IRIGES COVER CROP
The need for cover crops in this district was the main topic of discussion at the regular monthly meeting of the Lynn County Soil Conservation District Board of Supervisors meeting held recently in Tahoka.

N. E. Wood, local Soil Conservation Service technician states that many farmers have received moisture enough to get crops up and have been planting milo, maize, black eyed peas, Kaffir, guar and others in order to get a cover on their land before blowing season. He also says that barley, vetch and rye can be planted as late as Sept 15th and make a good growth on irrigated land, and if rain comes it can be planted on dry land.

Care Of Impetigo Given
Most parents know exactly what State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox means when he says "there is no such thing as natural resistance to impetigo."

They know, perhaps from bitter experience, that the same child can suffer repeated attacks of what Dr. Cox calls an "offensive, annoying skin infection."

Impetigo, a purulent, highly infectious ailment can be found in any age group at any time of the year. But children are unusually susceptible and most cases occur during summer. It isn't too serious, except on new born babies, but it can cause days of itching misery to afflicted youngsters and adults alike.

It's caused by a pus forming bacteria called staphylococcus, the same sort of germ found in boils and sores where pus is present. Usually it forms an unsightly crust over wide areas of the body and the material underneath is very infectious if allowed to get on other body parts. It can easily be transmitted to anyone who used the towel of an infected person since towel moisture permits the germ to survive.

Children living in the most hygienic homes frequently get impetigo, although it probably is more common in homes where personal sanitation isn't considered too important. The best way to minimize the ill effects of impetigo is to keep the infection localized by preventing the serum under crusts from spreading into "clean" skin surfaces.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferman Carpenter of Post visited Mr and Mrs. J. B. Carpenter Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Cox and children of Lubbock spent several days of last week with her sister and family Mr and Mrs. J. B. Carpenter.

TREATMENT OF MILDEW

Mildew is caused by molds that thrive on household products like tablecloths, bathmats, dish towels and articles made of leather and wool.

Mrs. Bernice Claytor, home management specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says, fortunately, mildew spots are easily removed if you get to them before the mold has a chance to rot the material.

Fresh mildew stains on washable goods can usually be removed by washing at once with soap and water, rinsing well and drying in the sun. If any stains remain, moisten with lemon juice and salt, spread in the sun to bleach, and then rinse thoroughly and dry. Be careful when you use this treatment on colored materials.

Another safe bleach for household articles is sodium perborate which can be bought at drug stores or in commercial bleaches at most grocery stores. Sponge the mildew spot with a solution of one tablespoon sodium perborate to a pint of lukewarm water or sprinkle the powder directly on the stain which has been dampened with hot water. Let stand a minute or two and then rinse well. Test the bleach on a sample of cloth if it is colored.

MISS JANE THOMPSON WEDS

The marriage of Miss Norma Jane Thompson and Caylton Ray Blackwell of Quannah was solemnized in a double ring ceremony read Sunday at 4 p. m. in the Church of Christ, Glenn B. Bishop, minister of Sudan, read the ceremony before an archway entwined with greenery and gladiolas flanked by baskets of the same flowers.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Thompson of here and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Blackwell of Ranger.

Proceeding the ceremony the Horace Coffman's chorus of Lubbock sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life", "I Love you Truly" and "Because". The traditional wedding song was sung during the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length wedding gown of white nylon tulle over satin with portrait neckline outlined with applique of Aleucon lace which extended into small sleeves. A peplum of matching lace was over the immense skirt. She wore net gauntlets and shoulder length veil of silk illusion flowing from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible complemented with a cascade of white cornucopias entwined with net. Mrs. Delores Thompson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of orchid tulle over polished cotton with strapless bodice and ballerina length skirt. She carried a nolinol bouquet of orchid mums.

Ervey Boothe of Abilene served as best man. Ushers were Melvin Thompson of here, brother of the bride and A. C. Henderson of Lubbock, cousin of the groom.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis. A three tiered cake was focal point of interest on the bride's table which was laid with an imported cut work cloth over pink. Chrysal punch bowls were at either end with the attendant's bouquet in the center.

Mrs. Melvin Schoffner of Lockney, registered the guests. Mrs. Iris Walton of Hobbs, N. M. a cousin of the bride, and Miss Charlotte Love of Lubbock, a cousin of the groom, served punch. Cake was served by Miss Burl June Blackwell of Lubbock, a sister of the bride.

