CHIEF'S NAMING VETOED

Legal move forces vote reconsideration

In an unusual, but apparently legal, move Thursday, Mayor Pro Tem Johnny Coker temporarily shelved a June 28 vote of the city council which named Billy Hamilton chief of the Iowa Park Police Department.

Using what is termed in the Texas Municipal League handbook for council members as a "veto," Coker explained he is only seeking an opportunity for the council to reconsider Hamilton's appointment as chief.

Effective of Coker's filing of his written veto with the city secretary, Robert Dean is once again acting chief and Hamilton is again an officer. Hamilton has taken a vacation, after hearing of the action.

The letter was filed with Ithama Jolly, secretary, approximately 2:30 p.m. Thursday, and Coker met with all members of the department at 5:15 to explain what actions he had taken and the temporary reaction it had on the department's chain of command.

"In the absence of Mayor Charlie Lee, and as Mayor Pro Tem, I hereby exercise my power of veto over the subject action," stated the letter.

"My reasons are partially as follows:

"1. Too many questions were left unanswered during Monday night's meeting.

"2. I believe a closer investigation should be accomplished of the allegations made toward Mr. Hamilton by Mr. Dean and seemingly confirmed by Mr. (Steve) Morath.

"3. Citizens have contacted me indicating that they can confirm that collaboration was involved by a portion of the Council to place Mr. Hamilton in this position.

"4. I believe to a certain degree that personal interests are interfering with the Council's responsibility to act on behalf of the general citizenry.

"5. In addition, serious questions have arisen from citizens concerning the decisions enacted by the Council that Mr. Gilmore's vote determined the outcome (in light of his status in the courts). I am asking our attorney, Roger Lee, to make a determination of this matter, and render an opinion.

"It is unfair to place Mr. Hamilton in this position until the Council and the Mayor can arrive at a more agreeable decision from the body as a whole. This would only lead to a potentially short tenure as police chief, and a less than desirable working relationship with the Council, the Mayor and the City Administrator.

"I am hereby instructing the City Administrator to reinstate Mr. Dean as acting Police Chief and Mr. Hamilton as an officer pending further action," the letter stated.

Coker explained that he began his actions Tuesday, after studying the legal portion of his handbook which concerned the situation of veto. Knowing the mayor was out of town on vacation, he contacted the city attorney to confirm his standing.

Prior to filing the letter, however, he said he wanted to discuss the situation with the mayor, who did not arrive at his Iowa destination until late Wednesday. He was told that if he wanted to take the action and if it were legal, that the mayor would support him, Coker said.

He said he telephoned the mayor once more Thursday to inform him he was going to take the action. "I felt it was a courtesy to let him know what I was doing," Coker said. "He did not know what I was doing until our first telephone call."

Coker said he abstained voting on a motion by George Hammonds to name Dean as chief, but he agreed with the mayor and voted for Hammond's motion to table any action to name a chief until some response could be received from a state-wide advertisement the city had placed to fill the vacancy. "I would have made the tabling motion myself if he hadn't," Coker said.

A police department personnel meeting had been called by Hamilton at 4 p.m. to discuss departmental changes. Coker asked that the meeting be rescheduled until 5:15, so he could be present and explain his actions and also answer questions, which he did.

Responding to a question posed by the Leader, Morath said "I didn't initiate it (the veto action). I knew it was in the handbook but I didn't say anything about it or initiate it. In fact, at no time has the council ever asked for my recommendation for police chief."

During the June 28 meeting, the mayor explained in open meeting to the council and the audience that he was not in favor of taking any action on naming a chief at that time, because he wanted to see if any response would come from the city's advertisement. He said he received his copy of the publication that morning.

Lee also said it was his understanding that the majority of the council wanted to vote that evening. Though he did not name the majority, it was apparently Bud Thompson, Bill Gilmore and Herman Mahler, since Hammonds and Coker voted to table the subject and were out-voted by the other three.

It was also the trio's vote which put Hamilton in the chief's position by a 3-1 vote with Coker abstaining.

Reconsideration of appointment of Hamilton as chief is on the agenda for Monday night's council meeting.

CONGRESSMAN JACK HIGHTOWER VISITS ... with Rev. and Mrs. Norman Nettleton at Rotary Club meeting.

Government having money problems, too

"Getting maximum use from our tax money is the biggest job facing government today," U.S. Congressman Jack Hightower told a gathering of Rotarians and their guests Wednesday during a noon luncheon held at Iowa Park's Recreational Activities Center.

Approximately 40 members and guests were in attendance to hear Hightower, representative for the 13th District in Texas. The meeting was officiated by Rotary Club members Bob Cole and Bob Aulds.

Hightower, whose constituency includes 33 counties in north and central Texas, told the group of events during the last session of Congress leading up to the July 4th recess, including the budget and aid to weather-stricken farmers in Texas.

"I wish I could stand here and tell you nothing but good news," he began. "But we are in some difficult times."

Saying he would try and not sound "too pessimistic" during the course of the speech, Hightower explained that it took over six months to pass a budget carrying a $100-billion deficit. "The only alternative was a budget with a $182-billion deficit," he said. "So at the time the approved budget seemed to be the best one."

Hightower further mentioned that Congress was able to trim almost $40-billion from the previous fiscal budget, but that the effects were just now surfacing.

"In the past, agencies would approach the appropriations committee, of which I am proud to be a member, and when they submitted their budgets, we would ask, 'is this all you need.'" "Now, when they approach us, we ask them for help," he added. "We ask them, 'what are some things you think can be cut?'"

