

THE CANAL COMMISSION

Report Submitted to Congress Favors Nicaragua Route.

REASONS FOR PREFERENCE

Panama Route Has Many Points of Advantage, But the Other Is Declared More Feasible.

By Associated Press. Washington, Dec. 4.—The report of the Isthmian canal commission sent to congress today favors the Nicaragua route and makes an estimate of $189,864,062 as the total cost of construction of the canal through Nicaragua.

States should acquire control of a strip of territory ten miles wide from sea to sea through which to build the canal. The consent of Nicaragua and Costa Rica must be obtained to construct the canal, but the report says this can easily be secured. The concessions granted by the Colombian government to the Panama Canal company have many years to run and new concessions cannot be granted the United States.

The report says the Panama route is feasible as a sea level canal, while the Nicaragua route must be by locks, but Lake Nicaragua will furnish an inexhaustible supply of water for the canal. The Nicaragua route has no natural harbors at either end, but satisfactory harbors may be constructed. Harbors already exist at each end of the Panama route, but considerable work must be done at the entrance of the harbor on the Atlantic side.

The report concludes: "After considering all the facts developed by the investigations made by the commission, the actual situation as it now stands, and having in view the terms offered by the new Panama Canal company, this commission is of the opinion that the most practicable and feasible route for an Isthmian canal, to be under the control, management and ownership of the United States, is that known as the Nicaragua route."

With adequate force and plant the commission estimate that the Nicaragua canal can be completed in six years, exclusive of two years for preparation. Ten years is estimated as necessary to complete the Panama.

George S. Morrison, a member of the commission, submits a minority report favoring the Panama route. He says the estimates for the Nicaragua route do not make sufficient provisions for unknown conditions and contingencies. No consideration, he says, has been given to accidental interruption of traffic by Nicaragua which he thinks would not be so likely to occur at Panama. He believes that better conditions and terms can be arranged through the acquisition of the Panama canal company's rights than by any negotiations with Nicaragua and Costa Rica.

The total length of the Nicaragua route is 183.66 miles and the Panama route 49.09 miles. The estimated cost of operating and maintaining the Nicaragua canal annually is $1,350,000 greater than that of the Panama canal.

The Panama route has advantages over the Nicaragua route in cost of construction, in cost of operation and in convenience when done, while its use is less likely to lead to local international complications. If the United States government is to build an Isthmian canal, the Panama route is best."

The estimated cost of the Panama route is $144,233,358, but the report says, it would cost $109,141,000 to obtain the Panama concession.

The Nicaragua route is said to be better for the sailing vessels on account of favoring winds. Hygienic conditions also favor Nicaragua. The commission says the United States should acquire control of a strip of territory ten miles wide from sea to sea through which to build the canal.

NEWS NOTES FROM DENVER

Death of Charles H. Toll--Agricultural College Wants Control of Its Land.

Denver Bureau Colorado Springs Gazette Denver, Dec. 4.—Charles H. Toll, one of Denver's most widely known attorneys and one of the most beloved men of the state, died at his home in the Colorado National Bank building at 11 o'clock this morning. The cause of his death was apoplexy. Mr. Toll had just returned from Telluride, where he had gone on business, and was in the act of pulling up one of his gloves when his law partner, Judge David V. Burns, entered and passed the time of day with him. Mr. Toll had barely spoken the return salutation when he was seen to pitch forward. Wilding hands picked him up, but life was extinct. Physicians were hastily summoned and Dr. W. W. Grant who arrived first pronounced the cause of the death apoplexy. He leaves a widow and four children. Funeral services will be held at the house Friday afternoon, after which the body will be taken east for burial.

Charles H. Toll was born at Baldwinville, N. Y., April 25, 1850. He first attended the Baldwinville academy and then the Monroe Collegiate Institute at Elbridge, N. Y., and in 1872, graduated from the Hamilton college of the same state. He was admitted to the bar in Syracuse after having studied law with Senator Hitchcock. He came to Colorado in 1875, locating at Del Norte. One year later he was elected county judge of Rio Grande county and two years later, was elected to the house of representatives from the same county. During that session he was one of the most active members in the house and supported N. P. Hill for United States senator. In 1879 he received the appointment of assistant United States attorney for Colorado, and one year later was elected attorney general for the state. Many important legal questions arose during his term of office, one of them being the title to the land now occupied by the state capitol building. During his term as attorney general, he removed his family to Denver, at which place he has since resided. In 1880 he married Catherine Wolcott of Cleveland, O., a sister of Senator and Henry B. Wolcott of this state. During his residence in Denver he has by close application built up an enormous law practice, chiefly among corporations, mining and irrigation men. He has always been intimately connected with the industrial institutions of the state, and at the time of his death possessed many pieces of desirable property. Mr. Toll was twice honored with the presidency of the University club of this city and he is a member of the Denver club.

As announced in this morning's Gazette, Attorney General Post today filed scire facias papers in the supreme court, asking that body to compel the attorneys for the corporations to appear or to show cause why they should not appear for a final hearing in the revenue case, on the second Monday in January.

Game Commissioner Harris will in the next few days begin his campaign against a large number of the grocers in the state who are importing wild fowls into the state without an importation certificate. The game commission says that the law specifies that a certificate of importation shall be taken out with every lot of fowls shipped to Colorado and he charges that a number of the stores have only taken out one certificate and that the goods have been smuggled into the state and placed in cold storage and added to the original certificate memorandum. The suits will be started in a few days.

As forecasted in this morning's Gazette, Police Magistrate Thomas is going to take a vacation and Justice of the Peace A. G. Rice will act in his stead during his absence. The vacation of Mr. Thomas will doubtless extend until his trial for attempting to bribe a juror is over. The law in Colorado with regard to police magistrates gives the county commissioners power to fill all vacancies caused by resignation or dismissal, but in case the magistrate wishes to take a vacation, the mayor of the city must appoint some justice of the peace of the same township to act during the vacation. Mr. Thomas announced that he wished a vacation and Mayor Wright was compelled to appoint a justice of the peace. Therefore, he appointed Rice. All of the justices of the peace subject to the appointment are Democrats.

