Community 'convulsion' on drugs No. 1 story

New senior center next

Formation of the Citizens Task Force to combat teenage drug use here was Post's No. 1 news story for 1978, with the death of two Post Motorcycle Enduro riders via heat exhaustion ranked close behind as runner-up.

Ranked as the No. 3 news story of the year was the completion of the new Algeria Senior Citizens Center by David Newby. No. 4 was the taking over of operation of the city-county ambulance service by local volunteers who first completed an Emergency Medical Technicians course.

The Citizens Task Force was formed as the climax of the largest public meeting ever held in Post's 71-year history in February and culminated in a confrontation with the school trustees over "discipline problems" and then a record field of 11 candidates in the spring school board race for three numbered positions.

The death of two enduro riders during a sizzling April heat wave brought to an end the ranch lease enduro site, a split in the sponsoring Lubbock motorcycle club, and the probable end of the national enduro here.

The new Algeria Senior Citizens Center was built through the dedicated volunteer efforts of Newby who donated several months work to the project. By year's end, the final loans for the project have been paid off.

The city-county ambulance service has had operational problems from its conception when local funeral homes ended ambulance service here due to zooming costs and continuing losses.

That is until an EMT class was formed of volunteers. After being trained in citizen medical care in several hard weeks of study, the class took over the operation of the ambulance service thus providing the community with a valuable service.

First baby contest offering 13 prizes

Garza Memorial Hospital, the First National Bank and 11 Post merchants are offering a total of at least $300 worth of gifts for the winner of The Post Dispatch's first 1979 baby contest.

The hospital is offering free room and board to both mother and child for the duration of their hospital stay. For a normal three-day stay this would amount to $150. If they stay longer, it might total a whole lot more.

Contest rules are simple. The winner of the First baby of 1979 Contest will be the first baby born after the stroke of midnight, New Year's Day, in Garza Memorial Hospital to either married parents or divorced mother who is being regularly attended by a hospital staff physician.

The other prizes include: Opening of a savings account in Little 1979's name with a $50 deposit by the First National Bank; a baby bed play gym, an $8.95 value from Lott's White Auto; a beautiful floral arrangement for mother and baby from Maurine's Flower Shop; a dozen baby care pre-folded

Gibson's Discount Center; an infant carrier, an $8.99 value from Wacker's;

A baby blanket from Twins Fashions; baby's first prescription from Bob Collier Drug; a potty chair, a $10 value from Western Auto; a $10 gift certificate from Terry's Togs; an assortment of needed baby products from The Prescription Shop; a night light, a $7.50 value from Hudman Furniture Co.; and a case of baby formula, 10 jars of baby food, and one box of Pampers from Rick's Venture Foods.

DOZENS MORE WARNED— 96 speeders fined to slow holiday rush

Sheriff Jim Pippin and his deputies had a very busy holiday slowing down through highway traffic — especially Texas Tech students — to give Post an accident free Christmas period for its streets.

The sheriff's department issued 87 speeding tickets for the holiday period and the state highway patrolmen nine others for violations within the Post city limits.

"It was the worst I ever saw," Sheriff Pippin told The Dispatch. "Both the DPS and the sheriff department had cars in plain sight working traffic coming into Post off the cap."

"The CBs were blaring slow down, slow down through Post but a whole lot of them didn't."

Sheriff Pippin told his deputies at the beginning of the holiday season that he wanted them to work traffic within the city limits only and to issue speeding tickets only to flagrant violators.

"We were stopping them and giving tickets to speeders going from 66 to 80 and 90 miles an hour within the city limits," Pippin said.

"Dozens of others who were only just above speed limits were given warning tickets."

"It wasn't a speed trap," the sheriff declared. "We did it for their own sake and safety's sake in an effort to prevent accidents. We didn't have an accident in town either although we had a Christmas day fatality just outside the city limits on US-84."

New Year's is holiday

New Year's Day on Monday will be a business holiday for most firms in Post.

Not only will most stores be closed, but so will the bank, postoffice, city offices, county offices, and state offices.

School classes will not resume until Tuesday morning.

The Dispatch will be closed Monday, and consequently is going to be accepting advertising and news for next week's paper through Friday.

The advertising deadline will be Tuesday noon, as usual.

County audits are accepted

The Garza County Commissioners Court last Thursday accepted the audits of Bud Davis of Lubbock for both the county's general funds and revenue sharing fund.

The court also gave final approval to the county's new 1979 budget.

