

Club Men Select 'Man of the Year'

By a unanimous vote, Mayor B. H. Freeland was acclaimed "Man of the Year" by members of the Callahan County Club at the regular luncheon meeting which was held in the basement of the First Methodist Church Wednesday. Voting was carried out in popular style with each member writing the name of the man whom he deemed most qualified to claim this honor. The clubmen voted solidly in favor of Mayor Freeland, and gave loud applause at the report of the counting judges.

There were no nominating speeches to turn the minds of the voters toward any certain individual, but voting for Mayor Freeland came from the heart of each one. It was by no coincidence that Freeland received the solid approval of the club for this honor. His good work for the town's welfare spoke for him louder, perhaps, than a dozen fine speeches.

Mayor Freeland has been a worker for the civic betterment of Baird and Callahan County for many years. During the many years that he was a member of the county commissioners court, and while he was county judge, he worked hard for all worthwhile projects from which the county as a whole has derived great benefit.

At the present time Mayor Freeland is serving his second term as mayor of Baird. In this capacity, he has given of his time and money to help the town. He has worked untiringly and unselfishly for Baird's best interests. Baird has had the benefit of Mayor Freeland's knowledge of civic problems gained from his years of experience and the outstanding good that he has done for this city is known by all who are civic-minded.

The "Man of the Year" title has been properly given to Mayor Freeland, and the citizenship of the town joins members of the luncheon club in hearty approval of the selection that has been made.

Two Lions Seen East of Baird

Residents of this area have been on "needles and pins" since Monday when news was spread that two lions had been seen in the rough mountainous area some 10 miles east of Baird. The Texas & Pacific section crew saw a big lion resting between the rails, near the old Clark place, when they rode near him in their motor car early Monday morning. They stopped the car and watched the lion get up and leisurely trot away to the south side of the railroad track. Another lion was seen to descend from its resting place in the brush and both of them disappeared in rough country.

As quick as the word could be sent out, ranchmen of that area formed hunting parties with dogs and have been searching for the lions all this week. More than a hundred men have been in the groups of hunters, but no favorable reports have come in.

Those who saw the lions described them as being big and like those seen in zoos and circuses. No animal shows have been appearing in this territory in some time, and where the lions came from is a mystery. Residents of the county have been somewhat disturbed at the report of lions roaming the hills at large, and every effort is being made by hunters to find the beasts and put a stop to the suspense.

GIRL SCOUT FILM ADDED ATTRACTION AT PLAZA

One of the year's most important short subjects, "Women of Tomorrow," will be the added attraction at the Plaza Theatre on Tuesday. The value of this two-reel film, produced by Warner Bros. in cooperation with the Girl Scouts of the United States of America, lies in its portrayal of the character building methods of the Girl Scout organization. In picturesque Print by Technicolor sequences, the camera captures all phases of the Scout program for the varied age groups which participate in it.

The Brownies, comprised of girls ranging in age from seven to ten, are indoctrinated with the ideals which will help them to become good Scouts and conscientious and worthwhile citizens. They learn that as members of a family there are certain things which they are expected to do for the ease and welfare of their parents, brothers and sisters. In terms a child can understand they learn the purpose and fun of being useful and cheerful.

'Just Round About'

