Kamay phone customers will soon vote on change

Residents of the Kamay, Valley View area should begin receiving a letter right after June 15 from their telephone company, GTE.

Those envelopes being sent to all telephone customers with a prefix of 438 will carry a ballot concerning extending local calling.

Phone customers in that area earlier this year sent a petition to the Public Utilities Commission in Austin, requesting the election be held.

Coordinating the effort was Shirley Cravens, and Woody Gosson, Precinct One commissioner, has been the committee's contact person with Austin.

In order to pass, 70 percent of those voting must be in favor of the change.

But, most importantly, the ballots must be completed and returned by the date specified in order for them to be counted, according to Lilo D. Pomerlean, hearing coordinator for the PUC.

Under the new service, residential customers will pay a maximum of $3.50 per line and business customers $7 per line per month for toll-free calling to Iowa Park, Holliday and Wichita Falls.

If the vote is affirmative, a cost study is submitted by the telephone carrier and reviewed by the PUC. Interim approval could be given by Aug. 29.

Any objection to the new fee schedule must be filed by Sept. 28. The presiding PUC officer could issue permanent approval by Oct. 21.

It is conceivable that the fees could change in September with the interim approval, according to Gosson.

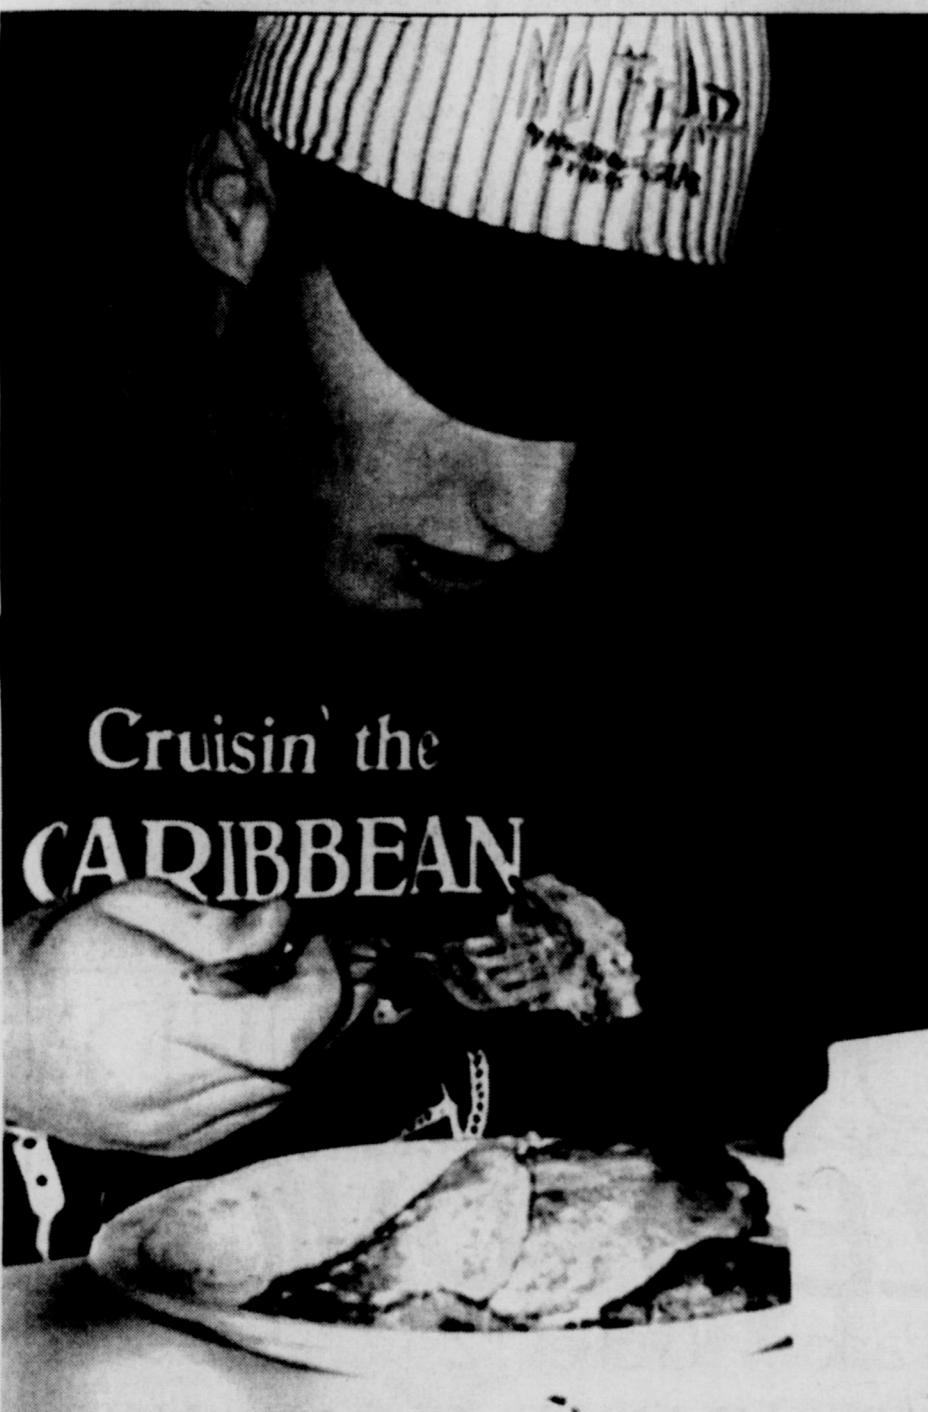

Friendly Door receives grant

The building fund of the Friendly Door got a major boost this week, with the receipt of a $3,000 grant from the Burlington Northern Foundation.

