Car's burglar alarm fails to foil theft

A car's burglar alarm failed to prevent more than $1,400 worth of sound equipment theft from a vehicle parked in the 800 block of East Fasadena early Sunday morning.

The owner of the vehicle told police he was awakened by the alarm system, but when he went outside, the items had already been taken.

Police were called at 4:56 a.m. by the owner.

They found the left rear window of the vehicle knocked out.

Taken was a compact disc player from the dash, amplifier, equalizer, speakers and a case containing several compact discs.

A few blocks away, in the 500 block of East Washington, a neighbor who was watching a home for residents who were out of town, found a window Saturday morning that had been broken out in an apparent burglary attempt.

A check of the home failed to determine if anything had been taken, and the occupants are not expected to return until this weekend, according to police.

Three other theft reports were filed with police during the past week.

Company checks from a local firm that had been doing business with a now-defunct Wichita Falls bank have been used, police were told.

One check, drawn on the former First Federal Bank, was passed at a local supermarket, and second was accepted by another supermarket in Wichita Falls. Police received the report Friday.

Also reported Friday was the apparent theft of cassette tapes in a brown leather case, and a 12-can cooler, from a vehicle in the 1300 block of Edgell.

An employee of Expressway Restaurant told police someone had taken four rings and a wrist watch from the business a couple weeks before the report was filed Thursday.

In municipal court Thursday morning, Judge Dan Thompkins ordered the commitment of Bryan Wayne McMahan, 22, for failure to maintain financial responsibility. His fine was $270, according to the police blotter entry.

A citation was issued to a male juvenile at 12:22 a.m. Wednesday, for minor in possession.

The citation was issued to the 16-year-old when he was observed by an officer to have had an open can of beer in his hand.

Street dance set Saturday

Most of the 100 block of East Cash will be closed to traffic Saturday evening, for a fund raising event by the Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Dept.

Baricades will be put up at 5 p.m., and removed after the event is over. Traffic to the post office and its drive-through deposit area will not be affected.

The firemen are presenting Sheila Helton Country Music Show and Dance. Advance tickets, sold evenings at the fire station, are $4 for students and $6.50 for adults. That evening, prices will be $5 and $7.50, respectively.

Barbecue sandwiches and chips will be served from 6 to 8 p.m., for donations, according to the coordinators.

FUTILE EFFORTS were expended by Iowa Park emergency workers Thursday afternoon, when they attempted to revive Oscar Singleton following an apparent fatal heart attack. The long-time local businessman was driving south on Pacific about 5:25 p.m., when he suffered the attack and crashed his pickup

Whoop-T-Do date nears

Chamber Secretary Susan Dillard is expecting a "flood" of booth reservations, as the annual Whoop-T-Do date, Sept. 19, nears.

Actually, arts and crafts exhibitors are already lining up to reserve their booth spaces. Mrs. Dillard said 11 had already paid their $15 fee.

The non-profit organizations are the ones who are expected to begin making their booth reservations as the event nears.

Organizations have until Sept. 7 to reserve the same type booth they had last year. After that date, however, it will be a first-come, first-serve basis.

Non-profit organizations are charged $25 or 10 percent of their profits, whichever is greater, to have booths at the event.

As of Wednesday, only nine organizations had made their reservations, she said.

Any groups or individuals who would like to take part in the entertainment program are encouraged to notify the Chamber of Commerce office. No fee is charged.

The entertainment stage will again be located on the extreme east end of the block this year.

It is understood that none of the school's choir groups will be available that day to entertain the crowd, as they have in the past, due to a conflict.

Youth who anticipate participating in the annual Turtle Trot are reminded that the date is nearing and they should be finding their entries.

Youth up through fourth grade are eligible to enter one turtle per person.

HOMEcomings PARADE

The Whoop-T-Do is traditionally held the Saturday following Iowa Park High School's annual homecoming football game on Friday.

Kicking off that Friday's events will be the homecoming parade, which is to get underway at 4 p.m.

This year's theme is "A little bit of country; a little bit of rock and roll."

Anyone wishing to have an entry in the parade is asked to contact Mrs. Carole Venhaus, Student Council sponsor, at 592-2144 during the day or 592-2147 at night.

The climax of the weekend's activities will be on Saturday night, when the annual banquet of the Iowa Park High Ex-Students' Association is held.

City council holds tax rate, ups water price

The city council Monday night adopted the new budget and then set the tax rate.

There was no increase in the 80-cent per $100 valuation, which has been in place the past two years.

But the council did hike the price of water by 10 percent.

The tax rate includes $.1017 for bond retirement, and $.6983 for general operating expenses. Anticipated revenues and expenditures are a balanced $1,682,599.

New water rates will be $5.40 for the first 2,000 gallons, the minimum rate, and an additional $2.16 per thousand over the minimum 2,000 gallons, for city residents.

Rates for out-of-city customers will be $22.90 for the first 2,000 gallons, and $5.13 per thousand over the minimum 2,000 gallons.

The budget for the water and sewer department is $1,035,849.

The new water rates will not go into effect until Oct. 1, which is the start of the city's fiscal year.

Water rates were cut by 15 percent two years ago, and this is the first change in the rate since then.

The council approved an amendment in the rates charged by Life Line ambulance service, which is required since the company receives a subsidy from the county, Iowa Park, Wichita Falls and Burkburnett.

The amended rates will be $144 for

Trustees to adopt budget, set tax rate Monday night

Iowa Park school trustees are to hold their 1992-93 budget hearing for the public Monday evening, and then set the new tax rate.

The meeting is to begin at 7:30 p.m. in the junior high school library.

The district's tax rate is expected to be 28 cents, though some trustees are trying to find ways to cut that a penny.

The district rate, which would include 18 cents for local maintenance and 10 cents for bonded indebtedness, would be added to the County Education District's recently-adopted rate of 85 cents (.84684), for a total of $1.13 per $100 valuation.

While some changes could still be made in the local budget Monday, most of the cuts have already been made during budget workshops, such as the conclusion of Tuesday's regular meeting.