It is said that Young Corbett will on Christmas day marry Miss Maude Slater, of 2242 Clarkson street. Miss Slater is known as the champion croquet player of Colorado. They will celebrate their marriage by giving a banquet to the 1,000 newboys in Denver.

The county commissioners of Arapahoe county today addressed the following letter to Mayor Wright and the city council:

"We are advised that the time for legally fixing the city levy has expired and that a change now would give the corporations and heavy individual taxpayers an opportunity to test the validity of the entire levy. For this reason the levy must stand as it is, 7.65-100 mills for all purposes.

"Further than this, the county assessors' information will be practically impossible to make a change on his books now of the extent the city desires. It would necessitate a great deal of work and produce a number of complications, which could not be overcome, and the tax rolls would not be ready by the time fixed by statute—January 1."

This will put an end to the levying of the one mill extra levy which the mayor and council had hoped to make in order to furnish the city with better fire and police protection. Under the circumstances, it is very doubtful if any better protection can be afforded.

Max Rogers who has been on trial in the criminal court charged with an assault to kill Jack Rice at Overland Park last summer, was this evening acquitted. Self defense was his claim. The Association of Colorado Pioneers will give its Eleventh annual reception on Friday evening, December 15, at Kessler's hall on Broadway.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway. Many people unacquainted with the geography of the west imagine that because the names "Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul" are used in the corporate title of the railway owning the Short Line between Chicago and Omaha, they must go via the cities of Milwaukee and St. Paul to reach their destination—and if it be Omaha or west thereof, this is a mistaken idea. On a map the line running directly east and west would look like this: Omaha—Chicago. There is nothing more simple than that, and it is less than 500 miles between Chicago and Omaha. Two through trains daily in each direction with the best sleeping car and dining car service, and all regular travelers know and appreciate the merits of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway's Short Line between the east and west. A PUBLIC BENEFACTOR.

WHATEVER the natural resources and advantages of a place may be, and whatever opportunities may come to it in the course of its existence, they are utterly valueless and useless unless the town or city possesses men of ability, enterprise, resources and public spirit.

Colorado Springs is especially fortunate in its citizens of this kind, and to them more than anything else is due the rapid advancement that we have made and are still making.

There are a great many men in this city who are doing all that is in their power to build up the city and to promote its interests in every possible way. The results of their labors, thoughts and investments are daily manifest, and these evidences are among the surest proofs that the future of this city is going to be great according to our hopes and anticipations.

There is, however, a difference between the resources and the abilities with which men may serve the community in which they are interested and to which they are giving their earnest thoughts and endeavors. Some men are able to do more, others less.

It is fitting that when a man is able to do a great deal for the city and does it in a spirit of broad generosity and carefully considerate sagacity, looking for the permanent improvement and building up of the city along the lines that are most conducive to its welfare, he should receive from his fellow citizens and from the public press due appreciation and testimony of the services which he has rendered, and the estimation in which these are held.

Such a man in Colorado Springs is W. S. Stratton.

Without reverting to any other of the numerous instances in which Mr. Stratton's investments have been of particular benefit to Colorado Springs, at the present time he is engaged in carrying forward two which are of supreme importance to the city. One of these is the construction of the largest, most expensive and architecturally the most beautiful building that has so far been erected in this city. The new Mining Exchange is something more than a mere business block. It is an indication of the future of this city which is of the highest value, and it is an imperishable monument of the spirit in which Colorado Springs is regarded by its builder. From the lowest foundation of the basement to the topmost stone of the structure there is evidence throughout of thorough attention to details, and a determination to have it of the best in every particular. Such a building would be an honor and a credit to any city.

What makes this building even more important in the business life of the city is that it is devoted to that business which more than anything else is responsible for our growth and prosperity in the past, and which at the present time forms one of our most important resources and promises for the future. With the position that Colorado Springs has already secured, there ought to be no doubt about its becoming the center of the mining investment business of Colorado and the surrounding regions. No one thing in addition to what we have already can accomplish this more surely than the identification of the exchange with a permanent structure in keeping with its financial solidity and permanency. The new Mining Exchange building will be of unquestionable value to the Colorado Springs Mining Stock association, and in serving the interests of that association, it will be of the greatest importance to the general welfare of the city.

The other enterprise in which Mr. Stratton is now engaged is in the construction of a complete electric transit system for the city and its suburbs. This project is one of vital importance to the city's welfare and its future growth. No one who is acquainted with Mr. Stratton's way of doing things has any doubt that the system when completed will be as thoroughly well built and equipped in its way as the Mining Exchange building is in its own.

It is, therefore, fitting under the circumstances that upon the completion of the Mining Exchange building, the mining brokers, the real estate men, the capitalists and in general the business men of the city should unite either by a public banquet or some other suitable testimonial to show their appreciation of what Mr. Stratton has done and is doing for the welfare of Colorado Springs. In doing this they will represent public sentiment.

IRRIGATION PRELIMINARIES.

THE secretary of agriculture in his annual reports sums up his conclusions in regard to the irrigation of the arid lands of the west in these words:

"During the past summer and preceding summers I have given much time to a personal investigation and study of the land and water problems of the west, and have reached the following conclusions regarding them:

"1. That private enterprise will have to be supplemented by public aid in the construction of certain classes of irrigation works if we are to secure the largest development of western agriculture.

"2. That reservoirs located in the channels of running streams should be public works.

"3. That the first step toward national aid for irrigation should be the passage of enlightened codes of water laws by the states to be benefited.

"4. That the land laws should be modified by repealing the Desert Act and by requiring cultivation as well as residence on a homestead.

"5. That the nonirrigable grazing lands should be leased in small tracts so as to unite the irrigable and the pasture lands."

These conclusions are doubtless the result of careful study and thought and they are entitled to consideration.

