SUPPORT OUR HOME TOWN

SWEET 'N' SOUR

By A. Dill

It's good to know you have a reader, even one, for after last week's tirade on the holiday season coming in at jet-break speed we now have the distinction of having the first Christmas tree in ye old village — set up, decorated and ready for that first curtain call December 24th. Now if we could just figure out a sneaky plan to entice Light-of-our-Life to address and mail the Christmas cards, we'd just about have it made.

The Gardiners, Maudine, Frank, Nancy and Jane Ann spent the week end in San Angelo with son Larry, who was there for the Roswell-San Angelo football game. Larry's school came out with the winning score so with that added to his family get-together, it was just about a perfect week end for the young man.

Pretty blonde Ann Barton now wears the crown and title, "Most Beautiful Girl of Baird High School" — decision was handed down Tuesday night in the Annual Beauty Contest sponsored by the Senior Class. Some fifty students were in the contest and if you think the competition wasn't stiff, then you undoubtedly weren't present for the affair. Baird beauties were never more lovely, the stage setting (by Bertha Byrd) was exceedingly attractive, and the program was well handled. Congratulations to all of the contestants, and to the three young ladies who also won top honors: Sarah Hatchett, Janet Ross, and Linnea LaCour. Choosing winners must have been a difficult task indeed.

We never hear Dale Glasston at the piano that we don't wonder that so much talent could be wrapped up in one package — that boy can keep a program sparkling and lively just by his own brand of magnetism. Dale played during the intermissions at the beauty contest and if there's any trickier job than to keep a waiting audience entertained we haven't found it yet — but Dale did it, and did it well.

While we are about it — special congratulations to Bobby Ross, Dale Coley and Wayne Boyd for their stage band which was featured at the contest.

One more item of note — by popular vote of the student body, Taber Bearden was named the school's most handsome. Both he and Ann Barton have individual pages in high school yearbook this spring.

Friday night winds up the Baird Bear football season. The game of the year is scheduled with Gorman and is a home game. We are as aware as you are of the criticism that invariably comes when the hometown team doesn't pile up as many winning scores as the fans would like, but it's only plain sense to remember that last year's out-going Seniors left the Baird team weakened, as it always does to some extent, and this year's gridiron crop was young, inexperienced, but with potentialities which you'll see develop into a real hard hitting, score winning squad, and we'd say within the next year. Coach Jefferies and Coach Howard believe in them and that's reason enough for the fans to string along, but outside of that, they are our youngsters, and while they're growing up, let's show we have confidence in their ability too — let's get out Friday night and show our own hometown spirit — maybe we're the ones who need the pep-talk and not the boys.