Included in the proposed budget is $400,000 to cover state shortfall, called "proration," Supt. Glen Mitchell explained.

State funds were shortened approximately $174,000 for the 1991-92 school year, and the commissioner of education has encouraged all district superintendents to double whatever this year's proration was, in determining their new budgets, Mitchell said.

The superintendent estimated the district would have a fund balance of $750,000 at the end of the year, if his proposed budget is adopted.

It was noted that the district suffered the largest loss of tax values of any district in Wichita County, $13,575,781.

The fund balance is used to pay salaries and bills at the start of a new school year, until local tax and state funding is received later in the fall.

Prior to Tuesday's meeting, trustees held a reception for the 18 new teachers who have joined the district this year.

During the meeting's personnel session, trustees accepted the resignation of one employee, and approved the hiring of four additional staff members. The resignation was that of long-time vehicle maintenance man Earl Chesser, who is retiring.

Newly hired are Brenda Curtin, remedial aide at Bradford, Yeada Gunter, remedial teacher at Kidwell, Molly Marchman, TLC teacher at junior high school, and Tammy Hoover, TCL aide.

The board approved bids to replace stolen auto mechanics class tools and equipment. The successful bidder, with $8,099, was Deleard Tools, of Houston. Administrators had estimated the replacement cost would be $11,000.

Also approved for copier supplies was a bid from Stevens Company of Wichita Falls.

An emergency purchase, which requires board approval, was for two refrigerators from Parkway TrueValue, into the east ditch. George Bushfield, standing on left, was the first person on the scene. He pulled the 61-year-old from the pickup and began applying CPR until relieved by the emergency workers. Similar efforts applied by Life Line Ambulance attendants also failed.

for a total of $1,258.90. The units were needed for milk storage for cafeterias.

Trustees also approved student transfers into the district of six pupils, four of whom are children of faculty. The other two were from City View district.

Purchases of supplies for the temporary classroom buildings which have been moved to Kidwell, also were approved.

They include additional doors for each building, at a cost of $1,795, and supplies to build a canopy over the walkway.

The additional doors are required to meet the city fire safety code, it was pointed out.

Assistant superintendent Robert Palmer, who is in charge of the transportation department, told trustees the new bus which had been ordered for this year had already been delivered, and was already in use.

Palmer also said the two buses which had been reconditioned at the state prison were "very acceptable," and added that two bus routes may have to be merged with a third, because they were exceeding the allowable in numbers of students being carried.

Supt. Mitchell said enrollment in the district was now at 2,030 pupils, up from the 1,928 reported on a similar date in 1991.

He mentioned that there was a possibility one additional teacher may have to be hired for the high school, where classes were becoming overcrowded, should enrollment continue beyond the 564 students now in that building.

Moore, Boutwell vows solemnized in afternoon ceremony

Randal Kyle Boutwell and his bride are at home in Moore, Okla., following their wedding Aug. 1, and a honeymoon trip to Niagra Falls and New York City.

Mrs. Boutwell is the former Deborah Ann Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O.E. Moore of Mustang, Okla. Boutwell is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Roy K. Boutwell of Iowa Park.

The couple exchanged vows of matrimony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in Willowbrook Gardens in Oklahoma City. Robert L. Gregg, minister of the Lakehoma Church of Christ in Mustang, officiated the double ring vows.

Forming the nuptial area was a brass archway entwined with pink satin bows. In flanking positions to the arch were three tapers burning in brass candelabras. The family rows were marked with brass candle stands. Lush overhanging greenery and potted plants in the garden room added to the scene.

"Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" was played preceding the entry of the wedding party. The traditional wedding march and recessional was the only other music.

When given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a mermaid style gown of rich white satin and, lavishly detailed in both the front and back with simulated pearls, sequins and English lace.

The bodice was designed with sweetheart neckline and sheer illusion net yoke that extended to a high collar of lace that repeated the simulated pearl and sequin trim. Shoulders of the dress were satin wrapped bows accented in the center with a satin rose. Extending from the short satin sleeves were long illusion sleeves adorned with lace, beads and sequins. The sleeves extended to a point over the bride's hands. The slender skirt featured a wide border of lace about three-quarters of the way down creating a lace trimmed flounce.

A sweep train and detachable regal cathedral train attached at the waistline of the gown with a large bow and repeated the pearl, sequin and lace trim.

She wore a band of white flowers on her head with pearl drops on each side.

She carried a traditional bouquet of white roses, pixie carnations, and ivy in a nest of white tulle.

Mr. and Mrs. Randal Kyle Boutwell
(Deborah Ann Moore)

Lisa Moore of Mustang, the bride's sister, was her only attendant. She wore a pink silk suit with an ivory silk and lace bodice.

She carried a nosegay of smaller pink roses and pink pixie carnations entwined with pink tulle and ivy.

Ray K. Boutwell of Wichita Falls, brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were John Robert Miley of Wichita Falls and Daniel Stewart of Olney.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with tails and a textured vest and white bow tie. Other male attendants and fathers of the bride and groom wore similar tuxes only the jackets were waist-tailored and accented with black vertically textured bow ties and cummerbunds.

Willowbrook garden room was scene of the reception. Potted plants and candles were used as the background for the table. It was covered with a white lace skirt and decorated with greenery and pink draped ribbon.

The bride's white cake was three graduated tiers decorated on top and on each tier with pink roses. Leslie McConnell and Melinda Robinson presided at the table.

Two interlocking hearts with chocolate icing and light and dark chocolate roses formed the groom's cake. Greenery encircled the cake. Jennifer Pierce presided at the groom's table.

The bride, a 1985 graduate of Mustang High School, graduated Oklahoma Christian College with a Bachelor of Arts Degree. She received her Masters Degree in mathematics from Pittsburg State in Kansas, and currently is attending the University of Oklahoma where she is working on a Ph.D in mathematics.

