FARMERS' ROAD REQUESTS NEED MORE LEGISLATORS

Loys Barbour, director of district 3, Texas Farm Bureau Federation, denounced the action of the state legislature in "diluting the McLellan Bill for the construction of rural roads in Texas."

Mr. Barbour spoke Tuesday to approximately 100 officers of the district Farm Bureau in Wichita Falls. County presidents and secretaries from 17 counties in the district heard Mr. Barbour give an account of proceedings in the capital.

The McLellan bill provides for a tax of one cent per thousand cubic feet of natural gas for revenue for the rural road program. The provisions of the bill had been formulated by members of Texas Farm Bureau Federation, County Judges and Commissioners Association, Rural Letter Carriers, Texas Rural Roads Association, and teachers groups, Mr. Barbour explained.

Monday the legislature adopted in amendment which reduced the tax from one cent to three quarters of a cent per thousand cubic feet of natural gas.

"That action would give us a bill wholly inadequate to the farmers' needs. There is no reason for diluting this bill as set up by those who are most interested in rural roads and farmers' problems," Mr. Barbour asserted.

At the meeting in Wichita Falls, Mr. Barbour read the roll call vote on the amendment to reduce the tax and called attention to those from this district who had voted for the amendment. They were Vernon McDaniel, Wichita county; J. W. Loving, Jack and Young counties; Wayne W. Wagoner, Montague county; and L. C. Silmp jr., Wise county.

In order better to inform members of Farm Bureau, Wichita county branch of the organization held another meeting Wednesday night at Iowa Park, where Mr. Barbour again explained the situation in the state legislature. Volunteers were called for to go in person and contact their representatives about this important bill.

Those who cannot go, were asked to write wire or telephone their representatives at Austin to get on the Farm Bureau's side of the fence.

C.C. ACTIVITIES TO INCLUDE NEW POULTRY GIFT PLAN

Trades Day in Iowa Park sold itself to local merchants last Friday. Even though the rains came and kept away many of the expected visitors to Our Town, results of the special effort were gratifying to most merchants.

Sam Hill, chairman of the Merchants committee, in making a report to the Chamber of Commerce director in session Tuesday night, brought out that most merchants were well pleased with Trades Day and wanted it continued.

Another important piece of business at the meeting was decision to offer a free chick deal to selected boys and girls in the surrounding territory. This plan has been worked very successfully in other towns and is recommended by county and state rural aids workers.

As planned here, the young poultry raisers will be given 50 chicks and ten pounds of feed. Then in the fall a Poultry Show will be staged here and each recipient of chicks will enter a pen of five pullets and one rooster. At the close of the poultry show, the pen of poultry are given to the merchant or other individual who financed the boy or girl in his venture. Under this plan the donor gets his money back in fine grown chickens and the poultry raiser has the remainder plus his prizes for his trouble.

Members of the board contracted at the meeting for enough chicken deals to put 18 youngsters in the poultry business. Any other citizens of the community who wish to have a part in the program are requested to make arrangements with Fred Parkey or Harrel Sullivan.

Telephone service in Iowa Park was again brought up for discussion, and it was the opinion of all that calls to Wichita Falls were now being handled very satisfactorily. Also Southwestern Bell Telephone company was reported ready to take over some of the closer rural telephones, with those living farther out having to wait for better service.

A membership committee report showed that the Chamber now has 101 members and the budget has been almost subscribed.

W. A. George was elected to replace Miles Hines on the board of directors of the Texas - Oklahoma Fair association.

The produce station committee reported progress in their efforts to establish a cream station in Iowa Park. Need for proper facilities and location were pointed out, with the report that a produce man in Wichita Falls is ready to set up such a plant if the proper arrangements can be made.

Roy Laker of Valley View was voted to membership on the board of directors, to replace Vernon Lovell, now a business man in Vernon.

The demonstration this week was on "Good Grooming." Instructions were given as to what the girl should do every night, every morning, every week, seasonally and yearly. Then individual grooming problems were discussed and advice was given by the agent.