"Agriculture has its back to the wall," Hightower continued, explaining that he opposed the recent farm bill, which passed by two votes, because "I had deemed it inadequate to handle the situation."

"It is a very naive approach for Congress to say, 'Oh, everything will work itself out.'" he added.

Reconsideration of appointing a chief of police is one of five items listed on Monday's city council agenda.

The regularly-scheduled meeting is to begin at 7 p.m. in council chambers, and for the second consecutive time, a standing room only audience is expected.

The reconsideration issue was created by mayor pro tem Johnny Coker's veto of council's June 28 action when Billy Hamilton was named chief by a 3-1 vote. By charter, after such action the topic must be considered at the next meeting of the council.

At the last meeting, five applicants were interviewed by council members before naming of a chief. Four applicants are current members of the local department and one was from Wichita Falls by a man with some 20 years experience on the Department of Public Safety.

Mayor Charlie Lee, prior to voting on a chief, asked that the council delay the action to await response to advertising in a state-wide publication which had just been released in the mails. Later a motion to delay voting was turned down by a 3-2 vote.

Since that meeting, four applications have been received from various points in the state, including Dallas, Deer Park, San Antonio and Waxahachie. City administrator Steve Morath said all four applications were a direct response to the advertisement.

OTHER BUSINESS
In other business, council members will consider action on three ordinances.

One ordinance would provide for temporary occupancy of travel trailers; one would repeal the city's prohibition of vehicular driving on lake dams; and increasing the park board membership.

Under other business, council will consider a proposal to abolish discounts for early tax payments.

Chief's appointment on Monday's agenda

Kidnapping report in error, but three charges are result

What was originally reported as a kidnapping here Thursday afternoon turned out to not be kidnapping, but the outshoot of the incident resulted in charges being filed in three different courts and a minor accident.

Earnie York, 24, of Burkburnett, was charged locally for alluding police officers, in county court for criminal trespass and in district court for assault on a police officer.

After receiving a report of a child having been kidnapped, and all police units involved in a search for the vehicle involved, officers learned that York and his wife were having a family squabble. The wife was with her mother on Victoria, and York reportedly had picked up his stepson, who voluntarily got in his car.

During a frantic search for the vehicle, mostly in the southern part of the city, one patrol car was involved in a minor collision with another vehicle, driven by Mrs. William E. Hoffman, at an intersection on South Wall.

Mrs. Hoffman was treated and released from Sheppard AFB hospital and the officer, Tommy Adams, also received treatment at the clinic and was released. Both received multiple bruises. Damage to the police vehicle was minor, while damage to the Hoffman auto was said to be extensive.

The chase for the York vehicle began when officer Pat Hannah had York's vehicle stopped. As Capt. Robert Dean was approaching as a back-up, York sped away, and the search began.

During the chase, York returned the boy to his grandmother's, but evaded police until later that evening. He was taken into custody in the 300 block of Pecan.

Investigation of the accident was turned over to the Department of Public Safety, according to Dean.

OTHER POLICE ACTIVITIES

Of the eight reports filed at the police station during the past week, most were concerned with criminal mischief but some were of thefts.

Sometime between 4:20 and 5:59 a.m. Friday, someone entered E&S Exxon service station on West Highway and reportedly took $1,635 worth of equipment, including an air chisel, air gun, floor jack and numerous hand tools. Entry was gained through a window, according to the report.

A report was filed by Michael Phillips that someone took two eight-track tapes from his car early Friday morning. The car was parked at 1310 Emma.

Teresa Rich, 714 W. Texas, reported two window-breaking incidents during the same evening. One patio door was broken at 1:30 a.m. Monday and another at 6:30. The doors were valued at $250 each.

Other breakings were reported last Wednesday, when two windows were broken at 1208 S. Wall, according to E.P. Mieir; a plate glass window at 368 Texaco between 12:30 and 1:49 a.m. Saturday, costing $250; and one reported Sunday included an auto window at 510 E. Alameda, reported by Terry Johnson.

Another glass was broken Sunday, when a subject identified as Sam Swift was arrested for public intoxication, placed in the police patrol car, and allegedly kicked out a door window.

News in brief

Big drop noted in building permits

After the big month in May for building permits, June's report was almost backwards.

The May report was a whopping $116,200, raising the year's total to a respectable $637,106.

But the five permits issued by city hall during the past month amounted to only $11,700. That made the year's sum $648,806.

Permits issued during June included:

Eddie Grace, 1215 S. Wall, conversion, $2,000;
Robert K. Cook, 609 Coleman, addition, $5,800;
Foy Nivens, 711 E. Jefferson, repair, $2,000;
G.W. Milner 701 W. Magnolia, conversion, $1,000;
Terry Ralston, 313 E. Aldine, addition, $900.

Cemetery group to meet Sunday

The Highland Cemetery Association will hold the quarterly meeting at 2:30 p.m. Sunday at First Christian Church. Robert Wilcox, president, will conduct the business meeting and urges all who have loved ones buried in the cemetery, and other interested persons, to attend.

Callahan, Cook nuptials are solemnized Saturday

A beautiful expression of family love and closeness was seen during a late Saturday afternoon wedding at the Church of God. During the double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. W.F. Williams to unite Miss Karen Marie Callahan and Dessler Dion Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Avery G. Callahan stood by their daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lee Cook of Wichita Falls, stood by their son as their only attendants.

