B. J. Boyd Home From Hospital

B. J. Boyd, local druggist, who has been ill in a Lubbock hospital, was returned to his home here Wednesday for convalescence.

Mr. Boyd became ill on a deer hunt about two weeks ago.

District AAA Meeting

TAHOKA, Texas, Dec. 19 (Spl.)—
A district AAA meeting was held at the local AAA building Tuesday, December 17, the purpose of which was to discuss Organization and Office Procedure, and the checking of Wheat and General compliance in the 1941 farm program.

The meeting was presided over by Charles B. Beard, District Field Officer for this district. In the morning session W. W. Wallace and F. V. Swain from the state office at college Station discussed office organization and making out payrolls. The afternoon session was devoted entirely to a discussion of checking compliance in 1941 by C. H. Moseley, State Performance Supervisor, College Station.

Representatives from the following counties were present: Kent, Garza, Terry, Yoakum, Hockley, Lubbock, and Lynn. The administrative officer, payroll clerk, and one county committeeman from each county was present.

Lamesa Wins Cage Contest

TAHOKA, Texas, Dec. 19 (Spl.)—
Lamesa boys and Tahoka girls were champions of the invitation basketball tournament held here last week end, sixteen teams participating.

Tahoka boys lost the final contest Saturday night, when Lamesa edged out the Bulldogs 17 to 14. Previously Tahoka girls barely nosed out a fine Wilson team 16 to 14.

Grassland girls received the consolation trophy in the girls bracket, and Cooper of Lubbock county, the trophy in the girls bracket.

Boys teams participating in the tournament were: Lamesa, Wilson, Cooper, New Home, Draw, O'Donnell, and New Lynn.

Girls teams participating were: O'Donnell, Wilson, Tahoka, Grassland, New Lynn, Newmoore, Wells, New Home, and Draw.

LOYAL WORKERS CLASS HAD CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mrs. Pay Westmoreland was hostess Wednesday to a lovely Christmas party when she entertained members of the Loyal Workers Class of the Methodist Church.

Games of "42" were enjoyed at five tables.

The exchange of gifts was held and Mother Simpson, room mother, was presented a gift and Mrs. Belle Knight, teacher, also received a gift from the class.

At the tea hour a dainty plate holding sandwiches, ice box cake, and spiced tea with plate favors of candy canes was served.

Attending were Mesdames Wheeler, Curtis, Jones, Simpson, Moore, Jones, Pinkerton, Gibson, Warren, Bowlin, Shoemaker, Allen, Ballew, Everett, Hancock, Stark, Carroll, Knight, Garner, Schooler, Forgy, and Mrs. W. L. Palmer, Miss Thelma Palmer, and Mrs. W. A. Emerson of Winfield.

W. S. of C. S. MET IN THE GATES HOME

About twenty members were present Monday when the W. S. of C. S. of the Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. J. W. Gates.

A Royal Service program was enjoyed.

Each member brought a toy or gift that will be presented to a needy family Christmas.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

THANKS

Our thanks to Mrs. Roy W. Gibson to her recent renewal to the PRESS.

Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Caldwell were in Lamesa Tuesday evening.

Carols To Be Sung At Homes Here; All Donations For Underprivileged

Christmas carols will be sung at homes throughout the town for three nights ending Saturday by chorus of voices as a preliminary drive to furnish Christmas to underprivileged children here.

It is planned that each home shall be visited, and of the residents wish they may donate as much money as they choose to the cause. No one will be asked for money; all must come in the form of donations. This is done in order that no soliciting nor begging will be necessary downtown.

Mrs. Delores Burks is organizing all carol arrangements. Funds derived will be used to the need of the underprivileged and a Christmas party will be staged Christmas eve at the home of Mrs. J. Mack Noble.

Backing the plan is the Rotary club, American Legion, Fire Department and various churches.

Hervey Gardenhire, local manager of the Rex theatre, has issued a personal invitation to those who will attend the tree to visit the show free that night.

LINE-LAMBERT TO HOLD FOOD SALE

A special Christmas foodsale is being staged by the Line-Lambert Grocery until Christmas eve, so the management announces in this issue of the Press.

