

BAIRD JUNIOR RODEO STARTS WEDNESDAY, JUNE 27 - 8:00 P. M.

BAIRD — The Baird Junior Rodeo will get underway Wednesday night, June 27th at 8 p. m. The show is produced by Bobby Estes, who is no stranger to the rodeo arena. From all reports, lots of excitement is in store for rodeo fans of this area.

The report Wednesday morning was that 60 cowboys and cowgirls had already entered, and approximately 250 are expected before the deadline Saturday morning, June 23. If you plan to enter the rodeo, please contact Mrs. Sarah Campbell as early as possible and avoid the last minute crowd. You may call Mrs. Campbell at Baird 854-1474. Local boys and girls are asked to fill out entry blanks as soon as possible, have your parents signature and a notary seal.

The parade will pass in review at 5 p. m. Saturday afternoon, June 30th. Everyone is invited to enter so this will be the best parade ever for the Junior Rodeo.

Farm Bureau Sponsors School Students

BAIRD — Ellamae Evans of Baird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Evans, Johnny Tucker of Clyde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Tucker; Glendall Barr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Barr, and Gene Maxwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Maxwell, both of Eula, will attend the High School Students Citizenship Seminar at Baylor University July 16-20.

These four students are sponsored by the Callahan-Shackelford Co. Farm Bureau, in cooperation with the Texas Farm Bureau. All will be seniors in High School in September.

Two firemen from Baird Volunteer Fire Department, Pat McKinnon and Felix Manion, will attend the Texas Firemen's Training School July 22-27, at Texas A&M University, sponsored by the local Farm Bureau in cooperation with the Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies.

Cherry Heights Sets Ground-Breaking

CLYDE — Ground breaking ceremonies for a new educational wing at Cherry Heights Baptist Church will be held immediately following the morning worship service Sunday, June 24.

The new facility will house 17 new classrooms and a pastor's study. Following the ground-breaking ceremonies, there will be an all-church dinner and singing during the afternoon.

All members are encouraged to attend and the public is cordially invited to share the blessings of the Lord as we begin this new facility.

Jim Hatchett Attends Signing Of Bill by Governor Dolph Briscoe

STEPHENVILLE — Jim Hatchett of Baird, vice president of the TSC Student Senate, attended the signing of the Gov. Dolph Briscoe which changed the name of Tarleton College to Tarleton State University. The bill signing was in the office of the Governor in the Capitol Building in Austin.

Action on the bill began in the Fall of 1972 when the Tarleton Student Senate passed a resolution requesting the name change. The resolution was presented to The Texas A&M Board of Directors who also approved the name change.

The House Bill was introduced in the House of Representatives by Rep. Cooke.

Ben Davis of Abilene will present the specialty acts and also the duties of clowning.

Baird FFA Chapter and the Callahan County Sheriff's Posse would like to ask your support of this rodeo in behalf of the youth. Attend one or all of the performances. The young people will be there, how about you being there, too.

Clyde First Baptist Church Vacation Bible School to Begin Monday

CLYDE — Vacation Bible School will begin Monday morning, June 25th, at 8:30 a. m. at First Baptist Church. The school will run through the week of the 25th, at 8:30 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. each morning. Pastor Riley Fugitt will be principal of the school and cordially invites all between the ages of 3 years old - Jr. High age, which is 7th and 8th grades, to attend.

There are about 40 teachers who have been making preparations the past few weeks to teach these young people next week. The children and workers are looking forward to a real exciting week.

Clyde C of C Has New Brochure

CLYDE — The Chamber of Commerce recently published a brochure on the City of Clyde. The brochure has been placed in all business in the town.

This small brochure tells the history of Clyde, and give an introduction to Clyde. It includes pictures of businesses, school, interesting places in Clyde, and also includes a map of the City Limits. The map has street names, which is very beneficial to newcomers.

The brochure is done in beautiful green and white, and would be of interest to everyone in our area, especially to those contemplating moving to our area. Pick one up at any of the local businesses in Clyde.

David Black Ordained As Methodist Deacon

ABILENE — David J. Black of Clyde has been ordained a deacon in the United Methodist Church at the recent 64th session of the Northwest Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

David graduated from Eula High School, and attended McMurry College where he received his B. A. degree in religion. He also attended Asbury Theological Seminary in 1972-73.

