THE PUBLICITY GANG

Behind the 4th War Loan Drive, Jack Scott, E. F. Butler, J. S. Yeager and S. W. Adams, met Saturday and planned a "gang up" on all Tories in the county; and to make as their master publicity of the War Loan Drive, the issuing of a special edition of all of the papers, January 28, in which every business concern will be given an opportunity to meet the Secretary of the Treasury's request that they sponsor Loan Drive publicity.

The four of us went in Jack's car to Abilene, and presented the matter of sponsoring war-loan ads in the four papers, and met two of the most pleasing facts:

(1) The manager of every firm visited, Saturday afternoon, when most managers and leaders are off for the week, was on the job, (2) he received the Big Four graciously, and paid for publicity of the 4th War Loan to appear in our special edition.

Thanks fellows, and watch for that special edition of the four papers coming out at the same time.

Our meeting netted another result. The four papers have been missing to much home business—we decided that it was because the papers had been "pulling every fellow for himself, and the devil may have the hindmost one;" so we are going to gang up and make a united appeal for business from here on out.

We remember that when the cats disagree the monkey gets all of the cheese.

REPORT OF SURGICAL DRESSINGS ROOMS

During the week of January 10-14, 1944, the following women each worked from 1-1 1/2 to 3-1 1/2 hours and made 4,270 2x2-inch surgical sponges:

Mesdames Vida Hill, Corrine T. Blackburn, Nellie Griffin, Midway; Belle Allphin, Doshia Wristen, Ellen Hollingshead, Bessie Gray, Elizabeth Fetterly, Mabel George, Irene Bardwell, Frankye Anderson, Mary Helen Reed, Ellen McGowan, Edna Mae Hopper, Clyde; Frances D. Dawes, Clyde; Pattie McEride, Minville Mitchell, Florence Loper, Rosa Ryan, Kathrin Hinds, Norma Baulch, Maud Hart, Lena Jones, Clude; Eva Lee, Lella McGowan.

(Thanks, Ladies. That report meets the demands, and is much shorter, and we can handle so many more items. Your ready response and cooperation is very pleasing. — The Editor.)

LEO TYLER

Out Clyde way from Baird, dropped into the Judge's office Monday, and was introduced to the editor. He took a second look on hearing that I am the editor-owner of the Star, and said, "He's a windy guy, isn't he?"

I replied: "Right you are, Mr. Tyler; and of necessity. The Baird Star is ambitious to be the banner of the county, and a banner looks something awful slumped against the banner pole . . . only when a stiff breeze unfurls it into the air and its rippling folds swing out into action, does it appeal. It is my business to keep the breeze briskly blowing it out, that its rippling waves may attract all and help.

THE METHODISTS OUGHT

To redeem themselves . . . that is, the portion of them who did not remain for the preacher's sermon . . . he made it very clear that following afar off did not meet the personal necessities of the Peters in any congregation; but a following (walking) by the Master's side was the challenge.

Far be it from the editor to "judge" or question the motives of those stayers-away from preaching services; but he has a notion that he might meekly ask: "Did you stay away to do good to others?"

CARDS

Came in last and this week saying, "If you did print a paper last week in the year, please send me one: for I do not want to miss a single Star." That is mighty pleasing music to the ear of a publisher-editor.

MID-WINTER BIBLE CONFERENCE AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Pastor A. A. Davis of the Baird Baptist Church announces the Mid-Winter Bible Conference, to be held at the Baptist Church beginning Monday night, January 24.

Rev. George W. Parks of Roscoe will lead the conference and lecture each night. The book of Galatians will be discussed by this Noble Minister and Bible Scholar. Brother Parks enjoys the love and confidence of the old-timers of this section—where he has many friends. The ministers of West Texas regard him as one of the few remaining preachers of the OLD SCHOOL—who believed the preacher's first duty to God and man was to study the Bible. He is a student—and a scholar of distinction.

Preachers from over the county have been invited to attend and many have signified their intention to come to the conference. Everyone—and all Church members—and non-members,—one and all are invited to the services each night. Services will begin at 7:30 p. m.

