Cynthia Luse-Thomas Crow Will Establish Home in Victoria

Iowa Park Christian church was the setting for the Saturday afternoon wedding of Miss Cynthia Louise Luse and Thomas Randolph Crow. Officiating was Rev. Claude McDonald.

Bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Threet of Iowa Park and groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bill E. Crow of Victoria.

Altar decorations featured a sunburst arrangement of white gladioli flanked by gold and white candelabra entwined with commodore foliage.

Music was provided by Miss Sally Sawyer, organist, and Bill Sawyer, vocalist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of white chiffon and re-embroidered chantilly lace over net. Bodice and long sleeves were lace and the Sabrina neckline was dotted with seed pearls and sequins. The top tier of the bouffant skirt, accented with appliques of lace and seed pearls, was caught up in front to reveal a wide flounce of lace. The gown featured a chapel train.

The bride's French illusion veil was attached to a cluster of lace leaves ornamented with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet centered with a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis and baby's breath on top of a prayer book covered with alencon lace.

Sentimental note was added to the wedding when the bride presented her mother a rosebud as she approached the altar, and a rosebud to the groom's mother as she left the church.

Miss Ellen Jean Luse, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length dress of mint-green brocade with matching velvet ribbon defining the empire waistline. Her headpiece was of roses and a velvet bow in matching color, and she carried an Edwardian bouquet of blue and green carnations with satin streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Richelene Luse, sister of the bride, Miss Sheryl Ruth Taylor, Miss Sharrisa Montgomery, cousin of groom. They wore light blue brocade gowns and carried bouquets similar to that carried by the maid of honor.

Susan Threet, sister of bride, was junior bridesmaid. She wore mint-green organdy over taffeta.

Raymond Entrop served as best man. Groomsman were J. C. Whaley jr., John Fitzgerald of Denver, Colo., cousin of bride, and Pat George of Wichita Falls.

Leroy Threet, brother of bride, was junior groomsmen.

Bride is 1967 graduate of IPHS. During senior year she received the DAR award. She was named Who's Who in Speech. She was among the top 10 in the class and was member of National Honor Society, Thespians, FHA; and a member of District all-star cast in one act plays.

She plans to enter Victoria school of nursing next fall.

The bridegroom was graduated from Victoria high and Victoria college, where he was on the school paper and annual staffs. He served in the coast guard and is employed with DuPont in Victoria.

Following a trip to Corpus Christi, the couple will reside in Victoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Threet hosted the reception in the church. Bride's table was covered with white linen with wide lace border. Centerpiece of blue and green carnations and the bridal attendants' bouquets appointed the table. The table which held the bridesbook held a crystal bud vase with blue and green carnations.

Reception assistants were Mrs. Wm. Andersen, Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald of Denver, aunt of bride, and Miss Cynthia Chesser. Miss Debra Fitzgerald of Denver, cousin of bride, secured signatures for the bridesbook.

Parents of groom were hosts for rehearsal dinner.

Among out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John O. Grissom of Denver and Mrs. Hazel Luse of Madrid, Iowa, grandparents of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Knox flew to Sidney, Ohio, recently for a two weeks visit with their son Neal and family. Skip reports a wonderful time with the four grandchildren. He also reports the best possible medicine is a few days with grandchildren. I wonder if C. C. did the cooking and dish washing?

Mrs. Jack Lieb and daughter Patti have returned to their home in Minneapolis, Minn., after visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown for two weeks. The group attended the Brown Family reunion at Marlow, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Brown, Mrs. Larry Porter and Kim from Tulsa, Okla., spent three days here last week with his brother Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown.

Open House at "Baby Land"

Open house will be held Saturday from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. in the new nursery facilities of Faith Baptist church. The Baby Land building has four nursery rooms, two bath rooms, and a receiving area where the co-ordinator will receive babies from their parents. The building is completely air conditioned and three of the nursery rooms are carpeted.

Special feature of the infant room will be a diaper area in center of the room. A germicidal lamp has been ordered. Over $100 of new toys have been purchased in addition to many toys donated.

Co-ordinator for Baby Land is Mrs. Willie Kinnett. Workers are Mrs. Lena Willis, J. J. Dwyer, Lena Davis, Betty Melchiori, Linda Hicks, Miss Kathy Burns and Mr. Harry Moore.

School News

Board of Equalization of Iowa Park Independent School District will meet July 31 and Aug. 2.

The meeting July 31 will be for those people interested in utilities, oil and industry. On Aug. 2 the board will be in session to hear people in regard to local property.

Bill Steger, tax assessor and collector, asks anyone wishing to meet with the board to contact him at his office.

Recreation

This week's special activity will be a bicycle rodeo. A pet show was scheduled last week, but we did not have enough pets to conduct the show.

We are having a good turnout at the gym. Most of the boys and girls come to the evening session and enjoy 4 Square, ping pong and all kinds of table games.

Some new games have been added and the favorite of these is Skittles.

We have several signed up to run track and will conduct a track meet in age groups later in the summer.

Other activities are volleyball, softball and dodge ball, which are group activities. We plan a ping pong tournament next week.

Registration has grown to 303 at mid-point in the summer program. Average attendance is between 55 and 70 boys and girls.

Sgt. Jack N. Hayes returned last week from 23 months in Viet Nam. He was stationed in Nhatrang with the 54th Sig. Bn., U. S. Army. He has been re-assigned to Ft. Lewis, Seattle.

Mrs. Hayes is the former Carolyn Wilsie, daughter of Mrs. Lena Wilsie. She received a BS degree in education from Midwestern university this spring.

Hayes is son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Hayes of Seattle.

R. E. Waters, Joe Baxter, R. G. Warner, Johnnie Ozee, Gordon Callahan and John Fecher received perfect attendance pins at meeting of Evening Lions club Tuesday.