A page advertisement lists a few of the bargains offered.

Press Will Be Printed Early

The Press will be published early next week, and should reach all subscribers in O'Donnell, rural routes, Tahoka and Lamesa routes Christmas eve morning.

The issue will be a special Christmas edition, and will feature greetings from practically every business house in O'Donnell.

No advertisement will be taken for the edition later than Saturday noon, and any business firm, who is unable to spend a large amount for postage and special greeting cards, may reach this trade area and his customers via the Press at the cost of only a few cents.

Should you miss your copy, extra copies will be available at the O'Donnell Motor Parts.

Schools To Take Week Vacation

Christmas will be observed in the O'Donnell schools Friday, according to Superintendent S. F. Johnson.

A large Christmas tree is to be placed in the High school, and a program arranged for the occasion. Individual trees will be used at the grade schools.

276 Questionnaires Mailed Registrants

For the information of some who may have been misled, the list of registrants appearing in this paper each week is not the list of those to whom questionnaires have been sent. The names of Lynn county registrants are being printed in the order of the order numbers given by the county board. Questionnaires have been sent to these registrants only up to order No. 276 and to those who have volunteered.

INTERMEDIATE G. A.

Monday afternoon, G. A. members met at the Baptist Church with their counselor, Mrs. Floyd Thompson.

Christmas carols were sung, stories and poems were read.

Those present were Jeanette Fortner, Jean Hodges, Pat Burns, LaMoine Line, Julia and Edna Edwards, Ina Merle, Peggy and John Ellen Beach and Carol Ann Thompson.

MRS. RAYMOND JAMES ILL

Mrs. Raymond James of Big Spring is in a Lamesa hospital where she underwent an appendectomy Saturday night.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Huff of this city have been at her bedside.

WILL ATTEND WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Caldwell will go to Rochester Sunday to attend the wedding of Miss Geraldine Bragg and Ralph Caldwell, brother of Mr. Caldwell, who will be best man at the wedding.

IN CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. Arlie McDonald and small son who visited Mrs. McDonald's father, Joe Proctor and other relatives here recently have gone to Los Angeles where Mr. McDonald will be employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Nowell and Sonny visited in Lamesa Sunday. Mrs. Nowell remained over Sunday and visited with friends in Big Spring Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Whitsett and Miss Thelma Palmer were in Lamesa Monday.

Mrs. C. L. Hafer was in Tahoka Wednesday to attend a Christmas party.

Mrs. Roy W. Gibson was in Lamesa Monday.

Homes, Business Houses Decorated

Illumination and decorations in keeping with the Christmas season is being featured to an extent in O'Donnell.

Among the more striking displays are those featured at the Cicero Smith Lumber company, Ray's Tailor Shop and Shorty Wright's Cafe.

Stancell Jones used his imagination and worked out a beautiful display at the lumber yard. Jones featured a large fire place, complete with Yule log, suitably lighted at a large window and worked out a beautiful lighted star effect at another window.

At Ray's, a snowy background was arranged and the foreground used for a lighted home. In front of the house stands Santa Claus and his reindeer. This effect is highlighted by colored lights.

A large, decorative star greets the visitor at Shorty's cafe. The streamer star extends from all corners of the cafe and is decorated with tinsel.

Various home places here have also worked out novel Christmas lighting designs.

SEWING CLUB HAD SOCIAL IN LAMBERT HOME

For the festive party, members of the Jolly Dozen Sewing club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. A. C. Lambert.

The home was beautifully decorated with an array of bright ornaments and a brilliantly lighted tree from which members received gifts.

A dainty refreshment plate with sandwiches, cherry pie with whipped cream and coffee was served at the tea hour.

Members were Mesdames Blocker, Burns, Carroll, Edwards, Earles, Middleton, Howard, Wheeler, Moore, Goddard, Koeninger, Burns, and the hostess.

Club will not meet until the first Tuesday in January.

PARTY WAS GIVEN FOR THREE YEAR OLD GIRL

Cynthia Rea Forgy, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Forgy was honoree for a small party Saturday, December 14, the anniversary of her third birthday.