That brought the fund up to $16,690, with another $1,450 anticipated in pledges.

Funds thus far have been: $8,319 from board members and staff; $1,337 from local businesses plus $700 in pledges; $2,464 from organizations and churches; $1,275 from individuals and $750 more in pledges, and $895 received in the form of memorials.

Memorials and donations can be made to the Friendly Door, located at the corner of Wall and Cash, either in person or by mail.

EARLY BREAKFAST was served to Iowa Park's Class of '94 signaling the end of Project Graduation Saturday morning. Jayson Houston joined his fellow graduates in consuming hot cakes, sausage and bacon, prepared by the Iowa Park Mule-Skinners.

Barbour Trucking observing 75th

By MYRNA SMITH

Seven and a half decades have come and gone since John B. Barbour, Sr., returned to Iowa Park after serving in World War I and completing his degree at the University of Oklahoma. He arrived with a Nash Quad truck to blaze the trail in the oilfield hauling industry and to establish John B. Barbour Trucking Co.

Now, a third generation John Barbour of Plano is serving as president of Barbour Trucking Co., Inc. that will celebrate its 75th anniversary Friday with open house at the headquarters office, 402 E. Highway.

Mayor Wayne House has proclaimed Friday Barbour Trucking Day in Iowa Park, and will present the proclamation to Barbour Friday. Several former employees of the company are expected to attend the celebration.

After noting the activity in the oil field business in this section of the country, Barbour Sr., recognized the need for something faster than a wagon and team to move drilling rigs from one location to another and moving supplies and equipment.

Barbour started the business, driving the truck himself, when trucks had just begun to replace wagons and teams in moving oilfield equipment.

From the beginning Barbours was always available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. John B. Barbour Sr., built his business on the precept of providing service that was as good as his word, which has been the ultimate goal through the 75 years.

In 1921 he married Verna Lindsey, a teacher and former classmate in Iowa Park High School. The business was operated out of their home. She answered the phone and would drive out to the field where Barbour was and tell him if he had another job.

By 1924 he had added two trucks and in 1925 he was operating nine trucks, doing all kinds of oilfield work, including stringing hundreds of miles of pipeline in Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma, and eventually all over the United States and Canada.

Particularly in the early years of the business many improvements in equipment and methods of handling oil field equipment were contributed to employees of the Barbour Trucking Company.

One of the first improvements was an A-frame arrangement used in loading. It was designed by Ralph Sisk, an employee, who later established a bullet business here. It was stationary, with a block and tackle hanging on it. It was operated by tying it onto the back of a truck and driving off.

Barbour later procured a "donkey winch". This type winch was used on ships at that time to raise anchor and load and unload. The winch was installed on truck No. 14, and was the first of its kind in this area. A little later the gin pole was designed by Sisk and installed by Barbour.

In 1927, the first dual tired truck was introduced. In 1936 the first rolling tailboard was designed by Barbour Trucking Co. It was not until 1941 that the self-loading float came into being.

A SIMPLE, HAND-MADE CROSS marks the location where a murder victim was discovered Saturday morning at Burnett Park, on FM 368. The body of 26-year-old Ralph Ysasi was reported at 12:51 to Iowa Park police. It was between the road leading into the park and the closed road to the old bridge. Ysasi suffered multiple stabs to the upper body and his throat was reportedly slashed. Sheriff Tom Callahan said Tracy Lee Kendall, 20, turned himself in Sunday. Neither man is from the Iowa Park area.

Police report busy week

Though Iowa Park police were kept extremely busy during the past week, none of the activity related to graduation or the end of school.

Seven persons were arrested, most of them for public intoxication.

When an officer checked out an open fire at Lake Buffalo at 12:32 a.m. Saturday, he didn't write a warning about the fire, but charged both adult males with public intoxication.

John Paul Houston, 19, and Chance Milton Collier, 18, were both released after signing personal recognition bonds.

Less than 30 minutes after their arrests were logged into the police blotter, another officer arrested a couple in the 700 block of North Third.

Sandra Gay Hammack, 34, and Robert Weldon Owens, 35, both were charged with public intoxication, and released on personal recognition bonds, according to the police blotter.

The police radio dispatcher received a telephone call at 9:28 p.m. Saturday, concerning a woman "covered with mud and wearing a life jacket" walking south of Johnson Road.

