Hawks host Bucks Friday

Similar teams still in playoff contention

Fans at Hawk Stadium Friday night will have to pay close attention to which team they are supporting, because the similarities are so great.

Both Iowa Park and Breckenridge wear green and white, the melody to their school songs is the same, and both have identical 2-1 records in district play.

But that isn't all. This is the first season both teams are playing under new head coaches. And both the Hawks and Buckaroos have glorious football histories, including state championships. The Buckaroos have a slight edge on season record, 5-2-1, while the Hawks are 3-5. Breckenridge also holds a slight edge over the past, 6-5, after handing the Hawks a 20-10 loss last year.

Against conference teams this year, both teams defeated Bridgeport and Bowie. The Bucks beat the Bulls 36-13, while the Hawks won their 40-0. Against Bowie, Breckenridge defeated the Jackrabbits 21-7, while Iowa Park shut down the Hares 35-7, but that game was called at halftime because of weather.

Breckenridge opened the season with a 14-14 tie against Abilene Wylie, a club that beat the Hawks 28-7.

Friday's game, which has a kickoff time of 7:30 p.m., is vitally important to both teams, if they are to have a chance to advance into the playoffs.

Breckenridge, in their final regular season game, will host Graham, a club that came from behind to beat the Hawks 26-17. Meanwhile, Iowa Park will travel to Vernon, 10-7 winner last week over the Bucks.

Their games last week likely earned a lot of respect for each other. Especially the play of their defensive units.

While the Hawks were holding Bowie to only 26 net yards total offense, the Bucks shut down Vernon's touted running game to only 106 yards on 40 plays, forcing the Lions into the airways where they gained 129.

Three backs lead Breckenridge in the ground game. Dwight Smart is averaging seven yards per carry this season, 78 tries for 547 yards. He's also scored 47 points.

Ramsey Carey has gained 351 yards on 55 carries and Caleb Myers 210 on 36 plays.

Iowa Park's answer likely will be Todd Pulley, Chris Williams, Greg Steger and Mark de la Rosa.

Pulley, who posted his second consecutive 100-yard game last week (149 in 12 carries), is averaging 6.7 yards on 61 carries for 409 yards.

Williams has 320 yards for the season, Steger 283 and de la Rosa 211.

The Buckaroo secondary has proven slightly susceptible to the passing game, having given up 813 yards in their eight games. Randy Willis has had the most success as a defender, with four interceptions to his credit.

Hawk quarterback Robert Denton has completed 63 of his 146 passes thus far this season, for 829 yards, but has been picked off 10 times.

Denton's favorite receivers are Mike Brewer, 19 catches for 336 yards, and Joel McIlroy, 11 for 190.

Darby Brockway, Buck field general, has also had success with his arm, connecting on 29 of 87 for 416 yards, but suffering five interceptions.

A primary concern of the Hawks' defense has been giving up the big play. Eleven touchdowns scored against Iowa Park this season have been from 32 or more yards.

Two of those scores have been kickoff returns. That was Bowie's only time of glory last week, when a kickoff was returned 74 yards.

Both teams appear to be improving through the season under the tutelage of their new mentors, Lucky Gamble for the Hawks and Jerry Taylor, who moved last spring from Odessa High, for the Buckaroos.

THEY DID IT AGAIN - Iowa Park High's Mean Green Marching Machine earned a Division One rating Saturday in the district University Interscholastic League marching contest, held in Wichita Falls. It was the 10th consecutive year the unit has earned the coveted rating. With the trophy are the band's drum majors, Christie Catlin, left, Marcy McCarthy and Lisa Wiggins.

Voters to polls Tuesday

Constitutional amendments, county sales tax on ballots

Voters statewide will be casting their ballots Tuesday on 13 proposed amendments to the state constitution.

Meanwhile in Wichita County, the ballots have an additional issue, whether they will accept a proposed half-cent addition to the sales tax.

Absentee voting will end Friday. Here, at the County Agriculture Building, only 27 ballots had been cast by noon Tuesday, possibly confirming an anticipated low turnout across the state.

The polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. Tuesday.

Four polls will be open in the Iowa Park area: Precinct 32 at the County Agriculture building; Precinct 33, Faith

Baptist Church; Precinct 34, West Wichita Co-op (Valley View school campus), and Precinct 60, Chaparral Baptist Camp.

Secretary of State John Hannah has forecast a turnout of slightly more than 20 percent of the registered voters will mark their ballots in the election.

The amendments on the ballot include:

- Amendment 1 - Charter amending for cities fewer than 5,000.
- Amendment 2 - Expenditures for toll roads.
- Amendment 3 - Veterans' Land Board investment authority.
- Amendment 4 - Bonds for prisons and other institutions.
- Amendment 5 - Tax exemptions in enterprise zones.

Amendment 6 - Texas Ethics Commission.

Amendment 7 - Public retirement system investments.

Amendment 8 - Presentation of state debt questions.

Amendment 9 - Issuance of land patents.

Amendment 10 - Tax exemption for nonprofit water corporations.

Amendment 11 - State lottery.

Amendment 12 - Water development bonds for colonias.

Amendment 13 - Bonds for college student loans.

The final issue to be marked on the ballots is the proposal to add one half cents to the sales tax in Wichita County.

Man charged stealing vehicle

Police arrested Jacky Brent Peterson, 17, Sunday evening on a charge of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

Peterson, who also is a suspect in a number of burglaries here and in Oklahoma, according to Detective Ray Smock, is alleged to have taken a vehicle Oct. 14 and running it into a residential fence.

The suspect was taken to county jail Monday, and reportedly released on a $5,000 bond early Wednesday morning.

A local father and son were arrested during the past week, but on separate charges, according to the police blotter.

Officers took Jerome Koerth, 17, into custody at 11:13 p.m. Thursday in the 300 block of West Lafayette, when officers were called to the scene of a disturbance.

He reportedly was wanted on four warrants, issued for traffic and disorderly conduct complaints. He was released later on a personal recognizance bond.

Shortly after his arrest, Melvin Koerth, his father, is alleged to have made terroristic threats to personnel in the police department.

A warrant was issued on the elder Koerth, and he was taken into custody in the 100 block of Hope Lane at 10:31 p.m. Monday, according to the police blotter entry.

Two thefts and a pair of burglaries also were entered into the blotter.

A reported 120 cans of soft drinks were said to have been taken from a coin operated soft drink machine located in the 1500 block of Johnson Road sometime Friday.

A battery was reportedly taken from a pickup in the 1000 block of Mary Drive, police were told Saturday evening.

A resident in the 1000 block of West Louisa told police Sunday that someone had taken a Rolex watch, valued over $750. The complainant said the watch was apparently taken sometime with two days of the report.

Halloween decorations in yards on Ruby were attacked this week. One resident in the 500 block of East Ruby said five pumpkins had been taken, while another in the 200 block of West Ruby complained a scarecrow was missing.

READY FOR TONIGHT

... Iowa Park residents decorate for Halloween.

