Veteran of three wars enjoying his retirement

By MYRNA SMITH

"I guess you could use the old cliché and say I'm a 'jack-of-all-trades', retired Chief Master Sergeant William C. "Bill" Lane laughingly commented as we concluded our interview.

That could be descriptive of his varied experiences.

Growing up in South Carolina, he dropped out of high school before graduation. However, he received some valuable training in woodworking that he is using to good advantage now that he is twice retired. He took what was then called manual training.

"I've always liked to do things with my hands, I want to keep them busy, and I've always liked to stand and watch other people as they work until I feel like I can do what they are doing," Lane said.

Lane's parents were weavers and he would go where they were working and watch them. He learned how to weave by watching, and was offered a set of looms by the owner.

He thought about taking a job as a weaver, but he had second thoughts and declined the offer. "I had seen my parents live from paycheck to paycheck for too long and that was not what I wanted from life." Neither did he want to work in the cotton fields or at a cotton mill and that was about the only kind of work available in that area.

That helped him make the decision to join the Navy. "I wanted to be a gunner's mate and shoot the big guns," he said.

In 1938 when he decided that was what he would do there were more than 200 on the waiting list, so he just walked across the street and joined the Army Coast Artillery.

"I did a tour in Panama, so I got a chance to shoot the big guns anyway," he said proudly.

From 1938 to 1940, he served with D Battery, 4th Coast Artillery, which is part of the First Continental Army that served under George Washington.

He explained there were 37 streamers in their regimental colors. Each streamer was a different color and signified their participation in a battle prior to World War II.

During basic training and before he could be turned to duty, Lane had to learn which battle each color of ribbon represented, the date of the battle and the reason the Artillery became involved.

After two years in the Artillery, Lane enlisted in the Army Air Corp. He was sent to Chanute Field where he took aircraft mechanic training. When he graduated he was sent to Macon, Ga., where RAF pilots were trained.

Dec. 7, 1941, Lane and his girlfriend were watching a movie when word came for all military personnel to return to their base immediately. The Japanese had bombed Pearl Harbor.

In the bedlam that followed, the young and venturesome Lane volunteered for glider pilot training. He took part of his training at Sheppard Air Force Base, graduating at Lubbock in February 1944. He took additional training at Louisville, Ky., and in North Carolina and was sent to Bergstrom AFB at Austin as a glider pilot instructor.

Lane was sent to New York in August 1944 where he joined an

Council postpones action on city's landfill . . . again

Despite comments about continued delays in reaching a decision on how trash will be collected and disposed of in the future, the city council Monday night once again postponed action on the future of the city's sanitary landfill.

In other business, aldermen approved changing the time period in which school zone traffic speeds will be enforced, heard a detailed explanation of the fire department's capital outlay requests, and accepted bids for construction of a used-oil reclaiming center.

In its last meeting, the council was presented seven options, along with cost projections, on how to dispose of garbage once the city's landfill is closed. The facility's closure is eminent, because of costs mandated by federal and state requirements.

Two of the alternatives were bids received from two private companies that offered to dispose of trash, either collected by the city or the firms doing the collecting.

Another option is joining with the cities of Burkburnett and Vernon by investing in a joint landfill venture on Burkburnett-owned property.

The point which appears to be holding up a decision is the possibility of turning over the current landfill property to the Bell Group, and in return, paying little or nothing over a period of years to take city garbage. That, apparently, would be the least expensive route the city might take.

Bell, the council was told, is currently negotiating with adjoining property owners, in an attempt to acquire additional acreage which would insure the firm of some 50 years where it could operate in the landfill business.

The firm, when its bid was submitted, did not give a period in which the offer would stand.

However, Alderman Bob Hamilton is insisting that the city receive a ruling from the regulatory body, in writing, that the city would not be held accountable in the future, should any contamination of underground water be detected, if Bell took over the site.

The other bidding firm, Texas Waste Management, said its bid would be good until Oct. 1.

"I'm tired of talking about it," Hamilton told the council. "It's time to do something."

The issue of the landfill's future has been a topic of discussion more than two years.

Subtitle D, the regulation handed down by the Environmental Protection Agency to be administered by the Texas Water Commission, could increase the city's cost to collect and dispose of trash from the current price of less than $8 per ton to approximately $112, according to the city engineer's estimates.

The regulation originally was to go into effect Oct. 9, but the state agency has indicated it would allow landfills an additional six months to be closed. And some rumors indicate the date could possibly be extended until October of 1995.

The ordinance governing traffic speed in all school zones -- 20 miles per hour -- was amended to cover the hours of 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. on school days.

Previously, the control speed hours were 7:45 a.m. to 8:45 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. to 4:15 p.m.

Fire Chief Danny Skinner explained his department's capital outlay request on a line-for-line basis.