Thinking there may have been a boating accident at Lake Buffalo, the officer found the woman walking near West Highway and Emma.

She was not injured, and there had not been an accident. Rather, she had apparently become upset with others in a party at the lake.

Hazel Ruth Lotz, 33, was arrested on a charge of public intoxication. She was booked in at the police station, and later released on a personal recognition bond.

Officers responded to a reported domestic disturbance in the 400 block of East Magnolia at 1:09 a.m. Sunday which resulted in the arrest of Gregory Joseph Kasparek, 19.

Kasparek was charged with domestic disturbance, and released at 6:05 a.m. on a personal recognition bond.

When an officer on patrol Friday evening stopped Durinda Lee Patty, 36, in the 1500 block of West Highway, it was determined a local warrant for her arrest existed.

The warrant was for driving without a license.

Bennett returns to defend title

Earl Bennett will be back Friday to defend his twice-earned championship of the All-Iowa Park Golf Tournament.

This year's tournament is to get underway at 1 p.m. at River Creek Golf Course. That is a change, in that past tournaments have been at La Vista Club in Wichita Falls.

Two years ago, Bennett fired a scratch 71 to claim the title, and last year his 72 stood up against the other 48 challengers.

Last year's handicap winner, Jeff Brookshire, was not registered by Tuesday's deadline to play, however. But the 1992 handicap winner, Vern Mikkelsen, is.

Last year, Brookshire had a scratch 86, but when his handicap was figured in, he had a 68 to win.

Handicaps are figured on the Callaway System.

Another change in this year's format is the fact that all groups will tee off at the first tee box, instead of a shotgun start.

Prizes will be in the form of "IP Bucks," which can be redeemed at any Iowa Park business.

Special prizes will include a $25 gift certificate from Sincerely Yours, for the lady who hits the closest drive to the pen on the 13th green.

The men will be gunning for two special prizes. A putter donated by Second Hand Golf will be awarded for the longest drive on number 18 fairway.

The other, also a putter donated by Robert Palmer, will be awarded for the closest to the pen on number 11, which is normally a five-par but shortened to a three-par while work is underway on the fairway.

A total of 44 golfers have entered the tournament this year.

Starting times for the groups will be as follows:

- 1:00 - Earl Bennett, Don Russell, Bob Hamilton, Robert Palmer.
- 1:08 - Sam McIlroy, Joe Hughes, Randy Alsop, Dennis Dillard.
- 1:16 - Robert Harper, Mark Ledesma, Jack Phillips, Daryl Beals.
- 1:24 - Ray Featherston, Houston Darnell, Mark Ledesma, Jim Murfield.
- 1:32 - Phil Welch, Miles Welch, Mike Magee, Jimmy Duggins.
- 1:40 - Karla Hopper, Joni Lively, Matt McKnight, Mike Wade.
- 1:48 - Leo Howland, Charles Friday, Michael Isbell, Brad Teplicek.
- 2:00 - Herman Mahler, Donald Allen, Rick Hanson, Joe Patterson.
- 2:08 - Wayne House, Dan Spruiell, Wendall House, Barry Spruiell.
- 2:16 - Joe Langdon, Vern Mikkelsen, Robert McIlroy, Chuck King.
- 2:24 - Pat Spruiell, Dolores Hamilton, Connie Patterson, Diane Hanson.

Hinkle, Young nuptials exchanged May 14 in candlelight ceremony

Ronald Wayne Young and his bride, the former Chandra Lynn Hinkle, are making their home in Irving, following a honeymoon in Maui, Hawaii.

The couple were united in marriage in a double-ring candlelight ceremony May 14 in First Baptist Church of Panhandle. Dr. Jerry Carlisle, pastor of Valley Ranch Baptist Church in Irving, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Kalka of Panhandle and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Young of Iowa Park.

Grandparents of the bride are Claudia Adams of Amarillo and Thomas (Buddy) Lloyd of Panhandle. Vada Young of Malden, W.V. is the bridegroom's grandmother.

Cecilia House of Hurst, formerly of Iowa Park, presented prelude and wedding music at the organ and Madeline Bates of Amarillo was vocalist.

"Wind Beneath My Wings" was sung as Ashley Hinkle of Panhandle, niece of the bride, and Lindsay Hinkle, her niece, of Coppell, lighted the candles. They wore identical black taffeta dresses.

During the lighting of the unity candles by the bride's and groom's parents, Madeline Bates sang "There Is Love". "The Lord's Prayer" was sung during the ceremony, and "You're My Inspiration" was sung as the bride and groom lighted the unity candle.

The altar was decorated with two white pedestals banked with arrangements of red gladiolus and Queen Anne's Lace, spiral candelabra entwined with ivy, Boston ferns and other green plants. The unity candles were placed amid an arrangement of red and white carnations.

Pews were decked with white bows and ivy.

Escorted by her stepfather, the bride was attired in an all white Alencon lace gown adorned with seed pearls and sequins.

