SWEET N' SOUR

By A. DILL

If there's anything more pleasant than July it's a little more of the same - blue skies, hot sun, and folks coming and going on vacations. It always brings to mind a poem in an old book, which ended each verse with the line, "summer's the time for fun." By the way, why is it that you have to cudgle your brain to recall the square root of something or other but the lyrics of a simple ditty stays on forever?

Visiting in Baird this week are Johnny and Sammy Allen of Grand Prairie and you can put it down as a fact that the grandparents, Sam and Stella Gilliland are loving every moment of it.

The Raymond Corn's had some very welcome guests this week when Roberta's brother, Harold Starr and family (including sons Philip and Norman) of New Orleans stopped in for a visit.

Home from a week at Camp Tonkawa are Edwin Ault, Jimmy Drennan and Scotty Mitchell -- they enjoyed every minute of that trip and are ready to vouch for the fun a fella can have at Scout Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Sutphen have just returned from visiting son, George, who is with Pan American in Wink. Returning home they left David to visit a week with cousin Chuck Coats in Pecos while James B. (Bo) Coats returned to Baird with them to spend a week with Mack Sutphen. That arrangement suits all the boys concerned to the 'nth degree.

Janet Ross is home from an extensive vacation in the north and east and a fabulous trip it must have been, with stopovers in Atlantic City, New York and Washington, D. C., but do you know what the young 'un told us? "You can buy cuter things at home than in any of the shops I saw, and our swimming pool is better than the Atlantic Ocean or any place I saw." Love that girl!

Speaking of swimming -- it was a great day on the Fourth of July for our Municipal Pool when it's entry, blonde and beautiful Mary Brown won first place in the Beauty Contest. Manager Alvis Dill was so proud of his representative you'd think the old boy had copped the honors single-handed. Second place and third place winners in the contest were Joy Jackson and Patty Pollard and we bet the judges agree with us that they never saw so many dazzling pretty girls in any one contest anywhere. Mary Ross, winner of the top spot last year, presented the awards.

Congratulations too, to the winners of the Junior Girls division of the beauty contest, Sharon Jeter first, Ann Barton second, and Janet Ross, third. Vicky Finley, last year's winner made the Junior awards.

While we're on the subject of the Fourth of July, we think that you should know that that beautiful job of cleaning up the City Park -- scraping, weeding 'n all of that was done by Bo Pruitt and the City Crew and they deserve a big hand for it. The City Council is due some special thanks for having water piped to the park and to all of the picnic units. Four units are now complete and two barbecue

Union Usuals and Unusuals

By Veda Yarbrough

Hi neighbor, How are you this rainy Sunday? Rained all morning so I didn't get to go to church. We just liked a little bit getting three inches. Looks like we will get more this afternoon. The maize really looks good. Guess this will make it a lot better.

Visiting Saturday with John and Roma McIntyre were Mrs. Clint McIntyre of Oplin and Mrs. Flora May McIntyre and Sandra of Big Lake. Sorry I did not get to see them.

My sister, Clara Lunsford and husband spent Friday night and Saturday morning with Jim and me. We were so glad to see them. Clara, Alton and I visited a while Friday evening with John and Roma. Saturday afternoon Clara, Alton, Jim and I went to Cisco and visited the Emmitt Wood family. Clara and Alton stayed with the Woods for a longer visit. Think they will come back to Putnam this afternoon.

I visited awhile Friday afternoon with Mrs. Mary Ramsey. I visited Saturday afternoon with Mrs. May Payne and Mrs. Williams.

We were very sorry to hear that Mrs. Vena Shackelford was taken so ill Saturday morning and had to have an emergency operation but glad to say she is doing OK. We wish for her a quick recovery. We sure do miss her. Miss Vena, hurry and get well. We need you.

Good morning this cool Monday. Little Boy Jim went to Baird this morning and maybe on to Abilene Sale. Too wet to plow so I let him go.

Alton and Clara Lunsford spent Sunday night with Burette and Johnny Ramsey. I think they were all going to Abilene today. So are the Mark Burnams.

Kim and Keven Burnam spent the week end with Grandpa Mark and Ollie. They sure do like to stay at Grandpa's and Grandma's. Don't blame them. I always like to go to my grandpa's house.

Retha Burnam came home for the fourth also spent the week end. The Jack Everetts spent the Fourth with the Burnams.

Mark, Ollie, Retha and Gayle Burnam went to Abilene Saturday. Mark helped his son, Glenn, move into a new home they just bought in Abilene. We are glad for them.