As we walked up and down the street * * * We dropped in at the blacksmith shop, recently purchased from C. J. Ault by J. C. and J. E. Veach. Larmer Henry was having some repair work done, and while the Veach brothers worked, Mr. Henry told us about his ranch in South Dakota. He is sold on that country with its fine grass lands and rolling hills. Says his cattle winter there about as well as they do down here, and very little feeding is necessary * * * The Veach brothers repaired a water pump that had been damaged by freezing, and, when finished it worked like new. Seeing their good work, we gave them a broken part to our press and asked them to make one like it. The result was that the part performed its work better than the original, and we were well pleased * * * Looking around the blacksmith shop, we saw a number of plow sweeps that had been made like new. The Veaches not only sharpen them, they rebuild them. At the work bench they were making a stock for a gun. We left feeling like the Veach brothers were not only blacksmiths, but first class mechanics at their trade. Baird people are always glad to know when skilled craftsmen move into town and open up shop, and we welcome them here * * * Raymond Foy of Dallas was visiting the old home town, and stopped us to say he could see some striking changes in Baird. He predicted that we would hardly know Baird in another few years. He commented with pride on work now being done to attract industries to this locality, the building of the new lake, the new grammar school building, highways, the oil play, and other advantages * * * Miss John Gilliland, Baird's popular postmaster, was stowing around to get off on a trip to California with a group of Baird folk. It will be Miss John's first vacation since she became postmaster in March 1935, and her many friends are wishing for her a delightful trip. Perhaps she will give the Baird Star a complete writeup of the jaunt after the party returns so everyone can enjoy reading about the adventure * * * Bob Swinson, who forsook his barber chair for a few days last year to take his first vacation in Oklahoma, is still telling about the wonderful trip he had * * * A. G. Black, secretary of Callahan County Farmers Co-op, was attending to business at the Baird store * * * J. Brice Jones, mail carrier on Baird Route One, is doing considerable repair work at his home place * * * The Austin stone trimmings at the Jackson home has made it very attractive * * * W. E. Nabers was finishing out a dining table in his woodwork shop, located on the new highway. Mr. Nabers is a master at the art of working with wood, and his handiwork can be seen in many homes in Baird in the form of furniture, doors, what-nots, cabinets, and other items * * * When the folks want something made, they draw a picture and Mr. Nabers does it even better than they had it pictured.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Clappitt and children, Alena and Carol, visited relatives in Abilene Sunday.

Cherry Ruth Greeson, Paul Conlin Wed

Directors Chosen For Industry Plan

A board of directors for Callahan County Club to be in charge of the program of industrial development in Baird, was elected at the luncheon on Wednesday. The seven man board is composed of Ace Hickman, Tom Barton, Jay Ashlock, Rupert Jackson, Marvin Hunter, Ben L. Russell, and the club president, Ray Black.

The nominating committee was composed of Bob Norrell, Leslie Bryant, and Will D. Boydston.

With Baird's new lake water system nearing completion, the club is beginning a program to attract industries to this locality. Some $600 per month has been pledged by business firms and individuals of the town with which to support the industrial program. A man is to be employed to bring new business to Baird. It is believed there are numerous small industries that would locate here if their owners knew that Baird has a dependable water supply, and that other advantages such as labor, transportation, communication, fuel, power, climate, building sites, were here for them.

Club members believe that such a program will bring new business to Baird and help materially to increase the town's growth.

Eula Farmer Has Secret For Productivity in Sandy Land

By Aubrey Shouse
Abilene Reporter-News

EULA — Cecil B. Harris, 53, farming south of Eula, has a secret to bringing deep sandy land back into cultivation and production.

Here's all you have to do: Take about 27 years out of your life, clear off the various breeds of oak and brush, plant 1,000 pecan trees and 20 acres of grapes, and then go making a living elsewhere while the trees and vines grow enough to produce.

Harris' 240 acres of land, two miles south of the Eula school, was settled by his family in 1898. It was good land but covered by solid brush. Harris' father built a house — which could not be seen for the thickets — and worked for 15 years clearing land acre by acre. By renting outside land, the family made a living.

But in the process, the lack of conservation and crop rotation, the shinnery-like sand became non-productive.

When Harris was discharged from the service in 1918, he returned to Callahan County and the farm. After serving with the 65th heavy artillery for 15 months in France, farming seemed a little slow. And facing the type of farming he had in Callahan County was not encouraging.

He sweated it out for a while and then decided to make an investment in the future. He planted 1,000 native pecan seed in a nursery block, and after they came up, transplanted them in the fields and budded them with paper-shelled Burketts. That was in 1923 and the trees are now 27 years old and still young.

The Harris family gathered about 6,000 pounds of pecans off the trees in 1949 — one of the good years — and Harris says a 50 to 60 year old tree is the heaviest producer. The 1950 crop was a complete fizzle — due to the weather — but the trees put on a good growth and Harris feels the year off helped as much as it hurt.

Of the Harris farm's 240 acres, 70 acres are in pecan trees, 20 acres in grapes, 5 acres in apples, and several peach trees are sprinkled among the others.

The trees are planted about 50 feet apart, but Harris says if he had to do it over again, he would spread them out more to cut down the competition for moisture. About 70 feet is good spacing, he said.