The gown featured a Sabrina neckline and plunging V-back accented by a double satin bow. The fitted long sleeves were highlighted with peek-a-boo lace. The fitted bodice and natural waistline were accented with beautiful Victorian patterns of pearls, lace and sequins.

Her satin train was semi-cathedral length with a hem outlined in pearls, lace and sequins. Her fingertip veil was attached to a headpiece of satin roses and pearls.

Atop a white Bible, the bride carried a cascading bouquet of white sweetheart roses, tips of larkspur, ming fern, bear grass and ivy.

Julie Jones of Dallas served as maid of honor. Nikki Duncan of Panhandle and Cindy Lieb of Morse were bridesmaids. They were identical tea length black taffeta dresses. Each carried long-stemmed Madam Delbard roses with iridescent ribbons.

Don Young of Austin was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Greg Huff of Irving and Richard Young, of Iowa Park, brother of the groom.

The groom wore a black tail tuxedo, black bow tie and cummerbund. His attendants wore black waist coat tuxedos with black bow ties and cummerbunds.

Ushers were Delwin Hinkle of Coppell, Rodrick Hinkle of Panhandle and Thomas Hinkle of Houston, all brothers of the bride, and Billy Rogers of Panhandle, the bride's nephew.

Stacy Hinkle of Coppell, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a black taffeta dress matching those of the candlelighters and bridesmaids. She carried a white lace basket filled with red petals.

Tod Duncan of Panhandle was ring bearer. He wore a black waist coat tuxedo, black bow tie and cummerbund.

Guests were registered by the groom's sister, Teresa Young of Iowa Park. Cori Hinkle of Panhandle, the bride's niece, greeted guests with programs of the service.

A reception was held in the parlor of the church immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table featured a white pearl and lace cloth, a crystal punch bowl and a five-tiered swirled wedding cake.

Each tier was adorned with bouquets of red and white roses, carnations, snapdragons and baby's breath. A votive candle was in the middle of each tier.

Anne Hinkle of Coppell, Connie Hinkle of Panhandle, Stacie Hinkle of Houston, sisters-in-law of the bride, and Jackie Brown of San Antonio served at the bride's table.

The groom's table was all white with a chocolate groom's cake. Red Kool-aid, the groom's favorite drink was served from a glass pitcher, complete with the Kool-aid face and smile.

Lesia Schnitker of Georgetown, Laura Kasser, Nicole Kinkade, both of Fort Worth, and Connie McCollum of Irving served at the groom's table.

Tobi Ann and Samantha Duncan of Panhandle distributed white rice bags before the bride and bridegroom departed.

The bride is a graduate of Panhandle High School and Texas Tech University. She is an accountant for NEC America, Inc., in Irving.

Young is a graduate of Iowa Park High School and Texas Tech University. He is a computer programmer for IBM in Roanoke.

The groom's parents hosted a rehearsal dinner at First Baptist Church for the wedding party, friends, and relatives.

A bridesmaid luncheon was hosted by Jeannie Cunningham and Nikki Duncan.

Barbour

In 1934 Barbour was asked by the Texas Company to bid on moving a 90,000 pound bubble tower and set it up. After much consideration he made a bid which he thought would be too high. It was accepted and then the work really started.

The tower arrived on two flat cars. Rollins "Doc" Woodall, who was foreman and supervisor of handling heavy equipment at that time, and other employees borrowed tires, trailers and other equipment and finally got the bubble moved the 22 miles in two days.

The third day, when they started raising the tower, water began to pour out. It was discovered that the tower had been half full of water all during the move. At that time it was the heaviest piece of equipment ever moved by truck in this area.

Some of the early-day employees, who helped to build the company were Gayle Park, George Butcher, Loyd Bell, Bud May, Arch Hughes, J.C. Horn, Burk Scott, William Black, Boyt Smith, Wade Park, Paul Craft, J.S. Bridges, and John Mixon.

Mrs. E. E. Wallis was office manager in the early years and Mrs. Eldon Thompson worked in book-keeping.

The Barbour's son, the late J.B. Barbour Jr., grew up with the business. When he was nine years old he was shop clean-up boy, tire repair helper, etc. By the age of 11 he was working in the shop. After going through all the jobs, he knew the business pretty well by heart.

Both he and his father served their country during World War II and Verna kept things going during that time with dedicated employees.

When J.B. Jr., returned from service he completed his work for a BBA degree from the University of Oklahoma and came back to Iowa Park to join his parents who began shifting the trucking operations to him. In 1959 he assumed full management when his father became ill.

Then J.B.'s son, the third John Barbour, grew up in the company as his dad had. He now lives in Plano and serves as president of the company.

From a one-man, one-truck oilfield operation, Barbour now operates with 115 trucks, hundreds of pieces of equipment and transports thousands of tons of machinery, equipment and commodities as well as serving many diverse industries.

It is now a sophisticated operation. A specialized motor carrier, boasting a fleet of the latest Aero Dynamic power units. As a specialized motor carrier, they have the experience to move over-dimensional commodities that require specialized trailers and cranes for safe and proper delivery.