Bro. Wayne Blankenship had dinner with the Mark Burnams Sunday. Wayne and a friend of Abilene were visiting and hunting rabbits last Thursday and came by to visit awhile with the Burnams and Jim and me. We welcome them any time and especially when they shoot these pesky rabbits. We had a nice young Blackeye pea patch and bless my soul if they didn't eat it in two nights. I hope it made them sick to their tummies.

pits are ready for use. Especially should we voice appreciation to Medford Walker, City Park Commissioner, and Curtis Sutphen, Park Board members, for the time and effort they have expended in making the park such an asset to the community. Swim contests at the pool Friday were just about the biggest success ever and attracted county wide attention. The swimming games were sponsored by the Junior Wednesday Club as part of their Fun-At-Home Fourth program. The use of the pool was given without charge by Alvis Dill as his part in the effort to furnish a day of fun for the youngsters of the county.

We had no intentions of skipping this item at all, but there was also a Toddlers division in the Beauty Contest that fairly stole the show. Winners were Jo Kennard, Terry Everett and Betsy LaCour.

Mrs. Nell Hardwick and family have had guests in their home this week - Mrs. Hardwick's sisters, Mrs. Claudia Wilkison of Texon and Mrs. Bess Warren of Austin.

We are indebted to Mr. Porter for this highly interesting news item from the Admiral community. Last year the Baptist Church there enlarged its building and teaching area by about a four thousand dollars worth of construction work. For a small community, that step took courage and the remainder of the story should be told and retold, for in approximately 11 months, the good folks of Admiral had paid back their loan and had their building in the clear. In a day when the rural community is fighting its hardest battle to exist and seeing their churches close for lack of local interest, it should be an everlasting credit to the people of Admiral that they can not only exist, but progress as well.

Back home from a wonderful vacation that took them over the mountains of New Mexico and back to the Texas Coast are Grace and Doa Rutledge, baby son, and Helen Walker.

Visiting friends in Baird this week was one-time resident, Mrs. Clyde Yarbrough of Westlaco.

Kay McLothlin of Abilene, was a week end guest of her cousin, Charlene Shelton.

Debby Bell spent a week with sister, Billie Beth Frazier and this week the Frazers, Billie Beth and Shir, are visiting Bob-bye Bell and family here.

Mrs. R. L. Griggs had a four-day stay in Tyler, where she visited Nettie Kirshner, Nora Copeland and Mrs. Walter Bowler.

Aubrey Bell is spending his vacation with family and friends in Marshall.

Madge and Benny Pierson and family of Big Spring have been guests this week of the J. W. Loper family.

And guess who blew into town last week? Pat 'n Jack Simms and youngsters from San Antonio. We think Jack deserves a "quip of the week" award for his classic remark to his beloved spouse that if Perry Como rated a gold record for selling a million records, Pat should have a gold can opener because he knew she'd opened more than the required million during their span of marital bliss.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lambert Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lambert celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary Saturday, July 8th, with an Open House reception in their home in West Baird.

In keeping with the actual hour of their wedding, the Lamberts began receiving guests at six o'clock in the afternoon.

In the receiving line for the celebration were the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lambert, Miss Jeffe Lambert, Mrs. Vance Whitehill and Mrs. Roger Q. Evans.

Mrs. George Lambert and Mrs. Charlie Frank Lambert invited guests into the dining area where they were served cake and punch from a white organdy covered table, centered with a three-tiered cake. Silver and crystal completed the appointments and set the color scheme for the house, which was decorated in white carnations accented with gold chrysanthemums and gold gladioli.

Mrs. Gilbert Hinds at the punch bowl, Mrs. Colonel Dyer who served cake, and Mrs. Robert Ferrell Lambert who presided at the registry, assisted with the hospitalities.

Members of the receiving line wore corsages of gold orchids and house party members wore white carnations.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Vance Whitehill of El Paso, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Q. Evans of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lambert of Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ryan of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Q. Evans of Dennison and Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson of Fort Worth.

Approximately two hundred guests attended.

Willie Williams and Ed Lambert were married July 5, 1908, in the Baptist parsonage in Baird. They were united in marriage by Rev. Joiner, minister of the Baptist church, and were attended by the bride's parents and the groom's parents. The couple were born in Baird, attended school in Baird, and have made it their home. Their many friends here rejoice with them in achieving this golden milestone in their marriage.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gwin for a few hours Sunday were all five of their children, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gwin and Mrs. Dee Peevey of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Millhorn of Eula, J. E. Gwin of Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Watson of Kermit, also Mrs. Gwin's brother, Lucien Warren of Oplin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gordon and children attended a family reunion at Glenrose the Fourth and visited Mrs. Gordon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stanford, in Fort Worth Saturday and Sunday. Peggy Gordon remained for a longer visit with her grandparents.