David was born in Baird and now lives on Route 1, Clyde.

Sen. Tom Creighton carried the bill in the Senate which passed it late in the session. The name change marks the fourth for the college since it was founded in 1899. It was first known as John Tarleton College a private junior college. Tarleton became part of the Texas A&M System in 1917 and was known as John Tarleton Agricultural College. The third name change was in 1949 when it became Tarleton State College.

Tarleton was a junior college for more than 50 years and was elevated to senior college status in 1959 by the Texas Legislature. A masters program began in 1972. Presently Tarleton has more than 3,000 students from every section of Texas.

Howard Farmer To Speak at Eula

EULA — Howard Farmer, President of the Admiral Cemetery Association, will speak at a meeting of the Eula Cemetery Association at 2 p. m. Sunday, June 24 at the Eula Methodist Church. Trustees of the Association are inviting those interested in forming an association for perpetual care of the cemetery to attend this meeting.

Trustees for the Eula Cemetery Association are Jack Farmer, Lloyd Barr Jr., Joe Bentley and Mrs. E. E. Harrison.

REV. JESSE DEA

New Pastor at Clyde Methodist Church

CLYDE — The First United Methodist Church of Clyde has a new pastor, who with his family moved to Clyde last week. Rev. Jesse Dea moved here from Snyder where he was pastor of the Union United Methodist Church for six years. He assumed his duties as pastor of Clyde church Sunday, June 17.

Rev. Dea and his wife have five children, three of them living at home: Terri, David and Timothy. A daughter, Cindy lives in Snyder where she is employed by SIC; a son Danny, now serving on Seal Team II with the Navy in Little Creek, Va. Danny will be married to Sally Foster, of Richmond, Va., on June 30 in Richmond.

A special welcome is extended to the Dea's as they begin their work in Clyde.

Lions Ladies Night At Cafetorium

BAIRD — Lions Club Ladies Guest Night will be held Thursday, June 21, at 7:30 p. m. in the school cafetorium.

Three Baird Youths Return From Legion's Boys State in Austin

BAIRD — The three boys who attend Boys State in Austin, sponsored by Eugene Bell Post 82, have returned home and report a very enjoyable six days. Brad Goldsmith, Terry Bates and David Smauley left Baird on June 6th, and were among 860 boys from Texas who registered for the activities.

The young men are taught civic leadership, pride in citizenship, and received a better understanding of local, county, state and federal governmental organizations. The motto "learn to do by doing," dealt in leadership of tomorrow.

The boys expressed their appreciation to the American Legion for their sponsorship and support in making it possible for them to spend six days at Boys State.

Chris Blakley, 80, Rites Held Sunday

BAIRD — Graveside rites for Christopher C. Blakley, 80, were held in Belle Plain Cemetery at 2 p. m. Sunday, June 17, with Rev. Delton Fisher, pastor of the United First Methodist Church officiating. Burial was under the direction of Godfrey Funeral Home.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon in Pecos, where Mr. Blakley had been a resident since 1935.

Mr. Blakley was born May 10, 1893 in Belle Plain, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John H. Blakley, pioneer family who came to that community in 1874.

Mr. Blakley was honored May 13th by members of his family at the American Legion, marking his 80th birthday.

He was a member of the Methodist Church, American Legion and was a veteran of WWI.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Joseph McHale of Abilene; two brothers, George of Baird and Clint of Abilene; one sister, Mrs. R. E. Taylor of Putnam.

He was preceded in death by his parents, eight brothers and sisters. Nephews served as pallbearers.

Shady Oaks Activities

There will be a partnership bridge tournament this Saturday, June 23, at 10 a. m. in the club room at Shady Oaks. Admission is $1.00 with each player bringing their favorite covered dish. Please call Lanetha Walker at 854-1072 in Baird, or Martina Bates 893-4453 in Clyde by 5 o'clock Friday if you plan to play.

The Ladies Golf Association would especially like to thank Hollis Jones and Gene Finley for mowing the fairways for our Invitational; and to Rocco Bruno, Charles Walker, A. V. Curtis and Charles Reeves for marking the fairways and helping the ladies during the tournament. Also to the men who loaned their carts; and to our young golfing girls who served refreshments on the course and during the luncheon, and to our non-golfing ladies who have helped us each year, we say thank you. Our tournament is a success only with the help of all these people and our lady golfers.