Others in the house party were Mrs. Melvin Thompson and Mrs. Jim Cornest of Seminole.

For traveling the bride wore a coral faile suit. Her veiled hat of black velvet had rhinestones trim and matching bag. She wore a corsage of white feathered carnations with silver bow.

The bride is a graduate of A. C. C. and has attended Texas Tech. Before her marriage she was a teacher in Carlsbad, N. M. schools.

The bridegroom is a 1952 graduate of A. C. C. and served several months in Korea with armed forces. After a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Quannah where the groom is with the S. C. S.

Borden Council Formed

Recently a meeting of the Borden Co. 4 - H clubs was held at the Court House in Gall. It was discussed whether or not to organize a council. Mr. Sealy and Mrs. Hughes, county agent and home demonstration agents, explained what the council was for and in what ways it could help the 4 - H Clubs and the county agents.

Mrs. Hughes suggested that if the group did form a Council, it would be nice to have a year book. The book would be useful in telling members when the club meets, party dates and other special occasions.

The motion to have a council was carried and the following officers were elected:

Erroll Lee Farmer, Chairman
Mike Smith, Vice Chairman
Neil Kingston, Sec'y, Treas.
Judy Doyle, Reporter.

The council members and the county agents agreed to meet on Saturdays, possibly at Plains Community and at night.

Michigan Counties Solve Wintertime Depression Worries

BELLAIRE, Mich.—When Labor Day comes, all the rich vacationists take off from this community of waters and woods like wild ducks, leaving the natives in a severe economic depression after a boom in guiding fishing parties, baby sitting, working in hotels and carpentering.

But the citizens are taking steps to alleviate the effects of this depression. Several years ago a committee, headed by Betty Parker, whose husband publishes the Antrim County News, began selling, by letters, Christmas greens in August.

Day and night, the men left jobless by the departure of the tourist trade hauled in big branches and the women made them into Christmas wreaths.

The venture has been repeated in other fields, and now there is a winter workshop in Bellaire. Five other Michigan counties hardest hit by the winter depressions are cooperating. Everything in the workshop is handmade.

A pine rocking horse was made by Durbon Death, Starvation Lake. Hardwood lawn furniture was fashioned by Mark Trail Osburn of Cedar. Mrs. Loren Lacey learned how to make aluminum and pewter trays with designs of maple leaves, pine cones and deer. Mrs. Harry Siebold crochets silky drawingstring purses.

Give Yourself a Washday Lift!

By BETTY HUDSON

Nothing gives the busy homemaker's spirit more "lift" than a clothes line of sparkling white clothes! Gently waving in the warm breeze, shining in the sun, her husband's shirts, the children's play-clothes, all those sheets and pillow cases . . . to Mrs. Homemaker, they spell real achievement. Her efforts have been rewarded; she has gotten rid of that dingy gray!

You, too, can share this proud woman's secret—it is a simple matter of "re-conditioning" by means of the washer or the wash tub! Start now—and here are the directions for this wonderful beauty treatment:

You will get best results using a mechanical washer, and really hot water—from 120° to 140°.

Add a half cup of bead-bleuing and double quantity of a good water softener. Wash as usual, and rinse. It will take about five such treatments to complete the reconditioning, but use the double dose of water softener only in the first wash—after that use only enough to soften the wash water plus an all-purpose soap or synthetic detergent along with bead-form bleuing.

You can recondition in the wash tub, too, but the process is slightly different. Soak the clothes in a solution of twice the usual amount of water softener for from 10 to 15 minutes. Then remove the clothes, put through a wringer, and put into fresh wash water, as hot as the hands can stand, and containing only a half cup of bead bleuing. Continue with the same directions given for washer reconditioning.

Once those drab clothes are really white again, the best method for keeping them sparkling is frequent washing BEFORE they get too heavily soiled—and with the addition of bead-bleuing in each wash, you can be assured of a plus white performance.

Bad Odor
Citizens Object

LAKE WORTH, Fla.—Residents in this community complained that one of the manufacturing plants here was nuisance. They claimed that in the process of manufacturing its product the plant gave off a bad odor.

The city commission studied the complaints of the citizens at a meeting and agreed with the complainants that the plant was a neighborhood nuisance.

Some of you may wonder why in this world of miracle chemicals—the plant management couldn't use one of these chemicals—say chlorophyll—in its manufacturing process to eliminate the odor.

Well, they did in a way. You see, the plant manufactured commercial chlorophyll, a breath sweetener.

