Faith Baptist Church Is Scene of Skelton-Brown Wedding; Couple to Make Home in Massachusetts

The wedding of Miss Shirley Ann Skelton and 1st Lt. Kenneth Lee Brown of Otis AFB, Mass., took place at 8:00 p.m. Saturday, June 14, in Faith Baptist church of Iowa Park, with Rev. George Shropshire, pastor, officiating. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wiley Skelton of Valley Farms, Mr. and Mrs. Harold John Brown of Camp Hill, Pa., are parents of the groom. Traditional wedding music was furnished by Mrs. W. G. Steele of Iowa Park, organist, and Staten Mac Johnston of Salinas, Calif., cousin of the bride, soloist. The wedding party stood before a background of a peak arch of pink cathedral candles with twin pink arches flanking the large Swedish steel arch. Focal point was a large arrangement of sunburst spic and span gladiolas. The bride, who has served as a speech therapist the past year with the Dallas school system, is a graduate of Hartnell junior college, Salinas, Calif., and Baylor university, Waco. In college she was a member of Alpha Gamma Sigma, honorary junior college scholarship fraternity; Sigma Alpha Eta, speech pathology fraternity; International Council for Exceptional Children; and American Speech and Hearing association. Lt. Brown was graduated from Syracuse university with a degree in speech education. He served as president of Phi Delta Theta, social fraternity, and is a member of Kappa Phi Kappa, honorary men's education fraternity, and Sigma Tau Rho, men's honorary speech fraternity. The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal party held Friday evening in Wichita Falls. The table was decorated with coral carnations and greenery. Candelights were Miss Delores Evinger of Wichita Falls and Miss Carol Thomas of Iowa Park. The flower girl, little Nancy Spruiell of Snyder, Tex., wore a white organy dress over coral taffeta. She carried a basket of white crown asters. Clifford Moore of Iowa Park was ringbearer. Best man was Bill J. Addington of Dallas. Ushers and groomsmen were Tom Hasty of Wichita Falls and David Padgett of Iowa Park. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal-length gown of imported chantilly lace over diamond white taffeta. The portrait neckline was edged with lace and highlighted with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bouffant skirt featured a side detail of finely tucked taffeta. Her fingertip veil of pure silk illusion was caught to a pillow of lace sprinkled with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis on a white Bible. The altar was draped with a white satin cloth presented to the church by the outgoing WM and WP. Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Traylor. Mrs. Gauntt presented a past matron jeweled pin to Mrs. Traylor and an emblem cuff links and tie set to Mr. Traylor. A white leather guest book was presented to Mrs. Traylor. She in turn presented gifts to the installing officers. The meeting place was decorated with spring flowers. Mrs. Walsh has chosen for her theme this year "Love and prayer." The motto is "Working together." Scripture, John 3:16. Following the installation a social hour was enjoyed. ## Reflections from the Bible

By Ray Marcum, Minister Iowa Park Church of Christ

The alien is not a sinner above all others. There are many religious practices in the world today which are not "Of faith." They are sin—for Paul says in Romans 14:23, "Whatsoever is not of faith is sin." There is no possible way of changing Divine law. The wages of this kind of sin is death, just the same as it is the wages of any other sin. False doctrine and false practices are heinous. They are sin. The conscientious teacher will not teach for doctrine that which is not of faith. The penalty is too great. The picture of sin cannot be painted too darkly. Eye hath not seen, ear hath not heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man, how great and how awful is the consequence of sin. It was such a picture as this that caused Jesus Christ to give up the eternal glories that He possessed in Heaven to come to earth that by His death on Calvary, we might be made free. He was the sacrifice without blemish; His were the stripes by which we are healed; His were the shoulders upon which was laid the iniquity of us all; His was the cure for all our sin's diseases. Since the Son of Righteousness arose, to shoot his beams of splendor across Calvary's crown to encircle the brow of humanity with a halo of hope, there can be no excuse for sin. We now can bathe in the cleansing fountain of His blood and be free. Have you been washed in the blood of the Lamb? adv

THIS WEEK — In Washington With Clinton Davidson

MAN IN A SPACE SUIT

Communter service to the Moon isn't "just around the corner," but it could be a lot nearer than you think. A rocket-type plane capable of carrying a man, or several men, to the Moon may be fired before the end of this year. The problem we still have to lick is how to get a man there alive. After that, we would have the problem of how to get him back in equally good condition. Both the United States and Russia have some of their best brains at work on those problems.

While one division of the U.S. Air Force is trying to build planes or missiles that can travel the 187,000 miles to the Moon, another is trying to make it possible for man to travel on those planes or missiles. The latter division has the rather imposing title of Bio Medical Aspects of Space Flights School of Aviation Medicine. Although not generally known, it is no secret that this important work is going on at Randolph Field, near San Antonio, Texas.