Barbour Trucking Company, Inc., can create any kind of rig that might be needed in a specialized haul. With every kind of low-boy, drop deck, standard and heavy duty flat bed, stretch trailer, pole trailer, ramp, boom, etc., they can be ready for any transport job.

Also the company's drivers are recognized as being among some of the most qualified people in the transportation industry.

General offices of John Barbour Trucking Co., Inc. are located in Iowa Park. However, there are strategically located terminals in Texas and Oklahoma to provide better service to their customers.

In addition to Iowa Park, terminals are located in Cedar Hill, Grand Prairie, San Antonio, and Houston in Texas, and in Tulsa and Oklahoma City in Oklahoma.

Milton Keck, who also grew up in the business, is general manager of the company and Steve Magalwski is vice president.

Since 1919 the motto of the company has been dependable, responsible, versatile and progressive. It is this legacy of service and experience that has been handed down from father to son for three generations that sees the company continue to be a successful operation.

As I See It. ■ ■ By Bob Hamilton

Two instances last week made me realize how small this old world can be.

The first was on Thursday, when Dolores and I went down to Fort Worth to watch the Colonial Golf Tournament.

When bad weather hit, we decided to go to the Southwestern Bell Telephone hospitality room in the Tennis Center. Ma Bell is a gracious host.

Anyway, after we had been in the hospitality room for half an hour or so, Dolores said one of the several women working there looked familiar.

Believing I was the one who couldn't forget a face, but seldom can remember names, I assured her that she was mistaken.

After a while, the wife couldn't take it any longer, and went over to talk with the petite woman. She asked if she were from Iowa Park.

Yep! She was Cathy Russum, IPHS Class of '75.

Obviously, we had to visit for a long time, catching up with everything. No, Cathy isn't married. Yes, she works at least three days a week at the Colonial Country Club. And she lives near Granbury.

Cathy is a busy person. Besides the Colonial work, she works at least one day a week at a beauty shop, keeps a house or two for folks out of town, and sometimes their kids too. And just to stay busy, she is also a part owner in a cleaning business, with residences and businesses as clients.

The other small world situation was on Saturday, at Lubbock where the Hawks played Sanford Fritch in baseball.

Sanford Fritch school superintendent is a fellow I first met while he was a freshman at Kress High School. I had heard he got that job about four years ago, and looked him up for a visit before the game got underway.

Alton Fields, by the way, is the son of the late Leo Fields, who served as Farm Bureau Insurance agent for Wichita County back in the early 1980s, and lived on Rita Lane.

Then, to shrink the world a little more, it was Alton who hired Weldon Nelms, Iowa Park's new athletic director and head football coach, for his first head coaching position at Rotan, back in 1987.

Back to the Colonial tournament. Meeting Cathy was one of two highlights of that trip, that required some seven hours driving time.

You see, when we got there, we watched Fred Funk sink about a 15-foot down-slope putt on Number Nine.

That was the end of the tournament for the day. After waiting in the hospitality room some four hours for the weather to clear and allow play to resume, play was called off until the next day.

I hope we get to see more than one putt next year when we go down.

But getting to visit with friends of this small world make such trips well worth while.

Trustees to meet

Personnel, bids and reports dominate the agenda for Monday night's meeting of school trustees.

The meeting is to begin at 8:30 p.m. in the junior high library.

Under the topic of personnel, the agenda calls for an executive session to accept resignations and considering hiring of new personnel.

Following that, the board is to return to open session to take action on the topics they had discussed behind closed doors.

Trustees will consider a proposal of "paying a stipend to teachers who complete college hours toward a master's degree, and reimbursing teachers for inservice training."

A public hearing will be held on Chapter Two and federal expenditures.

Also on the agenda is action on student transfer requests.

Action is expected on bids to purchase summer maintenance supplies and athletic equipment.

Reports will be made on taxes, summer maintenance, transportation, cafeteria and by Supt. Glen Mitchell.

The board also is expected to appoint Supt. Mitchell to the Regional Advisory Committee of Region Nine Service Center.

Thinks coaches cheat

To whom ever:

I am a parent and the other day I was going to go watch my son play his baseball game at the senior league field I thought I was going to watch a good game, but you know what you can not even go and do that any more with out the game being ruined by some of the coaches having to cheat to win their game. And the cheating that I am referring to is the "HIDDEN BALL TRICK".

We as parents spend all of our time teaching our kids how to handle life and not go through life cheating if things don't go your way. I was shocked to know that a grown man would teach kids how to cheat, if you can't win cheat.

You know that even the big leagues on t.v. don't even do that, well guess what coaches you are not in the big leagues, these are little kids trying to play a game with each other, and guess what they have fun doing it. It is the parents that destroy the game with all their fighting with each other, griping with the coaches if something is not done right, you know that we as parents should take our kids advise and the way they play the game and go out there and have fun, because when the game is over and they are out of the dug out they forget the game and are playing with each other.

