News of Baird PEOPLE & THINGS

IN THE PAST FEW days we have been sampled with a wide variety of weather, and it is always so in Texas. No one objected to the snow which fell last week. It was beautiful, and was a boon to ranchers and farmers. The snow was followed by a couple of pretty days and then Sunday a mild sand storm was blowing. It didn't seem so mild, but most of us have seen much worse. Some of us can remember sand storms so bad that lights had to be turned on durg the daylight hours. Then monday was a beautiful day. Tuesday was cooler and the wind was puffing out of the south. It just proves the saying that if you don't like the weather in Texas just stay around an hour or so and it will change.

THE POLITICAL PICTURE is begining to shape up, and it appears to be an interesting year. The competition in the race for with equal protection and atsheriff of the county is getting hot and it is better than three months to the primaries. Veteran Sheriff Homer Price has withdrawn from the race after announcing a couple of weeks ago. Two of his deputies, Todd Newton of Baird and N. L. Long, Jr., of Cross Plains threw their 10 gallon hats in the ring this week and so far it is a three way race with James Day of Clyde as the other contestant. Rumors have it that Max Carriker of the Rotan area is about to announce in opposition to Omar Burleson of Anson as Congressman from the 17th Congressional District. Max will probably give Mr. Burleson a run for his money. It will be a good year to pay your poll tax.

WENT UP THIRD Street this week and saw the contractors at work on the new preachers home being built by the Baird Church of Christ. The new brick home will have three bedrooms, two baths and a den, in addition to the usual living and dining room and kitchen. It will have a double garage and a large utility room . . . Work is also progressing nicely on the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clark out East Sixth. The spacious me is to be of ledge stone and ie house will be attractive add tions to the town. There are several new homes being planned for the near future.

Legionnaires Urged To Pay 1964 Dues

A total of 103 members of Eugene Bell Post No. 82, American Legion, have paid their 1964 dues, according to C. H. Lunsford, commander.

He urged every member to pay their 1964 dues, and he has set 175 members as his goal for 1964. The post had 163 members in 1963 and 167 in 1962.

The money which remains with the local post will go toward installing a new roof on the legion hall. The cost of the roof has been set at $450, so the dues will go a long way toward putting the building in shape, Commander Lunsford said.

Oplin Observations By Daphene Floyd

If you're a Texan you can have your choice of weather these days. For example, the of last week we had a low of 12 degrees, then about 2 inches of snow was on the ground for a couple of days. Toward the week end we had weather equal to sunny California with a high of 81 degrees Sunday, we had dusty skies and I do mean dusty! Did I hear someone say they wished it would rain?

Betcha Mrs. Mallie Johnson vill not agree that she has been naving a swell time even if she just getting over the mumps. ouldn't you know that the anddaughter, Betsy Johnson d to give them to grandmothr. The last I heard was that er daughter, Maxine and randdaughter, Mary, had the umps also. Ha! Ha! I hear that ir. Maurice, the girl's father is so waiting his turn. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Miller were delighted last Sunday afternoon to have their new great-granddaughter, Kelly Sue Miller and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller of Abilene visiting them. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith of Abilene accompanied the young couple on the visit.

Mrs. A. D. McWhorter visited Mrs. Ray Floyd last Monday afternoon.

Glad to hear that Lucien Warren of Abilene is on the road of recovery after having pneumonia. Lucien still has his farming and cattle interest at Oplin so his brother, Herbert Warren has been seeing about the stock while Lucien has been ill.

It is taking Kathy Scott, the four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Scott, a long time to get over the mumps for she first took them in one side and then just last week she took them in the other side.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Stevenson have moved into what is spoken of as the West place and which was vacated a few months back by the Earl Peterson family. Goody, now I have some new

Tecumseh Topics By Lillian Crawford

For weather news we had something unusual the first of last week. It was snow and a wet one, but just not enough of it, about 2" around in this area. Then Sunday came along one of those old dust storms with high winds to carry the soil off to other places. Since we didn't get enough dust Sunday, here chi Tuesday morning it's coming back from the south. Seeing the clouds move in promises us some hopes that showers will fall and settle the dust.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Harris and Lillian Crawford attended funeral services at Denton Valley Friday in the last rites for Floyd Ford. Our sympathy goes out to the ones who will be sad because of his absence. He had made his home near his daughter, Mrs. Walter Connell at Denton Valley the past few years.

Mrs. Callie Windham, a resident of Tecumseh for many years, later moving to Abilene has been a patient in an Abilene hospital lately. She has been a diabetic for several years and they say her heart is giving her trouble now. We hope she will soon be better and able to be back at home, if not already at home.

Hi neighbors, guess you have week. Yes, I was, Mildred, Gerald Carter and I went to Lake Jackson last Sunday to visit with Sherrie, Lynn and James Carter. We came home Wednesday.
