Tommy Reed Dies in Hospital

Tommy Edgar Reed, 48, died about 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the veterans hospital at McKinney.

Funeral service will be conducted at 3:00 p.m. Thursday in First Baptist church by Rev. Homer W.
Thompson, pastor. Burial will be in Highland cemetery under direction of Tanner Funeral Home.

Born March 9, 1917, in Wil-barger county, Reed had lived in Iowa Park 15 years. He served in the army during World War II and spent time in New Guinea and Australia. He was member of First Baptist church.

Surviving are his mother Mrs.
T. E. Reed of Iowa Park; two sisters: Miss Helen Reed of Iowa Park and Mrs. Elton Blanton of Houston; several aunts and uncles.

Revival Preacher Hawks Win Meet

on furlough from Uganda, Africa, will be evangelist for a revival at Faith Baptist church March 14-21. He will be present Sunday morning.

Ed Whittner of Vernon will direct music for the revival.

Morning services during the week will start at 7:15 and feature slides taken by Hooten in Africa.
Coffee and donuts will be served.
Evening services will start at 7:15.

Brotherhood will honor Royal Ambassadors at breakfast 8:30
Sunday in Steve's cafe to inaugurate revival activities.

Groups responsible for filling the church week nights will be:
Deacons, Sunday school workers, Training Union, Families, Young people, and Juniors.

Faith church provided the first bus service for morning services last Sunday. Sixteen families used the service and 31 persons rode the bus. Pat Kingcade was driver.

REV. HOMER W. THOMPSON
Pastor

75 Years

Members, former members and friends of First Baptist church are planning an all-day celebration March 14 in observance of its Diamond Anniversary.

Program for the occasion includes a sermon at morning worship by a former pastor, 1915-16;
basket lunch with refreshments and bread furnished by the church and special afternoon program by a missionary who grew up in the church; an evening sermon by a state Baptist official.

Dr. McKinley Norman of Longview will bring the morning sermon. Speaker for the afternoon is Jimmie D. Hooten, missionary to Uganda. Dr. Clyde J. Childers, North Texas area missionary, is evening speaker.

The church will formally announce plans Sunday to build a $200,000 sanctuary addition.

Paul Craft Takes Electric Shock

Paul Craft is reported in good condition in Wichita General hospital. He was injured Monday morning and almost electrocuted while setting a boiler on a pad at Sheppard AFB.

Working on a job for Barbour
Trucking Co., electricity arced from the power line to the boom of the motor crane and knocked Craft into a 6-foot pit. He suffered lacerations on the head and face from the fall; and both hands and both feet were severely burned by electricity.

Paul probably will be incapacitated for 30 days. He is in Room 404.

Plans are underway for a women's softball team to be organized in Iowa Park. March 13 at 7:00 p.m. a meeting is scheduled in Texas Electric office. Mrs.
Earlene Baye is in charge of arrangements and anyone interested is invited to come to the meeting or contact her at 592-5540.

WCS

"A Look at Ourselves as Christian Women" was subject at circle meetings of Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday.

What is the Christian woman's responsibility to her home and family? What is her relationship to her church? Where does she devote herself exclusively to church work or make a Christian witness through secular organizations? These were the main questions discussed.

Bonnie Denny circle met with Mrs. C. C. Robinson and Mrs. W. E. Vest was co-hostess. Mrs. Elgin Denny, leader, was assisted by Mmes. Ted Boucher, Emma Gaunt and Arch Hughes. Others present were Mmes. Herman Mahler, Dick Johnston, Lydia Hudson, B. D. Shook, Carl Sullivan, Tommy Watkins, Ray Low and a new member Mrs. Walter Owens.

Kate Abernathy circle met with Mrs. Wayne Dunson and Mrs. R. D. Rhodes was co-hostess. Mrs. W. C. Albright opened program with Glenn Shelton's comments on the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Clyde Winfrey, leader, was assisted by Mmes. Nell Thompson and Charles Winfrey, followed by group discussion. Others present were Mmes. Miles Thompson, W. F. George, Inez Cannaday, W. H. Devereaux, S. B. Keeter, C. W. Nolte, Hubert Davis.