Mrs. Kevin Callahan, sister-in-law of the bride, pianist, presented "Love Theme" and "Sometimes" for prelude selections. She heralded the entrance of the bride and her father, who escorted her to the altar, with the Bridal Chorus from the opera, Lohengrin, and played Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream" for the departure of the bride and groom from the sanctuary. Mrs. Callahan also furnished accompaniment for a vocal solo by Mrs. George Kelton, cousin of the bride, who sang "One Hand, One Heart" from West Side Story, after the bride's father gave her in marriage for her parents.

Randy Battle, cousin of the bride, vocalist, sang "There Is Love" just before the entrance of the bride and her father, and "Wedding Benediction" during the lighting of the unity candle after the minister had pronounced the bride and groom man and wife. Mrs. Randy Battle furnished piano accompaniment for both solos.

Vows were repeated before a brass archway trimmed with boxwood greenery, white silk mums and white ceramic doves flanked by tall white wicker baskets filled with white silk mums and gladioli, pastel-colored gypsophila and Boston fern. The reverent atmosphere that keyed the altar setting was enhanced in the lower altar through a three-branched candlestick holding a center candle that did not provide illumination until after the ceremony when the bride and groom set flame to it to seal their vows, by using the candles that their mothers had lighted on their way to the nuptial area.

Kevin Callahan and Tim Cook, brothers of the bride and groom, ushered guests to their seats.

The bride was delicately beautiful in a white Chantilly lace gown worn over peau de soie. The natural waist bodice was fashioned with a high collar and a capelet that covered her shoulders and arms above the elbows, then dipped to the waistline in both front and back. The capelet was accented with a ruffle of lace that gave a yoke effect and a ruffled border. The full skirt fell softly to floor length. She wore a halo of dainty pastel pink, blue, yellow and orchid silk flowers dotted with pearls.

The pastel colors were repeated in roses that adorned the long white satin streamers falling from the bride's silk bouquet created of pink and burgundy roses, yellow and white jonquils, white stephanotis and blue forget-me-nots. She completed her costume with bridal traditions. She carried a half dime in her bouquet that had belonged to her late paternal grandfather for "something old" and wore a cross bought in Italy that belonged to Mrs. Kevin Callahan, her sister-in-law for "something borrowed." She kept the "something new" and "something blue" sentiments with her gown and garter.

The reception that followed the wedding was hosted by the bride's parents in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

Miss Darla Battle, cousin of the bride, invited guests to sign the wedding book with a white plume pen at a table attractively draped with floor length white satin overlaid with light green chiffon covered with white angel lace. The table held the pastel net rice bags tied with yellow ribbons in a wicker basket accented with a handle decorated with flowers in the light shades and wedding bells. Miss Shaundra Cook, sister of the groom, handed out the rice bags.

The bride's table was especially eye-pleasing in the setting. It was draped with pure white silk overlaid with white angel lace caught with miniature nosegays of pastel-colored silk flowers in swags at the top. Her three-tiered white cake followed the delicate theme and colors emphasized in the wedding. It featured intricate and unusual sculpting designs intermingled with clusters of lavender, pink, blue and yellow drop flowers around the layers. One set of filigree dividers and the top ornament where a bride and groom dressed in formal white stood before a beaded heart trimmed with tulle puffs and pearl-centered pastel flowers, enhanced the delicate air.

The silver punch service, a floral centerpiece created of carnations and pixie carnations in the chosen light colors, baby's breath and fern arranged in a romantic cherub container, and napkins printed with names of the bride and groom and their wedding date completed the picture. Miss Florence Battle, aunt of the bride, and Miss Grace Churchman presided at the table during the reception.

The groom's table where Mrs. Tim Cook served refreshments was laid with beige lace over a dark brown skirt. It held the groom's large Bible, a brown spiral candle in an inverted hurricane globe decorated with cascades of green and brown grapes, brown wheat spikes and flowers supported by a gold candlestick, the groom's cake, and silver coffee service.

The chocolate sheet cake was iced in white and bordered with chocolate. The top was decorated with two chocolate hearts encircled with roses, on one was written "Karen and Dion" and "July 3, 1982" was written on the other. Stringwork and white ceramic doves were additional cake decorations.

Houseparty members were Mmes. Luther Skinner, Kenneth L. Battle and Roland Battle.

The bride was graduated from Iowa Park High School where she was in band and A Cappella Choir. The groom was graduated from Hirschi High School and summa cum laude from Midwestern State University where he belonged to Alpha Chi and Phi Eta Sigma. He is employed by United Food Stores Inc. They will live in Iowa Park.

Following the reception, the couple departed on their wedding trip to Dallas. For travel, the bride chose a two-piece yellow polyester dress. The blouse was fashioned with a round lace neck, ruffled lace cuffs on the three-quarter length sleeves and matching belt. The skirt was designed with panels accented with tiny white flowers clinging to pale

Letters to the Editor

Should sign name

Dear Mr. Hamilton:
In response to "Name Withheld" - to be so critical & wanting to be a part of the community why did the person not have the nerve to sign their name publicly. The next move this person can do is run for a public office and become an active part to change things publicly.

Then concerning Bill Gilmore - being Christian people, the Citizens of Iowa Park I have been raised among all realize everyone makes errors. Some people admit their errors - some don't. But the secret to a small loving town is to stand by your friends in good times and bad. We can learn by each others mistakes and forget & forgive. None of us are perfect and if we were we wouldn't be on earth. It's time we united and start helping each other through rough times. None of us should be ashamed Bill is on our council or our friend - just be proud there is a man here we can help in a time of need by just being a friend to him. Who knows you may be the next to need a friend.