Buck Rogers For Real
While details of what has been learned so far are classified information, it is known that great progress has been made recently in man's survival at extremely high altitudes. Space ships of the future already are on the drawing boards and may soon go into experimental production.

When will the first manned spacecraft reach the Moon? There is no timetable yet, but some of the experts we have talked with are guessing at sometime between 1965 and 1970. I understand that plans are in progress for a man-carrying vehicle that will fly at above 250,000 feet (about 50 miles) at a speed in excess of 12,000 miles per hour. It is assumed this will become a reality when it is authorized and the funds provided. We have learned a great deal about space travel from reports sent back from our own and the Russian satellites. We know that life can be sustained, briefly, at altitudes up to 1,000 miles or more. The Russian Sputnik II dog proved that.

Our studies show that a man is safe with an oxygen mask at 40,000 feet, but must have a pressurized mask from 60,000 to 70,000 feet, and at 75,000 feet a pressurized cabin. Over 80,000 feet a pre-sealed cabin is necessary.

Who Will Be First?
Another problem is the fact that human beings inhale oxygen and exhale carbon dioxide, a deadly poison in close quarters. In Sputnik II the Russians used a chemical apparatus to change carbon dioxide, exhaled by the dog, into oxygen.

If space travel is to become an actuality, it will be necessary to provide for this change of carbon dioxide for a much longer period of time than is now possible.

The problem of getting a space ship beyond the pull of gravity can be solved. It has been demonstrated that an object travelling at 18,000 miles an hour has no gravity. Anything loose in the cabin of such a ship would float around in the air.

Who will be the first man to go to the Moon? We can't name him, although a number already have volunteered, but we can guess his age fairly close. He will be between 35 and 40 years old.

In both World Wars it was found that men from 18 to 25 made the best pilots. For space flight, though, the more mature men make better pilots than the youngsters because they are more stable under great stress.

CITY BEAUTIFICATION
Work is being done to clear vacant lots of tall grass around in different sections of town. Noticeable improvement has been cleaning and leveling of lot north of Jacks Insurance Agency.

The committee is planning to make another tour of residential areas next week to determine the winner in the Home of the Month contest for June.

Lawns and flowers have never been so beautiful as this year. If you know of a neighbor who has worked hard and made a great improvement in his yard, contact Hazel George, chairman of the city beautification committee, so the place can be considered in the contest.

CLARA SCHOOL REUNION SET FOR SATURDAY
A reunion is planned by former students and faculty members of the Clara school and their families for Saturday at 5:00 p.m. in the Burk Burnett school cafeteria.

The homecoming dinner will be served by a catering firm. Invitations have been mailed to all for whom the committee had addresses. Floyd Marten, chairman, states the committee wishes to secure all former students' names and addresses for its files.

There will be a short program and a visiting period. The Clara school was disbanded years ago, and students in the Clara community now attend Iowa Park or Burk Burnett schools.

Jim Smith is on a two weeks vacation in Kentucky and other points of interest. Mrs. Bryan McKinnis and daughter Monty and Kay of Seminole, Okla., are visiting relatives and friends here this week. Mrs. McKinnis is the former Miss Betty Perry of Iowa Park.

Kid Baseball Develops Character, Leadership

By Windy Wilson

If anyone were to ask what the main resource of Holliday is, nine times out of 10 the answer would be, "Oil." As far as natural resources are concerned, that is the correct answer—but the main product of any community is its children. In their hands is not only the future of Holliday, but the future of our nation as well.

This fact alone makes young people the most valuable asset of Holliday, and molding of their characters the most important undertaking of the community.

It was with these ideas in mind that Little League baseball was organized here. Cutz Brackeen and Dan Barnes called the first meeting four years ago. Interested parents met with them and baseball started then, to grow year by year. Our Little League is a part of the whole Little League organization, which includes more than 3,000,000 kids in 22 countries. This makes baseball the largest youth program in the world.

The people of Holliday can point with pride to a baseball team in each of the four divisions of the YMCA's organization. The program can be summed up in these three basic purposes:

1. To teach sportsmanship
  2. To teach gracious living.
  3. To teach gracious losing
- Holliday can also be proud of the two new ball diamonds which were built this year, in addition to the regular field north of the school.

The whole community owes a vote of thanks to the managers and sponsors of these teams, who after a hard day of work find time to put their players through a hard practice drill. And the gratitude of all is deserved by the civic minded men who helped to build these new fields.

Report on Blum Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Herring had an enjoyable weekend in central Texas visiting with friends and relatives and attending the annual Blum reunion, which has been held for the past several years at Cleburne state park.

Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Blum of Iowa Park, brother of Mrs. Herring and former Holliday residents, were among those attending the reunion. Also attending were the Uriah Blums' daughter Doris and family of Wichita Falls and son Haroldene and family of Odessa.

Saturday morning was spent in Hillsboro visiting with old friends and lunch was enjoyed in the home of Mrs. D. J. King, better known as Ma King.

From there they went to Cleburne state park, where relatives were gathered from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico. All the 10 brothers and sisters were there with a large number of children and grandchildren, totaling 85 in all. The older folk enjoyed visiting together and hearing all about the member of each family who couldn't be present; and reliving childhood days spent in and around Hillsboro with their parents the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Blum.

The youngsters enjoyed playing ball and swimming. And everyone enjoyed the bountiful meals of fried chicken and all the trimmings.

Always there is time taken for a prayer of thanksgiving for another opportunity of meeting with loved ones and to ask for a safe journey as everyone return to his home to look forward to another such occasion at the same time the next year.

After leaving the reunion, the Herrings visited near Springtown with the G. L. Stewarts, cousins of Mr. Herring. The Stewarts resided in Holliday for a short time in 1958.

Jerry Hev'n, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hev'n of Huntington Lane, Valley Farms, will leave Friday for Ft. Hood for a six weeks ROTC training camp. Jerry is a graduate of IPHS and a junior at Midwestern university.

Mrs. Wallace Beasley and Miss Barbara Beasley of College Station spent last week in Iowa Park visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. T. C. Burnam returned to Amarillo, Sunday morning after a two weeks visit here with her children.

The Evening Lions club will hold the regular meeting next Tuesday at 6:00 in the Christian church. At that time installation of officers will be conducted.

A Civil Defense program was presented at the meeting last week, with Miles Thompson, local civil defense chairman, in charge.

Bridal Shower

Mrs. Gary Harris was honored with a bridal shower Thursday evening, June 12, in the parlor of the First Baptist church. Hostesses were Meses Bertha McTear, Billy Solomon, Jeff Lindley, Everett Stephenson, Debra Craft, D. O. James, Taylor George, W. E. Karstetter, Virginia McManus, Cari Walsh.

Mrs. Solomon presided at the bridesbook. Mrs. Lindley and Mrs. McDonald presided at the crystal punch and cake services.

Guests called during the party hours from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

AN ARAB SEES JESUS

Dr. Van Ess, the great Christian missionary to Iraq, tells of a sermon preached by one of his friends to a group of simple Arabs. The subject was "What Jesus Is Like." As he preached and described the Man from Nazareth, one of the Arabs brightened and exclaimed, "Oh, I have met him!"

The missionary frowned and explained to them that Jesus lived 1900 years ago. It would be impossible for anyone to meet him now.

"Oh, no," the native insisted, "I have met him!" And upon further discussion, it turned out that a Swedish doctor who lived and healed and worked among a tribe some distance away so fitted the missionary's description of Jesus as to rouse that quiver of recognition in the Arab.

Let me assure you that Christ does live in his followers. How is he recognized? By the same characteristics being seen in us that were seen in him—the same attitudes, the same emotions, the same service, the same love.

Now what was he like? We are told that he was sympathetic, full of pity and closely touched by the needs of those about him. We sing "More about Jesus." I suggest that we need to sing "More like Jesus." For the very word "Christian" means Christ-like.

for cataracts. As she started away, she bowed low and said, "Good-by, God."

The doctor hastily explained that he was not God. He was only a poor, weak servant of God. But she would not have it and as she went down the road she turned every few steps and waved, gratefully shouting, "Good-by, God, good-by, God."

The Bible tells us that God was in Christ. That means that God is in us when Christ lives there. And a genuine Christian can shout with Paul, the greatest apostle, "Christ liveth in me!"

So Jesus still moves in our world today. He moves, speaks, works and is seen and felt every time one of us acts and lives in a Christ-like way. But the genuine essence of this Christ-likeness comes from within. It is very wearisome to try to be like Christ, whether from a moral or ethical outward compulsion. The stimulus must come from within. And it can only come from within when Christ himself lives inside.

I believe in a personal knowledge and experience of receiving Christ. Just how it happens or when it happens is not always easily defined or explained. But the essential thing is that Christ must be invited and when he is invited he always enters.

The greatest miracle on this earth is for Christ to live again in the lives of his followers. This is what is known as a "saint"—one in whom Christ is felt and seen to live again.

Pit Stops

BY Johnny Boyd

VETERAN INDIANAPOLIS DRIVER

Indianapolis Motor Speedway, May 30th... The weather was perfect, and we were ready to go. A few moments before 11 o'clock, Tony Hulman gave the famous signal "Gentlemen Start Your Engines."