Fortunately Colorado is one of the states where water laws have been passed suitable to arid land conditions, but other states are not so well advanced. There is need for action that would result in the establishment of similar laws throughout all the arid land states.

ACTION AGAINST ANARCHISTS.

IT SEEMS EVIDENT in the opening days of the congressional session that some action will be taken against the anarchists. The shocking death of President McKinley has caused particular attention to the matter and has shown the utter inadequacy of any punishment that can be inflicted after the crime has been committed. The only proper course is in prevention, and for this the present laws are insufficient.

It is felt by the great majority of reasonable people that the man who is opposed to all governments and who advocates the indiscriminate assassination of all rulers is an outlaw who has no right to protection from that government which he is seeking to overthrow. There are only two logical courses of treatment for him. Either he should be locked up where he can neither do any harm himself nor influence others for harm, or else he should be sent in exile to some place where he may better appreciate the advantages he now possesses. In "The Man Without a Country," we have been told of the punishment visited upon one who was innocent and inoffensive as compared with the anarchist. He was never permitted to see his native land nor to hear any news of it nor to share in any way in its triumphs or dangers. When that book was written it was not imagined that there could be such a being as an anarchist in a free country. If it had been, it is certain that the central figure of the book would have been a different and a far worse man.

The matter is receiving close attention in congress and the probable outcome is a law that will go far towards correcting the evil and preventing a repetition of the great crime.

PROGRESS IN TEXAS.

THE SOUTHERN Industrial and Lumber Review, published at Houston, Tex., comes to us for November with a handsome illustrated number of 50 pages. The principal article is an account of a banquet given at the Rice hotel at Houston on November 12 nominally in honor of Hon. John H. Kirby, but in a broader sense the occasion was devoted to a celebration of the industrial and commercial development of Harris county and vicinity.

A fair idea of the subjects that are engaging the thoughts of the most enterprising men of that section of the country may be gained from the program of responses which was as follows:

1. Welcome—Hon. Joseph D. Sayers, Governor of Texas.
2. Ecce Homo—Hon. R. C. Duff, Beaumont, Texas.
3. The Kirby Lumber Company, Conservator of Texas Forests—Mr. John E. Williams, Editor Lumber Trade Journal, New Orleans, La.
4. Texas and Its Possibilities—Mr. Richard H. Edmonds, Editor Manufacturers' Record, Baltimore, Md.
5. Men and Trees of Texas—Mr. J. E. Defebaugh, Editor The American Lumberman, Chicago, Ill.
6. The Texas of Today—Mr. Louis J. Wortham, Editor The Current Issue, Austin, Texas.
7. A Voice from Kansas—Hon. C. A. Fellows, Topeka, Kan.
8. Suggested by the Occasion—Mr. James A. Davis, Industrial Commissioner A. T. & S. F. Railway, Chicago, Ill.
9. Texas Progress in Verse—Mr. J. M. Lewis, the Riley of Texas, Houston, Tex.
10. Sensible Forestry—Mr. W. E. Barns, Editor St. Louis Lumberman, St. Louis, Mo.
11. The Southwest—Hon. R. F. Broussard, Congressman 3d Louisiana District, New Iberia, La.
12. The Louisiana Purchase Centennial Exposition—Mr. Henry T. Kent, St. Louis, Mo.
13. The Nicaragua Canal—Hon. R. L. Henry, Congressman 7th Texas District, Waco, Texas.
14. An East Texas Story—Mr. W. E. Adams, Woodville, Texas.
15. Rice vs. Cotton, Wheat and Corn—Mr. W. C. Moore, Liberty, Texas.
16. The Four Aces of East Texas—Mr. C. M. Rein, Editor Orange Leader, Orange, Tex.

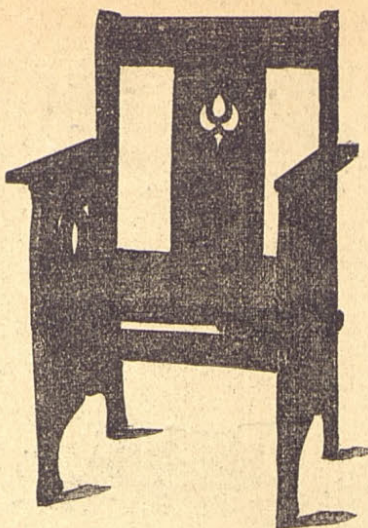

Colonel R. M. Johnston, editor of the Houston Post, acted as toastmaster, and the speeches throughout indicate a clear and broad comprehension of the commercial and industrial possibilities of the southwest that is most encouraging to all interested in the welfare of that section of our country.

There are two aspects of the affair that will appeal with special interest to the people of Colorado.

The relations between the people of Colorado and those of Texas ought to be peculiarly close and friendly. Each state supplements the other in climate, resources and products. Each has what the other desires, and this alone is sufficient to insure large exchanges and close acquaintance. But these differences are not of a nature to cause separation for the reason that the problems before the two states are very similar. We are interested in the same subjects, we are advocating the same policies, we are endeavoring to secure the same legislation. What Texas wants, Colorado is also desirous to secure, and what Colorado wishes to gain, Texas will promote for her own interests.

And the other point is that such a condition as is indicated by the speeches at this Houston banquet cannot fail to affect most powerfully the political life and attitude of this southern state. Whether they know it or not, the men who made those speeches are Republicans in sentiment, in feeling, in their hopes, in the plans they are executing, and in the policies they advocate. Such men under such circumstances cannot long be bound in the chains of political traditions belonging to a totally different era. They must align themselves with their present interests rather than with their inherited prejudices, and realize that commercial and industrial progress and prosperity are synonymous with Republicanism.

It is no surprise that the canal commission's report favors the Nicaragua route. Public sentiment in the United States has tended that way for some time past and the Panama plan is regarded as a stalking horse for the anti-canal obstructionists.