The Men's Partnership Tournament is this weekend. We wish all of the contestants good luck.

Seeking Information Of Hearn Family

TEXARKANA, ARK. — Monroe Scoggins is seeking information concerning the Hearn family and is asking anyone in this area to write to him if you have such information. You may contact Mr. Scoggins at 1102 Grand Ave., Texarkana, Ark. 75501.

He is trying to locate the wife of Joseph L. Hearn. Her name is Mary Jessica Hearn.

Mr. Hearn was born in Baird on March 26, 1883 and died in Houston Jan. 12, 1956. His father was Edmond D. Hearn. He was cremated in Brookside Crematory, Houston. He had one son, Dr. Joseph L. Hearn Jr., who was killed in Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, some seven or eight years ago.

Mrs. Mary Jessica Hearn lived in Houston at that time and she went to Old Mexico when her son was killed.

Dick Vestal to Present Show Program

BAIRD — The Texas Polled Hereford Association will sponsor a Field Day Thursday, June 21, at the G. Tufts & Sons Polled Hereford Ranch, five miles north of Hillsboro on U.S. 77.

Mr. Dick Vestal, Vocational Agriculture teacher from Baird, will present a program and demonstration relating to feeding and showing steers for the Junior exhibitors of Texas. Mr. Vestal has had many years of experience in the field of showing animals and has had many champions in the major stockshows of Texas.

The program will begin at 9:30 a. m. and will conclude at 3:15 p. m., with the presentation of awards to individuals that were winners in the Judging Contest.

Joy Packing Plant Entered and Robbed

CLYDE — Joy Packing Plant, located on I-20 Access Road in Clyde, was robbed in the early morning hours on June 13. Nightwatchman W. J. Allen stated he found the break-in about 3:50 a. m. Entry was made by breaking a glass, then opening the door.

Mrs. Joy reported that about 300 to 400 pounds of meat was taken out of the deep freeze in the front part of the plant, and vaults in the back were not entered. Also taken was a radio, a .22 rifle and the cash drawer.

Officials are still investigating the incident at this time.

Medley Named To All-State Track Team

CLYDE — Steve Medley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Medley of Monahans, was named to the Texas All-State Track Team, released by the Texas Sportswriters Association last week.

Medley was listed on the All-State team in both the shot put and discus.

Medley has a number of relatives in the Clyde area.

J. G. "Bromo" Bennett Employed As Secretary for City of Baird

BAIRD — J. G. "Bromo" Bennett has accepted the position as City Secretary for the City of Baird. This position has been held by Mrs. Ruby Jones since the death of James Asbury. Mr. Bennett began work Monday, June 18.

Mr. Bennett became a resident of Baird in 1920, and graduated from Baird High School in 1930. He is the son of the late O. F. Bennett, an employee of the Texas & Pacific Railroad. Bromo received a B.S. degree from the University of Texas at Austin, and taught school for 25 years in high school in Fort Worth. He taught electrical trades in school, and retired in June, 1970. He moved back to Baird in September, 1972 and became a self-employed electrician. He states that he will no longer be available for this service since taking the job as City

Secretary.

The Bennetts make their home at 2nd & Arch Street, former home of Mrs. Maybelle Cline. Mrs. Bennett is the former Lula Mae Hart, daughter of Mrs. Russell Hart of El Paso, and the late Mr. Hart.

Another change in the official body of the City of Baird, was the resignation of Mayor Lynn Ault after 15 years as official head. Automatically assuming the duties of Mayor is Mayor Pro-Tem Charles Walker, who has served on the City Council since 1965. The resignation of Mayor Ault becomes effective July 1st.

The resignation of Mayor Ault and the assumption of mayor's duties by Charles Walker, will leave a vacancy in Council. The four men on the Council are Jerry Loper, Jimmy Godfrey, James E. Lane and Steve Warren.

MAYOR J. L. AULT RESIGNS FROM BAIRD MAYORS POST

BAIRD — J. L. Ault, Mayor of the City of Baird since April, 1958, resigned from that office effective July 1, 1973, at the regular Council meeting June 12th.

