Stamps-Baxter Quartet To Help P.-T. A Fund

The Stamps-Baxter quartet and their accompanist will appear at the high school auditorium tonight (Friday) in a big variety concert under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers Association. This group is the same quartet heard daily over KRLD, and has been acclaimed as the "concert quartet without an equal in America." The program will begin at eight o'clock, and admission will be 15 cents and 25 cents.

The Parent Teacher Assoc. will receive a nice percentage of the proceeds, so O'Donnell folks will have not only the opportunity of hearing nationally famous musicians, but also of helping the public school. Those who heard the last group of Stamps-Baxter singers several weeks ago and those radio fans who never miss hearing this group will make every effort to attend the concert tonight.

LUBBOCK MAN SPEAKER AT LEGION CELEBRATION

George S. Berry of Lubbock, chairman of the state American Legion rehabilitation committee, and Hon. Tom Garrard of Tahoka were guest speakers Monday night when members of the Fern Allen post of the American Legion held their annual barbecue. J. L. Shoemaker is post commander.

Site for the event was a spot north of town, on C. R. Brock's place, and was complete with tent and flags. As an unusual feature, pits where chickens and steaks were barbecued were presided over by Bob Johnson, colored ex-service man, who was assisted by Solon Robinson, colored.

Present were Legionnaires Warren, Brock, Lambert, Noble, Shoemaker, Ledbetter, Street, Farmer, Sauls, Owens, Fortner, Preston, Howell, Jones, Ballard, Everett, Waller, McCleary, Jones Pierce, George Pierce, Moore, Thompson.

Bradley, Brewer, Robinson, Etter, Simpson, Carl Ballard, O'Connor, and Whitsett.

Mrs. Scott Gross was brought home last Thursday from a New Mexico hospital, where she has been for some time receiving treatment for dropsy. She is somewhat improved.

George Mahon Sends Greetings To Rodeo

Worn and harassed by the turbulent international crisis, Congressman George Mahon yet took time out this week to wire his best wishes for a successful rodeo Saturday, and to send his personal greetings to rodeo visitors.

Received from Washington several days ago, the congressman's telegram said:

"My warmest greetings to the people of the O'Donnell area upon the occasion of your celebration. During these critical times may we all strive to strengthen our democracy and our national defense and realize with deeper appreciation the privileges which we enjoy as citizens of our great republic."
—GEORGE MAHON.

During his last visit home several months ago, and in the course of a conversation in which plans for our rodeos were being discussed, Mr. Mahon remarked that "while we are able to enjoy innocent, healthful amusements of this sort, thousands of our fellow men are in hourly danger of injury and death on battlefields and even in their own homes; we don't realize how lucky we are."

BOY SCOUTS WILL AID CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN

Boy Scout Troop 46 is already taking an active part in the clean-up campaign which is scheduled to begin next Monday. The lads are gathering up nails, for which the Rotary Club will pay ten cents per gallon.

The nails are being brought into Burl's Auto Parts and stacked until final judging and weighing of results at the end of the week.

Mrs. Irvin Street, L. T. Brewer, R. R. Adams, Burley Brewer, and Miss Thelma Palmer were guests over the week-end of Mrs. Waldo McLaurin at her mountain cottage near Ruidoso, New Mexico. The party left Friday morning, returning Sunday.