A bid of $15,000 for repairing the first and second floor of the courthouse by Bobby Farris was presented to the court with action deferred until the court's Jan. 8 meeting.

Bond also was approved on new deputy sheriff Randall A. Whitlock.

Blood drive here Jan. 4

Garza Memorial Hospital is sponsoring a blood drive at the hospital Thursday, Jan. 4 to be held in room 115.

Due to the recent bus accident which involved the McCauley school children, blood on hand has been drastically reduced. If every organization in Post will send at least one representative to the blood drive, the hospital will reach their tentative goal of 30 persons.

The drive will be between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m., and will be conducted by the Blood Services of Lubbock.

ROOF GOING ON — Seven workers of Black Roofing Company are shown barely visible on top of the Post Sanitarium Building. The workers began installing a new roof on the now Garza County Museum Tuesday afternoon as part of the $29,525 exterior restoration.

Fatal Christmas crash

Joseph Oscar Furlow, 65, O'Donnell farmer, was instantly killed and two others injured and hospitalized as a result of a Christmas day crash about 5:10 p.m. Monday a mile and a half northwest of Post on US-84.

Hospitalized with injuries in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital are Furlow's wife, Mildred, who Tuesday afternoon was listed in critical condition with leg and hip injuries, and Mrs. Barbara Duvall, 40, of Plainview, who was in serious condition with leg and back injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Furlow had just left the rural home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Medlin, who are relatives, and started to cross the northwest bound lanes of US-84 when their 1977 two-door Cadillac was hit broadside by a car driven by Ernest Lee Duvall, 48, of Plainview.

Duvall was treated at Garza Memorial Hospital following the accident and released. The Duvall's 6-year-old son, Eddie Lee, apparently was not injured.

Only $331 more needed

The 1979 Garza United Fund continued to climb slowly during Christmas week toward its $10,675 goal.

The total Tuesday evening stood at $10,343.50, which is just $331.50 short of the goal, Drive Chairman Jim Cornish announced.

"We may make it and we may not," Cornish said. "There are still a few important cards out."

Mother and daughter both drawing winners

Mother and daughter were two of the three winners Saturday afternoon in the third and last Post Yule Drawing.

Nell Morris, wife of D.E. Morris, won the $100 gift certificate for adults and her daughter, Sherry, won the $25 gift certificate for youngsters 17 and under. Persons whose names were drawn were not present for the $50 gift

The two injured women were given emergency treatment at the local hospital and then transferred to Methodist. Furlow retired from farming two years ago.

Funeral services for Furlow were conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the First Baptist Church in O'Donnell with the Rev. Johnny Johns, a Tulia pastor, officiating.

Only 24 building permits here in '78

1978 didn't turn out to be much of a building year as far as Post was concerned.

Darrell Jones reelected

Darrell Jones has been reelected to a three-year term on the ASC county committee by ASC community committeemen.

He will serve as a member with Luther Bilberry as chairman and John Boren as vice chairman.

The ASCS County Committee is responsible for overall operations of the Garza ASCS office and for making decision affecting farmers locally as the federal regulations allow.

The five community committees also were elected recently as reported recently in The Dispatch.

Burial was in Lamesa Memorial Park under direction of Branon Funeral Home.

Highway patrolman Gary Briley of Post investigated the fatal crash.

Furlow was one of 57 persons killed over the Christmas holiday weekend on Texas highways. A death toll of only 44 had been predicted.

permits were issued for a total of $318,450 in construction.

No new business buildings were constructed and only three new homes built.

Most of the permits were for additions to homes, remodeling, or additions of garages or carports.

Of the five permits for business construction, the biggest was $60,000 for the Sioux Lodge remodeling in April, followed by the $55,000 construction of a big double garage for Palmer Construction and Well Service business in January, and the $10,000 remodeling of the Ailsup store at 326 West 8th.

The other two permits were to move a storeroom and to erect a cafe sign.

The three new homes for Jimmy Sharp, Junior Stelzer and a move-in ready built for an out-of-town contractor totaled $126,000.

There were 16 permits for remodeling and additions to homes totaling $65,700, ranging all the way from $300 to $15,000 for an 800 square feet addition.

Brothers find fighting expensive

A Christmas eve fight between two Post brothers proved pretty expensive when it wound up in city court.

Sheriff deputies, answering a disturbance call Sunday, arrested Thomas and Dempsey Zachary whom they found engaged in fighting each other.

Thomas was fined $103.50 on a simple assault charge and Dempsey fined $63.50 on a similar charge.