Mayor Pro-Tem Charles Walker, who has served on the City Council since 1965, will assume the mayor's duties on July 1.

Ault made this statement: Due to personal reasons, I feel it best for me to step down from this office. I would like to express my sincere thanks and appreciation for all the help and consideration, especially to the voters who have elected City Councilmen. During my 15 years you have consistently elected men who are dedicated and willing to do all they can for our city, and this has been a great help in what we tried to accomplish.

"The present Council is a good one. Each man has the betterment of Baird foremost in his mind, and is willing to do all in his power to serve the majority of the people of Baird. "Thanks again to all - I have enjoyed it."

J. L. Ault

Swimming Lessons Begin on July 9th

BAIRD — Swimming lessons will be held at the Baird pool beginning July 9 through July 12, and the following week, from July 16-19. Deadline for registering is Friday, July 6th. The 10 lessons will be 30 minutes in length and classes will be held from 9:30 to 11:30. Classes are from age 5 and up.

Children age 3 and 4 years of age are asked to have their parents contact swimming pool officials for information concerning the possibility of this age class.

Education Cooperative Plans Workshop

JIM NED — The Taylor - Callahan Education Cooperative plans a five day workshop at the Jim Ned High School in Tuscola, beginning at 9 a. m. Monday, June 25th.

The workshop is designed to orient the classroom teacher and school administrator on their role in the Comprehensive Concept of Special Education of the Exceptional Child.

SORRY, Wrong Number

BAIRD — Members of Baird Volunteer Fire Department, who have direct lines when the fire station phone rings, would like to ask a favor of those of you who dial the number by mistake. If you have the firemen on the line, and you have mis-dialed, please say, "I have the wrong number."

When the first station phone rings, the firemen immediately act as if it is an emergency. The call could be from someone who is not able to talk or some child who is afraid, and if you will assist the men in just saying that you have dialed the wrong number, it will ease their wondering if someone really needs their help.

It is also good practice, if you have dialed a wrong number, no matter who's number, to say "I have the wrong number."

Billy London, Brother of Mrs. Frank Bradley, Dies Suddenly Thursday

STAMFORD — Willie Francis (Billy) London, 49, of Stamford, died at 11 a. m. Thursday, June 14, while at work on the 6666 Ranch between Guthrie and Knox City. He was rushed to the Knox City hospital by ambulance, where he was pronounced dead on arrival of an apparent massive heart attack.

Funeral services were held at 4 p. m. Friday, June 15, at the Calvary Baptist Church of Stamford. Services were officiated by Rev. L. A. Sublett of Stamford, Hamby and Rev. Jack Barnett of Stamford.

Burial was in Highland Memorial Cemetery under the direction of Kinney Funeral Home.

Mr. London was born Jan. 10, 1924 in Merkel, and married Virgie Short in Abilene March 12, 1949.

He was a veteran of WWII and the member of Calvary Baptist Church. He moved from Abilene to Stamford in 1952.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Beulah London of Abilene; his wife; two sons, Mike of Stamford and Gary of Abilene; one daughter, Mrs. Mary Lee Prickett of McKinney; one grandson, Michael of Stamford; three sisters, Mrs. Dale (Matilene) Prince of Abilene, Mrs. Frank L. (Flossie) Bradley of Baird and Mrs. Jerry D. (Maxine) Mooty of Pasadena.

Putnam to Spend Revenue Sharing Funds for Water System Repair

As required by the Treasury Department, Office of Revenue Sharing, the City of Putnam is using its first Planned Use Revenue this week. Funds in the amount of $226, received by Putnam for the entitlement period January 1, 1973 through June 30, 1973, will be spent on the City's Water System. Fifty percent of the money will go for equipment and fifty percent for construction in connection with improvements and repairs of the water system. All records are available to the public at the City Office.

Miss Gail Boone, bride-elect of Reagan Shackelford, will be complimented with a bridal gift tea in Merkel Tuesday evening. The couple will be married on June 29, at the Methodist Church in Putnam.

Marjorie Gillespie of Virginia, Elizabeth Childress of Dallas and Mildred Reagan of Dallas visited here last week with their sister, Mrs. Vena Shackelford.