Boutwell graduated Iowa Park High School in 1986. He received a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice in 1990 from Midwestern State University. He is currently attending law school at Oklahoma City University.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Tom Peebles of Jacksonville, Fla., uncle of the bride, Gladys Peebles of Angleton, the bride's grandmother, and Ricky Peebles of Dallas, cousin of the bride.

Also attending were Pauline Boutwell of Wichita Falls, grandmother of the groom, his uncle and family, Tom, Connie and Angela Fox from Kansas City, Mo., and Glen Fox of Wichita Falls, his grandfather, and Nellie Richards of Wichita Falls.

MSU Career Services director speaks to Evening Lions Club

Jack Crabb, a former personnel manager at the Cryovac plant in Iowa Park, now a director of Career Services at Midwestern State Univ., spoke to the Evening Lions Tuesday on the present status of business in the nation and local area. He was introduced by Harvey Troutman.

He was particularly concerned about the job markets and the scarcity of jobs now for college graduates and for people who have college degrees and have been successfully employed for years, who now find themselves without jobs. He said that the tight economy in the nation now was a matter of great concern.

Crabb said the stages of the job market began with the agricultural revolution, then the industrial revolution, and the worldwide revolution where we are now. "The job market today does not offer young people much promise. In earlier years there were lots of jobs for young people, but they have disappeared and the opportunities are going to be scarce," he said.

The speaker continued by saying that there was a bright side to the dismal picture and that technology will shift but it will be slow in coming and economy will be painful. He said America must grab hold to her role in production, improve the quality of service in manufacturing, so that industries won't have to relocate to other places or even out of the country.

Crabb said that there was a great need for a Vocational Institute in Wichita County to be sensitive of the needs of the economy. He said that many students now enrolled in MSU need to be in a vocational school learning skills that will equip them to get good jobs in this age of technology. He reminded the group that interesting things are now happening in the work force which will change dramatically by 2000 A.D. and beyond with the number of women working by then.

Pete Elliston conducted the business following the program.

Mayfield, Boutwell double-ring wedding vows exchanged August 8

Teri Beth Mayfield of Bedford became the bride of Ray Kendall Boutwell Aug. 8 in Hurst Baptist Church.

Jimmy Williams, a Baptist minister and a friend of the couple, directed the exchange of double ring marriage vows for the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Gaylon Mayfield of Bedford and the late Mary Beth Mayfield. The groom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Roy K. Boutwell of Iowa Park.

The newlyweds will make their home in Kaufman where Boutwell will be director of Physical Therapy at the Presbyterian Hospital.

A triplicity of candelabras entwined with greenery centered the altar area. Large arrangements of a variety of fresh summer flowers were placed on white columns to complete the decorations.

The traditional processional and recessional music was played. "Ave Maria" was presented before the vows and "A Wedding Prayer" was played during the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white silk shantung gown. The basque bodice was designed with a sweetheart, off the shoulder neckline and slightly dropped waistline that came to a V in the front.

The bodice was embellished with lace and accented with sequins and simulated pearls. Short, full puffed sleeves featured rose medallions of pearls and sequins.

Gathered to fullness at the waistline, the skirt terminated in a cathedral train attached at the center back with a large candy box bow and roses. The train was adorned with simulated pearls, lace and sequin detailing.

Her full length tiered veil of illusion was caught to a halo of flowers. Her bouquet consisted of fresh white and yellow roses, purple orchids, pink and red roses, and hydrangeas, tied with flowing satin streamers.

Matron of honor was Mary Noel Corn of Hewitt. She wore a fuchsia silk brocade off the shoulder suit with pearl trim.

Serving as bridesmaids were Debbie Runnels of Midlothian, Misty Williams of Irving and Eileen Battle of Houston. They were identically attired as the matron of honor.

Taylor Price of Plano, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a tea-length dress of white satin with puffed sleeves and accented with simulated pearls, similar to the bride's dress.

Dr. Boutwell served as best man for his son. Groomsmen were Steve Merritt of Phoenix, Az., Randy Boutwell, the groom's brother, of Norman, Okla., and Brian Peterson of Wichita Falls.

Serving as ushers were Jeryl Brixey of Corpus Christi, Matt Runnels of Midlothian, and Sam Corn of Hewitt.

The reception was held in the church parlor.

The bride's and groom's tables, and the two other serving tables were covered with white taffeta and draped with rose patterned cloths. Guest tables were decorated with fresh flowers and candles.

The bride's table was strewn with fresh rose petals. Her four-tiered cake was decorated with trailing fresh roses of pink, red, and yellow, and English ivy leaves. The cake was encircled with greenery. A lattice background for the bride's table was accented with sprays of greenery.

Sonya and Tonya Price presided at the bride's table.

The groom's table was enhanced with fresh greenery in the swags of the floral cloth draped over white taffeta.

Presiding at the bride's book to secure signatures of guests was the couple's sister-in-law, Deborah Boutwell of Norman.

Dr. and Mrs. Boutwell hosted the rehearsal dinner at Juanita's in Fort Worth.

Special guests for the wedding were Pauline Boutwell, the groom's grandmother, his grandfather, Glen Fox of Wichita Falls, and a friend Nellie Richards.

Others were the bride's uncle and aunt, Windel and Sherry Mayfield of Corsicana, and her great-aunts, Frances Gerald of Monahans, and Georgia Edwards of Lubbock.

Following the reception the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Orlando, Fla. For travel the bride wore a blue and white linen dress.

The bride is a 1985 graduate of Trinity High School and a 1989 graduate of Midwestern State University where she majored in sociology.

Boutwell graduated Iowa Park High School in 1983. He is a 1989 graduate of MSU, and a 1990 graduate of the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School.

As I See It

By Bob Hamilton

How many times have you said, or heard someone else comment, about what an unusual year this has been for weather?

Just think about all the rainfall we've had thus far.

When was the last summer in Iowa Park you can remember that we had only three days of temperatures 100 degrees or higher?

Shucks, there've been summers past when the day's low was a day's high this year!

We had a visitor from Wichita Falls to attend our Iowa Park Lions Club luncheon meeting recently. He was John Van Dunk, a veteran of over 40 years in weather observation.