Chilly night faces ghosts and goblins

The goblins and ghosts are expected to be out in force tonight, in observance of Halloween.

Police are encouraging parents of youngsters to exercise extreme caution as they go trick or treating, especially in the darkness of night.

Additionally, because of the cold temperatures that are forecast, anyone out after dark should wear reflective clothing. Many costumes that have reflecting properties may be covered by warm coats.

Heritage Manor is opening its doors, from 6 to 8 p.m., for trick or treat seekers. Plans are also to have a cake walk available.

At least two alternative events are planned at churches, should residents not want to stay out in the cold. They are at Lakeview Church of God and First Baptist Church at Kamay.

Lakeview's Hallelujah Carnival will be from 6:30 to 9 p.m., and is free for youth two years of age through the fifth grade.

Games, refreshments and a costume judging will be available.

The Fall Festival at Kamay will open at 6:30, and admission will be a food item which will go into the church's pantry for Thanksgiving baskets.

Available will be game booths, cake walk, food and fun and fellowship.

The city council Monday night approved a list of streets, by priority, to be worked on next summer.

The list included approximately 65 blocks to receive slurry applications, and several others on which an asphalt overlay will be applied.

Several of the blocks slated for slurry applications were scheduled to be worked this past summer season, but delayed until next year.

Priorities were set on the various projects by the council, so that as much work as possible will be accomplished as long as the funds budgeted for the year are available.

Also approved was the emergency purchase of equipment for the sewer treatment plant.

Cost, with freight, of a new blower fan was said to be $12,600. Aldermen also tentatively agreed to have the old blower rebuilt, at approximately $8,000, so it could be held in reserve.

There are three blower fans designed into the operation of the plant. Should they all fail at once, the city would be liable to thousands of dollars in penalties and fines for contaminating the stream in which the plant's effluent is released, Gary Jones, city administrator, explained.

A "bookkeeping" resolution, to amend the 1990-91 budget, was passed.

The city dipped approximately $79,000 into its general fund reserves after spending more than was budgeted.

Included in the resolution was the writing off of uncollectable debts and bad checks that were incurred during the year.

Another resolution approved expressed the council's support of passage of state constitution amendment proposition number four, on the ballot for Tuesday's voting.

The amendment provides for the state to issue $1.1-billion in general obligation bonds primarily for the construction of additional prison facilities.

The administrator was authorized to advertise for the purchase of several supplies that were figured into this year's budget, as well as for construction of several valley gutters.

An ordinance, establishing a public hearing Nov. 11 for the annexation of a nine-acre tract of land on FM 368 south into the city was approved.

Lynn Stone, an employee of the city more than 11 years, was recognized as the city's Employee of the Month.

During a general discussion period, topics included possible methods of having undeveloped, wooded areas inside the city cleared, and work of the street crew on the parking area in front of the First Christian Church.

2.54 inches rain measured

The season's first major cold front was credited with causing precipitation that is beneficial both to the rural as well as city residents.

Iowa Park, as of Wednesday morning, had received 2.54 inches of rain, according to Virgil Woodfin. He said he measured .88 of an inch Saturday morning, and 1.66 accumulation from showers Sunday and Monday.

The area's young wheat crop was in dire need of moisture, as were the pastures and stock tanks, prior to the front.

Also, the moisture received by lawns, shrubbery and trees is expected to provide protection against the freeze that is forecast today, though the temperature is not expected to reach a low that could damage them.

Mrs. Weldon Strain

"I love to cook, especially for people who like to eat," said Mitzi (Mrs. Weldon) Strain who graciously agreed to be the Leader's Cook of the Week.

You could say that Mitzi followed in her mother's footsteps. She said her mother was a good cook, and often prepared meals for the athletes who trained under her father, a teacher and coach at Paris Junior College.

Mitzi finished high school in Paris, attended Paris Junior College and East Texas State Univ., and married a coach.

During Weldon's years of coaching, Mitzi, as her mother had done, prepared many meals for the athletes.

Their first home was in Forney, where Mitzi taught business for one year. When they lived in the Kilgore-Longview area, she worked for attorneys in Longview and also at the refinery. When they moved back to Forney, she was employed by the school system as bookkeeper and payroll clerk and stayed in that position until she retired. She said that her retirement took place six months before her husband retired as principal of Forney High School.

The Strains moved to Iowa Park in May to be near their only child, Jan (Mrs. Dennis) Yeager, and her family. Jan and her husband, who was quarterback on one of her father's teams, have two sons, Jason, an eighth grader and Todd, who is in the sixth grade.

Mitzi said that she and her husband are family oriented, and enjoy doing things around their home and spending time with the kids.

She is an avid reader and enjoys working on a few crafts, ceramics and oil painting. She loves to cook and has been collecting cookbooks from the time she married.

Mitzi's recipes are some that she has used many times over the years. She began making the Coffee Chiffon Pie as a summer cooler, but it soon became a "must" for Christmas dinners. Hearty Goulash is a dish that she prepared many times for the athletes, and many of them have requested copies of the recipe. Mitzi highly recommends the recipe for Party Chicken. She said that it is easy to vary the number of servings; it can be prepared ahead of time, and is perfect when having guests. And for those who, like Mitzi, don't particularly care for pumpkin, you might try the Caramel Pecan Pumpkin Pie. It's good.

Coffee Chiffon Pie

1/4 cup cold water
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup sugar
1 Tbsp. instant coffee
3 egg yolks, slightly beaten
1 cup water
Pinch salt
Soften gelatin in 1/4 cup water. Mix coffee, sugar, yolks, salt and the one cup water. Cook over hot water 5 minutes.
Beat 3 egg whites with 1/2 cup sugar and 1 tsp. vanilla until stiff. Fold into coffee mixture. Pour into 10" graham cracker crust. Chill until set. Serve plain or with whipped cream.

Caramel Pecan Pumpkin Pie

2 1/2 cups pumpkin
1/4 cup cream
2 slightly beaten eggs
1 cup sugar
1 Tbsp. flour

1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. cinnamon
1/4 tsp. nutmeg
1/4 tsp. allspice
1/2 tsp. lemon extract
1/2 tsp. vanilla
2 tsp. melted oleo
1 unbaked pie shell

Topping

1 cup pecans
1/4 cup butter
1 cup brown sugar
Mix pumpkin, cream eggs. Blend sugar, flour, salt and spices, and add to pumpkin mixture; stir well. Stir in extracts and melted oleo or butter and pour into unbaked pastry shell. Bake 10 minutes at 425 degrees, then reduce heat to 350 degrees and bake until firm - about 40 minutes.

When done, cover filling with topping ingredients which have been mixed together with fingers until crumbly. Place under broiler until slightly caramelized.

Hearty Goulash

2 lbs. lean ground beef
2 onions, diced
1 tsp. chili powder
Salt and pepper to taste
2 cans ranch style beans
2 cans whole kernel corn
Brown onion in small amount of oil. Add ground beef and brown slightly. Add spices, beans and corn. Cook 30 minutes on low heat.
Serve with salad and cornbread or crackers.