While final decision of funding will not be made until the council completes its study of all department requests, Skinner was asked to withdraw his request for a "burn building" training center, which would cost approximately $6,000, until another year.

Hamilton suggested representatives of the city obtain a five or ten year activities report from the fire department, and take that information before the county commissioners' court to argue for more county funding.

Each of the seven volunteer fire departments in the county receives $14,400 from the county to fight rural fires.

However, Hamilton's point was the fact that more than 50 percent of the fires fought by the Iowa Park department are outside the city limits. He indicated city taxes were supplementing what should be county expense.

Skinner agreed that 65 percent of the fire calls in 1992 were outside the city limits.

Hamilton said the county should collect a special fire district tax from

Rural area residents seek toll-free calling

A movement has begun to allow residents in the southwestern part of Wichita County to call Iowa Park on their telephones, without having to pay long distance tolls.

Basically, what the residents of the Valley View, Kamay and Kadane Corner areas want, is to become toll-free citizens of the Iowa Park Consolidated Independent School District.

Five people met Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronny Cravens in Valley View, to discuss a course of action they hope will resolve the problem.

Attending were Rob Pinkmon, Pete Ermis and Johnette Phillips, along with county commissioner Woody Gossom and newspaper publisher Bob Hamilton.

Gossom said he had been in contact with the state Public Utilities Commission, and a representative of that office had promised him information necessary to develop a petition which would seek the desired solution.

He told the group he expects the information within a week or two.

It is understood at least five percent of more than 500 telephone customers in that area will be needed to sign the petition.

Mrs. Cravens said the area's telephones are operated by GTE, as of last January, and she has been assured the company has the ability to convert to toll-free calling.

The area, which had been served by Contel until sold to GTE, is the former Valley View Independent School District, which was consolidated in 1970 with the Iowa Park district.

Residents expressed their frustrations concerning children attending classes in Iowa Park, who want to call home in case they become ill or need something. Those same youngsters also want to talk with their classmates on the telephones, creating expensive long distance bills.

Each of the area residents at the meeting said monthly telephone bills ranging from $100 to well over $300 were common, even though the basic monthly bill was $9.52, plus "mileage."

Hamilton told the group he had discussed the proposal with school administrators and directors of the Chamber of Commerce, and said they all were "very receptive" to their goal.

While the group's basic desire is to develop toll-free communications with Iowa Park, there also were suggestions that the same service might also be considered to include Electra and Wichita Falls.

"We need access to the school system (in Iowa Park), said Mrs. Cravens. "We want to call Iowa Park and Iowa Park wants to call Valley View."

The group plans to begin regular meetings, as soon as Commissioner Gossom receives the petition information from Austin.

New students should register

All students in grades six through 12 who have not previously been enrolled in Iowa Park schools should register at their respective campuses next week.

Students new to the district who will be in the sixth, seventh or eighth grades this fall should report to the office at the junior high, 412 East Cash.

New high school students will report to the counselor's office at Iowa Park High, 1513 West Highway.

The offices will be open for new student registration from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 1-3 p.m. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

To register, students should have their school transcripts from their previous school, immunization record and Social Security card.

Iowa Park classes are to begin Wednesday, Aug. 18.

Iowa Park school costs less than state averages

Despite a 1.2% drop in property taxes, school trustees raised tax rates to produce 9.5% more revenue last year. School budgets were increased $1.5 billion last fall for a total of $18.7 billion. The total budget averaged $5,284 per student.

Classroom teachers received one dollar in four of the additional spending. Schools added 17,007 employees -- an average of one new employee for each 4.8 additional students.

The figures come from the latest issue of Bench Marks 1992-93 School District Budgets in Texas, an annual publication of the Texas Research League, an Austin-based, educational corporation engaged in governmental research.

An average of $4,255 per student for current operations was budgeted last year plus $337 for repayment of debt and $602 for capital outlay.

(In the following report, whenever Iowa Park's figures are used, similar figures will be given for the other four school districts in Wichita County, for comparison purposes. The names will be abbreviated: B for Burkburnett; E for Electra; W for Wichita Falls, and C for City View.)

Iowa Park CISD's budget provided $3,317.96 (B, $3,820.21; E, $4,522.03; W, $3,941.35; C, $3,917.05) per student for current operations, $125.99 (B, $325.97; E, $307.43; W, $229.58; C, $118.05) for debt service, and $125.33 (B, $105.65; E, $121.37; W, $153.64; C, $1,279.50) for capital outlay based on 2,032 (B, 3,337; E, 675; W, 15,587; C, 757) students enrolled in October 1992.