AT POULTRY MEETING

Held in Baird, Saturday, plans were made by turkey raisers from various parts of the county to produce turkey eggs for market during the coming year.

Any turkey raiser can produce eggs with only a few changes in his management practices. To assure maximum egg production, lights should be available, and turkeys should be fed laying mash, or nuggets.

(Birds are confined to smaller areas fenced with hog wire, and two barbed wires, in December; at which time turkeys are fed laying mash. Lights are turned on at 5 o'clock in the morning, causing the birds to come off the roost and start eating mash. By using such practices, birds can be brought into production approximately one month early.

As most turkey raisers know, houses are not necessary for laying hens, but a wind break protecting the roosts made from poles, or one-by-fours should be constructed, and nests can be made by using wooden barrels for coops.

Those present at the meeting were: John Berry, Clyde; Hop Summers, Admiral; Nelson Estes, Clyde; Jerry McDonald, Rowden, and J. A. Sikes, Rowden.

Doctuh, I's jest been bit by a dog! Was he a rabid dog? Nowah; he wuz a houn.

CALLAHAN COUNTY BAPTIST WORKERS

Conference met with Baird Church in all-day session, Tuesday. Morning session was filled by the W.M.U. Reports were received and plans for the new year were discussed. Rev. Chas. Myrick, Pastor of Cottonwood Church, preached the sermon at 11:30 A. M.

The afternoon and night sessions were given to training Union work under direction of a team of workers, consisting of Rev. and Mrs. J. Henry Littleton of Anson, District Missionary of District 17, Rev. Fred Porter, Pastor Lamar Street Baptist Church of Sweetwater and Mr. C. Arthur Hearn of Nashville, Tenn., representative of the Sunday School Board.

12 of the 14 Churches in the association were represented with 10 pastors. A good crowd attended the meeting throughout the day.

NOT TOO EARLY

Farmers to plan this year's crop, and you are advised by our County Agent, Mr. Meador, to order now; as seed supply is short. It would pay you to see him for full particulars. He suggests several varieties as being adapted to this section: Sorghum—Plainsman, Martin's Combine Type Wheatland Milo; Hegari—Arizona, Early, Lubbock, Chillicothe hegaris; Milo Maize — Texas, Dwarf Yellow, Double Dwarf Texas, and Bonita, a hybrid developed by the Chillicothe Experiment Station, is 1-4 kafir, 1-4 feterita, and 1-2 hegaril.

DOROTHY WILKERSON

County Home Demonstration Agent. Laments that most folks throw away the orange peel. She says that it is good food, and in the orange and peel you get a vitamin kick known as "C." If you want "juice," get the smooth-skinned orange; and the other makes fine fruit salad parts.

We give just enough news about it all to make you look up the Agents for more light on these timely topics.

YOUR WAR PROGRAM

Schedule runs like this:
Fourth War Loan, Jan. 18 to Feb. 15;
Food Fights for Freedom, Feb. 15 to 28;
American Red Cross Drive, March 1 to 31;
Gasoline Rationing, April 1 to 30.
So, there will not be a day nor an hour for you to let up!

MISS BETTY MCCOY

Daughter of our popular Treasurer, Mrs. Will McCoy, will receive her B.B.A. Degree from Texas Tech in August. She has been chosen to appear in 1943-1944 issue of Who's Who among students in American universities and colleges, which will appear in April.

This publication is produced through the cooperation of 600 American universities and colleges.

Miss McCoy is president of the Las Vivarachas, a social club of the Tech, a member of the Women's Inter-Club Council; is Junior Class representative of the Women's Self-Governing Association of Women Students. She has been very active in many other Tech activities.

She graduated from our Baird high school in 1941. She was found active in high school activities here, having been chosen the most popular girl in her junior year.

LOOKS LIKE CALLAHAN COUNTY

Is going begging for officials to steer it safely through the mazes of county service . . . not one person has approached either of the four papers in the county with a "please announce that I am a candidate for county and district offices. There must be some attraction to those offices . . . Mineral Wells, of course, is in the county, and all of those fellows may have been taking Hal Collins Crazy Crystals.