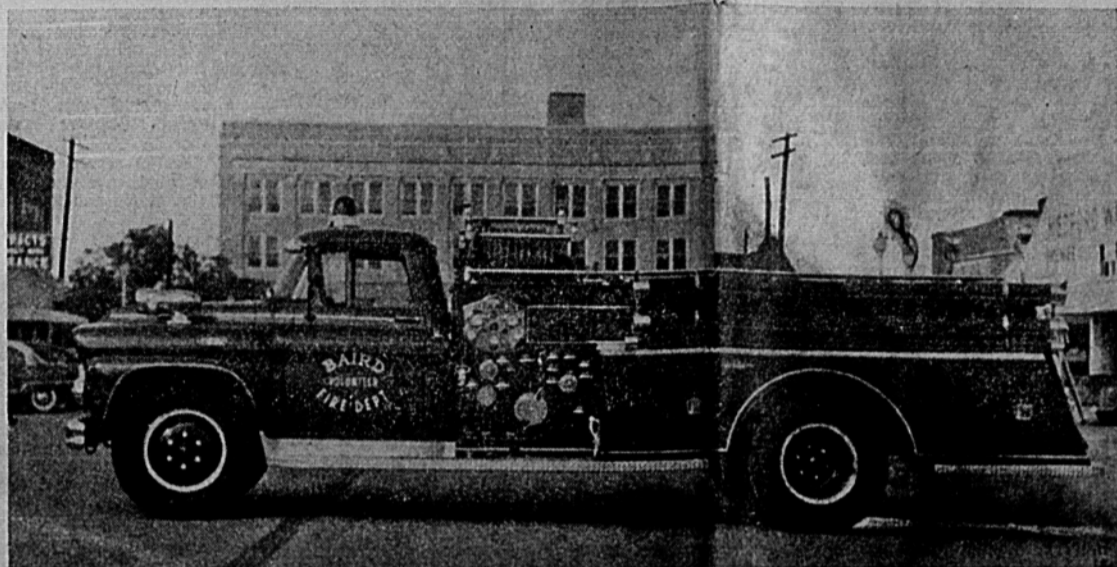

Jerry Jones was home from Denton this week end to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garvin Jones, and also to attend homecoming at Cisco Junior College.

Don't forget that Saturday is the date slated for the annual Delphian Club Art and Hobby Show. Place this year is the American Legion Hall and there will be divisions in the show for both youth and adults with something of interest to everyone, whether he's a collector, an artist, or just appreciative of these things.

Have you seen the beautiful lamps in the Lawrence Drug window? They were designed and created by Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Porter of Admiral community. The Porters are "rock hounds" of the first order and now have complete equipment for developing their hobby to its fullest possibilities.

Happy birthday to three old Novemberites — Johnny and Tommy, the Higgins twins, cel-

Little Leaguers Thank Citizens

The Baird Little League would like to extend their thanks to everyone for the splendid cooperation they received on their Bottle Drive and Chill Supper.

The Little Leaguers made $84.58 on the bottle drive, which means there were lots of bottles available for them. The Chill Supper cleared $97.26, so everyone connected with the Baird Little League were real happy about the way everyone in town turned out to support them in their effort to build a new park.

There has been several donations thus far toward the park, and a good start has been made. Of course, there is still a long way to go, and it is hoped that everyone will continue to support the Little Leaguers.

Again we want to take this opportunity to thank everyone who, in any way, contributed toward the chill supper, the bottle drive and to the Little League in general. Next summer you will be rewarded ten-fold when you see the number of little boys participating in Little League.

E. L. Reese, president.
Baird Little League.

County Students Getting Polio Shots

Second round of shots being given against polio is now on in Callahan County.

The first round of shots in Callahan County schools was given about a month ago. County Health Officer Stubblefield is being assisted by Dr. Evans of Clyde and Dr. Mikeska of Cross Plains.

About 60 students in the county have taken no shots, according to County Supt. L. C. Cash. "The bulk — 1700 — have had shots or are in the process of taking them," he said. Several have had second and third shots.

Vaccine is sent from Austin and given free to all pupils by the physicians, assisted by County Nurse Mrs. J. L. Ault.

Doctors are giving their service because they realize the importance of immunization against the dread disease, Cash said. "Schools are expressing appreciation to them for their services."

Patrons receiving livestock cards are requested to complete and return them to the mail box. Cards will then be returned to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service in Austin. Information from this survey is used in estimating numbers of cattle, hogs, sheep and chickens on Texas farms and ranches. This annual survey has been a joint undertaking of the Post Office and the Department of Agriculture since 1924.

The Callahan County Farmers Co-Operative Inc. has handled 3,000,000 pounds of locally grown milo this season, according to Ray Alderman, general manager.

An additional 6,000,000 pounds will be handled by the co-op that has been purchased in other areas in West Texas. It will be processed in the local plant.

The co-op has been paying $1.60 per hundred pounds, which is considerably higher than is paid in most places in West Central Texas.

Pecan Orchard Opens Saturday, Nov. 14

The large pecan orchard, located on the B. B. Barry ranch, known as the old Bryant Orchard, will be open to the public for harvesting Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 14 and 15, according to Cecil Prickett, who lives on the ranch.