Besides being a fellow Lion, John and I struck it right off after our introduction, because we shared some common interests, primarily weather observing and the Air Force.

John retired from the Air Force, where he was in the weather service. He later tried his hand as a television weather man in Wichita Falls, and then went with the U.S. Weather Bureau.

I was in supply at the 7th Weather Headquarters in Anchorage two years during my Air Force enlistment. John wasn't there at the time, but we had a couple of similar experiences there and in areas east of Canada, which were weather observation related.

Responding to questions, including this summer's mild weather, he put the blame on that volcano eruption last year in the Philippines. He explained the dust particles were still aloft, and were deflecting the sun's rays.

I admitted that I used this space last fall to predict a long, cold, wet winter. And that I was only half correct: it was a long, wet winter.

He laughed, and said I would have been completely correct, in his opinion, had it not been for the weather phenomena "El Neno."

That weather system stayed to the west of southern Mexico through the winter, he said, and it was responsible for sending wave after wave of moist air into our part of the country. Hence, all the rain.

I then asked him the cause of all the weather systems, or fronts, that have been coming into the area from the north this summer, which I consider unusual with their frequency.

Again, he agreed, that their frequency was unusual, adding that most weather fronts in the summer come from either the southwest or west.

And he also agreed that, because those fronts had been so frequent, as well as the lower summer temperatures, we could well be in for that winter. I had forecast: last fall.

Now I've gotta figure out two things: should I go ahead and order some more firewood, or wait until I've burned what I ordered and didn't use last winter; and is there to be a return of El Neno again this winter?

Worth Quoting

In the good news, bad news department, it appears that your school taxes for next year are going up about ten cents.

The good news is that the local school district cut five cents off the local rate to bring it down from 38c to 33c.

The bad news is that the state mandates a ten cent increase in the County Education District of Midland and Andrews from 72c to 82c. Last year the CED rate for the two counties was 77.5c and will move to 92.5c for the coming year.

The reason the CED rate is 92.5c rather than the state mandated 82c is because of the exemptions granted homesteads, the elderly, and the fact that while in Andrews the school districts collect 99.3% of the taxes assessed. In Midland county, they only collect 96% of their assessment.

Consequently, the rate for next year for school taxes is 33c local and 92.5c for the CED for a total of $1.25-plus compared to this year's total of $1.16.

Three-quarters of the 46 women and 35 men studied went on to excel in college, receiving academic honors. But in the workforce, most recorded only average achievements.

The point, it seems to me, is that we must design a quality education program for all students, including the valedictorians, those in the middle and those who choose a vocation.

Computer literacy, reading skills, and the ability to think analytically are important if you plan to be a rocket scientist or an automobile mechanic.

routine transfer calls and $198 for advance life support calls, plus an additional charge of $3.20 per mile and supplies. It is a seven percent increase.

Of the subsidy paid LifeLine, which is currently $35,000 per year, 50 percent is paid by the county, 42 percent by Wichita Falls, five percent by Burkburnett and three percent by Iowa Park.

County members voted to authorize the city administrator to proceed with submission of a parks grant application to the state, as well as purchasing an aeration pump for the sewer treatment plant, estimated at less than $4,000.

No consensus was reached, however, over making a change in the cost of stickers sold by the city which permits residents to dump trash and trimmings at the city landfill.

Mayor Wayne House is seeking an increase of the $2 annual sticker price.

The first of three required public hearings concerning a grant application through the Texas Community Development Program was held.

The grant will again be sought, as it was last year, to help fund an upgrading project on a portion of the sewer system, which includes the laying of 3,200 feet of 10-inch line in the southern part of the city.

A proposal to advertise for a commercial-size brush chipper, to be paid out of the new budget, was approved. The equipment's price was estimated between $15,000 and $18,000.

A request from the Volunteer Fire Dept. for permission to close most of 100 East Cash Saturday night, for a fund-raising project, was approved.

Hooker, Huff wed recently at Tom Burnett Memorial Library

In a 3 o'clock ceremony at Tom Burnett Memorial Library on Aug. 15, Michelle Renee Hooker became the bride of Jamey Lynn Huff.

Double ring vows were directed by Rev. Larry Washburn, former pastor of Pacific Avenue Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hooker of Iowa Park are parents of the bride. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Huff, also of Iowa Park.

The registry table was covered in lace over white linen. A plume pen and a large white pillar candle encircled with English ivy, white wisteria and white stephanotis completed the decor. Desiree Tyson of Iowa Park secured signatures of guests.

An improvised altar was arranged in the alcove of the large upstairs room at the library. A central archway was entwined with English ivy, white stephanotis, hot pink roses, bluebonnets and white wisteria. Large white satin bows marked the center of the arch.

The unity candelabra, surrounded by English ivy, white stephanotis and white satin and lace rested underneath the archway.

On either side were large floral arrangements on pedestals. The arrangements utilized all colors of flowers like those that decorated the archway, with the addition of white roses, gladiolus, and Emerald greenery. Aisle chairs were marked with white satin bows.

Recorded music of Cherish-Kool and the Gang was used as the recessional.

Mr. Hooker presented his daughter for marriage. She was attired in a gown of silk organza and lace. It was fashioned with a fitted bodice with a sweetheart neckline bordered with pearls and overlaid with lace, and a full skirt featuring ruffled tiers of lace. The short sleeves were of scalloped lace. Pearls and iridescent sequins embellished the entire dress. The lace encircled train swept to chapel length.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a small white satin hat with rolled brim that was lined with iridescents. Flowers in the chosen colors were used on the crown of the hat.

The bride carried a long trailing traditional cascade of white and hot pink roses, stephanotis, and pixie carnations, with English ivy and gypsophilia accents. Touches of royal blue were used throughout the bouquet.

After the vows were exchanged, the bride presented a single red rose, tied with satin and lace, to her mother and one to the groom's mother.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Kristi Hooker of Lawton, Okla., her cousin. Her tea length gown of royal blue floral cotton was styled with a rounded neckline and full skirt with a large bow accenting the center back.

