BUY A BUICK BEFORE PRICE IS ADVANCED

The increased cost of material and labor forced the Company to advance the price on the Buick Six $195.00 and the Buick Four $130. We have sold up our contract, but made special arrangements for one Six and three Fours and can sell them at the old price. Don't delay, but buy one of these cars today and save $130.00 to $195.00 advance.

Mr. Curtis Mercer. of Roosevelt, Okla,, and Miss Lidia Brasher, of Atwell, were united in marriage at Baird Monday, July 22, 1917. Rev. $3.21 Joe R. Mayes officating.

NOTE.-Mr. Mercer had some experience that come to few men so rapidly as come to him and we feel sure he will pardon us for mentioning this. Mr. Mercer joined the church and was baptised Saturday; 01 licensed to preach Sunday and married on Monday. The three most important events in any man's life, is conversion and joining the church; marriage and a call to the ministry; but we never knew all three to come to any man within three days. Saturday, Sunday and Monday will always be memorable days in the life of Mr. Mercer, and here is hoping that he will always remember each event with joy and pride.

SELECTIVE ARMY HAS BEEN DRAWN AT WASHINGTON

Order for Liability for Service Established by Historic Lottery.

258 FIRST NUMBER OUT

Secretary Baker Takes Out Initial Number-Drawing Continues All Day Friday and Throughout Night.

Long List of Numbers Given in Order as Drawn, From Which Those Who Will Be Called to Serve in First Army Will Be Selected.

Washington, July 21.—The drawing for the big United States army was not completed until early Saturday morning. The drawing began at 9:45 Friday morning, and continued throughout the day and night. Altogether 10,500 numbers were drawn from the big fish bowl. It was officially stated that the first 1,000 numbers drawn represented more than 1,000,stated that the first 1,000 numbers drawn represented more than 1,000,000 men, and it is not considered probable that men representing any number drawn after the first 2,000 will be called before any exemption board for the first army. The first eight numbers were drawn respectively by Secretary of War Baker, Senator Chamberlain of the senate military committee, Congressman Dent of the house military committee, Senator Warren and Representative Kahn, ranking minority members of the senate and house military committees; Maj. Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, acting chief of staff of the army; Maj. Gen. Enoch Crowder, provost marshal of the army; and Major General McCain, adjutant general of the army. After the first eight numbers had been drawn the regular tellers took hold, and worked through until the long task was completed.

In only a small number of the largest districts will the numbers above a few thousand affect registrants. Of the 4.557 registration districts throughout the country the largest has something over 10,200 numbers, while the smallest has only about 185, and the average is about 3,000. As the drawing proceeded, 157 numbers were withdrawn before one low enough to affect the smallest district came out. It was 126, placing 4,557 men numbered 126 on their local lists as 157th in

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR JULY 29

GOD'S GRACIOUS INVITATION.

LESSON TEXT-Isaiah 55:1-11. GOLDEN TEXT-Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.—Isa. 55:5.

The Bible is throughout a forward looking book. No matter how dark the light, it looks forward to the dawn of a new and better day. Whenever written, the prophet looks forward toward the end of the Babylonian exile. Isaiah died about 142 years before that event. That scene is laid in Babynia. Isaiah prophesied in Jerusalem.

I. The Invitation, (vv. 1-8) In order to understand the fullness and blessedness of this invitation, we should read in its connection chapters 53 and 54. In chapter 53 we have a prophecy and vision of the Messiah, making his atonement for sins, "wounded for our transgressions." Again we have in this connection a picture of the Messiah as our leader and Savior. In chapter 55 we have the invitation and joyous welcome to the beautiful city which he is establishing for us.

(1) Who is invited? The word "Ho" is perhaps an abbreviation of the word "Hold," used to excite attention. This invitation is extended to every one: (a) the "thirsty," to those who one: (a) the "thirsty," to those who are needy; (b) the poor and the rich; those "without money," and the supply is abundant, even as the water. Every one is invited without limitation or distinction. The greatness of a man's spirit is measured by the numbers of his desires and thirsts, by their qualities and by his capacities or the intensity of his thirst. Those invited were to have "wine," a luxury, and "milk," a staple necessity, without money and without price. The currency of the kingdom of Heaven is grace (v. 1). (2) Who Will Come? (v. 3). Only those who are listening and who are attentive. Many fail of eternal life because they do not pay attention to the claims of religion. "Come unto the claims of religion. "Come unto me," (Matt. 11:28). We go to God for salvation and help, and we find life. Life is more than mere exist-ence. It is the natural, harmonious, joyous activity of every part of our being. The result of coming is, "your soul shall live," and the surety of it is, "an everlasting covenant." ally, an agreement with promises which can never be broken, namely, "the sure mercies of David." (See II Sam. 12:29; I Cor. 17:7-27; Ps. 89:1-4; also Luke 20:41, 44). We are bought but we did not pay the price. The mercies of David are the antitype of our Savior; the mercy of grace. True satisfaction is in its right order, (See vv. 2, 3). Christ is a faithful witness, the exalted one, (v. 5) to this covenant. (3) When to Come (v. 6). While he may be found, and while he is near, implying a time when he may not be found and a time when he will not be near. All of God's promises are conditional.

