Vestal-Bradberry Vows Exchanged

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Karen Sue Vestal and Jimmy Wayne Bradberry at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, July 27, in Iowa Park Church of Christ. Doubling ceremony was directed by John L. Maples, minister. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Vestal jr. and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Bradberry. The altar was centered by a greenery-entwined arch and white satin-covered prie dieu flanked by pyramidal candelabra holding cathedral tapers. Decorations in background featured starburst arrangements of white gladiolas and silver candelabra. A chorus composed of Misses Sheryl Taylor, Nancy Dowleware, Joan Graves; Messrs. Mike Entrikian, Allen Chandler and Mark Witt provided music. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of white peau de soie designed with fitted bodice and sweeping bouffant skirt ending in a cathedral train. Neckline and sleeves were outlined in imported lace. Fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white orchid surrounded by white feathered plumes entwined with a strand of pearls atop a white Bible. The bride wore a strand of pearls with a drop pearl necklace. Costumes worn by the bride's attendants, the flower girl and Mrs. W. D. Vestal jr. were made by the bride, who also made her going-away suit.

Mrs. M. J. Brandt sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a formal gown of pastel pink peau de soie with French darts and bateau neckline. Train in the back extended from satin bows at shoulders. She wore a matching pillbox and short veil, and carried a nosegay of pink carnations with long pink streamers. She wore a pearl necklace and white gloves. Miss Lana Ann Lavender was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Lemuel David Vestal of Leesville, La., sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Lucy Black. They wore costumes styled identically to the one worn by the matron of honor in shades of pastel blue, yellow and green. Candelights were Miss Shirley Bradberry and Miss Evelyn Bradberry, sisters of the bridegroom. They wore formal gowns of orchid peau de soie accented with silk bows on the shoulders. They wore pillbox hats with short veils. Vanessa Ann Brandt, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was attired in a formal pink peau de soie gown. The gathered bouffant skirt was overlaid with pink chiffon. She wore a pink carnation headpiece and carried a basket of pink and white mums. Bodie Brandt, nephew of the bride, carried the rings on a white satin pillow trimmed with imported lace and streamers. Donald Rauschuber of Lubbock was best man. Groomsman were M. J. Brandt, the bride's brother-in-law, Lemuel D. Vestal of Leesville, La., brother of the bride, and Bill Whittingstall, Ushers were Weldon Bradberry, brother of the bridegroom, and Robert Dawson.

The bride was graduated with salutatory honors from IPHS in 1967. She belonged to Pep and English and Spanish clubs and was named Who's Who in Social Science in her senior year. She was member of girls sextet and was named to All-Region choir when she was a senior. She will be a sophomore at Midwestern university this fall. The bridegroom was graduated from IPHS. Member of Hawk football team, he earned the Hustle award when he was a sophomore. He studied auto technology two years. He attended Midwestern university and is now employed at Sheppard AFB.

The bride's parents were hosts for wedding reception held in home of Mr. and Mrs. Brandt. Bride's table was covered with white satin cloth accented with tulle on top and tulle scalloped caught up by pastel flowers on the sides. Reception assistants were Mrs. Harrel Sullivan, and Mrs. H. E. Patton and Melvin Eichle, aunts of the bride.

Parents of the bridegroom hosted the rehearsal party Friday evening at the home.

Following the couple will live at 402 West Magnolia in Iowa Park. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Beighle of Skelbytown, Patricia Ann Beighle of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hewitt of Skelbytown; Mr. and Mrs. George Chesher. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reynolds and Wade of Electra; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bonner of Three Rivers.

Bridal Shower

Mrs. Jay N. Norwood was hostess of a bridal luncheon recently honoring Sarah Jane Waters, the bride-elect of Major William D. Owens. The party was given in Wichita Falls Country Club. Mothers of the couple Mmes. R. E. Waters and W. M. Owens were special guests. About 12 friends of the bride attended. The table was covered with a white damask cloth. Arrangements of white fiji mums, baby's breath and agapantha were used with leather leaf fern to carry out the bride-elect's colors of green and white. Corsages of white roses were presented to the honoree and the special guests.