Balloons and story books were presented the guests from a gaily lighted Christmas tree for favors, and ice cream, ovaline and ginger bread boys were served for refreshments.

The invited guests were Helen Jean Hoffman, Nancy Gail Everett, Barbara Ruth Oates and Judith Winston of Brownfield.

Sending gifts were Miss Thelma Palmer, Mrs. W. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. L. Hafer and J. Mack and Eddie Noble, and Phillip Caldwell.

KONGENIAL KLUB HAD CHRISTMAS PARTY

One of the most delightful yuletide parties given was the one Tuesday in the home of Mrs. J. P. Bowlin when Kongenial Klub members were guests.

The home was attractively decorated with a Christmas motif.

Following the games of bridge Mrs. W. E. Walls was awarded high score prize. Mrs. Joe Garner guest prize and Mrs. R. O. Stark bingo.

A dainty salad plate with spiced tea was served. Those playing were Mesdames Adams, Brewer, Bubany, Daniels, Golithly, Street, Garner, Walls, Gibson, Stark, Schooler, and the hostess.

The club will meet Dec. 31 with Mrs. L. T. Brewer.

MRS. HENDERSON WAS CLUB HOSTESS TUESDAY

At the conclusion of the usual six games of bridge, Mrs. Charles Cabool was winner of high score, Mrs. William G. Forgy and Mrs. E. T. Wells were awarded slam prizes.

Delicious pineapple pie, cheese balls and olives with coffee was served at the tea hour.

Those present included Mesdames Bradley, Forgy, Hafer, Hughes, Noble, Robinson, Wells, Whitsett, Cabool, Oates, and Miss Thelma Palmer.

The club will not meet next week.

Harvie Jordan was a business visitor in Lubbock Tuesday.

BRIDE ELECT IS HONOREE FOR SHOWER

Against a gay background of tinsel, festoons, candles and a beautifully decorated Christmas tree, for house decorations, Mesdames John Earles, J. P. Bowlin, R. O. Stark, Fay Westmoreland and Waldo McLaurin were hosts for a lovely party Friday December 13 in the Earles home.

Miss Oleta Moore, bride elect of Warren Smith was honoree for the tea and shower.

Mrs. J. P. Bowlin received guests with Mrs. Earles.

The dining table was centered with a crystal punch bowl which was surrounded by silver leaves, the bride's colors wine and silver were accentuated further with vases of carnations in wine color.

Mrs. Westmoreland and Mrs. Stark served tea dainties to guests.

Miss Virginia Mae Shoemaker presided at the guest registry.

A short program was given, Miss Emma Jo Hinkle sang accompanied by Mrs. Delores Burks.

Mrs. Fay Westmoreland read a cleverly written poem and made the presentation of gifts to the honoree.

About fifty guests called and a large number sent gifts.

ACE-HI CLUB HAD ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

For their third annual Christmas party, Ace Hi Club members were delightfully entertained Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. George Oates.

The entertaining rooms were beautifully decorated with a Yuletide motif.

Guests were served a buffet lunch in the dining room from a lace-covered cloth with red and green candles and a crystal bowl forming a centerpiece.

In the contract bridge games, Mrs. Oates won high. Mrs. J. T. Middleton low and each member binged for a prize.

Also in the gift exchange, each member received a gift.

Those present were Mesdames Sterling Bearden, Farrell Farrington, Bedford Caldwell, Floyd Thompson, Earl Howard, S. L. Adams, J. M. Bubany, Harvie Jordan, Kenneth Goughly, J. T. Middleton, Fay Westmoreland, and George Oates.

BAPTIST W. M. U. ENJOYED CHRISTMAS SOCIAL

Mrs. J. Andy Edwards, president of the Baptist W. M. U. was hostess in her home last Monday to members and guests for a lovely Christmas party.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion and following a short program, gifts were distributed from a gaily lighted tree.

A delicious refreshment plate was served to about twenty five members.

Mrs. W. A. Emerson of Winfield was an out of town guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn P. Lee and two children of Marlow, Oklahoma will arrive Sunday for a holiday visit in the Hal Singleton home.