Party Chicken

Line 9x12" pan with chopped beef. Wrap boneless chicken breasts with slice of bacon. Place on top of dried beef. Mix 2 cans cream of mushroom soup with 2 cups sour cream and pour evenly over chicken. Cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate overnight. Cook uncovered for 3 hours at 300 degrees. Serve on bed of rice.

Very rich - one chicken breast per person is ample for most people.

Squash Casserole

2-3 lbs. yellow squash
1 egg, beaten
1 large onion, diced
1 roll Ritz crackers, crumbled
1 lb. shredded Cheddar cheese
1 tsp. Nature's Seasoning

Boil squash until tender. Drain well. Add egg and onion. Mix 3/4 lb. cheese with crumbs and add to squash, along with seasoning. Pour into casserole dish that has been sprayed with Pam. Sprinkle with remaining 1/4 lb. cheese. Place in 350 degree oven until heated through and cheese on top is melted - about 30-40 minutes.

Cranberry Salad

2 - 3 oz. boxes cherry gelatin
2 cups hot water
1 - 15 oz. can crushed pineapple and juice
1 - 16 oz. can whole cranberry sauce
1 cup sour cream
1 cup chopped pecans
1/4 cup Miracle Whip

Dissolve jello in hot water. Chill until slightly thickened. Mix cranberry sauce, pineapple and pecans well. Mix Miracle Whip and sour cream with small amount of juice from fruit mixture. Blend till smooth. Mix fruit and cream; blend well. Stir into jello and chill overnight. 10-12 servings.

Fire Department plans 'Country Flea Market'

The Kamay Volunteer Fire Department will sponsor a "Country Flea Market" Nov. 9 and 10 at the department's new station, located on SH 258 in Kamay.

The flea market will be open 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day.

Booths are available to rent at a cost of $15 for inside, and $7 outside, and new or used items may be sold. Anyone wishing to reserve a booth should call 438-2844 or 723-9126.

Pumpkins topic of program for Iowa Park Garden Club

Pumpkins were the topic of a program, presented by Barbara Fangman, for members of the Iowa Park Garden Club at their meeting Friday in the TU Electric Reddy Room.

Louise Clapp called the meeting to order, and Jo Gilbert read the thought for the day entitled "Soliloquy of a Pumpkin." Members answered roll call with items they had recycled this month.

Mrs. Fangman, who is Wichita County Home Economist, was introduced by Marie Wooten. She gave the group a brief history of the pumpkin before sharing tips on how to cook them.

She said that the pumpkin, which is marketed as a vegetable, has had many legends, rhymes, myths, and tall tales told about it. In ancient China the pumpkin was a symbol of wealth, and the early American settlers used the pumpkin as a food source upon their arrival.

"When we think of pumpkin we usually think of a golden crusted pumpkin pie," she said. "But, the pumpkin is used in making other things such as ice cream and breads."

Fifty-two million homes serve pumpkin sometime during the months of November and December. If stored in a cool, dry place, a pumpkin will keep up to a month.

Mrs. Fangman gave several tips on cooking the pumpkin, saying that it can be baked, boiled, steamed, or cooked in the microwave.

Before closing, she gave members a recipe for "Toasty Roasty Pumpkin Seed" and showed a pumpkin with a face painted on it and one made out of stiffened crochet string and stuffed with Halloween treats.

During the business session, Frances George, Community Service Chairman, discussed the possibilities of helping with the landscaping of the new Recreational Activities Center.

Mrs. Clapp announced that the District II Fall Convention of Texas Garden Clubs will be held Nov. 6-7, at the Green Oaks Inn in Fort Worth.

Conservation Chairman Vickie Gilmore reported on a new product on the market which is made from recycled tires. The soaker hose, manufactured by Moisture Master, uses up to 70 percent less water and can be used above or below the ground. Each year the company turns 500,000 old tires into brand new soaker hoses.

In other business, correspondence was read from Nell Copening stating that a monetary contribution had been received by Texas Garden Clubs for the President's Book in honor of the club president, Louise Clapp.

Gerta Wells and Marie Seets were hostesses and served from a table decorated with a Halloween theme. The centerpiece was a basket filled with straw, fall leaves, miniature pumpkins and Halloween figures, including a black cat and an owl. After the refreshments were served, Mrs. Seets distributed Halloween candy to the 16 members attending.

Crop Walk is Nov. 9

This annual event, sponsored by the Iowa Park Ministerial Alliance, raises money for the hungry, and provided several hundred dollars last year for use locally.

Everyone is encouraged to participate in the 6-mile walk to benefit the needy not only in Iowa Park, but around the world.

Members of the Channel 3 News Team, Kim Stamps, Bill Martin and Skip McBride will be the celebrity walkers this year.

LOW BACK PAIN

Low back pain is one of the most common disorders affecting American adults. It is estimated that 75 million Americans will have it each year, and that 80% of the adult population will have low back pain at some time.

Low back pain is the most common cause of disability among the 30 to 50 year age group.

Because these age groups are usually the most productive in the work force, the economic impact of low back pain is enormous.

Low back pain patients comprise the second largest diagnostic group seen by medical family practitioners, yet the common treatments recommended by these practitioners are being found to be ineffective. A prominent medical low back pain researcher has suggested that family physicians consider referring these patients for chiropractic care, as it has proven helpful for this disorder.

Low back pain generally is a mechanical disorder which needs suitable treatment. Chiropractic manipulation is just such a method. In the 1985 volume of the medical journal "Canadian Family Physician," Dr. William Kirkaldy-Willis, professor of orthopedic surgery at the University of Saskatchewan, reported on a study of chronic low back pain patients. The results of treatment with chiropractic manipulation were so favorable that Dr. Kirkaldy-Willis summarized that those medical doctors who refer their patients for this treatment will provide relief for many who would not otherwise be helped.

Indeed, growing numbers of low back pain sufferers are turning to chiropractic each year and are finding relief. Many people who were frustrated before seeking chiropractic treatment, return to an active lifestyle, not restricted by disabling pain. The latest statistics show that about one in three low back pain patients now see a chiropractor, and the percentage should be much greater. Chiropractic is both a safe and effective way to deal with low back pain, the unwanted American tradition.

As I See It... By Bob Hamilton

The first thing I'm going to do when I settle down in that voting booth Tuesday will be to turn to the last page, so I won't forget, and mark "no" on the proposal to increase sales taxes in Wichita County by half a cent.

I've got a real case of heart burn about that issue, even more than when I voted against it earlier this year.

First of all, as in the case of some of those constitution amendments we will be voting on, I'm tired of elected officials bringing back something that already failed. Especially so soon.

I likely could use this entire page to list all the reasons I oppose the county commissioners' court proposal. But I won't.

But to list a few:

* If approved, commissioners would not have their names on a higher tax being paid here. Rather, it would be the state collecting it through local businesses.

* I'm not aware of any provision to have the tax discontinued in the future.