Harris was at a disadvantage in 1923 when he started his pecan orchard. He did not know of vetch and rye. Today he does and is a great believer in the use of the two soil builders. The area between trees and between rows of grape vines is a mat of vetch. When the trees start to bud, he chops the vegetation on the surface of the ground, cutting out moisture competition and giving the trees a plant food high in nitrogen content.

Harris has brought the old land back. For 15 years, he says, the land was mined with nothing returned for the future. It did well those 15 years, but when all the plant food was gone, the sand refused to produce. His system has been a long, expensive process of land conservation.

For the newcomer, he says: "Start with new land and take care of it. It is easier to keep a well man well, than waiting for him to get sick and then thinking of his health."

The Harrisses, who have no children, adopted Wanda, 6, and Billy, 8, two years ago. Billy is in the Eula third grade. "Needless to say," Harris stated, "life hasn't been the same."

Hybrid Corn Contest

All farmers and 4-H Club boys and FFA boys are eligible to compete in the Texas Hybrid Corn Contest for this year. The state is divided into four areas and there will be five prizes in each of the areas. The prizes will be $50.00, $35.00, $25.00, $10.00 and $5.00 in each area. Callahan County is in area number one and will compete against counties south, north, and west of it, but no counties east of here.

A minimum of one acre is required to enter the contest and the prizes are awarded on the basis of the largest per acre yield. All contestants must enroll with the county agent and must plant a Texas corn hybrid.

Seed, Fertilizer and Insecticides
Reports from over the state show that there is a definite shortage of cottonseed for planting, fertilizers of all kinds, and insecticides. Callahan County farmers can still get some good Certified Delinted cotton seed through local dealers who have some 7,500 pounds available. There is also some good second year seed located on farms in the county.

The fertilizer situation looks worse now than at this time a month ago, according to all reports. Buying a part of your fertilizer supplies now will open up storage space needed to keep the fertilizer plants working.

The increased acreage in cotton this year and the fact that farmers want to produce more cotton per acre are the reasons that insecticides are becoming scarce. At the present time the recommended cotton insecticides are available in Callahan County at a good price. It would probably be a wise move for a farmer to get part of his insecticide supply laid in now while it is cheap if he plans to do any cotton poisoning.

'Shrine of Liberty' At San Antonio Fiesta

Heroes of the Alamo and today's fighting men in the nation's armed services will receive tributes in April when San Antonio, home of Texas' Shrine of Liberty, stages its fifty-sixth annual Fiesta San Jacinto.

Plans for the traditional observances honoring the Alamo's defenders and Sam Houston's fighters at San Jacinto are well under way. Fiesta will be held from April 16 through 21, and as in the past, will be highlighted by spectacular parades and other activities.

Patriotic motifs will feature many events of the week. Significantly, the celebration will open with the traditional solemn Pilgrimage to the Alamo on Monday of Fiesta Week and will close on Saturday night with the spectacular "Fiesta Flambeau," the beautiful illuminated night parade.

The Flambeau has been dedicated as a tribute to today's armed services of America and, appropriately, its theme will be "Blessings of Liberty," a phrase from the preamble to the Constitution of the United States.

The famed Battle of Flowers Parade, annually held on Friday afternoon of Fiesta Week, also has adopted a patriotic theme, "America-Then, Now, Forever." The theme was taken from an Army recruiting poster of World War II which was painted by Co. Thomas B. Woodburn, public information officer at Headquarters Fourth Army, Fort Sam Houston.

"America On Parade" will be the theme of the unique river pageant which will mark the opening of the festive aspect of Fiesta Week — after the solemn Pilgrimage to the Alamo. The river event will mark the arrival of King Antonio, who will head a royal river fleet as he makes his official entry into the city. It is staged by the Texas Cavaliers.

A booklet on Fiesta San Jacinto may be obtained by writing to Fiesta San Jacinto Assn., 203 Insurance Bldg., San Antonio 5, Texas.

Stand Against Bill Expressed

AUSTIN — A strong stand against the Graham Bill to divert from the counties their share of the state gasoline tax was expressed today by Senator Wayne Wagonceller of Stoneburg.

Senator Wagonceller said the bill, which now is in a House committee, would seriously endanger the economics of the counties in his district by taking away from them more than $200,000 a year they otherwise would receive.