Jealousy sticks up her hydra-heads when we pick up Palo Pinto Star and see "nine grains of star dust" listed for county and district offices. Entries and cases en masse, good things byrd, Clyde, Meador, our excellent dry goods stores.

BAIRD CHAIRMAN OF

4th War Loan drive met with 15 other citizens at the Courthouse, Monday night, and further preliminary plans were perfected. Those present were:

Dr. Hill, Sheriff Brame, County Agent Meador, Buster George, Bob Norrell, Judge Freeland, Ace Hickman, Howard Farmer, E. F. Woodley, Ben Russell, chairman; Supt. Snyder and I. G. Mobley of Putnam, Frank Windham of Oplin, A. R. Skelton, and S. W. Adams.

Out-of-county citizens with extensive interests in Callahan county were listed for solicited Callahan purchases of bonds, and persons assigned to contact them. An Executive Committee to act on matters not requiring called public meeting was appointed as follows:

Buster George, C. B. Snyder, F. E. Mitchell, Hugh Ross, Ace Hickman, who with officers of the drive, Ben Russell and Sheriff Brame, co-chairmen of Baird district, Judge Freeland, county chairman, and Howard Farmer, secretary, make up the ten-member executive committee.

It was voted to have "Pledge Cards" printed and sent out to every citizen with a request that he fill in top bonds he will buy, and return to the committee.

WE ARE GOING TO RALLY,

Judge Freeland announced that a visit Monday to Clyde, Oplin, Cross Plains and Putnam, then a visit to Camp Barkley netted four rallies for the County:

Major Evans and the Camp band will be in Clyde this coming Saturday, at 3:30 p. m., to put on a rally there;

At Oplin that night, at 8 p. m., to put on a rally there.

Then on Friday, January 28th, they will appear at Cross Plains, at 3:30 p. m., putting on a big rally there; winding up February 5th, Saturday at 3:30 p. m., with the biggest of them all on our streets here.

Don't run, for somebody will out run you; just walk up and buy bonds, the more the better, that our quota of $272,000 may be met promptly.

Watch for the issue of the Four County Papers, January 28, giving complete coverage for the Bond drive.

MRS. JENNIE MORGAN

Announces the marriage of her daughter, Neola, to Joel Thompson of Abilene. They will make their home there.

NO PLANS YET,

Is the crisp reply to your question, "What are your political plans for 1944, Mr. or Mrs. County officer." "Too busy fighting the battles of the war on the home front," replied Judge Freeland.

"Too early and too much talking upsets best of plans," smiled Mrs. Briscoe.

"Awaiting Uncle Sam's wishes; he has me scheduled into the armed forces," said County Clerk Bryant.

"Just too early to make up your mind; something else might turn up," laughed County Attorney Mitchell.

"Let's tie this bear, the 4th War Loan, before tackling the white elephant," I imagined the Sheriff said.

"Oh, I'm getting things just about ready for an announcement," smiled the Cheerful McCoy, with her midas fingers firmly set on the county's Purse String.

Didn't see others . . . anyway, the line will soon begin to lengthen out.

GONE, OFF-TO, AND GOING

To market has been the order of the day for the dry goods men of Baird, this week. Mrs. Gray spent first two days of the week in Fort Worth where jobbers of the North and East were displaying lovely things, and came back loaded.

W. B. Jones and Will D. Boydston were there and in Dallas getting goods, but found them scarce.

Mr. McElroy chased the train Wednesday at noon, on his way to the Fort Worth and Dallas markets, and R. F. Mayfield will go down Sunlins Crazy Crystals.

Entries and cases en masse, good things byrd, Clyde, Meador, our excellent dry goods stores.

OUR BOYS

The Lieut. said to the WAVE, I think you mess with the sailors; and she retorted, And if I do, that's my business: where do I eat?

