the ignition and lock the car when unattended.

A rooster crowing "lock-a-doodle-do" is being used as the campaign symbol.

It's estimated by the National Auto Theft Bureau and others that about 80 percent of all cars stolen are

Ultimately, the anti-theft campaign will involve police, auto dealers, parking lot attendants, service station operators, apartment managers, locksmiths, insurance agents, schools, heavy equipment owners, fleet operators, rental agencies, and the general public.

According to DPS figures, there were 50,896 motor vehicles stolen in Texas last year — a 13 percent jump over 1976, with current trends indicating it will climb still higher, perhaps to 60,000 in 1978. The net economic loss to Texans is calculated to be approximately $75 million.

Other sponsors are the Southwest Division of the National Automobile Theft

Bureau and the Texas Crime Prevention Institute.

Funding is being provided by the Governor's Criminal Justice Division which has a federal grant, and by voluntary contributions from individual automobile insurance companies doing business in Texas.

Does win pair, finish third at Plainview meet

Post girls in wins over Lubbock, Pampa

Coch John Morrow's Post High Does won third place Saturday in the girls' division of the Plainview Invitational cage meet at Plainview with a one point 45 to 44 win over Pampa.

The local girls defeated Lubbock High 57 to 49 Thursday in the first round, but were thumped 57 to 37 by host Plainview in the semi-finals.

The Does jumped into a 12-3 first period lead over Pampa and stayed in front at each of the quarter poles, although being outscored in each of the final three periods.

It was 23 to 20 at the half for Post and 32 to 30 at the end of the third.

Lisa Cowdrey and Dana Bird led the Post attack with 11 points each and 16 and 9 rebounds respectively.

Kerri Pool scored seven points. Donna Baumann, five. Marinette Hays, four. Luanna Kennedy, three, and Karla Morris and Leanna Davis, two each.

The Does also led throughout their tourney opening victory over Lubbock High Thursday, 20-17 at the quarter, 41-31 at the end of three.

Kennedy led the Post scoring in this one bucketing six fielders for twelve points, closely followed by Cowdrey with four fielders and two frees for 10.

Bird added 9 points, Baumann 8, Morris 6, Pool 6, Hays 4, and Babb 2.

Despite the victory, it wasn't all that good a shooting night for the Does who hit only 24 out of 72 shots from the field for a 33 percent accuracy and 9 of 22 from the charity line for 41 percent.

The Does captured 37 rebounds, with Cowdrey leading the way with nine.

Led by G. Hemphill, who scored 29 points, the Plainview girls jumped out in front 14 to 7 in the first period of their semi-final with Post and were never headed.

Plainview led 29 to 12 at the half and 39 to 28 going into the final period after the Does finally got rolling in the third to outshoot Plainview 16 to 10.

But Plainview turned on the scoring nozzle again in the fourth and pulled away to a comfortable victory. Morris was high in this one with 13 points with Baumann also in double figures with 10. Bird and Kennedy had 5 each and Pool and Davis each had a basket.

Cowdrey fouled out of the game without scoring a point or grabbing a rebound.

Post managed only 16 rebounds in this loss with Morris leading with six.

The Kermit Yellowjackets, combining a stingy defense and the timely running of Alfred McGilbra, defeated Slaton's Tigers 21 to 7 at Midland Friday night to advance into the third round of the post-season grid playoffs.

Kermit will face Childress at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in Lubbock's Lowery Field in the quarterfinal round.

Kermit jumped into a 14-0 halftime lead with two early touchdown drives.

The Tigers bounced back to drive from the second half kickoff for their score.

Early in the fourth when the Tigers at midfield failed to make a first on fourth down, Kermit drove the ball on in for the insurance touchdown.

McGilbra scored two of the three Kermit touchdowns and ran for 113 yards on 18 carries.

The Post Does edged Crosbyton Tuesday night by coming out strong in the second half to overcome the hosts' 23 to 17 lead.

Post had a 21 point third period to regain the lead at 38-37 going into the final period. The two teams battled evenly through the final minutes.

The Does didn't make a field goal in the second period after taking a 11-7 first quarter advantage.

Kerri Pool and Dana Bird tied for high point honors for the locals with 11 each.

QUALITIES In Sound Little Known Facts

Trust your ears. Don't be afraid to readjust your tone controls when listening to your FM radio. This is sometimes necessary in order to compensate for the different records being played on the station you've dialed.

