HARDING ASKED TO END LABOR DISPUTE

HEAD OF MINERS' UNION SAYS THAT MANY OUTRAGES ARE BEING COMMITTED.

Indianapolis, Ind.—A plan to end the industrial conflict which has been raging in the West Virginia coal fields for months was proposed to President Harding Friday night by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America.

In a telegram to the president, Mr. Lewis suggested that Mr. Harding call a joint conference of mine workers and operators of Mingo County, the conference to be held under Government direction.

"The desperate situation in the coal fields of West Virginia warrants me in addressing you this message," Mr. Lewis wired. "The presence of many hundreds of armed agents of the notorious Baldwin-Felts Detective Agency employed by the coal operators, together with brutal acts which they have committed, has developed such a sense of outrage in the minds of the mine workers that they have assembled in large bodies to put an end to such an intolerable situation.

"The Baldwin-Felts concern employs as its agents men of the lowest type and character and equips them with guns to act as guards in the coal fields. The coal operators in West Virginia employ these gunmen by the hundreds and evidence conclusively shows that these armed men practically control the county government."

Brutal outrages, according to Lewis, are committed and "no redress is possible." The cost of maintaining this "private army," he asserted, is charged to the cost of the production of coal. Forty men have been killed in Mingo County alone, he said.

"There can be no peace as long as the Baldwin-Felts thug system is in control of the machinery of the law," Lewis continued.

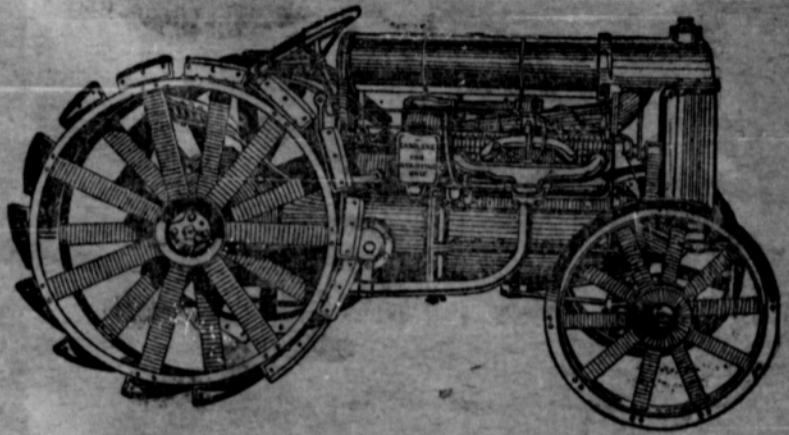

In conclusion he said a conference called by President Harding could that the Baldwin-Felts guard

West Virginia be abolished; that an adjustment of the
between the Minge
operators and the mine
tion be effected

BROTHERHOODS MAIL OUT STRIKE BALLOTS

MEMBERS TO VOTE ON CUT IN WAGES ORDERED BY BOARD

SOME DISAGREEMENT SEEN

Joint Ballot Would Authorize Withdrawal of Men at Discretion of Voters

Cleveland, O.—Strike ballots on the acceptance or rejection of the recent $400,000,000 wage reduction recently ordered by the Railroad Labor Board have been mailed to the 400,000 members of the "big four" brotherhoods and the switchmen's union of North America.

The ballots revealed a difference of opinion among the chief executives of the five organizations, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, Order of Railway Conductors and the Switchmen using a joint ballot, while the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen sent out a separate ballot.

The trainmen's ballot stated that it had been the intention of all the organizations to use a joint ballot, but that this was impossible because the ballot adopted by the other organizations did not in our opinion, contain an impartial and unbiased recital of all that is involved, nor did it convey the assurance that the wishes of the men, if against working for reduced wages, would determine the question, and that they would be permitted to leave the service.

The joint ballot declared that if the membership vote was to reject the wage reductions which became effective July 1, 1921, "it is to be understood that the men were permitted to withdraw from the service of their respective companies unless satisfactory settlement can be reached under the laws of the organization."

"The proposition which confronts our members and others," said the trainmen's ballot, "carried with it an attempt to reverse the decision of the United States Railroad Labor Board on the wage reduction now in effect since July 1, or else persuade or compel the railroad companies to reinstate wage rates that the Labor Board decided should be reduced."

The number of active members of the organizations to whom ballots were estimated to be 400,000 firemen and conductors and 100,000 switchmen.

THE "OLD RELIABLE" THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

White Haired Alabama Lady Says She Has Seen Medicines Come and Go But The "Old Reliable" Thedford's Black-Draught Came and Stayed.

Dutton, Ala.—In recommending Thedford's Black-Draught to her friends and neighbors here, Mrs. T. F. Parks, a well-known Jackson County lady, said: "I am getting up in years; my head is pretty white. I have seen medicines and remedies come and go but the old reliable came and stayed. I am talking of Black-Draught, a liver medicine we have used for years—one that can be depended upon and one that will do the work."

"Black-Draught will relieve indigestion and constipation if taken right, and I know for I tried it. It is the best thing I have ever found for the full, uncomfortable feeling after meals. Sour stomach and sick headache can be relieved by taking Black-Draught. It aids digestion, also assists the liver in throwing off impurities. I am glad to recommend Black-Draught, and do, to my friends and neighbors."

Thedford's Black-Draught is a standard household remedy with a record of over seventy years of successful use. Every one occasionally needs something to help cleanse the system of impurities. Try Black-Draught. Insist upon Thedford's, the genuine.

CONCERNING DROUTHS AND CROPS

Baird Star: We do hope the City Council will not again grade the streets of Baird in a hot, dry summer. Some of Baird soil, we are satisfied, is as far north as Jones county, and as far east as Palo Pinto county.