CPL. ARNOLD H. STANDEFORD

Of Ft. Dix, New Jersey, arrived Wednesday, on his furlough, for a visit with his wife and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Weldon.

THIS IS THE ARMY

Has broken all records for crowds since it first appeared in New York on the stage, and when it appears here at the Plaza, February 2nd, it will have added to its own appeal an opera singer from New York, provided by Major Evans of the Army at Camp Barkley; and should you hear him on the stage, out of uniform, it would cost you $5.00 alone; so be sure you get a ticket for this show.

Major Evans is helping to boost this show, because the proceeds go to the Army Emergency Relief Fund which he is administering for this area; so he will have in addition to the singer, some tanks and other war equipment on the streets that day.

Mrs. S. J. Bains, Ranger, visited her daughters, Miss Lillie Frances Bains and Mrs. Lorena Shelton, the week-end.

Powder Monkey

On board ship and in the artillery their buddies call them "powder monkeys." Not disrespectful, just a personal, intimate term between friends. Civilians call them gun crews. During a battle the crews of "powder monkeys" must work like trojans bringing the ammunition to the guns.

The gun may fire an anti aircraft
 .50 calibre shell or a broadside from the 16 inch guns of a great battleship, but in either event the "powder monkey" must pass millions of dollars' worth of ammunition to make the gun effective, and your savings in War Bonds are necessary to supply the financial ammunition that provides the shells.

U. S. Treasury Department

OUR SILENT PARTNER

In the arduous task of running the Star, stopped and wrote in the sands, when confronted with human beings' accusations against another; and following their charges, he said: "If that is the law of Moses, let him that is guiltless, cast the first stone."

Waiting for the swish of the stones, with bowed head before the duplicity and stupidity of the accusers, and hearing none, he looked up and only the accused stood before him, and he said, "Woman, where art thine accusers?" and she replied, "They have one by one, Master, left—they no longer accuse me." And he said, "Neither do I accuse thee! Go, sin no more!"

In every line we write and print, in every act with and for the Baird Star, may we ever be conscious of that Silent Partner's presence, and ever produce a paper "void of offense before God and man!"

Jones said, I'm going home. Brown, Why? Jones, Because I live there.

THAT PAPER NIGHTMARE.

Keeps Mrs. Ace Hickman on the alarm continually. Between urging the people to save every bit, and knowing they know that tons and tons of former drives languish in county jail, the paper does, it is hard to keep up a stiff appeal for more, may be to languish in the same or other building.

But she is working out movement for all of the paper.

Keep collecting, drying, tying your newspapers in one bundle, your magazines in another, and the cardboard in another; and either take it to later-to-be-announced place, or contact a neighbor with a car, and ask him to take it down.

THAT OUT-OF-USE

Fountain pen ought to find its way NOW into the boxes prepared for it at the two drugstores, for Mrs. Hickman says that the collection will close—bang, just like that on the 25th of this month; so if you want one of our old pens to find use in the hands of some over-seas boy, let it be hospitalized and sent quickly.

LEONARD EVANS

With the Seabees, stationed in the North Atlantic, and mother, Mrs. R. Q. Evans of Denison, visited Mrs. Evans' mother, Mrs. Henry Lambert, the past week-end.

BAIRD BLOOD

Starts the stork wagon in Fort Worth. The first white baby born there in 1944 was Ronnie Kyle, 4th son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Davis Austin. Mrs. Austin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Fait, Baird.

WE WISH TO THANK

The host of friends who so kindly ministered to Mr. McLaughlin during his last illness, and for their words of sympathy following his passing away. These will always make lighter the sorrow to us; and the beautiful floral offering spoke life's tenderest messages of love; and the ladies who so thoughtfully left food at the home, may God ever bless them, and may His richest favors shine upon all of you. Mrs. Joe McLaughlin and stepsons Capt. E. F. Terry, Overseas, J. M. Terry, Ft. Worth.

Hen-Egg Producers

I have 300 thoroughbred large White English Leghorn Seidel hens. 100 of these hens have been carefully selected and mated to themselves. Also I have six R.O.P. wing banded Seidel roosters for which I paid $15.00 each and have mated them with the 100 choice hens. From this mating I am incubating 900 eggs for my this year's baby chicks.