Effect of Excitement on the Growing Child

Professor Lancelotti's classes in child psychology, which meet for study and discussion every Wednesday afternoon at the Ferris school, are maintaining a good attendance with which they are well pleased. The first of the series, which was given last night, was on the "Effect of Excitement on the Growing Child." The professor, who is a well-known authority on the subject, explained the effect of excitement on the child's mind and body, and showed how it affects the development of the child's personality. He pointed out that excitement is a natural part of life, and that it is necessary for the child to experience it in order to grow and develop properly. He also discussed the dangers of excessive excitement, and how it can lead to nervousness and other mental and physical ailments. The professor's lecture was well received, and the audience was highly interested in the subject.

Appetite for Drink Caused His Death

Because he was refused liquor at a banquet given for the benefit of the poor, a man named Kiser died of a heart attack last night. The man, who was 50 years old, had been drinking heavily for several days before he died. His death was caused by a heart attack, which was brought on by the excessive drinking. The man's family is now in mourning, and the community is shocked by the tragedy. The incident has led to a renewed interest in the dangers of alcohol, and many people are now turning to other forms of entertainment and recreation.

With Breach of Trust Preparing to Muster in New Company

The new militia company will probably be mustered into the state national guard next Wednesday night. The company, which is being organized by a group of men who are well-known in the community, has been preparing for some time. They have been drilling and training, and are now ready to be mustered into the guard. The company is expected to be mustered into the guard at the same time as the other militia companies in the city. This will be a significant event for the community, and will show the progress of the militia movement in Colorado Springs.

MONDAY.

It all depends upon what you want in a soap. If you require simply a dirt remover, almost any soap will do. But if you care at all about the thing which is to be washed, you must think twice before you act. Any soap will clean linens and muslins, but Ivory Soap leaves them as white as snow. Any soap will clean sheets and table cloths, but Ivory Soap leaves no coarse, strong odor. Try it once!

WESTERN LEAGUE IS INTACT

Hickey and Tebeau Can Hunt a New Happy Home for the Western League Don't Want Them.

BURNS AND VAN BRUNT WERE RUNNING THE GAME

By Associated Press. St. Joseph, Mo., Dec. 4.—The Western league has decided to retain its organization practically as it was last year.

JOE QUINN FOR SECOND BASE

Burns Will Probably Sign the Crack National Leaguer—New Park Now Sure at Ivywild.

The news that comes this morning from St. Joe puts new life into baseball in Colorado Springs. The interest in the Millionaires from now on will be intense and the race of the managers to secure the best players available will be on in earnest.

The man who with Manager Burns is now doing his fastest figuring is Joe Quinn, one of the best second-basemen who ever held down second base in the big league.

James Whitfield, the newly elected president, in the afternoon, he and Mr. Hickey went from the room, Mr. Whitfield called a meeting of the league for 8 o'clock tonight, when the work for the coming season will be entered upon.

T. J. HICKEY SAYS THAT HE "RESIGNED"

Special to the Gazette. St. Joseph, Mo., Dec. 4.—Thos. J. Hickey, late president of the Western League, gave out the following statement tonight: "We closed last year's business and I tendered my resignation as I had planned to do, and it was accepted. Mr. Rourke of Omaha, has withdrawn from the American association but the impression that Minneapolis would withdraw was erroneous. Minneapolis will stay in the American association.

AROUND THE BASES

A week ago it looked as though Hulén had succeeded in disposing of a gold brick. It doesn't look the same way now.

Manning, the new owner of the Kansas City franchise, was with The Doghouse when the long catcher first entered the game with Kansas City years ago. Manning has a valuable acquisition in Nichols.

There is some doubt as to St. Paul's status next season. The league retains the franchise but it seems hardly probable that one of the northern towns would be retained without the other.

With Packard in charge of the Denver team there is believed to be some possibility that Everett will be allowed to go back to the Grizzlies if he wants to and Packard thinks he needs him.

Reductions in Effect Between Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek Only.

BLOW AT DENVER AND PUEBLO

One of the Results of a Meeting in Denver Yesterday—Midland Meets the Reduction.

Another step which adds to the benefit of Colorado Springs from the Cripple Creek rate war was taken yesterday at a meeting of the Colorado lines in Denver.

Without a doubt the above suggestion issued by President D. V. Donaldson to the members of the Mining Stock association, will be received with gratefulness and heartiest approval, not only by the members of the association, but by the business men of Colorado Springs generally.

The Short Line was not represented at yesterday's meeting, which was held for the purpose of taking action on that line's cut in the rates on hay, flour, feed, lime, plaster, etc.

Pueblo and Colorado Springs are common points for the shipment of freight to and from Cripple Creek. As the result of yesterday's meeting the old rates from that place to and from the camp will be the same as before.

Charles Chandler, local agent for the Midland, was notified yesterday afternoon by F. D. Hunter, general freight agent, that the Short Line's cut in freight rates had been met.

The fire originated in the room of the servant, Miss Clara Woag, in the rear of the second story. Miss Woag went out to visit a friend in the neighborhood and left her lamp burning.

MINING STOCK ASSOCIATION TO BANQUET MR. STRATTON

Opening of the New Mining Exchange Will be the Occasion of a Substantial Recognition of the Value of a Public Spirited Man.

To The Members of the Mining Stock Association, And Business and Mining Men of Colorado Springs:

The handsome Mining Exchange which has been constructed for our association by Mr. W. S. Stratton, is about completed. Before occupying the exchange, which is second to none in the United States in point of beauty and finish, it seems fitting that the officers and members of the Mining Stock association, in connection with the mining and business men of Colorado Springs, should in some way show their recognition of the generosity and public spirit of Mr. W. S. Stratton, who has by his liberality and wisdom given ample evidence of how a broad minded citizen can best advance the interests of the city in which he lives.

Hence, in order to show our appreciation of Mr. Stratton as a public spirited citizen, we suggest that a public banquet at the Antlers be tendered him at a date which will be most convenient for him.

THE COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK ASSOCIATION, D. V. DONALDSON, President.

