Electricity rates jump

Electricity rates went up 15.3 percent Tuesday.

TU Electric's second unit at Comanche Peak went on full power that day, triggering the rate hike, Dale Cox, local TU Electric manager, said.

The nuclear generating plant was approved to operate at full power by the federal regulatory agencies.

Because the rate increase request is still under consideration by the Texas Public Utilities Commission, the utility company has posted a bond to cover the increased rates, should part or all of the requested new price not be approved, Cox added.

The bond assures customers that any part of the rate that might not be approved by the regulatory commission in Austin, refunds would be made for any charges above that which might be approved.

In the near future, a fuel surcharge is being added to customers' bills, that will increase the monthly statement for

New students to register

Elementary students who have moved to Iowa Park and have not yet been enrolled should register one of the first three days of next week.

Students in pre-kindergarten through the second grade attend classes at Ethyl Kidwell Elementary, 1200 North Third, and grades three through five are held at W.R. Bradford Elementary, 800 South Texowa.

Enrollment of new students will be held from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. Monday through Wednesday. The first day of classes will be the following Wednesday, Aug. 18.

Students who attended classes in Iowa Park last year are already pre-enrolled for this fall.

The new students will need their Social Security numbers, immunization records, and previous school's report card.

a customer that averages 1,000 kilowatts per month by $3.20 for the next six months.

The Utility Commission requires electric companies to predict what its fuel costs to generate energy will be for a given period of time.

When the prediction of high costs is greater than it turns out to be, a refund is put on customer monthly bills, as it has for the past three or four years.

However, Cox said his company had suffered a shortage of $141-million between October of 1991 and June 1993, because of the high cost of natural gas during that period.

The surcharge that will be applied to monthly bills will not only reclaim the $141-million, but an additional approximately $3-million in interest alleged to have been lost.

Cox explained that TU Electric will not file a request to begin charging the fuel surcharge until final order is issued by the regulatory commission on the pending rate increase.

News Briefs

Free garage sale advertising

Iowa Park area residents can have their garage sale advertised for free, if they want to participate in a city-wide garage sale promotion on Saturday, Aug. 14.

The promotion is sponsored by the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce, and in the past has been termed as "tremendously well received by shoppers both locally and from outside the area."

Junior high assigns students

Iowa Park Junior High students, as well as their parents, are being asked to go to the building next Tuesday, to pickup student home room and locker assignments.

The building will be open 9-11

Nobody complains about rain

About the only complaints heard concerning Tuesday morning's rain was "It was about an inch short."

Virgil Woodfin reported measuring .62 of an inch from the pre-dawn Tuesday storm, but the amount varied in other locations.

Pool to close after Oct. 15

Sunday, Aug. 15, will be the last day to swim this season at Iowa Park Swimming Pool.

a.m. and 1-3 p.m..

Principal Randy Lovelady suggests the students and their parents will want to visit those home rooms, and also practice opening locks on their lockers.

The storm's approach was first heard about 2:30 a.m., and it had moved out of the area by sun rise.

Another opportunity was missed for needed precipitation Sunday. Some areas, especially to the East, received more than Iowa Park, where hardly a trace was reported as having fallen.

The pool traditionally closes when Iowa Park schools open in the fall, and that takes place Wednesday, Aug. 18.

Personnel top subject at school board meeting

In a called meeting of the Iowa Park board of trustees, two resignations, including a board member, were accepted, five new personnel were hired, and authorization to hire at least seven additional personnel was given.

Trustee Robert Cook's resignation was accepted, effective immediately. Cook, serving his first term on the board, is resigning because his family is moving to Wichita Falls and outside the local school district.

Another called meeting is to be held at 7:30 this evening in the administration, and one of the items on that agenda is to name Cook's replacement.

Also on tonight's agenda are additional resignations to be accepted, and additional personnel to be considered for hiring.

Additionally, the board will continue its study of the proposed 1993-94 budget.

The other resignation accepted last week was that of Tandra Williams, a fifth grade teacher whose family is moving to Corsicana.

New personnel hired at the meeting included:

LaDonna Chambers, resource room at Bradford. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree from West Texas State Univ. and has nine years experience;

Margaret Cribbs, fifth grade. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Southwestern State Univ. and has 14 years experience;

Sherry Fougeron, third grade. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Midwestern State Univ. and has two years experience.;

Jeff Standard, teacher/coach. He holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from Midwestern State Univ., and has no teaching experience.