Deamy George circle met in the home of Mrs. Gordon G. Clark. She gave the opening prayer, followed by group singing of "We Gather Together." Mrs. Wayne House, leader, was assisted by Mmes. Bess Smith, John Ratcliffe, T. C. Berry. Other present were Mmes. Fred Widmover, Scott Morris, W. M. Owens, Ida Chate-lain, Ollie Thompson, Miles Hines, James Farmer, Dave Snead, E. H. Pearce, Ann Albone, James Todd. Mrs. House gave the benediction.

Disciples

Christian Women's Fellowship of the Christian church met Monday. Presiding was Mrs. J. W. Cantrell, president.

Mrs. William Andersen led the program, "Religion vs. Science." Each woman in the church had been served with a summons to serve on the jury. After it was presented with Mmes. Johnny Cole, Leroy Threet, Earl Watson and James Cates serving as witnesses, the jury found the defendant not guilty.

Elected for the coming year: Mrs. Tom Shelton, president; Mrs. Frank Harris, vice-president; Mrs. Cates, secretary; Mrs. Frank Patton, treasurer; Mrs. Andersen, service chairman; Mrs. Threet, worship chairman; Mrs. Watson, study chairman.

Garden Club

Eight prospective members of Iowa Park Garden club were honored at coffee Thursday in the home of Mrs. Richard Caryer. Assisting was Mrs. A. K. Settle.

Mrs. Herman Rains, president, welcomed guests and presented three club members who explained purpose and work of the club.

Mrs. E. F. Soell reviewed garden club work on local, district, state and national levels and displayed publications. She said, "A garden club has something for each one whether we like to work in dirt outside or arrange flowers and plants indoors."

Mrs. Arch Hughes made an arrangement of jonquils and their foliage and Joseph's coat demonstrating the mechanics as she created the beautiful arrangement.

Mrs. L. C. Hill discussed some of the principal things involved in horticulture: soil, feeding, pest control and landscaping.

Mrs. Soell reported the club is building a Garden Library at Wichita County Free Library by adding a book each month. For March, the book will be "The Complete Book of Chrysanthemums" by Cornelia Ackerson.

Refreshments were served. Mrs. O. N. Newman presided at the coffee service.

Guests present were Mmes. Sam Fairchild, Emma Gaunt, H. M. Nipper, Frank Harlin, N. E. Guthrie Jr., Tommy Watkins, Roy Fortner, W. A. George. Other members present were Miss Hazel Crites and Mmes. Sam Hunter, R. G. Warner, Wilburn Bedford, Clyde Hutchinson.

Horizon Club

Horizon Junior Study club observed Texas Heritage program Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Herman Escue. She made an interesting comparison of man-made objects with what nature gave Texas.

Members answered roll call with brief histories of counties adjoining Wichita county.

During business, plans were discussed for a party March 18 in the ASC building to honor entrants in Miss Iowa Park pageant and their parents and sponsors.

Mrs. Charles Blakeley was a guest at the meeting.

Sweet Adelines

Mrs. Ralph Barris was elected temporary chairman of Iowa Park chapter of Sweet Adelines, Tuesday night. Mrs. J. A. Jacobi was elected secretary.

Mrs. Barris and Mrs. Henry Mitchell will attend Region 10 Sweet Adeline competition and convention March 13-14 in San Antonio.

The local group meets Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. in Texas Electric office. Any woman interested in Sweet Adeline type music is cordially invited to attend.

TOPS Dreamers

First meeting of TOPS Dreamers was held at 7:00 p.m. Monday in Texas Electric office. Mrs. Betty Merriman was elected leader and Mrs. Willie Mae Koonce, assistant leader. Secretary is Mrs. Fredyve Skinner and treasurer, Mrs. Allie Girard. Mrs. Shirley Hicks was appointed weight recorder.

TOPS is a group therapy idea for taking off pounds sensibly. It has proved quite successful for many persons nationwide.