Music to the ears of smart shoppers is a quality store that gives reliable service. At Radio Shack, for example, you can rely on their network of repair centers all over America. The time required for your stereo equipment's repair will represent only a very brief intermission.

Before choosing your equipment, it's a good idea to discuss your feeling with friends who have similar life styles and musical tastes and who have already bought their own equipment. After all, the best place to listen to audio equipment is in a home similar to where you'll be listening to your own equipment.

Slaton wins three over Post boys too

The seventh, eighth and ninth boys ran into the same tough Slaton cage teams as the girls Monday night at Slaton. The host teams won all three games from the Post visitors.

R.J. Greathouse led the seventh team in scoring with 11 points in their losing effort 37 to 20. Others scoring for Post were Melton Williams with five, Lynn Allen and L.D. Harper each had two.

Coach Giddens eighth graders fell behind in the fourth period when they could only hit for three points and lost to Slaton 44-28.

Scoring for Post were Tim Tannehill with eight, Will Kirkpatrick seven, Wade Giddens and Bill Black each had four, Richard Cisneros, and Irvin Price each with two and Chris Belongia had one.

The freshman boys lost to Slaton 57-29 with Slaton jumping to an early lead, 15 to 7 in the first period.

Scoring for Post were Odell Curtis with two, Ronnie Price, 11, Gary Lamb 8, Dana Scott and Brad Greer each had four.

The three teams will play a triple bill here next Monday night against Frenship.

Slaton sweeps three girls games here

The visiting Slaton Cubs made a clean sweep of a triple bill here Monday night over the local seventh, eighth and freshmen girls.

The seventh grade girls lost to Slaton 38 to 23, failing to score in the first period with Slaton scoring seven. Post could only manage two free throws in the second period with Slaton leading 13 to 2 at the half.

Post did outscore Slaton in the second half 21 to 18.

Scoring for Post were Doris Pringler 15, Missy Morrow, four, Kim Carlisle, two, and Michelle Hill and Jenny Mock each had one.

The eighth grade girls could only manage 23 points in their loss to Slaton 36 to

Norma Samora led the eighth graders with eight points, Daria Jackson had six, Verdy Taylor, four, Crystal Mason and Tina Greene each had two, and Charicie Dalby had one.

Lopes finish 7th in first tourney

Coach Jerry Reynolds' Post Antelopes picked up their first victory of the young basketball season Saturday in Plainview when they defeated the Plainview JVs, 66 to 53, to win seventh place in the Plainview Invitational High School Basketball Tournament.

In their first two tourney starts, the Lopes were hammered by Lubbock Christian High 87 to 54 in the first round Thursday, and lost to Denver City Friday 51 to 44 in the consolation semi-finals.

All in all, the inexperienced Lopes picked up a lot of experience in the three days of action.

On Thursday, Lubbock Christian jumped away out in front, 28 to 11 in the first quarter and never came close to trailing thereafter.

While Lubbock had five players in double figures, the Lopes had only one, Dale Redman, who scored 11 points before being one of the three Post players to foul out.

Ten players of the 12 on the squad hit the scoring column for Post.

Besides Redman these included Bryan Compton and Mike Dye, 8 each; Barry Tyler and Mike Macy 6 each, Clinton Curtis 5, Leslie Looney 4, and Cliff Kirkpatrick, Dick Kirkpatrick, and Jimmy Pruitt 2 apiece.

In the Friday game against Denver City, the Lopes led narrowly through the first half, but lost out in the third period when the Mustangs outscored them 20 to 2 to assume a 46 to 29 advantage.

Post led 12-9 at the quarter and 27-26 at the half, before coming out cold in the third.

Again, the Lopes had 10 players in the scoring column with only one — Dye with 11 — in double figures.

Other points were scored as follows: Compton 8, Macy

6, Tyler 5, Curtis 4, Redman, C. Kirkpatrick, Looney and Pruitt 2 each, and Shawn Scott 1.

All 12 Antelopes participated in scoring the tournament win over the Plainview JVs Saturday.

Compton led with 19, followed by Looney with 10, Macy 8, C. Kirkpatrick 5, Scott, Dye, Jackie Stelzer 4 each, and Tyler, Redman, Curtis, and D. Kirkpatrick 2 each.

Post outscored Plainview in every period, leading all the way, 13-10 at the quarter, 30-23 at intermission, and 46-34 going into the fourth.

Lopes, JVs score wins

The Post Antelopes came up with a 23-point second quarter at Crosbyton Tuesday night to take the lead over the Chiefs and go on to a 63 to 59 victory. The JV boys made it two straight for their season with a 47 to 43 triumph.