(4) The Way to Come (v. 7). For-sake open sin, turn from unrighteous thought, turn to the Lord and receive his "multiplied pardon." Man is every-where depicted in the Scriptures as wandering away from the true God and there is no salvation if we insist on continuing in sin.

II. The Transformation (vv. 8-13). God's promises have back of them all the power of the universe and are as certain as the process of the seasons. certain as the process of the seasons. In working out his transformation in the character of man, we are to think his thoughts after him. We see and know only very little of this spirit, but God sees, knows and controls the universe, which is at his command. (I Cor. 10:13; Phil. 4:19). We are to enter into his ways, and his ways are as the heavens, higher than those of the earth. Having entered into his the earth. Having entered into his ways we are to bring his fruits (see John 15). If the Divine seed (v. 11) is implanted within us, then we may expect to see the fruits of the kingdom of God, which are born of the spirit. (Gal. 5:22-26). This transformation involves service, for we are to have a mission, "go out to all the earth," being led by the Messiah and thus re-ceive "joy and peace." As sure as "the rain cometh down and the snow from heaven and returneth not but watereth the earth," so is the seed of the Word in the hands of the sower, to become bread to the eater. As we go forth we have his promise (v. 11) that, "it shall not return void but shall ac-complish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it."

As a result the "thorns" (evil) shall be displaced by "fig trees" (good). God's word bears fruit in implanted lives. (John 6:33; James 1:18; I Peter 1:23). God calls this word, which is spoken of by the prophet, "My word." What the prophet says, God says. What an inspired man says, God inspires him to say. God's promise will be consummated in redeeming society, as well as redeeming creation (vv. 12,13; Ch. 35:10; 49:9,10; 51:11; Jer. 31:12-14; Isa. 35:1,2). The language about the mountains and hills breaking forth into singing, is interpreted in Psaims 66:11,13.

A FRIEND'S

Woman Saved From a Serious Surgical Operation.

Louisville, Ky.—"For four years I suffered from female troubles, head-aches, and nervousness. I could not sleep, had no appetite and it hurt me to walk. If I tried to do any work, I would have to lie down before it was finished. The doctors said I would have to be operated on and I simply broke down. A friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and the result is I feel like a new woman. I am well and strong, do all my own house work and have an eight pound baby girl. I know. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation which every woman dreads."—Mrs. NELLIE FISHBACK, 1521 Christy Ave., Louisville, Ky.

Everyone naturally dreads the surgeon's knife. Sometimes nothing else will do, but many times Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved the patient and made an operation unnecessary.

EFFECT OF INSECTS ON WAR

Relationship Is Closer Than Most People Realize, According to U. S. Bureau of Entomology.

Entomology, that branch of zoology which treats of insects, has a much closer relation to war problems than most people realize, and the bureau of entomology has asked that pamphlets, circulars, posters, leaflets, etc., pertaining to war phases of the field of science he sent to its office in Wash-ington, so that they can be assembled and classified for future reference, says

Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Among the questions that properly come under this head and have a bear-Ing on the war are those pertaining to the attacks of insects on crops, the prevention of mosquitoes, insects in food and water, and so on. While many publications will not possess ma-terial of special scientific value, all will at least have a historic interest.

At the same time affidavits were made public as to how Speaker Full-er and Lieutenant Governor Hobby of the West voted for the location of the West Texas A. & M. college, swearing that they did not vote for Abilene on either the first or second ballots. Beyond the issuance of the call and his affidavit Speaker Fuller refused give out any further statement this time. Governor Hobby also refused to further comment on the situation beyond what he had to say under oath in his affidavit.

Governor James E. Ferguson when asked for a statement at his sum-mer home at Buena Vista, over long distance phone, said:

"I do not care to make any state ment about the statement reported to have been made by Speaker Full-er and Lieutenant Governor Hobby until I am furnished with either the original or an authenticated, certified copy of the affidavit, made and executed legally by these tlemen. I want to see tlemen. I want to see these pur-ported affidavits. Then I will tell the whole truth to the people of Texas about this A. & M. matter.'

A STORY OF LAFAYETTE

During Lafayette's visit to Ameria in 1824 he was everywhere honored. Once, when passing through a village, where the entire population turned out, he saw an old soldier in the Continental uniform. The veteran drew himself up in the stiff fashion of the old time drill and gave the military salute. As Lafayette made the return signal, tears started to his eyes. . The tattered uniform, the ancient flintlock, the silver-haired soldier, even older than himself, recalled the dear past.

"Do you know me?" asked the soldier.

"No, I cannot say that I do," was the frank reply.

"Do you remember the frosts and snows of Valley Forge?'

"I shall never forget them," answered Lafayette. "One bitter night, General, you were going the rounds at Valley Forge. You came upon a sentry in thin clothing and without stockings. He was slowly freezing to death. You took his gun, saying, "Go to my hut. There you will find stockings, a blanket and a fire. After warming yourself, bring the blanket to me. Meanwhile I will keep guard.' "The soldier obeyed. When he returned to his post, you, General Lefayette, cut the blanket in two. One-half you kept; the other you presented to the sentry. Here, General, is one-half of the blanket, for I am the sentry whose life you saved' -Exchange