If you have a weight problem and are interested in doing something about it, attend the meeting each Monday evening at 7:00 in Texas Electric office.

Mrs. Jean Barker, Dwyane and Curtis and little friends Carol Jean and Ricky of Electra visited here Tuesday with her sister Linda Dutton at Gary-Nees Lumber Co.

Thompson-Uhren

Miss Cathy Lynn Thompson became the bride of David E. Uhren last Saturday at 7:00 p.m. She is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lavere Thompson; he is son of Mrs. George Zipay of Streator, Ill.

Rev. Wayne Dunson performed the double-ring ceremony in First Methodist church. The altar was banked with palms and foliage and centered with a pyramid candelabrum holding cathedral tapers which served as background for sunburst arrangement of white gladiolas flanked by two identical arrangements. Cathedral candles burned on the altar table.

Wedding music was provided by Miss Elaine Sawyer, organist, and Mrs. Delbert Todd, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was attired in a formal gown of silk organza over taffeta featuring a molded bodice, long sleeves tapering to points over the hands, portrait neckline overlaid with chantilly lace, scalloped and re-embroidered in seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Enhancing the beauty of the skirt was a wide panel of lace extending down the center front and circling the hemline. On each side and at back were three tiered ruffles edged with scallops of lac trimmed with sequins sweeping into a chapel train. For headpiece, the bride chose a ballerina-length mantilla of French illusion bordered with lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of white butterfly roses atop a white Bible.

Miss Patsi Henderson served as maid of honor. She wore a street-length dress fashioned of shell-pink brocade with fitted bodice with elongated back, scalloped neckline and elbow-length sleeves. The A line skirt was shaped with unpressed pleats on each side and set-in fullness in back. Dior bows of the chosen material finished the waistline on either side. She carried a crescent bouquet of pink carnations and Hahn's ivy.

Candlelighters were Mark Thompson, brother of the bride, and Jerry Lee Spruiell, cousin of the bride.

Carl Thomas of Amarillo was best man. Ushers were Larry Thompson and Terry May, brother and cousin of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of Iowa Park High School. She was member of the band four years, the pep squad and FHA. She attended Midwestern university and has been employed with Thompson Tool Co.

The bridegroom attended high school in Streator. He has been in the air force four years, stationed at Sheppard AFB most of that time.

Parents of the bride were hosts for a reception in Fellowship Hall of the church. Bride's table was covered with white satin overlaid with scalloped white net caught with roses. Centerpiece was pink roses flanked with pink candles in silver candelabra.

Reception assistants were Mmes. Walter Spruiell, Floyd May and Hugh Thompson, aunts of bride; Eldon Thompson, Miles Thompson, Dan R. Brown and Miss Dana Brown, cousins of the bride.

Following a trip to Streator, the couple will reside at 1402 Fifteenth in Wichita Falls.

Donna Childers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Childers, student at Texas Women's university in Denton, had an accident at school Tuesday of last week. She suffered injury to her eyes during chemistry class and came home Friday for treatment. Her eyes are covered and the doctor expects to have her ready to go again next week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Young and Carlene Seale spent last weekend in Irving visiting Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Young and children Debbie, Dana, Denise.

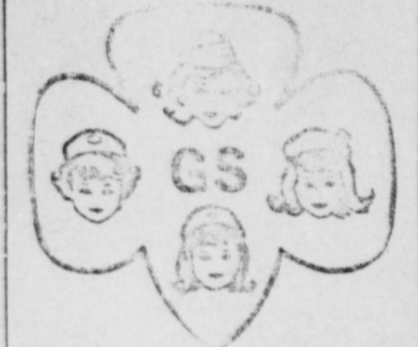

23 Study Club

International Affairs program was presented in form of a debate for 23 Study club Thursday afternoon when the group met last week in the home of Mrs. Homer W. Thompson. Mrs. R. R. Brubaker assisted with hostess duties.

Danny Watson and Frances Pastusek, high school students, debated the subject "Should nuclear weapons be controlled by an international organization?" Speakers were introduced by Mrs. M. J. McDonald, government teacher and debate coach.