She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of white tulips and white roses interspersed with hot pink tea roses, white pixie carnations, and royal blue pixie carnations with English ivy accents and white satin ribbon streamers.

Tracy Washburn of Iowa Park acted as best man. He and the groom wore boutonnières of white rosebuds and baby's breath.

Mothers of the couple wore corsages of white silk tiger lilies, white rosebuds, with pearl sprays and touches of royal blue and hot pink, nestled in a bed of white lace and iridescent ribbon.

Grandmothers of the couple wore corsages of hot pink tea roses, white rosebuds, pixie carnations and gypsophilia with royal blue satin bows.

The grand piano in the reception area was used as a gift table. Hot pink, royal blue and white balloons with long streamers floated above the piano.

White lace was draped over white linen on the bride's table. Long stemmed balloons in the same colors that were used on the piano also decorated the table. The base was the bride's throw-away bouquet. Fresh bunches of grapes draped over the rim of the crystal punch bowl and fresh strawberries floated in the pink punch.

The bride's three-tiered white cake was trimmed with pink and blue confection roses. It was topped with a gazebo featuring a bride and groom figurine surrounded with mini English ivy, hot pink rosebuds, blue gypsophilia and white stephanotis.

Serving refreshments were Holly Collins of Altavista, Va., and Staci Finley of Lawton, Okla.

Background for the bride's table were two large interlocking hearts covered with white carnations, hot pink bows, and two large white doves.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Iowa Park High School. The bride attended Midwestern State University.

Huff is attending Universal Technical Institute in Houston.

The couple left the wedding site in a horse-drawn carriage. For travel, the bride wore a two-piece pink floral shorts set with matching jacket.

After a short honeymoon trip to Davis, Okla., they are making their home in Houston.

Special guests for the wedding were grandmothers of the couple, Lucille Hooker, Bonnie Collins, and Melva Hilton, all of Wichita Falls.

Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Guerin of Lubbock, Patsy Skinner of Nocona, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Pollard of Hobart, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dean of Gainesville.

The price of meals at all four Iowa Park school district lunchrooms vary.

Some students qualify for either free or reduced prices, while others are charged rates established by the school board.

Families now receiving food stamps or AFDC for their children qualify for free meals.

Other families can qualify their children for reduced price meals, depending on the family's income and the number of members living in the household.

Charts of income and numbers of household members are available at all principals' offices or the administration building, to determine who qualifies for reduced lunches.

Each of those offices have available application forms which must be filled out and turned in for reduced lunches.

Regular lunch prices are $1 at Kidwell Elementary, $1.10 at Bradford Elementary, and $1.25 at junior high and high school.

Breakfasts at all schools are priced at 75 cents.

Reduced prices, for those students who qualify, are 40 cents for lunches and 30 cents for breakfasts.

Where Jesus is Lord

WHERE GOES EDUCATION?

We are shocked when we read of a young Ph.D. who is so disappointed when he does not receive honors on his dissertation that he kills the student who won the coveted prize, and three of the professors who served on that committee.

When will we learn that educating the head is not the answer to the world's problems? Through education doctors not only capable, but willing to help people commit suicide. Through education "smart" men are able to bilk the elderly out of millions while they sit behind desks in savings and loan associations. Through education the lives of little babies are snuffed out by abortion. How long will it take us to realize that great education, separated from the development of character, is the sword of Damocles hanging by a hair over our heads?

In discussing educational ideals in the ancient world, William Barclay tells us that "the Jews were much more concerned about the moral character of the teacher than they were about his academic qualifications. Their first question would not have been: "What kind of a technical scholar is he?" but rather "what kind of a person is he?" It was character which the Jews were seeking to produce, and they were well aware that only character can beget character."

Over a century ago John Ruskin wrote, "Education does not mean teaching people what they do not know. It means teaching them to behave as they do not behave. It is not teaching the youth the shapes of letters and the tricks of numbers, and leaving them to turn their arithmetic to roguery and their literature to lust. It means, on the contrary, training them into the perfect exercise and kindly continence of their bodies and souls. It is a painful, continual, and difficult work to be done by kindness, by watching, by warning, by precept, and by praise, but above all - by example."

Admittedly, these views have fallen out of favor over the past century. More than ever, we are going to have to depend on the home and the church to instill training in character. "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom."

Pacific Avenue Missionary Baptist Church was setting for the double ring ceremony officiated by the pastor, Rev. Larry Washburn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy R. Helms of Iowa Park and the groom is a son of Kenneth Sosebee of Wichita Falls and Bobbie Staley of Electra.

The nuptial area featured pink and white silk flowers in white containers accented with ribbons and bows. Pink bows centered with white silk flowers marked the pews.

Traditional wedding music was presented by Mary Labrier, pianist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her wedding a gown of white bridal satin designed with fitted elongated bodice, off-shoulder neckline, long sleeves, and full length skirt. The gown was enhanced with lace appliques, beaded with seed pearls, on the bodice, sleeves and skirt.

Her headpiece of white floral sprays and seed pearls, held a waist length veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of white silk roses interspersed with pastel pink roses and pink and white beads and ribbons.

Candy Taylor of Wichita Falls was maid of honor and Ronda

Trantham of Fort Worth served as bridesmaid.

They wore matching knee length dresses of pastel pink styled with off the shoulder bodice and accented in center back with a pink bow.

Their bouquets were formed of pink and white roses, tied with matching ribbon streamers.

Richard Sosebee of Burkburnett, brother of the groom, was best man.

The reception was held in fellowship hall.

The bride's table held a centerpiece of pink and white flowers in a white basket. Her three-tiered cake was decorated with pink roses. Cake and punch was served by Sherri Helms.

After a short honeymoon trip the couple will be at home in Iowa Park.

"COME AND SEE" John 1:39

The Catechuminate To Hear, Again

If the circumstances of your life are challenging you to find a deeper meaning, a sense of belonging, a desire to move outside of yourself and become part of something larger and abiding, you may be hearing the Lord call to you, again.