Prickett stated the pecans are larger and meatier than last year, and the yield is expected to be about the same as last year.

Pecans Profitable For City of Clyde

The City of Clyde incidentally got into the pecan business this fall, according to L. M. Green, City councillor.

Approximately 1,000 pounds of Burkett pecans on the long line of trees paralleling the Texas & Pacific Railroad tracks and owned by the city were gathered on the halves. The 500 pounds the city got, it sold for 50 cents a pound, which brought $250 into the city treasury.

The yield this season was lighter than last but the nuts are larger, meatier and fuller, Green says.

Quarterback Roland Smith passed to left end Wilson Little for three touchdowns and halfback Larry Aldridge blasted across for two more to lead the Jim Ned Indians to a 38-16 victory over the Baird Bears at Tuscola Friday night.

Larry Aldridge sped 75 yards to put the Indians out in front in the first period. McMillan's two points made it 8-0.

In the second period, Smith tossed 15 yards to Little and McMillan converted to make it 16-0 as the teams left the field at halftime.

In the third period, it was Smith to Little again on a 30-yarder. McMillan again made the two points.

In the fourth Smith passed to Little on a 23 yard play and also passed to Little for the conversion. Aldridge capped the Jim Ned scoring from four yards out to make the 38 points. Try for extra point failed.

Dale Coley scored both Bear TDs. The first was from 13 yards out and the second from the one yard line. He also converted after one TD.

The Bears wind up the 1959 season tonight at home against the Gorman Panthers. Gorman and Jim Ned are tied in district play, and a win for Gorman tonight will mean much to them. Game time is 7:30 at the Bears Den.

New Market For Pork Products

Pork products packed in cans containing from twelve ounces to three pounds will soon appear in markets throughout the nation. These products will be new in flavor and texture and will include ham, pork shoulder picnics, loins and beef and pork luncheon meats, all of which have been marketed in larger cans for some time.

Roy Snyder, extension meats specialist, says the new all-meat canned products are not heated as high as is the practice for products in small containers now on the market, and will correspond closely to the flavor and texture found in the larger cans.
The decision to allow cured pork to be marketed in small cans under three pounds without pressure cooking was made only after several days of careful study by the USDA had provided assurance of the safety of such products. Snyder pointed out that over 500 million pounds of these products in the larger cans have been merchan-dised successfully each year in the U. S.

These ready-to-eat pork and luncheon meat products are curried prior to packing and cooked in the can so as to have an internal temperature of at least 150 degrees F, which is not a sterilizing as usually used when canning some of our other food products. Therefore, the canned product must be refrigerated after this heating. Labels for these products must be approved by USDA's Meat Inspection Division officials before use and will bear prominently the statement
"Perishable -- Keep Under Refrigeration" on each principal display panel.
The specialist warns that dealers and homemakers should store these products in a refrigerator. Meat packing officials have indicated that this new outlet should stimulate the sale of pork products because of the fine flavor and texture that can be delivered in a convenient form.

Trusts have many advantages.
A trust may be used to provide income for persons unable to support themselves, to provide funds for a child's education, as a means of establishing an annuity, or to provide a gift for a charitable institution.

In these days of high taxes,
a trust may be utilized to minimize the tax burden. If carefully planned, a trust may decrease income and inheritance taxes.

A trust arrangement works roughly in this manner. A person who desires to create a trust is called a grantor. The grantor chooses a trustee. The trustee may be a bank, an individual, or a trust company.
The grantor through a trust instrument tells the trustee how to distribute the trust property or income. The trustee will then manage and distribute the trust proceeds or property in whatever manner the grantor desires.

A very common arrangement
is to place the property in trust with directors to pay the income from the property to a wife for her life, and on her death the trust is to end and the property is to be distributed to the gran-tor's children.

An interesting type of trust is that which is sometimes called a spendthrift trust. This arrangement whereby one sets up a certain sum of money to be given out to another at a definite rate per month or per year,
or under definite restrictions.