The couple will be married on Aug. 24.

Bart A. Rogers Buried Monday

Funeral service for Bartley August Rogers, 77, who died Friday, July 26, was held Monday in Tanner Funeral Home chapel. Rev. Donald Wood of First Baptist church officiated. Burial was in Highland cemetery here. Born Aug. 19, 1890, in Benton, Tenn., Bart Rogers came to this area about 60 years ago. He was married to Miss Hazel Smith Nov. 26, 1916, at Eaton, Colo. He was member of the Baptist church and IOOF. He was a retired farmer and oilfield worker. Survivors include the widow; six sons: Wayne of San Diego, Calif.; Bartley of Wilmington, Del.; Tom and James of Graham, Robert of Denver, Colo.; Jerry of Starkville, Miss.; five daughters: Mmes. F. Boggs has worked with churches in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma in field of religious education. He has done extensive work in field of evangelistic singing.

He was member of Singing Churchmen of Oklahoma recording for Broadman. He is widely sought as a banquet singer and speaker. He had a series of musical tv programs in El Paso.

To Greenbelt

Becky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Spruiell, has been nominated to compete for title "Miss Greenbelt Bowl" during 19th annual Greenbelt Bowl activities in Childress Aug. 9-10. Queen will be crowned at half-time of the football game Saturday. Thirty-four girls from area towns have been nominated.

Wendall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne House, will be playing in fourth position during the game. Fourty-four outstanding Texas and Oklahoma players are to arrive in Childress, Aug. 5 to begin workouts.

Iowa Park Boys in 3 Playoffs

Iowa Park LL all-stars downed Canyon, Monday night at Sheppard AFB in the sub-sectional tournament. The victory advanced the local club into sectional play at Abilene today.

The first two innings were played in a feel-out manner and in the third the IP boys flexed their muscles and ran off with the game.

Darrel Frazier hit a single; Dan Buikema walked; Mark Carter struck out. And then Terry Ratcliff unloaded a 3-run homer over centerfield. Wes Spruiell followed with a blast over the right field.

John Sikes gave up his first hit to Canyon in the 3rd, but struck out the last batter of the inning with two runners on.

Iowa Park took over in the 4th as they had in the third. Ronnie Travis reached first on an error; Frazier singled again; Buikema walked to load the bases. Mark Carter scored a run on fielders choice. Ratcliff garnered his 4th RBI with his second hit. Spruiell knocked in his second run with hit No. 2. This ended the scoring; 7 to 0, Iowa Park.

Coaches Ken Buikema and Jim Travis will take the All-Stars to Abilene today for the Sectional tournament.

Iowa Park Senior League team won one of four state positions in that division by manhandling Carson County 17-3 on Thursday of last week at Big Lake. They will play in San Antonio this Thursday with winner advancing to Southern Regional tournament at Charleston, Va.

Wednesday night at Burkburnett, Iowa Park Connie Mack team won a berth in the playoffs at Vernon on Aug. 7, by whipping Burk 11-0 in five innings.

Bruce Boyd was winning pitcher. Scotty Baker was loser. Bingo Miller, Robert Bradford and Gary Frazier pooled extra-base hits in the game.

Bradford made the defensive play of the night when he threw out a Burk runner at home plate. Catcher Wendall House made the tag.

Coaches Bing Miller and Bob Bradford said all the boys hustled and played well. Tuesday night, Iowa Park defeated Burk in a 1-0 contest.

92 Years

R. E. Van Horn was host Sunday for dinner honoring his mother Mrs. R. S. Van Horn on her 92nd birthday. He was assisted by his daughter Mrs. Lowell Short and Mr. Short of Fort Worth.

Three Seniors Go to Seminar

Three students of IPHS will attend the sixth annual Texas Farm Bureau Citizenship Seminar July 30-Aug. 3 on the Baylor university campus at Waco.

The three are John L. Maples II, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Maples; Joe Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Rush; and Carol Rentschler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rentschler.

County FB sponsors local students by paying tuition, room and board and transportation to and from Waco. A total of 425 students from 156 counties are enrolled for this year's seminar.