Records in the County and District Road Bond Indebtedness Board show that the ten counties in the proposed 22nd Senatorial District last year received $314,922 from the surplus fund and this year will get $355,936, Senator Wagonceller said.

The House committee on Highways and Roads voted the Graham Bill out of the committee with a recommendation that it do not pass. However, by a suspension of the House Rules, the disputed bill was revived and sent to an entirely new committee, therefore, is very much alive.

"If this Bill ever passes the House and is sent to the Senate, I will do all in my power to defeat it," the Senator declared. "Not only would it seriously cripple the county governments, but it also would slow down the rural road program all over the State."

Senator Wagonceller pointed out that the Graham Bill would kill the $15,000,000 annual allocation now made to the State Highway Department for farm-to-market road construction.

"Proponents of the bill contend that in the years to come the Department will get back up to that $15,000,000 annual level, but what I want to see are more rural roads built now, not just a dozen years from now," the Senator explained.

The Senator attended the House committee hearing on the bill and heard it thoroughly discussed by witnesses before the committee.

"If I had needed convincing before, then the testimony at that hearing would have convinced me beyond any doubt that the Graham Bill should not pass," Senator Wagonceller said.

The Senator listed the amount which the counties in his district will receive in 1951 from the road bond assumption surplus as follows: Denton, $53,120; Jack, $26,200; Montague, $39,482; Palo Pinto, $28,161; Parker, $38,009; Wise, $41,727; Clay, $37,557; Stephens, $21,947; Eastland, $40,690 and Callahan, $29,043.

"By a precedent of 19 years under a law first passed in 1931, the counties are fully entitled to that money to pay off road bonds and work on rural roads," he contended. "If the Graham Bill takes it away from them, then the only place to make it up will be by raising property taxes in the counties. And that, I certainly will oppose vigorously."

Mrs. B. H. Freeland and her mother, Mrs. Coppinger of Cross Plains, Mrs. Aubrey Gibson and Mrs. Ashby White visited in Odessa last week.

IT OUGHT TO BE A LAW

With the city election coming up, we have heard it said on a number of occasions that every businessman in our town should be compelled to serve on the city council for at least two terms during his lifetime. With this we heartily agree, but we would add a phrase to the effect that his term should be served while he is yet in the early part of his life. Then, for the balance of his years, he would look upon the efforts of the city officers with respect, or at least, have a kindly feeling toward those who are serving on the council.

It is not an easy thing to work at the job of mayor or alderman of a growing town. (And who wants to spend his time on the council of a town that is not growing?) A town that is suffering growing pains is in a healthy condition. When we see a town that is growing, we can look closer and see that there is a cause for its growth. In almost every instance the growth of a town can be traced to a wide awake city council which has the confidence and support of the citizenship.

Baird is a growing town today. For many years, it did not grow, as can be verified by a glance at the census figures. With the water problem solved, and numerous other assets that Baird can now claim, prospects are bright for rapid progress to be seen here in the immediate future.

The city election will be held on April 3rd to elect three aldermen for a two year period. There will be only three names printed on the ballot. There will also be three blank lines printed thereon. This will give the voter the opportunity to mark out any or all three names, and write the names of his favorite candidates if he wishes to do so. The three names appearing on the ballots are Tom B. Barton, F. E. Neel and Russell L. Warren. Mr. Barton is running for his second term. All three of these candidates are in business here, and are well qualified to conduct the city's business. They are the type that will give their valuable time and effort and thought to promote the best interests of the city.

Millions Of Flies Cause Illness and Death To Thousands Of People Each Year

AUSTIN — Millions of flies help to cause illness and death to thousands of children and adults each year in the United States. Hundreds of these casualties may be in Texas this year if residents fail in their responsibility for developing the best possible sanitation measures in the area where they reside. Typhoid fever, summer complaint and other intestinal diseases can be traced to the common housefly as the carrier of the infection.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, speaking in this connection, recently said, "Be sure that windows and doors are tightly screened so that stray flies from a careless neighbor will not endanger your family. Be sure that flies are kept away from food, drink and utensils used in the preparation of food. Make sure, if you live in rural districts, that outside privy vaults are tightly covered so as not to permit the entrance of flies.