Karen Barker, to replace Debbie Cain as special education aide at high school.

Approval was given to hire at least seven personnel for positions that did not exist last year. They include Kidwell elementary counselor, junior high language arts teacher, junior high math teacher, Kidwell physical education aide, Bradford computer aide, junior high counselor aide, and high school special education aide.

An eighth position that was requested could possibly be approved this evening. That is for a second counselor's position at the high school.

Most of the positions were requested on the basis of enhancement of teaching, while others were asked for due to student load.

All actions on personnel took place following an hour-long executive session, which was held behind closed doors to the public.

In other business, the board acted on bids for construction of the special education facility at the high school, as well as student transfer applications and a calendar relating to the setting of next year's tax rate.

Special education facility bids approved were submitted by Tex-Oma Builders Supply, $2,430 for doors, frames, finish hardware and accessories, and Murphy's Tile Co., $1,720 for labor and material to install ceramic and quarry tile.

Transfer applications for two students who will attend first grade, Matthew Aquallo and Blake Mitchell, were approved. In both cases, tuition fee of $1,700 will be paid to the school district.

Dates of required public notice publications, hearings and other issues relating to any change in the tax rate were discussed and approved.

Schools release lists of supplies

With less than two weeks remaining before the first day of classes, three of the four campus faculties have released their student supply lists.

The first day of classes will be Wednesday, Aug. 18.

Lists for student supplies at the two elementary campus, as well as junior high, were made available. Needs of high school students relate to classes in which they enroll, and are explained when students pickup their schedules.

Miller, Rice vows exchanged in Friendly Door ceremony

In the first wedding to be performed at Iowa Park Friendly Door in its 16 year history, Rowena Miller became the bride of Gene Rice in wedding rites performed Friday at one o'clock.

Rev. Darrel Glen Blackmon, pastor of First United Methodist Church, and Rev. Nan Davis, pastor of Byers First United Methodist Church, directed the couple in their recitation of vows.

A prelude of wedding music and the "Wedding March" was provided by Glenna Via, pianist.

An improvised altar was arranged at the inside front entrance of the Friendly Door. A white wrought iron archway garlanded with greenery featured mixed arrangements of pink, yellow and orchid flowers in flanking positions.

Linda Bowden and the groom's stepson, Lee Watson of Wichita Falls, were the couple's only attendants.

The couple's romance grew through two and one-half years of playing dominos at the Friendly Door. Mrs. Rice, a native of Michigan, has been a resident of Iowa Park since 1979. She raises emus and about two months ago, Rice used the ruse of coming to her house to look at her emus. By his own admission, "I really didn't have my eye on those birds."

She also is a ham operator, and she plans to teach Rice the emu business and to be a ham operator. She teaches a Sunday School class at First United Methodist Church. She is a member of the Post Polio Group in Wichita Falls, the American and Texas Emu Associations and meets every three months with the Archer, Clay and Wichita Area Emu Association.

Rice, a native of Shreveport, La., has been a resident of Iowa Park and Wichita Falls 25 years. He was employed by B&W Fabrication and Town and Country Mobile Homes. He retired in 1991.

Among special guests for the wedding were Mrs. Lee (Lila) Watson of Wichita Falls, Mike and Janet McKee of Iowa Park and Mrs. Rice's sons, Raymond Miller of Wichita Falls, and Gene Paul Miller of Burkburnett.

Curbs the 'Craving' Chain Herbal Formula Reduces Desire For Sweets

TALLAHASSEE--Researchers at Florida State University have published findings determining that consumption of sweet foods are habitual; initial intake of sweets actually increases the desire for more sweet food. This vicious craving chain was curbed by the FSU researchers with an herbally derived taste modifier which reduces the desire for additional sweets without changing the flavor of food.

In taste perception trials, subjects using the herbal derivative gymnemic acid, ate less than those not using it. The decreased desire for additional sweets resulted in an average of 20% fewer calories consumed. Carbohydrate and fat consumption also declined, resulting in weight loss. Published in Physiology and Behavior, the study demonstrates the herb's control of sugar consumption results in better appetite management, often generating substantial weight loss.