Sincerely, Kathy Garcia

Bravo author!

Bravo Lita Watson! Your letter to the editor last week concerning the City Council dilemma was well done. I'm sure some people will say that I have no business commenting about the situation since I live outside the city limits and am not eligible to vote in city elections. The fact that I live 1 1/2 miles outside the city limits makes me no less an Iowa Parkan in mine or anyone else's eyes. I've put over 30 years of my life into this community and that should be basis enough on which to be allowed to voice some opinions and observations - so here goes.

One of the City Council members reminds me a great deal of Richard Nixon. I didn't respect him very much either, but at least he had enough self respect for himself and the country to resign when he got caught with his hand in the cookie jar. Looks like Iowa Park will be stuck with its Watergate and the humiliation that goes along with it because the person involved doesn't seem to be planning on leaving town (involuntarily) or office either. You see, it's almost guaranteed that anytime a confessed felon enters into "plea bargaining" he is assured of receiving a suspended sentence and never having to leave the comforts of his home. This person has already received a suspended sentence on the theft portion of his fiasco. As far as the so called "opinion poll" to see whether more people want him to resign or stay in office, I say "Bull!" I'd feel more comfortable if some disinterested third party were counting the ballots. Having the person who's directly involved in a situation poll and form conclusions from an "opinion survey" makes about as much sense as some of the other stuff that has been going on in the Council Room, so I don't guess I should really be surprised.

Enough on that councilman; now let me make a few comments on another one. I again will not mention names, but you will know who I'm talking about. A short time ago a question surfaced about possible violation of the Texas Open Meetings Law. This astute councilman, in all his wisdom, made a comment to the effect, "... If I can't get together and talk to people, then they (whoever they is) can shove it." I think that comment speaks to the person's level of intellect, at least in the area of the democratic process. The Open Meetings Law is one of the basic cornerstones of the democratic process. It states, in essence, that elected officials have the duty and responsibility of coming to meetings with open, unbiased minds to discuss and decide issues on their own merits. These meetings must be open to the public - to whom the elected officials are responsible. In essence, the councilman in question has told you, the people of Iowa Park, to "shove it". You are the "they" he was referring to, whether he knew it or not. Now in the Soviet Union, they don't have open meetings or laws to mandate them. They, the ruling body (councilmen if you will), simply get together over vodka and decide what's best for everyone. The citizens don't find out about those decisions until they have already been made. What kind of a country would we have if the elected officials in Congress met in secret, before the Legislature convened, and decided what laws would be passed, and then simply passed them with no discussion when they did convene. That, friends, is the reason for Open Meetings Laws and the protection they afford in a democracy.

So, where do we go from here? We all go to the polls everytime they open. The lack of integrity and common sense of the City Council is a prime example of what happens when there is so much voter apathy that a minority of the citizenry elect public officials. Ironically, those who don't vote usually gripe the loudest. As an office holder myself, I'd much rather be defeated by 100 percent of all voters than be elected by 5 percent of those qualified to vote. It's a shame that Mayor Lee doesn't have the privilege of working with as fine a group of people, overall, on the City Council as I have the privilege of working with on the School Board.

Sincerely,
Roy K Boutwell

Open letter

Open Letter to the Iowa Park City Council and the Citizens of Iowa Park;

As a taxpaying citizen of this city, I would like to express my opinion of this last city council meeting and of the circumstances that followed. I feel that it was one of the most underhanded deals, that I've ever seen executed. I don't know if Billy Hamilton will make the kind of chief of police this city wants or needs. Nobody does, because he was not given the chance to prove himself after being elected into the position, but I do know Mr. Hamilton as an individual and as a police officer and I feel for one that he would. He certainly has the qualifications, and he is a dedicated police officer, who knows his job and is a professional in every sense of the word. He at least deserves the chance to prove himself after being elected by the council members by a 3 to 1 vote, which I along with a lot of other citizens of this city who attended the meeting heard given. I see no reason why that vote should be vetoed, withdrawn or what ever and Mr. Bob Dean be put back in as acting chief of police. There are a few of our council members, who feel like Mr. Gilmore's vote should not be counted or recognized, because they call him a convicted felon. As long as Mr. Gilmore is on the city council, his vote does count, just as much as Mr. Hammond's, or Mr. Coker's. I personally don't care what Mr. Gilmore did, that is his own personal life & his own personal business dealings. As a city council member he does have the right to vote, and as long as what he did or does, does not interfere with his judgement on the city council, I feel like it is irreverant that he was convicted of a felon. Who are Mr. Hammond or Mr. Coker that they can pass judgement on someone else? "Judge not, unless ye be judged also." As for our Mayor, Mr. Charlie Lee, stating that he could not veto the vote given, then leaving town like he did and passing the buck to someone else, tells us what kind of man he is. I only hope he doesn't decide to run in the next election.

The only reason that I can see why Mr. Hammond or Mr. Coker do not want Mr. Hamilton to be chief of police is because he is not the kind of man who can be put in someones back pocket so to speak. Nor is he the kind of man who will say, when called upon to do his duty, "I'm sorry, but I can do nothing about it," which I have heard from our current acting chief, Bob Dean a number of times. Mr. Hamilton will look into the situation and will act accordingly. Mr. Hamilton works for the people.