The average base salary for classroom teachers paid by Iowa Park schools in October 1992 was $26,429 (B, $25,906; E, $25,614; W, $27,501; C, $24,839) plus supplements for the career ladder. The average for administrators was $41,630 (B, $42,679; E, $42,360; W, $48,806; C, $40,108), and $30,670 (B, $29,459; E, $30,938; W, $36,480; C, $33,520) for other professional support employees (librarians, counselors, nurses, supervisors, etc.).

Four dollars in each five were spent for salaries. Statewide payroll expense averaged $3,439 per student, as compared to Iowa Park's $2,595.75 (B, $3,052.24; E, $3,315.29; W, $3,081.96; C, $2,613.80). Payroll expense is determined by salary levels and staffing patterns.

Taxpayers provided one teacher for 17.4 (B, 15.4; E, 13.5; W, 15.8; C, 16.8) students in Iowa Park while the statewide pupil-teacher ratio was 16.1 to one.

School districts and county education districts imposed a property tax at the rate of $1.405 per $100 of appraised value, which value averaged 98.6% of market value (selling price). The "true tax rate" was $1.385 (1.405 times 98.6%) statewide. Locally, the Iowa Park district imposed a rate of $1.117 (B, $1.220; E, $1.220; W, $1.239; C, $1.200) including $847 (same of all other districts) by the county education district. Property was appraised at 101.1% (B, 101.0%; E, 106.8%; W, 100.8%; C, 100.6%) of its market value making the true rate $1.129 (B, $1.232; E, $1.303; W, $1.249; C, $1.207) per $100 of market value. The report points out that the calculation of a true tax rate based on market value rather than on appraised value is necessary to make a valid comparison of tax levels with other schools.

The tax on a house that would sell for $80,000 in Iowa Park's district would have been $893 (B, $990; E, $1,030; W, $973; C, $958). If the homeowner were eligible for homestead exemptions, the tax would have been $837 (B, $929; E, $969; W, $911; C, $898). That compares with statewide average tax bills of $1,078 and $854 respectively for an $80,000 house.

Last year Iowa Park's revenue from the property tax increased by 10.8 percent (B, 5.4%; E, -2.2%; W, 6.3%; C, 9.1%) for 1992-93 as compared to a 9.5 percent increase statewide.

Local property taxes plus state aid totaled $3,335 (B, $3,528; E, $4,264; W, $3,965; C, $4,189) per student in Iowa Park as compared to $4,243 statewide.

The state and local share of the foundation program averaged $3,144 per student last year and was $2,872 in Iowa Park's district (B, $2,800; E, $3,380; W, $3,062; C, $3,377). Local school districts can levy property taxes to enrich the foundation program. Enrichment last year averaged $822 per pupil to which the state added an average of $433 per student to guarantee the tax yield in property-poor districts. Enrichment by the Iowa Park district was $335 (B, $747; E, $540; W, $523; C, $381); the state guarantee added $300 to Iowa Park's (B, $422; E, $540; W, $535; C, $589).

For the coming school year, the local share is increased from the 82-cent rate by county education districts to an 86-cent rate levied by school districts. The percentage homestead exemption and freeport goods exemptions voted for CEDs will terminate. The legislature increased state aid an average of $3,990 for each additional student as compared to an average of $1,825 for all students last year.

Lane in retirement

outfit headed for England and combat in Holland.

At age 25, Lane became flight officer with the 81st Squadron of the 436th Troop Carrier Group. He piloted a Waco CG4A glider with 13 glider infantrymen and cargo aboard.

Now, for those who might not know, Lane explains that gliders were used to silently fly assault teams and supplies behind enemy lines. They could carry a combination of cargo--15 land assault troops, or a jeep and a trailer, a 75-mm howitzer, a hospital team, or even a small bulldozer.

Glider had wings, but no motor and no firepower. They were expendable aircraft. "I guess they considered the pilots expendable also," Lane commented.

On leaving England, Lane became one of about 1,900 U.S. glider pilots being towed into Holland by C-47s. The mission was to support an attempt to clear a road to Berlin and end hostilities.

With no engine and 350 feet of nylon rope to keep him from falling into Nazi territory, Lane's tow plane was hit by flak fire. The plane went down, but released Lane's glider at 1,200 feet.

His glider plowed through fences and irrigation ditches, skidding to a stop in "friendly territory".

Lane and several hundred other American and British glider pilots had advanced from Memburg, England to a captured German fighter base in France.

From this point March 24, 1945, they advanced on their next and final European glider mission, coded Operation Varsity, an aerial invasion of Germany at Wesel, across the Rhine River.

Lane was gliding in a double tow and was on the inside. He cut the tow rope first so the other tow rope would not get wrapped around him.

The British had laid a smoke screen and Lane said it was like driving in dense fog. Just as he cut loose there were electrical lines in front of him. Not having enough air speed, he told his co-pilot to "hit the parachute." As he did, Lane pulled up and dropped right below the lines.

