STAR ★ DUST

BY NORMAN FISHER

HIGH-SCORING Paula Corn will take her last fling at high school basketball next Saturday night when she takes the court as a member of the north squad in the state all-star game.

The girls all-star game will be one of the highlights of the annual coaching school, which will be held in Waco.

Besides members of the Baird coaching staff, several residents are planning to attend the game.

LOOKING FOR A little companionship these hot days?

Rea Corn of 236 Girard has the perfect answer — three young puppies she would like to give away.

Although their ancestry is a bit uncertain, there's no doubt that one of the pups would make a fine pet. They may be seen at the Corn home.

WE NOTICE BY the papers that many of our neighboring towns had highly successful July 4th celebrations.

Perhaps someday Baird, which is generally considered to be strong on patriotism because of its active veterans groups, can find a way to observe the day in style.

Perhaps one of those veterans groups would make an excellent sponsor.

THE EDITOR of the Minonk, Ill. News-Dispatch swears that he actually received the following letter from an irate woman reader.

"Every time I send you a writeup about our Missionary Society meeting you get it all balled up so it doesn't make sense," she began. "Time and time again I've sent in corrections, but you get them mixed up, too.

"So I give up. In the future when I send you our Missionary Society writeup, please don't print it."

Sometimes you just can't win.

IT HAS BEEN A LONG trail, but a group of Baird boys will be in the homestretch next week at San Antonio. That's when members of the local FFA talent team shoot for state honors and a trip to the national convention.

Ever since they organized last January, the team has had the avowed goal of getting to compete in the state talent finals. They have come through the preliminary contests with flying colors (although not without a close call).

They carry our best wishes with them to San Antonio.

AND SPEAKING of long trails, another one will end this week when the Baird Little League winds up regular-season play. All that is left of the LL season is tournament action for members of the all-star team, which was announced this Thursday night.

WE HAVE AN EVEN dozen names on our list as having birthdays next week.

They are Ronnie Elliott, July 12; Hal Miller and Mrs. Cordie Brame, July 13; Sidney Ray Herring, July 14; Kathy Reeves, July 15; Ben Killingsworth, Carolyn Cotton and Thelma Shelton, July 16; Donna Kaye Allen and Joaquin Abernathy, July 17; and Mrs. Clint McKinley and L. T. Smith, July 18.

Eddie Curtis returned home Monday from Gunnison, Colo., where he visited his mother, Mrs. Nita Curtis.

Talent Team To Compete in State FFA Contest at San Antonio

Members of Baird FFA Chapter's talent team, which began aiming at being named best in Texas last January, will be among some 20 Baird FFA members who will attend the state FFA convention in San Antonio July 15-17. Competition among area representatives is scheduled for the night of July 15 in San Antonio's municipal auditorium.

Winner of the state contest will represent Texas at the national FFA convention next October in Kansas City, Mo.

The Baird group will leave at 2 p.m. Tuesday, and will stay at El Tropicana Motel while in the Alamo City.

Members of the talent team are Pat Saddler, fiddle; Billy Seelig, bass guitar and fiddle; Bill Moore, electric guitar and vocalist; B. P. Stephenson, electric guitar; Lloyd Ray Hughes, lead electric guitar; Billy Bolinger, drums; and Hal Miller, banjo.

In addition to being a contestant with the talent team, Stephenson will receive the Lone Star Farmer award at the annual banquet July 16.

Accompanying the group will be Dick Vestal, Baird vocational agriculture instructor.

Sheriff's Posse Rides To Rodeo at Coleman

Some 30 members of the Callahan County Sheriff's Posse made the organization's annual trail ride to the Coleman rodeo this week.

The riders left Baird early Wednesday and camped near Jim Ned Creek Wednesday night. They finished the ride Thursday in time for the parade opening rodeo activities.

The posse was also to participate in the rodeo grand entry Thursday night.

Two Ventures Set for County

N. M. Dillard, Cross Plains will drill a shallow wildcat to be carried in the regular field of Callahan County.

No. 1 W. L. Cutbirth Sr., located four miles east of Denton Valley, spots 1,100 feet from south and 750 feet from east lines of Section 14, Block 3, T&P Survey. Site is on a 240-acre lease.

Operator will test the Cook, drilling to 1,600 feet with rotary.

K. B. Riffe, Cisco has filed application to drill No. 14 G. S. Pruet in the regular field of Callahan County.

Located three miles north of Putnam, the venture is spotted 150 feet from south and 1,470 feet from east lines of Section 2296, TE&L Survey. It is on a 320-acre lease.