If Mr. Hamilton is not put back in as our chief of police, which was his elected position as of last Monday night to begin with, then Patricia Hannah will also quit, the police department and this will be doing our city a great injustice. Officer Hannah is one of the best police officers this city has got. She is dedicated, honest and does her job with great professionalism. We can't afford to lose her.

When I just moved to Iowa Park, it didn't take me long to get the opinion, from listening to people who have lived here for years, that our police department was one big joke. Also a few personal incidents happened that convinced me they were right. We then got a few new police officers like officer Hannah & Roy Messick and along with Mr. Bill Hamilton - the outlook on our police department started to change. Now because of the railroad job done on Bill Hamilton by our city council, it is one big joke again.

Working with the public every day, I hear people say they want Mr. Hamilton for chief, not Bob Dean. The only problem is they do not have the nerve to say anything where it counts. Speak up people! Do you want Mr. Dean who can do nothing, or do you want Mr. Hamilton who believes in the motto, "To protect and to serve"?

Wants resignation

TO THE IOWA PARK LEADER
OPEN LETTER TO MR. GILMORE

Regarding your plaintive letter to the people of Iowa Park: If you are so very sorry for the humiliation you have caused, why haven't you already resigned and stop humiliating the city? I strongly urge you to do so IMMEDIATELY!!!! I only wish you had resigned months ago!!! If you would not be allowed to elected to the position you hold, why should you be allowed to retain it??? Please resign!!!!!!

Citizen of Iowa Park

Loyal supporter

To The People of Iowa Park:

We count it our privilege to be friends with Bill Gilmore and his family. Bill's support, loyalty, and industriousness to the whole community - business, civic, and church - is well known.

Seeing the need in our church, Maryanne and Bill organized Chapel Church - a special Sunday morning worship service for children ages five through the fifth grade. Through their efforts and the help of a few other workers, about twenty children have made decisions for Christ during the past couple of years.

We are all human and make mistakes. Bill made the mistake of letting himself be drawn into a couple of schemes of another man's making. For this, he and his family has and are paying a high price. He is the same man as before. We see no reason why Bill should not be allowed to finish his elected term as city councilman with the support of all of the people who elected him.

Father, we call on all people of this community to see and recognize the facts of this situation - that Bill did make a couple of mistakes and has been man enough all along to admit them - and get on with the matter of working together for the best interest of us all.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

This situation surrounding who will be Iowa Park's new police chief, along with alderman Bill Gilmore's legal problems, has developed into the most explosive political and personal fracas I've seen in my 27 years of covering community news.

I've observed some real ballot box battles in races for city or school or county positions, to give me some insight in political infighting. And the greatest personality clashes have been in communities where wet-dry elections were being held.

But this one takes the cake. The lines have been drawn. Each side has its support. We've got petitions circulating, letters to the editor galore, coffee shops are doing a landslide business, telephones are buzzing, and backyard fences are being leaned on during lengthy discussions so long they are in real jeopardy.

And we've got an awful lot of people, doubtlessly in the majority, who haven't taken a side. But they are embarrassed as citizens of a community which is receiving so much publicity that is not complimentary or becoming.

Some long-lasting scars are developing. Those who have taken up the battle, some through almost blind loyalty, are creating ill feelings that will last the rest of their lives. We will have a community in which neighbors will not speak to each other, ever again. There is blame enough to go around. Who is right and who is wrong is no longer the point. I feel "right" will come out in the long run, though some damage could be experienced in our city government and will be short-lived because terms of office are short, when compared with one's lifetime.

What we need now is for cooler heads - our city's leaders to sit down and discuss the situation with open minds - arrive at a solution which is best for our community and not for their personal pride - so we can get back to a more normal community atmosphere.

And it should be done, post haste!

Leader letter policy explained

The Iowa Park Leader gladly accepts all letters to the editor, and will publish them if they are free from libel and space is available.

Letters should be in the Leader office by Tuesday to be published in Thursday's edition. They must be signed, but the author may request the name to be withheld if it is desired. The letter will be kept in our files for public inspection, however.

Besides the signatures [printed or typed signatures are not acceptable], the writer's address and telephone number should be included in order for the letter's authenticity to be determined.

Gilmore defines a "bedroom community." In my immediate neighborhood alone there are seven families who were in the military while living in Iowa Park and chose to remain after retirement. I think Mr. Gilmore fails to remember that the federal government adds funds to our school system for the children of military families. These families purchase from local businesses, pay taxes, are involved in public affairs and are good law abiding citizens.

Regarding Mr. Gilmore's "Perplexity" as to remain on the city council, I can only echo Lita Watson's words in the Letters to the Editor, July 1, 1982. Mr. Gilmore, while I feel sure you have accomplished some things for the betterment of our community during your tenure on the city council, I do not understand how, since in your own words you have "caused humiliation on the city, my friends and family," in all good faith you can justify to yourself and the community to continue. I request you resign.

Ladies swim expanded; lessons being offered

Because of an increased demand, the Iowa Park Bicentennial Swimming Pool is offering ladies swim five days a week from 11-12 in the morning, and an upcoming two-week swimming course.

The ladies swim, in the past held only two weeks from 11-12, has been increased to five days, from Monday through Friday, because of an outstanding turnout, said pool supervisor Jimmy Alsop. "Many of them are asking that we have the swim 30-minutes longer each morning," Alsop said. "We will if enough of them ask for it and we see that no money is being lost."