Lane still has a very clear vision of what happened after that. "Just then a 20mm hit us in the nose and took everything out. I looked over at my co-pilot and blood was running down his face. Then before we landed, I was feeling a stinging sensation in my right foot. But, that was the least my worries right then," Lane said.

They were pinned down in a field by gunfire from a German soldier perched in an old farmhouse.

WILLIAM C. "BILL" LANE
... displays results of woodworking skills.

Every time something moved he would shoot at it.

Luckily, another glider landed next to Lane's. "The guys got out and one said he was a grenadier and asked if we had any grenades. I crawled back into the glider to get a couple and he said, 'one will do,'" Lane said.

He added, "It did. He aimed the thing and you could see it tumble right through the air and into the side window where the German was. The whole side of the house disappeared. I don't think I've ever been so happy."

When things settled enough Lane removed his boot to see about his foot. It swelled so much he couldn't get his boot back on.

He and his co-pilot were taken to a first aid station. The co-pilot's wounds were superficial, but Lane had a piece of flak in his right foot. Later that night they were evacuated to a Belgium hospital.

Lane's squadron was alerted to the Battle of the Bulge and also to clean up Paris, but they didn't get to do either one. "Patton emphatically told us all he wanted us to do was furnish him ammunition and supplies and stay out of his way," he said.

In addition to the European theater, Lane also served as an aircraft mechanic in Japan following the war, then in Korea, and in 1966 he went to Vietnam as squadron maintenance superintendent.

CMSgt. Lane retired the first time in 1971 after 30 years in the military, 20 of those years in the Air Force. During those years he spent intervals at SAFB and in Iowa Park.

After he retired from the Air Force Lane worked at Washex as maintenance superintendent, retiring there in 1985 after 11 years with the company.

Lane and his wife, Patsy, have lived in Iowa Park eight years. They purchased the house where the T.E. Gilbreaths lived when they were in Iowa Park, and later was owned by Mrs. John B. Barbour.

Lane has remodeled the house. This is where his "manual training" in high school has really paid off. He completely remodeled the bathroom and kitchen.

In the kitchen and utility room he built beautiful new cabinets that would pass as being done by a professional cabinet maker. He also builds furniture.

He added two walls of cabinets in their double garage where he stores his woodworking tools, wood and patterns for the various woodcrafts that he does. He has been so busy with the house he hasn't done as much with woodcrafts as he will be able to in the future.

He plans to work more diligently on woodcrafts and possibly show them at arts and crafts shows. He does some pieces now by request. And he always makes something new for their yard at Christmas time and duplicates them for other members of the family.

Patsy, a native of East Texas, is secretary to a dental surgeon at SAFB. She is organist for Faith Baptist Church.

Lane admits he has become pretty much a househusband, and he likes it that way. He enjoys working in the home, does a lot of the cooking, he bakes and makes desserts of various kinds. "I'm no chef, but I can plan and cook a basic meal," Lane said.

He also cans fruits and vegetables, sometimes by himself and sometimes with his wife.

He said his mother taught him to cook, quilt and can.

Patsy has one daughter, Karen White of Burkburnett and two sons, Steven Savell of Dallas and Jeffrey Savell of Fresno, Calif., by a former marriage, and three grandchildren.

Lane has a son, William E. Lane of Iowa Park and a daughter, Barbara Lane of Marshall, Ark., and two grandchildren.

In addition to the couple being active in Faith Baptist Church, Lane is a licensed member of the Disabled Veterans, a member of Iowa Park Masonic Lodge No. 713. He received the Golden Trowel Award for exceptional service to the order. He is serving this year as Worthy Patron of the Order of Eastern Star.

Lane is president of the Wichita Valley Scottish Rite Club. He is a member of Fort Worth Scottish Rite, the Maskat Shrine in Wichita Falls and works with and is a member of the Speakers Bureau of the Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children.

He is official photographer for the National World War II Glider Pilots Association. In March of this year he was host for the Association convention attended by more than 100 members from Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, Texas and Utah to commemorate the 48th Anniversary of Operation Varsity.

Though he doesn't really need it, Lane's right foot is a daily reminder of the last glider mission of World War II that became the fatal blow to the Axis forces on the Rhine River.

In addition, he has framed his Purple Heart, along with many commendation medals and ribbons and one of his most prized--the Lanyard, Order of William, the highest award for valor given by the Dutch government. It was for them running the Germans out of Holland.

Mrs. Larry Green and Lindsey

Kathy (Mrs. Larry) Green is happy to be back in Iowa Park after several years absence. Her husband is in the Army, and for the past several years, they have lived in Fort Polk, La., Germany and Colorado Springs, Colo.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Sheets, Kathy grew up in Iowa Park and is a 1974 graduate of Iowa Park High School. She said that Larry, who had never been to Iowa Park before they married, "loves it here." So, with two and a half years left before his retirement, they decided to buy a house here.