Crosbyton jumped into a 17-12 first period lead in the varsity game, and once the Lopes went in front battled the locals evenly through the second half.

Ten Post players figured in the scoring with Bryan Compton leading with 10. Others included Mike Macy and Leslie Looney with 8 each, Cliff Kirkpatrick with 7; Dale Redman, Clinton Curtis, Mike Dye and Barry Tyler with 6 each, Shawn Scott 4, and Dick Kirkpatrick 2.

Jessie Taylor with 11 led the Post JV shooters as they too took command of their game with an 18-point second quarter. Rance Adkins had 8, Alvin Taylor and Kevin Craig 6 each, David Foster and Barry Wyatt 5 each, and Leslie Willard and Chuck Black 2 apiece.

Healthy Breakfast Hints

To satisfy your child's need for variety, dress up the cereal with an assortment of tasty goodies. Raisins, chopped dates or apricots, apples, nuts, sugar, spices or even chocolate chips all taste terrific. With a little milk and some Vitamin C-rich juice, you've served a wholesome meal.

WESTWARD DOUGH!

OR
how DO you COVER A Wagon?

The wild, wild West. Land of hope and opportunity to thousands of courageous settlers. But, if it weren't for the dollars of thousands more Americans taking stock in their country, there might never have been a West to go west to.

You see, money raised from the sale of government securities helped us purchase the Louisiana Territory from the French. Other securities helped buy the states of California, Nevada, Utah, western Colorado and most of New Mexico and Arizona from Mexico. Even settlement of the Oregon Territory was made possible through the issuance of United States securities.

Today, you can still take stock in your country's growth by buying U. S. Savings Bonds.

Just sign up for the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. There's no easier, safer way to save or help your country. After all, U. S. Savings Bonds are still a great way for you to go West. Or East, North and South.

New U. S. Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4 1/2% the first year). Last minute or deferred Bonds can be replaced if needed. When needed, Bonds can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deducted at maturity.

Almond, Chocolate Elegance

Inspired by the renowned Vienna tortes, this enticing dessert combines almonds and chocolate for exciting eating. Moist and tender, the chocolate cake layers are baked in pans coated with crisp almond slices, and then filled and topped with a luscious, coffee-flavored whipped cream. The result is deliciously irresistible.

- |                                   |   |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| 1/2 cup soft butter               | 1/2 cup wheat germ, toasted             |
| 1 1/3 cups sliced natural almonds | 1 1/2 cups milk                         |
| 2 squares unsweetened chocolate   | 1 teaspoon almond extract               |
| 1 3/4 cups sifted flour           | 2 eggs                                  |
| 2 cups sugar                      | 1 1/2 teaspoons instant coffee granules |
| 2 teaspoons baking powder         | 1 1/2 cups whipping cream               |
| 1 teaspoon salt                   | 3 tablespoons sugar                     |
| 1/4 teaspoon baking soda          |   |

Butter two 9-inch round layer cake pans, using 1 tablespoon butter for each. Sprinkle bottoms and sides of pans with 1 cup almonds. Chop remaining almonds and set aside. Melt chocolate over hot water; cool. Sift flour again with sugar, baking powder, salt and soda into a large mixing bowl; stir in wheat germ. Add remaining butter, milk and almond extract. Blend until moistened, then beat at medium speed for 2 minutes. Add eggs and cooled chocolate; beat 2 minutes longer; stir in the 1/3 cup chopped almonds. Turn into prepared pans.

Bake in a 350-degree oven for 35 to 40 minutes, just until layers test done. Let stand in pans 10 minutes, then cool thoroughly. In deep bowl, crush coffee granules. Add cream and 3 tablespoons sugar; beat stiff. Place 1 cake layer, almond side up, on serving plate; spread with 2/3 of the cream. Top with second layer, almond side down. Top with remaining whipped cream and additional almond slices.

PROPER CARE PREVENTS ACCIDENTS

Proper care and attention could reduce by thousands the number of household accidents that injure children each year.

According to the American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP), a professional association made up of over 10,000 emergency physicians, more than 800,000 children are injured in the home each year. Poisoning is the most common medical emergency among young children.

Child-resistant packaging and national educational efforts have helped greatly to reduce serious poisonings; however, complete safety cannot be legislated. It is ultimately the parents' responsibility to assure that no child is left alone when a hazardous product is in use. In fact, studies show that many household product poisonings occur in this way. According to ACEP, more attention must be given to the serious accidents that may occur when a child is left unattended, even for very short periods of time.