Another hot item offered by the bicentennial pool is the Red Cross certified swimming course, which will be held between July 19-30. The two-week course will have two sessions, one at 6 p.m. and the other at 7 p.m. Monday through Friday. Lessons will be offered for beginners, intermediate and advanced swimmers. The fee is $15.

Alsop also said the family swim night, held every Thursday from 6-9 p.m., is turning out exceptionally well, with 11 families present last week. There is no charge for the family, but singles are welcome to swim for the price of general admission, or $1.50. "But it is awful hard to find as good an attraction when it's for free," Alsop said.

Season passes can be purchased for $75 per season, or 10 tickets for $12.50. Kids ages five and under are admitted free, and, of course, general admission is $1.50.

The bicentennial pool is open from 1-6 p.m. seven days a week, and offers bookings for private parties, etc. any evening other than Thursday. More information can be obtained by calling 592-5022 during pool hours.

The pool also offers concessions, including hot sandwiches, candies, cokes and nachos.

ESPN, USFL Sign Exclusive Cable Deal

The United States Football League and the Entertainment and Sports Programming Network have entered into a firm two-year exclusive national cable television arrangement.

Under the agreement, ESPN will telecast two prime-time games a week during the USFL football season, which begins in March of 1983.

The ESPN contract follows the May 26th announcement that ABC Sports had entered into a firm two-year network arrangement to televise a total of 20 games, including a Sunday afternoon game of the week, one prime-time evening telecast and coverage of the USFL playoff series and its championship game.

"Our contracts with ESPN and ABC-TV assure sports fans that USFL football will be on national television at least three days a week," explained Simmons, who previously served as president of ESPN.

Grimes said, "Everyone at ESPN is delighted that our network has been selected to televise - for the first time - American professional football on cable. What makes the USFL concept so compelling is the viability of a new season of pro football and the quality ownership of the teams."

Judge Spivak pointed out, "The USFL's agreement with ESPN is another milestone in our effort to bring the American sports fan quality professional football during 'The Other Season', from March through July."

He added, "ESPN has built an audience for the type of sports programming we offer and it is a pleasure to have them as one of our partners. In addition to production quality, ESPN offers additional exposure through its one-service format of 24-hour sports."

ESPN, which is a subsidiary of the Getty Oil Company, currently reaches 16.5 million homes nationwide through over 3,800 cable affiliates, and by the USFL's opening game the total will rise to 20 million homes. ESPN is the largest advertiser-supported, exclusively cable-delivered network in the country.

The USFL previously announced that it will play its 20-game schedule at major football stadiums. Its 12 teams are located in New York, Boston/New England, Birmingham, Chicago, Denver, Detroit, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, San Diego, San Francisco/Bay Area, Florida/Tampa Bay and Washington, D.C.

ESPN Acquires Big East Basketball Games

ESPN has acquired the rights to 15 Big East basketball games: all nine Monday Night Big East Games of the Week and six additional games in December. The announcement was made by Robert M. Gutkowski, ESPN Vice President, Programming and Big East Commissioner Dave Gavitt.

ESPN purchased the national cable television rights for the Monday night series from the William B. Tanner Company of Memphis, Tenn., which has syndicated the Big East Game of the Week since the league's inception in 1979. The six December games were obtained from the Big East Conference.

The package of games marks the third consecutive year of coverage of Big East basketball by The Total Sports Network.

Five of the league's nine teams - Georgetown, Villanova, Boston College, St. John's and Pittsburgh - participated in last year's NCAA tournament. Two others - Syracuse and Connecticut - played in the NIT.

AT CITY MEETING

Holiday blamed for low turnout

Holiday city council tabled water rate increases with only three aldermen present at Monday night's regular meeting.

The session, lasting less than two hours, also included a guest speaker, who failed to show. The lack of attendance was attributed to the meeting commencing the day after July 4.

Aldermen present were Leon Addison, Fred Daume and Jim Virdell.

The guest speaker, who was not named, was to speak on the "New Federalism" and what affect it would have on Holliday. "New Federalism" is President Reagan's personal plan to turn many of the domestic programs in the U.S. over to the states.

The water rate increase proposal, which was not discussed, was tabled until the council's next meeting in order that all council members be present.

According to discussions over city water during the group's last meeting, a proposal is expected to be made to charge a higher rate to customers outside the city limits of Holliday, than for those inside Holliday.

Some aldermen protested in that meeting the lack of planning on the part of past city councils in granting water taps to those living outside the city limits, saying it gave them an undue advantage over city residents.

Council will meet in the Holliday Community Center Monday, July 19 to discuss the issue once again.

In other business, mayor James Cook reported that the installation of cable TV service was behind schedule, with 23 homes in the south portion of Holliday ready to receive the service. Cook said that the company is expecting to begin installation in the northern part of town next month.

Cook also mentioned that street repairs were still in progress and the work satisfactory.

Soccer program interest sought

The Holliday P-TA is attempting to initiate a boys' and girls' soccer program in Holliday this fall, and the search is on for prospective coaches and players.

According to P-TA president Mrs. Landis Hogue, boys and girls ages 6-13 are invited to participate, and prospective coaches need not be experienced.

Interested persons should phone Mrs. Hogue at 586-1891, or P-TA vice president Missy Hogue at 586-1867.

Annual auction plans underway to benefit crippled children

Joe Parker, rancher-banker of Byers, is getting optimistic about the upcoming Crippled Children's Livestock Auction this July. Actually, there will be two auctions for this 14th annual event that benefits the North Texas Rehabilitation Center in Wichita Falls.