Mr. Arnold Pruet and David Isenhower returned Sunday after a visit to Eagle Pass. On their way home Saturday, they stopped in Boerne and visited Mrs. Glenn Schwartz and boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Green and sons, Buford and Ronald, and David Isenhower visited friends last Wednesday evening at the Brownwood Lake.

The Putnam father who did not receive a present from his children on Father's Day, should have learned a valuable lesson - Don't ever forget Mother's Day again.

Bro. and Mrs. Mike Hicks and his parents spent the first of last week touring Seven Seas and Six Flags, at Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Taylor of Weatherford visited over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rutherford and La Verne visited in Rotan Sunday with Mrs. H. V. Vittow.

Harry T. Sandlin Rites Held Monday

BAIRD — Chapel services for Harry T. Sandlin, 81, were held Monday, June 18 at 2 p. m. Officiating was Rev. Delton Fisher, pastor of United First Methodist Church of Baird.

Burial was in Ross Cemetery under the direction of Godfrey Funeral Home.

Mr. Sandlin, former Putnam resident, died Saturday in Stamford Memorial Hospital. He had been a long-time resident of Putnam before moving to Haskell for eight years, and had lived in Stamford the past two years.

He was born in Lovelady on January 12, 1892. He was a WWI veteran, a farmer, and the Democratic Precinct Chairman in Putnam for 40 years before moving to Haskell.

Survivors include one sister, Miss Vella Sandlin of Putnam; two brothers, Crayton of Snyder and Benson of Stamford.

Pallbearers were members of Eugene Bell Post 82 in Baird.

Notes From Golden Holiday Home

Golden Holiday residents studied the Sunday School lesson with Mrs. E. J. Boyd, from the Baptist Church. In the afternoon, members of the Church of Christ brought the residents an enjoyable service with the message brought by Joe Wilson, minister.

Visiting Mrs. Dennis were Donna Sosebee, Debbie Sosebee, Iva and Harold Dill of Ft. Worth. Visiting Gladys Keils were James and J. D. Keils.

One of the residents of the Home, Myrtle Berry, was born in Eula, Callahan County, to Mr. and Mrs. William B. Ferguson on Nov. 11, 1896. Her mother's maiden name was Mattie Jackson. Myrtle was married to Robert Edwards who pre-deceased her. They became the parents of two daughters. In later years, Myrtle became the wife of Bob Berry. The most part of her life was spent as a housewife, except for a few years she worked in the ready-to-wear dept. at Gray's Style Shop. Mrs. Berry will be 77 years old on her next birthday.

Minnie Rutherford LVN Graduate

BAIRD — Minnie Rutherford was among the students in Vocational Nursing Class at Cisco Junior College, who graduated at 7:30 p. m. Saturday night.

The exercise was held in the Corral Room of CJC Hotel Annex, arranged by Vocational Nursing Instructor, Mrs. May Dell Bahr, R. N., and vocational-technical division director Russell Lyons.

Miss Rutherford is a graduate of Baird High School, and served as secretary for the 1972-73 LVN class at CJC. She is the daughter of Mrs. Lucille Rutherford.

CLYDE — Mr. and Mrs. June Hogue visited last weekend in Dallas with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hogue and Cynthia. While there they joined in the celebration of Cynthia's birthday.

Hot, Drying Winds In Rowden Area Prove June is a Summer Month

June is holding true to her qualifications of being a summer month by giving forth her hot drying winds. Rain was forecast for this area over the weekend but failed to reach this area.

Farmers have completed most of their planting of cotton and peanuts, and hopefully the winds have not dried the ground to the extent of yielding poor stands.

Grain harvest is still in progress and is expected to be completed this week.

This writer stopped by the Jimmy West home early Monday morning and found Mrs. West, her mother and daughter, Mrs. C. W. Price and Mrs. Ricky Vestal of Baird, getting ready for a day's fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Lawrence Tye Rae and Tamara of Abilene, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lawrence Saturday. Mrs.

CLYDE — Visiting in the home of her parents, Doc and Hazel Murdock this past week were Mrs. J. A. Cutrera of Kirkwood, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Murdock of Bossier City, La.; Mr. and Mrs. John Murdock of Ft. Hood.