"Infections from this source can be picked up and spread to human beings through contact with food, drink and utensils. Keep all garbage covered until collected or buried. Eliminate all breeding places for flies and you will be helping your community in its work of controlling communicable diseases and preventing unnecessary illness."

Now is the time to do away with the winter's accumulation of trash. Clean up and stay clean is a good slogan for communities and individual citizens.

GIVEN VOTE OF CONFIDENCE BY FARMERS AND RANCHERS

FORT WORTH—Grass, man's best tool for anchoring soil against erosion, was given a sound vote of confidence during 1950 by Texas farmers and ranchers.

Increased respect for this weapon against soil and water waste is reflected by last year's seed harvest, which shows 746,599 pounds of native grass seed harvested by Texas farmers and ranchers, it was pointed out by Louis P. Merrill, Soil Conservation Service regional director.

Leading the native grass seed harvest parade in Texas were little bluestem (400,325 pounds), and blue grama (202,410 pounds) both warm season forage plants.

The 1950 seed harvest figures, Merrill said, also reflects widely increased use of King Ranch bluestem by conservation-wise farmers and ranchers. It is a deep-rooted introduced perennial grass known for its erosion-resisting and forage qualities and its adaptation to wide extremes of rainfall.

Throughout Texas, a total of 506,537 pounds of King Ranch bluestem seed was harvested, easily a new record seed take for the popular drought and cold resistant grass, the regional director said.

Of the KR seed harvested in Texas last year, 463,082 pounds or about 91 per cent of the statewide harvest were taken from the farms and ranches of soil conservation district cooperators, Merrill said. An additional 8,430 pounds of KR seed were harvested from the Soil Conservation Service nursery at San Antonio and U.S. land utilization project areas.

From Texas' more than 4 1/2 million acres in close-growing, soil-conserving legumes, a total of 25,216,000 pounds of legume seed was harvested during 1950.

Leading in the Texas legume seed harvest was Hubam sweet-clover (11,258,947) pounds, a versatile conservation crop respected for its ability to overcome cotton root rot, decrease soil loss and runoff and improve soil productivity. Second was hairy vetch (10,819,087 pounds), a winter cover crop known as a veritable storehouse of soil nutrients.

The harvest of native and introduced grass seed and legume seed in Texas last year totaled more than 30 million pounds, the regional director said.

"The 1950 seed harvest is a clear indicator that the Texas farmer and rancher is paying increased attention to the use of grasses and legumes as his best weapons in improving the soil and fighting soil and water waste," Merrill said.

Baird In 55-Area County Area Of Price Stabilization; Office At Fort Worth

FORT WORTH — Baird is in the 53-county area of West Texas which will be served by the new District Office of Price Stabilization now open in Fort Worth, Acting Director Ellis H. Boyd announced.

The immediate effort of the Fort Worth OPS office is to inform the public and affected businesses of the details of the General Ceiling Price Regulation issued on January 26 and subsequent amendments.

"It is important that all businessmen realize that their prices are frozen by the regulation unless their type of business is specifically exempt," Mr. Boyd said. "Many businessmen seem to be waiting to comply until they are told that their business is regulated, but in most cases they already are affected by the order."

Two important amendments to the regulation, Mr. Boyd pointed out, give retailers until March 22 to compile statements showing their highest costs and selling prices of all items during the base period of last December 19 to January 25, and place most goods sold in department stores, furniture stores, and men and women's apparel stores under a "margin" pricing formula based on mark-ups of February 24.

Copies of the General Ceiling

Price Regulation have been forwarded to the Callahan County Club and are available to businessmen who should study them in detail, Mr. Boyd said.

"It is hoped that business men will take steps to comply with the regulations immediately in order to preclude enforcement action," said Acting Price Specialist Richard A. Martin in Ft. Worth.

The tentative 53-county district served by the Fort Worth OPS office is bounded on the north by the Red River from Hardeman County on the west to Cooke County on the east. Crockett County forms the southwest corner of the district and Lampasas County is the southeast corner.