Emergency physicians suggest a number of preventive steps to reduce the possibility of accidents when using products potentially dangerous to small children:

— Products packed in safety containers should not be transferred to other containers. This is particularly true for medicines, drugs and household chemicals.

— Store all dangerous products with securely closed tops in a place well out of the reach of children, preferably in a locked closet. Be certain the same precaution is taken in garages and basements where care is often forgotten. Be sure to use storage areas that are separate and remote from food and medications.

— Take care in discarding hazardous substances. Flush old drugs down the toilet.

— Labels of hazardous products should be left intact, and instructions read thoroughly before each use.

— Keep first aid guide on hand. Keep the number of your poison control center and your nearest hospital emergency department next to the telephone, and call for information before rushing a child to the hospital.

— And, most important, never leave a child unattended with any danger-

PLATE COLLECTORS GATHER AT FAIRS

What do Muhammad Ali, Natalie Wood and Helen Hayes have in common with about 2.2 million other Americans? They are all limited edition plate collectors who buy, sell and cherish the most widely traded form of art in the world.

Two major events will unite plate collectors from east to west this fall. The World Plate Collectors' Fair in New York City late in September turns the Statler-Hilton into one expansive display of plate art. In October, plate collectors' attention focuses on the West Coast and the Limited Edition Artists' Fair in the Seattle Center, Seattle, Washington.

At both events, collectors will gather to view new plate editions, meet artists who have translated their talents to this medium "in the round," and learn more about plate collecting as an investment—what to look for and how to buy.

Limited edition plates are collected, traded and treasured for both artistic merits and potential appreciation. Currently there are almost 1,000 major limited edition collector's plate series, with most issue prices ranging from about $20 to slightly over $200.

Themes portrayed by collector's plates range from classic's such as Michelangelo and Renoir reproductions to the famous Charles Schultz comic figure, Snoopy. One of the most versatile artistic mediums, the plates are created in a number of materials including ivory alabaster, copper, wood, and most delicate, fine bone chinaware and porcelains.

It all started in Denmark with the very first collector's plate ever produced, "Behind the Frozen Window," issued by Bing & Grondahl at Christmastime in 1895. Available for about 50¢ 83 years ago, it is valued today at over $3,000.

Although most collector's plates do not appreciate quite so dramatically, many increase in value from year to year, depending upon the supply and demand factor.

Plate collectors come in all sizes, ages and sexes. Whether they are doctors, accountants, homemakers, millionaires or nine-to-five wage-earners—and whether they collect for pride of ownership, artistic merit or investment purposes—they share the excitement of the world's most traded art.

Current or prospective plate collectors who cannot attend the fairs in New York or Seattle, can arrange for a "private showing" of these original artworks in their home—by browsing through the 1978 BRADFORD BOOK OF COLLECTOR'S PLATES. Every major collector's plate being traded in the market is represented in full-color in this miniature gallery of plate art.

Glorious Natural Beauty of Poinsettia Plants Creates Exotic and Colorful Yuletide Displays

The great celebration of Christmas inspires the most extravagant decorations, among them brilliant and beautiful poinsettia displays. These large exotic flowers, used to decorate homes and churches in Mexico at Christmas, were introduced to the United States by Joel Roberts Poinsett, our first Ambassador to Mexico. He brought the plants home to his greenhouses in South Carolina, more than 100 years ago.

Joel Poinsett propagated these vivid plants which he called "Painted Leaves," and sent cuttings to botanists and nurserymen all over the country. Although they were later named "Poinsettia" in his honor, his original name more accurately describes them with their flaming red petals surrounding small red, yellow and green flowers.

In their wild state in tropical Mexico and Central America, poinsettias are tall rangy shrubs growing thirty feet tall and blooming irregularly. Horticulturists have, over the years, developed shorter bushy plants that bloom profusely in time for the holiday season. Cuttings for thousands of florists all over the world have come from commercial greenhouse growers in the United States, making poinsettias a true international Christmas symbol.