A helping hand

Over $30,000 has been contributed by Dec. 19 — and undoubtedly a lot more have been given since — to aid McCaulley victims of the Dec. 8 McCaulley School bus-truck accident.

The fund is jointly sponsored by the Hamlin bank and the Hamlin newspaper, The Hamlin Herald, with Mrs. Barbara Craig, chairman of the fund.

Contributions have come in from as far away as Indianapolis, Ind. Messages of condolence and encouragement and offers of help have accompanied many of the donations. Numerous large donations have been received, including $1,000 from Big Lake's First Baptist Church.

Four area schools increased the fund by over $6,000. One student council sent $863.44 and Hermleigh and Loraine contributed $1,573.01. The McCaulley basketball tournament which already was scheduled at McCaulley in mid-December was held in Hobbs with all the $3,934 in proceeds and donations going to the special fund.

Four youngsters on the school bus were killed and 18 injured in the accident. The money donated is being disbursed by a committee according to the needs of the families affected by the tragedy.

It was a tragic Christmas for the small McCaulley community, but its Texas neighbors are lending a helping hand.

1978--a rewarding year

The old year is passing and a healthy "youngun" is fast approaching down the time slot.

Before looking forward to what 1979 may bring to us, it is good to look back and contemplate what happened to us in nearly finished 1978.

Some very positive things happened to Post.

Three major gains were the Algerita Senior Citizens Center, the new Teen Room at the community center, and the reorganized city-county ambulance service operated by trained Emergency Medical Technicians.

Major community needs have existed for all three for quite some time.

Their accomplishment in 1978 was the result of the energetic work of concerned citizens.

The Algerita Center basically was the contribution of David Newby, who donated his labor and know-how to the construction for almost a year. The city-county ambulance service solution came from a group of dedicated citizens who studied medical emergency training and became qualified EMT's to run the ambulance. There is a continuing contribution to their community.

In 1978, adults confronted the community's teenage drug problem with the formation of the Citizens Task Force. Concerned and frustrated parents held the largest town meeting ever. While there was considerable lack of agreement on how to solve the problem, all recognized the need.

What happened could be called "a community convulsion". It led to a record-sized school board race in the spring. While things have quieted down on the surface, the effort has at least accomplished one major goal: community recognition of the problem. From our convulsion, we look forward to new gains this year. Parents who are concerned for their children are now aware and watchful. From this may come a program to combat drugs among the youth we couldn't find this year.

In helping to write and edit The Dispatch's year-end news review, which appears in this edition, we were amazed at the great amount of significant community news in 1978.

It proved once again that our community is vigorous and marching along with progress. There are still many opportunities for community betterment. Every town has its problems.

Our agriculture is an industry in transition. Our oil fields remain robust and busy. Our Postex Plant came through the year with ever greater strength. Our economy as a whole is sound.

While we look into 1979, we fear for added inflation or a downturn in the nation's economy in an effort to put out the fires of rising prices. But it is not such a gloomy picture for areas like ours.

For sure, we must work hard, use our heads, and hold to our course both as individuals and as a community.

Many more good things are probably in store for us in the new year — and some things, maybe not so good. That after all is the way most years go.

COTTON TALKS
FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

LUBBOCK - The year 1979 will see substantial changes in the internal workings of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., thanks to by-laws amendments recently adopted by unanimous vote of the organization's Board of Directors.

The board expressed its expectations that the changes will help to assure a continuation of a strong, effective organization keenly sensitive to the needs of its members.

The High Plains cotton producers and cotton-related businessmen who make up the PCG membership, according to the Executive Vice President Donald Johnson, will feel the first effects of the new by-laws as counties begin to hold meetings to elect PCG Directors.

PCG has two directors from each of the 25 High Plains counties, one a cotton producer and the other an agribusinessman who may be, and often is, a cotton producer as well. Directors are elected on alternate years in individuals county meetings. Most Counties in 1979 will be electing producer directors.

Since 1956 when PCG was organized all producers and businessmen present at a county meeting could take part in the election process. All were eligible to vote and all were eligible for an election as a director. But such will not be the case at election meetings to be held in early 1979.

Under the new by-laws only producers and businessmen who are current dues-paying PCG members will be eligible to vote or serve as directors. Producer dues to PCG are 15 cents per bale, with collections made at participating gins. There is also an established due schedule for gins, oil mills, compresses and banks. Other businessmen pay dues based on the size of their respective operations. Business dues are paid direct to the PCG office in Lubbock.