Next meeting of the Wichita Valley Farms 4-H club girls will be April 18.

Miss Betty Denny, student in Baylor university, plans to be at home soon for a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Earle Denny.

Pest Control Guide Lists New Killer

A potent insect pest killer called toxaphene has been recommended this year for killing bugs which otherwise could do millions of dollars damage to cotton crops.

The 1949 Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects in Texas advises advises a mixture containing 20 per cent toxaphene and 40 per cent sulphur for killing boll weevils, aphids, thrips and fleahoppers in the early dusting drive. According to the Guide, two or three applications, 7 to 10 pounds to the acre, should be made at seven-day intervals between first cultivation and first bloom.

For regular season dusting the 20 per cent toxaphene, 40 per cent sulphur mixture is recommended for controlling aphids, bollworms, leaf worms and boll weevils; and a 10 per cent toxaphene dust for killing thrips, tarnished plant bugs and similar insects.

Last year more than thirty million pounds of toxaphene were used in the war on insect pests.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Estes and little daughter Barbara Paye of Dallas, spent the weekend here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis. They came to accompany his mother Mrs. A. H. Estes, who had spent the past three weeks in their home.

JUNIOR NEWS

Some people, I suppose, are just naturally dumb. But some just take the cake! You would think a person would have enough sense to take steps one by one, but me, I haven't. Besides, things affect me, baseball and all.

We are studying locus in geometry. Mr. Smith made up the problem, "If you were riding on a wheel, what would your locus be?" That's a good question!

We really had a good time Wed. with the beloved seniors gone. Just like it is gonna be next year. A little lonely, though. Just a little! All those bright senior boys will be missed very much by Miss Linton. I'm sure—eh, Miss Linton?

Another question was popped by Mr. Smith in the 1st period geometry class. I quote: "What is a locus?" Well, somebody popped up and said "A bug?" "A weed?" But it seems Mr. Smith just wasn't satisfied with such brilliant answers. But I'm sure I saw him mark two one-hundreds in his grade book—eh, Shirley?

Peggy Curlee went to Electra last Tuesday to play tennis. Her opponent didn't believe what Peggy said. Really, Peg, you aren't hateful. I had noticed though, your hair turning red. What did you use—a rinse, or is your temper bothering you?

LaVerne Walters doesn't get quite enough geometry the 1st period, so she decided to come in the 7th period class also. Mr. Smith said, and I quote: "Do I just HAVE to put up with you two periods?" Unquote. Yes!

The third year home ec girls are going to Fort Worth on Saturday to the IceCapades. They are planning on a real big time. They'll have one too.

Pat Steed had her pickup out running around again last Sat. Do not get upset over the commotion she causes. She's a Jr.

I'm just writing entirely too much. Just think, you'll just have seven more weeks to read this. All right, you'll be sorry you cheered about that!

Youth Need Help, Not Bossing, Says Hardin Counselor

"Vocational and Industrial Counseling" was the subject of a talk given last Tuesday before the Lions club by Dr. Harlan Steph, dean of men and director of student personnel of Hardin college.

Work, home, play and faith were the four basic points brought out by Dr. Selph as important in making a well rounded life.

The speaker stressed his viewpoint that counseling did not consist of telling the young people what they should do. The counselor should help the students gather pertinent facts and evaluate them—then leave decisions to the young person. "If I should make the decisions, I would be making a very serious mistake and defeat the whole purpose of counseling," he said.

Scott Ralston was program chairman for the day, and introduced Mrs. Dora Davis and Miss Flora Cobb, who had helped him line up his program. Lion Francis E. Barnes introduced Dr. Steph.

The Lions made arrangements for the Iowa Park band to be their guests at the "Cavalade of Melody," spring entertainment feature of the Hardin college Indian band. This event was held at Wichita Falls Municipal auditorium, Wednesday of this week, and was enjoyed by about 50 students of the school.