Glorious poinsettia displays are part of the holiday season. Elaborate exhibits are presented at the Planting Fields Arboretum in Oyster Bay, and the Brooklyn Botanic Garden, Brooklyn, both in New York. Some two thousand poinsettia blossoms are featured in the greenhouse at the Planting Fields Arboretum. Dramatic new red varieties are set off by additional plants in white, pink, pink with white stripes and a dazzling newcomer "Jingle Bells", which is pink with red flecks. Some are grown as tall tree-like plants with a full circle of blooms atop a four foot stem. Others are trained with graceful branches that hang handsomely from baskets. A free standing Christmas "tree" formed by over one thousand poinsettia plants, in assorted colors, stars at the Brooklyn Botanic Garden. Many of the varieties in the show have never been seen by the public before. Almost three thousand flowers in reds, pinks and white brighten the winter scene. The annual display is open to the public through the end of January. Visitors from many places throng to these festive exhibits adding to the natural wonder of their holiday celebration!

PROTECTING YOUR HEART

Casserole Cooking—Make Two, Freeze One

Today's smart shopper knows how important a freezer can be in getting the most for your food dollar. It allows you to buy meat and other items on special, helps you preserve produce from your own garden and aids in avoiding leftovers by packaging foods to fit your family's needs.

The freezer can also be a big timesaver. Instead of cooking one meal at a time, cook two and put one in your freezer. Most casseroles freeze very well if they are wrapped properly. Also, preparing less expensive casseroles (as opposed to quick, but more expensive entrees) at your leisure lets you save money in the long run.

When freezing casseroles, line the pan with aluminum foil, fill with food and wrap well. Freeze until solid, then remove from the pan. Freeze prepared food as soon as possible and store at a temperature of 0°F. or lower. Be sure to label and date all packages in your freezer to facilitate later use. Casseroles can be stored in the freezer for up to 3 months.

Our Tuna Lasagne is a unique variation of an old favorite that's perfect for freezing. Packed with nutritious foods (tuna, cheese, milk, spinach) this wholesome and delicious dish will soon be a household favorite. As an added bonus Tuna Lasagne is low in cholesterol and saturated fat since it is prepared with Fleischmann's Corn Oil Margarine, skim milk and low fat cheeses. And isn't it nice knowing you have another delicious casserole waiting for you in the freezer!

TUNA LASAGNE

- 6 tablespoons Fleischmann's Corn Oil Margarine
- 1 cup chopped onion
- 8 ounces shredded partially skimmed Mozzarella cheese
- 1 container (12-ounce) pot cheese
- 2 packages (9-ounces each) frozen chopped spinach, cooked and drained
- 2 cans (7-ounces each) tuna, drained and flaked
- 1/4 cup unsifted flour
- 1-1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/8 teaspoon white pepper
- 3 cups skim milk
- 2 jars (15-1/2 ounces each) Marinara Sauce
- 1 pound lasagne noodles, cooked and drained

(Continued From Page One) had been collected to date, leaving the city about $9,000 short for paying off the remainder on the entire project costs.

Harvey Morton, attorney for the city, advised that 30 days after acceptance of the project by the city, the property owners who are behind in their cash obligations on the project should legally be charged seven percent interest on such unpaid commitments.

He was asked by the council to draft a letter to each of such property owners explaining the upcoming interest charge, as otherwise general taxpayers would have to pay interest on such private obligations.

Maddox also was instructed to push hard for collection of the $9,000 and the subject was put on the council's January agenda for further action. Mayor Giles McCrary pointed out a public hearing would have to be held to amend the city budget and new warrants issued and sold for the then unpaid curbing charges.

Mayor McCrary told the council both the community center board and the youth board want their respective responsibilities defined in operation of the center and its new teen room.

He pointed out the county is paying maintenance costs on the center and unless responsibility is defined the county might incur additional expenses.

The council agreed that the community center board should have prime responsibility for overall center operation, including the teen room, and Councilman Bill Pool was asked to write a letter to the county setting forth the city's position in the matter.

Max Chaffin has requested the council to check over the city-county airport's condition and take action to prevent it from its future being endangered due to lack of maintenance as is Floydada's airport.

The city has purchased several loads of materials for maintenance of the paved runways, but Maddox reported the paving contractor on the recent city paving project couldn't find time to apply it to the runways.

The council agreed that the airport board should be invited to meet with the council at its January meeting to discuss airport problems.

Mayor McCrary reported that the airport was not cited in its most recent inspection by the state for any runway deficiencies other than letting weeds grow up around landing lights.

In another action, the council approved the annual fire department bill totaling $10,784, which is the amount to be paid members of the fire department for fighting fires during the last 12 months at the rate of $2.50 an hour.

The council authorized City Manager Pete Maddox to buy 14 more dumpsters for the trash collection routes, also authorized him to purchase a wooden door for the Chamber of Commerce office, and approved the city paying half the EMT secretary's salary until new federal CETA funds can be obtained for the position.