And as far as the hidden ball trick goes I would be ashamed if I were a grown man standing there and teaching our kids how to cheat to win the game.

And for all you umpires that don't know the rules of the game I suggest you go home and read the book.

Remember coaches these are kids, my kid, your kid, do it right and play the game right or don't coach.

WORTH QUOTING

An Arkansas legislator, in Amarrillo to speak to members of the Panhandle Press Association, says there's a movement afoot to rename Highway 71 in that state.

The highway runs from Texarkana north to Fayetteville. Some Arkansas solons want to rename the road the Bill Clinton highway.

Why?
"It's crooked, slippery, and has a yellow stripe down the middle!"

Ouch!

Summer Kick-Off Day

Tomorrow is the big kick-off day for our summer programs at the RAC! Beginning at 10:00 a.m. we will have summer registration, games, contests, and great entertainment by the Story Patch Players. This will be a great day of family fun, so parents are strongly encouraged to join their kids for all the activities. These will be displayed at the RAC and judged for prizes. For further information about summer programs, please call the RAC office at 592-4471.

Volunteer Thanks

Thanks to some wonderful and willing volunteers, our end of school party was a real success. We would be unable to do so many of our projects at the RAC without the support of people who like to help, and we want all of you to know how much we appreciate you. Volunteers who assisted with the end of school party were Jana Rich, Lisa Ezzell, Laura Landers, Shala Womack, Christy Landers, and Jessica Cockrum. Donations for prizes and refreshments were received from the following merchants: Pizza Hut, Sonic, Harvey's, and the Iowa Park swimming pool. Thanks to all of you for your continued support!

Insect Bites

The best protection against insect bites is prevention. Following these steps will reduce your risk of getting bitten:

- Wear shoes outdoors.
- Don't wear perfume, or bright flowery prints outdoors.
- Don't eat sweet foods like watermelon or ice cream outdoors.
- Be aware that gardens, orchards and garbage areas attract insects.
- Always have an insect sting kit available.
- If you are allergic to insect stings, wear a "Medi-Alert" tag.
- If fleas are a problem, vacuum infested rooms and spray with a flea killer. Treat animals according to instructions from your vet.
- When at home, or on the road, make sure you have plenty of insect repellent available.
- For ticks: avoid brush areas and check skin and clothing thoroughly. If a tick bites, put a drop of kerosene, benzene, or gasoline on the head of the tick. Wait 20 minutes. Then, with tweezers gently pull the tick off.
- If you will be traveling overseas, check with your pharmacist, doctor, or local U.S. Public Health Service. Some insect bites can cause serious or even fatal reactions, and you need to be informed and prepared.

For more information about insect bites— Ask your pharmacist.

PITCHER JASON YOUNG HOLDS THE AREA CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHY IN LUBBOCK ... congratulated by team mates Brent Brown, Tim Denton, David Hollis and Charley Bradberry.

IN REGIONAL SEMI-FINAL

Alpine knocks Hawks out

The Hawks played in two shutout games during the past week, but the second one abruptly ended their season.

After humbling the Sanford-Fritch Eagles 11-0 in only five innings Thursday for the Area title in Lubbock, they lost 9-0 Tuesday in San Angelo to Alpine in the Regional Semi-final.

"We got two rounds into the playoffs," commented Coach David Fuhrman. "That's a pretty successful season. I was real disappointed finishing only second in district, but the bottom line is getting into the playoffs, and that's what we did."

Fuhrman and his club were hoping for at least a repeat of the 1993 season, when they were runners-up to Graham in Dist. 4-AAA, and fought their way to the big tourney in Austin.

This year, it was Vernon that went the distance in conference play without a loss for the championship. But the Lions were eliminated 4-2 by Amarillo River Road the same day Iowa Park beat Sanford-Fritch.

So, with the 18-9 Hawks eliminated from the playoffs, only Hooks, which also lost in the first round last year at Austin, remains with a chance to make it back to the state AAA tournament.

After knocking off Denver City 6-4 in their Bi-District game, the Hawks took advantage of a very young Sanford-Fritch (only two seniors), with an aggressive style that seemed to shake the Eagles Saturday.

"I thought their third baseman was their weakest link in the infield, and it worked out that way," Fuhrman said.

So he instructed lead off batter Brent Brown to bunt. It worked. After fouling off his first attempt, he laid the ball down on the artificial infield surface, and reached first base because of a high throw.

Still wanting to get the Eagles' attention, Fuhrman signaled Brown to attempt to steal second base, when Tony Lozipone was at bat, but the catcher's throw was perfect, and Brown was out.

Lozipone beat out a grounder to the short stop, however, and then proceeded to steal both second and third. He scored on a hit by Robert Klinkerman.

Then David Hollis doubled, driving Klinkerman in, and Jason Maxwell, who went three-for-three in the game, followed with a single, scoring both the runners.

That gave the Hawks a 4-0 lead, and had the Eagles shaken.

The Hawks would rack up five more runs in the third inning, which started off with a triple off the 350-foot left field fence by Clint Scobee.