Permit depth is 1,000 feet with rotary.

Three Producers Are Completed In Callahan County Oil Field

Three producers have been completed in Callahan County. A wildcat six miles northeast of Clyde was prorated in Callahan County Regular Field. The oiler is O. W. Fauntleroy of Wichita Falls, No. 1-A H. W. Ross, located 990 feet from the north and east lines of Section 86, BBB&C Survey.

Daily potential was 20 barrels of 38 gravity oil, pumping from 12 perforations at 1,591-95 feet in an unidentified pay. The 4½ inch casing is set at 1,745 feet and the hole bottomed at 3,183 feet.

Sojourner Drilling Corp., Abilene, completed No. 1-A Mabel Kennard. Location is 7½ miles north of Clyde in the regular field, 2,310 feet from the south and 330 feet from the east lines of Section 94, Block 13, T&P Survey.

It is the second upper Tannehill Sand well to be completed in the area.

BASEBALLERS GRAB 2 MORE LOOP VICTORIES

Combining the big inning with tight pitching, Baird's teenage baseball team continued its unbeaten ways in district action Tuesday night by lacing Clyde, 7-2.

The Baird-Ranger game, scheduled for this Thursday, has been postponed indefinitely.

The victory by Baird broke an eight-game win streak for the Clyde Hawks, who were riding high after a slow start in the season's early days.

Earlier this season Baird thrashed Clyde by 15-0.

Richard Windham spun a four-hitter at Clyde, whiffing 16 and walking two. He kept the Clyde hits scattered, with no more than one coming in any inning.

Danny Blanks was the loser, fanning seven and also walking two. He allowed nine Baird hits.

Bruce Bell and Don Price led Baird at the plate, collecting two bingles each. Richie Crow scored twice to lead his team in that department.

Baird's big inning was the second when the game was iced away with five runs. Joining the hit parade in that frame were Stanley McGowen, Kelton Jones, Bruce Bell and Windham.

Along with the four safeties came a walk to Maxie Gordon, a sacrifice by Tommy Barton and a throwing error which allowed Crow to get on base.

Gordon, McGowen, Jones, Crow and Bell scored runs.

Baird's other two runs crossed in the fourth when singles by Price and Crow were followed by a two-bagger off Bell's bat.

The winners didn't get a runner past second base after that. Clyde scored a pair in the fourth when Blanks walked and Ralston Doubled, then scored on a wild pitch. Despite the up-rising, Windham registered three strikeouts in that inning.

Clyde had runners on base in all but the fifth frame.

Against Gorman last Thursday, Baird romped to an 8-0 victory. Windham was again the winning pitcher and led his team at the plate with three hits in as many tries. Bell added a pair of hits.

Gorman got just two hits for the night as Windham fanned 11. In all, Baird had 10 hits.

Helped by Gorman errors and singles by Windham and Harris, Baird broke the scoring ice in the fourth with two runs. The other six crossed the plate in the sixth.

Highlighting Baird's sixth were singles by McGowen, Bell and Jones and a double by Windham. Eleven Baird batsmen got to the plate during that frame.

Grasshoppers Out-Eat Cattle

Every year, grasshoppers destroy crops in some parts of the state. During severe outbreaks, the losses run into millions of dollars. It has been estimated that six or seven grasshoppers per square yard on 10 acre can consume grass at about the same rate as a cow.

Grasshoppers are not easy to control especially when they migrate into crops, gardens, and lawns from rangeland which is adjoining these areas.

Grasshoppers may be controlled, however, with any one of the following insecticides — Dieldrin, Aldrin, Toxaphene, Heptachlor, other insecticides may be used but control may not be as good.

There are restrictions on these insecticides when spraying pastures on which animals are used for milk and/or being finished for slaughter.

For further information on controlling grasshoppers read — Extension bulletins MP-339, MP-675, or L-199 or contact your county agent. These bulletins are available at the County Extension Office.

Church of Christ Plan for Meeting

Baylor University's Armstrong Browning Library Rates Visit

In these days of speed and super-highways skirting cities and towns, one is apt to bypass some of the most interesting and worthwhile attractions our state has to offer.

Take Waco, for instance. Known in pioneer days as "The Athens of Texas," the city has long been famous for its education, cultural, and religious influence. Its citizens are proud of its public schools, Baylor University and other education institutions, and its more than 100 churches of every denomination.