This type of trust is generally used in wills where a person desires to leave money to an individual, but feels that the individual is not capable of properly caring for the money and that if left to them in full that the party receiving the money will spend and waste the money and not receive the maximum benefits from it.

Trust property quite often consists of securities. The law

NEWS ITEMS FROM PUTNAM

SCHOOL NEWS

Another phase of the American Heritage program, the value and importance of citizenship, was presented to a group of Putnam High School students on Wednesday, Nov. 4, when they witnessed a naturalization ceremony in U. S. District Court at Abilene. The solemn and impressive proceedings, presided over by Judge Joseph Estes, ended with the granting of U. S. Citizenship to 16 applicants from England, Canada, Greece, Germany, Mexico, Japan and Korea. Speaking especially to the applicants, Edward King, a member of the Taylor County Bar Association, gave a very informative discussion of the part Texans played in 1845 in becoming citizens en masse of the United States.

Students from Putnam classes, accompanied by Mrs. Lee Ivey, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Weldon Isenhower and John D. Isenhower, were: Gayle Burnam, Joan Hamrick, Kathy Ivey, Linda Isenhower, Carolyn White, Joe Bently, Marvin Henry, Ricky Isenhower, Conrad Buchanan, Johnny Rouse, Eldon Jones, Gerald Donaway, William Hamrick, Vernon Hock and Jimmie Kennedy.

Mrs. Ivey attended a conference on Social Studies and Business Education held on Saturday at Hardin-Simmons University. One phase of the conference was a panel of three speakers presenting the topic Promoting an Interest in Our Heritage. Keynote speaker was Dr. Ralph Steen, a native of Clyde, now president of Stephen F. Austin College at Nacogdoches, who spoke on The Place of the Social Sciences in our Society.

Dr. Steen, who is the author of 12 textbooks on Texas history and government, is president of the Texas Historical Association, which in turn sponsors Junior Historian Chapters in Texas schools. The Putnam Chapter, organized by Mrs. Ivey, with Mrs. Fred Heyser as co-sponsor, has for one of its projects the collecting of a special group of Texas books for use in the library. Several of Dr. Steen's books are included in the group.

Three members of the Senior class, Barbara Archer, Beth Isenhower and Jimmie Kennedy were guests of Mrs. John Petty and Mrs. Weldon Isenhower when the Moran Amity Club presented Mrs. L. E. Dudley of Abilene in a review of the book The Privilege Is Mine.

Putnam Panthers, playing the Abilene Christian College High School Friday night, lost by a score of 69-51. Ricky Isenhower was high point man, scoring 12 points for Putnam. The B team won by a score of 41-18, with Conrad Buchanan scoring 14 points.

Putnam will host the Avoca Mustangs Friday. We hope the 13th will be lucky for Putnam. The game will be played in the Putnam gym, with the girls beginning play at 7 p. m. We would like for everyone to come and support Putnam to victory. Putnam high school boys lost the game to Noodle 34-70. High point man for Putnam was Lynn Tatom with 15 points. The girls were also defeated 35-58. Gayle Burnam scored 13 points.

The girls are proud of their new basketball suits of blue and white satin, which they wore for the first time Monday night.

I Give You Texas

By BOYCE HOUSE

My respects for the departments of the Federal Government has always been high — but it has been subjected to doubt recently. I had always thought that they preserved records with the greatest of care — but you be the judge.

When I was a small boy, my father and I lived in Del Rio one summer. He had a boxball (similar to bowling) alley in a large tent on a corner in the business district. As his health was impaired and he rested much of the time, I ran the place.

There was a "revolution" in Mexico — this was in 1908 — and many refugees swarmed across the Rio Grande and took up their abode in the Latin-American section of Del Rio. At the same time, American troops were assigned to the city to keep an eye on any infringement of American neutrality by combatants.