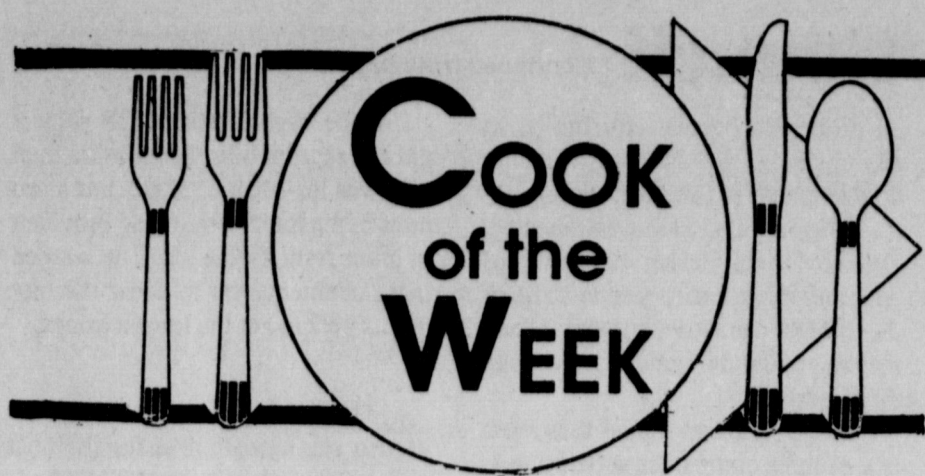

They have a 10-year-old daughter, Lindsey who will be in the sixth grade this fall, and like so many other families who choose to live in Iowa Park, the school system is a big factor.

Kathy and Larry enjoy fishing, and Lindsey likes to play softball. Kathy said that as soon as they get settled, they plan to become involved in school and community activities.

Kathy said she didn't cook until she married, but relied on the knowledge she gained by watching her mother and grandmother cook. Her recipes, obtained from relatives, are family favorites.

Self-image topic of program

Raymond Hernandez, Family Advocacy Outreach Manager at Sheppard Air Force Base, spoke to the evening Lions Tuesday on the "Importance of Self-Image." He was introduced by Joe Strickland who later presided during the business meeting.

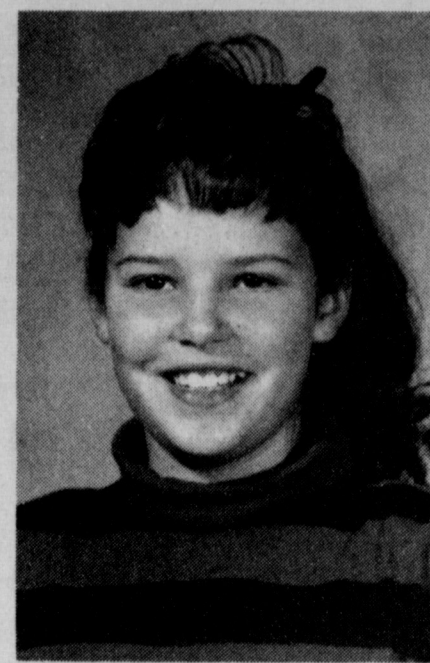

"A positive self image is crucial for all people regardless of age," the speaker said to begin his talk. He continued to say how it affects one's acts from very early childhood. He said that many children and adults acquire poor self images because of criticism from others and fear of not being able to succeed.

Hernandez gave a number of suggestions as to how people can strengthen and improve their self images. Included in these were: decide to change; recognize their strengths and weaknesses; do not let guilt or shame be a deterring factor; determine what their roots are, and decide what their values are.

He also stressed the need of "self talk," to be flexible, losing no time on doubters, start being protective of one's ego, developing long range goals as well as short ones, discovering one's uniqueness, taking time to relax, setting goals that are reachable, listening to positive speakers, and learning from failure.

Following his talk, Hernandez described his work with the prevention of child and sponsor abuse at SAFB.

BRITTANY TAYLOR was recently crowned Miss Youth Camp at the Church of God camp near Weatherford. The fifth grader is the daughter of Tami Witherspoon and Ronnie Taylor.

Late summer problems can take toll on lawns

By MARK TERNING
County Agent - Horticulture

Your landscape and lawn require special attention during late July through August.

Pest problems, high temperatures, and disease can take its toll on your favorite plants.

The following garden check list will help you protect your valuable plantings.

Pest Control

Flea control requires a three-prong approach. You must treat your yard areas, pets, and the home for adequate control.

Yard areas should be treated with Yardex, Dursban, or Diazinon. Treat inside your home with a product that contains an insect growth regulator such as Precor. Vacuum thoroughly before treatment and discard the bag.