It costs no more in feed and labor to grow a hen that will lay 250 to 275 eggs per year than it will one that will lay 75 or 80 eggs per year. You can soon have a first class flock at small cost if you desire. I am selling these eggs at 10 cents an egg or $1.50 for setting. Come and get them. J. T. Griswold, Clyde, Texas. I will be glad for you to come any time and look my flock over. 2tc-1-28-44

Do girls still bathe in Sweetwater and dress in Plainview out where the West is? Then why is Eastland in West Texas and West is in East Texas?

ALL GOOD KNITTERS

Are notified that 50 pounds of yarn will soon arrive, and they may get it at the home of Mrs. O. F. Stiffler, who has charge of this Red Cross work.

Callahan Chapter knitted and shipped 564 garments to the armed forces in 1943.

THE BAIRD LADIES

Are working hard on the Red Cross Camp Barkley Hospital service. They met at the Camp Wednesday, with Mesdames L. L. Blackburn, Gilbert Hinds, J. R. McFarlane and W. P. Brightman, county chairmen.

Callahan County donations 226 packages being 448 from the district, books, magazines, playing cards, jigsaw puzzles, and others, including a Victrola donated by Mrs. S. I. Smith. Cross Plains was represented by Mrs. Fred Cutbirth, chairman, and Mrs. Fred Tunnell and Mrs. John Bryant, with 220 packages.

Coat hangers are needed. Many and numerable things are needed for these boys who are quarantined weeks and weeks.

Try to think what would please and entertain shut-in sick, then prepare that and turn it into the local Red Cross. Balls of rags, especially that they may weave rugs on the small looms they have.

MRS. J. F. BAILEY

Of Dudley, died at 2 a. m., Tuesday, after fifty years in the county. Funeral services were at the Dudley Baptist Church, Revs. Joe R. Mays and Dick Bright officiating. Interred in Dudley cemetery.

She is survived by her husband; two sons, I. M. Bailey, Dudley; Wiley Bailey, Abilene; two daughters, Mrs. Jim Loper, Dudley; Mrs. Ruf Weathers, Amarillo; three sisters, Mrs. Clara Barton, Seagraves; Mrs. Will Berry, and Cora Faubions, California; 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

HIGHWAY WORK

Has been somewhat at a standstill since the rains. Mr. Jones of the local office says that gravel has been put on 183 north to the cemetery, and that dirt structure has been completed to Shackelford county line, and four miles beyond; but spring will have to come before topping can be done—it takes hot weather to lay blacktop successfully.

When that highway is completed, Oklahomans from their western reaches, the Panhandle may slip down its smooth surface via Seymour, Albany, Baird, Coleman and San Saba, Fredericksburg, into San Antonio; or shunt at Coleman via Brownwood, Goldthwaite, Lampasas to Austin.

It is going to mean much to Baird, and we must take that extra shave each week to meet its demands.

Mrs. R. Adeox of Clyde, r2, accompanied by Mrs. Lawrence, dropped in and paid for the Star, Monday. Mrs. Adeox lived here long before Clyde was laid out, and knows all of the old cow trails through the county; but old faces gone and new faces in makes the setting quite different during the last years.

I've just taken a shine to your wife said the stork to Rastus as he left the house.

AN ESTIMATED $30,000

Already sold, was given by Howard Farmer, secretary of the Baird committee, Monday night. He was basing his estimate on the $15,000 his bank has sold since January the first, which goes on our quota; believing the Cross Plains bank and postoffices have sold as many as our bank, may be much more.

WEDNESDAY LUNCHEON

By the Methodist ladies, at the church, provoked gustatory outbursts. The club appointed a committee to take over the sale of tickets for the show, This Is the Army, to be shown soon at the Plaza Theatre: T. W. White, Roland Dunwoody and Earl Johnson.