For the first time, merchandise that doesn't pertain to agriculture will be auctioned off at 6 p.m., Friday, July 23 at the 4-H Barn on Midwestern Parkway, Wichita Falls. The traditional livestock sale will be at 10 a.m., Saturday, July 24 at the Wichita Livestock Auction, 2509 Sheppard Access Road, Wichita Falls. "It looks like it's coming along pretty good," Parker said in announcing donations and plans at a luncheon for committee members June 30 at McBride's Seafood and Steak Restaurant, Wichita Falls.

Workers from a ten county area in north Texas and northern Oklahoma are calling on ranchers, farmers and businessmen for donations of livestock and merchandise.

The livestock auction is the largest source of revenue for the rehab center which treats some 150 handicapped children and adults each week.

Parker, general chairman of the auction, said that food booths are planned for Friday night's sale. "It will be main dishes-you know-beef."

The auctions serve two purposes -- money that helps crippled children and adults get therapy at the rehab center and a chance for friends to get together and visit. Parker and other committee members are anticipating a large crowd for the Friday night sale. The division of the merchandise from the livestock as a first time event should prove successful, Parker said.

Items from afghans to furniture to antiques and other treasures are coming in already for the auction.

Hurricanes end season

The Holliday Hurricanes girls' softball team, the first such team in Holliday history, finished their inaugural season recently with 2-8 record.

The Hurricanes, consisting of sixth graders from Holliday, played in the YMCA league in Wichita Falls. Their coaches were Danny Holman and Mark Rathman, assisted by John Kuykendall.

The girls, except for two players, had not played a game of softball before, according to parents of the players. They were sponsored by Rathman Logging Co. and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Birdwell.

Team members were Debbie

Armstrong, Audrea Birdwell, Laura Bynum, Pam Duke, Seretha Finnell, Becky Noll, Bobbie Patterson, Karoline Rathman, Deanna Segler, Christi Shannon, Stacie Terry, Priscilla Wagoner, Cheryl Whitting, Lea Ellen McDonald and Reyna Echols.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell, in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, hereby gives notice of the company's intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas, effective July 27, 1982, unless otherwise determined by the Commission.

It is expected that the requested rate schedule will furnish a 13.4 percent increase in the company's intrastate revenues.

A complete copy of the new rate schedule is on file with the Public Utility Commission at Austin, Texas, and with each affected municipality served by Southwestern Bell, and is available for inspection in each of the company's public business offices in Texas. The Commission staff has contended in the past that all rates are subject to change as a result of Southwestern Bell's rate application.

Notice to El Paso Area Customers

Effective January 1, 1982, Southwestern Bell adopted the Mountain States tariffs in effect for El Paso County. Southwestern Bell proposes to merge the separate El Paso tariffs with its tariffs applicable to the rest of Texas. The resulting new rate schedule is on file with the PUC and the El Paso area municipalities served by Southwestern Bell, and is available for inspection at our El Paso business office.

Notice to Customers of Other Telephone Companies

The filing includes, but is not limited to, proposals to increase rates for interexchange private line and foreign exchange (FX) service. Changes in such rates would also affect customers of other telephone companies because such companies provide interexchange private line and foreign exchange service in accordance with rates specified in Southwestern Bell's tariffs. While Southwestern Bell has proposed no increase in long distance rates, any change in those rates would also affect customers of other telephone companies.

Aviso Público

Southwestern Bell, en conformidad a las reglas del Public Utility Commission (Comisión de Servicios Públicos) de Texas, por la presente hace saber su intención de establecer un nuevo arancel para servicio de teléfono en Texas con vigencia a partir del 27 de julio, 1982, a menos que la Comisión haga otra determinación.

Se espera que el nuevo arancel que se ha solicitado rendirá un aumento de 13.4 por ciento en los ingresos intraestatales de la compañía.

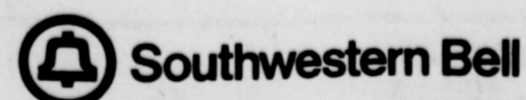

Una copia completa del nuevo arancel se ha archivado en las oficinas del Public Utility Commission en Austin, Texas, al igual que en cada municipalidad afectada y servida por Southwestern Bell, y cada una de las oficinas de la compañía para negocios con el público en Texas tiene una copia para lectura pública. En el pasado, la Comisión ha sostenido que toda tarifa está sujeta a cambios que resulten de la manera en la cual Southwestern Bell aplique sus tarifas.

Aviso a Clientes en la Región de El Paso

Con vigencia a partir del 1o de enero de 1982, Southwestern Bell ha adoptado las tarifas de Mountain States efectivas en el condado de El Paso. Southwestern Bell propone unir las tarifas de El Paso con sus otras tarifas que se aplican al resto de Texas. El nuevo arancel que resulta de esta unión se ha archivado en la Comisión de Servicios Públicos (Public Utility Commission), al igual que en las municipalidades de la región de El Paso servidas por Southwestern Bell, y está disponible para inspección pública en nuestras oficinas de El Paso.

Aviso a los Clientes de Otras Compañías de Teléfono

El registro incluye, pero no se limita a, propuestas para aumentar las tarifas para servicio de línea privada entre centrales telefónicas (interexchange private line) y servicio de central telefónica extranjera (foreign exchange FX). Cambios en dichas tarifas de servicio también afectarían a clientes de otras compañías de teléfono porque dichas compañías proveen los servicios ya mencionados en conformidad a tarifas especificadas por Southwestern Bell. Aunque Southwestern Bell no ha propuesto un aumento en las tarifas para larga distancia, cualquier cambio en las mismas también afectarían a los clientes de otras compañías de teléfono.