"One of the main problems in getting young doctors to stay in rural areas and practice are the doctors' wives. They have lived in big cities during med school and generally prefer the cities to Muleshoe or Spur," he said.

Harris said the med school building in Lubbock has project costs for building and equipment of $32,987,283 and includes 811,000 square feet of space, which means approximately 18 acres under roof. The school has a staff of 193 fulltime faculty members, 144 of them located in Lubbock. The school also has campuses at El Paso and Amarillo and will add one soon in the Permian Basin at Odessa.

Simple Supper Fare

In today's busy world, even the most organized of homemakers sometimes find themselves faced with a hungry family and no quick meal ideas. "But keep a few basic foods handy on your kitchen shelf," say the home economists from the Kraft Kitchens, "and you'll solve this dinner dilemma once and for all."

For instance, you can turn a package of macaroni and cheese dinner, a can of tomatoes and a can of tuna into a hearty entree on a moments notice. Best of all, you'll please the whole family - kids and dad alike - with Tunamato Dinner. And for those who are limiting meat in their menus, this recipe fills still another bill.

The secret of this thrifty, main dish is that it requires no baking. Just prepare the packaged dinner and stir in the other ingredients. So supper's ready in about 20 minutes... from shelf to serv.

Team Tunamato Dinner with a simple salad, crusty bread, milk and fruit and cookies for dessert and you'll have an expensive nourishing supper that's quick, easy, and delicious.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Governor-elect Bill Clements proposes to recommend an effective $2 billion worth of tax relief during his first two years in office.

Clements, planning transition and inaugural activities, announced his legislative program will assign high priority to a new $1 billion tax reduction package.

But he emphasized that is in addition to the approximate $1 billion worth of benefits to taxpayers—home and agricultural land owners, primarily—proposed in the tax relief constitutional amendment. The amendment, submitted by the legislature last August, was approved by voters November 7.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe, while cautioning that budget recommendations are still being developed, said he agrees with Clements that a significant tax reduction, in the range of $2 billion, will be possible next year.

"In my opinion, there will be adequate funds for additional tax reduction," Briscoe said at a news conference. "I hope we have a cut in the range of $1 billion—in addition to that called for by the tax relief amendment."

Clements indicated strongly he is leaning toward recommending that one cent of the sales tax ($500 million a year) be applied toward forced reduction of school property taxes.

Another possibility, he conceded, is a flat reduction of one cent in the sales tax. The governor-elect also favors elimination of the state's 10 cent property tax for college building.

Law Proposed

Attorney General John Hill contends Texas should have a fair campaign practices law.

If one had been in effect, Hill said, late-hour campaign tactics by supporters of Clements in their gubernatorial race would have overstepped it.

The attorney general protested distribution of campaign pamphlets implying Clements was "superior as a candidate on the basis of religious faith."

Clements has denied any part in distributing the pamphlet.

Hill also criticized Clements' proposals for a major tax reduction. He said the recommendation is excessive.

The attorney general said he intends to remain as titular head of the Texas Democratic party for the rest of the year when he leaves office.

Coal to Increase

Texas coal production will quadruple by the year 2,000, while oil and gas output is cut almost in half, according to U.S. Commerce Department projections.

The Commerce survey indicates Texans will use a little less oil, about as much natural gas and 10 times as much coal.

Gas production by 1985, according to the study, may drop from seven trillion cubic feet to slightly more than six trillion. Oil production is expected to drop from four million barrels a day in 1976 to 3.3 million in 1985 and finally to two million by 2,000.

The forecast projects completion of coal slurry pipelines from Colorado and Montana to the Houston area in another two decades.

Courts Speak

In reversing a minor theft conviction, Texas Court of Criminal Appeals held persons who do not speak English are entitled to interpreters during trial even if they fail to ask.

The same court reversed a Lubbock robbery conviction due to introduction of evidence acquired in an illegal search warrant.

It further reversed a life sentence assessed a LaPorte man in a forgery case and, threw out McKinney drug case convictions due to faulty instructions by the trial judge.

Texas Supreme Court reversed a $7,500 insurance judgment in a case where a pilot who crashed his plane held medical and flying certificates issued after he made false representations concerning a heart condition. The finding upheld the trial court, which had been overruled in part by the Eastland Court of Civil Appeals.

Fourth Court of Civil Appeals reversed a $3 million damage award against Southwestern Bell to a former company executive and the family of a deceased top official.