Without a doubt the above suggestion issued by President D. V. Donaldson to the members of the Mining Stock association, will be received with gratefulness and heartiest approval, not only by the members of the association, but by the business men of Colorado Springs generally.

Flames Destroyed North End Residence

The explosion of a coal oil lamp at about 9 o'clock last night resulted in the destruction of Mr. S. Ben Smith's residence at No. 24 East Dale street, turned nine people out into the street and burned up several hundred dollars worth of personal property.

It was a hard fire to fight and for a time it looked as though several nearby houses were doomed to go, but the firemen did good work and confined the flames to the one building. The fire burst through the roof at the very outset and made a big blaze which was distinctly discernible for several blocks.

The explosion of a lamp is supposed to have caused the blaze. When the department arrived the whole back portion of the second story was a mass of flames. A line of hose was run quickly and the flames were soon subdued. Neighbors carried out all the furniture of the first floor, but practically everything upstairs was destroyed.

The loss will probably amount to $400. This fire caused quite a sensation because it was very close to the Liller school. The smoke enveloped the school building and people thought the school was on fire. Mothers rushed down the street to get their children and the scene was exciting for a short time.

The annual student's art exhibit of Colorado College will begin today. The two study rooms in Perkins hall are filled with the work of the pupils. Professor Soutter feels very proud of the work of his classes and is justified in doing so.

There are pen and ink sketches and pencil drawings and other art work of the pupils. The exhibit will be left at the College until the loan exhibit in January. The exhibit is free to the general public.

Opium Ring King Causes Many Thrills

Probably few of those who saw "The King of the Opium Ring" played at the Opera house last evening complained that they did not get their money's worth when they left at a late hour.

The audience was fairly large and was entertained by a melodrama of a bright red color and the face of the police officers were simply ripping; while others contended that nothing could be more sensational than the act of the three acrobats, standing three high and carrying the girl from the second-story window on one side of the street to the opposite balcony.

Be the merits of these rival exploits as they may, the execution of the three odd children scattered about the house who watched with starting eyes and went dumb to dream of the bogey man, no doubt.

BLACK BELLE CO. STARTS WORK
 Operations Will Be Pushed on Company Account Under the Management of Superintendent Bainbridge of the El Paso.

The directors of the Black Belle company held an important meeting yesterday which resulted in the decision to work the important claims which the company owns on company account. For some time lessees have been active, and much ore has been produced from the upper workings, although no permanent shaft has ever been opened. The directors elected Mr. S. S. Bernard, president of the El Paso company as a director in the company, and the services of Mr. William Bainbridge, manager of the El Paso mine, were engaged to manage the Black Belle company's work.

Operations are to be started at once, and they will be vigorously pushed from now on. Mr. Bainbridge proposes to start work in a 200-foot shaft, formerly operated by Lessee Bradstreet, and the development promises to be a cross-cut will be started to open the main Black Belle vein which has produced most of the ore which has come from the property. It is thought that this vein can be reached at this depth after about 80 feet of crosscutting. Other important development work is planned, but the first object will be to open up the main vein; and afterwards probably a large shaft will be sunk to a depth of 500 or 600 feet.

Several sets of lessees are now working different portions of the property, and it will be the policy of the management to allow the lessees to continue their operations, rather than buy them off; as the work which they are doing will not conflict with that which the company proposes to undertake.

The acquisition of Mr. Bernard as director and Mr. Bainbridge as manager is an important turn in the history of the company. Both of these gentlemen are thoroughly versed in the mineral conditions of Beacon hill, having been instrumental in opening up the big El Paso mine, and a great deal can be hoped of the operations which the company will now start. The property includes several claims on the top of Beacon hill, adjoining the properties of the El Paso and Gold Dollar Consolidated.

KING EDWARD'S DEVELOPMENT WORK

Mr. J. L. Lindsay Returns From Clear Creek and Reports the Strike to Be Looking Well—The Camp Is Very Active.

Mr. J. L. Lindsay of the King Edward company, operating a block of ground in the Clear Creek district, returned from that portion of the state yesterday and reports that good progress has been made by the company in following up the strike recently made, and that the development promises to be an important one. The ore was discovered in the breast of the main tunnel which is being pushed into the hill, and yields pay assays.

The work, however, will be continued onward, without suffering interference from any lateral work, with the objective point of the Oretta vein, which is expected to be reached within 100 feet.

This vein has been opened near the surface some time ago and has produced some ore, and good things are expected of it when it is cut at this depth.

Mr. Lindsay reports that the camp is in a very lively condition, and that more work is constantly being inaugurated. While he was in the district he visited the Donaldson Mountain company's claims, where a new vein has recently been opened and the prospects are bright and the Omar group of claims where a tunnel is being pushed on from a point 375 feet from the portal to open the Paris vein.

GREAT COPPER SHOWING IN DEADWOOD

Hill City, S. D., Dec. 3.—The Maloney Blue Lead Copper mine is showing up better than ever. There is now no further doubt in the minds of the mining men about there being a great body of low grade copper and gold-bearing ore in the mine, vertical in formation, of unknown length and at least 125 feet wide. The Blue Lead mine has been before the people of the Hills for over two years, and the general manager, R. M. Maloney, of Deadwood, became convinced that the heavy outcroppings of 7 per cent. copper ore came from some place in the bowels of the earth and he organized a company, the Maloney mining company, getting in several heavyweights in Chicago and one or two millionaires of Colorado Springs. Mr. Maloney has been the general manager of the company. A tunnel was begun over four years ago, to penetrate the mountain near the water level. Very hard rock was encountered at almost the first 100 feet and month after month it was found to be made up of a few feet progress. But an ore ledge was finally broken into and it has now been crossed 125 feet. The copper is there and about $3.00 per ton in gold beside. The company's general manager believes that there is another large vein beyond, running parallel with the first vein and he proposes to continue the crosscut tunnel. Drifting will also be begun soon on the big vein if it is believed that a richer place will be found farther south. This ore body is believed to have the making of one of the largest copper and gold mines in the world. There are on the surface thousands of tons of seven per cent. copper ore, mostly a conglomerate, and it is the intention of the company to build a smelter soon to treat this ore.