State Press in Dallas News: But it's good business and good for the part of the City Council. The grading work done at the time the workmen needed the city the improvement was disagreeable to sit down on the editorial on the Governor's State as he futile to deter.

the poorest paid farmers on earth.

The Star man was born and reared in a cotton section of Texas, Washington county, but never had much experience as a cotton raiser until after the Civil War, and we got enough in four years to do us, and we quit it cold.

We wish every farmer in the South would do likewise. We are not trying to convey the impression that we still run a farm. We quit the farm for other lines of business near forty years ago, not from choice, but from necessity, in order to educate our children, that the then inadequate country schools could not do. However, our sympathies have always been with the farmers, because we know the hardships of farm life by actual experience—not learned from books or town farmers. That is why we want them to raise crops most profitable to themselves, not because it may be most profitable to others.

The Cisco American, a new weekly newspaper published at Cisco has been received at The Star office. It is published by the American Printing Company, K. W. H. Kennon, Editor and Manager. The American is a newsy paper, well printed and shows that experienced men are in control. The Star wishes the new paper abundant success.

LANEY, OF DALLAS, FLAYS NEFF

Charles O. Laney, representing Dallas county in the State Legislature, mailed his resignation to Governor Neff during the closing days of the late called session, giving urgent personal business as his reason for resigning.

His action with a news-ter Mr. Laney said he use in going to the Governor's State as he futile to deter.

THE MARKETS

Supplied by the Bureau of Markets, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 25, 1921.
Quotation for week ending August 22, 1921:

GRAIN—Chicago September wheat closed at $1.14, a loss of 7 3/4c for the week. Closing at $1.14. On the 15th $1.14, close inclined toward buying, but sentiment here general from the 15th to the 20th of corn sold at new lows on delivery. Main depressing influences were the discouraging business reports holding sentiment in coarse grains, stocks and foreign exchange. On the 20th and 21st September wheat advanced 1/2c to $1.14. Sentiment is now mixed but there is general belief that further liquidation is inevitable despite liberal export business. Visible supply wheat 58,502,000 bushels, a decrease of 63,000 bushels for the week; visible supply corn 8,909,000 bushels, a decrease of 2,020,000 bushels. For the week, Minneapolis September wheat lost $ 1-4c, closing at $1.24 1-4; Kansas City September down 3c at $1.07; Winnipeg October down 1/2c at $1.37 1-2. No. 2 red winter wheat closed at $1.19 1-4; No. 2 hard $1.19 1-4; No. 2 mixed corn $1 1-2c; No. 2 yellow $1 1-2c; No. 2 white oats 30 3-4c.

DAIRY PRODUCTS—Butter receipts weak and prices have declined during the past seven days. Production showing slight increase following more favorable weather conditions in some producing sections. Recent high prices have apparently hurt consumptive demand. Closing prices: New York, Philadelphia and Boston 41c; Chicago 38c.

HAY—Prices declined heavily under increased receipts in western markets. Recent advances at Chicago and Cincinnati, also lost. Supply of hay full; demand light. Alfalfa and prairie hay steady but movement good. Practically no shipping demand. No. 1 alfalfa Atlanta $28, Memphis $22, Cincinnati $22, No. 1 prairie St. Louis $15, Chicago $17, Minneapolis $14.50.

FEED—Few changes in prices of feedstuffs. Bran was the only weak feature, other feeds steady. Demand light. Buyers indifferent account generally favorable weather for crops and lower prices current for grains. High protein feeds situation considered fairly strong. Old crop cottonseed meal stocks light; a heavy volume of new crop meal not expected until October 1st. Export demand for oil cake reported slightly improved. Alfalfa meal dull, prices steady. Corn feeds fairly firm but in poor request except for immediate and prompt shipment. Quoted Aug. 22: Bran $18.75, middlings $18.50; Minneapolis; Gluten feed $20.50; Chicago $25.71 delivered Philadelphia rate points; white hominy feed $24; St. Louis, $22; Chicago; No. 1 alfalfa meal $19.50; Kansas City $20.50; St. Louis $20.50.

AND MEATS—Cattle and hogs declined slightly.

DIRIGIBLE EXPLODES; FORTY-FOUR KILLED

HAD BEEN SAILING FOR THIRTY HOURS—NEAR END OF TRIAL FLIGHT.

London.—The ZR-2, the gigantic airship constructed for the United States Navy, lies in the Humber River near Hull, a colossal and appalling wreck of what was the greatest dirigible the world has ever seen.

Of the forty-nine officers and men on board the great airship, only five—four British and one American—survive to tell the story of the mid-air tragedy which came at the close of the final test flight before she was to sail for America. Seventeen Americans, according to an official statement by the British Air Ministry, were aboard the ZR-2, and of these all but Norman Walker, a rigger, perished.

For thirty hours the ZR-2 had sailed the air lanes above England and the North Sea. Wireless reports from her officers told of her "splendid work" in the air. The trip was coming to an end and the ZR-2 had reached a point directly over the city of Hull, eagerly followed by the eyes of thousands who gathered on Victoria pier to see the maneuvers, when there was a tremendous explosion which rocked the entire town, sweeping pedestrians from their feet, crashing the plate glass from shop windows and sending the shock of its detonation fully fifty miles.

The stupefied spectators saw the great bag, which had just emerged from the clouds, burst asunder and sink into the river. Two little clouds separated themselves from the falling ship. These were parachutes which were to save the survivors to earth. They landed with the sea.

As the tide rose, the water rowboatmen were attracted to the river.

Two mothers names, I shall give the name and baby, too," and Mae Edmond hurried to tell Munsy about it. A smile and then a few tears, and a hug for little Anastasia Mae was grandma's means of telling them how happy she was.