During business directed by Mrs. Noel Troutman, a resolution on death of Mrs. Richie Abernathy honorary member of the club, prepared by Mrs. W. G. Steele, was read and adopted.

Others present were Mmes. Taylor George, Chauncey Weiler, Sam Hill, Fred Widmoyer, T. M. Thaxton, T. M. Clark, Earle Denny, C. L. Metz, Carroll Duke, K. P. Abernathy, L. E. Brooks, C. W. Coppock, James A. Sewell, C. A. Hicks, Homer Bialock.

MEMBERS TO MEET

A general membership meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. next Monday in the Agriculture building at 220 W. Park.

Ralph O. Harvey III will bring a message about coastal bermuda, its potential and value to the economy of Iowa Park and the irrigated valley. All members and interested persons are invited and urged to attend, as the message involves the future of our valley.

Harvey is owner and operator of Texoma Fertilizers Inc. Mrs. Dave Gay is employed as secretary. He specializes in custom fertilizers and in bulk application.

He is building a new coastal bermuda pelletizing plant which should be completed by the end of April. This plant should increase the economy of area farmers, with an assured price for their hay.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph O. Harvey III live at 2002 in Wichita Falls. He has the BBS in Commerce degree from Washington & Lee university and is a member of PAN honor fraternity. He is member of Presbyterian church and has the E-3 rank in National Guard.

CORRECTION

The three nurses listed last week as employed with Park Manor are licensed vocational nurses and not registered nurses. Our apologies to Mmes. Powell, Rogers and Ham.

Iowa Park, Texas

History of the First Baptist Church of Iowa Park, Texas

"In the 'Little Old Schoolhouse' in the south part of town eight men and women met March 14, 1890, and organized the 'First Missionary Baptist Church' of Iowa Park, Texas. The subject of the discourse for the occasion was taken from Psalm 50:2; 'Zion, the Perfection of Beauty.'"

The charter members were J. S. Allen, R. D. Rutherford, H. Abbott, Ira Flippen, Mrs. M. E. Lee, Mrs. Angeline Laning, Mrs. J. V. Reed, and Mrs. H. Abbott. "Brother" Allen was elected fourth time pastor. The little band of believers erected a small building in which to worship just west of the present building, 319 N. Yosemite. At the close of Allen's ministry April 22, 1891, the church had a membership of 16.

J. W. Whatley succeeded Allen as pastor serving until 1893. During his ministry a revival was held with a Rev. Prince Burrows assisting the pastor. The crowds became so large that the small building would not accommodate them. The church accepted an invitation from the Methodist Church to use their building which resulted in the two churches having a very successful joint meeting.

Rev. J. W. Morgan was called as pastor the latter part of 1893. On Nov. 13, 1897, the church treasurer, in conference, reported that $105.15 was paid the pastor for salary during the year. On Aug. 13, 1898, it was voted to solicit funds to enlarge the church building. The south wing was added to the first building at a cost of $365.05.

The first collection for missions was reported to have been made Oct. 1899 in the amount of $31.00. In Sept. 1898, the first messengers to the Texas Baptist convention, which convened in Waco, were elected.

Wm. M. Hays began his pastorate Jan. 11, 1902, and served until July 6, 1904. During that time a total membership of 115 was reported. Rev. J. W. Morgan again led the church with Rev. J. S. Ferguson assisting until Rev. J. S. Clements became pastor in 1907. During his ministry the first pastorium was erected and the Baptist Young People's Union was organized.

Pastors following Clements were Heathington, M. L. Blankenship, W. H. McKenzie, T. J. Deskins.

Rev. McKinley Norman was called as pastor in April 1915. He will deliver the message of the morning March 14 during the 75th anniversary of the church. During his pastorate, the church adopted a "Church Financial Plan." The following pastors served after Norman: J. T. Burnett, W. F. Ferguson, L. B. Owen, R. C. Hopper.