The general manager of the British-American Copper company has been out from Detroit, accompanied by two capitalists, for the purpose of getting work started again on the large block of ground owned by the British-American Hills Copper company has a vein of ore opened up the south of the British-American ground which is a large proposition.

The Copper Cliff company of Chicago, is about to resume shipments of graphite from the Rockford camp, to the company's refinery at Chicago. A 30-foot vein of graphite has been opened up near the Rockford range which is very pure. The company has recently acquired a graphite property in Wyoming and it is the intention to ship from both places and mix the shipments to the Chicago plant. The Rockford product is softer and of a higher grade than that found in Wyoming. The company has recently opened up some copper ore. This property joins the British-American ground on the north.

MINING NOTES AROUND TOWN

The ore shoot has now been so thoroughly opened on the bottom level of the Katinka mine that ore is being regularly hoisted by Waldron and associates, who are leasing on the property. The shoot has been found to average two feet in width, while the ore runs as high as five ounces in gold to the ton. They have been making a good production from the upper level of the mine for several months, and are now assured ore for the balance of the term of their lease. The dump on this property is leased to Stuart and associates who have just closed a lot of 10 tons which will average $50 in gold to the ton.

SOME NOVEMBER SHIPMENTS FROM DIFFERENT WORKINGS.

The El Paso company on Beacon hill, will make a heavier production this month than in any month in the mine's history. The greater portion of the ore is coming from the 700-foot level. The quartz is averaging in the neighborhood of $75 a ton.

Production for November from the Vindicator was about 1,800 tons of ore which came from the two main workings operated through shaft No. 1 and No. 2. The lessees on the mine made a reduced output on account of changes made and new development work started. R. P. Russell has leased all the territory on the west and north end of the property. He has installed a large electric hoist on No. 7 shaft and will probably work most of his ground through that shaft.

COLORADO-MONTANA COMPANY WILL SHIP PLANT.

The Colorado-Montana Mining company, a comparatively new company, has just closed a deal for a plant of machinery in the Cripple Creek district which will be sent at once to the property of the company situated in the Weidkind mining district about four miles from Reno, Nevada. The management of the company have found that they can buy their plant at Cripple Creek and have it shipped from there cheaper than they can obtain it from any other point. As soon as the plant reaches the property this company owns a large and prospectively a rich acreage in this new mining district. The showing on the adjoining property is exceedingly encouraging and the management expects to be getting out some very valuable ore.

NEW MINING COMPANY TO BE FORMED BY VICTOR MEN.

One of the most recent projects in the mining circles of Victor is the contemplated forming of a new company in the town of Victor by the mining men of that district. Those in charge of the scheme will in a very short time present their ideas to the business men for their consideration. Judging from the favor with which it has been received and discussed it will doubtless meet with the hearty approval and support of the leading men of the place. The project is to develop Straub mountain which lies just east of Victor and so far has not been developed except by many prospect holes. It is proposed to drive one of the many tunnels started, and bore directly under the summit of the mountain. Victor miners will be exclusively employed and two shifts will be put to work from the commencement if the plan is carried out.

Further developments of the tunnel scheme will be looked forward to with considerable interest by those interested in properties on Straub mountain and adjoining properties.

ANOTHER SHIPMENT FROM THE COPPERHEAD CLAIM.

It was stated in these columns that a shipment had been sent out from the Copperhead lode that is being worked by the Mineral Point company.

This claim is located on the south side of Mineral hill and is owned by the above mentioned mining company. Twenty tons of the last shipment according to assays will run about $60 in gold to the ton, and the remainder of the consignment should run about $100 per ton. Another shipment was sent out from these workings yesterday. This carload is thought to run about the same in the average. All of the ore has been taken out in sinking the shaft, which is now down close to 100 feet. In the bottom there is four feet of ore, the Men Who Manufacture Misery.

The disgruntled man, the man who is sulky and dissatisfied under all conditions and circumstances, is to be found everywhere. Even at the sea side where he has gone for rest and recreation you'll find him sulky and grumbling at the weather, the people, the hotel accommodations, the board, and everything else. His scowling, sullen visage checks the flow of talk at the table, and hinders the prattle of playing children. Now and again one gossips says to another "The old chap's liver must be out of order." Somebody else says, "Perhaps he's suffering from kidney trouble." And a majority incline to the opinion that it's "just dyspepsia." And as it happens they are all of them right. His liver is sluggish. His kidneys are disordered. His blood is necessarily poisoned, by accumulations of effete matter. And last of all his stomach is "out of order." This is another case in which in the logical sequence of statement.

THE LAST IS FIRST.
The liver is sluggish because the stomach is diseased. The kidneys are disordered because the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition are "weak" and cannot supply adequate nutrition for the needs of the body. How do we know this? Because in so many cases, persons who had suffered with disease of heart, liver, lungs, kidneys, etc., have found these diseases entirely cured, when Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured diseases of the stomach and the other organs of digestion and nutrition.

"I was afflicted with what the doctors called nervous indigestion. Took medicine from my physician to no avail. In looking over one of Doctor Pierce's Memorandum Books," writes Mr. Thos. G. Lever, of Lever, Richmond Co., S. C. "I found my case described exactly. I wrote to you and made a statement. You sent me a descriptive list of questions, also hygienic rules. I carried these out as best I could, but thought myself incurable as I suffered so much with pain under my ribs and an empty feeling in my stomach. At night would have cold or hot feet and hands alternately. I was getting very nervous and suffered a great deal mentally, thinking that death would soon claim me. Always expected something unusual to take place; was irritable and impatient, and greatly reduced in flesh. I could scarcely eat anything that would not produce a bad feeling in my stomach. After some hesitation, owing to my prejudices against patent medicines, I decided to try a few bottles of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets.' After taking improving, I continued to for six months or more, off and on. I have to be careful yet at times, of what I eat, in order that I may feel good and strong. I fully believe if any one suffering with indigestion or torpid liver or chronic cold should take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets' and observe a few simple hygienic rules they would soon be benefited, and with a little perseverance would be entirely cured."