Cook of the Week

Broken Glass Cake, one of Linda (Mrs. Mike) Acker's recipes this week, calls for three different flavors of jello, a trademark of gelatin. This suggests its popularity among Americans for salads and desserts, even though one source described it as "about as close to being no food at all as any food can possibly get."

Housewives today can buy it packaged and sugared in almost any flavor, and with very little effort and expense they can prepare colorful and delicious salads and desserts "fit for royalty."

An interesting bit of the history of gelatin is found in Eliza Leslie's

Direction for Cookery, written in the early 19th century. To make it, she advises starting with boiling a set of animal's feet -- that alone might cause lack of interest, and the method sounds somewhat complicated and time-consuming. Modern housewives would certainly be aware of possible impurities in making gelatin by Leslie's directions. It is said that by the middle of the century powdered gelatin, even with sugar and flavor, existed.

Half a century later, packaging and merchandising got underway, and it gained public favor when refrigeration became more general. Gelatin, strictly speaking, is animal jelly. However, the name has been extended to include vegetable products, such as Irish moss, oat gums, and especially sea weed.

Mr. and Mrs. Acker moved here recently when he was named an assistant manager of the Wal-Mart Store. She is a native of Bonham and was graduated from Dodd City High School where she played basketball seven years and was named FFA sweetheart. Her hobbies are cooking, swimming, traveling and outdoor sports. Their children are Melissa, Melanie, Michelle, Corey and Christy.

Letter to the Editor

Expresses feelings

Dear Mr. Hamilton,

I have talked to you on the phone and told you about an experience that I and my husband saw and heard with our eyes & ears at the police station in Iowa Park last Thursday July 1st. My main reason for this letter is to say what I feel is an injustice to two people I respect & feel are doing the kind of work that is what all the people in Iowa Park would like done. The people in question are Billy Hamilton, chief of police, & Pat Hannah, officer. They do their jobs in a professional manner. I like that. There is too much pressure being put on these fine people & all the other employees to the point that they feel threatened of their jobs, so they can't really do their work. I felt because all that is going on up at City Hall & the police station there is no order & no one person can work in surroundings where there is so much disorder. I myself want Billy Hamilton as Chief of Police and Pat Hannah as one of the officers. They impressed me as sincere about their work. I would not blame them if they quit, but because they are the kind of people I want working for my city & I am going to do all I can to see that they stay at their jobs. I hope that I have opened a few eyes & ears and that I can help put a stop to so much disorder when there should be order. Thank you for giving me the chance to say how I feel and I will be at the next city council meeting to see that I can voice it as well.

Thank you,
Mr. and Mrs. Terry L. Bowen

PART 3
Last time I said that soft contacts don't correct astigmatism very well. They do make a "Toric" soft lens which will correct lower amounts of corneal astigmatism but they are more expensive than regular soft lenses and are not as successful as they might be. The big thing now is the extended wear soft lenses; wear up to two weeks, etc. Since these lenses are more expensive and require much more monitoring than other lenses they should probably be reserved for folks with very high corrections, e.g., patients who have had cataracts removed.
As to what contact lens is best for you it should be pointed out that there are two main types of contacts. Gas permeable and non-gas permeable. Which just means that one type allows oxygen to pass through the lens and the other type doesn't. The old hard lens that's been around about 30 years is a non-permeable lens. The soft contacts are permeable lens. The soft contacts are permeable also there is a new hard or rigid lens that allows oxygen to go through which makes it much better than the old hard lens and in some ways better than the soft type.

INTS FOR HOMEOWNERS

A weather-beaten cottage—picturesque on a beach—is not so romantic in the suburbs.

If you decide to add a new roof, re-side or simply paint, consider how these improvements will affect your home's "curb appeal"—its appearance and attractiveness. Choose materials that not only protect but also enhance your home's beauty.

As with many things, it's often smart to start at the top.

When re-roofing, it's usually a good idea to install the same style of shingle as was there in the first place. Chances are it best complements your home's architectural style.

Most homes today have asphalt shingles, which are made of a heavy paper or a fiber glass base coated with asphalt and topped with a layer of mineral granules. It is these granules that give the shingle its distinctive color. Fiber glass shingles have become very popular in recent years—they don't absorb water and are thus better able to withstand curling, buckling and shrinkage—and they carry the highest U.L. fire resistance rating.

Asphalt shingles come in colors and sizes to suit nearly any style home or color scheme. The following guidelines in coordinating your home's appearance are suggested by Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corporation, a leading building materials manufacturer.

Keep color combinations simple. Most experts recommend a maximum of three colors for the siding, roof and trim. Roof color should meld with the body of the home.

Light-colored roofing shingles create the illusion of height, while dark ones soften the effect of a tall house or flatten out a sharply angled roof. White shingles create an impression of airy coolness.

The new three-dimensional shingles cast intriguing shadow lines and combine the richly textured look of wood with the fire resistance and durability of asphalt shingles.

Light or muted colors are best for the body of a house, with a darker shade of the same color for the trim.

When painting, look at your house as a whole. Study its architecture, its shape and proportions as well as how it relates to other homes in the neighborhood. This will help you visualize the color in the context of the home's setting—both natural and man-made. Remember, the colors you choose should reflect your home's "personality" as much as your own.