Motorists heading for Waco have a wide choice of fine roads including U.S. 77, 81 and 84, Interstate 35, and State Highway 6.

Baylor University is the oldest institution of higher learning in Texas, having been founded in 1845. Its Little Theatre present outstanding productions throughout the year in a special "theatre-in-the-round."

The outstanding cultural attraction of Waco is the world-renowned Armstrong Browning Library on the campus of Baylor University. There is housed the world's largest collection of the works of British author-poet, Robert Browning, and his wife, Elizabeth Barrett. Dr. A. J. Armstrong, who was chairman of the English department at Baylor for 40 years, was responsible for gathering this collection of Browning mementos.

Gradually conceived and painstakingly planned, the present Armstrong Library Building, costing over one and a half million dollars, was dedicated on Dec. 3, 1951.

The library contains more than 1,000 original letters and other manuscripts written by and to Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett Browning, as well as books, paintings, furniture, and the famous cast of the clasped hands of the two poets by Harriet Hosmer.

Mrs. Myrtle Avey caught a 16 pound catfish today. I think that if I should catch a fish that big I might just fall over I would be so excited. I sure would like to catch one half that big.

Burette Ramsey really had bad luck today, several of his dairy cows broke into a sudan patch about eleven o'clock, three of them died, they were his good Holsteins. He was lucky in a way that more didn't die. Bud Flemming from Putnam came out to help. Burette called a veterinary from Breckenridge who came, I hope they don't get into the field anymore. A person can't stand to lose too many $300 cows.

Good morning this Tuesday morning. We have a nice breeze blowing, guess it will get hot up in the morning.

I see John and Roma McIntyre out feeding the grasshoppers. Wish it would come a good rain and wash the blessed little things into the gulf and let the sharks eat them. But doubt if they would go, for I think they like Callahan county too well.

Think John and Roma McIntyre are going to Abilene Auction Sale today. The Fourth of July was kinda quiet out here. Think some of Mr. Roggensteins people were here. They and the Joe Hurleys had a picnic over at the Gus Brandon tank on the highway, which is a very nice place to go for an outing. Be good and I hope to see you next week.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Dear Editor:
 You sure are putting out a good Baird Star these days. The story on Sand Hill's was good, you know I have lived here five years and have never been over there — after reading that I sure am going.

I'd like to see a recipe or two with old timers names under them also old prints published of early day Baird. They will let you have them to print but you just try to get one from those old timers.

I was born in Baird, south of town, so I know I am interested in historical things about Baird. Must be sure to get Mr. Chrisman's book.

Mrs. Oscar Black is my sister, she sends me the Baird Star. Keep those good old Baird Star's coming.

Five Selected To Attend Youth Meet in Austin

State Attorney General Waggoner Carr has designated five Callahan County students as delegates to the second annual Attorney General's Youth Conference to be held in the State Capitol July 10-12.

They are Mark William Swope, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Swope Jr. and Dona Francis Favor, daughter of Mr. Houston Favor, both of Clyde; Charley Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Cunningham of Putnam; Sue Carolyn Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Howard of Baird; and Freddy Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Johnston of Cross Plains.

Over 1600 delegates from 254 Texas counties will join in seminars to hear and develop ideas for combatting juvenile crime. Included will be juvenile jury operation, teenage sparetime and recreation ideas, a special drop-out seminar sponsored by Texas Future Homemakers and various other seminar topics. Delegates are encouraged to return to their respective communities and implement some of the ideas learned at the conference.

The conference has become an annual meeting sponsored by the Attorney General's Office and is the only program of its kind in America because of its strong youth oriented approach and its dependence on local civic clubs and other private organizations for sponsorship of Delegates.

B. P. Stephenson of Baird has been invited to attend as a counselor.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Chatham on the 4 of July weekend were all their children and their families: Mr. and Mrs. Russell Chatham and Kim of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Chatham of Cotton Center; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bailey of Levelland; Mr. and Mrs. Reed Francisco, Jimmy and Dixie of Kimbrell, Neb; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Patterson and Connie of Garland and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hodson of Baird.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Spivey and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Pylant went to New Orleans over the weekend of July 4th.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights
by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — local governments in Texas may be the main beneficiaries if state government winds up the current fiscal period with an $80,000,000 surplus as Gov. John Connally predicts it might.

Should such a surplus be reached, Connally told reporters, it is "fairly" certain he will recommend abolishing the ad valorem tax on property for state revenue purposes and leaving that source exclusively to local governments.