The Lord calls to us often and in many ways, inviting us to enter more deeply into his life. He uses ordinary events and familiar people to speak to our hearts. We hear again in these events and people what is deepest and truest about ourselves: that we were not made to be alone, that we were meant for each other, that we are to find our way home to God—together.

Christ the King Catholic Church
1008 North First Street
Iowa Park, Texas 76367
PASTOR: Rev. Patrick J. Burke OFFICE: 592-2802

Companions

One of the first things Jesus did when he walked this earth was to form a community of women and men who would journey with him—through life and death—home to God. There was nothing particularly extraordinary about these women and men. In fact, they knew in themselves the same mixture of good and less than good that all of us find in our own experience.

With Jesus, however, they found a "way" they could journey together. They became "church."

Over the years, the forms of what began as a small community have changed; the experience has been reflected through the millions of people who have walked in communion with the Lord Jesus and each other. What has not changed is the commitment to the journey and the commitment to go home to God, together.

The Community

If you are hearing the Lord call to you again to take up the journey home to God and if you believe—as we do—that this journey cannot be solitary but needs the support of companions along the way, then we invite you to become part of the Catechuminate.

Your interest and the interest of others like yourself in the "way" of Jesus Christ is a sign to us, the members of our Roman Catholic parish, that the Lord is at work in our midst. You become his gift to us. You help us reach beyond ourselves and examine our own growth in faith. You help us form the community we claim to be by challenging our hospitality, our good will and our faith. We thank you for this gift and for the talents and presence of Jesus Christ you bring to us.

The Way

As a participant in the Catechuminate, you will join with other women and men who are seriously considering joining us to become "church." The catechuminate provides an intense period of exploration of our history, beliefs, prayer and communal life. If you choose, it may also be a period of preparation for becoming one with us, joining us as Roman Catholics who are making our way home—together—to God.

Mrs. Andy Treadway

... with Tiffany, Taffy, Joshua and Charity.

The importance of home and family is evident in the lives of Carol and Andy Treadway.

Natives of Oklahoma City, the Treadways moved to Iowa Park eight years ago.

Their twin girls, Tiffany and Taffy are 11 years old and in the sixth grade. A son Joshua is nine years old and in the fourth grade at Bradford, and youngest daughter Charity, who will be six years old in September, is in kindergarten at Kidwell.

Tiffany has written a book about pets and tried out for cheerleader, while Taffy likes to play basketball and softball. Joshua is interested in most sports, especially baseball, football and soccer.

The children's eyes light up when they tell about a favorite game they play at home with their parents called "Hide and Seek in the Dark."

Andy is employed at AutoCraft Collision Repair, and Carol is a student at Midwestern State Univ. where she is working toward a teaching degree in special education.

The family are active members of Cornerstone Pentecostal Church of God where Carol is superintendent of the Sunday School department and teaches primary children's class on Wednesday evenings. Andy oversees activities with the boys at church such as fishing and swimming.

Carol's hobbies are sewing and woodworking. She and Andy are remodeling their two-story home with the help of relatives and some of the church members.

The family likes to go on picnics and camping, and occasionally Carol and Andy get a sitter and go to the movies.

Carol's recipe for "Cinnamon Rolls" is very popular with members of her church as well as her family. Another favorite is "Pierogi, a Polish recipe given to Carol by her father. She said that it is time consuming, but well worth the effort.

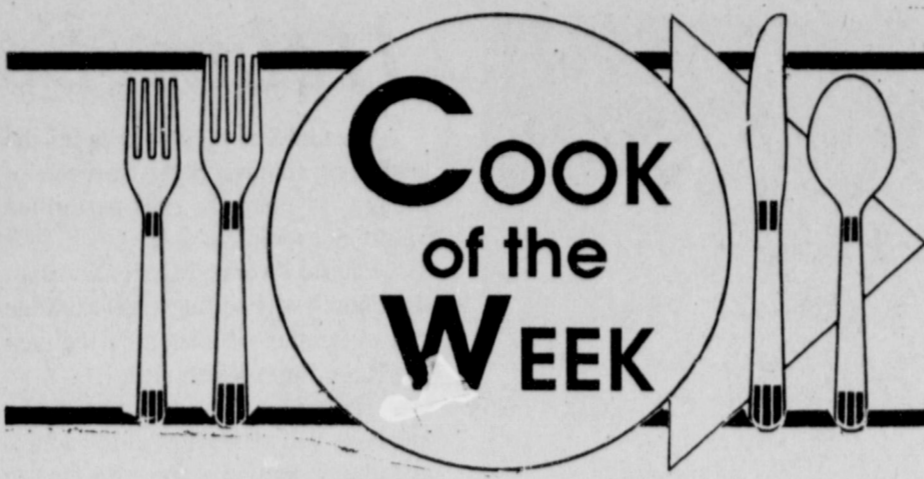

Cinnamon Rolls

1 pkg. active dry yeast
1/2 cup warm water (105-115 degrees, hot to touch)
1/2 cup lukewarm milk (scalded then cooled)
1/3 cup sugar
1/3 cup shortening, butter or margarine, softened
1 tsp. salt
1 egg
3 1/2 to 4 cups all purpose flour

Dissolve yeast in warm water in large bowl. Stir in milk, sugar, butter, salt, egg and 2 cups of flour. Mix until smooth. Stir in enough of remaining flour to make dough easy to handle.

Turn dough onto lightly floured surface. Knead until smooth and elastic, 3-5 minutes. Place in greased bowl; turn greased side up. Cover with towel and let rise until double - at least 1 1/2 hours. Dough is ready if indentation remains when touched.

Punch down dough. Roll 1/2 of dough on floured surface into rectangle. Spread with margarine. Mix 1/2 cup sugar and 4 teaspoons cinnamon and sprinkle 1/2 of mixture on each rectangle. Roll up starting on long side, pinch edges and stretch to make even. Cut into 1 1/2 inch slices and place about 2 inches apart on greased pan.

Let rise overnight covered by a towel. Place in pre-heated 375 degree oven until golden brown.