This safe and effective herb is now available in an all natural fiber tablet called Beta-Trim. Rapidly gaining acceptance in pharmacies nationwide, Beta-Trim has become a tremendous discovery for dieters. An Oklahoma resident writes, "Beta-Trim helps me maintain my weight and I feel much better about myself." Another in Arizona, "noticed results right away...My friends at work noticed the weight loss, now three of them are taking it."

Control your sweet tooth, naturally with Beta-Trim. Now available at:

As I See It... By Bob Hamilton

No, the Wichita County commissioners court doesn't have a crystal ball. But they are the ones who painted themselves into a corner. Nobody else.

The commissioners are working on their 1993-94 budget, and find that they're almost half a million dollars short of what they need.

And they also find that an eight percent tax increase -- which would face a guaranteed rollback election -- would still leave them more than $100,000 short.

All this, coming just a few months after pledging $9-million to the great Wichita Falls urban renewal project, that fantastic and badly-needed Multi-Purpose Event Center.

Oh, remember the judge and some of the commissioners -- those three that live in Wichita Falls -- assuring us that the county could afford to donate all that $9-million and it wouldn't raise our taxes any?

An odd point about all this is, one of the two major expenditures in next year's county budget relates to the jail.

That $9-million is coming from a tax that had been levied to pay back bonds that financed the county jail's enlargement and renovation project.

Where in the world have those folks who select the Southwest Conference Hall of Fame recipients had their heads?

It was announced last week that among this year's selections was the one and only Slingin' Sammy Baugh!

Was this the first year selections had been named, or was it because Baugh turned his back on the University of Texas to play for the Texas Christian University Hornfrogs?

Good heavens! Baugh should have been the first recipient ever named to that elite group. The pros named him decades ago.

Why do I get excited about this? Well, Baugh was my hero in my youth. Everybody wanted to throw or punt the ball like Slingin' Sammy. We idolized him.

And then, for those of you who might not know, or remember, we have long had a connection with the name Baugh.

One of his sons, David, served as head coach of the Hawks a few years ago, and left to become head coach and athletic director at Snyder.

And one of Sammy's grandsons, Brian, has lived most of his life here. In fact, he's my next-door neighbor.

Sammy watched a lot of Hawk games in the stands, and even responded to David's request one summer to put on a kicking camp for youngsters here.

The problem was, those young'uns couldn't seem to grasp the fact that this skinny old fellow still holds a bunch of records in the professional football books that none of these high-paid booters can surpass. And he set them about 50 years ago!

And, hey! He did that when he was playing both offense and defense. Everyone had to go both ways back in those days.

Sammy still lives on his ranch near Rotan, and plays golf almost every day at Snyder.

Like I said, Slingin' Sammy Baugh should have been not only in the first year's Southwest Conference Hall of Fame class, he should have been the very first recipient ever named.

Worth Quoting

If you want to know why our country is broke -- in more ways than one -- all you have to do is listen to news reports whenever a natural disaster breaks out.

Invariably, people in the devastated area begin clamoring for the federal government to come in and relieve their hurt. The President, whoever he may be at the time, pledges all the help possible -- and that's always declared to be insufficient.

I've often wondered what the pioneers did when disasters befell them. There was no Federal Emergency Management Agency to call. Their rights didn't include being taken care of by the government in the event of a tornado or hurricane or flood or drought.

Imagine you are a farmer in the 1800s. You get hold of a little piece of land -- near a river because you have to have water -- and you spend your savings on your first crop. A few months after your crop is in the ground, it starts to rain. Then it rains some more. One day, you look out your window and notice the river has jumped its banks and is within a few hundred feet of your crop. Then it comes a real gullywasher. The river continues to rise and washes out your entire crop. The roof falls in on your barn, and your only milk cow dies in the flood. You're wiped out.

So, who do you call for help? All your neighbors are in the same situation, so they're little help. No, about all you can do is clean up and figure out a way to get by.

Somehow, our forefathers managed.

Today, too many people immediately turn to the government when they have a problem. We expect Uncle Sam to take care of us, no matter what. If he's not there immediately, we scream and kick. And, of course, the cost means nothing.

This is to take nothing away from the many wonderful volunteers who come to help during a disaster. They represent the true spirit of America, and they do what the federal government can't.