Another result of the amended by-laws will be a change in the makeup and size of the Board's Executive Committee. Previously all PCG past presidents automatically became members of this committee. There was no limitation on their terms or on the number that might serve on the committee at any one time.

The new by-laws specify that only the two immediate past presidents shall automatically hold Executive Committee membership. PCG presidents are limited to two consecutive one year terms, thus the new provision means each past president will serve on the committee only four years after retirement unless re-elected a director from his county and re-elected to the committee by the Board.

Twin Cedars Nursing Home News

By FLETA WALLS
 This past week was a busy one for our residents. Christmas is a joyful time for everyone, but especially to the elderly. They enjoy their families and friends so much and share past experiences with everyone. Evelyn Gurley's daughter, Paula Tallant of Fort Worth came to visit her grandfather, Lee Pitman and shared her own talents with all our residents. Paula made the Christmas cakes for the party which consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus and another of Santa in the chimney. They were beautiful and Paula spent a lot of time making them. Her son, Tommy dressed as Santa and brought cheer to all our people. We appreciate Paula and Tommy.

Gifts at Twin Cedars were bountiful. Fruit was brought to us by the Justiceburg Baptist Church, Graham Methodist Church, Margie Johnson and the Phillip Daniels, FFA boys and Order of the Eastern Star. RA boys and Act Teen girls from Trinity Baptist brought stockings of candy and sang carols.

Cakes were brought by Opal Ray, Rose Askins, Bill Bartlett, and others. The Post 4-H girls brought filled stockings to all. Cub Scout Troop 314 presented us with a poinsettia plant and fudge cookies. They also sang Christmas carols.

The Hudmans, Jim Wells, Zelma Moore, Bill Bartlett, Gus Sherrill and the Caylor's sent candy to the employees.

Rev. Frank Pickett officiated at our residents Christmas party. Mrs. Rodgers played the organ for singing. Everyone received lots of gifts and pleasure.

Right after the party the First National Bank employees came and presented each resident with an individual gift.

The employees also had a nice Christmas party given by Billie and Dee Caylor at Damon's Restaurant Thursday night. After the nice meal everyone exchanged gifts back at the nursing home.

Many of our residents visited with their families during the holiday weekend. Those who were unable to do so had a nice day here at the home.

Visitors this past week at Twin Cedars were too plentiful to list, but we enjoyed them and appreciate their thoughtfulness sincerely.

Happy Holidays.....

HO, HO, HO, and all that stuff and stuffed is right. Christmas has come and gone and I hope Santa was good to all of you.

From what I've heard, most of you got what you asked for.

I know that a lot of the gals in town, got a pretty sparkly ring for Christmas from that favorite fellow. Not the diamond kind, just a pretty sparkly ring.

I've seen quite a few of the rabbit coats flying around town. (You know they shed something awful). I didn't think animals shed their skin in the winter time.

I think Deb Palmer got the most unique gift from his sis, Jody. But I'll let him tell you about it.

For those of you interested, KPOS is broadcasting at least three basketball games a day of the Jayton tourney this weekend, trying to cover the Post girls and boys during the day. Sorry I can't give you the times, but that depends on winning or losing.

We will have a New Year's Eve, eve dance in the community center Saturday night beginning at 9 p.m. until 12. Same as before, $2 per person and $3.50 per couple.

Tuesday, the day after Christmas, Jeff Williams became of legal age. Happy Birthday, Jeff. I was told he was having a party Friday night to celebrate. He didn't tell me this, but, everyone is invited.

See ya at the dance Saturday night.

Post Library member of state system

Five public libraries in the 29-county area by the West Texas System have qualified this year for membership in the state system that began last year. The libraries that qualify for membership this year are: Lubbock County Library, Andrews County Library, Howard County Library at Big Spring, Kendrick Memorial Library at Brownfield, Crane County Library at Levelland, Crosby County Library at Crosbyton, Yoakum County Library at Denver City, Floyd County Library at Floydada, Hale of 1969 carry out a wide range of cooperative activities. The $255,517 grant to the West Texas Library System for these activities includes both state funds appropriated under provision of the Systems Act and Texas allocation of federal Library Services and Construction Act funds. They are administered by the Texas State Library.

Each system member must meet certain criteria concerning per capita local support, number of volumes and staff. These are determined by the number of persons served by the library.

Dramatic changes have taken place in public libraries in recent years. On the one hand, there has been a sharp rise in the number of books and magazines published. On the other, information is increasingly available in audio-visual media as well as print.