Dogs and/or cats should be treated with dips or spray-on products containing an insect growth regulator such as Petcor. Make sure the product you are using is labeled for use on your animal. Pets with serious flea problems should be referred to a veterinarian.

Heavy populations of fleas in the yard or home may require treatment by a pest control operator.

Late July through August are ideal times for grub worm control in lawn areas. If you find more than four grubs per square foot then treatment is justified. Apply Dursban or Diazinon granules for control. Water lawn before and after treatment.

Treat for pecan weevil and hickory shuckworm in mid to late August. Sevin is an appropriate insecticide.

Spider mites in tomato crops can be treated with Kelthane.

Treat peaches and plums for borer control in late August. Use a chlorpyrifos spray.

Disease and Weed Control

Watch out for powdery mildew on crapemyrtle. Regular applications of Funginex will be necessary to reduce this disease.

Treat grassy weeds in bermuda turf with MSMA. Do not use on St. Augustine. Broadleaf weeds can be controlled with a broadleaf weed killer such as Wipe-Out or Weed-B-Gone.

Leaf drop and leaf scorch on trees is not a disease, but the result of high temperatures and moisture stress. Water deeply every two to three weeks.

Plantings

Container nursery stock can be planted at any time of year.

Plant "Surfire" fall tomatoes now for a fall crop.

Plant warm-season grasses from seed, sod, plugs, or hydromulching by early August.

Plant bluebonnet seed or transplants during later August.

Fertilizer

Apply a 3-1-2 or 4-1-2 ratio turf food with slow-release nitrogen to warm season lawns.

Correct iron deficiency (yellow leaves with bright green veins) in plants such as oaks, magnolia and pines with an iron/sulfur product.

Apply 3-1-2 or 4-1-2 ratio lawn foods to established landscape plants and flower beds.

Follow all label rates and directions when using fertilizers, pesticides, or herbicides.

THE JERUSALEM CHURCH ACTS 2:36-47
The individuals described in Acts 2 who would become the church at Jerusalem were a convicted people. They were moved by the gospel message presented by the apostles. The agony of having crucified the Christ cut them to the heart. They were convicted of the sin which lay as a crushing burden upon them. Those individuals were convicted of sin to the point of asking what they must do (vs. 37).
The people gathered at Jerusalem on the Day of Pentecost were a convinced people. They were convinced of the exceeding sinfulness of the wicked acts which they had performed. These people did not seek a second opinion by a preacher who would "stay off their toes" or say, "I don't see anything wrong with it." Neither did they say, "I don't see it that way." These people were convinced of the ungodly hideous nature of sin. Unless one is convinced of the deadliness and shame of sin, one cannot be like the convinced people which characterized the church at Jerusalem.
The church at Jerusalem consisted of converted people. They received the Word of God without hesitation or biased attitude. These people repented of the dreadful act they had performed as well as every other sin in their lives. They were convinced they had crucified the Son of God. They would become converted to the very One whom they crucified who had now been made both Lord and Christ (vs. 36). These people believed the facts presented and obeyed the commands that were demanded of them. They repented of their sins AND were baptized for the forgiveness of their past sins. (vs. 38).
Such phrases as gladly received the Word, continued steadfastly, and continuing daily with one accord characterized the church at Jerusalem. These people were a "doing" church. (James 1:22). They practiced what they preached. They were a convicted, convinced, converted and consistent body of believers. Theirs was a daily religion; a vocation instead of an avocation; a life of regeneration instead of generation.
We today should follow the pattern set by the church at Jerusalem as they responded to divine directives from the Lord. The traits that characterized this church should characterize the church today.

Decker retiring for second time

Don Decker is retiring. For the second time.

His first retirement was from the Extension Service, in 1983. This one, to be effective the end of July, from his position as vice president at State National Bank.

The bank is sponsoring a reception from 1 to 2:30 p.m. Friday, in the lobby. Decker's many friends are invited to attend, and refreshments will be served.

To relish his new-found free time, Decker said he intends to spend most of the time around his home in Pleasant Valley Estates. "I'll probably do a lot of bike riding, also," he added.

But that free time may not last long. He says he has a brother who farms cotton in the Childress area, and he may join him in that business after a year's rest.

Decker was raised in the Childress area, graduating high school there. He earned his Bachelor's degree in 1949 from Texas A&M Univ., and in 1973 his Master's.

He was county agent in Bell County over 23 years, and then accepted the agent's position in Wichita County in 1977, and retired in August of 1983.

DON DECKER

He has served as a trustee in the Iowa Park school district, and also was a city alderman until having to give up that post when he moved to Pleasant Valley.

An exceptionally active man, he is a member of 14 organizations.