And it's not to say that the federal government shouldn't respond to disasters.

But I think the men and women who built this country would be saddened by the sight of so many of their progeny demanding help instead of rolling up their sleeves and getting to work.

We can't remember a time in recent history when all local monopolies came at homeowners with rate increases over such a short period of time.

New gas, electric, cable, water, phone and landfill charges have either gone into effect or are sought by the entities in the very near future.

Do you suppose they're reading something in the new Clinton administration about which the rest of us are in the dark?

Alpha Hammett

Most of us have known people who seem to work miracles in the kitchen. They can turn out a delicious meal by using whatever ingredients that are on hand.

According to friends and co-workers, Alpha Hammett is that type of cook. She told us, "I cook to suit myself. Often, I change recipes in order to use what I've got on hand."

Born and reared in Kingston, Okla., Alpha was one of six daughters. She said that her father did most of the cooking in her family, and she used to get up every morning and help him prepare breakfast by making the biscuits.

Alpha is co-owner of Park Home Health where she is an LVN and assistant administrator. She said that the day her youngest son turned 16, she enrolled in LVN school. Now, 13 years later, she says that nursing is a very rewarding occupation. She especially likes home health care because it requires using all of her skills.

Alpha has four children. A son, Ray, lives in Memphis, Tenn. and her daughter, Darlene Schroeder, and other sons, George and Danny, live in Wichita Falls. She also has four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Sewing and working in the garden are favorite pastimes for Alpha, but she loves to fish, and is planning her vacation to include plenty of this type of relaxation.

Alpha says she loves to cook and then give it away. Since she is so busy during the week with her work, she cooks a lot of food on the weekends and puts it in the freezer.

Her recipes are ones that she has collected over the years, and they fill two spiral notebooks.

The "Layered Dessert" is a family favorite that she prepares for Thanksgiving and Christmas meals. She says it is a dessert that you can make ahead of time and freeze. Also, she said the "Derby Pie" is easy to make and the taste is out of this world!

Zucchini Pie

- 4 cups grated zucchini
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/4 cup flour
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1 1/4 cup sugar
- 1 1/2 tsp. apple or pumpkin pie spice
- 1/4 cup lemon juice

Combine all ingredients in a large bowl. Stir well. (I mix mine in mixer.) Pour into unbaked pie crust. Top with crust if desired. Bake 1 hour at 350 degrees.

Green Enchiladas

- 1 lb. ground beef
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. garlic (minced)
- 1 can cream of chicken soup
- 8 oz. whole milk
- 1/2 lb. Velveeta cheese
- 1/2 lb. Longhorn cheese
- 1 small can green chilies
- 1 small jar pimientos
- 14 corn tortillas
- 1/2 cup corn oil
- 1 cup chopped onion

Add salt and garlic to beef and brown lightly.

Heat soup, milk and Velveeta cheese until cheese is melted. Add green chilies and chopped pimientos.

Add browned meat to grated Longhorn cheese and chopped onion and mix well.

Soften tortillas in hot oil and drain. Fill each tortilla with meat mixture. Roll and place in 8x10 baking dish. Pour cheese mixture over tortillas, cover with foil and bake 30 minutes at 350 degrees.

This can also be made using chicken and flour tortillas.

Derby Pie

- 1 - 9-inch unbaked pastry shell
- 2 eggs, slightly beaten
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 stick oleo, melted and cooled
- 3/4 cup chopped pecans
- 3/4 cup semi-sweet chocolate chips
- 1 tsp. vanilla

Combine eggs, sugar, flour and oleo in a medium mixing bowl. Beat until just blended. Stir in pecans, chocolate chips and vanilla. Pour into pie shell and bake at 350 degrees 40-45 minutes or until knife comes out clean. (This makes its own top crust.)

Cucumber Salad

- 1 small pkg. lime jello
- 1 small pkg. lemon jello
- 1 Tbsp. lemon juice
- 1 1/2 cup boiling water

Mix together and place in ice box to cool. When it barely begins to set, add:

- 1 pint cottage cheese
- 1 cup mayonnaise
- 2 cups diced celery
- 2 cups chopped onion
- 1 large chopped cucumber

Put back in refrigerator to set.