It was thrilling to a boy to see these soldiers, especially the cavalry troopers as they rode, or strolled around. Some patronized the boxball alley. I recall one — a lieutenant, I believe — who was an especially dashing fellow, with the front of his hat brim pressed against the crown, giving a stream-lined effect. (This was the style of Roosevelt's Rough Riders of the Spanish-American War.) He was a handsome chap, with an eye for the ladies — and they likewise directed semi-averted glances in his direction. There was one young lady for whom I entertained a secret affection — she was very pretty and only about twice my age — and when the lieutenant began squiring her around, I lost much of my admiration for him. However, that wasn't what I set out to write about.

My favorite among all the troopers was a corporal — Fritz V. Lindrude. (That may not be the exact spelling.) He had cards with his name and title printed on them. I have an idea that he was from Minnesota or perhaps the Dakotas, although I can not recall that he ever said.

He was older than most of the other soldiers and was almost bald-headed. He would play boxball and we became friends. When business was dull, he would invite me to a nearby ice cream parlor where I had a strawberry milk-shake. I must confess I don't remember what his selection was.

One day, he invited me to a baseball game. He was the pitcher; either two service teams or perhaps a military nine and the town team were opponents. The corporal was popular with the spectators and pitched his team to victory, one youthful fan shouting loud encouragement.

If he is still living, he would be at least 80 years of age.

I thought that he would be happy to hear from the lad of Del Rio days and I would send him one of my books. So I confidently wrote to my Congressman — Jim Wright of Fort Worth — and he reported that inquiry revealed that there was no record of my friend in the War Department files. What inefficiency! What are we paying taxes for? No record of Corporal Fritz V. Lindrude! How can a man be sure there was ever such a person as U. S. Grant — much less Winfield Scott?

The War Department blithely claims to list every Union soldier who was in the Battle of Gettysburg — including all the horse-handlers and sutlers, almost 100 years ago — yet can not come up with any record of my friend, a mere 50 years back, just yesterday you might say.

Consensus Questionnaires Mailed to Farmers

Questionnaires for the 1959 Census of Agriculture are now in the mail and will be in the hands of local farmers within a few days. It was announced by Field Director James W. Stroud of the Census Bureau's regional office at Dallas.

The farm census questionnaires are being mailed from Chicago, with the distribution timed so

That the report forms will reach farmers about a week ahead of the date when census takers will begin the field canvass.

The advance mailing is for the purpose of giving farm operators time to consult their records before filling in the answers required by the questionnaires and getting them ready for the census takers to pick up. This procedure is designed to insure greater accuracy of reporting and to save time both for the farmer and the census taker when the latter calls at the farm.

The 1959 Census of Agriculture questionnaire is designed to provide information on the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock production and inventories, farm values, and mortgage debt. On the average, each farmer is asked about 100 questions many of which can be answered by simply checking yes or no.

Tailoring Course Offered Adults

Miss Bertha Byrd, homemaking teacher in Baird high school, states that the homemaking program in each community is set up to serve the adult public, as well as in-school youth.

At present, it is her plan to begin a tailoring course for all interested adults, to serve that phase of her program. The class will meet from 12:30 to 2:30 each Wednesday afternoon in the clothing lab of the homemaking department.

The department has six electric sewing machines and the class will be conducted so that some time will be spent in demonstration of correct procedures by guided class work, then each may work at home up to the next problem. Special equipment needed will be furnished by the school.

All who are interested are asked to please call Miss Byrd at the high school, or meet in the homemaking lab Wednesday, Nov. 18 at 12:30 to organize the class and discuss selection of patterns and materials. If these hours are inconvenient, please call Miss Byrd, and if enough are interested, perhaps other hours can be arranged. At least six women are needed to begin the class, Miss Byrd stated.

Walker and Dave Smith. Radio time will be 1:45 p. m.

The Texas Tech-University of Houston game will be described from Lubbock by Dave Russell and Jack Dale. Broadcast time will be 1:45 p. m.