Emphasis will be placed on the economic, moral and social aspects of American society. Instruction will consist of lectures, film and panel discussions.

Carol will be a senior this fall. She has been member of Hawk band 3 years, FHA for 2 years, National Honor Society and National Thespians Society. She attends Faith Baptist church.

Joe will be a senior this year. He was member of Spanish club during freshman and sophomore years and Forensic club in junior year. He attends Pleasant Valley Baptist church.

Now 18 and a senior in IPHS, John accompanied his parents at age 5 to Durban, Republic of South Africa. While there he accompanied his parents on many trips to game reserves and took pictures of many big-game animals. He helped his parents operate a holiday camp for young people, the only one of its kind in South Africa.

While in Durban high school, John was on the track and cross country teams. He reached the regional competition in the mile last season. John is working this summer with Christian Teacher Publication Co. of Dallas. He is member of Church of Christ.

"Woman" Is 23 Study Club Theme for Year

Program committee of 23 Study club composed of Mmes. Chauncey Weiler, R. A. Tanner and D. O. James has completed compilation of programs for 1968-69. Course of study will be "This Age of Change," and theme will be "Woman in Today's World."

First meeting will be a breakfast Oct. 3 in United Methodist church fellowship hall. Subject of the president's message will be "Woman in Today's World." Mrs. Weiler will give a preview of the year's programs, and Mrs. James A. Sewell will render a vocal solo.

Highlight of the Oct. 17 meeting will be a lecture and demonstration on "Flower Arranging" by Mrs. W. B. Featherston of Wichita Falls, to emphasize the theme "Beauty Is a Requisite in a Woman's Home." Mrs. Fred Widmoyer will read nature poems. Hostesses will be Mrs. J. W. Cantrell and Mrs. Erwin F. Soell.

"A Woman Goes Shopping" is theme chosen for Nov. 7. Program will feature a dialogue on "What a Wise Shopper Should Know" by Miss Ethyl Kidwell and Mrs. Rollins Woodall. Mrs. T. M. Clark will demonstrate the "Techniques of Decoupage" and exhibit some results. Hostesses will be Mrs. Widmoyer and Mrs. N. E. McKinney.

Sixth annual joint meeting of Philia Study club and 23 Study club will be held Nov. 13 in First Baptist church. Mrs. Weiler will direct panel discussion "Why You Belong to the General Federation." Participants will be Mmes. Carrol Crum and John Ratcliff of Philia club and Soell and Sam Hill of 23 club. Mrs. Sewell, who has set to music "A Collect for Club Women" by Mary Stewart, will sing the collect.

"A Woman's Compassion for the Less Fortunate" is theme of Dec. 5 meeting, when members make their annual visit to Wichita Falls state hospital to present a program and party for patients in the Occupational Therapy department. They will be assisted by a girls sextet from IPHS choir directed by Darrell Dick.

Mrs. T. M. Thaxton will tell the Christmas story from St. Luke and Mrs. James will give the story "The Littlest Angel."

The Christmas meeting, when Mmes. Tanner and Metz will be hostesses, will be highlighted by presentation of the Christmas message through "The Glory of Christmas" presented by Mmes. Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
NUMBER TWELVE ON THE BALLOT (SJR14)

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 14 proposing an amendment to Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding a new Section 52a, to give the Legislature the power to authorize cities and counties to issue revenue bonds for industrial development purposes.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding a new Section 52a to read as follows:
"Section 52a. The Legislature shall have the power to authorize cities, counties, and towns to issue revenue bonds for industrial development purposes, or in aid thereof; provided, that property acquired from proceeds of the bonds shall be subject to ad valorem taxes. Legislation passed in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment shall not be invalid solely because of its anticipatory nature. The tax revenue, the utility revenue, and the revenue from services of any county, city or town may not be used to pay any bonds issued pursuant to this authority nor the interest thereon."
Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1968, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:
"FOR the constitutional amendment to give the Legislature the power to authorize cities and counties to issue revenue bonds for industrial development purposes."
"AGAINST the constitutional amendment to give the Legislature the power to authorize cities and counties to issue revenue bonds for industrial development purposes."
Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this state.