* I'm not convinced the commissioners are doing everything in their power to cut county costs -- especially after that purchase of a different facility just across the road from the old one at Electra, and the continuous remodeling and expansion of the courthouse.

* Any additional tax on the county level puts merchants and service people who have to collect it at a disadvantage with those in counties that don't have a similar tax. And big-ticket items will be especially affected.

* I lack confidence that commissioners will reduce ad valorem taxes in relation to what is collected by sales tax (how many times have you seen elected officials not spend all they collect?).

* I'm reminded of a recent column by David Penn at Olney, when he accused the Young County commissioners of using a time-worn tactic of state and federal bureaucrats. He said that group had not reduced the ad valorem tax after getting the half-cent tax in place, as required, and explained they had just not raised ad valorem as much as they had intended.

When I'm through punching the "no" hole on that one, eight more will get the same treatment on the ballot.

I intend to vote against amendments 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 11, 12 and 13.

I'll vote "for" propositions 1, 4, 8, 9 and 10.

As an explanation on the lottery issue, the only way I would support it is that the receipts be put into a fund, to be budgeted for future expenditures. As it is, the state comptroller must guess what will be available for a two-year budget. Any shortfall will mean cuts all the agencies are geared up to use.

It may be a surprise to some that I would oppose proposition 5, tax exemptions for enterprise zones. The last such exemption that was approved for "freeport" goods simply shifted more of the tax load on residences and businesses that don't have such materials.

And though the elected bureaucrats added on several other institutions to proposition 4, I've still got to support a bond issue to construct more prisons. What we've got to deter criminals plainly isn't working.

Oh, and before I forget it, I'm very much opposed to proposition 2, concerning toll road funding. I'll bet a pretty penny that is the brainchild of Ross Perot, who wants to construct one across his land north of Fort Worth, and would be most important to his Alliance Airport project. Perot can use his own money for that kind of project.

I'll encourage everyone to study the amendments we are reproducing on page 7 of this issue, before you vote.

And if you don't think highly enough about the issues, just stay home. Heck, let someone else decide for you.

Letter

Supports the coaches

To Whom It May Concern:

Shame, shame, shame on the person or persons who deliberately set out to hurt a good friend of our youth, parents and the entire city of Iowa Park. This person is Lucky Gamble. Lucky set high standards for the boys as well as the girls in scholastic achievements as well as athletic achievements. He gives them hope, courage and determination to do the best in whatever endeavor they pursue. Lucky encourages the girls and boys to work hard and never give up. He has emphasized that there is more to life than athletics. He encourages each student to strive for the next higher level and you know what? They believe him and believe in him. The students understand that maybe one out of ten thousand make it as a professional athlete. They are not blind and we could learn a lot from them. They do not need outside interferences to constantly knock down their school and also their community.

I have no doubt in my mind, that Lucky would have sat down and talked to you if you were having a problem with him as a coach, administrator or as a citizen of Iowa Park. I believe that you would have found him to be understanding and not judgemental. But unfortunately, the writer or writers of the anonymous letter must hide behind the pen instead of standing up for what they have written. Why hide? If you believe that Lucky did wrong be brave and at least let the citizens of Iowa Park have all the facts instead of what we have read in our papers and all the rumors that have started.

We think it is time that as a community, we stand up and give Lucky Gamble our vote of confidence and let him know that one or two sour grapes do not represent the entire town of Iowa Park.

Lucky we are very proud that you and your family along with all the new coaches and their families decided to come and live in our community. We are sorry that one or more person's vendettas have hurt you. Please accept our apology and remember we do support you 100%.
Wally Grider
Joyce Grider

Disagrees with writer

First of all I would like to address the person who wrote the letter to the District Executive Committee. I hope you accomplished your quest.

Now let me tell you what you really accomplished. In your personal vendetta against Coach Gamble you have brought embarrassment not only to him and his family, but also to the entire school system and the citizens of Iowa Park. But mainly to the young men who on Friday nights give 110 percent to carry on the proud HAWK FOOTBALL tradition.

Your letter should be made public and printed in this paper, so the people of this community would know who was responsible for this action.

Lucky Gamble is the Athletic Director and head Football coach and should be shown the respect and support that past coaches have enjoyed. Not someone waiting in the shadows for his every mistake. If you do not like the way the school system runs the athletic department then maybe you should consider some of the neighboring schools for your children.

As for me and mine we're proud to be a part of Iowa Park.
Skip Sheets

Letter created 'spark'

To The Anonymous Letter Writer:

If we weren't so shocked and outraged, we might thank you for your letter to U.I.L. Your letter created the "spark" our football team needed to rally them to victory. If your intent was to shake the support for Coach Gamble in the community, it has done the opposite. It has strengthened it. The team's and the fans' support of Coach Gamble was clearly evident during the game in Bowie on Friday night.

The final outcome of your letter is still uncertain. The effects could be far reaching and involve many people including our son. Frankly, we are puzzled over your motive. We cannot help feeling that this action was a result of some sort of personal revenge that now unfortunately entangles us all.

Despite this incident, we are proud to say we live in Iowa Park. We are proud of our football team. We are proud of our coaching staff. And we proudly sign our names to this letter.
Billy & Joyce McNeely

Stodghill explains Concern program to Lioness Club

Joan Stodghill, executive director of Concern, Inc., was guest speaker at a meeting of the Evening Lioness Club Thursday night.

She was introduced by Mrs. Homer Blalock, vice president, who also directed the business.

Concern, Inc., is a volunteer-based crisis listening service to people in Wichita Falls and North Texas. Mrs. Stodghill joined Concern as a listener eight years ago and has been executive director three years.

She said Concern was organized in 1969 to deal with "crisis calls" in the area of North Texas. At that time it was, and still is a non-profit agency, manned by volunteers who are ready to help.

Mrs. Stodghill said Concern now has 24 trained listeners and that six more will be added in a few days.

"However, now that we are seeing a great increase in both teen and adult suicides in our area, we need more listeners to make people aware that Concern is here ready to help," she stressed.

The executive director explained for one to be a trained listener, he or she must spend two hours one night a week for six weeks in comprehensive training.

She described the listeners as caring, committed, Christian people, who keep all calls confidential, except suicide calls which force them to do more than just listen in order to save the lives of the callers.

Continuing, Mrs. Stodghill said that many of the callers gain assurance that they are important and wanted, and resolve to start a new life through the acceptance and love the listeners give.

The speaker was noticeably distressed about suicides, the eighth major cause of deaths among teenagers and adults in the United States. She said the rate of suicide deaths among young people between the ages of 15-24 increased 150 percent between 1960-80.

She told her audience that the highest number for teenage deaths occur during the months of September and October, and for adults during the month of April.

Mrs. Stodghill distributed concern cards and said that more than 12,000 of them had been sent to five Independent School Districts in the area.

These will be distributed to elementary, junior, and high school students so they will have a telephone number to call when they are depressed, confused, troubled, lonely or abused.