Connally said $20,000,000 of the expected surplus could be set aside in a special fund to retire college building bonds backed by ad valorem tax contributions.

In predicting that the surplus will not be less than $35,000,000 and probably will reach the $80,000,000 figure, the Governor joined those who have contended all along that the general fund will be so far in the black by 1965 that new tax problems will be eased if not erased.

Connally also said he contemplates submitting to the legislature in stages the recommendations of his Committee on Education Beyond the High School.

He still plans to call a conference on morals and ethics but said he has not picked a time. However, he declined to say whether he would recommend fair employment and public accommodations legislation in order to maintain some state jurisdiction over civil rights under the new federal law.

ILLITERACY FIGHT STEPPED UP — A quiet campaign is under way to mobilize South Texas community facilities to combat an illiteracy problem which results in wasted lives and a damaged economy.

Fausto Toscano, an assistant to Governor Connally, is in South Texas determining what can be done at the local level to help stamp out the blight of illiteracy.

Toscano, has visited seven South Texas counties attempting to establish local literacy centers to teach adults to read and write. He reports that in most counties in Southwest Texas illiteracy is far above the national average, and runs over 20 per cent in some counties.

Texas Education Agency is engaged in the most intensive study of the problem ever undertaken in the state and the director of that study says the problem can be substantially solved in a few years by a concerted state-local effort.

CAPITOL HOSPITALITY — Texas Highway Department now has a team of travel information officers in the rotunda of the State Capitol. They are stationed in an illuminated tourism booth.

This information team has the task of acquainting the thousands of visitors to the Capitol with the State's other tourist attractions.

NEW MANSION ASKED — Should Texas build a brand new $500,000 governor's mansion? That is a subject of debate in the capital city.

Building Commission Director H. R. Nieman Jr. has recommended a new structure to replace the 108-year-old mansion. Budget Director Bill Cobb also has testified in favor of the proposal.

Connally, a member of the Building Commission, supports the new mansion plan. But whether he will throw his full backing behind it depends on the state's financial condition when the Legislature convenes in January.

Outdoors In Texas

BY VERN SANFORD

Game calling is one of the most thrilling of all hunting sports.

Probably the most fascinating time to call nature's killers is at night. Foxes, coyotes and bobcats have a way of coming 'a-runnin' in the darkness that makes the sport one of fast action and excitement.

Although predators can be called through out the day and night, they are more susceptible after nightfall since, by nature, they are nocturnal prowlers and are out under the protection of darkness to seek food. The dying-rabbit squeals of a predator call lures them into believing that a quick and easy meal beckons at the source of the squalling. When a predator decides to answer the call, he comes quickly, and he means business.

Anyone can learned to call predators with a minimum of practice at home. Commercial calls available at any sporting goods store put the sport within the realm of anyone's ability.

Basically, there are two types of predator calls. One simulates the cries of a rabbit in distress; the other imitates the shrilling cry of a crippled bird.

On most predators the former works best. But sometimes the latter is more effective. The wounded-bird call is more appealing to raccoons.

Coons are perhaps the easiest of all animals to call right in close. They waddle in and offer a large target to the rifleman or bowman.

Foxes and coyotes rush right in quickly, but they move around a lot and sometimes are difficult to hit.

A bobcat slinks in, using every bit of available cover to hide its stalk. Cover and natural camouflage make it difficult to pinpoint an incoming cat in sunlight. But at night the cat's eyes readily glow in the beam of a headlight.

TECUMSEH TOPICS

BY LILLIAN CRAWFORD

Well, the 4th of July was a hot one. I don't know who went and where for the extremely hot dry weather makes one feel more like staying at home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Harris came and ate the noon meal with Ira, Lillian and Lynda Crawford the 4th.

In the afternoon we got the crank type freezer out, mixed up a gallon of ice cream to freeze. Don't think would have ever got it froze had we not have had an air conditioner to sit by.

Lynda Crawford was a guest at Howard Payne College Wednesday until Friday of last week.

She reported that it was a most enjoyable visit and met a lot of friendly folks while there.

Lillian Crawford met her at Cross Plains and we visited Dale Crawford and family there.

The nice part was that Debbie Crawford was celebrating her 7th birthday a day early because her birthday is really on the 4th.

Larry Magill of Coolidge, Ariz. is visiting Joe and Kay Crawford in Abilene. Larry and Joe were out this way bright and early the 4th, fishing and shooting frogs.

Don't see why some one doesn't want these hungry grasshoppers. They are stripping the fruit trees of the green fruit.
