There are many advantages of living in a small community such as lowa Park, but you may not have considered this one. For 365 days out of the year, you and hover family are eligible to receive free blood if you need it, just because you are an Iowa Park but feeled for the Red Cross bloodmobile white makes four stops a year here to receive blood from volunteer do mors.

Blood received at the Christian church is credited in a blood band for our community. Then whenever a member of our community. Then whenever a member of our community meeds blood it is there as long as the supply lasts. This is the problem. As with any bank, you can't have not an ablance of blood or our account and surface the part of the defendant were married and offendant.

For vears, thanks to efforts of lowa Park Jaycese we have had a balance of blood or our account. Now, because oun number of volunteers has decreased sharply the past two vears, we are running into a deficit.