The speaker said Concern is funded through private donations, Sunday School classes and some clubs, and that people from the agency will go anywhere in this area to speak to any size group.

The meditation given by Mrs. T.C. Berry before the talk featured a poem "To A Friend" by Grace Stricker Dawson.

During a short business session, it was voted for each member to give one dollar to both the District 2-E 1 Eye Bank and the Lions Foundation.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mmes. Don Jagger, Lem Tate and Blalock.

A pumpkin, featuring facial features done in acrylic paint and a wisp of yarn hair, was flanked by two wooden black cats to lend a Halloween accent to the decorative setting.

"PERSPECTIVES: GOOD MARRIAGE CALLS FOR EXCLUSIVENESS"

The following article was written in the Christian Chronicle October 1991 issue by James Baird.
"In one not overly-large congregation, in a matter of a few months, ten men abandoned their wives and children because each of the men had become romantically involved with another women. To counselors, preachers, and elders excuses given to justify such betrayal are a familiar litany. "My wife never really did understand me;" "God wants me to be happy;" "I am not being sexually fulfilled." "I don't want the responsibilities of marriage anymore."
"Whatever the claimed justifications, this problem of men deserting their wives and the comparable one of wives deserting their husbands is of such proportion that is now can be labeled epidemic. The epidemic has been fueled by some of the larger Protestant churches. As Richard Brookhiser phrased it in the August 26 Time essay, "Traditional structures against homosexuality, premarital sex (once called fornication), even adultery, are up to the theological debate...What we are witnessing is in fact a clash between two earnest and articulated theological impulses. Traditionalists and innovators disagree about sex because they disagree about the universe and about God." Mr. Brookhiser is correct in pointing to a changed view of God as the source of the current sexual revolution. Many, even in the churches, no longer accept an authoritative God who has revealed an authoritative word. Once this mindset is given, it is a small step to compromise moral conviction in favor of the mores of society.
"By doing this we buy into a betraying concept of romantic love and sexual expression which is contrary to Bible teaching. To address the problem, Christians must recommit themselves to the authority of God, seeking a better understanding and application of His will for this part of their lives.
God has not been silent regarding sex. Genesis reveals the physical attraction between man and woman as placed by God in the nature of both sexes. In teaching that man and woman are to "become one flesh" (Genesis 2:24) portrays a degree of intimacy which is unequalled in all of life's other expressions. This fundamental ingredient is exclusiveness - one man and one woman becoming one flesh and each accepting this sharing of themselves as a lifetime commitment."
Our thanks to the Christian Chronicle for giving us permission to publish this article. Next week we will conclude the article.

mittee meeting at 6:45 p.m.

Mozelle Sullivan will discuss the extended day program.

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS For the November 5, 1991, Election

This November, Texans will have the opportunity to vote on 13 proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution. To help you make informed decisions on these propositions, we present the following summaries of the proposed amendments. Below you will find the proposition as it will appear on the ballot followed by a brief description of the effect the proposition will have if it is passed.

Proposition 1:

"The constitutional amendment allowing home-rule cities with a population of 5,000 or less to amend their charters by popular vote."

Summary: A home-rule city is a city that is able to govern itself, generally through the actions of a city council or commission. To become a home-rule city, a city must have a population of at least 5,000, it must hold an election to become a home-rule city, and the measure must pass by a majority vote. Once a city becomes a home-rule city, it may adopt a charter, and this charter may be amended through an election every two years. However, under current law, if the population of a home-rule city falls below 5,000, the city is no longer allowed to amend its charter. If passed, this amendment would allow home-rule cities whose populations have fallen below 5,000 to continue to amend their charters through elections.

Proposition 2:

"The constitutional amendment mandating the repayment to the Department of Transportation of monies expended to assist the Texas Turnpike Authority in the construction, maintenance, and operation of turnpikes, toll roads, and toll bridges."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will allow the legislature to authorize the Texas Department of Transportation to spend money on turnpikes, toll roads, or toll bridges of the Texas Turnpike Authority. The Department of Transportation may use any available money that it has for this purpose. However, if the Department of Transportation uses money from the state highway fund, this money must be replaced by money collected by the Texas Turnpike Authority from tolls and turnpike revenue. Currently, the state is not allowed to use any public money to build or maintain toll roads or turnpikes.

Proposition 3:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to further implement and enhance the administration of the veterans' housing assistance and land programs and to expand the investment authority of the Veterans' Land Board."

Summary: If passed, this amendment would ease the restrictions on how the Veterans' Land Board can invest money from the Veterans' Land Fund and the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund. The board may invest any money that is not to be used for the payment of principal and interest on bonds, the purchase of lands, or the payment of expenses. In addition, the board is no longer limited to investing this money in bonds or securities of the federal government.

Proposition 4:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of up to $1.1 billion in general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new prisons or other punishment facilities to confine criminals, mental health and mental retardation institutions, and youth corrections institutions, for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of the institutions, and for the acquisition of, major repair to, or renovation of other facilities for use as state prisons or other punishment facilities."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will allow the state to issue up to $1.1 billion in general obligation bonds. The money from selling these bonds will be used to acquire, construct, or equip new prisons and substance abuse facilities, mental health and mental retardation institutions, and youth corrections institutions. This money will also be used to repair and renovate existing facilities. The bonds and interest on the bonds will be paid from the first money coming into the state treasury that is not set aside by the state constitution for other purposes.

Note: A general obligation bond is a bond that is repaid from the State's general revenue fund. Most of the money in this fund comes from state taxes and fees.

Proposition 5:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the exemption for ad valorem taxes of certain property in an enterprise zone."

Summary: This amendment deals with property owned by an individual or organization that does business in an enterprise zone. If passed, this amendment would allow a county, a junior college district, or a municipality to exempt certain personal property from ad valorem taxation. To be exempt from this tax, the following conditions must be met: (1) the property must be acquired or brought into the state in an enterprise zone to be forwarded outside the state; (2) the property must be assembled, stored, repaired, maintained, manufactured, processed, or fabricated in the enterprise zone; (3) the property must be transported outside the state within 175 days after being acquired or brought into an enterprise zone; and (4) the person who acquired or brought the property into an enterprise zone is in a qualified business.

The purpose of this amendment is to encourage economic development in enterprise zones. Because some personal property will not be taxed, it will be less costly to operate a business in an enterprise zone.

Notes: An ad valorem tax is a tax imposed on the value of property. An enterprise zone is an area that has substantial poverty, unemployment, and economic distress. A qualified business is a business that is actively engaged in a new business in the enterprise zone or is expanding a business that is already active in the enterprise zone. "Enterprise zones" and "qualified businesses" are designated by the Texas Department of Commerce.