Party Given For Mrs. J. C. Horn

Honoring Mrs. J. C. Horn on her birthday, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Coppock gave a lovely small party in their home on Thursday evening, March 31.

The party rooms were made gay with lovely spring flowers and the table was centered with a prettily decorated birthday cake. Mrs. Horn received several gifts of china from her friends.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson, Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Simpson, Harvey Womack and Mr. and Mrs. Horn and daughter Patsy.

Hawks Make Showing On Graham Track

Coach Pete Wood took his track team to Graham on Tuesday of this week, where they took part in an invitational track meet. Schools in both class A and class AA were represented and the meet was of high quality with some outstanding performances being turned in.

In the 440-yard dash event Jimmy McDonald, a senior in Iowa Park High School took third while Ben Huckaby, a freshman, finished just out of the winners' list with fifth place.

Hoyt Watson, another senior, was fifth in the 880-yard run.

The team from Bowie took the meet, with Holliday running second.

Housewives Cautioned Against Door Peddlers

Know what the score is when it comes to buying goods sold from door to door, cautions Iowa State college. It is difficult to know how the price of an article brought to your door compares with prices of similar products elsewhere.

There isn't a chance to make quality comparisons either. If the product is one in which the quality is easily recognized and you are familiar with prices elsewhere, you take little risk in buying.

Many reliable firms, Iowa specialists point out, have introduced goods and services through agents calling from house to house. Those firms have maintained regular routes, calling at regular times. Families have built up confidence in them because of their element of permanency and because of their high quality products.

There is always the possibility, however, of actual fraud when products are sold from door to door. There is no way of getting in touch later with the fly-by-night kind of salesman when a product proves unsatisfactory. The best protection is to play safe.

Potatoes Comprise Bulk Of Vegetables in Diet

Potatoes account for more than 42 per cent of the vegetables sold in stores, according to a survey conducted by Cornell university.

Forty-six different vegetables were included in the survey. While there is no way of being sure that sales in these stores were typical of those throughout the country, examination of other stocks revealed no material difference.

While no other vegetable was even one fifth as important on a volume basis as potatoes, lettuce accounted for 7 1/2 of every 100 pounds of vegetables bought; dry onions, 6; followed by celery, cabbage and carrots, which each accounted for 5 1/2 pounds.

The rest of the leading 17 vegetables, which together accounted for more than 95 per cent of the total purchases, were, in order, squash, tomatoes, sweet potatoes, sweet corn, cauliflower, turnips, cucumbers, spinach, snap beans and radishes.

In February we observe the birthdays of two very famous Americans, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. Practical men, they understood the value of thrift, the necessity for a well-ordered method of saving. They had no ready-made plan such as is now offered by the U. S. Savings Bonds program. You specify the sum to be allotted each payday, where you work. That is the Payroll Savings Plan. If self-employed, use the Bond-A-Month Plan at your bank. And in 10 years, you reap the reward—$4 for every $3 you invest.

Medals Are Ready For District Winners In Current Evenas

Mrs. M. J. McDonald, instructor in Iowa Park High School and district director for both extemporaneous speech and declamation contests, announced this week that medals have been awarded to Bonnie Zeck and Glen Miller for their winning the current events contests of the district last year.

The medals are presented by the American Education Press, Inc., and are called the Charles Palmer Davis Awards. Mrs. McDonald has on hand the medals for this year's winners in extemporaneous speech. They will be determined at Olney, Friday. Iowa Park's entrants in this event are Betty Jane Perry and Page Morgan.

Children Will Enjoy Cinderella on Stage In Wichita Falls

The fairy tale, Cinderella, will come to life on the stage of Memorial auditorium in Wichita Falls for two performances on Tuesday, April 12. The matinee is at 3:00 and the night show at 8:00.

The show is designed for children but it a safe bet that many children will be accompanied by grownups who will be just as thrilled as the children.

Cinderella's cast includes a group of real, honest-to-goodness dwarfs. These tiny men, not one of whom is taller than four feet, are all expert performers. Audiences all over the nation have been delighted with them.