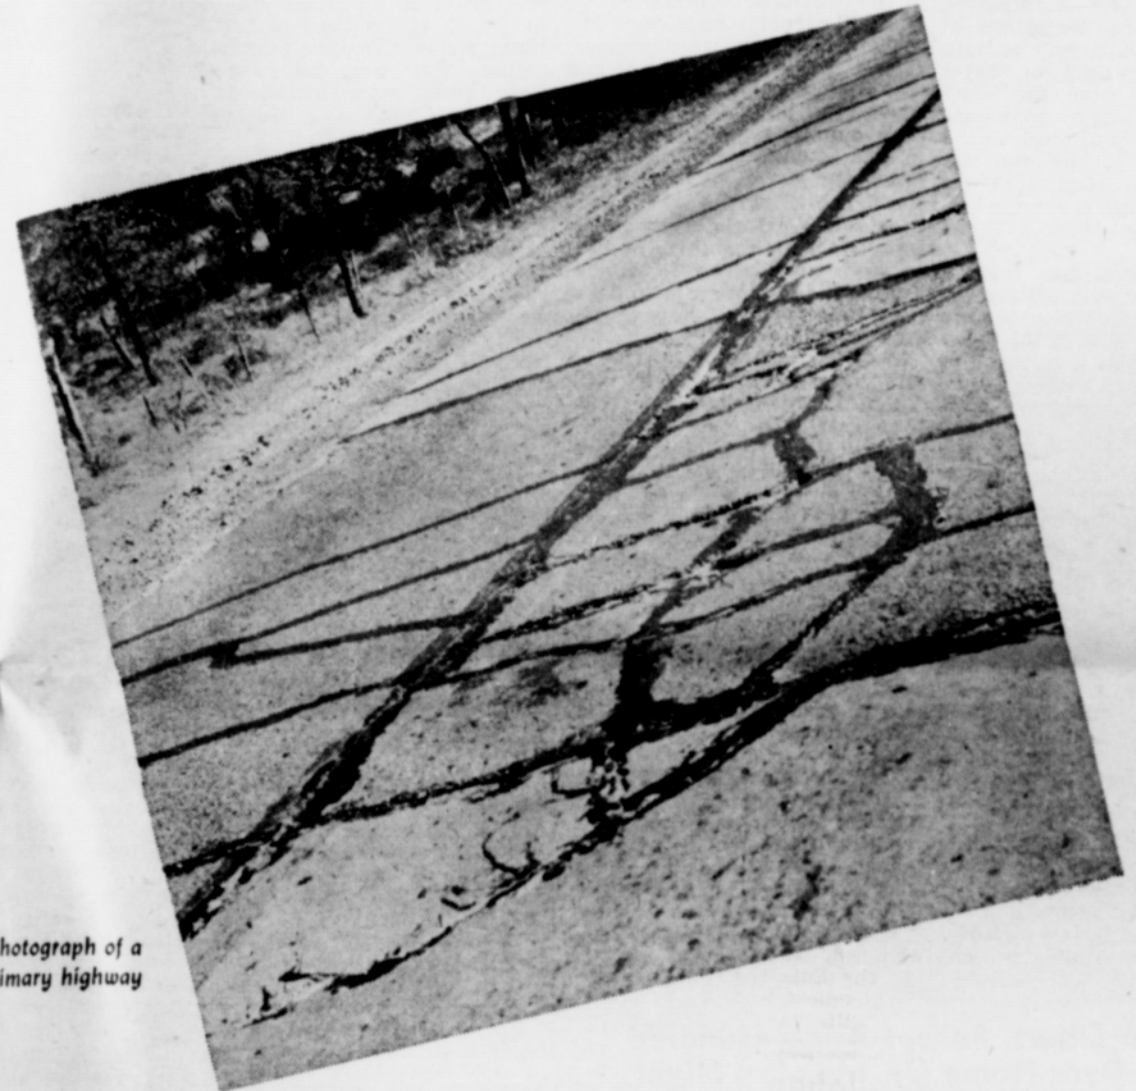

We enjoyed a visit with Mrs. Earl Johnson of Abilene last Thursday, when she came by The Star office to renew her paper for another year.

Recent photograph of a Texas primary highway

$115,282,344

Damaged highways, such as the Texas highway shown in this picture, are a hazard to the safe operation of automobiles, farm trucks and other motor vehicles.

It costs three times as much to build roads that will withstand the loads of big trucks now being operated over them than it does for the smaller trucks and automobiles.

Latest records show $115,282,344 was spent on Texas highways for the year ending August 31, 1950.