THE SCHOOL-BOY'S POCKET
is notorious for the miscellany it contains. Topp, string, apples, marbles, chewing gum, nails, jack-stones, are all mixed on confused mass. What would be said of one who used that pocket which we call the stomach for such a heterogeneous collection of material? This is done not alone by the human stomach at the circus, but by thousands of good people who do not consider the relation of the stomach to the other organs of the body. The purpose of eating is to provide nutrition for the body. But how many people think of the nutritive value of the food they eat? For the most part the choice of food is made to please the palate. The palate is a creature of education. It may be taught to crave things bitter or things sweet, to adore spicy or fiery condiments which irritate the stomach or dainties which distress it, and in which the food value is reduced to the minimum. As a rule the palate is taught to desire the most undesirable things from the view-point of nutrition. The result is that the stomach has to crush a great quantity of refuse to obtain one grain of nutrition. The body is sustained by food properly digested and assimilated and converted into nutrition. But when the food lacks nutritive value the body and its organs must be starved. Exactly the same thing happens when the food eaten is nutritious, but the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition being weakened by disease, fail to extract the nutrition from the food provided. Then the body is starved also.

THE SIGN OF STARVATION
is weakness. A starved man can't work. A starved organ can't work; or at the best it works partially and ineffectively. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, by curing diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of the food eaten, and this food converted into nutrition, builds up the body and all its parts and organs into sound health and strength.

"After I had received the advice which you gave me in regard to my treatment," writes Geo. Dornier, Esq., 1915 Pulaski Street, Baltimore, Md., "I used your 'Golden Medical Discovery' according to directions. After using four bottles I considered myself cured as I have not felt any symptoms since. Had tried almost all remedies that I heard of that were good for dyspepsia, but without relief. My liver became discouraged and wrote to you for advice, with the above result."

TO DISCOURAGED PEOPLE.
The closing paragraph of Mr. Dornier's letter: "Finally I became discouraged and wrote to you for advice," would express the feelings of thousands of discouraged people. They have utterly failed to find help. They have been growing steadily worse. As a forlorn hope they have written to Dr. Pierce and have been cured. Persons suffering from chronic diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter FREE. All correspondence strictly private and confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CRIPPLE CREEK NEWS NOTES

An Important Meeting of the School Board-Christian Endeavor Rallies.

Cripple Creek, Nuzau Colorado Springs Gazette
Cripple Creek, Dec. 4.—At the meeting of the school board tonight in the High school building, a popular movement was inaugurated relative to President Theodore Roosevelt's message. Upon motion of Director C. W. Wells, it was decided that the message should become a part of the study in the schools during the coming week. The message will be read to the pupils by the teachers and portions of it discussed in the class rooms. The board at its meeting also took action to prevent the spread of contagious diseases in the district and for this purpose the district was divided into five sections. A physician will be appointed to watch the health of the pupils in each division. The salaries of the physicians will range from $45 to $60 per month, their term of office to commence on January 5. Superintendent Snauffer announced the attendance to be approximately 4,200 pupils. The schools will be dismissed for the Christmas vacation on December 20, and the new term will commence on January 5. The board placed the names of Mrs. Blair, Miss Gertrude Farley and Miss Atherton upon the substitute list. The board also decided to combine with the property owners of Fourth street, between Bennett and Carr avenues for the macadamizing of this street. A number of bills were allowed.

Dr. T. W. Sims, charged with malpractice, today waived examination when brought before Justice Barber, and he was bound over to the district court in the sum of $2,500. He gave bond. His trial will probably take place during the March term of the district court.

This was a great day for the members of the Christian Endeavor societies in the district. Rev. C. E. Eberman of the United Society of Christian Endeavor arrived in this city this morning from Boston, and held meetings at the Congregational church this afternoon and evening. This afternoon Rev. Eberman addresses the Junior Christian Endeavorers, and this evening there was a grand rally at the church. Both meetings were largely attended.

A dozen prominent eastern railroad men and their families on their way home from a trip to the Pacific coast, came up from Colorado Springs over the Short Line this morning and spent the day visiting the points of interest in the camp. Local railroad men and Short Line officials from Colorado Springs, looked out for the comfort of the visitors. The workings of the Portland mine were visited, and a trip was made through the tunnel from the Gold Coin shaft to the Economic mill in Eclipse Gulch.

Two divorce suits were commenced in the county court today. Florence C. Piper commenced action against Louis Piper for a separation upon the ground of cruelty. The couple were married at Denver in July of 1892. Judge Frost issued an injunction restraining the defendant from drawing his salary as a miner at the Portland

FEW PEOPLE REALIZE

The Danger in That Common Disease, Catarrh.
Because catarrhal diseases are so common and because catarrh is not rapidly fatal, people too often overlook and neglect it until some incurable ailment develops as a result of the neglect. The inflamed condition of the membrane of the nose and throat makes a fertile soil for the germs of pneumonia and consumption, in fact, catarrhal pneumonia and catarrhal consumption are the most common forms of these dreaded diseases which annually cause more than one-quarter of the deaths in this country.

Remedies for catarrh are almost as numerous as catarrh sufferers but very few have any actual merit as a cure, the only good derived being simply a temporary relief.

There is, however, a very effective remedy recently discovered which is rapidly becoming famous for its great value in relieving and permanently curing all forms of catarrhal diseases, whether located in the head, throat, lungs or stomach.

This new catarrh cure is principally composed of a gum derived from the Eucalyptus tree, and this gum possesses extraordinary heating and antiseptic properties. It is taken internally in the form of a lozenge or tablet, pleasant to the taste and so harmless that little children take them with safety and benefit.