He is a director of the Wichita County 4-H Livestock Association, adult leader of Iowa Park 4-H Club, member of the District Agricultural Workers Council, District Agricultural Workers Council and life member of the Texas and National County Agents Association, and Alpha Zeta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Phi, Extension Service professional organization.

Decker is a member of the First Baptist Church, vocational director of the Iowa Park Rotary Club, chairman of the Pleasant Valley Neighborhood Watch Association, board member of Senior Citizens of North Texas, and on the steering committee of Senior Citizens of North Texas Senior Games.

Additionally, he is a member of the Wichita Falls Bicycle Club and a volunteer worker at the Hotter 'N Hell annual bicycle race and criterium.

School trustee resigning

Iowa Park school trustees are to act on the resignation of a fellow board member, when they meet at 7:30 this evening in the junior high library.

Trustee Robert Cook, who is serving in his first term on the board, has submitted his resignation. He is reportedly moving to Wichita Falls, and cannot serve if he does not reside within the school district.

The called meeting's agenda calls for an executive session, to discuss personnel. Some staff resignations have been received, and hiring of new personnel will be considered.

Also concerning personnel, the board will consider a proposal for some additional personnel, requested by some of the campus principals.

Additional bids which have been received for construction of a special education facility at the high school will be considered, as will requests for student transfers.

Trustees will also act on a schedule of public hearing dates relating to setting of the 1993-94 tax rate.

VBOB reunion slated

The Veterans of the Battle of the Bulge, Inc. (VBOB) will hold its 12th annual reunion in Bismarck, N.D., Sept. 15-18.

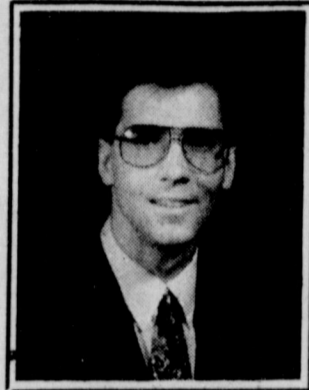

Reunions are held annually to honor the Americans who served in the Battle of the Bulge and to remember those who sacrificed their lives in this great battle.

VBOB is an international non-profit organization composed of members who served in the World War II battle which rebuffed Hitler's strongest offensive and turned the tide of the war, their friends and family members, and history buffs. In its 11-year existence VBOB has enrolled more than 11,000 members.

Six hundred thousand American soldiers fought in this great battle with 81,000 resulting casualties, including 19,000 killed.

For more information write VBOB, P.O. Box 11129-P, Arlington, Va, 22210-2129.

Breckenridge will begin fielding a girls softball team in UIL competition next spring. That school's trustees approved the program last week. It will cost between $14,000 and $15,000, if the present coaching staff is used, or more than $40,000 if an additional coach is required, according to the Breckenridge American.

SEASONED VETERANS - Iowa Park's 10-year-old tournament team played in five tournaments this season, earning a 19-4 overall record. The club won meets at Wichita Falls, Burkburnett and Sheppard, placed second at Frederick and won consolation at Bowie. Players are Ryan Bess, Zac Miller, Chase Wright (who won the home run contest at Wichita Falls), Colby Rusk, Mason Adams, Robert McCann, Brandon Lane, Heath Hodges, Stephen Gray, Bryan Swenson, Jimmy Miller, Micah Bosley, Josh Moer and Chris Simmons. Coaches are Steve Gray, David Wright, L.S. Whisnand and Charles Quick.

Annual Optimist tourney underway

Two more nights of competition will wind up the annual student softball tournament sponsored by the Iowa Park Optimist Club.

The he-she teams began play Monday at the Senior League field, and continued the following evening. They will play again tonight, and go for the title Friday.

Monday's results included: Methodist-I 8, Catholic 0; Cheerleaders 4, Lakeview 3; Methodist-II 8, FFA 1.

Scores of Tuesday night's games were: Class of '93 9, Methodist-II 0; Cheerleaders 13, Methodist-I 0, and Lakeview 5, FFA 0.

Card of Thanks

The Senior League Girls' All-Star team would like to thank the following for their donations to make possible our trip to the tournament at Waco: Hughes Pharmacy, Jack's Park Pharmacy, Nina Quick, Sincerely Yours, R.C. Carver DDS, John and Janelle Timms, Gail's Collections, Broom Chiropractor, Golden Fried Chicken, Texas Realty, Phil Welch of State Farm Insurance, K&K Foods, Fire and Safety Inc., Head and Neck Surgical Clinic.

Hawkins' team at Burkburnett

Rudy Hawkins of Iowa Park is a member of the Wichita Falls Braves baseball team, which will be competing in the west zone state Mickey Mantle tournament that begins today in Burkburnett.

The Braves, champions of the Wichita Falls league, are the host team.