Layered Dessert

- 1st layer:
- 1 stick oleo, melted
- 1 1/2 cup finely chopped pecans
- 1 Tbsp. sugar
- 1 cup flour

Mix all together and spread in long (9x13) casserole dish. Bake about 20 minutes or until light brown.

- 2nd layer:
- 8 oz. pkg. cream cheese, softened
- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 1 cup Cool Whip

Mix together and spread over crust.

- 3rd layer:
- Prepare 1 large box or 2 small boxes of instant chocolate pudding according to directions and spread over cream cheese mixture.

Spread rest of Cool Whip over pudding and sprinkle with pecans.

May use any flavor of pudding. This freezes well.

Squash Dressing

- 1 large onion
- 2 cups cooked & drained squash
- 1 can cream of chicken soup
- 1/2 stick oleo
- 2 cups crumbled cornbread
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/2 tsp. pepper
- 1/2 tsp. poultry seasoning

Combine all ingredients. Bake at 400 degrees approximately 30-40 minutes.

PERSPECTIVES: IS TELEVISION ALTERING ATTITUDES AND VALUES?

Winston Churchill is credited with saying, "First we fashion our buildings, and then they fashion us." More recently, television has become the great molder of American life. Because television is an aggressive medium with which we powerfully interact psychologically through visual images, it does more to shape fundamental attitudes and values than we have been willing to admit.

Perhaps we should tape the word CHRIST across our television screens as an encouragement to ask ourselves if we are watching through eyes attuned to the standard Jesus has given us. The following quiz may be able to help awaken us to what is happening in our lives.

Has your television made you a more superficial person and less willing to read and reason reflectively? Has television led you to sin regarding the use of your time? Are the hours spent in front of the television justified as deserved relaxation? Do you give little thought to God's teaching that we are all stewards of a limited amount of time and are soberly charged to use it well? (Eph. 5:16; Col. 4:5).

Is your television leading you to a distorted view of life's realities? As events in your own life do not unfold with the color and speed of a soap opera, have you convinced yourself that the deserved excitement of life is passing you by?

Has your television caused you to accept as true a Satan-bred falsehood about the nature of material things and the quality of your life? Have the relentless commercials at last succeeded in convincing you that happiness and fulfillment are the product of possessions and that a happy marriage and good home are all purchasable commodities?

Has television encouraged you to become less civil? Do you leave it blaring when visitors come? Has television encouraged you to exalt the wrong role models? Do you think women are to be beautiful but not to be honored for their quiet heroism in child rearing and homemaking?

Our thanks to the Christian Chronicle for giving us permission to use this timely article written by James Baird. We will conclude these thoughts next week.

Oma Jean Williamson

Last rites for Oma Jean Williamson, 98, Wichita County resident for almost eight decades and of Iowa Park 70 years, were at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the chapel of First Baptist Church in Wichita Falls.

Rev. Mike Blaylock, minister of education, officiated. Burial was in Highland Cemetery in Iowa Park under direction of Owens-Brumley Funeral Home.

Mrs. Williamson died Saturday at her home where she had lived since 1923.

Born Oma Jean Brown in Alford June 20, 1895, she moved to Burk Burnett with her parents in 1914 where her father was a cotton buyer and a grocer. She worked for Burk Burnett Dry Goods Co.

She was married Feb. 21, 1917 to Carl Williamson. They lived on a farm five miles northwest of Burk Burnett. Mrs. Williamson remembered standing on their front porch and watching the first oil well come in on their place. She lived to see 137 oil wells on that land that has been in the Williamson family more than 100 years. Williamson died in 1970.

The land was accepted into the Texas Family Heritage Land Registry for continuous ownership of land in agriculture production by one family 100 years and received recognition at the state capitol in Austin.

The Williamsons purchased land southeast of Iowa Park from John Hirschi in 1920 and built an eight room brick home where Mrs. Williamson still lived at the time of her death.

During the Dust Bowl days they farmed and ranched in Dalhart, living there during the summer months and returning to Iowa Park for the winter.

Mrs. Williamson was a homemaker and loved to garden. As long as she was able, growing roses was a speciality.

She had been a member of First Baptist Church in Wichita Falls since 1922. She was the oldest member of the Wichita Falls church.

Survivors include three sons, Richard C. of Parker, Colo., and John W. and Stanley H., both of Iowa Park; one brother, B. E. Brown of Gorman; eight grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren.