The Baylor-USC game will be broadcast from Los Angeles by Eddie Hill and Jim Wiggins. Radio time will be 3:45 p. m.

Deer & Duck Seasons Set To Begin Soon

Two major hunting seasons will get underway in Texas in the next ten days, according to the executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

The duck season will open at noon, Nov. 13. The bag limit will be 4 ducks daily, but not more than one can be a canvasback or redhead. The duck inventory in Texas at present time is very good, according to waterfowl biologists, who have been making surveys throughout the State. Many of the ducks are young ones, however, indicating the hatch in the nesting grounds.

Goose season already is underway, having opened at sunrise, October 26. The duck season will end January 1, and the goose season will end January 8. Waterfowl hunters are required to have a $3 Federal duck stamp, which can be bought at the Post Office.

The basic bag limit is on two bucks. However, doe shooting will be permitted in a number of counties again this year, which will permit hunters to take either bucks or doe.

SWEET AND SOUR

celebrated this month and so did Raymond Allman -- all of them are fifteen and high school freshmen. Trades Day rocks along into another Christmas season and if you want to really show your appreciation for this Saturday get-together -- tell your own merchant about it -- tell him you like this old fashioned Saturday party and that the time and expense he goes to to make Baird a livelier place is just the spirit like in a business man. Trades Day merchants are building Baird, so tell them how you feel about it.

Elizabeth Alexander is the only gal we know who is just zany about Christmas as we are -- only she's a jump ahead of our team. Elizabeth has fruit cakes baked, and house 'n yard decorations ready to go at the first drop of a jingle bell. From what we can gather those decoration are gonna be "out of this solar system beautiful" this season too.

So in closing a sort of "please listen to Bo Pruitt and his gang" reckon we can have those Christmas lights up early this year -- two weeks 'till Thanksgiving and that not long, Bo, if you say it fast.

Baird Garden Club In McGowen Home

The Baird Garden Club met Tuesday, Nov. 3, in the home of Mrs. John McGowen, with Mrs. Davis Harrell and Mrs. C. Z. Anderson as co-hostesses. Mrs. W. V. Walls, president, presided for a short business meeting. The Plaque committee announced that the club plaque had been placed in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Alphin for the month of November. Roll call was answered with scripture verses. Mrs. Davis Harrell and Mrs. I. E. Warren presented the program. Mrs. D. C. Cox and Mrs. Dick Young were welcomed back into the club.

During the social hour, delicious refreshments were enjoyed by 20 members and the following guests: Mrs. Henry McGowen, Mrs. H. C. McGowen and Mrs. C. D. Leon, Abilene; Mrs. Scott and Mrs. M. C. McGowen of Baird.

Callahan Range Conditions Good

Glenn Green, Callahan County farm agent, reports ranges are better now than at this time last year. Green says that wet weather did considerable damage to the peanut crop ungathered. Some peanuts left too late in the ground have been sprouting. Some peanut hay is being baled.

Baptist To Host Fellowship Dinner

Wednesday evening, November 25, at 6:30 p. m., there will be a church-wide Fellowship dinner and Thanksgiving service at the Baird First Baptist Church. The dinner will be in Fellowship Hall.

Everyone who attends services of any kind, and their families, are most cordially invited to attend. Each family is requested to bring a Thanksgiving basket dinner and join in an old-fashioned fellowship and worship service.

A more complete announcement and program will appear in the next issue of The Baird Star.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation to all my friends and neighbors who visited me, sent flowers and cards of well wishes and in any way contributed to my well being while I was recently in the hospital at Baird. To the nurses, cooks, and others of the hospital staff, I am grateful. To all thanks. My wife and family join me in these thanks.

Callahan Tax Levy Over One-Half Paid

Approximately 55 per cent of the current tax levies for Callahan County have been paid, according to Tee Bauleh, county tax assessor-collector.

Big oil companies and the Texas & Pacific and Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroads normally liquidate their taxes in October, Bauleh said.