Eucalyptus oil and the bark are sometimes used but are not so convenient nor so palatable as the gum.

Undoubtedly the best quality is found in Stuart's Catarrh Tablets which may be found in any drug store and any catarrh sufferer who has tried douches, inhalers and liquid medicines, will be surprised at the rapid improvement effected by the use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets which are composed of the gum of the Eucalyptus tree, combined with other antiseptics which destroy the germs of catarrh in the blood and expel catarrhal poison from the system.

Dr. Ramsdell, in speaking of catarrh and its cure, says: "After many experiments I have given up the idea of curing catarrh by the use of inhalers, washes, salves or liquid medicines. I have always had the best results from Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; the red gum and other valuable antiseptics contained in these tablets make them, in my opinion, far superior to any of the numerous catarrh remedies so extensively advertised. The fact that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold in drug stores, under protection of a trademark, should not prejudice conscientious physicians against them because their undoubted merit and harmless character make them a remedy which every catarrh sufferer may use with perfect safety and the prospect of a permanent cure."

For colds in the head, for coughs, catarrhal deafness and catarrh of the stomach and liver, people who have tried them say that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are a household necessity.

LEADVILLE MAN IS ACQUITTED OF MURDER

Special to the Gazette.
Leadville, Dec. 4.—The trial of Jesse Sherman charged with the murder of Ed Borrington which has been before the district judge for the last few days resulted this afternoon in a verdict of not guilty, the jury being out only 15 minutes.

Sherman took the stand in his own behalf, testifying to the fact that he took the gun on the day of the shooting because he feared that the gun was loaded with buckshot was a mistake as the shells had become mixed, and the shells containing the fine shot had become mixed with some he had been using while hunting deer recently. He stated that he found the boys trespassing near his barn and that they immediately started to run. He called upon one of the boys, started in pursuit with the gun in his hands. He stated that he did not aim at the boys, but that he stumbled and fell, and the gun was accidentally discharged. "Consequently one of the boys, who was shot and who afterwards recovered, called to him that he was shot. Sherman then placed Borrington who was instantly killed, and King who was seriously wounded, in the buggy and brought them back to town, summoning medical attendance, after which he gave himself up to the sheriff. Mrs. Sherman was allowed to take the stand in her husband's behalf, the objection of the prosecution being overruled. The entire evidence of the prosecution was to show intent as there was no denial on the part of the defendant that he killed the boy. At 11:15 this morning Judge Owers began reading his charge to the jury which consumed a quarter of an hour. The court dwelled on what constituted murder in the first and second degrees and voluntary and involuntary manslaughter. On the question of trespassing the court held that neither an officer nor a private citizen had a right to shoot a trespasser, but that in the present case the defendant had a right to pursue the boys to identify them and find out what they had been doing. The testimony of the defense went to show that the killing of Ed Borrington was accidental. The testimony introduced by the prosecution must therefore show that shooting was intentional, and the court instructed the jury that if there was any doubt as to the guilt of the accused, he must be given the benefit of the doubt, and that the jury could acquit him. After being out only 15 minutes, the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty upon hearing which Mrs. Sherman broke down and cried for joy. Her husband was immediately surrounded by many friends who pressed forward to congratulate him.

Papers are now on their way to the secretary of state for the incorporation of the new company which will be known as the Cripple Creek Coal & Transportation Co. The company is capitalized for $250,000 and the officers are J. B. Cunningham, president and general manager; William Lennox, vice president, and A. Rolleston, secretary and treasurer. offices will be in Victor and Cripple Creek, and the business will be under the personal supervision of President Cunningham. Plans for a large two-story brick warehouse are being prepared by local architects. This building will be erected in East Victor near the Short Line tracks. The company expects to be ready for business in a few days.

P. J. Weipper, the well-known merchant of this city, leaves tomorrow for Council Bluffs, where he will testify in the behalf of James Doyle in the Doyle-Burns suit. Mr. Weipper is a pioneer of Victor and had dealings with Doyle and Burns in the early days of the camp.

Chief of Police O'Connell today gave out the following relative to Hammond McLain's mysterious disappearance: "Hammond McLain, a young resident of Victor, disappeared from his home on the evening of October 6, 1901. As every effort has been made by his friends and the officers of the district to locate him or learn of his whereabouts without success and believing that he may have fallen into one of the many abandoned shafts or prospect holes which surround his home, it has been decided to form a party for the purpose of making a search of all such shafts. Men willing to participate in the search will meet at the city hall at Victor Sunday, December 8, 1901, at 8 a. m. sharp, and bring ropes and such other instruments as in their judgment will assist in the search."

Respectfully,
"M. W. O'Connell."

LAKE CITY

(Special Correspondence.)
Lake City, Nov. 30.—The Golden Fleece Mining company has let a contract for the erection of a 40x100-foot ore house, work to begin at once.

The Contention Mining company's officers of Boston were here this week and the result of the inspection of the building of a mill which will treat from 75 to 100 tons per day. The mine will remain closed for the present at least, as there are no storage bins and for the surplus ore. The Gen. Sherman, a Colorado Springs-Ohio property, has resumed work with one shift.

Rev. J. W. Todd, pastor of the Presbyterian church, handed in his resignation this week to take effect at once. The cause leading up to this step was the participating in the sheriff contest last election. The session and members objecting to this. He was elected to the office of superintendent of public schools the last election. He will make his home in Lake City.

The Himmoss dump is being treated at the Ocean Wave mill. Runs $90 in concentrates.

Disbarment proceedings have been begun against G. D. Barlow, a leading attorney of Lake City, for malpractice. By the death of Sam Watson, elected county commissioner to succeed J. Patterson, most probably the latter will be reappointed.

The Golden Fleece is making an upraise of 370 feet to the old workings. Some 20 feet of this session and members expect to strike the Hima-Himmoss vein in about 50 feet more.

The personal property of the Zsar mine at Capitol City was attached to satisfy employes for wages.