Lion Donald Wood of Noon club spoke on the importance of answering the question "Am I my brother's keeper?" He said that the first question God asked man was "Where art thou?" And the first question man asked God was the one emphasized in his subject.

"You look after yourself" philosophy has been in existence since man was cast out of the Garden of Eden. But the loftiest kind of concept is that of looking after others.

Wood said Lionism answers the question in the affirmative, because service is its motto.

Next meeting will be held in fellowship hall of the Methodist church.

President and Mrs. Johnnie Ozee will leave Saturday for Chicago to attend International convention.

Mrs. Otis Gay and Mrs. Joe Singer furnished dinner music.

Captain Eberhard Hildemann of the German air force was guest speaker Tuesday at Noon Lions club meeting Tuesday. He is part of permanent party at Sheppard, where 212 students are sent each year for flying instruction.

Hildemann has been in USA three years and speaks English without German accent. He said all the students have proficiency in English, although wives of some have not studied the language.

After describing the course of training received at Sheppard, the speaker told of the feeling of friendship all the German students and permanent personnel develop during their time here.

Noon Lions will not meet on July 4. Meetings in July and August will be in high school cafeteria.

To the Herald:
I have just read the article: "Old Grads Rally" in June 15 issue. It was stated the graduating class of 1903 consisted of only 4 member, but I recall the names of 12 members of that class, and I believe there were three others, with possibly others I may have forgotten.

In addition to the four mentioned, viz. Emma Winfrey, Beulah Brubaker, Rose McCleskey, and Noel Troutman, were the following: Ralph Birk, Sam McClelland, Laura Bell, Minnie Detlefs, Lillie Small, Gale Lowrance, Ida Denny and myself, Hubert Davis.

In addition, I believe Bill Detlefs, Sam McCleskey and Roger Small were in that class.

Because of a disagreement with the superintendent regarding wearing robes for the exercises I did not go on with the class, so in a sense I was not a graduate, however the principal, Miss Minnie Ellis, volunteered to give me a written statement saying that I had satisfactorily completed he studies.

Very truly,
Hubert P. Davis

Mrs. Smith, Resident Here Since 1919, Still Active at 91 Years;

Mrs. George F. Smith, 91, a resident of Iowa Park since 1919, not only lives by herself, but she does her own cooking, housework, rinses out garments by hand, does some of her ironing and yard work. Her main diversion is piecing quilts and crocheting rugs. She has at least 50 quilt tops on hand.

She said it would be hard to estimate how many quilts she has pieced and quilted during the years.

She doesn't quilt now, but she still has the frames her late husband made for her during the early years of their marriage.

Besides keeping her children and grandchildren supplied with quilt tops, Mrs. Smith has given a number of the Ladies Bible class of the Church of Christ, to the Westview Boys Home in Hollis, Okla., and to friends for shower gifts.

She has recently finished a Shooting Star pattern in shades of blue and yellow, and a Star and Crown design quilt. At present she is piecing a string quilt.

During the Texas-Oklahoma Fair years, Mrs. Smith won first and second place ribbons and money each year on her quilts, rugs, embroidery and appliqued work. She has just finished some attractive chocheted rugs.

Mrs. Smith enjoys television and listens consistently to the news and sports. She sits up late nights watching television and doing handwork. She still uses her treadle sewing machine, and until a few years ago, made her own dresses.

Her vision is somewhat blurred in one eye and her hearing is bad, but she is unusually alert and active for a woman of 91.

Mrs. Smith corresponds regularly with her children and grandchildren, and she likes to have friends drop in for visits. She canned peaches last summer, and has already told her daughter Mrs. Cleo Lewis that she wants to can some more this summer.

Mrs. Lewis says her mother protests when she takes the heavier article home to wash and iron and asserts with confidence that she could take care of them.

Mrs. Smith accompanied Mrs. Lewis to Denver City in December 1966 to spend the holidays with a son.

Mrs. Smith, nee Helen Beatrice Lane, daughter of the late Jim Lane and Letitia Ann Boyce, was born in Travis county March 23, 1876. Because of her mother's poor health she spent the first few years of her life in Austin with her aunt the late Nan Boyce Dur-

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were married Nov. 8, 1896, and moved to Iowa Park from Roaring Springs in 1919. He died in 1956.

In addition to Cleo, Mrs. Smith has two sons: Clyde of Mount Carmel, Ill., and Fred of Denver City. She has four grand- and four great-grandchildren.

Junior Troop 123 had Fly-Up ceremony recently, combined with the bridging of four Juniors to Cadettes, and presentation of a "Thank You" gift to the former leader.

Fly-Ups were from Brownie Troop 12: Gloria Bevans, Patricia Crudginton, Terry Devigili, Debbie Frazier, Donna Gandy, Rhonda Shook, Dawn O'Donnell, Linda Burrichter; from Troop 33: Ladonna Britt, Nancy Platt, Debra Scott, Susan Michaels; from Troop 3: Elaine Malloy.

Bridging to Cadettes and making the rededication ceremony were: Sonia Poarch, Diane Eke, Diane Miller, Paula Hubner.

All the girls of Junior Troop 123 then presented a lovely purse to Mrs. Beverly Lightsey, former leader for four years. She is now leading the Cadette troop.

Girl Scout Day Camp was a success and a pleasure. Many of our leaders participated with Mrs. Puddles Lightsey acting as camp director. The name Puddles was bestowed because each Day Camp week brings rainfall.

Neighborhood meeting will be in September. Happy Scouting! J. Devigili, publicity

Mrs. James Farmer and Billy Jey, Mrs. Georgia Flanagan and Cindy, and Miss Shirley Lowrey returned Monday from a vacation trip to Carlsbad and El Paso.