Mary Iva Prickett

Services for Mary Iva Prickett, 87, were at 2 p.m. Monday at Cooper Sorrells Chapel in Honey Grove.

Rev. Thomas Beal of Southmayd officiated. Burial was in Gum Springs Cemetery in Carson Community in Fannin County under direction of Hampton-Vaughan Funeral Home.

Mrs. Prickett died Saturday in a Wichita Falls nursing home.

Born Oct. 21, 1905 in Fannin County, she had lived in Iowa Park 10 years. She was a homemaker and a member of Faith Baptist Church of Iowa Park. She was a former member of Vineyard Grove Baptist Church in Allen's Chapel community. Her husband, Jake, died Jan. 30, 1984.

Survivors include two daughters, Billie Brown of Iowa Park and Corenne Jones of Wichita Falls; four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to Faith Baptist Church of Iowa Park.

Joshua Dalton Williams

Services for Joshua Dalton Williams, 21-month-old son of Mitchell and Amanda Williams, were at 2 p.m. Friday at Dutton Funeral Home.

Charles Terry, minister of Kamay Church of Christ, Bill Keesling, minister of Edgemere Church of Christ, John Knox, minister of Tenth and Broad Church of Christ and a chaplain of Wichita Falls Police Department, and Rev. Mark Mitchell, pastor of Kamay First Baptist Church, officiated. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

The child died Wednesday in Kamay.

Born Oct. 8, 1991, in Wichita Falls, he was a lifetime resident of Iowa Park.

Survivors in addition to his parents, are his grandparents, Gene and Jo Williams of Iowa Park and Jackie and Sue Meador of Kamay, and his great-grandmother, Aletha Meador of Avery.

Memorials may be made to Dallas Children's Medical Center for brain tumor research, Hospice of Wichita Falls, or Kamay Church of Christ.

Leonard Milton Meyers

Services for Leonard Milton Meyers, 71, will be at 10 a.m. today at Highland Cemetery Pavillion. Burial will be in Highland Cemetery under the direction of Dutton Funeral Home. He died Monday in a Wichita Falls hospital.

Meyers was born Jan. 13, 1922, in Lodi, N.J. He and Julia E. Hadlick were married Nov. 6, 1944, in Paterson, J.J. He had lived in Iowa Park nine years, moving from Fair Lawn, J.J. He was a welder for Litton Industries for 38 years before retiring. He was a World War II Army veteran, serving in Africa and Italy with the 168th Infantry, 34th Division, Fifth Army. He was a member of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Disabled American Veterans, Eureka Lodge No. 434 and International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers AFL-CIO.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Karen Church of Iowa Park; three brothers, Andrew of Selma, Ala., and Kenneth and Arthur, both of Paterson; two sisters, Anne Weber and Ruth Etzel, both of Paterson; and two grandchildren.

Card of Thanks

The simple "Thank You" is so inadequate for all the things done for us during the illness and death of "Our little Josh". In his short life he touched so many hearts. To the ministers, Hospice and ladies of the church who prepared lunch we are forever grateful.

All the prayers, food, flowers, cards and thoughts were truly appreciated. Most of all for you just being there for us to help make it a little easier. You are all truly friends and each of you will have a special place in our hearts.

May God bless each of you.

Marjorie "Marge" Fenner, 75, of Pocola, Okla., died Tuesday in a Fort Smith, Ark. hospital.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Friday at Owens & Brumley Funeral Home Chapel in Wichita Falls, with burial in Highland Cemetery.

ATTEND CHURCH SUNDAY

NEW SEASON UNDERWAY - Tim Denton and some 60 other Hawks put on their helmets in unison Wednesday morning, as two-a-day workouts to prepare for the 1993 season got underway.

Hawks start workouts

Preparations for the 1993 football season got underway bright and early yesterday morning, when all candidates for Iowa Park High School teams began two-a-day workouts.

Coach Robert Clensay said he has tentatively scheduled morning sessions to begin at 8:30 and afternoon gatherings at 6:00. Pre-practice, calisthenics are to get underway at 5:45.

Players will continue working out in shorts through this week, and put on their pads Monday morning.

An intrasquad scrimmage will be held Friday afternoon of next week. That will mark the end of two-a-days.