This show is shown by the Theatre, says Pops Lee, and every dime goes to the Army Emergency Relief, which is doing great work taking care of wives and families of boys in the service. Hamlin rolled up $1400 sales. Let's beat that!

Olaf South reported that Boyce House of "I Give You Texas" fame will be at the High School Auditorium next Wednesday, and the public will want to hear him.

Fred Heyser of Zion Hill was luncheon guest, and told of the wonderful work the Emergency Relief money is doing in this county. . . . one woman was found needing hospitalization, probably $1000 costs. This was readily taken over by the fund.

The editor was instructed to invite Governor Stevenson to appear here on his swing through this section early in February.

THE GLEANERS CLASS

Of Presbyterians, met with Mrs. Vestal, January 6th.

Reports of the 1943 work were given. 80 quilts quilted, 14 went to orphan's home in Dallas, 2 boxes for them, also.

BOYCE HOUSE.

That man-in-demand on the platform, because of his wit and sound thinking, will be at the Baird High School auditorium Wednesday, January 26, in the afternoon. . . . watch for the hour.

Supt. South says that there will be no charge to the public.

Sam A. Cooksey is back after two weeks in Cisco. He seems to have been frequenting the Star office since years ago when Mr. Gilliland was at the helm, and Mr. Cooksey followed the T. & P. pilot driver up and down its tortuous course.

GOOD-BYE, GILLILANDS, HOWDY ADAMSES

The Gillilands, for nearly three-score years, gave its readers the ole Baird Star—it came to us if we were near, or if we were afar.

And as I write these few lines, you will know the reason why—that something wells up in my throat and I would feel better just to cry.

Cherished memories of by-gone days, when these jingles I would write, by the old fireside, warm and cozy, on some cold and stormy night. I use to have an old saddle horse: I though she was the best. A younger one might have filled her place, but had not stood the test.

So as our new man takes the Star, and the Gillilands seek new fields, may they live long and prosper in the best this old world yields.

Now, I'll swallow hard and dry my tears, and do my best to laugh, and help keep the old Baird Star alive with my own dollar and a half.

—Sidney Harxinae.

Thanks, Sidney.

THERE OUGHT TO BE

A smile or two, perhaps a few guffaws; so here's our week's offerings:

Mose, what did you give yore mule when he had de colicks? I gave him a quat turpentine. Rastus goes away, later returning and says, Mose, I gib mah mule quat tuppentine, and he died. Mine did too, replied Mose.

Who goes there? Major Jones. Give the pass word. Drat it, I've forgot it. Must have the pass word—then a voice came from the guard house: Don't stand there and argue all night: shoot him.

Brudderen, it is now for you to elect a pastah for annuder year. All in favor uv me will please say Aye. Hearing no ayes, he continued: Silence gives consent—I's yo pastah annuder year.

Jones doubted the suit holding its shape, and Ike assured him that it would because it was made of pure virgin wool, to which Jones replied: I am not interested in the morals of the sheep. Will it hold its shape?

Sheriff said, Did you third-degree him? The deputies said that they did, brow-beat him, badgered him and asked him every question they could think of. And what did he do? He went off to sleep and said, Yes, dear, you are perfectly right!

REV. COLLINS

Will preach morning and evening at the Presbyterian Church. Of course you know the public is invited cordially.

AM I MAKING MERCHANDISE

Out of my religion? Out of my politics? Out of my citizenship? Out of my social contacts?

If I am, I am surrendering to the basest element in man.

Certainly all of us must make merchandise, do business, produce; for all of us must eat bread, but eight hours shalt thou labor, eight hours shalt thou recreate, and eight hours shalt thou sleep, is the soundest schedule ever laid down by man.

When it comes to bread or my spiritual life, bread must be denied; when it becomes bread or the purity of our political thinking, bread must be denied; when it becomes bread or my sincere, honest, patriotic relations to my country, bread must be denied; when it becomes bread or my doing unto others as I would that they should do unto me, bread must be denied.

I have never said every man has his price, because the moment I do I admit to myself and my listener that I have a price—I want to continue to live believing deep down in my heart that there is no price on my citizenship, my political responsibilities, my social responsibilities, my religious conduct!