Tim Denton, serving as a courtesy runner for Scobee, scored from third when the pitcher balked on his third pitch to Maxwell. Maxwell then singled, as did Charley Bradberry. Jeff Fortner loaded the bases when he was walked.

Rudy Hawkins blasted a double that scored two runs. And then Brown bounced a fly ball off the fence at the 370 mark that scored Bradberry. It also signaled a need for the Eagles to change pitchers.

But Lozipone singled the new pitcher's first offering, driving in the fifth run of the inning.

Fortner drove the nail in Sanford-Fritch's coffin in the fifth inning. He walked and advanced to third base, from where he stole home for the 10th run of the game.

Hawkins put the icing on the 10-run rule cake. He beat out a bunt, and then scored when Lozipone grounded to the short stop for a sacrifice out.

Fuhrman then called on Brown to relieve starting pitcher Jason Young for the final inning. Young had only thrown 64 pitches, but the coach wanted him to be as rested as possible for Tuesday's game against Alpine.

Brown retired the next three batters, striking out the first, getting the second to fly out to Fortner in right field, and then the third grounding out to Klinkerman, whose throw to Bradberry beat the runner to first base.

ALPINE 9, IOWA PARK 0

Errors, a bugaboo that gave the Hawks fits during their mid-season schedule when they lost most of their eight games, led to Iowa Park's loss Tuesday to Alpine.

The Hawks were charged with six miscues in the contest. An example was the fact that neither of Alpine's two runs in the first inning were earned.

The Bucks went on to score twice more in the second, one in the third, three in the sixth and one in the final frame.

Young suffered the loss. He was relieved in the fourth inning by Chris Norris. In all, Alpine had nine hits, and only one error.

Iowa Park's bats were pretty quiet throughout the contest. Only three Hawks, Scobee, Bradberry and Fortner, had hits, and all were singles.

GARDENING HINTS

By MARK TERNING, COUNTY AGENT - HORTICULTURE

St. Augustine lawns across the North Central Texas area could be at risk from disease attack.

Several St. Augustine lawns in the Wichita Falls region have been diagnosed with a disease called Take-All Patch.

This disease has also been confirmed in several adjoining counties and in the Metroplex. Both Bermuda turf and St. Augustine are susceptible to this disease, however, St. Augustine lawns seem to be the hardest hit.

Symptoms include turf which is yellowed and thin in a circular pattern ranging from a foot to several yards in diameter. Affected areas may show irregular patterns as individual spots merge together.

Grass plants in affected areas have poorly developed roots and can be easily pulled out. Leaf blades may show a yellowish or bronze tint before the leaf sheath and blades die.

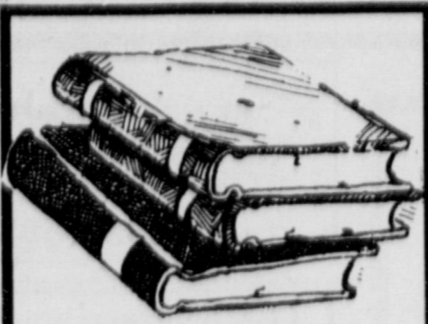

The roots of the plants in these affected areas are short and rotted, and the above ground stems (stolons) can easily be lifted from the ground.

St. Augustine or Bermuda lawns which are experiencing these types of symptoms should be tested for Take-All Patch. You can obtain a plant disease diagnostic form from your local county Extension office. This form will give you instructions for submitting a tissue sample to our plant disease diagnostic laboratory at Texas A&M Univ. There is a $15 fee for testing services. This test will be able to determine if your turf area is affected by this disease.

Lawns which are confirmed with a Take-All Patch disease problem will require special treatment.

A fungicide application made in late summer to early fall will be necessary. Rubigan or Bayleton 25 are recommended controls. Follow all label directions and rates. Lawn care professionals and pest control operators offer disease control services.

Other management strategies which will help reduce disease occurrence are: avoiding over-watering, core-aerating the soil, preventing thatch buildup, maintaining adequate levels of potassium and phosphorus, and lowering the soil pH level.

Local tax rates in line with state

Since 1982 the average property tax rate in Texas has more than doubled from 1.037% to 2.258% of market value in 1992-93.

During that period, the tax base grew by 18%; local governments raised tax levies by 144% or eight times as fast.

The figures were provided by the Texas Research League, an Austin-based public policy research group, and do not include tax changes in 1993-94 because statewide data are not yet available.

Property taxes in Texas averaged 2.258% of market value (selling price) in 1992-93, but varied widely throughout the state ranging from a high of 3.28% in Robstown to a low of 1.57% in Fairfield.

Local property taxes were 2.2807% of value. That rate consisted of 80.90% levied by the city, 1.1294% by Iowa Park Consolidated Independent School District, and .3423% for Wichita County.