Proposition 6:

"The constitutional amendment creating the Texas Ethics Commission and authorizing the commission to recommend the salary for members of the legislature and the lieutenant governor, subject to voter approval, and to set the per diem for those officials, subject to a limit."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will create a Texas Ethics Commission that is established by the Texas Constitution. The commission will consist of eight appointed members. These members will be selected by the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, and the Speaker of the House from lists of names submitted by legislators from each major political party. This commission can recommend the salary of the members of the legislature. It can also recommend that the salary of the Speaker of the House and the Lieutenant Governor be higher than the salary of the other members. If the commission recommends a change in salary, the voters of the state will be able to accept or reject the salary change at the next general election for state and county officers. If the voters approve the recommended salary, the salary will take effect on January 1st of the next odd-numbered year. If the voters reject the salary, the salaries would remain the same. In addition, the commission can set the per diem of the members of the legislature and of the Lieutenant Governor. This per diem could be raised or lowered every two years, as necessary. The commission will also have other powers and duties as provided by Senate Bill 1, 72nd Legislature, Regular Session (the ethics bill). Finally, this amendment provides that an increase in the Lieutenant Governor's salary will not disqualify a legislator from becoming Lieutenant Governor.

If this amendment does not pass, there will still be a Texas Ethics Commission that is established by statute. This commission could not set the per diem of the members of the legislature.

Note: A commission that is established by the Texas Constitution can only be repealed by the voters. A commission that is created by statute can be repealed by the legislature.

Proposition 7:

"The constitutional amendment to allow the board of trustees of a statewide public retirement system to invest the funds of the system in a manner that the board considers prudent."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will change the way in which the board of trustees of each statewide public retirement system can invest the system's funds. Currently, a board can only invest its retirement funds in securities (stocks, bonds, etc.). However, if this amendment passes, a board may invest its retirement funds in any way that it thinks is prudent.

Proposition 8:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the voters of this state to consider state debt questions in the form of ballot propositions that must clearly describe the amounts, purposes, and sources of payment of the debt only after approval of the propositions by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature."

Summary: This amendment deals with the way that voters will vote on legislative action that would create a debt for the State. Currently, all propositions that create state debt must be approved by two-thirds of each house of the legislature and by a majority of voters during a constitutional amendment election. When these propositions are passed, they actually become part of the state constitution.

If passed, this proposition would still require propositions that create debt to be approved by a two-thirds vote of the legislature and a majority of the voters. However, when these propositions are passed, they will not become part of the state constitution. Instead, they will be enacted by statute. In addition, when the proposition is placed on the ballot, it must clearly describe the purpose of the debt, the cost of the debt, and how the debt will be repaid. The amount of the debt in the proposition can not be exceeded or renewed unless the proposition says that the debt can be exceeded or renewed.

Note: Creating a debt for the State means spending money that the State does not currently have. Selling bonds is one way that State debt is created.

Proposition 9:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the commissioner of the General Land Office to issue patents for certain public free school fund land held in good faith under color of title for at least 50 years."

Summary: This amendment deals with lands that are technically owned by the state of Texas. In some cases, people have purchased or acquired this land from someone other than the State. While the State still technically owns this land, some people who purchased or acquired the land did not know that the land was owned by the state. From the time that these people purchased or acquired this land, they have believed that they are the legal owners.

If passed, this amendment will allow the Land Commissioner to give the legal title for this land (called public free school fund land) to certain people. A person is entitled to receive a legal title to this land if: (1) the land is surveyed public free school land; (2) the person could not gain the land's title under previous law; (3) when the person acquired the land, he or she did not know that the land was legally owned by the state and has believed that he or she has owned the land since January 1, 1941; (4) the person has a recorded deed on file in the county courthouse and has claimed the land for at least 50 years as of January 1, 1991; and (5) all taxes on the land, including any interest and penalties for late tax payments, have been paid for at least 50 years.

Note: Public free school fund land is owned by the State. Any revenue that this land generates (through sale, rent, etc.) is placed in the Permanent School Fund.

Proposition 10:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxes certain property of a nonprofit corporation that supplies water or provides wastewater service."

Summary: This amendment deals with property owned by a nonprofit corporation that supplies water or provides wastewater services. If passed, this amendment will allow the legislature to exempt property that is owned by these corporations from ad valorem taxes. In order for this property to be exempted, the nonprofit corporation must meet the following conditions: (1) the corporation's bylaws must say that, if the corporation stops operating, any leftover assets must be transferred to an organization that provides water supply, wastewater service, or both; (2) the leftover assets must be property that can be used for water supply and wastewater services.

Note: An ad valorem tax is a tax imposed on the value of property.

Proposition 11:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing a state lottery."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will allow the State to operate lotteries. The State would also be able to contract with other organizations that would operate lotteries on the State's behalf.

Proposition 12:

"The constitutional amendment to increase from 20 percent to 50 percent the percentage of Texas water development bonds previously authorized by Texas voters that may be issued for economically distressed areas."

Summary: This amendment deals with reallocating a percentage of the $500 million of Texas water development bonds that were approved by Texas voters in 1989. These bonds were to be issued to fund water supply, water quality, and flood control projects. Currently, the board is limited to issuing 20% of the $500 million (or $100 million) of these bonds to provide water and wastewater facilities to economically distressed areas of the state. If passed, this amendment will allow the board to issue up to 50% of the $500 million (or $250 million) of these bonds for this purpose.

Proposition 13:

"The constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds not to exceed $300,000,000 to continue existing programs to provide educational loans to students, with repayments of student loans applied toward retirement of the bonds."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will allow the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board to issue up to $300 million in general obligation bonds. The money from selling these bonds will be used to finance educational loans to students. In the past, all bonds in this program have been retired through repayments from student borrowers, not the taxpayer.

BEAUTIFICATION DONATION - Weldon Lair, area manager for TCI Cablevision, turns over a $200 check to Chamber secretary Susan Dillard and president Joe Hughes. The money, raised during the company's project promoting conservation ideals, will be used for the beautification of the undeveloped corner in front of the Chamber office, shown in foreground.

Hawks smother Bowie, 35-7

Allow 26 yards in 24 minutes

The weather did Bowie a favor Friday night. After the teams went to the dressing rooms at halftime, game officials, coaches and school administrators, aware of a big storm to the south, decided to delay halftime about 15 minutes, until 9:30. And then they decided to call the game off, with Iowa Park the victors.

Unaffected by the lightening throughout the contest and a light rainfall almost the entire second quarter, the Hawks had amassed 355 total offensive yards to Bowie's 26, and a 35-7 lead.

Todd Pulley scored on runs of 66 and two yards, and half of quarterback Robert Denton's pass completions were for touchdowns: two to Mike Brewer and one to Mark Tatum.

In addition, Mark de la Rosa scored a two-point conversion and Pulley kicked three extra points.