In Oct. 1923, a Sunday school room 14 ft. by 28 ft. was built on the west side of the church to accommodate the Intermediate and Junior departments. It was voted that year to buy additional lots adjacent to the present property for the erection of the new building.

On Dec. 14, 1924, Rev. J. C. Newman began the difficult task of being pastor and of managing the erection of the building. When the $40,000.00 structure was completed in 1925, it was voted that the name of the church would be "The First Baptist Church of Iowa Park."

Dr. C. N. Neafus was called as pastor in Dec. 1926. In spite of the heavy indebtedness of the new building and the financial reverses brought on by the depression the church's outstanding indebtedness was reduced by $10,000 during his five year ministry. Neafus resigned Dec. 16, 1931, and Rev. Charles Spurgeon McClung became pastor and served until June 8, 1935, when he resigned to accept a call to the First Baptist church in Pueblo, Colo.

Rev. C. M. Hundley of Ryan, Oklahoma, was called to be pastor but died before coming onto the field.

At 3 a.m. Jan. 6, 1936, a fire was discovered in the building. It completely destroyed portions of the edifice and the church and Sunday school services were held in the high school auditorium. Rev. Thomas L. Kilpatrick accepted the call of the church March 1, 1936. A month later the church voted to adopt the plan of financing all the organizations through the Sunday school and Church Budget System, and voted to purchase a pastorium at 106 W. Alameda. A few months later it was voted to have the first weekly church bulletin.

The Golden Jubilee Anniversary of the church was held March 15-17, 1940. The Sunday services in connection with the celebration featured the morning worship service. Jubilee Dinner served in the basement, afternoon and evening services. Rev. Kilpatrick resigned in Oct. of that year and Rev. T. Hollis Epton was called to be the pastor.

On Sunday, Nov. 30, 1941, the church Dedication Service was held and the notes were burned that night. Epton resigned Nov. 1, 1941, and Rev. Alfred Grigsby came on the field and served until May 1946 when he resigned to become pastor of the First Baptist Church in Henrietta. During his ministry, a Memorial Organ Fund was started to buy a Hammond organ for the church. The old pump organ was sent to Rev. and Mrs. F. A. R. Morgan, missionaries to Brazil. He was the son of a former pastor, the Rev. J. W. Lochridge was authorized to purchase the new organ for the church. She became the first organist and still serves in that capacity. She is recognized throughout the area as one of the most outstanding church organists.

Rev. James N. Easterwood was called as pastor July 3, 1946. In 1943, the church had accepted a recommendation from the Brotherhood to establish a mission in the south part of town, but work on the mission was not begun until 1953. Fred Parkey, Deloss Kagy, Orville Deary, Joe Baxter, A. L. Halbert served on the committee to survey the needs of the mission in the south part of town. The committee recommended that the south half of Block 117 be purchased for $1500 and that the program be financed through donations of cash, labor and materials. Mrs. Earle Denny, Mrs. Fred Wright and Mrs. A. L. Halbert were appointed to secure workers.

A house and garage at North Park and East Washington were purchased, torn down, lumber cleaned, and work on the mission was begun. The first services in the chapel were conducted Jan. 10, 1954, by Rev. H. M. Riek, who had become pastor of the First Baptist Church when Rev. Easterwood resigned to accept the pastorate of the First Baptist Church in Anson. The mission grew so rapidly that by 1955 the chapel building committee was given permission to secure an architect for planning a new building. Rev. George Shropshire became full time pastor of the mission in July, 1955.

Rev. Riek accepted the call to become pastor of the Highland Baptist Church in Denton, and Rev. Homer W. Thompson, the present pastor, was called Jan. 8, 1956.

The ground-breaking ceremony for the Children's Building, adjoining the church on the west, was held June 20, 1956. The C. & W. Construction Co. was given the contract at a cost of $40,519. The building committee was composed of R. R. Brubaker, Mrs. Sam Hill, Mrs. O. M. Jones, E. E. Voyles, Floyd White, L. E. Brooks, Mrs. Earle Denny, Malcolm Mills, R. W. Hill. The dedication of the building was held May 25, 1958.