Take about 1/4 cup butter, 2 tablespoons milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla and approximately 2 cups powdered sugar (add more vanilla or sugar to get desired thickness in glaze - it should run smoothly off spoon). Pour on hot rolls. Makes approx. 36 rolls. (Wrap in plastic wrap and reheat in microwave for 30 seconds, or share with someone else.)

No Fail Biscuits

2 cups flour
2 tsps. baking powder
3/4 tsp. salt
1/3 cup shortening
3/4 cup milk (approximately)

Mix only til blended. Roll out on lightly floured surface about 1/2 - 3/4 inch thickness. Cut out with 4-inch circles. Place slightly apart in greased pan. Bake 8-10 minutes at 375 degrees. Serve hot.

Left Over Pot Pie

2 cups leftover chicken or turkey
4 cups broth
1/3 cup butter
2/3 cups milk

Cut up any or all of the following: Carrots, onions, celery, potatoes. Put in leftover peas, corn, green beans.

(Do ahead - put a butter bowl in the freezer to keep leftover veggies.) Add salt and pepper to taste. Cook on top of stove till done. Add a little flour and water to thicken slightly.

Pastry

1 1/3 cup plus 4 tablespoons shortening
4 cups all purpose flour
2 tsps. salt
8-10 tablespoons ice water

Cut shortening into flour and salt until particles are size of small peas. Sprinkle in water, 1 tablespoon at a time, tossing with fork until all flour is moistened and pastry almost cleans side of bowl. Gather pastry into ball and divide into halves. Roll each half into rectangle. Line 10x13 pan with half of pastry. Pour in chicken mixture; top with remaining pastry. Cut slits in top. Bake uncovered at 425 degrees until brown and bubbly, about 30-35 minutes. Approx. 6-10 servings.

Pierogi

2 cups all purpose flour
2 eggs
1/2 tsp. salt
1/3 cup water

1. Mound flour on a bread board and make a well in the center.

2. Drop eggs and salt into well. Add water, working from the center to the outside of flour mound, mix flour into liquid with one hand and keep flour mounded with other hand. Knead until dough is firm and well mixed.

3. Cover dough with bowl; let rest 10 minutes.

4. Divide dough in halves. On floured surface, using 1/2 of dough at a time, roll dough as thin as possible, 1/8 to 1/4 inch.

5. Cut out 3-inch rounds with large biscuit cutter.

6. Place a small spoonful of filling a little to one side on each round. Moisten edge with water, fold over and press edges together firmly. Be sure they are sealed to prevent filling from leaking out.

7. Drop pierogi into boiling, salted water. Cook gently 3-5 minutes or until pierogi float. Remove with perforated spoon. Makes 1 1/2 - 2 dozen.

NOTE: The dough will have a tendency to dry and won't seal. Work with one-half dough at a time, rolling out in a large circle, then cut and fill, sealing firmly. Never put too many pierogi in cooking water. The uncooked will stick together and the cooked get lumpy and tough.

Mushroom Filling

1 1/2 cup chopped mushrooms
1/2 cup chopped onion
2 Tbsps. butter
1/4 tsp. salt
1/8 tsp. pepper
2 egg yolks or 1 egg, beaten

Stir fry mushrooms and onions in butter until onions are soft. Stir in remaining ingredients.

Potato Filling

1/2 cup chopped onion
2 Tbsps. butter
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
2 cups mashed potatoes
Saute onion in butter 5 minutes. Stir in salt and pepper. Combine potatoes and onion mixture. Blend well. Makes about 2 cups.

Sauerkraut Filling

1/3 cup chopped onion
1 Tbsp. butter
1 1/2 cup finely chopped sauerkraut
2 Tbsps. sour cream
Stir fry onion in butter in saucepan 3 minutes. Rinse and drain sauerkraut. Add to onion and cook 2 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in sour cream. Makes 1 1/2 cups.

Savory Cheese Filling

1 1/2 cup pot cheese or farmer cheese
1 tsp. lemon juice
1 tsp. sugar
1 egg
1 egg yolk
1/4 tsp. salt
Press cheese through sieve into bowl. Add remaining ingredients. Mix well. Makes 1 1/2 cups.

HAWK DEFENDERS CLOSE IN ON COYOTE BALL CARRIER

Clensay praises his varsity

While Friday night's scrimmage with the Wichita Falls Coyotes may have appeared to fans in the stands that the Hawks were being humiliated, that wasn't what Coach Robert Clensay saw.

When asked afterward what "pluses and minuses" he saw in the scrimmage, Clensay quickly responded, "There were no minuses."

"I was very impressed with their execution. It wasn't a matter of us playing bad. They played good."

What the fans saw was the Class AAAA Coyotes scoring six times, with one of those being called back.

But the fact was, Wichita Falls was allowed only two touchdowns against the Hawks' first unit defensive platoon.

The fans may have been expecting the varsity to do what the freshmen and junior varsity did, which was to outscore their visitors.

Clensay admitted his offense "...didn't move the ball as well as we would have liked."

"I think it was frustrating. I think our kids were frustrated. But they played a quality team."

"The kids don't realize how well they did. We did not play bad," he emphasized.

It was true that the varsity failed to score during the session that lasted almost two hours.

The evening opened with the Hawk Frosh shutting out Wichita Falls, 3-0, scoring twice on offense and returning an interception for the third.

Then, after giving up a long scoring run early on, the JV rebounded with three scores of their own and finished 3-1.

The scrimmage may have been costly in one respect.

One of the key Hawk players, both offensively and defensively, Scott Byrd, suffered a broken bone in his right foot.

Byrd's foot was put in a cast, and the doctor is to evaluate its healing in four weeks, he said.

The injury occurred while Byrd was covering a potential pass receiver. There was no contact on the play.

Brent Brown, one of the fastest backs on the team, wasn't allowed to suit out for the scrimmage. He was held out of play by a knee ailment, believed to be only a temporary problem.

ANOTHER SCRIMMAGE

The Hawks will host another pre-season scrimmage Friday, against the Olney Cubs, in final preparation for their Sept. 4 season-opener with Burkburnett.