Because all classroom teachers will be involved in inservice training Monday, Aug. 16, and a workday is scheduled the following day, only afternoon workouts will be held starting

Aug. 16.

The first day of classes will be Wednesday, Aug. 18.

They will knock heads Friday, Aug. 20, against the Wichita Falls High Coyotes, and the following Friday travel to Abilene where their second scrimmage will be against Abilene Wylie. Both latter scrimmages are tentatively set to get underway at 5 p.m.

The Wylie scrimmage will be Junior Varsity and Varsity only, because the Freshmen are to scrimmage Holliday, there, at the same time.

Coach Clensay said his numbers of ninth graders may require some of the JV players to be used, when that team scrimmages.

The JV and Frosh will open their seasons Thursday, Sept. 2, at Burk Burnett.

Reserved season tickets to go on sale Monday

Reserved season seat tickets for Hawk football games will go on sale Monday at the Iowa Park High School principal's office.

Fans who had season reserved tickets in 1992 will have until the first home game (Sept. 3 against Burk Burnett) to renew their option on the same seats again this year.

At $5 per game, a book of season tickets this year will cost $25.

Reserved seats after the first game will be $5, if available. General admission tickets will be $2 for students and $4 for adults, if purchased before the game.

No reserved seats are sold at the game, and all general admission tickets sold at the game are $5.

Principal Richard Davis said his office is open from 8 a.m. until 12-noon and 1-4 p.m.

The other varsity games scheduled this season for Hawk Stadium include: Sept. 24, Memphis; Oct. 1, Wellington (homecoming); Oct. 8, Vernon, and Oct. 29, Graham.

When the season gets underway, home game tickets are available at all four campus business offices as well as the administration office.

Advanced sale of tickets for games out of town are at the high school only.

Boosters seeking members

Leadership of the Iowa Park Athletic Booster Club is aggressively encouraging everyone, especially parents of players, to join and participate in the Club's activities.

The organization's meetings are held at 7 p.m. every Monday at the field house, where refreshments are served and film of the previous Friday's games are viewed along with coaches' comments.

Two-a-day workouts began Wednesday. After the afternoon sessions, which begin at 5:30 p.m., members serve players "fruit cooler" drinks.

A watermelon feed will benefit the players at 4:30 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 28, following a picture-taking session.

Volleyball tournament Friday night at RAC

A four-person coed volleyball tournament will be played Friday evening at the sand courts of the Recreational Activities Center.

Registration will be at 7:30 p.m. and play begins at 8. Entry fee is $40 per team.

Prizes will be awarded to first and second places, and door prizes also will be given.

Card of Thanks

Thank you to the Class of '93 softball team for your $50 donation to next year's Project Graduation. That money was earned by participating in the annual Optimist Club tournament. Carole Venhaus

Graham students who participate in high school and junior high extracurricular activities will be charged a $15 fee to offset a $24,034 cost of insurance.

ss ss ss ss ss

Two 4-AAA athletes, Kasie Berend of Graham and Rene Hanebutt of Bowie, have played AAU basketball this summer for a team in Mansfield, that participated in tournaments in Waco, Garland, and the nationals in Chattanooga, Tenn.

ss ss ss ss ss

Former Vernon High athlete, Andy Burrus (Class of '84), has joined the staff at Graham, where he will be an assistant football coach at GHS, as well as coaching junior high football, basketball and track.

Holiday's reserved seat ticket holders can pick up their tickets Aug. 16-20 in the Middle School office. They will go on sale to the general public Aug. 23. Tickets for the five home games will be $17.50.

FmHA accepting loan applications

Applications for emergency farm loans for damages and losses caused by severe storms and flooding, which occurred between May 8 and May 26 this year, are being accepted at the Farmers Home Administration office in Vernon.

Wichita is one of four counties in Texas (contiguous to one of 25 designated counties in Oklahoma) recently named by Secretary of Agriculture Mike Espy as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from excessive rainfall.

Thomas Spencer said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business, or $500,000, whichever is less.

For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest rate is 4.5 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30-percent loss of production to be eligible for an FmHA emergency loan," Spencersaid.

Farmers participating in the PIK or Federal Crop Insurance programs will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their loss.

"Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until Feb. 7, 1994 but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly over into the new farming season," Spencersaid.