Boosters to meet Monday to plan

The first meeting of the new school year for the Athletic Booster Club will be held at 7 p.m. Monday at the field house.

"We're starting a new year and would like to see a big turnout," said Sherry Rose, secretary.

Refreshments will be served, and members will discuss a watermelon feed for the players, among other topics.

They meet the El Paso Longhorns at 6 p.m. Friday.

Besides Hawkins, other schools represented on the Braves are Rider, Hirschi, Wichita Falls High and Holliday.

Also in the tournament are two teams each from El Paso and Arlington, one from Dallas and Granbury, and one other from Wichita Falls.

Four games will be played Friday, starting at noon, five Saturday with the first at 10 a.m. and beginning at 2 p.m., two more Sunday.

Helpful Facts

Persons other than the property owner doing work on a residence must be a licensed building contractor, plumber, electrician, or heating and air conditioning contractor with the City of Iowa Park, and carry a performance bond.

Heat in state tourney

The Iowa Park Heat baseball team was to begin play in the four-day, double-elimination state Connie Mack tournament Wednesday, at Arlington. The club completed its league play with 12 wins against five losses.

Players on the roster, and the high schools where they played last spring, include:

Catchers - Brandon Brown, Henrietta; Manuel Tovar, Denver City.
Pitchers - Justin Burgess, Graham;

Justin Campbell, Henrietta; Ralph Dillard, Iowa Park; Chad Thompson, Iowa Park; Pete Rodriguez, Childress; Shawn Bates, Hirschi.

Top 'O Texas sign-up set

Registration of youngsters to play in this fall's Top 'O Texas Kid Football League program will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday at the ASCS Building, 220 West Park.

Players must be at least eight years of age before Sept. 1 and cannot be 12 before the same date.

Interested parents who have questions are encouraged to attend the sign-up meeting.

Anyone unable to attend the registration period can contact Gordon Griffith at 592-4840 and leave a message. The season's practices will begin Monday, Aug. 23.

Griffith said he hopes there will be two local teams in both the Pee Wees and Midgets.

"Everybody needs to sign up as early as possible so we can have our draft in which players will be assigned a team," Griffith said. "We need every kid who wants to play football to come out."

Hawk Band sessions set

Yes, it is awfully early, but the first practice session for band members at Iowa Park High School will begin Monday.

Seniors of the flag corps and the percussion section will meet at 10 a.m. Monday.

That will be the prelude to sessions for those groups, which begin Tuesday and continue through Friday. Flags will practice from 2:30 to 6:30 p.m. Percussion sessions will be 9-11:30 a.m. and 1-5 p.m.

Squad leaders and drum majors will hold sessions from 1 to 4 p.m. Wednesday through Friday.

All band students are to pick up their music folders and check out instruments (those who do not have their own) between 1 and 5 p.m. Friday, Aug. 6. Instrument rental is $50 for the year or $25 half a year.

Full band sessions will be the week of Aug. 9-13, with playing rehearsals inside 1-4 p.m. and marching rehearsals outside 6-8 p.m.

Helpful Facts

Regular meetings of the Iowa Park city council is at 7 p.m. on second and fourth Mondays, in council chambers at 103 N. Wall. All meetings are open to the public.

TEACHERS' CONFERENCE - The Department of Agriculture Services and Development at Tarleton State Univ. played host to high school agriculture science teachers from across the state this summer. George Martin and Ray Dillard, center, of Iowa Park High School were among those attending. They are shown with Jay Eudy, left, director of Educational Education for the Texas Education Agency, and Dr. Johnny Johnson, long-time faculty member at Tarleton.

Finnell opposes insurance proposal

State Rep. Charles Finnell has assailed a new Texas law which allows an insurance company to exempt damage to house foundations from homeowner insurance policies. The measure applies only to dwellings 10 or more years old. "In addition to all its other problems, this measure discriminates against those who own houses more than a decade old," Finnell said. "And that's most homeowners in our 13-county district." He encouraged Northwest Texas constituents to oppose the measure "as I did and as I am doing."

The address of the Department of Insurance is 333 Guadalupe Street, Box 149104, Austin, 78714. The FAX number is 512-475-2025. Finnell opposed and voted against the measure May 28 when it was sent to the House floor as a Senate amendment. On June 29, the insurance board deferred action because the issue can be addressed better by the new insurance commissioner who is to be chosen by the governor no later than next March 1. The board acknowledged, "This item is . . . controversial."

"I know the arguments for this welfare plan for the multi-state insurance corporations," charged Finnell. "House foundation losses were said by these insurance companies to be excessive in Texas. Unless the state insurance board takes action, every homeowner is going to pay for this. Tell the state insurance department you don't plan to pay the same homeowner insurance premiums if that policy doesn't cover your house's foundation. This is our only option because the legislature is not scheduled to meet again until 1995."