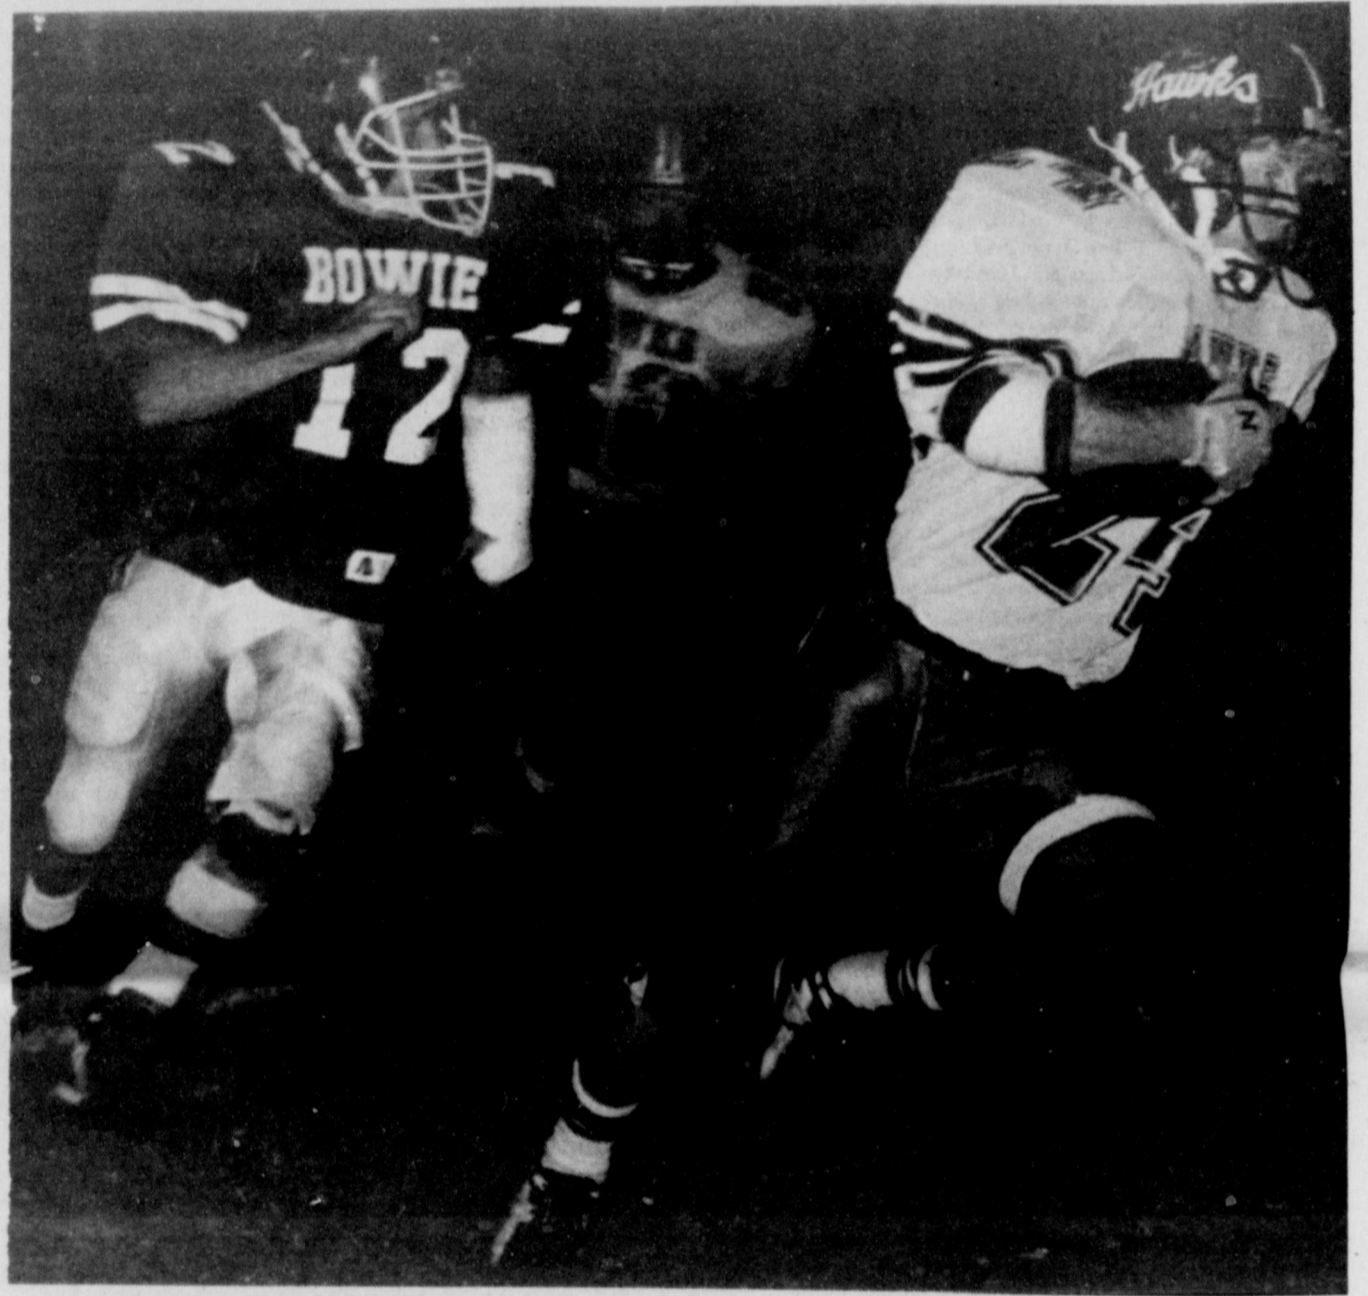

The host Jackrabbits were completely dominated by Iowa Park's Mean Green Defense. Bowie managed 11 net yards rushing in the first quarter and completed a 10-yard pass. In the second period, Bowie ran only seven plays which included three rushing for no net gain and completion of one out of four pass attempts for five yards.

Even with a wet field, neither team lost the ball on a fumble, and neither team had an interception.

Pulley owed the Jackrabbits a stunning play, because his 41-yard field goal attempt after the game's initial possession was blocked. Bowie was forced to punt four plays later. And on the next play, he broke over left tackle on a dive play and outraced the secondary to the end zone for a 66-yard touchdown.

That was followed by one of Iowa Park's trick plays, set up when the line moves over to the side from the extra point kicking formation. de la Rosa was tossed the ball and he scored the two-pointer.

A two-yard shanked punt set up Iowa Park's second touchdown on the 50 yard line. It was capped by a 15-yard pass from Denton to Tatum on the sixth play of the series, with 48 seconds remaining in the first period.

TODD PULLEY RAMBLES FOR 24 YARDS ON FIRST PLAY OF GAME

Pulley's second TD capped a 10-play drive that covered 78 yards. He set the scoring play up on the preceding play with a 20-yard run.

Bowie's only score was on the following kickoff. Troy Chandler caught the short kickoff on his 26 and raced through the Hawk defensive line, which was spread out across the field, to the end zone.

Three plays later, however, the Hawks extended their lead once again. Three plays after the drive started on the Hawk 36, Denton connected with Brewer for a 49-yard touchdown. Pulley didn't get his extra point kick off after that, however, when the slick, wet ball was bobbled.