Lawrence reports that little Tamara celebrated her 1st birthday last Wednesday.

Mrs. R. L. McClain has not been feeling so well the past few days. Her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Watson and Linda, and her girl friends from Abilene, visited in the home Friday.

Those spending the day in the Tommie Harris home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Terry Harris and daughter of Breckenridge, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Harris of Abilene, and the Don Harris family. A little work and pleasure can be mixed when grain harvest is in progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Whitmire and Dennis, of Granbury, spent Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. Tony Steele and Tonya.

Visitors in the N. V. Gibbs home Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dye.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reynolds and children visited in the Bob Dye home Saturday night.

Mrs. Lella Gibbs is still doing fine from her recent surgery. Mrs. Russell Dye visited her one afternoon last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy West visited his mother, Mrs. Hattie

West in Baird and accompanied her to Abilene.

Mrs. Ruth Boen and Miss Mattie Ashabrunner of Baird went to Cottonwood Thursday to visit Miss Ashabrunner's sister, Mrs. Gilbert Wilcoxon, Mrs. Ruth Boen visited Mrs. Lizzie Woodard while there.

Visitors in the Jimmy West home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norris of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Price and Mrs. Ricky Vestal of Baird.

Bill Lawrence visited Jess Brown in the Pioneer community one day last week.

Mrs. J. C. Childers spent Sunday afternoon with her father, Jerry McDonald.

Mrs. Warren Lucas and Catherine and Karen, of Memphis, Tenn., visited Mrs. James Reynolds and children last Tuesday. Mrs. Lucas and Mrs. Reynolds were classmates while attending school in Baird. Catherine Lucas spent two nights with Janet while Ellen visited with Karen in the C. H. Siadous home near Baird.

Those visiting in the Lizzie Burks home recently were Mrs. Alice Wills of Coleman, John Burks of Girard, O. C. Burks of London, Mr. and Mrs. Clell Whitehead of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burks and Robert Burks of Cross Plains.

Mrs. Sterling Odom visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Palmer in Clyde Sunday afternoon. The two ladies made visits with Mrs. Jewel Swanzy and Anna Bell Tabor.

Mrs. Warren Price accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Barney Gibbs of Baird to Stillwater, Okla., Friday. The ladies brother, Lonnie Smedley is in a hospital there.

Mrs. Ruth Boen reported that her sister, Christine Bower of Abilene, is spending her vacation in Portales, N. M., with a friend, Clara Brown. Miss Brown is a former resident of the community.

Chris West is working near Loraine on road construction at this time.

Mrs. Warren Price returned from Stillwater, Okla., Monday afternoon, and reports that her brothers condition has not changed.

Jets Lead Clyde's Pee Wee League; All-Star Game and Picnic June 29

CLYDE — Monday, June 11, the Yellow Jackets won 13-5 over the Mustangs, with Danny Carrion, Scott Gordon and Ismael Carrion on the mound for the Jackets. Chris Graham hit a home run for the winners. Lanny Brown and Weldon Wilkerson were on the mound for the Mustangs.

June 16, the Yellow Jackets won 8-2 over the Mustangs. Frank Ramos, Danny Carrion and Scott Gordon pitched for the Jackets, while Brown and Wilkerson worked for the Mustangs.

Tuesday, June 12 the Sputniks won 16-15 over the Rockets in a tight game. Regan Gamble was winning pitcher, with Phillip Whitlock and Troy Walker on the Rocket mound.

The Jets won 16-7 over the Bombers, with Dean Caffey the winning pitcher. Jon Swofford hit a homerun for the Jets. The Bombers hurlers were Doug Madison and Joel Dement.

Thursday night the Jets won 23-8 over the Sputniks. Spnitnik pitchers were Vince Chiappone, Regan Gamble, Ricky Long and Rusty Fiscus.

The Rockets won 15-8 over the Bombers. Troy Walker and Phillip Wmiltlock were on the Rocket mound, while Madison and Caylynn Brooks working for the Bombers.

The All-Star game and picnic is being planned for June 29. All boys and families of these six teams are encouraged to attend.

The Jets are in first place in the Pee Wee Division.