I was pushed out of my pit and took my place in the middle of the third row, with Jimmy Bryan on my left and Tony Bettenhausen on my right. There was a mix-up as we came down the front straightaway, and I could see the three cars that should have been in the front row were nowhere in sight. After taking an extra lap, the front row moved into place and the starter, Bill Vanderwater, gave the green flag. The race was on. (The start appeared fine to me and in no way had anything to do with the wreck that occurred in the northeast turn.)

TROUBLE AHEAD
 We were all in a tight bunch. I was running between Jimmy Bryan and Tony Bettenhausen with my nose just behind the tail of Bob Veith in the Bowes team car. As I passed the cross (normal shut-off point) I backed off to get into the corner in good shape. Suddenly I saw cars starting to spin, so I turned at once onto the grass infield to avoid the tangle. I didn't have the slightest idea what was going on. Driving a race car through grass at 130 mph, you have your hands full, and there's no time to look around. After sliding sideways I regained full control and got back on the track. I crossed the starting line in 4th.

We continued to circle the track at idling speed until the wreckage was cleared. Bob Veith had been involved but I saw him drive into the pits under his own power, so he was alright. We continued to circle the track and I tried to keep my mind on the race ahead.

It wasn't until the race was over that I learned Pat O'Connor, a great race driver and a true credit to the sport, hadn't made it through the mix-up.

IN THE LEAD
 On the 17th lap, the green flag was out again. Bryan was in front with Tony Bettenhausen, and Eddie Sachs close on his heels. A few laps later George Amick got by me and joined Sachs and Bettenhausen. Jim Rathmann and Rodger Ward also got by. I was now 7th.

I didn't feel "racy" those first few laps, but I finally got going and picked up the front runners. I had moved into second when I was forced into the pits for my first stop. Back on the track again, I was running fourth and within sight of the leaders. The pace had picked up. We were now running laps of 141 mph or better. On the 104th lap, Bryan went into the pits.

Two laps later I passed Bettenhausen and was leading the "500" for the first time. I had looked forward to this for a long time. Now I was there. The car was working real good and I felt we were in a position to win it.

On the 126th lap, I went into the pits again for tires and fuel. Quick work by my fine crew put me back into the race in 31 seconds. I was in 2nd a lap behind Bryan.

Shortly, Jim made his third pit stop. When he reentered he was about 40 seconds in front. As I flashed by the pits, I saw the board marked "GO-GO" and I tried to close the gap between Jim and myself. Soon I found myself running wheel to wheel with him. Jim is a master. Three times National Champion, he knows all the tricks of the trade. As I moved high to go around, he would close the "gate" coming off the turn. The same when I tried to come off low. (This is the way to do it and Jim was doing it well.)

All at once when I went high coming off, Amick moved underneath and by me. George was third and a lap behind. We ran that way for quite a few laps. Then it happened. The right rear tire started to go and I had to make my third pit stop. Into the pits on the 178th lap for a right rear. I returned still second, but a lap behind Bryan.

A GOOD FINISH
 The car didn't respond after the third pit stop. The only thing to do was hang on and hope to stay in front of Amick. Suddenly a new problem; the right front tire began to show wear. My big worry now was to nurse it through to the finish. Those last few laps seemed like days. Then Amick was around me and I was 3rd. I managed to hang on and received the checkered flag with a 3rd place for my fourth attempt at the charmed circle at Indy.

From the money standpoint we had the best pay-day since I've been racing: $24,999. I was real happy with a third after making that first lap OK. Next, it's the 100 mile on June 8th in Milwaukee and a chance to earn more points toward the National Title.

Harvest Finished

Practically all of the wheat cutting is finished in this area. The combines have moved on to the west and north.

Most farmers report the yield was about like last year. It seems most people thought the wheat harvest was going to be above average, but due to so much rain and then hail, it averaged 15 to 20 bushels an acre. The weight was approximately 57 lbs.

The Farmers Co-op received 125,000 bushels and E. C. Holder Grain company received 30,000.

Both places expressed thanks to their customers and hope to serve them better next year.

C-W-F LUNCHEON AND SHOWER

Centennial of First U. S. Trade Treaty with Japan

Library of Congress

FIRST U. S. ENVOY TO JAPAN: Townsend Harris, shown here in a rare portrait attributed to famous Civil War photographer Matthew Brady. In 1858, five years after Commodore Perry's black ships sailed into Tokyo Bay, Harris negotiated the first treaty of amity and commerce with Japan.

The 100th anniversary of this treaty is being commemorated by the Japan-America Society of Washington, D. C., and the United States-Japan Trade Council in collaboration with World Trade Week, May 18-24, as proclaimed by President Eisenhower.

A film "The Barbarian and the Geisha" has recently been completed starring John Wayne and directed by John Huston. It is based on a fictionalized version of Harris' mission to Japan.