A bill sponsored by the big truck operators is before the Texas Legislature. This bill proposes . . .

- (1) to increase the load limit from the present 48,000 pounds to 72,000 pounds, and
- (2) to increase the maximum truck length from 45 feet to 50 feet.

Recent official highway tests at La Plata, Md., sponsored by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, the highway departments of eleven states and the District of Columbia, effectively demonstrated that as trucks increased in size and loads, roads cracked up and "died" more quickly.

We need to safeguard our highways for Civilian and Military use. "Increased heavy loading might seriously disrupt the effectiveness of essential routes in the event of an all-out war," according to T. J. Kauer, director of the Ohio Highway Department and Chairman of the La Plata road test committee.

The big truckers want the taxpayers to continue providing expensive highways for them to use as "rights-of-way" for their own, selfish, personal gain.

THIS IS A TUG-OF-WAR BETWEEN THE BIG TRUCKERS AND THE TAXPAYERS OF TEXAS!

Automobiles and small trucks do not require extra strong, extra costly highways. The truth is, that the big truckers are putting the "pinch" on the pocketbooks of the Texas taxpayers.

When Nasty Colds Leave You WEAK AND RUNDOWN HADACOL CAN HELP

If Your System Lacks Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron, Which HADACOL Contains

When a nasty cold leaves you in a weakened and run-down condition, HADACOL can help build you up if your system is lacking in Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron, important elements contained in HADACOL. Many folks have found that this fine family formula helps overcome these deficiencies and soon they feel good again.

Mrs. A. Jimenez, 141 East 13th St., Port Arthur, Texas, gave HADACOL to her young son, Floyd, after he had recovered from a bad cold when she heard how HADACOL was helping folks suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron. It helped him so much in regaining his strength and energy that Mrs. Jimenez says she is always going to have HADACOL on hand for Floyd.

Here is Mrs. Jimenez's statement: "My son Floyd was very subject to colds. He's eleven years old, and he was run-down, didn't seem to have an appetite at all, and just simply lacked energy. I heard about HADACOL on the radio, and it was about this time that Floyd was just recovering from a siege of a bad cold.

He was very run-down, lacked an appetite, and I started giving him HADACOL. After about a bottle and a half I could notice an improvement. His appetite picked up and he had increased strength. I think HADACOL has done wonders for Floyd, and can't praise it enough. I have continued to give him HADACOL and intend to always have it on hand for Floyd."

Floyd Jimenez

Men, women and children of all ages are praising HADACOL for supplying Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron which their systems lacked. Don't let that "After-Cold Run-down Feeling" drag you down—HADACOL can help you, too, if you suffer such deficiencies. Sold on a strict money-back guarantee. You'll feel great after the first few bottles you take or your money back. Trial size, $1.25; large family economy size, $3.50.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
A. A. Davis, Pastor

We were pleased on last Sunday to note the increase in Sunday School and preaching attendance, thanks to a subsiding measles epidemic, which during its stay among us wrought havoc, however, there were no fatalities that we know of.

In the absence of the pastor next Sunday, Dr. Millard A. Jenkins will preach at both morning and evening services. Dr. Jenkins, for 37 years pastor of First Baptist Church in Abilene, now retired, has recently conducted two fine revival meetings in the city of El Paso. He is always evangelistic, scholarly and scripturally exact in his preaching and we always consider it a privilege to have him come this way. Please avail yourself of the privilege and attend our services Sunday.

Mrs. Buford Tyson, Euel Tyson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vought and Martha Fay Roberson visited relatives at Knox City Sunday.

Mrs. Dorothy Oliver visited her husband at Camp Hood the past weekend.

Mrs. Martie N. Webb, lovingly called Grandmother Webb by so many around here, has been spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Malin and family at Amarillo. She sends her love and best wishes to her friends at Midway, Baird and Clyde.

Mrs. J. H. Carpenter of Dudley and her daughter, Mrs. John Loven, of Dudley, and Mrs. L. E. Floyd, of Midland, visited Mrs. Mae Florence Friday morning. Mrs. Carpenter recently fell and broke her arm in two places.

Gaston Wylie, of Ozona, visited his mother, Mrs. Tom Wylie, the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kemper, of Denton Valley, were business visitors here Friday.