MARK HENAGER AND PATTY BODINE

Patty Bodine - Mark Henager to Wed

COLORADO CITY — Mr. and Mrs. Truman Bodine of Colorado City, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Patty, to Mark Henager of Clyde.

The bride-elect is a 1972 graduate of Colorado City High School, and will be a sophomore at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene next fall.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Archie A. Henager of Clyde. Mark is a 1972 graduate of Clyde High School and will be a sophomore speech and theatre major at H-SU next fall.

The couple will be married July 21 at the First Baptist Church in Colorado City. The ceremony will be held at 7:30 p. m., with the prospective bridegroom's father officiating.

Boydston Descendants Visit Relatives In Area Recently

BAIRD — Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Boydston of Bakersfield, Calif., Mrs. C. S. Gee of Killeen, Mrs. C. R. Keilty of Dallas were recent visitors in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Ben L. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Work and Patsy, and in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Moore in Abilene.

Mr. Boydston, who is 89 years old, stated that he would enjoy making one more trip to the home town in which he grew up. Mr. Boydston is the son of the late J. D. Boydston. He, his sisters, Mrs. Gee, Mrs. Keilty, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Work and Mrs. Moore are descendants of this pioneer family who made their home in Baird and this county for many years. The name of Boydston has appeared on business firms in this area for 80 years, and at present appears on the firm known for years as Boydston Hardware Co., located on Market Street, and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Russell.

Mrs. Bill Work, along with her husband, owns and operates Work's Dry Goods, also located on Market Street, and well known in the area.

TIGERS LEADING BAIRD'S LITTLE LEAGUE WITH 6-0 RECORD

BAIRD — The third week of Little League action matched the Tigers and Giants in the opener. Jim Sadler, Tiger pitcher, hit his 4th home run of the year to spur his teammates to a 11-4 victory. Jeff Smith shared pitching duties with Sadler, while L. Olvera and Alan Bohannon pitched for the Giants.

The Giants were held scoreless until the 4th inning when Ricky Fleming and Bohannon were able to score on a hit and a walk. Olvera scored in the 5th on a three base hit.

After a 3 up, 3 down 1st innings, the Tigers roared in the 2nd with K. Smith, Steve Defosses, Brad Morrison, Eddie Reynolds and Ricky Defosses scoring on 5 hits. S. Defosses and Sadler both scored in the 3rd, Sadler and A. Cerda in the 5th and J. Cerda and J. Smith in the 6th to overpower the Giants 11-3.

The Braves challenged the Yankees in the nightcap which went into a 7th inning overtime.

The 6th inning saw a 5-5 standoff, but the overtime inning woke up the Braves who scored 10 runs from 6 hits and 4 bases on balls. The Yanks were able to bring in 2 runs in the 7th before the game was called due to inclement weather. The final stood Braves 15 - Yankees 7.

The second night of action matched the Giants and Yankees. After a scoreless 1st inning the Yanks came alive and scored 7 runs off four hits and a base on balls. Scoring for the Yankees were Dana Gillit, Manuel Cerda, Chris Vestal, Brian Fears, Darryl Harris, Ricky Henley and Harold King. Cerda, Vestal, Fears, Harris and King also scored in late innings. Scoring for the Giants were Pat Almanzar 3, Louis Olvera 2, one being a home run, Mike McCormick 1, Davy Vestal 2, and Ricky Fleming 2. Final score was Yankees 12 - Giants 10.

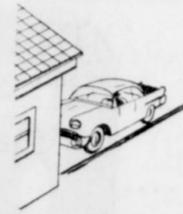

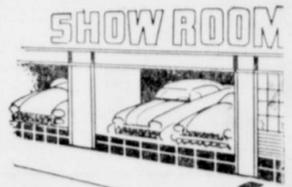

The late game was called after four innings according to Little League ruling. The Tigers were ahead by ten runs 11-1. Winning pitcher for the Tigers was Jeff Smith. Hurlers for the Braves were Cecil Meadows and Bill Earp. Tiger scorers were George Harris, K. Smith, J. Cerda, Jim Sadler, and Sheve Defosses. Braves score was tallied by Sid Grant.

Team standings are:
Tigers - won 6, lost 0
Yankees - won 3, lost 3
Giants 1 won 2, lost 4
Braves - won 1, lost 5