For a single-family house that would sell for $80,000, the highest tax bill was $2,678 in Dallas (in Wilmer-Hutchins ISD) and the lowest was $1,232 tax in Dalhart. If the house were eligible for various homestead exemptions, the lowest tax would have been $956 in New Braunfels compared to a high of $2,371 in Robstown.

In Iowa Park the tax bill on an $80,000 house in 1992-93 averaged $1,803 if rented or $1,747 if the homeowner claimed homestead exemptions.

The report points out that homeowners over the age of 65 are eligible for both state-mandated and local-option exemptions and would pay less. Furthermore, school tax bills for the elderly are frozen at the level in place when the homeowner turned 65.

Equitable appraisals among different types of property are a significant factor in attracting new industry and jobs to a community. The 1992-93 property tax on industrial equipment and inventories valued at $80,000 ranged from $1,231 in Fairfield to $2,639 in Robstown.

For property worth $80,000 in Iowa Park the report shows a combined average tax of $1,825 for all types of property, $1,804 for industrial equipment and inventories and $1,907 for commercial inventories and fixtures.

The report cites two reasons for the wide range of taxes.

First, local officials adopt budgets and set tax rates and the amount of homestead exemptions. Second, unless all property is appraised uniformly, tax burdens will vary.

The lowest average ratio of tax appraisals to market value (selling price) was 67.7% in Lakeview ISD (Hall County); the highest ratio was in Divide ISD (Kerr County).

Locally, the report shows a ratio of $101.1% for all types of property in the Iowa Park CISD.

Taxes levied by counties ranged from $0.157 per $100 of market value in Titus County to $1.122 in Jim Hogg County.

Including countywide special districts, county rates ranged from $0.170 in Somervell County to $1.160 in Schleicher County.

In Wichita County the true tax rate was $0.341 per $100.

Gary Wood, president of the Texas Research League, cautioned that the figures are for last year. Taxpayers already have paid their 1993-94 taxes.

Brande Overman receives $1,000 NHS scholarship

Competing against more than 12,000 students from throughout the United States, Brande Overman, an Iowa Park High School senior, won a National Honor Society scholarship. The scholarship is sponsored by the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP).

Richard Davis, Iowa Park High School principal, today announced the award, which includes a $1,000 college scholarship. Two hundred fifty National Honor Society winners were announced by the NASSP.

Each high school NHS chapter could nominate two senior students based on their leadership, scholastic achievement, character, and service.

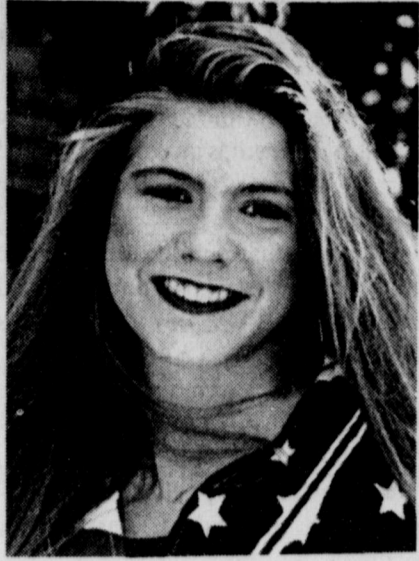

Nominees submitted a form outlining their participation in high school organizations, clubs, academic accomplishments, employment experience, and community service.

"Overman has demonstrated outstanding ability in her academic work and service to her school and community," said Dr. Timothy J. Dyer, executive director, NASSP. "She's a fine example of the outstanding calibre of young people in America's high schools."

While at Iowa Park High School, Overman received Who's Who Awards for Algebra I, Algebra II, Geometry, Trigonometry/Elementary Analysis (honors), Calculus (honors), Biology I, Chemistry (honors), English I, English II, English III (honors), English IV (honors), U.S. History, World History, Government/Economics and French.

She has participated four years in basketball (senior year co-captain), one year track, one year cross-country, two years golf, two years cheerleading, three years UIL Number Sense, and two years UIL Mathematics.

Overman has been a three year member of student council (senior year parliamentarian), one year Mean Green Spirit Team, two years National Honor Society (senior year president), three years math club (two years vice president).

Brande Overman

She won the Tri-County Essay Award, Iowa Park Optimist Club Outstanding Youth Award, Iowa Park Rotary Club Student of the Month Award, and Red River Optimist Club Young Tex-Anne nomination.

Brande graduated valedictorian of her senior class. This fall she plans to attend Oklahoma State University to study architectural engineering.

She is the daughter of Chuck and Alice Dyer of Iowa Park, and the late Monte Overman of Springfield, Colo.

Grandparents are Van and Lois Stafford of Campo, Colo., and Jim and Betty Dyer of Iowa Park.

Bradberry receives Presser scholarship

Tim Bradberry of Iowa Park received the Presser scholarship recently during a banquet in which Cameron University's School of Fine Arts honored students for their accomplishments.

This is the largest scholarship the Cameron music department gives. The scholarship consists of $1,500 from the Presser Foundation, which is a national scholarship organization. Cameron then adds $750. The winner of the scholarship is chosen by the Cameron faculty.
