Section 1. That Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding a new Section 50b-1 to read as follows:

Constitution and the laws enacted pursuant thereto.

"(c) The said bonds shall be general obligations of the state and shall be payable in the same manner and from the same sources as bonds herefollows:

a new Section 50b-1 to read as follows:

"Section 50b-1. (a) The Legislature may provide that the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors, shall have authority to provide for, issue and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) in addition to those heretofore authorized to be issued pursuant to Section 50b of the Constitution. The bonds authorized herein shall be executed on the same sources as bonds heretofore authorized pursuant to Section 50b.

"(d) All bonds issued hereunder shall, after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under this Constitution.

"(e) Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment such acts shall not be void because of their antici-

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit:
After alleging jurisdiction, Plaintiff further alleges that she and Defendant were married on or about November 1, 1968, Subsequent to such date of marriage on or about the 3rd day of January 1969, she having entered into such marriage relationship in good faith, Plaintiff discovered and determined that at such time she was egally incapable to validly contract for such marriage by reason of a prior marriage to one George

Your Plaintiff was advised that and believed that she was legally divorced from the said George Lambert and thereafter attempted to enter into a marriage contract. Plaintiff says that said previous marriage constituted an impedi-ment that render's Plaintiff's and Defendant's contract of marriage void under Article 4628 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State

Plaintiff prays that Defendant be cited to appear and answer this petition that on final hearing the Plaintiff's and Defendant's said marriage be declared null and void and of no force and effect and for such other relief, in law and in equity, to which Plaintiff may show herself justly entitled, as is If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of issuance, it shall be returned.