Proceeds from the shows will be used by the Altrusa club to remodel and beautify a day-nursery for Latin-American mothers and for a recreational and community center.

Reserved seats for both performances will go on sale at the Max Kreutz House of Music in Wichita Falls, Friday, April 8. There will also be unreserved seats for both school children and adults.

Tax Payments Consume Large Portion of Income

The average American spends three and three-quarters months out of the year working for the government. This corresponds to the money taken out of each dollar by federal, state and local governments, according to the Foundation for Economic Education. This amount is equal to the consumer's total food, housing and household expenses.

Only about one-third of the amount taken by government is conspicuous as direct personal taxes, such as income taxes and property taxes. The other two thirds is mostly in forms concealed from view; attached to items and services bought from private producers.

Out of the 23 cents of the average consumer's income dollar that is paid for food, only 18 cents goes to private producers for the jobs they have done in producing it and in making it available in the store and in the restaurant. The five cent difference is the amount of taxes, added in one way or another to the price as a charge for the expense of government.

Progressively more and more of people's incomes have been taken by government, particularly over the last two decades. Prior to the Civil war, government took less than a nickel from each dollar of personal income. From the Civil war to World War I, the government deduction was nine cents. In 1930 began the first sizable peacetime increase in history, which ran the figure up to about 25 cents.

Improvements Advocated For Civil Service System

With more than five million public employees and a payroll annually of more than 11 billion dollars, the problem of proper administration of government personnel commands immediate public attention, according to the annual report of National Civil Service league.

The report states that domination of the political machines through control over the civil service commissions "still remains one of the most difficult obstacles to objective application of the merit system," and advocates placing responsibility for administration of state and local merit systems in an experienced personnel manager, which it believes is preferable to the traditional full-time paid and generally politically selected by-partisan commission.

The league advocated higher salary ceilings for responsible executive and administrative posts in the public service, and suggests adequate grievance machinery for handling public employee relationships in justice to those in the civil service and to protect the public, which depends upon uninterrupted service for its essential needs.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thurman and sons Billy, Dale, Thurman and Jerry of Wayside were in town Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kirkland of Breckenridge were weekend visitors in the Noah Guthrie home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Widmoyer returned this week from Oklahoma and Peabody, Kansas, where they attended funeral services for their uncle Fred Comstock of Grandfield, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Carroll and son Roger have moved to Iowa Park from Kermit. He is doing insulation work on an oil refinery near Kamay.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horton and Robert II, who have been living in Abilene, are moving to Lovington, N.M., where he will be associated with the West Texas Cotton and Oil association. Mrs. Horton and son have been visiting here with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mitchell. The youngster is staying here now while his parents are making the move to New Mexico.

Guests in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Maurice C. Yeargan during the weekend were Miss Myra Jo Preston, instructor in organ and theory, and Misses Helen Thorington and Cecilia Yeargan, students of Austin college, Sherman.

Uncle Sam Says

The kid in upper 4 captured your heart during wartime. In spirit you traveled with him toward his uncertain future on the battlefields. The kid upstairs today is yours. The "kid" may be a freckled boy or a curly haired little girl—your son or daughter who will need your help through savings to find a place in everyday life. The Payroll Savings Plan for buying United States Savings Bonds where you work is the only automatic, safe, profitable way for you to buy bonds by the installment payment method. In this way you can build the nestegg which can make the difference between wishing and having the funds for education and a secure future for your children. If you are self-employed, buy bonds automatically through the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank.

LOCAL GIRL WINS HONORS AT DENTON WOMEN'S COLLEGE

A painting done by Miss Mary Anne Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hill, Iowa Park, was judged to be an outstanding piece of work when an art exhibit was held recently on the campus of North Texas State College for Women, Denton. Her water color painting of a country church was one of the items which sold during the exhibit. Miss Hill was recently initiated into Delta Phi Delta, national honorary art fraternity. Her name also appears in the list of honor students of the college for the quality of their classroom work during the first semester of the current year.