Coaches were still trying to find a scrimmage opponent for the Hawk Frosh, because Olney fields only varsity and junior varsity teams.

But the JV teams are to take the field at 6 p.m., followed about 7:15 by the varsities, Clensay said.

Season reserved seat tickets for the five Hawk varsity football games will remain on sale until the first home game, Sept. 11, against Childress. A book of tickets costs $25. Fans who want to retain the same seats they held last year have the option to renew them. Tickets are on sale during regular school hours at the high school principal's office.

ss ss ss ss ss

Athletic Booster Club members and prospective members will meet at 7 p.m. Monday in the high school fieldhouse.

'Evening with a Hawk' planned

An unusual project, "Evening with a Hawk," has been planned by the Iowa Park Athletic Booster Club as a fund-raising project.

It will be Friday, Sept. 11, when the Hawks host the Childress Bobcats.

The evening will include a hotdog supper, special T-shirt, participation in pre-game activities of the varsity football players and cheerleaders, and free admission to the game.

The event is limited to the first 36 boys and 36 girls to register.

Registration, with a $20 fee, can be made at Scobee's Mini-Mart, beginning today. No registrations will be accepted after Friday, Sept. 4.

The boys will be allowed into the fieldhouse, where the players will be having their ankles taped and dressing in their pads and uniforms. They'll then be allowed to carry a player's helmet down the ramp to the track, where they will give it to the player.

All proceeds will go to the Iowa Park Athletic Booster Club, to support athletic programs in the local schools.

State Capital

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — As expected, polls at the close of last week's GOP national convention in Houston indicated rising support for President Bush and slippage for Arkansas Gov. Bill Clinton to below 50 percent.

In Austin, a three-judge federal panel was expected to decide this week whether to stop Texas Secretary of State John Hannah from voiding primary elections to install a Democrat-favored Senate redistricting plan.

Attorneys for the Texas Republican Party argued that Hannah's orders to disregard the primary elections and to allow top party committee members to choose candidates is blatantly unconstitutional.

Lawyers for Attorney General Dan Morales, a Democrat, said Hannah doesn't have authority to order new primaries.

Democrats Request Primary

Morales' stand-in, Renea Hicks, asked the federal judges to order new state Senate primary elections to validate the plan imposed by Hannah.

"Are you inviting us to order you to have another primary?", asked one federal judge; the state's attorney said it would be preferable to using a "tainted" redistricting map.

Still unanswered is how much a new statewide primary election will cost Texas taxpayers.

Because of his election ruling,

Hannah's plan has been sent to the U.S. Department of Justice for approval, as required by the Federal Voting Rights Act.

Rising GOP Stars

Political conventions always shoot off rising stars, and a new stable of Texas Republicans are on the up escalator.

One is Texas Treasurer Kay Bailey Hutchison, who as temporary convention chairwoman addressed the nation and ribbed Gov. Ann Richards about her hair.

Another speaker was Agriculture Commissioner Rick Perry, who cast the Texas delegation's votes for Bush.

Perry said Texas agriculture and livestock industry is changing, not declining, and predicted $2 billion in exports to Mexico under the proposed free-trade agreement.

And, a serious look is directed at Dallas entrepreneur T. Boone Pickens for governor, who isn't through flexing his impressive fund-raising muscles for Bush and party.

Clinton's Texas Cabinet

As speculation rose over which cabinet members Bush might replace, it spread to guessing which Texans, if any might be tapped for a President Clinton cabinet.

Surest bets: Land Commissioner Garry Mauro, Clinton's Texas campaign manager, and former San Antonio Mayor Henry Cisneros, who recently resigned from the Dallas Federal Reserve Bank board and is now stumping for Clinton.

Mauro, as overseer of one of the nation's largest portfolios of public lands, has the training for U.S. Secretary of the Interior, according to his staffers.

In terms of political reward, few would stand higher with Clinton than Mauro, a lawyer, who personally could want a higher post, say U.S. Attorney General.

As for Cisneros, his metropolitan savvy and Hispanic ties suggest U.S. Secretary of Commerce. He would be helpful if the free-trade pact with Mexico is inked.

On the negative side, Clinton's loss could hurt the dimming political futures of these two. Mauro has been plagued by bad press about agency mismanagement, and Cisneros' rising star was dimmed by media reports of adultery and on-and-off divorce rumblings.

Perot: Still A Player

Lest any nominees forget, Ross Perot is still on the ballot in 46 states, and last week his staff said he has political TV ads in the can and volunteers ready nationwide for his 11th-hour return to the presidential arena.

Perot apparently is considering endorsing Bush or Clinton, or re-entering the race — as spoiler, kingmaker, whatever — if neither addresses his issues.

One Insurance Commissioner

In a surprising move, the three-member State Board of Insurance recommended the Texas Legislature abolish their positions and empower a single commissioner to run the agency.

But state Sen. John Montford, D-Lubbock, said he didn't want to create "an insurance czar," prompting board member Allene Evans to remark: "I guess there's not too many public officials that encourage government to look at eliminating their jobs." Score a point for Evans, whose state salary is $72,828.

Other Highlights

Camille Miller, Lt. Gov. Bob Bullock's research and policy director, is the new acting executive director of the Texas Protective and Regulatory Services Agency.

"My heat pump's so efficient it saves money. And it's a clean system. I like what it means for the environment."

—Elta Chandler
Park Board Member

Elta Chandler cools and heats her home with a heat pump because it saves money and energy. And since it's electric, it's "wonderfully clean."

A heat pump uses the energy in the air to keep her home comfortable all year. Even on cold winter days there's heat in the air. A heat pump captures that heat and uses it.

And it costs less to operate than a gas furnace. It's so efficient that for each unit of energy it uses, it creates two to three units of heat.

In the summer a heat pump becomes a high-efficiency air conditioner, capturing the heat inside the home and removing it.

For more information, call a heat pump dealer or TU Electric. It's your chance to save more than money.