First permanent church structure erected by the congregation of the First Baptist Church of Iowa Park, pictured above, was completed shortly before the turn of the century. Inset is Rev. Wm. M. Hays, early day pastor of the church.

In 1958, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Denny gave a lot in the northeast section of the town for the purpose of erecting a new pastorium. The $25,000 brick structure was built at 701 N. Park the following year.

On February 10, 1965, a little more than a month before the 75th Anniversary of the church, it was voted to approve a proposed plan for a new $200,000.00 sanctuary and to authorize the building committee to instruct Dixon & Dixon Architects to proceed with plans for construction.

Young men ordained for the ministry in the church in recent years were Keith Blalock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Blalock, who was ordained Dec. 28, 1947; and Franklin Farmer, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Farmer. Keith has held several pastorates and has done mission work in Alaska and on Guam where he is currently teaching school and serving as interim pastor. Franklin has been active in the SBC Baptist Student Union work and is presently associated with the Southern Baptist Convention Sunday School Board in Nashville, Tenn., as youth consultant.

Bob Beck, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Paducah, is a former member of the church. Jimmie Hooten, missionary to Africa, home on furlough, is also a former member. He will be one of the speakers for the afternoon services.

R. R. Brubaker served the church as Sunday School superintendent for 38 years. September 13, 1959, was set aside as "Brubaker Sunday" at which time Mr. and Mrs. Brubaker were honored for their faithful continuous service.

The church has had a strong music program, WMU, youth organizations, Brotherhood, Sunday School and Training Union through the years. The budget for 1965 is $54,489.36.

Seniors Enjoy Western Party Given by Methodist Women

Friday evening, March 5, the seniors of W. F. George high school were guests of WSCS of the Methodist church.

As members of the class, the room mothers and sponsors and other guests stepped into Fellowship Hall they entered an atmosphere of "The Old West." Walls were pasted with Wanted posters adorned with individual pictures of each senior. These criminals were wanted for various crimes in the days of the Old West.

Quartet tables were covered with red and white checked table cloths centered with a red candle in a bottle. The serving table was covered with a matching cloth and red candles, cowboys, corals and coaches.

Programs were inserted in miniature Western boots.

Boys found their eating partners by finding the girl the shoe belonged to. The shoes had been given to them as they arrived in the party room.

Rev. Wayne Dunson, pastor, welcomed guests and offered the invocation. Following a bountiful Western meal, Larry George introduced seniors in a unique way and told of the crimes they had committed.

A clever ski directed by Mrs. C. B. Smith was presented by Jeannie Guthrie, Van Dunson, Larry George, Jerry McDonald, Ysidra Smith, Bailey Smith. It was a take-off from "Macbeth."

A piano duet "Cowboy's Holiday" by Eitel A. Nelson was presented by Ysidra Smith and Mike Stevenson.

Dunson introduced Rev. Michael Daves, pastor of Holiday Methodist church. He is author of the book "Meditations on Early Christian Symbols."

He said "Frontier religion was a vital part of frontier life and most of the preachers were converted outlaws."

He discussed "Three different chairs in life." The chair of solitude was first. We should not be afraid to be alone; we need to be alone for thought, study and prayer.

The chair of Friendship — We should want friends and know true and honest friendship.

The chair of Society — These include all of life and we should contribute to society.

Daves quoted "Watchmen on the Walls." The words were written by the late Pres. John F. Kennedy to be delivered on Nov. 22, 1963, but were never spoken. He closed saying "We are Watchmen on the walls of our city, nation and world. We need the right kind of furniture in our lives."

Mrs. Otis Gav presented appropriate dinner music.

Track games with coaches Dutch George, Keith Swim, Taylor George, Wayne House were enjoyed by the Senior Bells and Senior Cowpokes.

Lady bosses were Mmes. W. A. George, Clyde Hutchinson, Gilbert Steele, Ray Watson.

Foremen were Tom Shelton, Tommy Watkins, Farris Nowell.