The Denton-to-Brewer combination hit pay dirt again, with 12 seconds remaining in what turned out to be the game. Brewer took the ball on the 10 and crashed over two defenders at the goal line on a play that covered 15 yards.

Pulley carried only 12 times, but gained 149 yards. Denton and de la Rosa both gained 40 yards rushing, Denton on four carries and de la Rosa on five. Chris Williams had four carries for 20 yards.

The other two pass receptions were by Joel McIlroy, 21, and Stormy McDonald, two.

DOING THEIR PART - Like all the rest of the Bradford Elementary student body and faculty Friday, J.W. Adams and his teacher Leslie Crum wore their crazy caps. The theme of the day was "Cap on drugs."

Former resident candidate for judge

A former resident of Iowa Park has become the first announced candidate for judge of the 89th District Court in Wichita County.

Roy Sparkman, who lived here in 1973-74 and is now a resident of Wichita Falls, announced his candidacy Monday for the seat to be vacated when Judge Temple Driver retires.

Sparkman, who is board certified in civil trial law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, would be the first such specialist elected in Wichita County as a judge, should he succeed in his candidacy.

He was first board certified in 1983, and re-certified in 1988.

He has been practicing law in Wichita Falls since 1976 and as a shareholder with the Sherrill and Pace law firm.

His wife is the former Donna Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hill of Iowa Park. The couple's first daughter, Mindy, 18, was born while they lived here.

They have two other children, Amy, 14, and Curt, nine.

Sparkman, a Republican, is a member, teacher and deacon at First Baptist Church of Wichita Falls.

ROY SPARKMAN
... candidate for judgeship.

The 40-year-old attorney is a graduate of Burkburnett High School (1969), Midwestern State Univ. (1973), and Baylor Univ. Law School (1976).

He has been a trustee of the Wichita Falls school board since 1984, and its president since 1988. He also is the first to serve as president of the state-mandated County Education District board.

He indicated he would resign as the WFISD board president in November. "To avoid the potential conflict or question of whether I was speaking as board president or as a candidate, I felt it was in the best interest of the school board and the district to resign."

However, he will continue to serve as a board member until after the election.

Sparkman indicated that serving as judge would provide him another opportunity to serve the citizens of Wichita County.

"I have greatly enjoyed the opportunity to serve the community on the Wichita Falls school board," he said.

"Serving as judge of the 79th District Court would provide me an even greater opportunity to serve the citizens of Wichita County. The quality of justice received is frequently dependent upon the qualifications and capabilities of the judge. I believe I have the training, background and experience necessary to qualify me to serve as judge. I will be committed to work hard and render fair decisions."

Judge Driver announced a few weeks earlier he would not seek reelection to the post he has held a number of years.

Weather affected other Friday night football games, besides Iowa Park and Bowie calling off their countess at halftime. The Vernon-Breckenridge game at Breckenridge was delayed an hour before starting. At Graham, where Bridgeport was playing, a photographer's plastic camera bag almost floated away on the sidelines. Parrin and Alvord suspended their game in the second quarter, with the intent to continue Saturday (Alvord led 20-0). And the Boyd-Aledo game was called off with 6:42 remaining in the fourth period, with Boyd leading 42-0.

Phillip Dawson kicked a 50-yard field goal for Lake Highlands High against Richardson Berkner a couple of weeks ago. It was the longest such kick this season by an athlete in the Dallas area. Dawson's father, Robert, is a former outstanding Hawk quarterback, and his grandfather, also Robert, the long-time IPHS principal.

TOP OF TEXAS FOOTBALL

IOWA PARK MIDGETS 28 HENRIETTA MIDGETS 8

Iowa Park's Midgets continued their unbeaten string, defeating Henrietta 28-8 Saturday.

They will play for the championship at 4 p.m. Saturday. A win would be four years 12 of the players have gone without a defeat in Top 'O Texas Football.

Scoring was provided by: Brandon Brown, one touchdown and a pair of two-point conversions; Michael Swenson and Tres Beisch, one TD apiece; Toby Williams, a pair of two-point conversions; and a pass from Swenson to Justin Terry for a touchdown.

The defense held Henrietta to a net

10 yards rushing until the final quarter. Henrietta finished with one first down, while Iowa Park had 12, with 222 net yards offense.

Outstanding defensively were Chad Wright, Brad Green, Tommy Duerson, Ross Dillard and Perry Green.

IOWA PARK PEE WEES 0 QUANAH PEE WEES 8

In an outstanding defensive game, there was only one touchdown scored, and that was a 51-yard run by Quannah on the second play of the game.

Quannah was held to 54 yards and three first downs the rest of the game.

Frosh win; JV loses

The Hawk Junior Varsity suffered its first loss of the season Thursday, but the Freshmen posted their second win in succession.

The JV fell victim to Bowie, 32-18. The Freshmen shut out Archer City by a 7-0 margin.

After building a 24-0 lead before the halftime break, Bowie extended that to 32 before Iowa Park was able to light up its side of the scoreboard.

Scott Tigrett scored all three Hawk touchdowns, before the end of the third quarter.

He first capped a 13-play drive with a seven-yard draw, and went outside on runs of two and 10 yards.

Penalties during the fourth period scuttled Iowa Park drives.

Jason Houston had two receptions that accounted for over 100 yards.

Bowie Farr scored the only TD in the Freshman contest, and Clint Scobee tacked on the extra point.

Both clubs are scheduled to travel today to Breckenridge, where the first game of the doubleheader is to start at 5:30 p.m.

Cabin destroyed by fire

A cabin owned by Iowa Park city administrator Gary Jones was completely destroyed Tuesday by fire.

Jones said the cabin, which is located on the north side of Lake Kickapoo and has been in his family some 12 years, caught fire about noon and, despite the efforts of three volunteer fire departments, was a total loss.

"The only thing good about it is that no one was injured and it was covered by insurance," Jones said.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN - Lt. Gov. Bob Bullock, affected by the mass shooting in a Killdeer cafeteria, wants the next Legislature to require criminal background and mental checks for persons seeking to buy handguns.

"People in the NRA (National Rifle Association) are going to eat me up on this, but we have to do something," said Bullock, a lifetime NRA member.

Bullock wants Texas to have an "instant check" like Virginia, with a central number the gunshop owner can call to check criminal and mental histories before selling a handgun.

Bullock called it right on the NRA's reaction: Dave Edmunson, executive director of the Texas NRA, said Bullock's plan wouldn't work because criminals would not wait around for a background check.

Meanwhile, Sen. Gene Green of Houston, where parolee violence has soared, speculated that if his bill had passed last session allowing law-abiding citizens to carry handguns, perhaps the mass killer would have been brought down by a restaurant patron.

Speaker's Trial Date House Speaker Gib Lewis, who is facing two misdemeanor ethical charges has hinted he may get out of politics.

Now, if he does decide to pursue a record sixth term as speaker, he will have to stop in mid-campaign to go to trial.

State District Judge Bob Perkins, who jailed Lewis earlier for failing to appear at a pre-trial hearing, set the next court appearance for January.