Film Shows New Methods in Modern Farming; Thorgersen Narrates New Holland Newsreel

Some of the newest practices in modern farming are brought to farmers in a sound-color motion picture just released by New Holland. "Grassland Report" is the newsreel story of new methods such as the harvesting of grains with a forage harvester shown in the top view filmed in Ontario, Canada. At lower left a bale of green hay goes underground as two New England farmers try out this new way of making silage. These and other stories about the Santa Gertrudis breed of cattle, fertilization, grassland field days, "green feeding" and other important phases of grassland farming are told by the familiar voice of Ed Thorgersen, ace newsreel commentator. Showings of the new film are being made through local New Holland dealers.

Pecans were first marketed through the channels of trade around 1880. At that time San Antonio was considered the pecan capital and in 1889 about a million and a quarter pounds were sold thru the San Antonio market. The average annual Texas production now is about 30 million pounds and last year's crop was worth approximately $10 million.

Exports of cotton from the United States during the first 10 months of this season totaled 2.7 million bales. This compares with 5.2 million bales for the same period last season.

The number of cattle on feed for market in the 11 Corn Belt states on July 1 this year was estimated to be 8 percent larger than a year ago.

Never over feed hogs prior to shipping for hot weather coupled with nervous digestion can make the trip to market costly from the standpoint of shipping losses.

School lunchrooms and local public and private welfare agencies can get barley from price support stocks owned by the USDA. About 50 million pounds are available.

Look what your FORD dollar buys!

Check the features below against any car in the low-price field and you'll see why Ford's worth more when you buy it...worth more when you sell it.

V-8 POWER is yours in Ford—but not in other low-priced cars. It's the product of Ford's experience in building over 13,000,000 V-8's! Ford's high-compression, low-friction Mileage Maker Six with Overdrive, is the Economy Sweepstakes winner.

ROAD-LEVELING RIDE reduces front end road shock alone up to 80%. Wide front tread, diagonally-mounted shock absorbers take tilt out of turns. You'll discover in the '53 Ford that a car need not be excessively heavy to ride smooth as silk.

FULL-CIRCLE VISIBILITY is yours in Ford. With huge, curved, one-piece windshield, car-wide rear window and "picture windows" all-around, Ford has more "look out" area than any car in the low-price field. I-REST tinted glass also available.

ROOMY TRUNK is one suitcase bigger... bigger than any other luggage compartment in Ford's field... bigger than you'll find in many of the expensive cars. With Ford's Center-Fill Fueling, there's no long gas-fill pipe to eat up your trunk space.

SUSPENDED PEDALS make braking and clutching easier... allow more clear floor space... eliminate dusty, drafty floor holes. This feature, exclusive to Ford in its field, permits dash-mounting of brake master cylinder for easy accessibility.

FOAM-RUBBER CUSHIONS over non-sag springs in Ford's sofa-wide seats make even long trips a treat. And you'll find that only Ford in the low-price field offers this fine-car feature as standard equipment on both front and rear seats in all models.

FORDOMATIC DRIVE—an optional extra—is really two automatic drives in one. It has a fluid torque converter for smooth, steady power flow. It has automatic gears for greater "get-up-and-go." Ford also offers you Overdrive and Conventional Drive.

MASTER-GUIDE POWER STEERING—an optional extra on V-8 models—gives you the natural "feel" of steering on the straight-away yet takes the work out of turning. Absorbs road shocks before they reach the steering wheel—adds to safety.

Agricultural producers of the state are advised to be on the alert for damaging invasions of their crops and pastures by worms. They are bad in many sections of the state at present. Fall army worms and cotton bollworms are two of the chief culprits. Cotton leafworms are also spreading.

A good legume crop in the rotation pays twice in more hay and pasture and in better yields from sanitary conditions of public eating places, and in addition schools are conducted to instruct food handlers. Moreover there are laws, rules and regulations requiring the uses of approved equipment and methods in such establishments. Nevertheless, one of the most forceful influences for sanitation is not being used and this is the public's unfavorable reaction toward dirty and insanitary places," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"The public cannot do the job entirely, nor can health departments bring about desirable and sanitary practices without the help of the public. As for hygienic practices, persons serving food and drink should be clean; should not cough and sneeze over the utensils and material served; should keep their hands away from their mouth and nose, hair and face; should handle all utensils by the outside instead of putting their fingers on the inside of service utensils. These conditions a person can see, and unless these safeguards are practiced, disease may result."