Mrs. Bill Paulson has been ill of flu, but better now.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit: This is a suit for the partition of the following described tract of land: All that certain tract or parcel of land situated in Callahan County, Texas, described as follows, to-wit:

The West 130 1/2 acres off the North one-half of Survey No. 6, Block No. 6, surveyed by the S. P. Ry. Co., Certificate No. 17-567, Abst. No. 1251, and patented to T. M. Slaughter, assignee of L. M. Beginning at the Northwest corner of said sec. No. 6, Block No. 6, S. P. Ry. Co. land: Thence East with the North line of said Sur. No. 6, Block No. 6, 607 vrs. stk. for corner; the Northwest corner of the T. M. Slaughter 130 1/2-acre tract, from which a P. O. 14 vrs. S. 28 E. 5 7-10 vrs.

Plaintiffs allege that defendants China Stone Minton and John W. Stone own an undivided 1-7 interest in said property; that Clara Stone has a life estate in an undivided 1-21 interest therein; that Lola Stone Nunley, Doward Stone, Ione Stone Graham and Helen Pelayo own an undivided 1-28 interest each therein; that Seaborn Stone died without issue before his parents and owns no interest in said property. Plaintiffs say the property is incapable of partion in kind and pray that the said property be sold through a receiver to be appointed by the Court and the proceeds divided, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

MRS. SIKES OF CLYDE
Sends in $1.50 for renewal, and says she has been taking the Star many years, and wants it to keep coming to her home. Thanks, Mrs. Sikes.

HERBERT MURPHY
Brought in subscription, Monday, for Si. Green of Fort Worth. He is at home little these days, plying his trade here and there, leaving this week for Abilene.
IF YOUR PAPER HAS BEEN
Failing to turn up, recently, the management knows no excuse to plead, except we did not print a paper last week in December; but all other weeks have had papers, and Miss Gilliland has been giving each mailing her same careful attention.
She has patiently and graciously held on to the list, trying to get it in shape for transfer to us; and if you have missed your paper, mails or some unintentional error here is the cause.
Hitler said, Goering, you've left off your medals. Great heavens, he replied, I forgot to take them off of my pajamas.

Welcome these Soldiers of Victory!

THE "shock troops" of your Government's 4th War Loan Drive—a drive that must raise $14 billion to put the punch behind the punch that may make 1944 the date of doom for the Nazis—will soon call on you to buy your personal quota of Bonds. For, of the $14 billion that must be raised in this Drive, $5.5 billion worth must come from individuals.

Welcome these American men and women—5 million of them—who are not only buying their share of Bonds but are giving their time to call on you, personally.

Every office, every plant, every home, every individual in America has a quota to meet. Your personal quota is at least one extra $100 Bond. That's above your regular Bond buying.

If possible, buy your extra Bonds during this drive at the plant or office where you work. A volunteer Bond worker will sell you there. Otherwise, welcome him to your home when he calls. Or find one in the thousands of retail stores all over the United States. They want to find you—you must help see that they do.

If you are unable to make your purchases from a soldier of victory be sure to go to one of these other special War Bond stations to buy your extra Bonds:

- BANKS AND TRUST COMPANIES
- U. S. POST OFFICES
- SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS
- BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS
- BROKERAGE AND INVESTMENT FIRMS
- MOTION PICTURE THEATRES
- CREDIT UNIONS
- CERTAIN GOVERNMENT AGENCIES
- NUMEROUS CORPORATIONS AND FIRMS FOR THEIR EMPLOYEES
- PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATIONS
- NATIONAL FARM LOAN ASSOCIATIONS
- MISCELLANEOUS BOND BOOTHS
- RADIO STATIONS
- RETAIL STORES
- NEWSPAPERS

Remember your job in this Drive is to buy more than your share of Bonds. That's the only way you can be certain you are still backing the attack. So be ready to meet your War Bond representative with an open check book.

Let's all BACK THE ATTACK!