Cotton price is dropping

High Plains cotton prices were $8.50 to $10.75 per bale lower the week ended Dec. 21, according to Paul R. Dickson, Area Director of USDA's Marketing Services Offices in Lubbock.

Growers sold mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and better, staples 30-33, mikes 35-49 around $5.90 cents per pound. New crop lots of mostly grades 43 and 53 staples 30 and 31, mikes 35-49 brought about 51.25 cents, Dickson said.

Gins paid growers $115 to $130 per ton for cottonseed.

High Plains Marketing Services Offices graded 246,000 samples this week bringing this season's total to 929,000. This compares to 2,623,000 graded by Dec. 22 last year.

Predominant High Plains grades this week were grade 41 at 19 percent; grade 51 accounted for 14 percent; grade 42 amounted to 37 percent and grade 52 was 13 percent. Eighteen percent were reduced one grade because of bark, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

Staple lengths were mostly staple 31 at 30 percent, staple 32 was 38 percent and staple 33 accounted for 13 percent. Micronaire was mostly in the desirable 35-49 range at 70 percent of the total. Thirty percent was lower.

Advice given on attracting birds

LUBBOCK — You probably already know about manmade bird attractors such as feeders, birdbaths, birdhouses, nesting shelves, and resting areas, but if you would like to make your property more attractive to wildlife and enhance the beauty of your property, a few natural attractors would be in order.

Birds have simple needs as they look for places to feed, sing, court, nest, rest and hide. Birds also like a variety of plants such as an intermingling of species, sizes, and shapes of plants. Give birds a choice of places for their activities from tall trees to low shrubs and flowers.

Birds are good neighbors as their songs, color, and lively activities add much to the joys of suburban or country life. They also help to control insects that attack flowers, lawns, gardens, and people.

A study of plants already on your property will tell you if additional plantings are in order. Many common shade trees and landscape shrubs yield little or no food for birds.

Autumn olive, cherry, crabapple, or good fruit bearing shrubs are helpful additions. Yards and border areas can be improved by adding junipers, cedars, and other evergreens that provide winter shelter so vital in northwest Texas.

A few species of plants for birds, beauty and protection include: dogwood, use by some 47 varieties of birds; firethorn (Pyracantha), use by at least 17 species of birds; sunflower, used by over 52 species of birds; sumac, used by 36 species of birds.

Planning these plants into your landscape can also provide living screens eliminating highway noises, or unpleasant views. In crowded areas, they can offer privacy for backyard activities.

Many West Texas species of birds prefer open spaces of grasses and fields. In odd corner, or unused spaces, try planting native grasses which will protect the soil.

They paid their speeding fines and were released on $1,500 bail bonds each to come back Wednesday morning for arraignment on third degree felony charges for possession of dangerous drugs.

Sheriff Pippin isn't saying whether or not he is going to order another "speed alert" in January when Tech students pour through Post on their way back to classes after the Christmas holiday.

Jack Alexander, school principal who is busy in many community activities, was the winner at the 1978 banquet.

The award winner will not be announced until the banquet presentation.

Nominations are being sought for the Outstanding Citizen Award to be presented by the Post Chamber of Commerce at its annual banquet Feb. 10.

Fruits, vegetables among 'best buys'

COLLEGE STATION — Best buys at Texas grocery markets this week include several fresh fruit and fresh vegetable items.

Also, scattered "specials" offer budget buys, says Gwendolyn Clyatt, a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A & M University System.

This week's price-quality trends are the following:
FRESH FRUITS — Apples are in excellent supply due to the vintage crop this fall and prices are moderate.

Grapefruit by-the-bag or by-the-pound is a first-rate choice — quality — and price-wise. Liberal supplies of tangerines and tangelos are available, too.

FRESH VEGETABLES — Yellow vegetables — carrots, rutabagas and squash — wear attractive price tags. Also, cabbage, broccoli, dry yellow onions and sweet potatoes. Potatoes are in plentiful supply and many stores are featuring them at attractive prices.

POULTRY — Egg prices continue to creep upward. Turkey prices are higher than at Thanksgiving. Fryer chickens offer a less-costly alternative to turkey.

DAIRY — Skim milk, sour cream and a variety of cheeses are receiving emphasis.

BEEF — Meat prices continue a gradual increase.

Some markets feature beef chuck cuts, ground beef and beef liver.

PORK — Several stores offer family packs, end chops, quarter-loin cut into chops, rib and loin-end roast values.

Other suggestions are canned hams, along with bacon and roll sausage.
